Muhammad Asad	50:32 This is what you were promised - [promised] unto every one who was wont to turn unto God and to keep Him always in mind
Rashad Khalifa	50:32 This is what was promised to every repentor, steadfast.
Shabbir Ahmed	50:32 This is what you were promised. It is for everyone who turned to God and protected himself from straying. ⁹
Transliteration	50:32 Hatha ma tooAAadoona likulliawwabin hafeethin
A	50:32 هذا ما توعدون لكل اواب حفيظ
	50:33 The one who feared the Gracious while unseen, and came with a repenting

Edip-Layth	heart
The Monotheist Group	50:33 The one who feared the Almighty while unseen, and came with a repenting heart
Muhammad Asad	50:33 [everyone] who stood in awe of the Most Gracious although He is beyond the reach of human perception, and who has come [unto Him] with a heart full of contrition. ²³
Rashad Khalifa	50:33 They revered the Most Gracious, in their privacy, and came wholeheartedly.
Shabbir Ahmed	50:33 And who fears (violating the laws of) the Beneficent even in privacy, and comes with a humble heart. ¹⁰
Transliteration	50:33 Man khashiya alRrahmanabialghaybi wajaa biqalbin muneebin
A	50:33 من خشى الرحمن بالغيب وجاء بقلب منيب
Edip-Layth	50:34 Enter it in peace. This is the day of eternal life.
The Monotheist Group	50:34 Enter it in peace. This is the Day of eternal life.
Muhammad Asad	50:34 Enter this [paradise] in peace; this is the Day on which life abiding begins!" ²⁴
Rashad Khalifa	50:34 Enter it in peace; this is the Day of Eternity.
Shabbir Ahmed	50:34 Enter this Paradise in peace and security! This is a Day of Eternal Life.
Transliteration	50:34 Odkhulooha bisalamin thalikayawmu alkhuloodi
A	50:34 ادخلوها بسلم ذلك يوم الخلود
Edip-Layth	50:35 In it they will have what they wish, and We have even more.
The Monotheist Group	50:35 In it they will have what they wish, and We have even more.
Muhammad Asad	50:35 In that [paradise] they shall have whatever they may desire - but there is yet more with Us.
Rashad Khalifa	50:35 They get anything they wish therein, and we have even more.
Shabbir Ahmed	50:35 There they have all they desire, and therein is yet more with Us.
Transliteration	50:35 Lahum ma yashaona feehawaladayna mazedun
A	50:35 لهم ما يشاءون فيها ولدينا مزيد
Edip-Layth	50:36 How many a generation before them have We destroyed? They were stronger in power, and they had dominated the land. Did they find any sanctuary?
The Monotheist Group	50:36 And how many a generation before them have We destroyed? They were stronger in power, and they had dominated the land. Did they find any sanctity?
Muhammad Asad	50:36 AND HOW MANY a generation have We destroyed before those [who now deny the truth] ²⁵ people of greater might than theirs; but [when Our chastisement befell them,] they became wanderers on the face of the earth, seeking no more than a place of refuge ²⁶
	50:36 Many a generation before them, who were more powerful, we annihilated.

Rashad Khalifa	They searched the land; did they find an escape?
Shabbir Ahmed	50:36 (This is the Law of Requitul in operation.) And how many a generation We annihilated before them, of greater might than theirs! But, then they wandered on the face of the earth asking, "Is there a place of refuge?"
Transliteration	50:36 Wakam ahlakn a qablahum min qarnin humashaddu minhum ba t shan fanaqqaboo fee albil adi halmin ma hees in
A	50:36 وكم اهلكنا قبلهم من قرن هم اشد منهم بطشا فنقبوا في البلد هل من محيص
Edip-Layth	50:37 In this is a reminder for whoever has a heart, or cares to listen while he is heedful.
The Monotheist Group	50:37 In that is a reminder for whoever has a heart, or cares to listen while he is heedful.
Muhammad Asad	50:37 In this, behold, there is indeed a reminder for everyone whose heart is wide-awake ²⁷ -that is, [everyone who] lends ear with a conscious mind - ²⁸
Rashad Khalifa	50:37 This should be a lesson for everyone who possesses a mind, or is able to hear and witness.
Shabbir Ahmed	50:37 Therein is a reminder for him who has a heart and listens with presence of mind. ¹¹
Transliteration	50:37 Inna fee thalika lathik ra l i man ka na lahu qalbun aw alq a alssamAAawahuwa shaheed un
A	50:37 ان في ذلك لذكرى لمن كان له قلب او القى السمع وهو شهيد
Edip-Layth	50:38 We have created the heavens, the earth and what is between them in six days, and no fatigue touched Us.
The Monotheist Group	50:38 And We have created the heavens and the Earth and what is between them in six days, and no fatigue touched Us.
Muhammad Asad	50:38 and [who knows that] We have indeed created the heavens and the earth and all that is between them in six aeons, and [that] no weariness could ever touch Us. ²⁹
Rashad Khalifa	50:38 We have created the heavens and the earth, and everything between them in six days, and no fatigue touched us.
Shabbir Ahmed	50:38 And (who believes that) for sure, We created the heavens and earth, and all that is between them, in six stages, and weariness did not even touch Us. ¹²
Transliteration	50:38 Walaqad khalaqn a a Issamawatiwa al -ar da wa m a baynahum a fee sittatiyya min wama na massana na min lughoo bin
A	50:38 ولقد خلقنا السموت والارض وما بينهما في ستة ايام وما مسنا من لغوب
Edip-Layth	50:39 So be patient to what they are saying, and glorify the grace of your Lord before the rising of the sun and before the setting.
The Monotheist Group	50:39 So be patient to what they are saying, and glorify the grace of your Lord before the rising of the sun and before the setting.
Muhammad Asad	50:39 HENCE, [O believer,] bear thou with patience what ever they may say, ³⁰ and extol thy Sustainer's limit less glory and praise before the rising of the sun and before its setting; ³¹

Rashad Khalifa	50:39 Therefore, be patient in the face of their utterances, and praise and glorify your Lord before sunrise, and before sunset.
Shabbir Ahmed	50:39 So, bear with patience whatever they say. And strive to establish the glory and praise of your Lord, from before sunrise to before sunset. ¹³
Transliteration	50:39 Faiṣbir AAal a m ayaqooloona wasabbi ḥ bi ḥamdi rabbika qabla ṭulooAAialshshamsi waqabla alghuroobi
A	50:39 فاصبر على ما يقولون وسبح بحمد ربك قبل طلوع الشمس وقبل الغروب
Edip-Layth	50:40 From the night glorify Him, and after prostrating.
The Monotheist Group	50:40 And from the night glorify Him, and after prostrating.
Muhammad Asad	50:40 and in the night, too, extol His glory, and at every prayer's end. ³²
Rashad Khalifa	50:40 During the night you shall meditate on His name, and after prostrating.
Shabbir Ahmed	50:40 And at night too, do your best, therefore, all humanity will come to adore Him. ¹⁴
Transliteration	50:40 Wamina allayli fasabbi ḥhu waadbaraalssujoodi
A	50:40 ومن الليل فسبحه وادبر السجود
Edip-Layth	50:41 Listen to the day when the caller will call from a near place.
The Monotheist Group	50:41 And listen to the Day when the caller will call from a near place.
Muhammad Asad	50:41 And [always] listen for the day when He who issues the call [of death] shall call [thee] from close-by; ³³
Rashad Khalifa	50:41 Prepare for the day when the caller calls from a place that is near.
Shabbir Ahmed	50:41 And the day is coming when a caller will call from close-by. ¹⁵
Transliteration	50:41 WaistamiAA yawma yunadi almunadimin makanin qareebin
A	50:41 واستمع يوم يناد المناد من مكان قريب
Edip-Layth	50:42 The day they hear the scream with truth. That is the day of coming out.
The Monotheist Group	50:42 The Day they hear the scream with truth. That is the Day of coming out.
Muhammad Asad	50:42 [and bethink thyself, too, of] the Day on which all [human beings] will in truth hear the final blast - that Day of [their] coming-forth [from death].
Rashad Khalifa	50:42 When they hear the inevitable cry; that is the day you come out.
Shabbir Ahmed	50:42 The day on which they will hear the real battle-cry. That is the day of coming forth (along with your companions, O Prophet).
Transliteration	50:42 Yawma yasmaAAoona alssayḥatabialḥaqqi ṭhalika yawmu alkhurooji
A	50:42 يوم يسمعون الصيحة بالحق ذلك يوم الخروج
Edip-Layth	50:43 We are the Ones who give life and bring death, and to Us is the destiny.

The Monotheist Group	50:43 We are the Ones who give life and bring death, and to Us is the destiny.
Muhammad Asad	50:43 Verily, it is We who grant life and deal death; and with Us will be all journeys' end
Rashad Khalifa	50:43 We are the ones who control life and death; to us is the final destiny.
Shabbir Ahmed	50:43 Surely, it is We Who grant life and dispense death, and to us is the destination. 16
Transliteration	50:43 Inna nahnu nuhyeewanumeetu wa-ilayna almasseeru
A	50:43 انا نحن نحى ونميت والينا المصير
Edip-Layth	50:44 The day when the earth will rapidly crumble away from them; that will be a gathering which is easy for Us.
The Monotheist Group	50:44 The Day when the Earth will rapidly crumble away from them; that will be a gathering which is easy for Us.
Muhammad Asad	50:44 on the Day when the earth is riven asunder all around them as they hasten forth [towards God's judgment]: that gathering will be easy for Us [to encompass].
Rashad Khalifa	50:44 The day will come when the earth cracks in a hurry, giving rise to them. Such summoning is easy for us to do.
Shabbir Ahmed	50:44 On that day, the earth will split asunder before them. This assembling of the forces is easy for Us.
Transliteration	50:44 Yawma tashaqqaqu al-ar du AAanhum sir aAAanthalika hashrun AAalayn a yaseerun
A	50:44 يوم تشقق الارض عنهم سراعا ذلك حشر علينا يسير
Edip-Layth	50:45 We are totally aware of what they say, and you are not to be a tyrant over them. So remind with the Quran those who fear My promise.
The Monotheist Group	50:45 We are totally aware of what they say, and you are not to be a tyrant over them. So remind with the Qur'an those who fear My promise.
Muhammad Asad	50:45 Fully aware are We of what they [who deny resurrection] do say; and thou canst by no means force them [to believe in it]. Yet none the less, remind, through this Qur'an, all such as may fear My warning.
Rashad Khalifa	50:45 We are fully aware of everything they utter, while you have no power over them. Therefore, remind with this Quran, those who reverence My warnings.
Shabbir Ahmed	50:45 We know full well what they say, but you shall not, by any means, force them (to believe). However, remind with this Qur'an, any who would fear My warning!
Transliteration	50:45 Nahnu aAalamu bim a yaqooloonawam a anta AAalayhim bijabb arin fathakkir bialqur-animan yakhafu waAAeedi
A	50:45 نحن اعلم بما يقولون وما انت عليهم بجبار فذكر بالقرآن من يخاف وعيد

<< Prev 50:1-45 Next >>

End Notes

Edip-Layth - Quran: A Reformist Translation

Edip-Layth - End Note 1 (50:1)

Q100. This letter/number plays an important role in the mathematical system of the Quran based on code 19. For the meaning of this letter, see 74:1-56; 1:1; 2:1; 13:38; 27:82; 38:1-8; 40:28-38; 46:10; 72:28. 050:038 This verse refers to the distortion in the Old Testament, Genesis 2:2, and Exodus 31:17. However, in Deuteronomy 5:6-18, God tells the Israelites to remember the Sabbath because He liberated them from slavery. In Deuteronomy, there is no mention of God "resting," and thus it is in harmony with the Quran. For the evolutionary creation of the universe, see 41:9-10.

Edip-Layth - End Note (50:38)

Muhammad Asad - The Message Of Quran

Muhammad Asad - End Note 1 (50:1)

Chronologically, the above is the second occurrence (after surah 68) of one of the disjointed letter-symbols which precede some of the Quranic surahs. For the theories relating to these symbols, see Appendix II. As regards my rendering of the adjurative particle wa which opens the next sentence as "Consider", see first half of note 23 on 74:32, where this adjuration appears for the first time in the chronological order of revelation.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 2 (50:2)

This is the earliest Quranic mention - repeated again and again in other places - of people's "deeming it strange" that a purportedly divine message should have been delivered by someone "from their own midst", i.e., a mortal like themselves. Although it is undoubtedly, in the first instance, a reference to the negative attitude of the Meccan pagans to Muhammad's call, its frequent repetition throughout the Qur'an has obviously an implication going far beyond that historical reference: it points to the tendency common to many people, at all stages of human development, to distrust any religious statement that is devoid of all exoticism inasmuch as it is enunciated by a person sharing the social and cultural background of those whom he addresses and because the message itself relies exclusively - as the Qur'an does - on an appeal to man's reason and moral sense. Hence, the Qur'an explicitly mentions people's "objections" to a prophet "who eats food [like ordinary mortals] and goes about in the market-places" (25:7; see also note 16 on 25:20).

Muhammad Asad - End Note 3 (50:4)

Lit., "what the earth diminishes of them" - implying that God's promise of resurrection takes the fact of the dead bodies' decomposition fully into account. Consequently, resurrection will be like "a new creation" (cf. 10:4, 21:104, 30:11, 85:13, etc.), recalling the recurrent process of creation and re-creation visible in all organic nature (cf. 10:34, 27:64, 30:27).

Muhammad Asad - End Note 4 (50:5)

Since they reject a priori all thought of life after death, they are perplexed by the lack of any answer to the "why" and "what for" of man's life, by the evident inequality of human destinies, and by what appears to them as a senseless, blind cruelty of nature: problems which can be resolved only against the background of a belief in a continuation of life after bodily "death" and, hence, in the existence of a purpose and a plan underlying all creation.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 5 (50:6)

Lit., "and it has no gaps [or "breaks"] whatever".

Muhammad Asad - End Note 6 (50:12)

See note 33 on 25:38.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 7 (50:13)

The term "brethren" (ikhwan) is used here metonymically, denoting a group of people who share the same views or, alternatively, the same environment. Since the people referred to formed Lot's social environment (cf. 7:83 or 11:77-83), they are described as his "brethren" although his moral concepts and inclinations were entirely different from theirs.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 8 (50:14)

Regarding "the people of Tubba", see 44:37 and the corresponding note. The "dwellers of the wooded dales" are the people of Madyan (the Biblical Midian), as is evident from 26:176 ff. Their story is found in the Qur'an in several places; for the most detailed version, see 11:84-95.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 9 (50:15)

I.e., by the creation of the universe or, more specifically, of man.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 10 (50:15)

Lit., "they".

Muhammad Asad - End Note 11 (50:17)

The first part of the above sentence - i.e., the phrase yatalaqqā al-mutalaqqiyan - may be understood in either of two senses: "the two that are meant to receive do receive", or "the two that aim at meeting each other do meet". The classical commentators adopt, as a rule, the first sense and, consequently, interpret the passage thus: "the two angels that are charged with recording man's doings do record them, sitting on his right and on his left". In my opinion, however, the second of the two possible meanings ("the two that aim at meeting each other") corresponds better with the preceding verse, which speaks of what man's innermost self (nafs) "whispers within him", i.e., voices his subconscious desires. Thus, "the two that aim at meeting" are, I believe, the two demands of, or, more properly, the two fundamental motive forces within man's nature: his primal, instinctive urges and desires, both sensual and non-sensual (all of them comprised in the modern psychological term "libido"), on the one side, and his reason, both intuitive and reflective, on the other. The "sitting (qa'id) on the right and on the left" is, to my mind, a metaphor for the conflicting nature of these dual forces which strive for predominance within every human being: hence, my rendering of qa'id as "contending". This interpretation is, moreover, strongly supported by the reference, in verse 21, to man's appearing on Judgment Day with "that which drives and that which bears witness" - a phrase which undoubtedly alludes to man's instinctive urges as well as his conscious reason (see note 14 below).

Muhammad Asad - End Note 12 (50:18)

I.e., his conscience. The "uttering of a word" is conceptually connected with the "whispering" within man's psyche spoken of in the preceding verse.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 13 (50:19)

I.e., full insight into one's own self.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 14 (50:21)

Lit., "with that which drives (sa'iḳ) and that which bears witness (shahid)". While the former term evidently circumscribes man's primal urges - and particularly those which drive him into unrestrained self-indulgence and, thus, into sin - the term shahid (rendered by me as "conscious mind") alludes here to the awakening of the deeper layers of man's consciousness, leading to a sudden perception of his own moral reality - the "lifting of the veil" referred to in the next verse - which forces him to "bear witness" against himself (cf. 17:14, 24:24, 36:65, 41:20 ff.).

Muhammad Asad - End Note 15 (50:23)

Lit., "his intimate companion" (qarinuḥu). The term qarin denotes something that is "connected", "linked" or "intimately associated" with another thing (cf. 41:25 and 43:36, where qarin is rendered as "[one's] other self"). In the present instance - read together with verse 21 - the term apparently denotes "one part" of man, namely, his awakened moral consciousness.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 16 (50:23)

I.e., the sinner's reason will plead that he had always been more or less conscious, and perhaps even critical, of the urges and appetites that drove him into evil-doing: but, as is shown in the sequence, this belated and, therefore, morally ineffective rational cognition does not diminish but, rather, enhances the burden of man's guilt.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 17 (50:24)

In this instance, as well as in verse 26, the imperative "cast" has the dual form (alqiya). As many classical philologists (and almost all of the commentators) point out, this is linguistically permissible for the sake of special stress, and is equivalent to an emphatic repetition of the imperative in question. Alternatively, the dual form may be taken as indicative of an actual duality thus addressed: namely, the two manifestations within man's psyche alluded to in verse 17 and described in verse 21 as sa'iḳ and shahid (see note 14 above), both of which, in their interaction, are responsible for his spiritual downfall and, hence, for his suffering in the life to come.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 18 (50:26)

This relates not merely to the veneration of real or imaginary beings or forces to which one ascribes divine qualities, but also to the "worship" of false values and immoral concepts to which people often adhere with an almost religious fervour.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 19 (50:27)

Lit., as in verse 23, "his intimate companion" (qarin): but whereas there it may be taken as denoting man's moral consciousness or reason (Cf note 15 above), in the present instance the "speaker" is obviously its counterpart, namely, the complex of the sinner's instinctive urges and inordinate, unrestrained appetites summarized in the term sa'iḳ ("that which drives") and often symbolized as shayṭan ("Satan" or "satanic force": see Razi's remarks quoted in note 31 on 14:22.) In this sense, the term qarin has the same connotation as in 41:25 and 43:36.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 20 (50:27)

Lit., "him" or "it" - referring to man's faculty of conscious, controlling reason (shahid).] -

Muhammad Asad - End Note 21 (50:27)

I.e., man's evil impulses and appetites cannot gain ascendancy unless his conscious mind goes astray from moral verities: and this explains the purport, in the present context, of verses 24-25 above.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 22 (50:31)

Lit., "brought near to".

Muhammad Asad - End Note 23 (50:33)

See last sentence of 24:31 and the corresponding note 41 .

Muhammad Asad - End Note 24 (50:34)

Lit., "the Day of Abiding".

Muhammad Asad - End Note 25 (50:36)

This connects with verses 12-14 above. It should be borne in mind that in ancient Arabic usage the term qarn - here rendered as "generation" - often denotes "a period of time succeeding another": hence, a "century", or "people of one and the same period" and, finally, a "civilization" in the historical sense of this word. That this last significance is intended here becomes evident from the sequence.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 26 (50:36)

Lit., "they wandered searching (naqqabu) in the lands: Is there any place of refuge?" - implying that after the destruction of their civilization they could do no more than strive for bare survival.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 27 (50:37)

Thus Zamakhshari ; literally, the phrase reads, "who has a heart".

Muhammad Asad - End Note 28 (50:37)

Lit., "or lends ear and is withal a witness (wa-huwa shahid)", which latter phrase Zamakhshari explains as meaning "is present with his intellect", i.e., with a conscious mind. (Cf. the same use of the term shahid in verse 21.) The conjunctive particle "or" (aw) which precedes the above clause does not signify an alternative but has - as is often the case in Quranic usage - an explanatory function, similar to phrases like "that is" or "in other words", followed by an amplification of what was said before.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 29 (50:38)

The whole of this passage (verses 36-38) stresses God's omnipotence, which can be perceived by "anyone whose heart is wide-awake". The above reference to God's having created the universe "in six aeons" is the oldest in the chronology of Quranic revelation. In this connection it is to be noted that in ancient Arabic usage the term yawm does not always denote the twenty-four hours of the earthly "day", but is also applied to any period of time, however long or short. In the cosmic sense in which it is used here and elsewhere in the Qur'an, the plural ayyam is best rendered as "aeons". The mention of the impossibility of God's ever being "wearied" by the process of creation connects the present passage with verse 15 of this surah and, thus, alludes to God's power to resurrect the dead.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 30 (50:39)

Sc., "regarding the alleged 'impossibility' of resurrection".

Muhammad Asad - End Note 31 (50:39)

I.e., "remember His almightiness at all times of day".

Muhammad Asad - End Note 32 (50:40)

Lit., "at the ends (adbar) of prostration".

Muhammad Asad - End Note 33 (50:41)

Lit., "from a place nearby" - i.e., from within man himself: an echo of verse 15, "We are closer to him than his neck-vein". The "call" spoken of here is evidently the call of death, for which man should always be prepared.

Shabbir Ahmed -

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 1 (50:4)

It is only their physical body that becomes dust. Their own 'self' lives on. Kitaabun Hafeez = Divine Database

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 2 (50:7)

This gives us a scenario of a huge ball with carpets spread out on it held in place with heavy pegs. The mountains also serve as great water reservoirs that help grow the vegetation. 13:3, 15:19, 31:10, 39:5, 79:2830, 88:20

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 3 (50:12)

25:38

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 4 (50:14)

The Himairi Tribe had gained control of the Kingdom of Sheba in 115 BC and ruled until 300 CE. Tubba'' was the most prominent of their kings, and he was a Unitarian Christian like the vast majority of Christians before the Conference of Nicea in Rome in 325 CE

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 5 (50:15)

46:33

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 6 (50:16)

Habl-il-wareed is usually translated as Jugular vein or neck-vein. But Habl = Rope = Cable = A thing that binds = Guarantee = Indispensable = Binding pledge = Holding from disintegration = Holding together. Wareed = Vein. So, my rendition of Habl-il-wareed to Vena cava, the great veins, superior and inferior. They ultimately return the blood from the brain and the body to the heart. The use of 'vein' in this verse, instead of 'artery', seems to allude to the superiority of mind over body. What is being carried from the brain to the heart is through veins

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 7 (50:17)

His reason and his emotions 50:21

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 8 (50:18)

The Law of Requitil makes a meticulous record

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 9 (50:32)

Awwab = One who turns = Turns to God = One who repents and then walks the right path. Hafeez = Guard = Trustworthy = Responsible

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 10 (50:33)

Muneeb = Oft returning = Repentant = Devoted = Humble

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 11 (50:37)

50:21. 'Aw' = Or = That is = So that = As it is = And so. Heart has frequently been used in the Qur'an in the sense of mind. But, in general, heart points to qualities such as courage, sensitivity, determination, character. Nafs is the term for mind, 'self', personality, Ego. Shaheed = Witness = In presence

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 12 (50:38)

Six Stages or Eras: 7:54, 10:3, 11:7, 25:59, 50:38, 57:4, 41:10

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 13 (50:39)

Sabbih bihamd is usually translated as the ritualistic, 'praise the Lord', 'celebrate His praise', 'hymn His praises'. But Sabbih means 'strive hard', and it has nothing to do with Tasbeeh of rosary beads

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 14 (50:40)

52:49, 73:20

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 15 (50:41)

The enemy will approach you for war

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 16 (50:43)

8:42

Best viewed using your own brain

Tested on 1024x768 resolution with  FIREFOX 2

Kitabun Marqum v0.6.7 - Kitabun Marqum - Quran Research Platform by QuraniX Team Copyright © 2002-2011 All rights reserved.
Copyrights of all translations belong to their respective authors.

49:6 O you who believe, if a wicked person brings any news to you, you shall first investigate, lest you commit injustice towards some people, out of ignorance, then become sorry and remorseful for what you have done.

Rashad Khalifa (The Final Testament)

 Translations ▼

 Chapter/Verse ▼

 Refresh

 Search

<< Prev 51:1-60 Next >>

Edip-Layth	In the name of God, the Gracious, the Compassionate. 51:1 By the atoms that scatter. ¹
The Monotheist Group	In the name of God, the Almighty, the Merciful. 51:1 By the winds that blow.
Muhammad Asad	In the name of God, The Most Gracious, The Dispenser of Grace: 51:1 CONSIDER the winds that scatter the dust far and wide,
Rashad Khalifa	In the name of GOD, Most Gracious, Most Merciful. 51:1 The blowing winds.
Shabbir Ahmed	BISMILLAH-IR-RAHMAN-IR-RAHEEM With the Glorious Name of God, the Ultimate Source of Instant Beneficence and Eternal mercy Who encompasses the entire Universe, nourishing and taking care of all things for what they are meant to be; just as a mother's womb nourishes the embryo to completion without any returns. 51:1 Consider those who broadcast. ¹
Transliteration	Bismi Allāhi alrrahmāni alrraḥeemi 51:1 Waalṭḥṭariyati ṭarwan
A	بسم الله الرحمن الرحيم 51:1 والذريت نروا
Edip-Layth	51:2 Carrying a charge.
The Monotheist Group	51:2 Carrying rain.
Muhammad Asad	51:2 and those that carry the burden [of heavy clouds],

Rashad Khalifa	51:2 Bearing rain.
Shabbir Ahmed	51:2 And those who carry a great burden of responsibility.
Transliteration	51:2 Faal h amilati wiq r an
A	51:2 فالحملت وقرا
Edip-Layth	51:3 Flowing smoothly.
The Monotheist Group	51:3 Traveling easily.
Muhammad Asad	51:3 and those that speed along with gentle ease,
Rashad Khalifa	51:3 Bringing provisions.
Shabbir Ahmed	51:3 And those who glide gently (toward success).
Transliteration	51:3 Faal j ariyati yus r an
A	51:3 فالجريت يسرا
Edip-Layth	51:4 Distributing a command.
The Monotheist Group	51:4 Distributing as commanded.
Muhammad Asad	51:4 and those that apportion [the gift of life] at [God's] behest! ¹
Rashad Khalifa	51:4 Distributing them as commanded.
Shabbir Ahmed	51:4 And those who convey the command.
Transliteration	51:4 Faal m uqassima t i am r an
A	51:4 فالمقسمت امرا
Edip-Layth	51:5 What you are being promised is true.
The Monotheist Group	51:5 What you are being promised is true.
Muhammad Asad	51:5 Verily, that which you are promised is true indeed, ²
Rashad Khalifa	51:5 What is promised to you will surely come to pass.
Shabbir Ahmed	51:5 What you are promised, will come to pass. ²
Transliteration	51:5 Innama   tooAAadoona la s adiq u n
A	51:5 انما توعدون لصادق
Edip-Layth	51:6 The Judgment will come to pass.
The Monotheist Group	51:6 And the Judgment will come to pass.
Muhammad Asad	51:6 and, verily, judgment is bound to come!
Rashad Khalifa	51:6 The Day of Judgment is inevitable.
Shabbir Ahmed	51:6 And certainly, the Divine System will be established.
Transliteration	51:6 Wa-inna a l ddeena law a qiaA u n

A
Edip-Layth	51:7 By the sky with orbits.
The Monotheist Group	51:7 By the sky that is woven.
Muhammad Asad	51:7 CONSIDER the firmament full of starry paths! ³
Rashad Khalifa	51:7 Despite the perfectly created sky.
Shabbir Ahmed	51:7 Witness is the sky full of starry orbits.
Transliteration	51:7 Waalssama-i th ati al h ubuki
A	51:7 والسماء ذات الحبك
Edip-Layth	51:8 You are in verbal discord.
The Monotheist Group	51:8 You are saying what is different.
Muhammad Asad	51:8 Verily, [O men,] you are deeply at variance as to what to believe: ⁴
Rashad Khalifa	51:8 You continue to dispute the truth.
Shabbir Ahmed	51:8 It is you who deeply differ in what to believe.
Transliteration	51:8 Innakum lafee qawlin mukhtalifin
A	51:8 انكم لفي قول مختلف
Edip-Layth	51:9 Misled by it is the deviant.
The Monotheist Group	51:9 To mislead those who are misled.
Muhammad Asad	51:9 perverted in his views thereon is he who would deceive himself! ⁵
Rashad Khalifa	51:9 Deviating therefrom are the deviators.
Shabbir Ahmed	51:9 Those who deceive themselves wander aimlessly.
Transliteration	51:9 Yu/faku AAanhu man ofik a
A	51:9 يوفك عنه من افك
Edip-Layth	51:10 Woe to the deceitful.
The Monotheist Group	51:10 Woe to the deceitful.
Muhammad Asad	51:10 They but destroy themselves, ⁶ they who are given to guessing at what they cannot ascertain ⁷
Rashad Khalifa	51:10 Woe to the falsifiers.
Shabbir Ahmed	51:10 Belittle themselves those who live by guesswork.
Transliteration	51:10 Qutila alkharr a soona
A	51:10 قتل الخرصون
Edip-Layth	51:11 Who are in mischief, unaware.

The Monotheist Group	51:11 Who are in mischief, unaware.
Muhammad Asad	51:11 they who blunder along, in ignorance lost
Rashad Khalifa	51:11 In their blundering, they are totally heedless.
Shabbir Ahmed	51:11 Careless in an abyss, they know not that they know not.
Transliteration	51:11 Alla t heena hum fee ghamratin sa h oona
A	51:11 الذين هم فى غمرة ساهون
Edip-Layth	51:12 They ask: "When is the day of Judgment?"
The Monotheist Group	51:12 They ask: "When is the Day of Judgment?"
Muhammad Asad	51:12 they who [mockingly] ask, When is that Day of Judgment to be?"
Rashad Khalifa	51:12 They question the Day of Judgment.
Shabbir Ahmed	51:12 They ask (mockingly), "When is the Day of Judgment coming?"
Transliteration	51:12 Yas-aloona ayya n a yawmu al d deeni
A	51:12 يسألون ايان يوم الدين
Edip-Layth	51:13 The day they are tested upon the fire.
The Monotheist Group	51:13 The Day they ordeal upon the Fire.
Muhammad Asad	51:13 [It will be] a Day when they will be sorely tried by the fire, ⁸
Rashad Khalifa	51:13 The day they are presented to the fire.
Shabbir Ahmed	51:13 It is the Day when they will be tormented at the fire.
Transliteration	51:13 Yawma hum AAa l a al n nariyuftanoona
A	51:13 يوم هم على النار يفتنون
Edip-Layth	51:14 "Taste this trial of yours; this is what you asked to be hastened."
The Monotheist Group	51:14 "Taste this ordeal of yours; this is what you asked to be hastened."
Muhammad Asad	51:14 [and will be told:] Taste this your trial! It is this that you were so hastily asking for!" ⁹
Rashad Khalifa	51:14 Taste the retribution; this is what you used to challenge.
Shabbir Ahmed	51:14 Taste the trial that you brought upon yourselves. This is what you asked to be hastened.
Transliteration	51:14 T hooqoo fitnatakum ha t ha alla t heekuntum bihi tastaAA j iloon a
A	51:14 ذوقوا فتنتكم هذا الذى كنتم به تستعجلون
Edip-Layth	51:15 The righteous are in paradises and springs.
The Monotheist Group	51:15 The righteous are in paradises and springs.
Muhammad Asad	51:15 [But,] behold, the God-conscious will find themselves amid gardens and springs,

Rashad Khalifa	51:15 The righteous have deserved gardens and springs.
Shabbir Ahmed	51:15 In the midst of Gardens and springs are those who chose to live upright.
Transliteration	51:15 Inna almuttaqeena fee jannatinwaAAuyoonin
A	51:15 ان المتقين فى جنت وعيون
Edip-Layth	51:16 Receiving what their Lord has bestowed to them, for they were before that pious.
The Monotheist Group	51:16 Receiving what their Lord has bestowed to them, for they were before that pious.
Muhammad Asad	51:16 enjoying all that their Sustainer will have granted them [because], verily, they were doers of good in the past: 10
Rashad Khalifa	51:16 They receive their Lord's rewards, for they used to be pious.
Shabbir Ahmed	51:16 Enjoying all that their Lord grants them, for, aforetime they used to benefit others.
Transliteration	51:16 Akhi ^h theena m a atahumrabbuhum innahum k anoo qabla ^h halika muhsineena
A	51:16 ءاخذين ما ءاتتهم ربهم انهم كانوا قبل ذلك محسنين
Edip-Layth	51:17 They used to rarely sleep the whole night.
The Monotheist Group	51:17 They used to rarely sleep the whole night.
Muhammad Asad	51:17 they would lie asleep during but a small part of the night,
Rashad Khalifa	51:17 Rarely did they sleep the whole night.
Shabbir Ahmed	51:17 And rarely did they fall asleep at night without reflection. 3
Transliteration	51:17 Kanoo qaleelan mina allayli m ayahjaAAoona
A	51:17 كانوا قليلا من الليل ما يهجعون
Edip-Layth	51:18 Before dawn, they would seek forgiveness.
The Monotheist Group	51:18 And before dawn, they would seek forgiveness.
Muhammad Asad	51:18 and would pray for forgiveness from their innermost hearts; 11
Rashad Khalifa	51:18 At dawn, they prayed for forgiveness.
Shabbir Ahmed	51:18 And whole-heartedly sought to be guarded against their imperfections. 4
Transliteration	51:18 Wabial-ashari humyastaghfiroona
A	51:18 وبالاسحار هم يستغفرون
Edip-Layth	51:19 An in their money was a portion for the beggar and the needy.
The Monotheist Group	51:19 An in their money was a portion for the beggar and the needy.
Muhammad Asad	51:19 and [would assign] in all that they possessed a due share unto such as might ask [for help] and such as might suffer privation. 12

Rashad Khalifa	51:19 A portion of their money was set aside for the beggar and the needy.
Shabbir Ahmed	51:19 And in their wealth was the Divinely ordained right of those who ask and those who are deprived. ⁵
Transliteration	51:19 Wafee amw _{al} ihim h aqqu _n lilssa-iliwaalma h roomi
A	51:19 وفى امولهم حق للسائل والمحروم
Edip-Layth	51:20 In the earth are signs for those who reason.
The Monotheist Group	51:20 And in the Earth are signs for those who comprehend.
Muhammad Asad	51:20 AND ON EARTH there are signs [of God's exis tence, visible] to all who are endowed with inner certainty,
Rashad Khalifa	51:20 The earth is full of signs for those who are certain.
Shabbir Ahmed	51:20 And on earth are signs for those who wish to attain conviction, ⁶
Transliteration	51:20 Wafee al-ar d i a yatunlilmooqineena
A	51:20 وفى الارض اءايت للموقنين
Edip-Layth	51:21 Within yourselves; do you not see?
The Monotheist Group	51:21 And within yourselves; do you not see?
Muhammad Asad	51:21 just as [there are signs thereof] within your own selves: ¹³ can you not, then, see?
Rashad Khalifa	51:21 And within yourselves; can you see?
Shabbir Ahmed	51:21 And also in yourselves, your individual psyche and soma, your people and the unity in diversity among the human communities. Can you not then use your vision? ⁷
Transliteration	51:21 Wafee anfusikum afal a tub s iroona
A	51:21 وفى انفسكم افلا تبصرون
Edip-Layth	51:22 In the heaven is your provision, and what you are promised.
The Monotheist Group	51:22 And in the heaven is your provision, and what you are promised.
Muhammad Asad	51:22 And in heaven is [the source of] your sus tenance [on earth] and [of] all that you are promised [for your life after death]: ¹⁴
Rashad Khalifa	51:22 In the heaven is your provision, and everything that is promised to you.
Shabbir Ahmed	51:22 And in the heaven is all your providence and all that you are promised. ⁸
Transliteration	51:22 Wafee alssama- i rizqukum wa m atooAAadoona
A	51:22 وفى السماء رزقكم وما توعدون
Edip-Layth	51:23 By the Lord of the heaven and the earth, this is truth just as the fact that you speak.
	51:23 By the Lord of the heaven and the Earth, this is truth just as the fact that

The Monotheist Group	you speak.
Muhammad Asad	51:23 for, by the Sustainer of heaven and earth, this [life after death] is the very truth - as true as that you are endowed with speech! ¹⁵
Rashad Khalifa	51:23 By the Lord of the heaven and the earth, this is as true as the fact that you speak.
Shabbir Ahmed	51:23 And by the Lord of heaven and earth! This is the truth, as true as the fact that you speak.
Transliteration	51:23 Fawarabbi a Issama-i wa al-ardiinnahu la haqqun mithla m a annakum tantiqoona
A	51:23 ف ورب السماء والارض انه لحق مثل ما انكم تتطقون
Edip-Layth	Abraham's Guests 51:24 Has the story of Abraham's noble guests come to you?
The Monotheist Group	51:24 Has the story of Abraham's noble guests come to you?
Muhammad Asad	51:24 AND HAS the story of Abraham's honoured guests ever come within thy ken? ¹⁶
Rashad Khalifa	51:24 Have you noted the history of Abraham's honorable guests?
Shabbir Ahmed	51:24 And (as a historical evidence) has the story of Abraham's honored guests reached you?
Transliteration	51:24 Hal ataka hadeethu dayfiibraheema almukrameena
A	51:24 هل اتك حديث ضيف ابراهيم المكرمين
Edip-Layth	51:25 When they entered upon him, they said, "Peace." He said, "Peace to a people unknown!"
The Monotheist Group	51:25 When they entered upon him, they said: "Peace." He said: "Peace to a people unknown!"
Muhammad Asad	51:25 When those [heavenly messengers] came unto him and bade him peace, he answered, [And upon you be] peace!" - [saying to himself,] They are strangers." ¹⁷
Rashad Khalifa	51:25 They visited him, saying, "Peace." He said, "Peace to you, strangers!"
Shabbir Ahmed	51:25 When they visited him greeting him with "Peace!" He answered, "Peace to you strangers!"
Transliteration	51:25 Ith dakhloo AAalayhi faqaloosalamun qala salamun qawmun munkaroon a
A	51:25 اذ دخلوا عليه فقالوا سلما قال سلم قوم منكرون
Edip-Layth	51:26 Then he went to his family and brought a fat roasted calf.
The Monotheist Group	51:26 Then he went to his family and brought a fat roasted calf.
Muhammad Asad	51:26 Then he turned quietly to his household, and brought forth a fat [roasted] calf,
Rashad Khalifa	51:26 He asked his family to prepare a fat calf.

Shabbir Ahmed	51:26 Then he went quietly to his household, and brought forth a well-bred roasted calf.
Transliteration	51:26 Far a gha il a ahlihi faja a biAAijlin sameen in
A	51:26 فراغ الى اهله فجاء بعجل سمين
Edip-Layth	51:27 He offered it to them, he said, "Do you not eat?"
The Monotheist Group	51:27 He offered it to them, he said: "Do you not eat?"
Muhammad Asad	51:27 and placed it before them, saying, Will you not eat?"
Rashad Khalifa	51:27 When he offered it to them, he remarked, "Do you not eat?"
Shabbir Ahmed	51:27 And placed it before them, saying, "Will you not eat?"
Transliteration	51:27 Faqarrabahu ilayhim q a la al a ta/kuloona
A	51:27 فقربه اليهم قال الا تاكلون
Edip-Layth	51:28 He then became fearful of them. They said, "Do not fear," and they gave him good news of a knowledgeable son.
The Monotheist Group	51:28 He then became fearful of them. They said: "Do not fear," and they gave him good news of a knowledgeable son.
Muhammad Asad	51:28 [And when he saw that the guests would not eat,] he became apprehensive of them; ¹⁸ [but] they said, Fear not" - and gave him the glad tiding of [the birth of] a son who would be endowed with deep knowledge. ¹⁹
Rashad Khalifa	51:28 He harbored fear of them. They said, "Have no fear," and they gave good news of a knowledgeable son.
Shabbir Ahmed	51:28 Then he felt apprehensive of them. They said, "Fear not!" And they gave him the good news of a son who would be endowed with knowledge. ⁹
Transliteration	51:28 Faawjasa minhum kheefatan q a loo l a takhaf wabashsharoohu bighul a min AAaleemin
A	51:28 فاجس منهم خيفة قالوا لا تخف وبشروه بغلم عليم
Edip-Layth	51:29 His wife then approached in amazement. She slapped upon her face, and said, "I am a sterile old woman!"
The Monotheist Group	51:29 His wife then approached in amazement. She slapped upon her face, and said: "I am a sterile old woman!"
Muhammad Asad	51:29 Thereupon his wife approached [the guests] with a loud cry, and struck her face [in astonishment] and exclaimed: A barren old woman [like me]!"
Rashad Khalifa	51:29 His wife was astonished. Noting her wrinkled face: "I am a sterile old woman."
Shabbir Ahmed	51:29 Then his wife came forward with a loud cry and struck her face in astonishment and said, "An old barren woman!"
Transliteration	51:29 Faaqbalati imraatuhu fee s arratin fa s akktawajhaha waq a lat AAajoozun AAaqeem un
A	51:29 فاقبلت امراته في صرة فصكت وجهها وقالت عجوز عقيم

Edip-Layth	51:30 They said, "It was such that your Lord has said. He is the Wise, the Knowledgeable."
The Monotheist Group	51:30 They said: "It was such that your Lord has said. He is the Wise, the Knowledgeable."
Muhammad Asad	51:30 They answered: Thus has thy Sustainer decreed; and, verily, He alone is truly wise, all- knowing!"
Rashad Khalifa	51:30 They said, "Thus said your Lord. He is the Most Wise, the Omniscient."
Shabbir Ahmed	51:30 They said, "Thus your Lord has spoken. He, He alone is All Wise, All Knower."
Transliteration	51:30 Qaloo kathaliki qalarabbuki innahu huwa alhakeemu alAAaleemu
A	51:30 قالوا كذلك قال ربك انه هو الحكيم العليم
Edip-Layth	51:31 He said, "What is your undertaking, O messengers?"
The Monotheist Group	51:31 He said: "What is your undertaking, O messengers?"
Muhammad Asad	51:31 Said [Abraham]: And what [else] may you have in view, O you [heavenly] messengers?"
Rashad Khalifa	51:31 He said, "What are you up to, O messengers?"
Shabbir Ahmed	51:31 Abraham said, "And now what is your task, O Messengers!"
Transliteration	51:31 Qala fama khatbukumayyuhā almursaloona
A	51:31 قال فما خطبكم ايها المرسلون
Edip-Layth	51:32 They said, "We have been sent to a criminal people."
The Monotheist Group	51:32 They said: "We have been sent to a criminal people."
Muhammad Asad	51:32 They answered: Behold, we have been sent unto a people lost in sin, ²⁰
Rashad Khalifa	51:32 They said, "We have been dispatched to criminal people.
Shabbir Ahmed	51:32 They replied, "We have been sent to a guilty people who violate human rights,
Transliteration	51:32 Qaloo inna orsilna ilaqqawmin mujrimeena
A	51:32 قالوا انا ارسلنا الى قوم مجرمين
Edip-Layth	51:33 "To send down upon them rocks of clay."
The Monotheist Group	51:33 "To send down upon them rocks of clay."
Muhammad Asad	51:33 to let loose upon them stone-hard blows of chastisement, ²¹
Rashad Khalifa	51:33 "We will shower them with rocks of clay.
Shabbir Ahmed	51:33 That we may shower them with stones of clay,
Transliteration	51:33 Linursila AAalayhim hijaratanmin teenin
A	51:33 لنرسل عليهم حجارة من طين

Edip-Layth	51:34 "Prepared by your Lord for the transgressors."
The Monotheist Group	51:34 "Prepared by your Lord for the transgressors."
Muhammad Asad	51:34 marked out in thy Sustainer's sight for [the punishment of] such as have wasted their own selves." ²²
Rashad Khalifa	51:34 "Marked by your Lord for the transgressors."
Shabbir Ahmed	51:34 Marked out by your Lord for those who have wasted their own 'self'."
Transliteration	51:34 Musawwamatan AAinda rabbika lilmusrifeen a
A	51:34 مسومة عند ربك للمسرفين
Edip-Layth	51:35 We then vacated from it all those who acknowledged.
The Monotheist Group	51:35 We then vacated from it all the believers.
Muhammad Asad	51:35 And in the course of time ²³ We brought out [of Lot 's city] such [few] believers as were there:
Rashad Khalifa	51:35 We then delivered all the believers.
Shabbir Ahmed	51:35 We then brought forth safe all believers that were in town.
Transliteration	51:35 Faakhrajna man kana feehamina almu/mineena
A	51:35 فاخرجنا من كان فيها من المؤمنين
Edip-Layth	51:36 But We only found in it one house of those who had peacefully surrendered.
The Monotheist Group	51:36 But We only found in it one house of those who had submitted.
Muhammad Asad	51:36 for apart from one [single] house ²⁴ We did not find there any who had surrendered themselves to Us.
Rashad Khalifa	51:36 We did not find in it except one house of submitters.
Shabbir Ahmed	51:36 But We found therein none but one Muslim household!
Transliteration	51:36 Fam a wajadna feehaghayra baytin mina almuslimeen a
A	51:36 فما وجدنا فيها غير بيت من المسلمين
Edip-Layth	51:37 We have left in it a sign for those who fear the painful retribution.
The Monotheist Group	51:37 And We have left in it a sign for those who fear the painful retribution.
Muhammad Asad	51:37 And so We left therein ²⁵ a message for those who fear the grievous suffering [which awaits all evildoers].
Rashad Khalifa	51:37 We set it up as a lesson for those who fear the painful retribution.
Shabbir Ahmed	51:37 And so We left therein a sign for those who fear a painful consequence (of their misdeeds).
Transliteration	51:37 Watarakna feeha ayatanlillaatheena yakhafoona alAAathaba al-aleem a
A	51:37 وتركنا فيها آية للذين يخافون العذاب الاليم

Edip-Layth	Previous Generations 51:38 Also Moses, for We sent him to Pharaoh with a clear authority.
The Monotheist Group	51:38 And also Moses, for We sent him to Pharaoh with a clear authority.
Muhammad Asad	51:38 AND IN [the story of Pharaoh and] Moses, too, [We left the same message: for] ²⁶ when We sent him unto Pharaoh with [Our] manifest authority,
Rashad Khalifa	51:38 In Moses (there is a lesson). We sent him to Pharaoh with manifest proofs.
Shabbir Ahmed	51:38 And in Moses too! We sent him to Pharaoh with a clear authority.
Transliteration	51:38 Wafee moosa ith arsalnahu ila firAAawna bisultaanin mubeenin
A	51:38 وفی موسی اذ ارسلنه الی فرعون بسلطن مبین
Edip-Layth	51:39 But he turned away, in arrogance, and he said, "A magician, or crazy."
The Monotheist Group	51:39 But he turned away, in arrogance, and he said: "A magician, or crazy."
Muhammad Asad	51:39 and he turned away in [the pride of] his power and said, A sorcerer [is this Moses], or a madman!"
Rashad Khalifa	51:39 But he turned away, in arrogance, and said, "Magician, or crazy."
Shabbir Ahmed	51:39 But he turned away proud of his might and said, "A wizard or a madman!"
Transliteration	51:39 Fatawalla biruknihi waqala sahirunaw majnoonun
A	51:39 فتولی برکنه وقال سحر او مجنون
Edip-Layth	51:40 So We took him and his troops; We cast them into the sea, and he was to blame.
The Monotheist Group	51:40 So We took him and his troops; We cast them into the sea, and he was to blame.
Muhammad Asad	51:40 We seized him and his hosts, and cast them all into the sea: and [none but Pharaoh] himself was to blame [for what happened]. ²⁷
Rashad Khalifa	51:40 Consequently, we punished him and his troops. We threw them into the sea, and he is the one to blame.
Shabbir Ahmed	51:40 So We seized him and his troops, and flung them in the sea, and he was blameworthy.
Transliteration	51:40 Faakhatnahu wajunoodahufanaba thnathum fee alyammi wahuwa muleemun
A	51:40 فاخذنه وجنوده فنبدنهم فی الیم وهو ملیم
Edip-Layth	51:41 Also Aad, for We sent upon them the hurricane wind.
The Monotheist Group	51:41 And also 'Aad, for We sent upon them the hurricane wind.
Muhammad Asad	51:41 And [you have the same message] in [what happened to the tribe of] Ad, when We let loose against them that life-destroying wind
Rashad Khalifa	51:41 In `Aad (there is a lesson). We sent upon them disastrous wind.
Shabbir Ahmed	51:41 And in 'Aad! When We sent upon them the devastating wind.

Transliteration	51:41 Wafee AA a din i th arsal na AAalayhimu alrree ha alAAaqeema
A	51:41 وفى عاد اذ ارسلنا عليهم الريح العقيم
Edip-Layth	51:42 Anything that it came upon was utterly destroyed.
The Monotheist Group	51:42 Anything that it came upon was utterly destroyed.
Muhammad Asad	51:42 which spared nothing of what it came upon, but caused [all of] it to become like bones dead and decayed. ²⁸
Rashad Khalifa	51:42 Anything that it came upon was utterly destroyed.
Shabbir Ahmed	51:42 It spared nothing that it blew on and smashed it to dust.
Transliteration	51:42 Ma ta th aru min shay-in atatAAalayhi ill a jaAAalat-hu kaalrrameemi
A	51:42 ما تذر من شىء اتت عليه الا جعلته كالريم
Edip-Layth	51:43 Also Thamud, for it was said to them: "Enjoy for a while."
The Monotheist Group	51:43 And also Thamud, for it was said to them: "Enjoy for a while."
Muhammad Asad	51:43 And in [the story of the tribe of] Thamud, too, when they were told, You shall enjoy your life for [but] a little while," ²⁹
Rashad Khalifa	51:43 In Thamoud (there is a lesson). They were told, "Enjoy temporarily."
Shabbir Ahmed	51:43 And in Thamud. They were told, "Enjoy life for a little while."
Transliteration	51:43 Wafee thamooda i th qeela lahumtamattaAAoo h atta h eenin
A	51:43 وفى ثمود اذ قيل لهم تمتعوا حتى حين
Edip-Layth	51:44 But they rebelled against the command of their Lord. So the lightning struck them while they were looking.
The Monotheist Group	51:44 But they rebelled against the command of their Lord. So the lightning struck them while they were looking.
Muhammad Asad	51:44 after they had turned with disdain from their Sustainer's commandment - whereupon the thunderbolt of punishment overtook them while they were [helplessly] looking on:
Rashad Khalifa	51:44 They rebelled against the command of their Lord. Consequently, the lightning struck them as they looked.
Shabbir Ahmed	51:44 But they defied their Lord's commandment, whereupon the thunder seized them while they looked on.
Transliteration	51:44 FaAAataw AAan amri rabbi h im faakha th at-humual ssa AAiqatu wahum yan th uroona
A	51:44 فعتوا عن امر ربهم فاخذتهم الصعقة وهم ينظرون
Edip-Layth	51:45 They were unable to rise up, nor could they win.
The Monotheist Group	51:45 They were unable to rise up, nor could they win.
Muhammad Asad	51:45 for they were unable even to rise, and could not defend themselves.
Rashad Khalifa	51:45 They could never get up, nor were they helped.

Shabbir Ahmed	51:45 And they were unable even to rise up and could not help themselves a bit.
Transliteration	51:45 Famā istatāAAoo min qiyāminwamā kanoo muntaṣireena
A	51:45 فما استطعوا من قيام وما كانوا منتصرين
Edip-Layth	51:46 The people of Noah before; they were a wicked people.
The Monotheist Group	51:46 And the people of Noah before; they were a wicked people.
Muhammad Asad	51:46 And [thus, too, We destroyed] Noah's people aforetime: for they were iniquitous folk.
Rashad Khalifa	51:46 And the people of Noah before that; they were wicked people.
Shabbir Ahmed	51:46 And the people of Noah aforetime! Surely, they were a people who drifted away from the truth.
Transliteration	51:46 Waqawma noohin min qablu innahum kanooqawman fasiqeena
A	51:46 وقوم نوح من قبل انهم كانوا قوما فسقين
Edip-Layth	Expanding Universe 51:47 We constructed the universe with might, and We are expanding it. ²
The Monotheist Group	51:47 And We constructed the universe using matter, and We will expand it.
Muhammad Asad	51:47 AND IT IS We who have built the universe ³¹ with [Our creative] power; and, verily, it is We who are steadily expanding it.
Rashad Khalifa	"Expansion of the Universe Theory" Confirmed 51:47 We constructed the sky with our hands, and we will continue to expand it.
Shabbir Ahmed	51:47 And it is We who built the heaven with power, and certainly, it is We who are steadily expanding it. ¹⁰
Transliteration	51:47 Waalssamaa banaynahabi-aydin wa-inna lamoosiAAoona
A	51:47 والسماء بنينا باييد وانا لموسعون
Edip-Layth	51:48 The earth We furnished; We are fine Providers.
The Monotheist Group	51:48 And the Earth We furnished; glory be to the Makers.
Muhammad Asad	51:48 And the earth have We spread out wide - and how well have We ordered it! ³²
Rashad Khalifa	51:48 And we made the earth habitable; a perfect design.
Shabbir Ahmed	51:48 And We have spread out the earth, and how excellent a Spreader We are!
Transliteration	51:48 Waal-arda farashnahafaniAama almahidoona
A	51:48 والارض فرشناها فنعم المهدون
Edip-Layth	51:49 From everything We created a pair, perhaps you may remember.
The Monotheist Group	51:49 And from everything We created a pair, perhaps you may remember.
	51:49 And in everything have We created oppos ites, ³³ so that you might bear in

Muhammad Asad	mind [that God alone is One]. ³⁴
Rashad Khalifa	51:49 We created a pair (male and female) of everything, that you may take heed.
Shabbir Ahmed	51:49 And all things We created in pairs and in opposites (such that one complements the other), so that you may reflect.
Transliteration	51:49 Wamin kulli shay-in khalaqna zawjayn ilaAAallakum ta th akkaroona
A	51:49 ومن كل شيء خلقنا زوجين لعلكم تذكرون
Edip-Layth	51:50 So turn towards God. I am to you from Him a clear warner.
The Monotheist Group	51:50 So turn towards God. I am to you from Him a clear warner.
Muhammad Asad	51:50 And so, [O Muhammad, say unto them:] Flee unto God [from all that is false and evil]! Verily, I am a plain warner to you from Him!
Rashad Khalifa	51:50 You shall escape to GOD. I am sent by Him to you as a manifest warner.
Shabbir Ahmed	51:50 (Say), "Therefore, find your way to God alone. I am a plain warner to you from Him." ¹¹
Transliteration	51:50 Fafirroo ila All a hi inneelakum minhu na th eerun mubeenun
A	51:50 ففروا الى الله انى لكم منه نذير مبين
Edip-Layth	51:51 Do not make any other god with God. I am to you from Him a clear warner.
The Monotheist Group	51:51 And do not make any other god with God. I am to you from Him a clear warner.
Muhammad Asad	51:51 And do not ascribe divinity to aught side by side with God: ³⁵ verily, I am a plain warner to you from Him!"
Rashad Khalifa	51:51 Do not set up beside GOD any other god. I am sent by Him to you as a manifest warner.
Shabbir Ahmed	51:51 Set up no god or 'authority' along with God. I am a plain warner to you from Him.
Transliteration	51:51 Wala tajAAaloo maAAa All a hi il a han a khara innee lakum minhu na th eerun mubeenun
A	51:51 ولا تجعلوا مع الله الهاء اخر انى لكم منه نذير مبين
Edip-Layth	51:52 Likewise, when a messenger went to those before them, they said, "A magician, or crazy."
The Monotheist Group	51:52 Likewise, when a messenger went to those before them, they said: "A magician, or crazy."
Muhammad Asad	51:52 [But] thus it is: never yet came any apostle to those who lived before their time but they said, A spel1binder ³⁶
Rashad Khalifa	51:52 Consistently, when a messenger went to the previous generations, they said, "Magician," or, "Crazy."
	51:52 But, thus it is. No messenger came to those before their time, but they

Shabbir Ahmed	said, "A wizard or a madman!"
Transliteration	51:52 Kathalika ma ata alla ^{the} enamin qablihim min rasoolin illa qaloo sahirunaw majnoonun
A	51:52 كذلك ما اتى الذين من قبلهم من رسول الا قالوا ساحر او مجنون
Edip-Layth	51:53 Have they passed down this saying to each other? Indeed, they are a wicked people.
The Monotheist Group	51:53 Have they passed down this saying to each other? Indeed, they are a wicked people.
Muhammad Asad	51:53 Have they, perchance, handed down this [way of thinking] as a legacy unto one another? Nay, they are people filled with overweening arrogance!
Rashad Khalifa	51:53 Did they make an agreement with each other? Indeed, they are transgressors.
Shabbir Ahmed	51:53 Have they handed down this (behavior) as a last will from one to another? Nay, but they have been people who wished to live without moral bounds.
Transliteration	51:53 Atawa ^s aw bihi bal hum qawmun taghoo ⁿ a
A	51:53 اتواصوا به بل هم قوم طاغون
Edip-Layth	51:54 So turn away from them; you will not be blamed. ³
The Monotheist Group	51:54 So turn away from them; you will not be blamed.
Muhammad Asad	51:54 Turn, then, away from them, and thou shalt incur no blame;
Rashad Khalifa	51:54 You may disregard them; you cannot be blamed.
Shabbir Ahmed	51:54 Turn, then, away from them, and you shall not be blameworthy.
Transliteration	51:54 Fatawalla AA ^a nhum fam ^a anta bimaloom ⁱ n
A	51:54 فتول عنهم فما انت بملوم
Edip-Layth	51:55 Remind, for the reminder benefits those who acknowledge.
The Monotheist Group	51:55 And remind, for the reminder benefits the believers.
Muhammad Asad	51:55 yet go on reminding [all who would listen]: for, verily, such a reminder will profit the believers.
Rashad Khalifa	51:55 And remind, for the reminder benefits the believers.
Shabbir Ahmed	51:55 Yet continue reminding, for, certainly, the believers will benefit from it and gain eminence.
Transliteration	51:55 Wa ^t hakkir fa-inna al th hikra ⁿ tanfaAAu almu/mineena
A	51:55 وذكر فان الذكرى تنفع المؤمنين
Edip-Layth	51:56 I did not create the Jinn and the humans except to serve Me. ⁴
The Monotheist Group	51:56 I did not create the Jinn and the humans except to serve Me.
	51:56 And [tell them that] I have not created the invisible beings ³⁷ and men to

Muhammad Asad	any end other than that they may [know and] worship Me. ³⁸
Rashad Khalifa	The Purpose of Our Existence 51:56 I did not create the jinns and the humans except to worship Me alone.
Shabbir Ahmed	51:56 And I have not created the 'jinn' and the 'ins' but that they obey (serve) Me alone. ¹²
Transliteration	51:56 Wama khalaqtu aljinna waal-insailla liyaAAbudooni
A	51:56 وما خلقت الجن والانس الا ليعبدون
Edip-Layth	51:57 I need no provisions from them, nor do I need them to give food.
The Monotheist Group	51:57 I need no provisions from them, nor do I need them to give food.
Muhammad Asad	51:57 [But withal,] no sustenance do I ever demand of them, nor do I demand that they feed Me:
Rashad Khalifa	51:57 I need no provisions from them, nor do I need them to feed Me.
Shabbir Ahmed	51:57 No sustenance do I ever require of them, nor do I ask that they feed Me.
Transliteration	51:57 Ma oreedu minhum min rizqin wama oreedu an yutAAimooni
A	51:57 ما اريد منهم من رزق وما اريد ان يطعمون
Edip-Layth	51:58 God is the Provider, the One with Power, the Supreme.
The Monotheist Group	51:58 God is the Provider, the One with Power, the Supreme.
Muhammad Asad	51:58 for, verily, God Himself is the Provider of all sustenance, the Lord of all might, the Eternal!
Rashad Khalifa	51:58 GOD is the Provider, the Possessor of all power, the Supreme.
Shabbir Ahmed	51:58 Certainly, God is the Provider of sustenance, the Lord of might, Invincible.
Transliteration	51:58 Inna Allaha huwa alirrazaquthoo alquwwati almateenu
A	51:58 ان الله هو الرزاق ذو القوة المتين
Edip-Layth	51:59 The transgressors will have the same fate as their previous friends; so let them not be hasty.
The Monotheist Group	51:59 The transgressors will have the same fate as their previous friends; so let them not be hasty.
Muhammad Asad	51:59 And, verily, they who are bent on doing evil shall have their share [of evil] like unto the share of their fellows [of old]: ³⁹ so let them not ask Me to hasten [their doom]!
Rashad Khalifa	51:59 The transgressors have incurred the same fate as their previous counterparts; they should not challenge.
Shabbir Ahmed	51:59 But the violators of human rights trail behind in humanity as their comrades trailed behind in the past. For them is what (retribution) they had. Then, they should not ask to hasten (their retribution).
Transliteration	51:59 Fa-inna lilla theena thalamoothanooban mithla thanoobi a s-habihimfala yastaAAjiloona

A	51:59 فان للذين ظلموا ذنوبا مثل ذنوب اصحابهم فلا يستعجلون
Edip-Layth	51:60 So woe to those who rejected from the day that is waiting for them.
The Monotheist Group	51:60 So woe to those who rejected from the Day that is waiting for them.
Muhammad Asad	51:60 For, woe unto those who are bent on denying the truth - [woe] on the Day which they have been promised
Rashad Khalifa	51:60 Woe to those who disbelieved from the day that is awaiting them.
Shabbir Ahmed	51:60 Anguish awaits the deniers of the truth on the Day of theirs that they are promised.
Transliteration	51:60 Fawaylun lilla the ena kafaroo minyawmihimu alla the e yooAAadoona
A	51:60 فويل للذين كفروا من يومهم الذى يوعدون

<< Prev 51:1-60 Next >>

Return to top

End Notes

Edip-Layth - Quran: A Reformist Translation

Edip-Layth - End Note 1 (51:1)

These verses are traditionally translated as a description of wind, rain and sailing ships. However, the audience of the Quran transcends time. These words can also be understood as a description of the movement of electrons and their ability to carry information.

Edip-Layth - End Note 2 (51:47)

God who created the universe billions of years ago by His command of "Be" (21:30), is continuously expanding the universe in time and space. Remarkably, this 1400-year old proclamation has just recently in the 20th century been shown by modern science to be a fact. See 4:82.

Edip-Layth - End Note 3 (51:54)

Jonah was criticized for abandoning his mission before completing it (37:142). For the Old Testament's account, see the four short chapters of the book of Jonah.

Edip-Layth - End Note 4 (51:56)

See 2:35

Shabbir Ahmed -

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 1 (51:1)

Individuals and communities that spread the Divine Word

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 2 (51:5)

The Qur'an shall ultimately prevail. 9:33

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 3 (51:17)

Haju' = Fall asleep like an exhausted horse

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 4 (51:18)

Sahr = Morning = Being proactive = Early action = Core of the heart (Lisan-al-Arab). Ghafarah = Helmet = Guarding

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 5 (51:19)

See 2:3, 6:141, Zakaat and the Day of the Harvest

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 6 (51:20)

Its resources must remain open for all. 15:20, 41:10, 55:11-12

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 7 (51:21)

Anfusikum entails all the meanings rendered here. 9:31-33, 13:31,14:48, 18:48, 41:53, 48:28, 51:20-21, 61:9

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 8 (51:22)

'In the heaven' = A metaphor for God's Almightyness

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 9 (51:28)

Abraham was concerned, since people with aggressive designs used to refuse hospitality. But they were hurrying to Sodom. 11:69-76, 15:50-55, 26:69, 29:31

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 10 (51:47)

Samaa = Sky = Heaven = Allegorically the Universe. Bi-Ayidin = With both hands = With power

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 11 (51:50)

To emphasize the urgency to do good in this short, unpredictable human life, the word 'say' in this verse is merged with Fafirru = So flee = Therefore, rush = So, go forth now = So, escape = Find your way

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 12 (51:56)

Jinn = Nomads. Ins = Urbanites. Check Surah 72 Al-Jinn, author's note, for details. Ibadah is usually translated as worship but in that sense it applies better to idol-worship. And since the Qur'an consistently promotes action over ritual, Ibadah means obeying God by serving His creation

Muhammad Asad - The Message Of Quran

Muhammad Asad - End Note 1 (51:4)

These symbolical epithets, consisting of adjectival participles without any mention of the nouns which they qualify, have been variously interpreted by the early commentators; but since there is a consensus of opinion regarding the first of these participles - adh-dhariyat - as denoting "dust-scattering winds", we may assume that the other three relate to different phases or manifestations of the same phenomenon (Razi) - namely, to the life-giving function of the combination of wind, clouds and rain - pointing, symbolically, to the miraculous creation of life as such and, thus, to the existence of a conscious, purposeful Creator.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 2 (51:5)

I.e., life after death.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 3 (51:7)

I.e., "think of the Creator of this great universe and, hence, of your responsibility to Him".

Muhammad Asad - End Note 4 (51:8)

Lit., "you are indeed in a discordant opinion (qawl)", i.e., as to whether or not there is life after death, whether God exists, whether there is any truth in divine revelation, and so forth.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 5 (51:9)

Lit., "perversely turned away from this [truth] is he who is made to lie" - or, according to the Taj al-'Arus, "he who is perverted in his reason and opinion", i.e., who is a priori disposed to deceive himself: implying that belief in God and, hence, in life after death is inherent in man's mind and feeling, and that, therefore, a departure from this belief is but an outcome of intellectual perversion.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 6 (51:10)

For this rendering of the expression qutila, see note 9 on 74:19.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 7 (51:10)

Thus the Taj al-'Arus, explaining the deeper meaning of al-kharrasun. "That which they cannot ascertain" is, in this context, synonymous with al-ghayb, "the reality which is beyond the reach of human perception".

Muhammad Asad - End Note 8 (51:13)

This "trial (fitnah) by the fire" is in tune with several Quranic allusions to the effect that the otherworldly suffering described as "hell" is not to be eternal: see in this connection notes 114 on 6:128, 40:12 and note 53 on 43:74.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 9 (51:14)

A reference to their one-time sarcastic demand that they should be punished for their rejection of the Quranic message: cf. 6:57-58 and 8:32.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 10 (51:16)

Lit., "before that (Day)".

Muhammad Asad - End Note 11 (51:18)

See note 10 on 3:17 .

Muhammad Asad - End Note 12 (51:19)

Sc., "but could not beg" - and this applies to all living creatures, whether human beings or mute animals (Razi), irrespective of whether the need is of a physical or an emotional nature.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 13 (51:21)

See note 3 on 45:4.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 14 (51:22)

I.e., both physical (rain) and spiritual (truth and guidance).

Muhammad Asad - End Note 15 (51:23)

Lit., "even as you speak" or "are able to speak": an allusion to man's ability to think conceptually and to express himself - that is, to something of which man is absolutely, axiomatically conscious.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 16 (51:24)

This story (as well as the subsequent mention of what happened to Lot's people and to the tribes of Ad and Thamud, of Moses and Pharaoh's people, and of Noah's people) is connected with the preceding references to the "signs", visible and conceptual, of God's existence and almightiness and the inflexible moral causality apparent in what the Qur'an describes as "the way of God" (sunnat Allah). The story of Abraham's angelic guests appears also in 11:69 ff. and - in a somewhat shorter version - in 15:51 ff. as well.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 17 (51:25)

Lit., "unknown people" - i.e., not realizing that they were angels.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 18 (51:28)

See note 101 on 11:70.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 19 (51:28)

I.e., with prophethood (cf. 15:53).

Muhammad Asad - End Note 20 (51:32)

I.e., Lot 's people.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 21 (51:33)

Lit., "stones of clay" - the noun "clay" (tin) is, according to Zamakhshari , identical with the term sijjil mentioned in 11:82 and tentatively explained in the corresponding note 114 as signifying "chastisement pre-ordained".

Muhammad Asad - End Note 22 (51:34)

For an explanation of this rendering of the term musrifin, see note 21 on 10:12 .

Muhammad Asad - End Note 23 (51:35)

Lit., "And then", i.e., after the events described in 11:77 ff. and 15:61 ff.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 24 (51:36)

I.e., Lot 's family.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 25 (51:37)

I.e., in the utter destruction of Sodom and Gomorrah.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 26 (51:38)

The above interpolations are based on the consensus of most of the classical commentators regarding the phrase "And in Moses, too".

Muhammad Asad - End Note 27 (51:40)

This is an illustration of the Quranic doctrine that the suffering which is bound to befall an evildoer in this world or in the life to come, or in both, is but a consequence of his own doings.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 28 (51:42)

See 69:6-8. For the story of the tribe of Ad as such, see second half of note 48 on 7:65.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 29 (51:43)

Cf. 11:65. An outline of the story of the Thamud is given in 7:73-79.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 31 (51:47)

See note 38 on the first part of 21:30 . The phrase inna la-musi'un clearly foreshadows the modern notion of the "expanding universe" - that is, the fact that the cosmos, though finite in extent, is continuously expanding in space.

Muhammad Asad - End Note (51:47)

Muhammad Asad - End Note 32 (51:48)

I.e., in accordance with the requirements of the living organisms that were to - and did - develop on it.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 33 (51:49)

Lit., "of every thing have We created pairs"- a phrase which is explained in note 18 on 36:36.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 34 (51:49)

Cf. 89:3 and the corresponding note 2.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 35 (51:51)

Lit., "do not set up any other deity".

Muhammad Asad - End Note 36 (51:52)

Lit., "sorcerer".

Muhammad Asad - End Note 37 (51:56)

For a full discussion of the term jinn ("invisible beings"), see Appendix III. As pointed out by most of the philologists - and stressed by Razi in his comments on the above verse - this term includes also the angels, since they, too, are beings or forces "concealed from man's senses".

Muhammad Asad - End Note 38 (51:56)

Thus, the innermost purpose of the creation of all rational beings is their cognition (marifah) of the existence of God and, hence, their conscious willingness to conform their own existence to whatever they may perceive of His will and plan: and it is this twofold concept of cognition and willingness that gives the deepest meaning to what the Qur'an describes as "worship" (ibadah). As the next verse shows, this spiritual call does not arise from any supposed "need" on the part of the Creator, who is self-sufficient and infinite in His power, but is designed as an instrument for the inner development of the worshipper, who, by the act of his conscious self-surrender to the all-pervading Creative Will, may hope to come closer to an understanding of that Will and, thus, closer to God Himself.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 39 (51:59)

Implying that every act of evildoing bears the seed of its own retribution either in this world or in the hereafter.

Best viewed using your own brain

Tested on 1024x768 resolution with  FIREFOX 2

Kitabun Marqum v0.6.7 - Kitabun Marqum - Quran Research Platform by QuraniX Team Copyright © 2002-2011 All rights reserved.
Copyrights of all translations belong to their respective authors.

49:6 O you who believe, if a wicked person brings any news to you, you shall first investigate, lest you commit injustice towards some people, out of ignorance, then become sorry and remorseful for what you have done.

Rashad Khalifa (The Final Testament)

 Translations ▼

 Chapter/Verse ▼

 Refresh

 Search

<< Prev 52:1-49 Next >>

Edip-Layth	In the name of God, the Gracious, the Compassionate. 52:1 By the mount,
The Monotheist Group	In the name of God, the Almighty, the Merciful. 52:1 By the mount.
Muhammad Asad	In the name of God, The Most Gracious, The Dispenser of Grace: 52:1 CONSIDER Mount Sinai ! ¹
Rashad Khalifa	In the name of GOD, Most Gracious, Most Merciful. 52:1 Mt. Sinai.
Shabbir Ahmed	BISMILLAH-IR-RAHMAN-IR-RAHEEM With the Glorious Name of God, the Ultimate Source of Instant Beneficence and Eternal mercy Who encompasses the entire Universe, nourishing and taking care of all things for what they are meant to be; just as a mother's womb nourishes the embryo to completion without any returns. 52:1 Mount Sinai stands witness. ¹
Transliteration	Bismi Allāhi alrrahmāni alrraḥeemi 52:1 Waalttoori
A	بسم الله الرحمن الرحيم 52:1 والطور
Edip-Layth	52:2 A recorded book.
The Monotheist Group	52:2 And a recorded Scripture.
Muhammad Asad	52:2 Consider [God's] revelation, inscribed

Rashad Khalifa	52:2 The recorded scripture.
Shabbir Ahmed	52:2 And a well-scored Book it is.
Transliteration	52:2 Wakitabin mastoorin
A	52:2 وكتب مسطور
Edip-Layth	52:3 In paper published.
The Monotheist Group	52:3 In parchment unrolled.
Muhammad Asad	52:3 on wide-open scrolls. ²
Rashad Khalifa	52:3 Published in books.
Shabbir Ahmed	52:3 Written on fine parchment, unrolled, open for everyone to read, widely published. ²
Transliteration	52:3 Fee raqqin manshoorin
A	52:3 فى رق منشور
Edip-Layth	52:4 The frequented/built sanctuary.
The Monotheist Group	52:4 And the constructed Dwelling.
Muhammad Asad	52:4 Consider the long-enduring house [of worship]! ³
Rashad Khalifa	52:4 The frequented Shrine.
Shabbir Ahmed	52:4 And the Blessed House that is frequently visited (the Ka'bah) stands witness.
Transliteration	52:4 Waalbayti almaAAmoori
A	52:4 والبيت المعمور
Edip-Layth	52:5 The ceiling which is elevated.
The Monotheist Group	52:5 And the ceiling which is elevated.
Muhammad Asad	52:5 Consider the vault [of heaven] raised high!
Rashad Khalifa	52:5 The exalted ceiling.
Shabbir Ahmed	52:5 By the exalted canopy (of the sky, this Book is exalted)!
Transliteration	52:5 Waalssaqfi almarfooAAi
A	52:5 والسقف المرفوع
Edip-Layth	52:6 The sea that is set aflame.
The Monotheist Group	52:6 And the sea that is set aflame.
Muhammad Asad	52:6 Consider the surf-swollen sea!
Rashad Khalifa	52:6 The sea that is set aflame.
Shabbir Ahmed	52:6 And by the ocean bustling with ships and lights.

Transliteration	52:6 Waalbahri almasjoori
A	52:6 والبحر المسجور
Edip-Layth	52:7 Your Lord's retribution is unavoidable.
The Monotheist Group	52:7 Your Lord's retribution is unavoidable.
Muhammad Asad	52:7 VERILY, [O man,] the suffering decreed by thy Sustainer [for the sinners] will indeed come to pass:
Rashad Khalifa	52:7 Your Lord's requital is unavoidable.
Shabbir Ahmed	52:7 The retribution of your Lord is now inevitable.
Transliteration	52:7 Inna AAathaba rabbika law aqiAAun
A	52:7 ان عذاب ربك لوقع
Edip-Layth	52:8 Nothing can stop it.
The Monotheist Group	52:8 Nothing can stop it.
Muhammad Asad	52:8 there is none who could avert it.
Rashad Khalifa	52:8 No force in the universe can stop it.
Shabbir Ahmed	52:8 There is none who can repel it.
Transliteration	52:8 Ma lahu min dafiAAin
A	52:8 ما له من دافع
Edip-Layth	52:9 The day when the sky will violently thunder.
The Monotheist Group	52:9 The Day when the sky will violently thunder.
Muhammad Asad	52:9 [It will come to pass] on the Day when the skies will be convulsed in [a great] convulsion,
Rashad Khalifa	52:9 The day will come when the sky will violently thunder.
Shabbir Ahmed	52:9 On the day when the high elite will be shaken, and shaken hard. ³
Transliteration	52:9 Yawma tamooru alssamao mawran
A	52:9 يوم تمور السماء مورا
Edip-Layth	52:10 The mountains will be wiped out.
The Monotheist Group	52:10 And the mountains will be wiped out.
Muhammad Asad	52:10 and the mountains will move with [an awesome] movement.
Rashad Khalifa	52:10 The mountains will be wiped out.
Shabbir Ahmed	52:10 And the strong leaders will be moved with a movement. ⁴
Transliteration	52:10 Wataseeru aljibalu sayran
A	52:10 وتسير الجبال سيرا

Edip-Layth	52:11 Woes on that day to the deniers.
The Monotheist Group	52:11 Woe on that Day to the deniers.
Muhammad Asad	52:11 Woe, then, on that Day to all who give the lie to the truth
Rashad Khalifa	52:11 Woe on that day to the disbelievers -
Shabbir Ahmed	52:11 Ultimately, then, is destruction on that Day for all who oppose the truth.
Transliteration	52:11 Fawaylun yawma-i ^{thin} ilmukath ^{thi} beena
A	52:11 فويل يومئذ للمكذبين
Edip-Layth	52:12 Who are in their recklessness, playing.
The Monotheist Group	52:12 Who are in their recklessness, playing.
Muhammad Asad	52:12 all those who [throughout their lives] but idly played with things vain
Rashad Khalifa	52:12 who are in their blundering, heedless.
Shabbir Ahmed	52:12 Who peddle the play of shallow rituals.
Transliteration	52:12 Allat ^{he} ena hum fee khaw ^d inyalAAaboona
A	52:12 الذين هم في خوض يلعبون
Edip-Layth	52:13 The day they will be called into hell, forcibly:
The Monotheist Group	52:13 The Day they will be called into Hell, forcibly:
Muhammad Asad	52:13 on the Day when they shall be thrust into the fire with [an irresistible] thrust, [and will be told:]
Rashad Khalifa	52:13 They will be herded into Gehenna, forcibly.
Shabbir Ahmed	52:13 The Day when they are thrust into the fire of Hell with a mighty thrust.
Transliteration	52:13 Yawma yudaAAAAoona ila narijahannama daAAAAa ⁿ
A	52:13 يوم يدعون الى نار جهنم دعا
Edip-Layth	52:14 "This is the fire which you used to deny!"
The Monotheist Group	52:14 "This is the Fire which you used to deny!"
Muhammad Asad	52:14 This is the fire which you were wont to call a lie!
Rashad Khalifa	52:14 This is the Fire in which you used to disbelieve.
Shabbir Ahmed	52:14 This is the fire that you used to deny.
Transliteration	52:14 Hat ^{hi} hi alnna ^r u allateekuntum biha ^a tukath ^{thi} boona
A	52:14 هذه النار التي كنتم بها تكذبون
Edip-Layth	52:15 "Is this magic, or do you not see?"
The Monotheist Group	52:15 "Is this magic, or do you not see?"
Muhammad Asad	52:15 Was it, then, a delusion ⁵ or is it that you failed to see [its truth]?

Rashad Khalifa	52:15 Is this magic, or do you not see?
Shabbir Ahmed	52:15 Is it, then, magic, or is it that you never used your vision?
Transliteration	52:15 Afasi h run h atha am antum la t ub s iroona
A	52:15 افسح هذا ام انتم لا تبصرون
Edip-Layth	52:16 "Enter it, whether you are patient or impatient, it will be the same for you. You are only being requited for what you used to do."
The Monotheist Group	52:16 "Enter it, whether you are patient or impatient, it will be the same for you. You are only being requited for what you used to do."
Muhammad Asad	52:16 Endure it [now]! But [whether you] bear yourselves with patience or without patience, it will be the same to you: you are but being requited for what you were wont to do." ⁶
Rashad Khalifa	52:16 Suffer the burning. Whether you are patient or impatient, it will be the same for you. This is the just requital for what you did.
Shabbir Ahmed	52:16 Endure the heat herein. It is the same whether you bear it patiently or impatiently. This is only the built-in requital of what you used to do.
Transliteration	52:16 Islaw h a fa i s birooaw l a ta s biroo saw aon AAalaykum innam a t ujzawna m a kuntum taAAamaloona
A	52:16 اصلوها فاصبروا او لا تصبروا سواء عليكم انما تجزون ما كنتم تعملون
Edip-Layth	52:17 The righteous are in paradises and bliss.
The Monotheist Group	52:17 The righteous are in paradises and bliss.
Muhammad Asad	52:17 [But,] verily, the God-conscious will find themselves [on that Day] in gardens and in bliss,
Rashad Khalifa	52:17 The righteous have deserved gardens and bliss.
Shabbir Ahmed	52:17 Surely, those who chose to live upright, dwell in Gardens and in bliss.
Transliteration	52:17 Inna almuttaqeena fee jannat i nwanaAAeemi n
A	52:17 ان المتقين فى جنت ونعيم
Edip-Layth	52:18 Delighted by what their Lord has granted them; and their Lord has spared them the retribution of hell.
The Monotheist Group	52:18 Delighted by what their Lord has granted them; and their Lord has spared them the retribution of Hell.
Muhammad Asad	52:18 rejoicing in all that their Sustainer will have granted them: for their Sustainer will have warded off from them all suffering through the blazing fire.
Rashad Khalifa	52:18 They enjoy what their Lord has reserved for them; their Lord has spared them the retribution of Hell.
Shabbir Ahmed	52:18 Delighted in what their Lord has bestowed upon them. And their Lord has guarded them against the torment of the Blazing Fire.
Transliteration	52:18 Fa k iheena bim a a t ahumrabbuhum wawaq a h um rabbuhum AAa t haba alja h eemi

A	52:18 فكهين بما ءاتهم ربهم ووقهم عذاب الجحيم
Edip-Layth	52:19 Eat and drink happily because of what you used to do.
The Monotheist Group	52:19 Eat and drink happily because of what you used to do.
Muhammad Asad	52:19 [And they will be told:] Eat and drink with good cheer as an outcome of what you were wont to do,
Rashad Khalifa	52:19 Eat and drink happily, in return for your works.
Shabbir Ahmed	52:19 Enjoy life, eat and drink happily for what you used to do.
Transliteration	52:19 Kuloo waishraboo hanee-an bimakuntum taAAamaloona
A	52:19 كلوا واشربوا هنيا بما كنتم تعملون
Edip-Layth	52:20 They recline on arranged furnishings, and We coupled them with wonderful companions. ¹
The Monotheist Group	52:20 They recline on arranged furnishings, and We coupled them with wonderful companions.
Muhammad Asad	52:20 reclining on couches [of happiness] ranged in rows!" ⁷ And [in that paradise] We shall mate them with companions pure, most beautiful of eye. ⁸
Rashad Khalifa	52:20 They relax on luxurious furnishings, and we match them with beautiful spouses.
Shabbir Ahmed	52:20 Relaxing on well-decorated couches. And We will match them with neat companions, most beautiful of vision.
Transliteration	52:20 Muttaki-eena AAala sururin masfoofatinwazawwajnahum bihoorin AAeenin
A	52:20 متكين على سرر مصفوفة وزوجهم بحور عين
Edip-Layth	52:21 Those who acknowledged, and their progeny also followed them in acknowledgement; We will have their progeny join them. We never fail to reward them for any work. Every person is paid for what he did.
The Monotheist Group	52:21 And those who believed, and their progeny also followed them in belief; We will have their progeny join them. We never fail to reward them for any work. Every person is paid for what he did.
Muhammad Asad	52:21 And as for those who have attained to faith and whose offspring will have followed them in faith, We shall unite them with their offspring; and We shall not let aught of their deeds go to waste: ⁹ [but] every human being will be held in pledge for whatever he has earned. ¹⁰
Rashad Khalifa	52:21 For those who believed, and their children also followed them in belief, we will have their children join them. We never fail to reward them for any work. Every person is paid for what he did.
Shabbir Ahmed	52:21 And those who attained belief, and whose children followed them in belief, We shall unite them with their families. We shall not let any of their deeds go to waste. Every human will be held responsible for his own doings. ⁵
Transliteration	52:21 Waallatheena amanoo wa ittabaAAat-humthurriyyatuhum bi-eem anin alhaqnabihim thurriyyatahum wama alatnahum minAAamalihim min shay-in kullu imri-in bima kasaba raheenun

A	52:21 والذين ءامنوا واتبعتهم نريتهم بايمن الحقنا بهم نريتهم وما التهم من عملهم من شيء كل امرئ بما كسب رهين
Edip-Layth	52:22 We will supply them with fruit and meat such as they desire.
The Monotheist Group	52:22 We will supply them with fruit and meat such as they desire.
Muhammad Asad	52:22 And We shall bestow on them fruit and meat in abundance - whatever they may desire:
Rashad Khalifa	52:22 We will supply them with fruits and meats that they love.
Shabbir Ahmed	52:22 And We shall bestow on them the fruits and the delicacies of their choice. ⁶
Transliteration	52:22 Waamdadn ahum bif ak ihatin wala h minmim ma yashtahoon a
A	52:22 وامددهم بفكهة ولحم مما يشتهون
Edip-Layth	52:23 They will exchange one with another a cup in which there is no harm, nor regret.
The Monotheist Group	52:23 They will enjoy drinks in which there is no harm, nor regret.
Muhammad Asad	52:23 and in that [paradise] they shall pass on to one another a cup which will not give rise to empty talk, and neither incite to sin. ¹¹
Rashad Khalifa	52:23 They will enjoy drinks that are never polluted, and never sinful to drink.
Shabbir Ahmed	52:23 And therein they pass from hand to hand cups of delicious drinks that cause no idle talk nor a hangover. ⁷
Transliteration	52:23 Yatan aza AAoona feeh a ka/san lalaghwun feeh a wal a ta/theemun
A	52:23 يتنزعون فيها كاسا لا لغو فيها ولا تأثيم
Edip-Layth	52:24 Around them will be children like protected pearls.
The Monotheist Group	52:24 And around them will be children like protected pearls.
Muhammad Asad	52:24 And they will be waited upon by [immortal] youths, ¹² [as if they were children] of their own, ¹³ [as pure] as if they were pearls hidden in their shells.
Rashad Khalifa	52:24 Serving them will be servants like protected pearls.
Shabbir Ahmed	52:24 And their children like pearls, playful, happy around them. ⁸
Transliteration	52:24 Waya toofu AAalayhim ghilmanunlahum kaannahum lu/luon maknoon un
A	52:24 ويطوف عليهم غلمان لهم كأنهم لولو مكنون
Edip-Layth	52:25 They came to one another asking.
The Monotheist Group	52:25 And they came to one another asking.
Muhammad Asad	52:25 And they [who are thus blest] will turn to one another, asking each other [about their past lives]. ¹⁴
Rashad Khalifa	52:25 They will meet each other and reminisce among themselves.

Shabbir Ahmed	52:25 They will socialize and reminisce among themselves (recalling how the previous life was).
Transliteration	52:25 Waaqbala baAA du hum AAa la baAA d inyatas a aloona
A	52:25 وا قبل بعضهم على بعض يتساءلون
Edip-Layth	52:26 They said, "We used to be compassionate among our people."
The Monotheist Group	52:26 They said: "We used to be compassionate among our people."
Muhammad Asad	52:26 They will say: Behold, aforesaid - when we were [still living] in the midst of our kith and kin - we were full of fear [at the thought of God's displeasure]: ¹⁵
Rashad Khalifa	52:26 They will say, "We used to be kind and humble among our people."
Shabbir Ahmed	52:26 They will say, "We were kind and humble amidst our families."
Transliteration	52:26 Q aloo in na kun na qabluf ee ah l in a mushfiq ee na
A	52:26 قالوا انا كنا قبل في اهلنا مشفقين
Edip-Layth	52:27 "God thus blessed us, and has spared us the agony of the fiery winds."
The Monotheist Group	52:27 "God thus blessed us, and has spared us the agony of the fierce hot winds."
Muhammad Asad	52:27 and so God has graced us with His favour, and has warded off from us all suffering through the scorching winds [of frustration].
Rashad Khalifa	52:27 "GOD has blessed us, and has spared us the agony of ill winds."
Shabbir Ahmed	52:27 So God has graced us and guarded us against the suffering of scorching winds of requital.
Transliteration	52:27 Fa man na All ah u AAa lay na wawaq ana AAa th aba al ss amoomi
A	52:27 فمن الله علينا ووقنا عذاب السموم
Edip-Layth	52:28 "We used to implore Him before; He is the Kind, the Compassionate."
The Monotheist Group	52:28 "We used to implore Him before; He is the Kind, the Merciful."
Muhammad Asad	52:28 Verily, we did invoke Him [alone] ere this: [and now He has shown us] that He alone is truly benign, a true dispenser of grace!" ¹⁶
Rashad Khalifa	52:28 "We used to implore Him; He is the Most Kind, Most Merciful."
Shabbir Ahmed	52:28 Truly, We always used to call upon Him (for help and guidance). He is the Source of progress in societies, Merciful." ⁹
Transliteration	52:28 In na kun na min qablu nadAAoohuinn ah u huwa al ba rru al rra heemu
A	52:28 انا كنا من قبل ندعوه انه هو البر الرحيم
Edip-Layth	52:29 Therefore, you shall remind. For by the grace of your Lord, you are neither a soothsayer, nor mad.
The Monotheist Group	52:29 Therefore, you shall remind. For by the grace of your Lord, you are neither a soothsayer, nor mad.

Muhammad Asad	52:29 EXHORT, then, [O Prophet, all men:] for, by thy Sustainer's grace, thou art neither a soothsayer nor a madman.
Rashad Khalifa	The Messenger 52:29 You shall remind the people. With your Lord's blessing's upon you, you are neither a soothsayer, nor crazy.
Shabbir Ahmed	52:29 So, (O Messenger!) keep reminding, for, by the grace of your Lord, you are neither a soothsayer nor a madman.
Transliteration	52:29 Faṭḥakkir fama anta biniAAamatirabbika bikahin walā majnoonin
A	52:29 فذكر فما انت بنعمت ربك بكاهن ولا مجنون
Edip-Layth	52:30 Or do they say, "He is a poet; so let us just wait until a disaster befalls him."
The Monotheist Group	52:30 Or do they say: "He is a poet; so let us just wait until a disaster befalls him."
Muhammad Asad	52:30 Or do they say, [He is but] a poet - let us wait what time will do unto him"? ¹⁷
Rashad Khalifa	52:30 They may say, "He is a poet; let us just wait until he is dead."
Shabbir Ahmed	52:30 What! Do they say, "A poet! Let us wait how time handles him!"
Transliteration	52:30 Am yaqooloona shaAAairun natarabbaṣubihī rayba almanooni
A	52:30 ام يقولون شاعر نتربص به ريب المنون
Edip-Layth	52:31 Say, "Continue waiting; for I will wait along with you."
The Monotheist Group	52:31 Say: "Continue waiting; for I will wait along with you."
Muhammad Asad	52:31 Say thou: Wait, [then,] hopefully; behold, I, too, shall hopefully wait with you!" ¹⁸
Rashad Khalifa	52:31 Say, "Go on waiting; I will wait along with you."
Shabbir Ahmed	52:31 Say to them, "Hope for what you hope for. I shall wait with you expecting what I expect."
Transliteration	52:31 Qul tarabbaṣoo fa-innee maAAakum minaalmutarabbi seena
A	52:31 قل تربصوا فاني معكم من المتربصين
Edip-Layth	52:32 Or do their dreams dictate this to them, or are they a transgressing people?
The Monotheist Group	52:32 Or do their dreams dictate this to them, or are they a transgressing people?
Muhammad Asad	52:32 Is it their minds that bid them [to take] this [attitude] - or are they [simply] people filled with overweening arrogance? ¹⁹
Rashad Khalifa	52:32 Is it their dreams that dictate their behavior, or are they naturally wicked?
Shabbir Ahmed	52:32 Is it their dreams that dictate their behavior, or are they bent upon crossing all moral bounds?
Transliteration	52:32 Am ta/muruhum aḥlamuhum biḥathaam hum qawmun taghoona

A	52:32 ام تامرهم احلمهم بهذا ام هم قوم طاغون
Edip-Layth	52:33 Or do they say, "He made it all up"? No, they simply do not acknowledge.
The Monotheist Group	52:33 Or do they say: "He made it all up"? No, they simply do not believe.
Muhammad Asad	52:33 Or do they say, He himself has composed this [message]"? Nay, but they are not willing to believe!
Rashad Khalifa	52:33 Do they say, "He made it all up?" Instead, they are simply disbelievers.
Shabbir Ahmed	52:33 Or do they say, "He himself has composed it?" Nay, they simply do not wish to believe. ¹⁰
Transliteration	52:33 Am yaqooloona taqawwalahu bal layu/minoona
A	52:33 ام يقولون تقوله بل لا يؤمنون
Edip-Layth	The Quran, Unlike Human Words 52:34 Let them produce a hadith like this, if they are truthful. ²
The Monotheist Group	52:34 Let them produce a narration like this, if they are truthful.
Muhammad Asad	52:34 But then, [if they deem it the work of a mere mortal,] let them produce another discourse like it - if what they say be true!
Rashad Khalifa	"Mohammedans" Challenge God and Produce Hadith 52:34 Let them produce a Hadith like this, if they are truthful.
Shabbir Ahmed	52:34 Then let them produce a Hadith like this if they are truthful. ¹¹
Transliteration	52:34 Falya/too bi_hadeethin mithlihi in kanoosadiqeena
A	52:34 فليأتوا بحديث مثله ان كانوا صدقين
Edip-Layth	52:35 Or were they created from nothing? Or was it they who created?
The Monotheist Group	52:35 Or were they created from nothing? Or was it them who created?
Muhammad Asad	52:35 [Or do they deny the existence of God?] ²⁰ Have they themselves been created without anything [that might have caused their creation]? ²¹ or were they, perchance, their own creators?
Rashad Khalifa	52:35 Were they created from nothing? Are they the creators?
Shabbir Ahmed	52:35 Are they a product of spontaneous generation? Or were they their own creators?
Transliteration	52:35 Am khuliqoo min ghayri shay-in am humu alkh_aliqoona
A	52:35 ام خلقوا من غير شيء ام هم الخلقون
Edip-Layth	52:36 Or did they create the heavens and the earth? No, they do not reason.
The Monotheist Group	52:36 Or did they create the heavens and the Earth? No, they do not comprehend.
Muhammad Asad	52:36 [And] have they created the heavens and the earth? ²² Nay, but they have no certainty of anything!

Rashad Khalifa	52:36 Did they create the heavens and the earth? Indeed, they have no certainty.
Shabbir Ahmed	52:36 Or did they create the heavens and earth? Nay, but they have no firm belief.
Transliteration	52:36 Am khalaqoo alssamawatiwaal-arda bal la yooqinoona
A	52:36 ام خلقوا السموت والارض بل لا يوقنون
Edip-Layth	52:37 Or do they possess the treasures of your Lord? Are they in control?
The Monotheist Group	52:37 Or do they possess the treasures of your Lord? Are they in control?
Muhammad Asad	52:37 [How could they?] Are thy Sustainer's treasures with them? ²³ Or are they in charge [of destiny]?
Rashad Khalifa	52:37 Do they possess the treasures of your Lord? Are they in control?
Shabbir Ahmed	52:37 Do they possess the treasures of your Lord? Or are they in charge?
Transliteration	52:37 Am AAindahum khaza-inu rabbika amhumu almuṣaytiroona
A	52:37 ام عندهم خزان ربك ام هم المصيطرون
Edip-Layth	52:38 Or do they have a stairway that enables them to listen? Then let their Hearers show their proof.
The Monotheist Group	52:38 Or do they have a stairway that enables them to listen? Then let their listeners show their proof.
Muhammad Asad	52:38 Or have they a ladder by which they could [ascend to ultimate truths and] listen [to what is beyond the reach of human perception]? Let, then, any of them who have listened [to it] produce a manifest proof [of his knowledge]!
Rashad Khalifa	52:38 Do they climb a ladder that enables them to listen? Let their listeners show their proof.
Shabbir Ahmed	52:38 Or do they have a stairway of knowledge to ascend to the Glorious Heights of Divine revelation and listen directly to and come at par with it? Let, then, whoever has received a direct revelation bring his proof. ¹²
Transliteration	52:38 Am lahum sullamun yastamiAAoona feehifalya/ti mustamiAAuhum bisultānin mubeenīn
A	52:38 ام لهم سلم يستمعون فيه فليات مستمعهم بسلطن مبين
Edip-Layth	52:39 Or to Him belong the daughters, and to you belong the sons?
The Monotheist Group	52:39 Or to Him belong the daughters, and to you belong the sons?
Muhammad Asad	52:39 Or, [if you believe in God, how can you believe that] He has [chosen to have] daughters, whereas you yourselves would have [only] sons? ²⁴
Rashad Khalifa	52:39 Does He have daughters, while you have sons?
Shabbir Ahmed	52:39 (Such is their ignorance, yet their claims!) What! He has daughters, whereas you would rather have only sons?
Transliteration	52:39 Am lahu albanātu walakumu albanoon a

A	52:39 ام له البنت ولكم البنون
Edip-Layth	52:40 Or do you ask them for a wage, thus they are burdened by the fine?
The Monotheist Group	52:40 Or do you ask them for a wage, thus they are burdened by the fine?
Muhammad Asad	52:40 Or is it that [they who reject thy message, O Muhammad, fear lest] thou ask of them a reward, so that they would be burdened with debt [if they should listen to thee]?
Rashad Khalifa	52:40 Are you asking them for any wage, and they are burdened thereby?
Shabbir Ahmed	52:40 Or is it that you (O Prophet!) ask them for any wage so that they are plunged in debt?
Transliteration	52:40 Am tas-aluhum ajran fahum min maghraminmuthqaloon a
A	52:40 ام تسلمهم اجرا فهم من مغرم مثقلون
Edip-Layth	52:41 Or do they know the future, thus they have it recorded?
The Monotheist Group	52:41 Or do they know the future, thus they have it recorded?
Muhammad Asad	52:41 Or [do they think] that the hidden reality [of all that exists] is almost within their grasp, so that [in time] they can write it down? ²⁵
Rashad Khalifa	52:41 Do they know the future, and have it recorded?
Shabbir Ahmed	52:41 Or do they know the future so that they have it written down?
Transliteration	52:41 Am AAindahumu alghaybu fahum yaktuboon a
A	52:41 ام عندهم الغيب فهم يكتبون
Edip-Layth	52:42 Or do they intend to scheme? Indeed, it is the ingrates who are schemed against.
The Monotheist Group	52:42 Or do they intend to scheme? Indeed, it is the rejecters who are schemed against.
Muhammad Asad	52:42 Or do they want to entrap [thee in contradictions]? But they who are bent on denying the truth - it is they who are truly entrapped! ²⁶
Rashad Khalifa	52:42 Are they plotting and scheming? The disbelievers' schemes backfire against them.
Shabbir Ahmed	52:42 Or do they intend a plot (to ensnare the messenger)? But those who choose to live in darkness are the ones who will get entrapped. ¹³
Transliteration	52:42 Am yureedoona kaydan faallatheenakafaroo humu almakeedoona a
A	52:42 ام يريدون كيدا فالذين كفروا هم المكيدون
Edip-Layth	52:43 Or do they have another god besides God? God be glorified above what they set up.
The Monotheist Group	52:43 Or do they have another god besides God? God be glorified above what they set up.
Muhammad Asad	52:43 Have they, then, any deity other than God? Utterly remote is God, in His limitless glory, from anything to which men may ascribe a share in His divinity!

Rashad Khalifa	52:43 Do they have another god beside GOD? GOD be glorified, far above having partners.
Shabbir Ahmed	52:43 Or do they have a god other than God? Glorified is God far above what they associate with Him.
Transliteration	52:43 Am lahum ilāhun ghayru Allāhisubḥāna Allāhi AAamma yushrikoona
A	52:43 ام لهم اله غير الله سبحانه عما يشركون
Edip-Layth	52:44 If they see an object falling from the sky, they will say, "Piled clouds!"
The Monotheist Group	52:44 And if they see a spectacle from the sky, they will say: "Piled clouds!"
Muhammad Asad	52:44 AND YET, if they [who refuse to see the truth] were to see part of the sky falling down, they would [only] say, [It is but] a mass of clouds!"
Rashad Khalifa	52:44 When they see masses falling from the sky, they will say, "Piled clouds!"
Shabbir Ahmed	52:44 Even if they were to see a fragment from the sky falling, they would say, "A dense cloud!" 14
Transliteration	52:44 Wa-in yaraw kisfan mina a lssama-isaqitan yaqooloo saḥabun markoomun
A	52:44 وان يروا كسفا من السماء ساقطا يقولوا سحاب مركوم
Edip-Layth	52:45 So disregard them until they meet the day in which they are struck.
The Monotheist Group	52:45 So disregard them until they meet the Day in which they are struck.
Muhammad Asad	52:45 Hence, leave them alone until they face that [Judgment] Day of theirs, when they will be stricken with terror:
Rashad Khalifa	52:45 Disregard them until they meet the day in which they are struck.
Shabbir Ahmed	52:45 So, leave them alone until they meet that Day of theirs wherein they shall be thunderstruck.
Transliteration	52:45 Fatharhum ḥatta yulaqooyawmahumu allathee feehi yusAAaqaona
A	52:45 فذرهم حتى يلقوا يومهم الذى فيه يصعقون
Edip-Layth	52:46 The day when their schemes will not protect them, nor will they be helped.
The Monotheist Group	52:46 The Day when their schemes will not protect them, nor will they be helped.
Muhammad Asad	52:46 the Day when none of their scheming will be of the least avail to them, and they will receive no succour.
Rashad Khalifa	52:46 On that day, their schemes will not protect them, nor will they be helped.
Shabbir Ahmed	52:46 - The Day when none of their scheming will avail them, nor will they be helped.
Transliteration	52:46 Yawma la yughnee AAanhum kayduhumshay-an wa la hum yunṣaroona
A	52:46 يوم لا يغنى عنهم كيدهم شيئا ولا هم ينصرون
Edip-Layth	52:47 For those who transgressed will be retribution beyond this, but most of them do not know.
	52:47 And for those who transgressed will be a retribution beyond this, but most

The Monotheist Group	of them do not know.
Muhammad Asad	52:47 But, verily, for those who are bent on doing evil, there is suffering in store [even] closer at hand than that [supreme suffering in the hereafter]: but most of them are not aware of it. 27
Rashad Khalifa	52:47 Those who transgress suffer retribution here, but most of them do not know.
Shabbir Ahmed	52:47 And certainly, for oppressors, violators of human rights and those who relegate the truth, there is a punishment beyond that. But most of them know not. 15
Transliteration	52:47 Wa-inna lilla the ena th alamooAAath ab an doona th alika wal a kinna aktharahum l a yaAAalamoona
A	52:47 وان للذين ظلموا عذابا دون ذلك ولكن اكثرهم لا يعلمون
Edip-Layth	52:48 You shall be patient for the judgment of your Lord, for you are in Our sights, and glorify the praise of your Lord when you get up.
The Monotheist Group	52:48 You shall be patient for the judgment of your Lord, for you are in Our sights; and glorify the praise of your Lord when you rise.
Muhammad Asad	52:48 And so, await in patience thy Sustainer's judgment, for thou art well within Our sight. 28 And extol thy Sustainer's limitless glory and praise whenever thou risest up,
Rashad Khalifa	52:48 You shall steadfastly persevere in carrying out your Lord's command - you are in our eyes - and glorify and praise your Lord when you get up.
Shabbir Ahmed	52:48 (O Messenger!) Work patiently to establish the Rule of your Lord, for you are in Our eyes. Begin your day with a firm resolve and work to manifest the praise of your Lord. 16
Transliteration	52:48 Wai s bir li h ukmi rabbikafa-innaka bi-aAAayunin a wasabbi h bi h amdirabbika h eenaa taqoom u
A	52:48 واصبر لحكم ربك فانك باعيننا وسبح بحمد ربك حين تقوم
Edip-Layth	52:49 Also during the night glorify Him, and at the setting of the stars.
The Monotheist Group	52:49 Also from the night glorify Him, and at the fading of the stars.
Muhammad Asad	52:49 and extol His glory at night, and at the time when the stars retreat.
Rashad Khalifa	52:49 Also during the night glorify Him, and at dawn as the stars fade away.
Shabbir Ahmed	52:49 And even at night do your best to manifest His praise, and at the setting of the stars.
Transliteration	52:49 Wamina allayli fasabbi h hu wa-idba r aaInnujoomi
A	52:49 ومن اليل فسيبحه وادبر النجوم

<< Prev 52:1-49 Next >>

Return to top

End Notes

Muhammad Asad - The Message Of Quran

Muhammad Asad - End Note 1 (52:1)

For my rendering of the adjectival particle wa as "Consider", see first half of note 23 on 74:32. The expression at-tur (lit., "the mountain") is used in the Qur'an exclusively to denote Mount Sinai, on which Moses received his decisive revelation. In the present context it signifies, metonymically, revelation as such, to which the next verse calls attention.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 2 (52:3)

I.e., always open to man's understanding (Razi).

Muhammad Asad - End Note 3 (52:4)

This is a metonym for the fact that ever since the dawn of human consciousness men have persistently - although often but dimly - realized the existence of God and have tried, spurred on by the continuous, direct revelation granted to His prophets, to come closer to Him through worship. Hence, Baydawi regards the expression al-bayt al-ma'mur as a metaphor for the heart of the believer.

Muhammad Asad - End Note (52:6)

Muhammad Asad - End Note 5 (52:15)

This is obviously the meaning of the term sihr in the present context (see surah 74 note 12).

Muhammad Asad - End Note 6 (52:16)

I.e., "you will have to endure it in either case, for it is but a consequence of your own doings and attitudes": a subtle allusion to the fact that the "punishments" and "rewards" in the life to come are but allegories of the logical consequences of the manner in which one acts or behaves in this life.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 7 (52:20)

As explained by Razi in his comments on the above verse as well as on 18:31 and 55:54, the "reclining on couches" or "on carpets" in paradise is a symbol of inner fulfillment and peace of mind; and he points out that this is also alluded to in the identity of the verbal root sarra ("he was [or "became"] happy") in both the nouns surur ("happiness") and sarir ("couch").

Muhammad Asad - End Note 8 (52:20)

For an explanation of the expression hur'in, see surah 56 note 8.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 9 (52:21)

Implying that the righteousness of their children increases the merit of the parents.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 10 (52:21)

I.e., the righteousness of the parents cannot absolve their offspring from individual responsibility.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 11 (52:23)

Cf. 37:47 - "no headiness will there be in it, and they will not get drunk thereon": and 56:19 - "by which their minds will not be clouded, and which will not make them drunk": an allegory of conscious, joyful elation. As regards the preceding reference to "fruit and meat in abundance - whatever they may desire", Razi observes that this symbolic "abundance" of sensual satisfaction will not lead to satiety but, rather, to a pleasurable desire which - contrary to what is man's lot in this world - can always be gratified.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 12 (52:24)

See note 6 on 56:17-18.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 13 (52:24)

Thus Razi, explaining the selfless devotion implied in the pronoun lahum (lit., "for them", i.e., "of their own").

Muhammad Asad - End Note 14 (52:25)

This symbolic "asking one another about their past lives" is meant to bring out the fact, often stressed in the Qur'an, that man's individual consciousness invariably survives his bodily death, to continue unbroken in the life to come.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 15 (52:26)

Thus do all classical commentators - without, to my knowledge, any exception - interpret the above verse.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 16 (52:28)

Sc., "through our own, actual experience". This interpolation is based on the reading of the subsequent word as annahu ("that He is"), according to the Medina school, in contrast with the more conventional Kufah and Basrah reading innahu ("verily, He is"). As Tabari stresses, either of these two readings is correct; I have chosen for my rendering the former inasmuch as it points to the overwhelming, direct insight which will be granted to the blessed on resurrection.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 17 (52:30)

Lit., "let us await for him the evil happenings of time", i.e., brought about by time: this is the meaning given by Jawhari and Zamakhshari (in the Asas) to the expression rayb al-manun (which latter word is, according to these two authorities, a synonym of dahr, "time"). In the present context, the phrase obviously denotes the expectation of the Prophet's detractors that time would prove his teachings to have been false or, at best, a delusion.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 18 (52:31)

I.e., "Whereas you are waiting for my message to be proved false, I am awaiting its fulfillment!"

Muhammad Asad - End Note 19 (52:32)

The meaning is: Have they any reasoned objection to the contents of this message - or do they simply reject the truth because their false pride in man's supposed "self-sufficiency" (cf. 96:6-7) prevents them from accepting the notion of responsibility before a Supreme Being?

Muhammad Asad - End Note 20 (52:35)

I.e., implicitly, by denying the fact of His revelation.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 21 (52:35)

I.e., by "spontaneous generation", as it were.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 22 (52:36)

This is a reductio ad absurdum of their unwillingness to admit the existence of a conscious Primary Cause underlying all creation.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 23 (52:37)

I.e., the treasures of His infinite knowledge and power.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 24 (52:39)

This is addressed specifically to the pagan contemporaries of the Prophet, implying that "you not only blaspheme by ascribing progeny to God, but you intensify your blasphemy by ascribing to Him something that you yourselves despise, i.e., female offspring": cf. 16:57-59 and the corresponding notes.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 25 (52:41)

For an explanation, see note 26 on the identical passage in 68:47.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 26 (52:42)

I.e., it is they who constantly lose themselves in contradictions, whereas the message of the Qur'an is free thereof (cf. 4:82 and the corresponding note).

Muhammad Asad - End Note 27 (52:47)

As in 32:21, the Qur'an stresses here the fact that every evil deed is bound to react in some way or other, even in this world, against him who commits it - either by depriving him of the affection of those who surround him and, thus, deepening his inner loneliness, or, more directly, by creating circumstances which make the achievement of real happiness and satisfaction increasingly impossible.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 28 (52:48)

I.e., "under Our protection".

Shabbir Ahmed -

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 1 (52:1)

That this Qur'an is a Divine writ as was the scripture of law bestowed upon Moses

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 2 (52:3)

Raqq = Deer skin = Parchment. Right here is the unequivocal negation of many accounts of fabricated Hadith that the Qur'an was written on bones, date-leaves, stones etc. Manshoor = Unfolded, unrolled, available to be seen and read, open to understanding, widely distributed

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 3 (52:9)

Samaa = Sky, heaven, height, top and elite

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 4 (52:10)

Jibaaal = Mountains, of firm standing, strong leaders, high and powerful, dominating

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 5 (52:21)

Being the progeny of righteous ancestors alone will be of no avail. 74:38. Raheen = Held as pledge = Collateral

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 6 (52:22)

Lahmim-maa-yashtahoon = Literally, meat such as they desire = Delicacies of their choice

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 7 (52:23)

Ithm = Any action that hurts human potential or dignity, hangover, harming the 'self', dragging down

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 8 (52:24)

13:23, 52:21, 59:17

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 9 (52:28)

Birr = Making room for others to make progress

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 10 (52:33)

The message hits at their interests. So, so many self-contradictory allegations

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 11 (52:34)

2:23, 10:38, 11:13, 17:88

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 12 (52:38)

The mystics are unable to show their 'experience'. After the select messengers, anyone claiming to communicate with God is either deceiving or is deluded

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 13 (52:42)

Kufr has been rendered as living in darkness according to the context. Kufr also means = Denying or concealing the truth = Refusing to accept God's messages = Blind following = Rejecting Divine guidance = Disregarding the revelation in favor of clergy

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 14 (52:44)

Their lack of reasoning makes them oblivious to the Law of Requit. 26:187

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 15 (52:47)

That their wrongdoing hurts their own 'self'. Three meanings of Zaalimeen given in the beginning of the verse

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 16 (52:48)

In Our eyes = Under God's affectionate support and care

Edip-Layth - Quran: A Reformist Translation

Edip-Layth - End Note 1 (52:20)

See 44:54.

Edip-Layth - End Note 2 (52:34)

Abu Dawud, a hadith book set up as a partner with the Quran by Sunnis, reports a hadith alleging Muhammad saying "I am given the Quran and similar to it." This hadith is obviously a polytheist response to the Quran's challenge. See 6:112-116; 12:111; 33:38; 35:43; 45:6.

Tested on 1024x768 resolution with  FIREFOX 2

Kitabun Marqum v0.6.7 - Kitabun Marqum - Quran Research Platform by QuraniX Team Copyright © 2002-2011 All rights reserved.
Copyrights of all translations belong to their respective authors.

49:6 O you who believe, if a wicked person brings any news to you, you shall first investigate, lest you commit injustice towards some people, out of ignorance, then become sorry and remorseful for what you have done.

Rashad Khalifa (The Final Testament)

 Translations ▼

 Chapter/Verse ▼

 Refresh

 Search

<< Prev 53:1-62 Next >>

Edip-Layth	In the name of God, the Gracious, the Compassionate. 53:1 As the star collapsed. ¹
The Monotheist Group	In the name of God, the Almighty, the Merciful. 53:1 As the star descended.
Muhammad Asad	In the name of God, The Most Gracious, The Dispenser of Grace: 53:1 CONSIDER this unfolding [of God's message], as it comes down from on high! ¹
Rashad Khalifa	In the name of GOD, Most Gracious, Most Merciful. 53:1 As the stars fell away.
Shabbir Ahmed	BISMILLAH-IR-RAHMAN-IR-RAHEEM With the Glorious Name of God, the Ultimate Source of Instant Beneficence and Eternal mercy Who encompasses the entire Universe, nourishing and taking care of all things for what they are meant to be; just as a mother's womb nourishes the embryo to completion without any returns. 53:1 Witness are the Stars that set along a course appointed. ¹
Transliteration	Bismi Allāhi alrrahmāni alrraḥeemi 53:1 WaalInnajmi itha hawa
A	بسم الله الرحمن الرحيم 53:1 والنجم اذا هوى
Edip-Layth	53:2 Your friend was not astray, nor was he deceived. ²
The Monotheist Group	53:2 Your friend was not astray, nor was he deceived.

Muhammad Asad	53:2 This fellow-man of yours has not gone astray, nor is he deluded, ²
Rashad Khalifa	53:2 Your friend (Muhammad) was not astray, nor was he deceived.
Shabbir Ahmed	53:2 Your honored companion is neither in error, nor is he misled.
Transliteration	53:2 Ma dalla sahibukum wama ghawa
A	53:2 ما ضل صاحبكم وما غوى
Edip-Layth	53:3 Nor does he speak from personal desire. ³
The Monotheist Group	53:3 Nor does he speak from personal desire.
Muhammad Asad	53:3 and neither does he speak out of his own desire:
Rashad Khalifa	53:3 Nor was he speaking out of a personal desire.
Shabbir Ahmed	53:3 Nor does he utter the Word out of his desire.
Transliteration	53:3 Wama yan tiqu AAani al hawa
A	53:3 وما ينطق عن الهوى
Edip-Layth	53:4 It is a divine inspiration.
The Monotheist Group	53:4 It is a divine inspiration.
Muhammad Asad	53:4 that [which he conveys to you] is but [a divine] inspiration with which he is being inspired
Rashad Khalifa	53:4 It was divine inspiration.
Shabbir Ahmed	53:4 This (Qur'an) is but a revelation that is being revealed to him.
Transliteration	53:4 In huwa illa wahyun yoo ha
A	53:4 ان هو الا وحى يوحى
Edip-Layth	53:5 He has been taught by One mighty in power.
The Monotheist Group	53:5 He has been taught by One mighty in power.
Muhammad Asad	53:5 something that a very mighty one ³ has imparted to him:
Rashad Khalifa	53:5 Dictated by the Most Powerful.
Shabbir Ahmed	53:5 He has been taught by the One Mighty in Powers.
Transliteration	53:5 AAallamahu shadeedu al quwa
A	53:5 علمه شديد القوى
Edip-Layth	53:6 Possessor of ultimate wisdom; he became stable.
The Monotheist Group	53:6 Free from any defect, he became stable.
Muhammad Asad	53:6 [an angel] endowed with surpassing power, who in time manifested himself in his true shape and nature,
Rashad Khalifa	53:6 Possessor of all authority. From His highest height.

Shabbir Ahmed	53:6 The Owner of authority and wisdom established him (the prophet).
Transliteration	53:6 Thoo mirratin faistawa
A	53:6 نُو مَرَّة فَاسْتَوَى
Edip-Layth	53:7 While he was at the highest horizon.
The Monotheist Group	53:7 While he was at the highest horizon.
Muhammad Asad	53:7 appearing in the horizon's loftiest part, ⁴
Rashad Khalifa	53:7 At the highest horizon.
Shabbir Ahmed	53:7 At the highest horizon, ²
Transliteration	53:7 Wahuwa bi al-ofuqi al-aAAla
A	53:7 وَهُوَ بِالْأَفْقِ الْأَعْلَى
Edip-Layth	53:8 Then he drew nearer by moving down.
The Monotheist Group	53:8 Then he drew nearer by moving down.
Muhammad Asad	53:8 and then drew near, and came close,
Rashad Khalifa	53:8 He drew nearer by moving down.
Shabbir Ahmed	53:8 Of human wisdom and knowledge as he drew near and approached (the point where the human intellect comes to a halt),
Transliteration	53:8 Thumma dana fatadalla
A	53:8 ثُمَّ دَنَا فَتَدَلَّى
Edip-Layth	53:9 Until he became as near as two bow-lengths or nearer.
The Monotheist Group	53:9 Until he became as near as two bow-lengths or nearer.
Muhammad Asad	53:9 until he was but two bow-lengths away, or even nearer. ⁵
Rashad Khalifa	53:9 Until He became as close as possible.
Shabbir Ahmed	53:9 Till he was but two bow-lengths away, or even closer. ³
Transliteration	53:9 Fakana qaaba qawsayni aw adna
A	53:9 فَكَانَ قَابَ قَوْسَيْنِ أَوْ أَدْنَى
Edip-Layth	53:10 He then conveyed the inspiration to His servant what was to be revealed.
The Monotheist Group	53:10 He then conveyed the inspiration to His servant what was to be revealed.
Muhammad Asad	53:10 And thus did [God] reveal unto His servant whatever He deemed right to reveal. ⁶
Rashad Khalifa	53:10 He then revealed to His servant what was to be revealed.
Shabbir Ahmed	53:10 And thus He revealed to His servant what He revealed.
Transliteration	53:10 Faawha ila AAabdihi maawha

A	53:10 فلوحي الى عبده ما اوحى
Edip-Layth	53:11 The heart did not invent what it saw.
The Monotheist Group	53:11 The heart did not invent what it saw.
Muhammad Asad	53:11 The [servant's] heart did not give the lie to what he saw: 7
Rashad Khalifa	53:11 The mind never made up what it saw.
Shabbir Ahmed	53:11 And never did he find contrary to reason what he learned. 4
Transliteration	53:11 Ma kathaba alfu- adu mara a
A	53:11 ما كنب الفواد ما راى
Edip-Layth	53:12 Do you doubt him in what he saw?
The Monotheist Group	53:12 Do you doubt him in what he saw?
Muhammad Asad	53:12 will you, then, contend with him as to what he saw? 8
Rashad Khalifa	53:12 Are you doubting what he saw?
Shabbir Ahmed	53:12 Will you, then, contend with him concerning what he has learned (that you have not)?
Transliteration	53:12 Afatuma roonahu AAa la may ara
A	53:12 افتمرونه على ما يرى
Edip-Layth	53:13 Indeed, he saw him in another descent.
The Monotheist Group	53:13 And indeed, he saw him in another descent.
Muhammad Asad	53:13 And, indeed, he saw him 9 a second time
Rashad Khalifa	53:13 He saw him in another descent.
Shabbir Ahmed	53:13 He has recalled the revelation (on his heart) once again. 5
Transliteration	53:13 Walaqad ra ahu nazlatan okh ra
A	53:13 ولقد رءاه نزلة اخرى
Edip-Layth	53:14 At the ultimate point.
The Monotheist Group	53:14 At the ultimate point.
Muhammad Asad	53:14 by the lote-tree of the farthest limit, 10
Rashad Khalifa	53:14 At the ultimate point.
Shabbir Ahmed	53:14 At the Ultimate Mark 6
Transliteration	53:14 AAinda sidrati almun tah a
A	53:14 عند سدرة المنتهى
Edip-Layth	53:15 Near is the eternal Paradise.

The Monotheist Group	53:15 Near it is the eternal Paradise.
Muhammad Asad	53:15 near unto the garden of promise.
Rashad Khalifa	53:15 Where the eternal Paradise is located.
Shabbir Ahmed	53:15 Near the Garden of Abode. 7
Transliteration	53:15 AAindahā jannatu alma/wā
A	53:15 عندها جنة الماوى
Edip-Layth	53:16 The whole place was overwhelmed.
The Monotheist Group	53:16 The whole place was overwhelmed.
Muhammad Asad	53:16 with the lote-tree veiled in a veil of nameless splendour. 11
Rashad Khalifa	53:16 The whole place was overwhelmed.
Shabbir Ahmed	53:16 Overwhelming is the spectacle at the overwhelming Ultimate Mark!
Transliteration	53:16 lth yaghshā alssidratama yaghshā
A	53:16 اذ يغشى السدرة ما يغشى
Edip-Layth	53:17 The eyes did not waver, nor go blind.
The Monotheist Group	53:17 The eyes did not waver, nor go blind.
Muhammad Asad	53:17 [And withal,] the eye did not waver, nor yet did it stray:
Rashad Khalifa	53:17 The eyes did not waver, nor go blind.
Shabbir Ahmed	53:17 Yet, his sight wavered not and wandered not.
Transliteration	53:17 Ma zaghā albaṣaru wamaṭaghā
A	53:17 ما زاغ البصر وما طغى
Edip-Layth	53:18 He has seen from the great signs of his Lord.
The Monotheist Group	53:18 He has seen from the great signs of his Lord.
Muhammad Asad	53:18 truly did he see some of the most profound of his Sustainer's symbols. 12
Rashad Khalifa	53:18 He saw great signs of his Lord.
Shabbir Ahmed	53:18 He has seen the great signs of his Lord. 8
Transliteration	53:18 Laqad raā min ayatirabbihi alkubrā
A	53:18 لقد رأى من آيات ربه الكبرى
Edip-Layth	The Meccan Idols Were False Attributes 53:19 Have you considered Allaāt and Al-Uzzah? 4
The Monotheist Group	53:19 Have you considered Allaāt and Al-`Uzzah?
Muhammad Asad	53:19 HAVE YOU, then, ever considered [what you are worshipping in] Al-Lat and Al-Uzza,

	The Flimsy Idols
Rashad Khalifa	53:19 Compare this with the female idols Allaah and Al-`Uzzah.
Shabbir Ahmed	53:19 Have you seen and thought about Lat, and Uzza,
Transliteration	53:19 Afaraaytumu allata waalAAuzaa
A	53:19 افريتم اللت والعزى
Edip-Layth	53:20 And Manaah, the third one?
The Monotheist Group	53:20 And Manaah, the third one?
Muhammad Asad	53:20 as well as [in] Manat, the third and last [of this triad]? 13
Rashad Khalifa	53:20 And Manaah, the third one.
Shabbir Ahmed	53:20 And Manat, the third other? 9
Transliteration	53:20 Wamanata alththalithataal-okhra
A	53:20 ومنوة الثالثة الاخرى
Edip-Layth	53:21 Do you have the males, while He has the females?
The Monotheist Group	53:21 Do you have the males, while He has the females?
Muhammad Asad	53:21 Why - for yourselves [you would choose only] male offspring, whereas to Him [you assign] female: 14
Rashad Khalifa	53:21 Do you have sons, while He has these as daughters?
Shabbir Ahmed	53:21 Why - for yourselves you would prefer only sons, whereas to Him you assign daughters!
Transliteration	53:21 Alakumu alththakaru walahual-ontha
A	53:21 الكم الذكر وله الانثى
Edip-Layth	53:22 What a strange distribution!
The Monotheist Group	53:22 What a strange distribution!
Muhammad Asad	53:22 that, lo and behold, is an unfair division!
Rashad Khalifa	53:22 What a disgraceful distribution!
Shabbir Ahmed	53:22 This indeed is a very unfair division (that you worship female idols and resent having daughters).
Transliteration	53:22 Tilka ithan qismatun deeza
A	53:22 تلك اذا قسمة ضيزى
Edip-Layth	53:23 These are but names/attributes that you made up, you and your forefathers. God never authorized such. They only follow conjecture, and wishful thinking, while the guidance has come to them from their Lord.
The Monotheist Group	53:23 These are but names that you made up, you and your forefathers. God never authorized such. They only follow conjecture, and personal desire, while the guidance has come to them from their Lord.

Muhammad Asad	53:23 These [allegedly divine beings] are nothing but empty names which you have invented - you and your forefathers - [and] for which God has bestowed no warrant from on high. ¹⁵ They [who worship them] follow nothing but surmise and their own wishful thinking - although right guidance has now indeed come unto them from their Sustainer. ¹⁶
Rashad Khalifa	53:23 These are but names that you made up, you and your forefathers. GOD never authorized such a blasphemy. They follow conjecture, and personal desire, when the true guidance has come to them herein from their Lord.
Shabbir Ahmed	53:23 They are but names that you have named, you and your ancestors, for which God has revealed no authority. They follow nothing but conjecture and their own fantasies. Now the guidance from their Lord has come to them (hence, they have no excuses). ¹⁰
Transliteration	53:23 In hiya ill a asm aonsammaytumooḥa antum wa abaokum m aanzala All ahu biḥa min sult anin inyattabiAAoona ill a alththanna wam atahwa al-anfusu walaqad jaahum min rabbihimu alhuda
A	53:23 ان هي الا اسماء سميتموها انتم وءابوكم ما انزل الله بها من سلطان ان يتبعون الا الظن وما تهوى الانفس ولقد جاءهم من ربهم الهدى
Edip-Layth	53:24 Or shall the human being have what he wishes?
The Monotheist Group	53:24 Or shall the human being have what he wishes?
Muhammad Asad	53:24 Does man imagine that it is his due to have ¹⁷ all that he might wish for,
Rashad Khalifa	53:24 What is it that the human being desires?
Shabbir Ahmed	53:24 Nay, should man get all that he covets and fancies?
Transliteration	53:24 Am lil-insani ma tamanna
A	53:24 ام للانسن ما تمنى
Edip-Layth	53:25 To God belongs the Hereafter, and the world.
The Monotheist Group	53:25 To God belongs the Hereafter, and the world.
Muhammad Asad	53:25 despite the fact that [both] the life to come and this present [one] belong to God [alone]? ¹⁸
Rashad Khalifa	53:25 To GOD belongs both the Hereafter, and this world.
Shabbir Ahmed	53:25 But to God belongs the Hereafter and the former life. ¹¹
Transliteration	53:25 Falillahi al-akhiratu waal-oola
A	53:25 فله الاءخرة والاولى
Edip-Layth	53:26 There are many angels in heaven, who have no power to intercede, except after God gives permission for whom He wishes and is satisfied with him. ⁵
The Monotheist Group	53:26 And there are many angels in heaven, who have no power to intercede, except after God gives permission for whom He wishes and is satisfied with him.
	53:26 For, however many angels there be in the heavens, their intercession can

Muhammad Asad	be of no least avail [to anyone] - except after God has given leave [to intercede] for whomever He wills and with whom He is well-pleased. ¹⁹
Rashad Khalifa	53:26 Not even the angels in heaven possess authority to intercede. The only ones permitted by GOD are those who act in accordance with His will and His approval.
Shabbir Ahmed	53:26 And how many forces there are in the Universe whose company avails not except whom God permits. This is so, because such a person works by His laws and thus obtains His approval. ¹²
Transliteration	53:26 Wakam min malakin fee al-Issamawatilā tughnee shaf al-AAatuhum shay-an illā minbaAAadi an ya/ th ana Allāhu liman yashāo wayard a
A	53:26 وكم من ملك في السموت لا تغنى شفعتهم شيئا الا من بعد ان ياذن الله لمن يشاء ويرضى
Edip-Layth	The Ironic Religious Doctrine of Misogynists 53:27 Those who reject the Hereafter have given the angels feminine names.
The Monotheist Group	53:27 Those who disbelieve in the Hereafter have given the angels feminine names.
Muhammad Asad	53:27 Behold, it is [only] such as do not [really] believe in the life to come that regard the angels as female beings; ²⁰
Rashad Khalifa	53:27 Those who disbelieve in the Hereafter have given the angels feminine names.
Shabbir Ahmed	53:27 Only those who do not believe in the Hereafter (consider them female beings) and name the angels with female names. ¹³
Transliteration	53:27 Inna alla th eena l a yu/minoonabi al- a akhirati layusammoona almal a -ikatatasmiyata al-on th a
A	53:27 ان الذين لا يؤمنون بالآخرة ليسمون الملكة تسمية الانثى
Edip-Layth	53:28 While they had no knowledge about this; they only followed conjecture. Conjecture is no substitute for the truth.
The Monotheist Group	53:28 While they had no knowledge about this; they only followed conjecture. And conjecture is no substitute for the truth.
Muhammad Asad	53:28 and [since] they have no knowledge whatever thereof, ²¹ they follow nothing but surmise: yet, behold, never can surmise take the place of truth.
Rashad Khalifa	53:28 They had no knowledge about this; they only conjectured. Conjecture is no substitute for the truth.
Shabbir Ahmed	53:28 They have no knowledge about it. They follow nothing but guesswork. But guesswork can never free anyone from the reality of things. ¹⁴
Transliteration	53:28 Wama lahum bihi min AAilmin inyattabiAAoona ill a a lthth anna wa-innaal lthth anna la yughnee mina al h aqqishay- a n
A	53:28 وما لهم به من علم ان يتبعون الا الظن وان الظن لا يغنى من الحق شيئا
Edip-Layth	53:29 So disregard he who turns away from Our reminder, and only desires this worldly life.

The Monotheist Group	53:29 So disregard he who turns away from Our reminder, and only desires this worldly life.
Muhammad Asad	53:29 Avoid thou, therefore, those who turn away from all remembrance of Us and care for no more than the life of this world,
Rashad Khalifa	Choose Your Friends Carefully 53:29 You shall disregard those who turn away from our message, and become preoccupied with this worldly life.
Shabbir Ahmed	53:29 Therefore, shun those who turn away from Our reminder and desire nothing but the life of the world. 15
Transliteration	53:29 FaaAArid AAan man tawall a AAan thikrina walam yurid ill a alhayataalddunya
A	53:29 فاعرض عن من تولى عن ذكرنا ولم يرد الا الحياة الدنيا
Edip-Layth	53:30 This is the extent of their knowledge. Your Lord is fully aware of those who strayed away from His path, and He is fully aware of those who are guided.
The Monotheist Group	53:30 This is the extent of their knowledge. Your Lord is fully aware of those who strayed away from His path, and He is fully aware of those who are guided.
Muhammad Asad	53:30 which, to them, is the only thing worth knowing. 22 Behold, thy Sustainer is fully aware as to who has strayed from His path, and fully aware is He as to who follows His guidance.
Rashad Khalifa	53:30 This is the extent of their knowledge. Your Lord is fully aware of those who strayed away from His path, and He is fully aware of those who are guided.
Shabbir Ahmed	53:30 Such is the sum-total of their knowledge. Certainly, your Lord knows best him who strays from His way, and He knows best who goes right.
Transliteration	53:30 Thalika mablaghuhum mina alAAilmiinna rabbaka huwa aAAlamu biman dalla AAan sabeelhiwahuwa aAAlamu bimani ihtad a
A	53:30 ذلك مبلغهم من العلم ان ربك هو اعلم بمن ضل عن سبيله وهو اعلم بمن اهتدى
Edip-Layth	53:31 To God belongs everything in the heavens and everything on earth. He will requite those who commit evil for their works, and will reward the righteous for their righteousness.
The Monotheist Group	53:31 And to God belongs everything in the heavens and everything on Earth. He will requite those who commit evil for their works, and will reward the righteous for their righteousness.
Muhammad Asad	53:31 Indeed, unto God belongs all that is in the heavens and all that is on earth: and so He will reward those who do evil in accordance with what they did, and will reward those who do good with ultimate good. 23
Rashad Khalifa	53:31 To GOD belongs everything in the heavens and everything on earth. He will requite those who commit evil for their works, and will reward the righteous for their righteousness.
Shabbir Ahmed	53:31 And to God belongs all that is in the heavens and all that is on earth. And so He will reward those who do evil according to their works. And He will reward those who do good with what is best. 16
Transliteration	53:31 Walillahi m a fee a Issamawatiwama fee al-ar di liyajziya alla theena asaobima AAamiloo wayajziya alla theena ahsanoobialhusna

A	53:31 والله ما فى السموت وما فى الارض ليجزى الذين اسوا بما عملوا ويجزى الذين احسنوا بالحسنى
Edip-Layth	53:32 They avoid major sins and lewdness, except for minor offences. Your Lord is with vast forgiveness. He has been fully aware of you since He initiated you from the earth, and while you were fetuses in your mothers' wombs. Therefore, do not acclaim yourselves; He is fully aware of the righteous.
The Monotheist Group	53:32 They avoid major sins and lewdness, except for minor offences. Your Lord is with vast forgiveness. He has been fully aware of you since He initiated you from the Earth, and while you were embryos in your mothers wombs. Therefore, do not acclaim yourselves; He is fully aware of the righteous.
Muhammad Asad	53:32 As for those who avoid the [truly] grave sins and shameful deeds - even though they may some times stumble ²⁴ behold, thy Sustainer is abounding in forgiveness. He is fully aware of you ²⁵ when He brings you into being out of dust, ²⁶ and when you are still hidden in your mothers' wombs: do not, then, consider yourselves pure - [for] He knows best as to who is conscious of Him. ²⁷
Rashad Khalifa	53:32 They avoid gross sins and transgressions, except for minor offenses. Your Lord's forgiveness is immense. He has been fully aware of you since He initiated you from the earth, and while you were embryos in your mothers' bellies. Therefore, do not exalt yourselves; He is fully aware of the righteous.
Shabbir Ahmed	53:32 Those who abstain from the greater transgressions that deplete the communal energy, and from shameful deeds and stinginess, even though they may sometimes waver, your Lord is of limitless forgiveness. He knows you best since He brings you into being from the earth, and when you were still hidden in the bellies of your mothers? Therefore, claim not piety for yourselves. He knows best as to who is righteous. ¹⁷
Transliteration	53:32 Allat ^h heena yajtaniboona kab ^a -iraal-ithmi wa alfaw ^h isha ill ^a allamama innarabbaka wasiAAu almaghfirati huwa aAAlamu bikum i th anshaakum mina al-ardi wa-i th antum ajinnatun fee bu ^{toon} i ommah ^{at} ikum fal ^a tuzakkoo anfusakumhuwa aAAlamu bimani ittaqa
A	53:32 الذين يجتنبون كبائر الاثم والفواحش الا اللمم ان ربك وسع المغفرة هو اعلم بكم اذ انشاكم من الارض واذ انتم اجنة فى بطون امهتكم فلا تركوا انفسكم هو اعلم بمن اتقى
Edip-Layth	53:33 Have you noted the one who turned away?
The Monotheist Group	53:33 Have you noted the one who turned away?
Muhammad Asad	53:33 HAST THOU, then, ever considered him who turns away [from remembering Us, and cares for no more than the life of this world],
Rashad Khalifa	53:33 Have you noted the one who turned away?
Shabbir Ahmed	53:33 Have you, then, noticed him who turns away (from good deeds),
Transliteration	53:33 Afaraayta allat ^h ee tawalla ^a
A	53:33 افرعيت الذى تولى
Edip-Layth	53:34 He gave very little, and then he stopped.
The Monotheist Group	53:34 And he gave very little, then he stopped.

Muhammad Asad	53:34 and gives so little [of himself for the good of his soul], and so grudgingly? ²⁸
Rashad Khalifa	53:34 Rarely did he give to charity, and then very little.
Shabbir Ahmed	53:34 Gives a little, and so grudgingly?
Transliteration	53:34 WaaAAaṭa qaleelan waakda
A	53:34 واعطى قليلا واكدى
Edip-Layth	53:35 Did he possess knowledge of the future? Could he see it?
The Monotheist Group	53:35 Did he possess knowledge of the future? Could he see it?
Muhammad Asad	53:35 Does he [claim to] have knowledge of some thing that is beyond the reach of human perception, so that he can see [it clearly]? ²⁹
Rashad Khalifa	53:35 Did he possess knowledge of the future? Could he see it?
Shabbir Ahmed	53:35 What! Does he have the knowledge of the unseen (the future that he sees unfolded before him)?
Transliteration	53:35 aAAindahu AAilmu alghaybi fahuwa yar a
A	53:35 اعنده علم الغيب فهو يرى
Edip-Layth	53:36 Or was he not informed of the teachings in the book of Moses?
The Monotheist Group	53:36 Or was he not informed of the teachings in the Scriptures of Moses?
Muhammad Asad	53:36 Or has he never yet been told of what was [said] in the revelations of Moses,
Rashad Khalifa	53:36 Was he not informed of the teachings in the scripture of Moses?
Shabbir Ahmed	53:36 Nay, did he never hear of what was in the Scrolls of Moses?
Transliteration	53:36 Am lam yunabba/ bim a fee suhufimoosa
A	53:36 ام لم ينبا بما فى صحف موسى
Edip-Layth	53:37 Of Abraham who fulfilled?
The Monotheist Group	53:37 And of Abraham who fulfilled?
Muhammad Asad	53:37 and of Abraham, who to his trust was true: ³⁰
Rashad Khalifa	53:37 And Abraham who fulfilled?
Shabbir Ahmed	53:37 And of Abraham who fulfilled his obligations. ¹⁸
Transliteration	53:37 Wa-ibṛaheema alla ^{tee} waffa
A	53:37 وابراهيم الذى وفى
Edip-Layth	53:38 None can carry the burdens of another.
The Monotheist Group	53:38 None can carry the burdens of another.
Muhammad Asad	53:38 that no bearer of burdens shall be made to bear another's burden; ³¹

Rashad Khalifa	53:38 No soul bears the sins of another soul.
Shabbir Ahmed	53:38 - i That no laden one shall bear the load of another.
Transliteration	53:38 Alla taziru waziratuṇ wizraokhra
A	53:38 الا تزر وازرة وزر اخرى
Edip-Layth	53:39 The human being will have what he sought.
The Monotheist Group	53:39 And the human being will have what he sought.
Muhammad Asad	53:39 and that nought shall be accounted unto man but what he is striving for; ³²
Rashad Khalifa	53:39 Every human being is responsible for his own works.
Shabbir Ahmed	53:39 - ii And that every human being shall be responsible for, and compensated for, his labor.
Transliteration	53:39 Waan laysa lil-ins ani illa masaAAa
A	53:39 وان ليس للانسن الا ما سعى
Edip-Layth	53:40 His works will be shown.
The Monotheist Group	53:40 And his works will be shown.
Muhammad Asad	53:40 and that in time [the nature of] all his striving will be shown [to him in its true light], ³³
Rashad Khalifa	53:40 And everyone's works will be shown.
Shabbir Ahmed	53:40 - iii And that his effort (and not the results) will be seen.
Transliteration	53:40 Waanna saAAayahu sawfa yura
A	53:40 وان سعيه سوف يرى
Edip-Layth	53:41 Then he will be paid fully for such works.
The Monotheist Group	53:41 Then he will be paid fully for such works.
Muhammad Asad	53:41 whereupon he shall be requited for it with the fullest requital;
Rashad Khalifa	53:41 Then they will be paid fully for such works.
Shabbir Ahmed	53:41 - iv And then he will be fully rewarded for it.
Transliteration	53:41 Thumma yujzahu aljaza al-awfa
A	53:41 ثم يجزه الجزاء الاوفى
Edip-Layth	53:42 To your Lord is the final destiny.
The Monotheist Group	53:42 And to your Lord is the final destiny.
Muhammad Asad	53:42 and that with thy Sustainer is the beginning and the end [of all that exists]; ³⁴
Rashad Khalifa	53:42 To your Lord is the final destiny.

Shabbir Ahmed	53:42 - v And that to your Lord is the final destination.
Transliteration	53:42 Waanna il a rabbika al muntaha
A	53:42 وان الى ربك المنتهى
Edip-Layth	God: The Ultimate Cause 53:43 He is the One who makes laughter and tears. ⁷
The Monotheist Group	53:43 And He is the One who makes laughter and tears.
Muhammad Asad	53:43 and that it is He alone who causes [you] to laugh and to weep;
Rashad Khalifa	53:43 He is the One who makes you laugh or cry.
Shabbir Ahmed	53:43 - vi And that He it is who causes you to laugh, and to cry. ²⁰
Transliteration	53:43 Waannahu huwa a dh aka waab k a
A	53:43 وانه هو اضحك وابكى
Edip-Layth	53:44 He is the One who takes life and gives it.
The Monotheist Group	53:44 And He is the One who takes life and gives it.
Muhammad Asad	53:44 and that it is He alone who deals death and grants life;
Rashad Khalifa	53:44 He is the One who controls death and life.
Shabbir Ahmed	53:44 - vii And that He is the One Who gives death and gives life. ²¹
Transliteration	53:44 Waannahu huwa am a ta waah y a
A	53:44 وانه هو امات واحيا
Edip-Layth	53:45 He is the One who created the pair, male and female. ⁸
The Monotheist Group	53:45 And He is the One who created the pair, male and female.
Muhammad Asad	53:45 and that it is He who creates the two kinds - the male and the female
Rashad Khalifa	The Husband Determines The Baby's Gender 53:45 He is the One who created the two kinds, male and female
Shabbir Ahmed	53:45 - viii And that He is the One Who creates the two companions, the male and the female (pairs and opposites among His creation),
Transliteration	53:45 Waannahu khalaqa al zz awjayni al th thakarawaal-on th a
A	53:45 وانه خلق الزوجين الذكر والانثى
Edip-Layth	53:46 From a seed that is put forth.
The Monotheist Group	53:46 From a seed that is put forth.
Muhammad Asad	53:46 out of a [mere] drop of sperm as it is poured forth,
Rashad Khalifa	53:46 from a tiny drop of semen.
Shabbir Ahmed	53:46 From gametes that unite.
Transliteration	- — -

	53:46 Min nutfatin itha tumna
A	53:46 من نطفة اذا تمنى
Edip-Layth	53:47 He will effect the recreation.
The Monotheist Group	53:47 And He will effect the recreation.
Muhammad Asad	53:47 and that [therefore] it is within His power to bring about a second life; 35
Rashad Khalifa	53:47 He will effect the recreation.
Shabbir Ahmed	53:47 - ix And that He has promised to bring about a second life (the ultimate accountability).
Transliteration	53:47 Waanna AAalayhi aInnash-ata al-okhra
A	53:47 وان عليه النشأة الاخرى
Edip-Layth	53:48 He is the One who makes you rich or poor.
The Monotheist Group	53:48 And He is the One who makes you rich or poor.
Muhammad Asad	53:48 and that it is He alone who frees from want and causes to possess;
Rashad Khalifa	53:48 He is the One who makes you rich or poor.
Shabbir Ahmed	53:48 - x And that He is the One Who gives wealth and contentment. 22
Transliteration	53:48 Waannahu huwa aghna waaqna
A	53:48 وانه هو اغنى واقتى
Edip-Layth	53:49 He is the Lord of Sirius.
The Monotheist Group	53:49 And He is the Lord of Sirius.
Muhammad Asad	53:49 and that it is He alone who sustains the brightest star;36
Rashad Khalifa	53:49 He is the Lord of the galaxies.
Shabbir Ahmed	53:49 - xi And that He is the One Who is the Lord of the brightest star, the human intellect. 23
Transliteration	53:49 Waannahu huwa rabbu aIshshiAAara
A	53:49 وانه هو رب الشعرى
Edip-Layth	53:50 He is the One who destroyed Aad the first.
The Monotheist Group	53:50 And He is the One who destroyed `Aad the first.
Muhammad Asad	53:50 and that it is He who destroyed the ancient [tribes of] Ad
Rashad Khalifa	53:50 He is the One who annihilated ancient `Aad.
Shabbir Ahmed	53:50 - xii And that He is the One Who annihilated the former tribe of 'Aad. 24
Transliteration	53:50 Waannahu ahlaka AAadan al-oola
A	53:50 وانه اهلك عادا الاولى

Edip-Layth	53:51 Of Thamud He left nothing.
The Monotheist Group	53:51 And from Thamud He left none.
Muhammad Asad	53:51 and Thamud, leaving no trace [of them], ³⁷
Rashad Khalifa	53:51 And wiped out Thamoud.
Shabbir Ahmed	53:51 And the tribe of Thamud, sparing no one. ²⁵
Transliteration	53:51 Wathamooda fama abqa
A	53:51 وثمودا فما ابقى
Edip-Layth	53:52 The people of Noah before that; they were evil transgressors.
The Monotheist Group	53:52 And the people of Noah before that; they were evil transgressors.
Muhammad Asad	53:52 as well as the people of Noah before them - [since,] verily, they all had been most willful in their evildoing and most overweening
Rashad Khalifa	53:52 Also the people of Noah before that; they were evil transgressors.
Shabbir Ahmed	53:52 And the people of Noah before them. They were even more unjust and more rebellious.
Transliteration	53:52 Waqawma noohin min qablu innahum kanoohum athlama waatgha
A	53:52 وقوم نوح من قبل انهم كانوا هم اظلم واطغى
Edip-Layth	53:53 The evil communities were the lowliest.
The Monotheist Group	53:53 And the evil communities were the lowliest.
Muhammad Asad	53:53 just as He thrust into perdition those cities that were overthrown
Rashad Khalifa	53:53 The evil communities (of Sodom and Gomorrah) were the lowliest.
Shabbir Ahmed	53:53 And He (His Law of Requital) annihilated the cities that were overthrown. ²⁶
Transliteration	53:53 Waalmu/tafikata ahwa
A	53:53 والموتفة اهوى
Edip-Layth	53:54 Consequently, they utterly vanished.
The Monotheist Group	53:54 Consequently, they utterly vanished.
Muhammad Asad	53:54 and then covered them from sight forever. ³⁸
Rashad Khalifa	53:54 Consequently, they utterly vanished.
Shabbir Ahmed	53:54 So that there covered each of them what covered. ²⁷
Transliteration	53:54 Faghashshaha ma ghashsha
A	53:54 فغشها ما غشى
Edip-Layth	53:55 So which of your Lord's marvels can you deny?

The Monotheist Group	53:55 So which of your Lord's marvels can you deny?
Muhammad Asad	53:55 About which, then, of thy Sustainer's powers canst thou [still] remain in doubt? ³⁹
Rashad Khalifa	53:55 Which of your Lord's marvels can you deny?
Shabbir Ahmed	53:55 Then, which facet of your Lord's Power will you doubt or deny?
Transliteration	53:55 Fabi-ayyi al a -i rabbika tatam a r a
A	53:55 فباى ءالاء ربك تتمارى
Edip-Layth	53:56 This is a warning like the older ones.
The Monotheist Group	53:56 This is a warning like the older ones.
Muhammad Asad	53:56 THIS IS a warning like those warnings of old: ⁴⁰
Rashad Khalifa	53:56 This is a warning like the older ones.
Shabbir Ahmed	53:56 This prophet is a warner like the previous warners.
Transliteration	53:56 H a t h a n a t h e e r u n mina alInnu t h u r i a l -o o l a
A	53:56 هذا نذير من النذر الاولى
Edip-Layth	53:57 The final judgment draws near.
The Monotheist Group	53:57 The final judgment draws near.
Muhammad Asad	53:57 that [Last Hour] which is so near draws ever nearer,
Rashad Khalifa	53:57 The inevitable is imminent.
Shabbir Ahmed	53:57 The Inevitable is now imminent. ²⁸
Transliteration	53:57 Azifati al- a z i f a t u
A	53:57 ازفت الءازفة
Edip-Layth	53:58 None beside God can relieve it.
The Monotheist Group	53:58 None beside God can relieve it.
Muhammad Asad	53:58 [although] none but God can unveil it....
Rashad Khalifa	53:58 None beside GOD can relieve it.
Shabbir Ahmed	53:58 None but God can dispel it. ²⁹
Transliteration	53:58 Laysa la h a min dooni All a h i k a s h i f a t u n
A	53:58 لىس لها من دون الله كاشفة
Edip-Layth	53:59 Are you surprised by this narration?
The Monotheist Group	53:59 Are you surprised by this narration?
Muhammad Asad	53:59 Do you, perchance, find this tiding strange?
Rashad Khalifa	53:59 Are you questioning this matter?

Shabbir Ahmed	53:59 Do you, then, wonder at this statement?
Transliteration	53:59 Afamin hatha al hadeethita AAjaboona
A	53:59 افمن هذا الحديث تعجبون
Edip-Layth	53:60 You are laughing, instead of crying?
The Monotheist Group	53:60 And you are laughing, instead of crying?
Muhammad Asad	53:60 And do you laugh instead of weeping,
Rashad Khalifa	53:60 Are you laughing, instead of crying?
Shabbir Ahmed	53:60 And will you laugh and not weep?
Transliteration	53:60 Wata d hakoona wala tabkoona
A	53:60 وتضحكون ولا تبكون
Edip-Layth	53:61 You are insisting on your ways?
The Monotheist Group	53:61 And you are insisting on your ways?
Muhammad Asad	53:61 and divert yourselves all the while?
Rashad Khalifa	53:61 Are you insisting on your ways?
Shabbir Ahmed	53:61 Just amusing yourselves!
Transliteration	53:61 Waantum sa m idoona
A	53:61 وانتم سمدون
Edip-Layth	53:62 You shall prostrate to God, and serve.
The Monotheist Group	53:62 You shall prostrate to God, and serve.
Muhammad Asad	53:62 [Nay,] but prostrate yourselves before God, and worship [Him alone]!
Rashad Khalifa	53:62 You shall fall prostrate before GOD, and worship.
Shabbir Ahmed	53:62 Nay, rather humble yourselves before God and serve Him.
Transliteration	53:62 Faosjudoo lilla h i waAAabudoo
A	53:62 فاسجدوا لله واعبدوا

<< Prev 53:1-62 Next >>

Return to top

End Notes

Edip-Layth - Quran: A Reformist Translation

Edip-Layth - End Note 1 (53:1)

The extraordinary event told in these verses, as it appears, is a miraculous experience. Is the falling of stars an apparent perception because of traveling among galaxies faster than speed of light? What were the signs Muhammad witnessed? Did Muhammad meet God or Gabriel? 20:114.

Edip-Layth - End Note 2 (53:2)

Centuries after Muhammad, he and his companions became idols. Muslims started considering the prophet's companions (sahaba) or anyone who met him as a Muslim, to be almost infallible. The word Saheb, Sahaba, and its plural Ashab are usually used in a negative context. For instance, out of the 77 occurrence of Ashab, and one occurrence of "Ashabahum" (their comrades), only 27 are used positively, such as, "Ashab ul-Jannah" (People of the Paradise) or "Ashab ul-Yameen" (People of the Right). Excluding the few neutral usages of the word, the word "Ashab" is usually used to denote disbelievers and hypocrites. None of these Ashab, the PLURAL of Sahaba, refers to muslims who lived during time of prophet Muhammad. In only one case, the plural Ashab refers to people with Moses (26:61), and we learn from the Quran that most of them were not true believers (7:138-178; 20:83-87). The Quran informs us about the quality of Muhammad's comrades in numerous verses. What we see is not a depiction of perfect holy people, but ordinary people, with all sorts of weaknesses and shortcomings. Among the 12 occurrences of the singular and dual form, sahib, only five describe a relationship between a prophet and his friends. And, out of these five occurrences, only one of them has a positive connotation. Before quoting the verses, I want to remind you that the word sahib (companion, friend) is about a mutual relationship; if someone is your companion, you are their companion too, and vice versa. In four occurrences, the addressees are disbelievers or polytheists (34:46, 53:2, 81:22; 12:39). The only positive usage of the word sahib, as a companion of a prophet is in 9:40. In sum, according to the Quranic terminology, the words sahib (companion, friend), or ashab, (companions, friends) by themselves do not denote any positive meaning. In three verses, Muhammad is described as the sahib (companion) of disbelievers, and in only one verse, he was the sahib of a believer. Thus, statistically speaking, the word ashab refers to hypocrites and polytheists 75% of the time. According to the books of hadith, Abdullah Ibn Masood was one of the top companions of the prophet Muhammad. His hadith narrations are among Sunni Muslims' most cherished sources of jurisprudence. Many hadith and narration books, including Bukhary and Ibn Hanbal, report that Ibn Masood had a personal copy of the Quran and that he did not put the last two chapters in it. According to those books, he claimed that those two chapters did not belong in the Quran. Apparently, another companion of the prophet, Ubayy Ibn Kaab, also had a different personal Quran. He added two chapters called "Sura Al-Hafd" and "Sura Al-Khal," and claimed that these were from the Quran (These "chapters" are still being recited by Hanafis in the "sala al-witr," after night prayers.) For the prophecy of the Quran regarding the words hadith, sunna, ijma, sharia, and salaf, see 33:38.

Edip-Layth - End Note 3 (53:3)

Meccan idol worshipers claimed that Muhammad was the author of the Quran (25:5; 68:15). The beginning of Chapter 53 is about the revelation of the Quran. It states that "the Quran is from Him." It is not Muhammad's personal claim; it is a divine statement. Therefore, claiming that the pronoun "it" in the verse 53:4 refers to the words of Muhammad, not of God, is an obvious distortion. According to the above verse, "it" is revelation, without exception. This can be valid only for the Quran. It is nonsense to claim that Muhammad's daily conversation was entirely revelation. For example, God firmly criticizes Muhammad's words to Zayd (33:37). Obviously, the criticism was not about revelation. The beginning phrase of Chapter 97 informs us about the revelation of the Quran: "We revealed it in the Night of Destiny." The "it" in this verse is the same as the "it" in 53:4. . .

Edip-Layth - End Note 4 (53:19)

Meccan polytheists had an abstract concept of idols. Embracing Abraham's legendary rejection of statues, they discovered new ways of associating partners with God. Meccan polytheists who considered themselves to be the followers of Abraham were commemorating the names of their dead saints for intercession (39:3) and still considered themselves to be monotheists (6:23; 16:35). Those who idolized Muhammad, his companions and numerous "saints" (awliya) and commemorate their names for intercession, wanted to cover the similarities between their religion and the religion of Meccan polytheists. Thus, they ventured into fabricating tangible differences; they therefore made up many statues and ascribed them to the Meccan polytheists. Expectedly, they narrated contradictory accounts of their physical shapes (See Al-Kalbi's Kitab ul-Asnam). According to the Quran, Meccan mushriks (polytheists) were praying in the Sacred Masjid, practicing pilgrimage, and were also fasting (8:35; 9:19,45,54; 2:199).

Edip-Layth - End Note 5 (53:26)

See 2:48.

Edip-Layth - End Note 7 (53:43)

For similar remarks, see the Old Testament, 1 Samuel 2:6-7.

Edip-Layth - End Note 8 (53:45)

The sex of the baby is determined by the sperm in the male fluid. See 4:82.

Muhammad Asad - The Message Of Quran

Muhammad Asad - End Note 1 (53:1)

Or: "Consider the star when it sets" - an interpretation which for some reason has the preference of the majority of the commentators. However, almost all of them admit that the term najm - derived from the verb najama, "it appeared", "began", "ensued", or "proceeded" - denotes also the "unfolding" of something that comes or appears gradually, as if by installments. Hence, this term has from the very beginning been applied to each of the gradually-revealed parts (nujum) of the Qur'an and, thus, to the process of its gradual revelation, or its "unfolding", as such. This was, in fact, the interpretation of the above verse given by Abd Allah ibn Abbas (as quoted by Tabari; in view of the sequence, this interpretation is regarded as fully justified by Raghīb, Zamakhshari, Razi, Baydawi, Ibn Kathir and other authorities. Raghīb and Ibn Kathir, in particular, point to the phrase mawaqī an-nujūm in 56:75, which undoubtedly refers to the step-by-step revelation of the Qur'an. As regards my rendering of the adjective particle wa as "Consider", see surah 74 note 23.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 2 (53:2)

See note 150 on 7:184.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 3 (53:5)

I.e., the Angel of Revelation, Gabriel.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 4 (53:7)

Cf. 81:23 and the corresponding note 8. According to the Qur'an and the testimony of authentic Traditions, the Prophet had no more than twice in his lifetime a vision of this angelic force "manifested in its true shape and nature" (which, as pointed out by Zamakhshari, is the meaning of the expression istawa in this context): once after the period called fatrat al-wahy (see introductory note to surah 74), and another time, as alluded to in verses 13-18, in the course of his mystic vision known as the "Ascension" (see Appendix IV).

Muhammad Asad - End Note 5 (53:9)

This graphic "description" of the angel's approach, based on an ancient Arabian figure of speech, is meant to convey the idea that the Angel of Revelation became a clearly perceptible, almost tangible, presence.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 6 (53:10)

Lit., "whatever He revealed": an allusion to the exceptional manifestation of the angel "in his true shape and nature" as well as to the contents of divine revelation as such. In its deeper sense the above phrase implies that even to His chosen prophets God does not entirely unveil the ultimate mysteries of existence, of life and death, of the purpose for which He has created the universe, or of the nature of the universe itself.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 7 (53:11)

Inasmuch as the Prophet was fully aware of the spiritual character of his experience, there was no conflict between his conscious mind and his intuitive perception (the "vision of the heart") of what is normally not perceptible.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 8 (53:12)

Thus the Qur'an makes it clear that the Prophet's vision of the angel was not a delusion but a true spiritual experience: but precisely because it was purely spiritual in nature, it could be conveyed to others only by means of symbols and allegories, which skeptics all too readily dismiss as fancies, "contending with him as to what he saw".

Muhammad Asad - End Note 9 (53:13)

I.e., he saw the angel "manifested in his true shape and nature".

Muhammad Asad - End Note 10 (53:14)

I.e., on the occasion of his mystic experience of the "Ascension" (mi'raj). Explaining the vision conveyed in the expression sidrat al-muntaha, Raghīb suggests that owing to the abundance of its leafy shade, the sidr or sidrah (the Arabian lote-tree) appears in the Qur'an as well as in the Traditions relating to the Ascension as a symbol of the "shade" - i.e., the spiritual peace and fulfillment - of paradise. One may assume that the qualifying term al-muntaha ("of the utmost [or "farthest"] limit") is indicative of the fact that God has set a definite limit to all knowledge accessible to created beings, as pointed out in the Nihayah: implying, in particular, that human knowledge, though potentially vast and penetrating, can never - not even in paradise (the "garden of promise" mentioned in the next verse) - attain to an understanding of the ultimate reality, which the Creator has reserved for Himself (cf. note 6 above).

Muhammad Asad - End Note 11 (53:16)

Lit., "when the lote-tree was veiled with whatever veiled [it]": a phrase deliberately vague (mubham), indicative of the inconceivable majesty and splendour attaching to this symbol of paradise "which no description can picture and no definition can embrace" (Zamakhshari).

Muhammad Asad - End Note 12 (53:18)

Lit., "[some] of the greatest of his Sustainer's symbols (ayat)". For this specific rendering of the term ayah, see note 2 on 17:1, which refers to the same mystic experience, namely, the Ascension. In both these Quranic allusions the Prophet is said to have been "made to see" (i.e., given to understand) some, but not all, of the ultimate truths (cf. also 7:187-188); and this, too, serves to explain the idea expressed in verse 10 above.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 13 (53:20)

After pointing out that the Prophet was granted true insight into some of the most profound verities, the Qur'an draws our attention to the "false symbols" which men so often choose to invest with divine qualities or powers: in this instance - by way of example - to the blasphemous imagery of the Prophet's pagan contemporaries epitomized in the triad of Al-Lat, Manat and Al-Uzza. These three goddesses - regarded by the pagan Arabs as "God's daughters" side by side with the angels (who, too, were conceived of as females) - were worshipped in most of pre-Islamic Arabia, and had several shrines in the Hijaz and in Najd. The worship of Al-Lat was particularly ancient and almost certainly of South-Arabian origin; she may have been the prototype of the Greek semi-goddess Leto, one of the wives of Zeus and mother of Apollo and Artemis.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 14 (53:21)

In view of the contempt which the pagan Arabs felt for their female offspring (cf. 16:57-59 and 62, as well as the corresponding notes), their attribution of "daughters" to God was particularly absurd and self-contradictory: for, quite apart from the blasphemous belief in God's having "offspring" of any kind, their ascribing to Him what they themselves despised gave the lie to their alleged "reverence for Him whom they, too, regarded as the Supreme Being - a point which is stressed with irony in the next sentence.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 15 (53:23)

Cf. 12:40.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 16 (53:23)

An allusion to the pagan idea that those goddesses, as well as the angels, would act as "mediators" between their worshippers and God: a wishful idea which lingers on even among adherents of higher religions in the guise of a veneration of saints and deified persons.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 17 (53:24)

Lit., "Is it for man to have", etc.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 18 (53:25)

I.e., despite the fact (which is the meaning of the particle fa in this context) that God is omnipotent and omniscient and does not, therefore, require any "mediator" between Himself and His creatures.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 19 (53:26)

For an explanation of the Quranic concept of "intercession", see note 7 on 10:3, as well as notes 26 and 27 on 10:18.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 20 (53:27)

Lit., "that name the angels with a female name" - i.e., think of them as being endowed with sex and/or as being "God's daughters". As the Qur'an points out in many places, the people spoken of in this context do believe in life after death, inasmuch as they express the hope that the angels and the imaginary deities which they worship will "mediate" between them and God, and will "intercede" for them. However, their belief is far too vague to make them realize that the quality of man's life in the hereafter does not depend on such outside factors but is causally, and directly, connected with the manner of his life in this world: and so the Qur'an declares that their attitude is, for all practical purposes, not much different from the attitude of people who reject the idea of a hereafter altogether.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 21 (53:28)

Namely, of the real nature and function of the category of beings spoken of in the Qur'an as angels, inasmuch as they belong to the realm of al-ghayb, "that which is beyond the reach of human perception". Alternatively, the pronoun in bihi may relate to God, in which case the phrase could be rendered as "they have no knowledge whatever of Him" - implying that both the attribution of "progeny" to Him and the belief that His judgment depends on, or could be influenced by, "mediation" or "intercession" is the result of an anthropomorphic concept of God and, therefore, far removed from the truth.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 22 (53:30)

Lit., "that is their sum-total [or "goal"] of knowledge".

Muhammad Asad - End Note 23 (53:31)

I.e., whereas good deeds will be rewarded with far more than their merits may warrant, evil will be recompensed with no more than its equivalent (cf. 6:160); and either will be decided by the Almighty without the need of "mediation" or "intercession".

Muhammad Asad - End Note 24 (53:32)

Lit., "save for a touch [thereof]": a phrase which may be taken to mean "an occasional stumbling into sin" - i.e., not deliberately - followed by sincere repentance (Baghawi, Razi, Ibn Kathir).

Muhammad Asad - End Note 25 (53:32)

Sc., "and of your inborn weakness" - an implied echo of the statement that "man has been created weak" (4:28) and, therefore, liable to stumble into sinning.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 26 (53:32)

Lit., "out of the earth": see second half of note 47 on 3:59, as well as note 4 on 23:12.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 27 (53:32)

I.e., "never boast about your own purity", but remain humble and remember that "it is God who causes whomever He wills to remain pure" (4:49).

Muhammad Asad - End Note 28 (53:34)

My rendering of the above two verses (together with the two interpolations between brackets) is based on Razi's convincing interpretation of this passage as a return to the theme touched upon in verses 29-30.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 29 (53:35)

I.e., "How can he be so sure that there is no life in the hereafter, and no judgment?"

Muhammad Asad - End Note 30 (53:37)

Cf. 2:124 and the corresponding note 100. It is obvious that the names of Abraham and Moses are cited here only by way of example, drawing attention to the fact that all through human history God has entrusted His elect, the prophets, with the task of conveying certain unchangeable ethical truths to man.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 31 (53:38)

This basic ethical law appears in the Qur'an five times - in 6:164, 17:15, 35:18, 39:7, as well as in the above instance, which is the oldest in the chronology of revelation. Its implication is threefold: firstly, it expresses a categorical rejection of the Christian doctrine of the "original sin" with which every human being is allegedly burdened from birth; secondly, it refutes the idea that a person's sins could be "atoned for" by a saint's or a prophet's redemptive sacrifice (as evidenced, for instance, in the Christian doctrine of Jesus' vicarious atonement for mankind's sinfulness, or in the earlier, Persian doctrine of man's vicarious redemption by Mithras); and, thirdly, it denies, by implication, the possibility of any "mediation" between the sinner and God.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 32 (53:39)

Cf. the basic, extremely well-authenticated saying of the Prophet, "Actions will be [judged] only according to the conscious intentions [which prompted them]; and unto everyone will be accounted only what he consciously intended", i.e., while doing whatever he did. This Tradition is quoted by Bukhari in seven places - the first one as a kind of introduction to his Sahih - as well as by Muslim, Tirmidhi, Abu Da'ud, Nasa'i (in four places), Ibn Majah, Ibn Hanbal, and several other compilations. In this connection it is to be noted that in the ethics of the Qur'an, the term "action" (amal) comprises also a deliberate omission of actions, whether good or bad, as well as a deliberate voicing of beliefs, both righteous and sinful: in short, everything that man consciously aims at and expresses by word or deed.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 33 (53:40)

Lit., "his striving will be seen", i.e., on the Day of Judgment, when - as the Qur'an states in many places - God "will make you [truly] understand all that you were doing [in life]".

Muhammad Asad - End Note 34 (53:42)

Lit., "the utmost limit" or "goal", circumscribing the beginning and the end of the universe both in time and in space, as well as the source from which everything proceeds and to which everything must return.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 35 (53:47)

Lit., "that upon Him rests the other [or "second"] coming to life (nash'ah)", i.e., resurrection.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 36 (53:49)

Lit., "who is the Sustainer of Sirius (ash-shi'ra)", a star of the first magnitude, belonging to the constellation Canis Major. Because it is the brightest star in the heavens, it was widely worshipped in pre-Islamic Arabia. Idiomatically, the phrase rabb ash-shi'ra is used as a metonym for the Creator and Upholder of the universe.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 37 (53:51)

For the story of the tribe of Ad, see second half of note 48 on 7:65; for that of the Thamud, note 56 on 7:73.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 38 (53:54)

Lit., "so that there covered them that which covered": a reference to Sodom and Gomorrah, the cities of "Lot's people" (see, in particular, 11:77-83).

Muhammad Asad - End Note 39 (53:55)

This rhetorical question is evidently addressed to the type of man spoken of in verses 33-35. For the reason of my rendering of ala (lit., "blessings" or "bounties") as "powers", see second half of note 4 on 55:13.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 40 (53:56)

Lit., "a warning of [or "from among"] the warnings of old" - implying that the revelation granted to Muhammad does not aim at establishing a "new" religion but, on the contrary, continues and confirms the basic message entrusted to the earlier prophets - in this particular instance alluding to the certainty of the coming of the Last Hour and of God's ultimate judgment.

Shabbir Ahmed -

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 1 (53:1)

They never misguide you. He Who commands them, commands the messenger 6:98, 56:75. Wa = And = Consider = Witness = For = By. Najm is singular as well as plural in the form of a galaxy

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 2 (53:7)

81:23

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 3 (53:9)

The Divine will and the will of the messenger merged together, like the two of you join your bows as a token of friendship. 8:17

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 4 (53:11)

2:285, 6:164. Raa = Saw, learned, observed, took to heart

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 5 (53:13)

2:185

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 6 (53:14)

Sidratil muntaha = The last Lote-tree = The state of bewilderment = The point where the human intellect is left with nothing but astonishment!

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 7 (53:15)

The revelation tells the messenger how to establish a Paradise on earth

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 8 (53:18)

The shackles of mental and physical bondage will be broken and humanity will emerge from darkness to light 7:157, 17:1, 20:23-24

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 9 (53:20)

Three goddesses of yours

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 10 (53:23)

7:71-72

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 11 (53:25)

His are the Keys of the heavens and earth. 7:96, 28:77, 39:63, 41:10, 42:12

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 12 (53:26)

Science can only be mastered by understanding God's physical laws in nature. Mala'ikah = Angels = Physical laws and forces in the Universe. Shafa'ah = Company = Intercession = Stand with = Stand up in court as a witness. 2:30, 2:255

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 13 (53:27)

Even many Muslims, under the influence of fabricated Hadith, think of angels as beautiful physical beings flying on wings here and there. Moreover they imagine that these beings pray for them, prompt them to do good as opposed to 'Satan' (the selfish desires) and that they will intercede on their behalf. Such people have practically denied the Hereafter since man's outcome depends on his actions. See 2:30

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 14 (53:28)

6:149

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 15 (53:29)

Another shade of meaning: The prefer to blindly follow the false imageries prevalent in the society, disregarding Divine revelation

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 16 (53:31)

11:7, 45:22. He has designed the Universe such that no action goes without consequence. Su = Evil = Bad deed = Action that disrupts the lives of others = A deed that creates disorder in the society. Hasanah = Good deed = Benefiting people = Acts creating balance. Plural: Sayyiaat and Hasanaat

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 17 (53:32)

4:31, 7:202, 42:37, 91:7-10, 92:17-18 Ithm = Actions that deplete individual or communal energy. Fawahish = Shameful deeds = Lewdness = Unbecoming behavior = Immorality = Stinginess to the extent of shame

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 18 (53:37)

The Divine message has essentially been the same. Herein are mentioned some of those laws, Twelve Maxims of intense beauty

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 19 (53:42)

79:44. So, your goal shall be your Lord's Rule on earth

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 20 (53:43)

The basic principles that cause nations to live in prosperity versus misery, are being mentioned here

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 21 (53:44)

The rise and fall of nations follow His laws. And these laws are most excellently expounded in the Qur'an

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 22 (53:48)

Only His laws can bestow true prosperity

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 23 (53:49)

Shi'ra = Sha'oor = Intellect. Shi'ra is also the Arabic name of the brightest star Sirius in the constellation Canis Major. It was widely worshiped in ancient Middle East

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 24 (53:50)

They were men of intellect but refused to establish the Divine System. 7:65. A wrong system, however smartly run, is bound to collapse

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 25 (53:51)

7:73

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 26 (53:53)

Reference to the people of Lot. 11:74-83

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 27 (53:54)

Covered them from sight for ever. Sodom and Gomorrah were buried under the Dead Sea. Also applies to other townships covered with Doom

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 28 (53:57)

The opponents of the prophet (S) will soon be subdued

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 29 (53:58)

Stop attacking the System

Best viewed using your own brain

Tested on 1024x768 resolution with  FIREFOX 2

Kitabun Marqum v0.6.7 - Kitabun Marqum - Quran Research Platform by QuraniX Team Copyright © 2002-2011 All rights reserved.
Copyrights of all translations belong to their respective authors.

49:6 O you who believe, if a wicked person brings any news to you, you shall first investigate, lest you commit injustice towards some people, out of ignorance, then become sorry and remorseful for what you have done.

Rashad Khalifa (The Final Testament)

 Translations ▼

 Chapter/Verse ▼

 Refresh

 Search

<< Prev 54:1-55 Next >>

Edip-Layth	In the name of God, the Gracious, the Compassionate. 54:1 The moment drew near, and the moon was split. ¹
The Monotheist Group	In the name of God, the Almighty, the Merciful. 54:1 The Hour draws near, and the moon is breached.
Muhammad Asad	In the name of God, The Most Gracious, The Dispenser of Grace: 54:1 THE LAST HOUR draws near, and the moon is split asunder! ¹
Rashad Khalifa	In the name of GOD, Most Gracious, Most Merciful. 54:1 The Hour has come closer, and the moon has split.
Shabbir Ahmed	BISMILLAH-IR-RAHMAN-IR-RAHEEM With the Glorious Name of God, the Ultimate Source of Instant Beneficence and Eternal mercy Who encompasses the entire Universe, nourishing and taking care of all things for what they are meant to be; just as a mother's womb nourishes the embryo to completion without any returns. 54:1 The Hour of Revolution is fast approaching. And the moon bearing banner is torn asunder. ¹
Transliteration	Bismi Allāhi alrraḥmāni alrraḥeemi 54:1 Iqtarabati alssaAAatu wainshaqqaalqamaru
A	بسم الله الرحمن الرحيم 54:1 اقتربت الساعة وانشق القمر
Edip-Layth	54:2 If they see a sign, they turn away and say, "Continuous magic!"
The Monotheist Group	54:2 And if they see a sign, they turn away and say: "Continuous magic!"

Muhammad Asad	54:2 But if they [who reject all thought of the Last Hour] were to see a sign [of its approach], they would turn aside and say, An ever-recurring delusion!"
Rashad Khalifa	54:2 Then they saw a miracle; but they turned away and said, "Old magic."
Shabbir Ahmed	54:2 But when they see a sign of the oncoming change, they turn away and say, "A persistent bewilderment." ²
Transliteration	54:2 Wa-in yaraw ayatan yuAAari doowayaqooloo sihrun mustamirr un
A	54:2 وان يروا آية يعرضوا ويقولوا سحر مستمر
Edip-Layth	54:3 They rejected, and followed their desires, and every old tradition. ²
The Monotheist Group	54:3 And they disbelieved, and followed their desires, and every old tradition.
Muhammad Asad	54:3 for they are bent on giving it the lie, ² being always wont to follow their own desires. Yet everything reveals its truth in the end. ³
Rashad Khalifa	54:3 They disbelieved, followed their opinions, and adhered to their old traditions.
Shabbir Ahmed	54:3 They adamantly deny the truth and follow their desires. Yet, everything moves to its destination in stages.
Transliteration	54:3 Wakath thaboo waittabaAAoo ahwa aahumwakullu amrin mustaqirr un
A	54:3 وكذبوا واتبعوا أهواءهم وكل امر مستقر
Edip-Layth	54:4 While the news had come to them in which there was sufficient warning.
The Monotheist Group	54:4 While the news had come to them in which there was sufficient warning.
Muhammad Asad	54:4 And withal, there has come unto them many a tiding that should have restrained [their arrogance]: ⁴
Rashad Khalifa	54:4 Sufficient warnings have been delivered to alert them.
Shabbir Ahmed	54:4 And there has come to them news sufficient to deter them from arrogance.
Transliteration	54:4 Walaqad ja aahum mina al-anba -i mafeehi muzdajarun
A	54:4 ولقد جاءهم من الانباء ما فيه مزدجر
Edip-Layth	54:5 A perfect wisdom; but the warnings are of no benefit.
The Monotheist Group	54:5 A perfect wisdom; but the warnings are of no benefit.
Muhammad Asad	54:5 far-reaching wisdom [was held out to them]: but [since] all warnings have been of no avail,
Rashad Khalifa	54:5 Great wisdom; but all the warnings have been in vain.
Shabbir Ahmed	54:5 And profound wisdom! But all the warnings have been of no avail.
Transliteration	54:5 Hikmatun ba lighatun fama tughnee alInnuthuru
A	54:5 حكمة بلغة فما تغن النذر
Edip-Layth	54:6 So turn away from them; the day will come when the caller will announce a terrible disaster.

The Monotheist Group	54:6 So turn away from them; the Day will come when the caller will announce a terrible disaster.
Muhammad Asad	54:6 turn thou away from them. On the Day when the Summoning Voice will summon [man] unto something that the mind cannot conceive, ⁵
Rashad Khalifa	54:6 Ignore them; the day will come when the caller will announce a terrible disaster.
Shabbir Ahmed	54:6 Therefore, (O Messenger!) ignore them for a while. The Day is coming when the caller will call them to a thing they have not conceived. ³
Transliteration	54:6 Fatawalla AAanhum yawma yadAAu a liddaAAiila shay-in nukur in
A	54:6 قتل عنهم يوم يدع الداع الى شىء نكر
Edip-Layth	Like Cicadas: in Big Numbers, Simultaneously and After a Long Period 54:7 With their eyes humiliated, they come out of the graves like scattered cicadas. ³
The Monotheist Group	54:7 With their eyes humiliated, they come out of the graves like scattered locusts.
Muhammad Asad	54:7 they will come forth from their graves, with their eyes downcast, [swarming about] like locusts scattered [by the wind],
Rashad Khalifa	54:7 With their eyes humiliated, they come out of the graves like scattered locusts.
Shabbir Ahmed	54:7 They will come forth from their places of rest like a swarm of locusts, but will be thoroughly dispersed with their eyes downcast.
Transliteration	54:7 KhushshaAAan absaru ^u hum yakhrujoonamina al-ajd athi kaannahum jar adun muntashirun
A	54:7 خشعا ابصرهم يخرجون من الاجداث كانهم جراد منتشر
Edip-Layth	54:8 Hastening towards the caller, the ingrates will say, "This is a difficult day."
The Monotheist Group	54:8 Hastening towards the caller, the rejecters will say: "This is a difficult Day."
Muhammad Asad	54:8 running in confusion towards the Summoning Voice; [and] those who [now] deny the truth will exclaim, Calamitous is this Day!"
Rashad Khalifa	54:8 As they respond to the caller, the disbelievers will say, "This is a difficult day."
Shabbir Ahmed	54:8 Running in bewilderment toward the caller, the same deniers will then say, "This is a hard day!"
Transliteration	54:8 MuhtiAAeena ila alddaAAiyaqoolu alka ^u firoona hatha yawmun AAasirun
A	54:8 مهطعين الى الداع يقول الكفرون هذا يوم عسر
Edip-Layth	54:9 The people of Noah rejected before them. They rejected Our servant and said, "He is crazy!" and he was oppressed.
The Monotheist Group	54:9 The people of Noah disbelieved before them. They disbelieved Our servant and said: "He is crazy!" and he was oppressed.
	54:9 [LONG] BEFORE those [who now deny resurrection] did Noah's people call it

Muhammad Asad	a lie; and they gave the lie to Our servant and said, Mad is he!" - and he was repulsed. ⁶
Rashad Khalifa	54:9 The people of Noah disbelieved before them. They disbelieved our servant and said, "Crazy!" He was persecuted.
Shabbir Ahmed	54:9 Long before them, Noah's people had denied the message, rejected Our servant and said, "Madman", and he was rebuked. ⁴
Transliteration	54:9 Kath ^h habat qablahum qawmu noo hinfakath ^h haboo AAabdan a waq aloo majnoonun waizdujira
A	54:9 كذبت قبلهم قوم نوح فكذبوا عبدنا وقالوا مجنون وازدجر
Edip-Layth	54:10 So he called on his Lord: "I am beaten, so grant me victory."
The Monotheist Group	54:10 So he called on his Lord: "I am beaten, so grant me victory."
Muhammad Asad	54:10 Thereupon he called out to his Sustainer, Verily, I am defeated; come Thou, then, to my succour!"
Rashad Khalifa	54:10 He implored his Lord, "I am oppressed; grant me victory."
Shabbir Ahmed	54:10 Thereupon he cried to his Lord, "I am suppressed. Do help me, then."
Transliteration	54:10 FadaAAa rabbahu annee maghloobun fa intasir
A	54:10 فدعا ربه انى مغلوب فانتصر
Edip-Layth	54:11 So We opened the gates of the sky with pouring water.
The Monotheist Group	54:11 So We opened the gates of the sky with pouring water.
Muhammad Asad	54:11 And so We caused the gates of heaven to open with water pouring down in torrents,
Rashad Khalifa	54:11 We then opened the gates of the sky, pouring water.
Shabbir Ahmed	54:11 And so, We opened the gates of the sky pouring down torrents of water.
Transliteration	54:11 Fafata ^h na abwa ^{ba} alssama ^a -ibima ^a -in munhamirin
A	54:11 ففتحنا ابواب السماء بماء منهمر
Edip-Layth	54:12 We caused springs to gush out of the earth. Thus the waters met to a command which had been measured.
The Monotheist Group	54:12 And We caused springs to gush out of the Earth. Thus the waters met to a command which had been measured.
Muhammad Asad	54:12 and caused the earth to burst forth with springs, so that the waters met for a purpose pre-ordained:
Rashad Khalifa	54:12 And we caused springs to gush out of the earth. The waters met to effect a predetermined decision.
Shabbir Ahmed	54:12 And caused the earth to gush forth springs so that the waters met together in due measure as decreed.
Transliteration	54:12 Wafajjarna al-ar ^{da} AAuyoonanfailtaqa ^a almao AAala ^a amrin qad qudir a
A	54:12 وفجرنا الارض عيوناً فالتقى الماء على امر قد قدر

Edip-Layth	54:13 We carried him on a craft made of slabs and mortar. ⁴
The Monotheist Group	54:13 We carried him on a craft made of slabs and mortar.
Muhammad Asad	54:13 but him We bore on that [vessel] made of [mere] planks and nails,
Rashad Khalifa	The Ark 54:13 We carried him on a watercraft made of logs and ropes.
Shabbir Ahmed	54:13 And We carried him on a watercraft made of mere planks and nails.
Transliteration	54:13 Waḥamalṇahu AAala ṭḥatīlwahin wadusurin
A	54:13 وحملنه على ذات الوح ودر
Edip-Layth	54:14 It ran under Our watchful eyes; a reward for one who was rejected.
The Monotheist Group	54:14 It ran under Our watchful eyes; a reward for one who was rejected.
Muhammad Asad	54:14 and it floated under Our eyes: ⁷ a recompense for him who had been rejected with ingratitude.
Rashad Khalifa	54:14 It ran under our watchful eyes; a reward for one who was rejected.
Shabbir Ahmed	54:14 And it floated before Our eyes, a reward for him who had been denied with ingratitude.
Transliteration	54:14 Tajree bi-aAAayunin a jazaaṇliman kana kufira
A	54:14 تجرى باعيننا جزاء لمن كان كفر
Edip-Layth	54:15 We have left it as a sign. Do any of you wish to learn?
The Monotheist Group	54:15 And We have left it as a sign. Do any of you wish to learn?
Muhammad Asad	54:15 And, indeed, We have caused such [floating vessels] to remain forever a sign [of Our grace unto man]: ⁸ who, then, is willing to take it to heart? ⁹
Rashad Khalifa	54:15 We have set it up as a lesson. Does any of you wish to learn?
Shabbir Ahmed	54:15 And certainly, We left this event as a lesson. Then, is there any who will learn?
Transliteration	54:15 Walaqad tarakṇaḥa ayatanfahal min muddakirin
A	54:15 ولقد تركنها آية فهل من مذكر
Edip-Layth	54:16 So how was My retribution after the warnings!
The Monotheist Group	54:16 So how was My retribution after the warnings!
Muhammad Asad	54:16 And how severe is the suffering which I inflict when My warnings are disregarded! ¹⁰
Rashad Khalifa	54:16 How terrible was My retribution after the warnings!
Shabbir Ahmed	54:16 Then see how was My requital after My warnings!
Transliteration	54:16 Fakayfa kana AAaṭḥabee wanuṭhuri
A

	The Quran is Easy to Learn for the Appreciative
Edip-Layth	54:17 We made the Quran easy to learn. Do any of you wish to learn? 5
The Monotheist Group	54:17 And We made the Qur'an easy to learn. Do any of you wish to learn?
Muhammad Asad	54:17 Hence, indeed, We made this Qur'an easy to bear in mind: 11 who, then, is willing to take it to heart?
Rashad Khalifa	54:17 We made the Quran easy to learn. Does any of you wish to learn?
Shabbir Ahmed	54:17 We have made the Qur'an easy to understand. Then, is there any who will learn?
Transliteration	54:17 Walaqad yassarna alqur-ana lil th thikrifahal min muddakirin
A	54:17 ولقد يسرنا القرآن للذكر فهل من مدكر
Edip-Layth	54:18 Aad rejected. So how was My retribution after the warnings!
The Monotheist Group	54:18 'Aad disbelieved. So how was My retribution after the warnings!
Muhammad Asad	54:18 TO THE TRUTH gave the lie [the tribe of] Ad: and how severe was the suffering which I inflicted when My warnings were disregarded!
Rashad Khalifa	54:18 `Aad disbelieved. Consequently, how terrible was My retribution after the warnings.
Shabbir Ahmed	54:18 The tribe of 'Aad had also rejected the message. Then see how was My retribution after My warnings! 5
Transliteration	54:18 Kath th thabat AAadun fakayfa kanaAAathabee wanuthuri
A	54:18 كذبت عاد فكيف كان عذابي ونذر
Edip-Layth	54:19 We sent upon them a violent wind, on a day of continuous misery.
The Monotheist Group	54:19 We sent upon them a violent wind, on a day of continuous misery.
Muhammad Asad	54:19 Behold, We let loose upon them a raging storm wind on a day of bitter misfortune:
Rashad Khalifa	54:19 We sent upon them violent winds, on a day of continuous misery.
Shabbir Ahmed	54:19 We sent raging winds upon them on a day of relentless misery. 6
Transliteration	54:19 Inna arsalna AAalayhim reehansarsaran fee yawmi nahsin mustamirrin
A	54:19 انا ارسلنا عليهم ريحا صرصرا في يوم نحس مستمر
Edip-Layth	54:20 It uprooted the people as if they were decayed palm tree trunks.
The Monotheist Group	54:20 It uprooted the people as if they were decayed palm tree trunks.
Muhammad Asad	54:20 it swept the people away as though they were palm-trunks uprooted: 12
Rashad Khalifa	54:20 It tossed the people around as if they were decayed palm tree trunks.
Shabbir Ahmed	54:20 Tossing people around like empty, uprooted palm-trunks.

Transliteration	54:20 TanziAAu aInna s a kaannahumaAA j azu nakhlin munqaAA i rin
A	54:20 تنزع الناس كأنهم اعجاز نخل منقعر
Edip-Layth	54:21 So how was My retribution after the warnings!
The Monotheist Group	54:21 So how was My retribution after the warnings!
Muhammad Asad	54:21 for, how severe is the suffering which I inflict when My warnings are disregarded!
Rashad Khalifa	54:21 How terrible was My retribution after the warnings!
Shabbir Ahmed	54:21 Then see how was My retribution after My warnings!
Transliteration	54:21 Fakayfa k a na AAath a bee wanu t huri
A	54:21 فكيف كان عذابي ونذر
Edip-Layth	54:22 We made the Quran easy to learn. Do any of you wish to learn?
The Monotheist Group	54:22 We made the Qur'an easy to learn. Do any of you wish to learn?
Muhammad Asad	54:22 Hence, indeed, We made this Qur'an easy to bear in mind: who, then, is willing to take it to heart?
Rashad Khalifa	54:22 We made the Quran easy to learn. Does any of you wish to learn?
Shabbir Ahmed	54:22 We have made the Qur'an easy to understand. Then, is there any who will learn?
Transliteration	54:22 Walaqad yassarn a alqur- a na lil t h t hikrifahal min muddakirin
A	54:22 ولقد يسرنا القرآن للذكر فهل من مدكر
Edip-Layth	54:23 Thamud rejected the warnings.
The Monotheist Group	54:23 Thamud rejected the warnings.
Muhammad Asad	54:23 [AND the tribe of] Thamud gave the lie to all [Our] warnings;
Rashad Khalifa	54:23 Thamoud rejected the warnings.
Shabbir Ahmed	54:23 Thamud also rejected the warnings. 7
Transliteration	54:23 Kath t habat thamoodu bi a Innu t huri
A	54:23 كذبت ثمود بالنذر
Edip-Layth	54:24 They said, "Shall we follow one of us; a human being? We will then go astray, and be in hell."
The Monotheist Group	54:24 They said: "Shall we follow one of us; a human being? We will then go astray, and be in Hell."
Muhammad Asad	54:24 and they said: Are we to follow one single mortal, one from among ourselves? ¹³ In that case, behold, we would certainly sink into error and folly!
Rashad Khalifa	54:24 They said, "Shall we follow one of us; a human being? We will then go astray, then end up in Hell.
	54:24 And they said, "What! Shall we follow a solitary mortal among us? Then we

Shabbir Ahmed	would certainly fall into error and folly.
Transliteration	54:24 Faqaloo abasharan minn a w ah idannattabiAAuhu inn a i than lafee dalal inwasuAAurin
A	54:24 فقالوا ابشرا منا اذا لفي ضلل وسعر
Edip-Layth	54:25 "Has the message come down to him, instead of us? He is an evil liar."
The Monotheist Group	54:25 "Has the message come down to him, instead of us? He is an evil liar."
Muhammad Asad	54:25 Why - on him alone from among all of us should a [divine] reminder have been bestowed? Nay, but he is a boastful liar!"
Rashad Khalifa	54:25 "Did the message come down to him, instead of us? He is a flagrant liar."
Shabbir Ahmed	54:25 Why! Has the message been given to him alone among us? Nay, he is a flagrant liar."
Transliteration	54:25 Aolqiya a lth thikru AAalayhimin bayn a bal huwa ka th thabun ashir un
A	54:25 القى الذكر عليه من بيننا بل هو كذاب اشر
Edip-Layth	54:26 They will find out tomorrow who the evil liar is.
The Monotheist Group	54:26 They will find out tomorrow who the evil liar is.
Muhammad Asad	54:26 [And God said:] On the morrow they will come to know who the boastful liar is! ¹⁴
Rashad Khalifa	54:26 They will find out tomorrow who the flagrant liar is.
Shabbir Ahmed	54:26 Ah! They would come to know on the morrow who the flagrant liar is.
Transliteration	54:26 SayaAAalamoona ghadan mani alka th thabual-ashir u
A	54:26 سيعلمون غدا من الكذاب الاشر
Edip-Layth	54:27 We are sending the camel as a test for them. So observe them and be patient.
The Monotheist Group	54:27 We are sending the camel as a test for them. So observe them and be patient.
Muhammad Asad	54:27 Behold, [O Salih] We are letting loose this she-camel as a test for them; ¹⁵ and thou but watch them, and contain thyself in patience.
Rashad Khalifa	54:27 We are sending the camel as a test for them. Watch them and be patient.
Shabbir Ahmed	54:27 We are sending the she-camel as a test for them. So watch them (O Saaleh) and hold yourself in patience.
Transliteration	54:27 Inn a mursiloo aInn a qatifitnatan lahum fairtaqibhum wa ist abir
A	54:27 انا مرسلوا الناقة فتنة لهم فارتقبهم واصطبر
Edip-Layth	54:28 Inform them that the water shall be divided between them; each shall be allowed to drink in the specified time.
The Monotheist Group	54:28 And inform them that the water shall be divided between them; each shall be allowed to drink in the specified time.

Muhammad Asad	54:28 And let them know that the water [of their wells] is to be divided between them, ¹⁶ with each share of water equitably apportioned."
Rashad Khalifa	54:28 Inform them that the water shall be divided among them; (the camel) shall be allowed to drink on her designated day.
Shabbir Ahmed	54:28 And let them know that the water must be shared by all. Every drinking will be witnessed. ⁸
Transliteration	54:28 Wanabbi/hum anna almaa qismatunbaynahum kullu shirbin muhtadarun
A	54:28 ونبئهم ان الماء قسمة بينهم كل شرب محتضر
Edip-Layth	54:29 But they called on their friend, and he was paid to slaughter.
The Monotheist Group	54:29 But they called on their friend, and he was paid to slaughter.
Muhammad Asad	54:29 But they summoned their [boldest] companion, and he ventured [upon the evil deed], and cruelly slaughtered [the animal]: ¹⁷
Rashad Khalifa	54:29 But they persuaded their friend to kill (the camel), and he obliged.
Shabbir Ahmed	54:29 But they called their (most forward) comrade and he took charge and killed her.
Transliteration	54:29 Fanadaw sahibahum fataAAatafaAAaqara
A	54:29 فنادوا صاحبهم فتعاطى فعفر
Edip-Layth	54:30 So how was My retribution after the warnings!
The Monotheist Group	54:30 So how was My retribution after the warnings!
Muhammad Asad	54:30 and how severe was the suffering which I inflicted when My warnings were disregarded!
Rashad Khalifa	54:30 Consequently, how terrible was My retribution! They have been warned.
Shabbir Ahmed	54:30 Then see how was My retribution after My warnings!
Transliteration	54:30 Fakayfa kana AAathabee wanuthuri
A	54:30 فكيف كان عذابي ونذر
Edip-Layth	54:31 We sent upon them one scream, whereupon they became like harvested hay.
The Monotheist Group	54:31 We sent upon them one scream, whereupon they became like harvested hay.
Muhammad Asad	54:31 Behold, We let loose upon them one single blast [of Our punishment], and they became like the dried-up, crumbling twigs of a sheepfold.
Rashad Khalifa	54:31 We sent upon them one blow, whereupon they became like harvested hay.
Shabbir Ahmed	54:31 We sent upon them a single mighty blast whereupon they crumbled like chaff.
Transliteration	54:31 Inna arsaln a AAalayhim sayhatanwahidatan fak anoo kahasheemi almuhtathiri

A	54:31 انا ارسلنا عليهم صيحة وحدة فكانوا كهشيم المحتظر
Edip-Layth	54:32 We made the Quran easy to learn. Do any of you wish to learn?
The Monotheist Group	54:32 We made the Qur'an easy to learn. Does any of you wish to learn?
Muhammad Asad	54:32 Hence, indeed, We made this Qur'an easy to bear in mind: who, then, is willing to take it to heart?
Rashad Khalifa	54:32 We made the Quran easy to learn. Does any of you wish to learn?
Shabbir Ahmed	54:32 We have made the Qur'an easy to understand. Then, is there any who will learn?
Transliteration	54:32 Walaqad yassarna alqur-ana lil th th th ikrifahal min muddakirin
A	54:32 ولقد يسرنا القرآن للذكر فهل من مدكر
Edip-Layth	54:33 The people of Lot rejected the warners.
The Monotheist Group	54:33 The people of Lot rejected the warners.
Muhammad Asad	54:33 LOT 'S PEOPLE [too] gave the lie to all [Our] warnings:
Rashad Khalifa	54:33 The people of Lot rejected the warnings.
Shabbir Ahmed	54:33 The people of Lot rejected the warnings. ⁹
Transliteration	54:33 Kath th habat qawmu lootin bialInnu th huri
A	54:33 كذبت قوم لوط بالنذر
Edip-Layth	54:34 We sent upon them projectiles. Except for the family of Lot, We saved them at dawn.
The Monotheist Group	54:34 We sent upon them projectiles. Except for the family of Lot, We saved them at dawn.
Muhammad Asad	54:34 [and so,] behold, We let loose upon them a deadly tempest; ¹⁹ and only Lot 's kinsfolk did We save at the break of dawn,
Rashad Khalifa	54:34 We showered them with rocks. Only Lot's family was saved at dawn.
Shabbir Ahmed	54:34 We sent a storm of fiery stones on them, except the family of Lot whom We saved at dawn. ¹⁰
Transliteration	54:34 Inna arsalna AAalayhim hasibanilla ala lootin najjaynahum bisaharin
A	54:34 انا ارسلنا عليهم حاصبا الا آل لوط نجينهم بسحر
Edip-Layth	54:35 A blessing from Us; it is thus that We reward those who are appreciative.
The Monotheist Group	54:35 A blessing from Us; it is thus that We reward those who are appreciative.
Muhammad Asad	54:35 as a blessing from Us: thus do We reward all who are grateful.
Rashad Khalifa	54:35 We blessed him and his family; we thus reward the appreciative.
Shabbir Ahmed	54:35 As a bliss from Us. Thus it is, We reward the grateful.
Transliteration	54:35 NiAamatan min AAindina kath th alikanajzee man shakara

A	54:35 نعمة من عندنا كذلك نجزي من شكر
Edip-Layth	54:36 He warned them about Our punishment, but they ridiculed the warnings.
The Monotheist Group	54:36 And he warned them about Our punishment, but they ridiculed the warnings.
Muhammad Asad	54:36 For he had truly warned them of Our punishing might; but they stubbornly cast doubt on these warnings,
Rashad Khalifa	54:36 He warned them about our requital, but they ridiculed the warnings.
Shabbir Ahmed	54:36 For he had truly warned them of Our Grasp, but they contended about the warning.
Transliteration	54:36 Walaqad an ^h arahum ba ^t shata ⁿ a ^f ata ^m araw bi ^a lnnu ^h uri
A	54:36 ولقد انذرهم بطشتنا فتماروا بالنذر
Edip-Layth	54:37 They sought to remove him from his guests; so We diverted their eyes. "Taste My retribution; you have been warned."
The Monotheist Group	54:37 And they sought to remove him from his guests; so We diverted their eyes. "Taste My retribution; you have been warned."
Muhammad Asad	54:37 and even demanded that he give up his guests [to them]: ²⁰ whereupon We deprived them of their sight [and thus told them, as it were]: ²¹ Taste, then, the suffering which I inflict when My warnings are disregarded!"
Rashad Khalifa	54:37 They negotiated with him about his guests; we blinded them. Suffer My retribution; you have been warned.
Shabbir Ahmed	54:37 And demanded that he give up his guests. Whereupon We sealed their vision. Taste now My punishment after the warnings.
Transliteration	54:37 Walaqad r ^a wadoohu AAan dayfi ^h ifa ^t amas ⁿ a aAAayunahum fa tho ^o qoo AAa ^h abeewanu ^h uri
A	54:37 ولقد رودوه عن ضيفه فطمسنا اعينهم فنوقوا عذابي ونذر
Edip-Layth	54:38 In the early morning, a devastating retribution struck them.
The Monotheist Group	54:38 And in the early morning, a devastating retribution struck them.
Muhammad Asad	54:38 And, indeed, abiding suffering did befall them early on the morrow:
Rashad Khalifa	54:38 Early the next morning, a devastating retribution struck them.
Shabbir Ahmed	54:38 The inevitable punishment befell them early in the morning.
Transliteration	54:38 Walaqad sabba ^h ahum bukratanAAa ^h abun mustaqirrun
A	54:38 ولقد صبحهم بكرة عذاب مستقر
Edip-Layth	54:39 "Taste My retribution; you have been warned."
The Monotheist Group	54:39 "Taste My retribution; you have been warned."
Muhammad Asad	54:39 Taste, then, the suffering which I inflict when My warnings are disregarded!"
Rashad Khalifa

	54:39 Suffer My retribution; you have been warned.
Shabbir Ahmed	54:39 Now taste My retribution after My warnings.
Transliteration	54:39 Fa th ooqoo AAa th abee wanu th uri
A	54:39 فذوقوا عذابي ونذر
Edip-Layth	54:40 We made the Quran easy to learn. Do any of you wish to learn?
The Monotheist Group	54:40 We made the Qur'an easy to learn. Do any of you wish to learn?
Muhammad Asad	54:40 Hence, indeed, We made this Qur'an easy to bear in mind: who, then, is willing to take it to heart?
Rashad Khalifa	54:40 We made the Quran easy to learn. Does any of you wish to learn?
Shabbir Ahmed	54:40 We have made the Qur'an easy to understand. Then, is there any who will learn?
Transliteration	54:40 Walaqad yassar n a alqur- a na li l th th ikrifahal min muddakir i n
A	54:40 ولقد يسرنا القرآن للذكر فهل من مدكر
Edip-Layth	54:41 The warnings had come to the people of Pharaoh.
The Monotheist Group	54:41 And the warnings had come to the people of Pharaoh.
Muhammad Asad	54:41 Now surely, unto Pharaoh's folk [too] came such warnings;
Rashad Khalifa	54:41 Pharaoh's people were warned.
Shabbir Ahmed	54:41 And warnings did come to Pharaoh's people.
Transliteration	54:41 Walaqad jaa a la firAAawna a l nu th uru
A	54:41 ولقد جاء آل فرعون النذر
Edip-Layth	54:42 They rejected all Our signs. So We took them, the taking of the Noble, the Able.
The Monotheist Group	54:42 They rejected all Our signs. So We took them, the taking of the Noble, the Able.
Muhammad Asad	54:42 they, too, gave the lie to all Our messages: and thereupon We took them to task as only the Almighty, who determines all things, can take to task. ²²
Rashad Khalifa	54:42 They rejected all our signs. Consequently, we requited them as an Almighty, Omnipotent should.
Shabbir Ahmed	54:42 They, too, denied Our messages, every one. Thereupon We grasped them with the grasp of the Mighty, the Powerful.
Transliteration	54:42 Ka th haboo bi- a yati n a k ulli h a faakha th n ahum ak h th aAAazeezin muqtadir i n
A	54:42 كذبوا بايتنا كلها فاخذنهم اخذ عزيز مقتدر
Edip-Layth	54:43 Are your ingrates better than those? Or have you been absolved by the book?
The Monotheist Group	54:43 Are your rejecters better than those? Or have you been absolved by the scriptures?

Muhammad Asad	54:43 ARE, THEN, those of you who [now] deny the truth ²³ better than those others - or have you, per chance, [been promised] immunity in the [ancient] books of [divine] wisdom? ²⁴
Rashad Khalifa	54:43 Are your disbelievers better than those disbelievers? Have you been absolved by the scripture?
Shabbir Ahmed	54:43 Are your deniers better than those others, or do you have amnesty through the scriptures?
Transliteration	54:43 Akuffarukum khayrun min ola-ikumam lakum bara'atun fee alzzuburi
A	54:43 اكفاركم خير من اولنكم ام لكم براءة فى الزبر
Edip-Layth	54:44 Or do they say, "We are a large group and we will win."
The Monotheist Group	54:44 Or do they say: "We are a large group and we will win."
Muhammad Asad	54:44 Or do they say, We are a group united, [and therefore] bound to prevail"? ²⁵
Rashad Khalifa	54:44 Perhaps they think, "We will be the winners."
Shabbir Ahmed	54:44 Or do they say, "We are a united group bound to be victorious?"
Transliteration	54:44 Am yaqooloona na_hnu jameeAAun muntasirun
A	54:44 ام يقولون نحن جميع منتصر
Edip-Layth	54:45 The large group will be defeated; they will turn around and flee.
The Monotheist Group	54:45 The large group will be defeated; they will turn around and flee.
Muhammad Asad	54:45 [Yet] the hosts [of those who deny the truth] shall be routed, and they shall turn their backs [in flight]! ²⁶
Rashad Khalifa	54:45 All of them will be defeated; they will turn around and flee.
Shabbir Ahmed	54:45 Yet, all these troops will be routed and will turn back and flee.
Transliteration	54:45 Sayuhzamu aljamAAu wayuwalloona alddubura
A	54:45 سيهزم الجمع ويولون الدبر
Edip-Layth	54:46 The moment is their appointed time, and the moment is far worse and more painful.
The Monotheist Group	54:46 The Hour is their appointed time, and the Hour is far worse and more painful.
Muhammad Asad	54:46 But nay - the Last Hour is the time when they shall truly meet their fate; ²⁷ and that Last Hour will be most calamitous, and most bitter:
Rashad Khalifa	54:46 The Hour is awaiting them, and the Hour is far worse and more painful.
Shabbir Ahmed	54:46 Nay, the Hour is the time promised them, and that Hour will be most grievous with a most bitter defeat.
Transliteration	54:46 Bali alssaAAatu mawAAiduhum waalssaAAatuadha waamarru
A

54:46 بل الساعة موعدهم والساعة ادهى وامر

Edip-Layth	54:47 The criminals are in error and will burn.
The Monotheist Group	54:47 The criminals are in error and will burn.
Muhammad Asad	54:47 for, behold, those who are lost in sin [will at that time come to know that it is they who] were sunk in error and folly! ²⁸
Rashad Khalifa	54:47 Certainly, the guilty are astray, and will end up in Hell.
Shabbir Ahmed	54:47 The violators of human rights are in grave error and loss.
Transliteration	54:47 Inna almujrimeena fee dalalin wasuAAurin
A	54:47 ان المجرمين فى ضلل وسعر

The Agony of Rejecting a Manifest Sign

Edip-Layth	54:48 The day when they will be dragged upon their faces into the fire: "Taste the agony of Saqar!" ⁷
The Monotheist Group	54:48 The Day when they will be dragged upon their faces into the Fire: "Taste the agony of the scorching heat!"
Muhammad Asad	54:48 On the Day when they shall be dragged into the fire on their faces, ²⁹ [they will be told:] Taste now the touch of hell-fire!"
Rashad Khalifa	54:48 They will be dragged into the hellfire, forcibly. Suffer the agony of retribution.
Shabbir Ahmed	54:48 On the Day when they shall be dragged through the fire on their faces, "Taste the touch of Blaze!" ¹¹
Transliteration	54:48 Yawma yus haboona fee aInn ari AAa la wujoohihim thooqoo massa saqar a
A	54:48 يوم يسحبون فى النار على وجوههم نوقوا مس سقر

Edip-Layth	54:49 Everything We have created in measure.
The Monotheist Group	54:49 Everything We have created in measure.
Muhammad Asad	54:49 BEHOLD, everything have We created in due measure and proportion;
Rashad Khalifa	54:49 Everything we created is precisely measured.
Shabbir Ahmed	54:49 We have created all things in due measure and proportion. ¹²
Transliteration	54:49 Inna kulla shay-in khalaqn a hubiqadar in
A	54:49 انا كل شىء خلقنه بقدر

Edip-Layth	54:50 Our commands are done at once with the blink of an eye.
The Monotheist Group	54:50 And Our commands are done at once with the blink of an eye.
Muhammad Asad	54:50 and Our ordaining [a thing and its coming into being] is but one [act], like the twinkling of an eye. ³⁰
Rashad Khalifa	54:50 Our commands are done within the blink of an eye.
Shabbir Ahmed

	54:50 And Our command is but a single Word, like the twinkling of an eye.
Transliteration	54:50 Wama amruna illa wahidatunkalambin bialbasari
A	54:50 وما امرنا الا وحدة كلمح بالبصر
Edip-Layth	54:51 We have destroyed your counterparts. Do any of you wish to learn?
The Monotheist Group	54:51 And We have destroyed your counterparts. Do any of you wish to learn?
Muhammad Asad	54:51 Thus, indeed, did We destroy people like you [in the past]: who, then, is willing to take it to heart?
Rashad Khalifa	54:51 We annihilated your counterparts. Does any of you wish to learn?
Shabbir Ahmed	54:51 And in the past We have annihilated gangs like you. Then, is there any who will learn?
Transliteration	54:51 Walaqad ahlakna ashyaAAakumfahal min muddakirin
A	54:51 ولقد اهلكنا اشياكم فهل من مدكر
Edip-Layth	54:52 Everything they did is in the records.
The Monotheist Group	54:52 And everything they had done, is in the scriptures.
Muhammad Asad	54:52 [They were truly guilty] because all [the evil] that they ever did had been [revealed to them as such] in the [ancient] books of [divine] wisdom; ³¹
Rashad Khalifa	54:52 Everything they did is recorded in the scriptures.
Shabbir Ahmed	54:52 And everything they did is in the scriptures.
Transliteration	54:52 Wakullu shay-in faAAaloohu fee a lzzuburi
A	54:52 وكل شيء فعلوه فى الزبر
Edip-Layth	54:53 Everything, small or large, is written down.
The Monotheist Group	54:53 And everything, small or large, is written down.
Muhammad Asad	54:53 and everything [that man does], be it small or great, is recorded [with God].
Rashad Khalifa	54:53 Everything, small or large, is written down.
Shabbir Ahmed	54:53 And everything, be it small or great, is recorded.
Transliteration	54:53 Wakullu sagheerin wakabeerin mustatarun
A	54:53 وكل صغير وكبير مستطر
Edip-Layth	54:54 The righteous will be in paradises and rivers.
The Monotheist Group	54:54 The righteous will be in paradises and rivers.
Muhammad Asad	54:54 [Hence, too,] behold, the God-conscious will find themselves in [a paradise of] gardens and running waters,
Rashad Khalifa	54:54 Surely, the righteous have deserved gardens and rivers.
Shabbir Ahmed	54:54 Those who guard themselves against straying will be in the midst of gardens and rivers.

Transliteration	54:54 Inna almuttaqeeana fee jannatinwanaharin
A	54:54 ان المتقين فى جنت ونهر
Edip-Layth	54:55 In a position of honor, at an Omnipotent King.
The Monotheist Group	54:55 In a position of honor, at an Omnipotent King.
Muhammad Asad	54:55 in a seat of truth, in the presence of a Sovereign who determines all things.
Rashad Khalifa	54:55 In a position of honor, at an Omnipotent King.
Shabbir Ahmed	54:55 Seated honorably in the Presence of a Mighty King.
Transliteration	54:55 Fee maqAAadi sidqin AAinda maleekinmuqtadir in Bismi All ahi alrrahmanialrraheemi
A	54:55 فى مقعد صدق عند مليك مقتدر

< < Prev 54:1-55 Next > >

Return to top

End Notes

Edip-Layth - Quran: A Reformist Translation

Edip-Layth - End Note 1 (54:1)

Hadith narrators and collectors misunderstood this verse and tried to support their misunderstanding by the fabrication of a hadith reporting that Muhammad split the Moon by pointing at it with his finger. Some narrators did not stop there and claimed that half of the Moon fell in the backyard of Ali, Muhammad's son-in-law. The believers of this hadith are silent to the critical questions about the event. Why didn't populations of other countries witness this incredible event? If there were such an astronomical event, many people from China to Africa would have noticed and recorded it. Besides, this traditional interpretation contradicts the Quran, which specifically limits the signs given to Muhammad to be the signs contained in the Quran alone (29:50-51). The splitting of the Moon was fulfilled when Apollo 11 landed on the Moon and astronauts took some rocks from the Moon back to earth in July 1969. The word shaqqa, which we translated as "split," does not necessarily mean splitting in half (see 80:26; 50:44). When this event was happening, Dr. Rashad Khalifa was uploading the Quran to his computer in St. Louis. Splitting the surface of the Moon was the start of his work, which led to the historical discovery of the miraculous mathematical system based on code 19, prophesied in chapter 74, which happened in 1974. Thus, the following verse relates to this discovery. See 74:1-56; 27:82; 38:1-8; 40:28-38; 46:10; 72:28.

Edip-Layth - End Note 2 (54:3)

The verse also may be read differently and understood as, "They denied and followed their wishful thinking. Indeed, every affair will find its right place."

Edip-Layth - End Note 3 (54:7)

The allegory of locusts for resurrection is interesting, since some locusts lay their eggs in the forests and appear years later simultaneously. For instance, in the North-eastern region of the US, Periodical Cicadas emerge in big populations after years of dormancy underground sustaining themselves on tree roots. For some broods, the period is 13 years and for others, 17. After years of disappearance, they emerge all together with a cacophony of songs, testifying a similitude of resurrection for those who appreciate God's signs in nature. I discussed this and many other scientific signs and prophecies of the Quran, in my first book, "Kuran En Büyük Mucize" (Quran, the Greatest Miracle), co-authored with Ahmad Deedat, a very popular book in Turkey in 1983-1987. In sum, locusts resurface from under the soil, after a long period, all together, in big crowds. Similarly, humans too will resurface from under the soil, after a long period, all together, in big crowds. Of course, in similes the comparandum and comparatum will have some differences. For instance, locusts are dormant under the soil, while human body disintegrates." (KEB, Edip Yuksel, Inkılab, Istanbul, 12th Edition, p.146). Though this book is now out of print and was not translated to English, a recently published book by the Quran Studies Group led by my friend Caner Taslaman, PhD, presents the scientific aspect of the Quran under the title, "Kuran Hiç Tükenmeyen Mucize," which is translated into English under the title, "The Quran: Unchallengeable Miracle." See: 4:82.

Edip-Layth - End Note 4 (54:13)

The flood was limited to the region of Dead Sea, with Noah's community, and the ark was a small watercraft carrying Noah's animals from his farm. Storytellers exaggerated the event to a worldwide flood. Many Christians who believe those stories have been looking for the remnants of Noah's ark on top of mountains, wrong mountains, in vain. See 11:44.

Edip-Layth - End Note 5 (54:17)

Despite the repetitious assertion of the Quran that it is easy to understand, those who traded it with the teachings of Hadith and Sunna claim otherwise, which turns it into a self-fulfilling prophecy (6:25; 17:46; 18:57). Also, see 25:30.

Edip-Layth - End Note 7 (54:48)

For the Quranic meaning and prophetic implication of the word saqar, see 74:26-56.

Muhammad Asad - The Message Of Quran

Muhammad Asad - End Note 1 (54:1)

Most of the commentators see in this verse a reference to a phenomenon said to have been witnessed by several of the Prophet's contemporaries. As described in a number of reports going back to some Companions, the moon appeared one night as if split into two distinct parts. While there is no reason to doubt the subjective veracity of these reports, it is possible that what actually happened was an unusual kind of partial lunar eclipse, which produced an equally unusual optical illusion. But whatever the nature of that phenomenon, it is practically certain that the above Qur'an -verse does not refer to it but, rather, to a future event: namely, to what will happen when the Last Hour approaches. (The Qur'an frequently employs the past tense to denote the future, and particularly so in passages which speak of the coming of the Last Hour and of Resurrection Day; this use of the past tense is meant to stress the certainty of the happening to which the verb relates.) Thus, Raghīb regards it as fully justifiable to interpret the phrase inshaqqa l-qamar ("the moon is split asunder") as bearing on the cosmic cataclysm - the end of the world as we know it - that will occur before the coming of Resurrection Day (see art. shaqq in the Mufradat). As mentioned by Zamakhshari, this interpretation has the support of some of the earlier commentators; and it is, to my mind, particularly convincing in view of the juxtaposition, in the above Qur'an -verse, of the moon's "splitting asunder" and the approach of the Last Hour. (In this connection we must bear in mind the fact that none of the Quranic allusions to the "nearness" of the Last Hour and the Day of Resurrection is based on the human concept of "time".)

Muhammad Asad - End Note 2 (54:3)

Lit., "they have given [it] the lie": an allusion to the prediction of the Last Hour and the Day of Resurrection. The use of the past tense indicates conscious intent or determination (cf. surah 2 note 6). For my rendering of sihr as "delusion", see surah 74 note 12.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 3 (54:3)

Lit., "everything is settled in its [own] being": i.e., everything has an intrinsic reality (haqiqah) of its own, and is bound to reveal that reality either in this world or in the next (Baghawi, on the authority of Al-Kalbi); hence, everything must have a purpose or "goal" of its own (Zamakhshari). These two - mutually complementary - interpretations reflect the repeated Quranic statement that everything that exists or happens has a meaning and a purpose: cf. 3:191, 10:5 and 38:27 (particularly, see note 11 on 10:5). In the present context, the phrase relates both to the truth referred to in the preceding verses and to its rejection by those who are "wont to follow [but] their own desires".

Muhammad Asad - End Note 4 (54:4)

Lit., "in which there was a restraint": i.e., many an indication, in observable nature, of God's creative and re-creative power, as well as many a tiding, through God-inspired prophets, of a continuation of life after bodily death and, therefore, of the fact that a person's attitudes and doings in this world must have definite consequences in the life to come.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 5 (54:6)

Lit., "something not known (nukur)" - that is, "something that human beings cannot know [i.e., visualize] because they have never met with anything like it" (Zamakhshari).

Muhammad Asad - End Note 6 (54:9)

See 11:25-48, where the story of Noah and the Flood is given in greater detail.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 7 (54:14)

I.e., "under Our protection". The reference to Noah's ark as "made of mere planks and nails" is meant to stress the frailty of this - as well as any other - human contrivance.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 8 (54:15)

See 36:41-42 and the corresponding notes. Literally, the above phrase reads, "We have left them [or "such"] as a sign", etc. According to Ibn Kathir, the pronoun ha in taraknaha relates to "ships in a generic sense" (jins as-sufun), and quotes in this connection the above-mentioned passage (36:41-42); hence my interpolation, between brackets, of the words "floating vessels". The "sign" spoken of here alludes to God's having endowed man's mind with inventiveness and, thus, with the ability to widen the scope of his life through conscious effort.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 9 (54:15)

Lit., "And is there any that will", etc. The above sentence recurs several times, like a refrain, in this surah.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 10 (54:16)

Lit., "how was My [causing] suffering (adhabi) and My warnings" - i.e., after the warnings. Although this sentence is phrased in the past tense, its purport is evidently timeless.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 11 (54:17)

The noun dhikr primarily denotes "remembrance", or - as defined by Raghīb - the "presence [of something] in the mind". Conceptually, and as used in the above context as well as in verses 22, 32 and 40, this term comprises the twin notions of understanding and remembering, i.e., bearing something in mind.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 12 (54:20)

As mentioned in 69:6-8, this wind - obviously an exceptionally violent sandstorm - raged without break for seven nights and eight days. For particulars of the tribe of Ad, see second half of note 48 on 7:65.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 13 (54:24)

For the general implication of this rhetorical question, see note 2 on 50:2. For the story of the tribe of Thamud, their prophet Salih, and the incident of the she-camel, see 7:73-79, 11:61-68, 26:141-158, and the corresponding notes.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 14 (54:26)

I.e., soon. In classical Arabic, the term ghadan ("tomorrow") often applies to a relatively near future, signifying "tomorrow" (in its literal sense) as well as "in time" or "soon". Hence - as pointed out by all authorities - it may have been used in the above context with reference to the Last Hour, which in the first verse of this very surah is spoken of as having "drawn near".

Muhammad Asad - End Note 15 (54:27)

For this and other Quranic references to the she-camel that was to be "let loose as a test" for the Thamud, see surah 7 note 57. God's "letting her loose" is in this context evidently synonymous with "allowing her to become" a test.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 16 (54:28)

I.e., between their own herds and the ownerless she-camel: see 26:155 and the corresponding note 67.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 17 (54:29)

For the above rendering of aqara, see note 61 on 7:77.

Muhammad Asad - End Note (54:31)

Muhammad Asad - End Note 19 (54:34)

Sc., "of chastisement": see 11:82 and the corresponding note 114. The story of Lot and the people among whom he dwelt is mentioned in several places, most extensively in 11:69-83.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 20 (54:37)

See 11:77-79 and the corresponding notes.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 21 (54:37)

According to Ibn Abbas (as quoted by Razi), the expression tams al-ayn ("deprivation of sight") denotes here a "veiling [of something] from one's consciousness" (hajb an al-idrak). Hence, the phrase tamasna ayunahum may be understood to mean that God deprived them, in consequence of their evil propensities, of all moral insight (cf. 36:66 and the corresponding notes), and thus made them liable - as the sequence shows - to undergo bitter suffering in this world and in the next.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 22 (54:42)

Lit., "We gripped them with the grip of an almighty", etc. The special - and concluding - mention of "Pharaoh's folk" is due to the fact that the Egyptians were the most highly developed and powerful nation in the antiquity to which this and the preceding passages refer.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 23 (54:43)

Lit., "your deniers of the truth".

Muhammad Asad - End Note 24 (54:43)

See surah 21 note 101.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 25 (54:44)

The reasoning which underlies this thought may be summed up thus: "We who reject these so-called divine revelations represent a very large body of opinion; and because our views are held by so many, they are obviously right and, therefore, bound to triumph in the end." In other words, the people characterized as "deniers of the truth" draw their assurance from the mere fact of their being representative of the "majority opinion" - a self-delusion based on a purely materialistic outlook on life.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 26 (54:45)

The fact that the Prophet recited this verse just before the battle of Badr (see note 10 on 8:10) has caused most of the commentators to assume that it had been revealed as a specific prophecy of the future victory of the Muslims over the pagan Quraysh. While this is possible, I believe, nevertheless, that the above passage has the much wider, timeless meaning explained in the preceding note. This view finds strong support in the subsequent verses, which speak of the evil otherworldly consequences of deliberate sinning, quite apart from the social and moral defeat, in this world, of the sinful community as a whole.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 27 (54:46)

Lit., "the time appointed for them" (maw iduhum).

Muhammad Asad - End Note 28 (54:47)

See verse 24 above.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 29 (54:48)

See note 83 on 33:66 as well as note 30 on 25:34.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 30 (54:50)

I.e., there is no time lag and no conceptual difference between God's "willing" the creation of a thing and His "creating" it, for "when He wills a thing to be, He but says unto it, 'Be' - and it is" (2:117, 3:47, 16:40, 19:35, 36:82 and 40:68). The comparison with the "twinkling of an eye" is, of course, merely idiomatic, i.e., based on the human concept of something instantaneous. In the present context this is - as the sequence shows - an allusion to the rapidity with which God can, if He so wills, destroys a sinful community.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 31 (54:52)

I.e., the ancient revealed scriptures (az-zubur) had made the meaning of good and evil absolutely clear to them, but they willfully disregarded or even consciously rejected that teaching. The above verse implies, firstly, that the basic ethical teachings of all revealed religions are essentially identical, and, secondly, that God "would never destroy a community for [its] wrongdoing so long as its people are still unaware [of the meaning of right and wrong]" (see 6:131-132, 15:4, 26:208-209, and the corresponding notes).

Shabbir Ahmed -

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 1 (54:1)

The use of the past participle here and at many other points in the Qur'an reflects the certainty of things to happen. As-Saa'ah = The Hour = The Last Hour = The Revolution = The decisive moment = Resurrection. Shaqqal Qamar is usually given the literal translation = The moon is split. Then there are fabricated Ahadith which go on to say that the exalted prophet split the moon into two halves pointing a finger at it! Additional reports want us to believe that one half of the moon then came down, entered the collar of the prophet and exited through his sleeve. Not only all this is contrary to the Qur'an and to reason, the whole story defeats its own validity. It fails to name a single person who was awestruck by this 'miracle' and embraced the message as a result. The Qur'an is a Book consistent with itself and vehemently rejects any notions contrary to reason and to the changeless universal laws. Moreover, attainment of belief is a matter of choice. God does not will to compel or coerce anyone into believing. Stunning the human intellect by means of 'miracles' would counter this Divine law

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 2 (54:2)

46:11

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 3 (54:6)

Utter humiliation when they come to attack the believers

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 4 (54:9)

11:2548

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 5 (54:18)

7:65

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 6 (54:19)

69:6-8

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 7 (54:23)

Prophet Saaleh was sent to Thamud. 7:73-79, 11:61-68, 26:141:158

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 8 (54:28)

The she-camel was a symbol for them from God for obedience or transgression

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 9 (54:33)

11:69-83

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 10 (54:34)

51:32-34

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 11 (54:48)

Wajh = Face = Countenance = Whole being = Whole person

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 12 (54:49)

And appointed laws for all things to become what they are meant to be

Best viewed using your own brain

Tested on 1024x768 resolution with  FIREFOX 2

Kitabun Marqum v0.6.7 - Kitabun Marqum - Quran Research Platform by QuraniX Team Copyright © 2002-2011 All rights reserved.
Copyrights of all translations belong to their respective authors.

49:6 O you who believe, if a wicked person brings any news to you, you shall first investigate, lest you commit injustice towards some people, out of ignorance, then become sorry and remorseful for what you have done.

Rashad Khalifa (The Final Testament)

 Translations ▼

 Chapter/Verse ▼

 Refresh

 Search

<< Prev 55:1-78 Next >>

Edip-Layth	In the name of God, the Gracious, the Compassionate. 55:1 The Gracious:
The Monotheist Group	In the name of God, the Almighty, the Merciful. 55:1 The Almighty.
Muhammad Asad	In the name of God, The Most Gracious, The Dispenser of Grace: 55:1 THE MOST GRACIOUS
Rashad Khalifa	In the name of GOD, Most Gracious, Most Merciful. 55:1 The Most Gracious.
Shabbir Ahmed	BISMILLAH-IR-RAHMAN-IR-RAHEEM With the Glorious Name of God, the Ultimate Source of Instant Beneficence and Eternal mercy Who encompasses the entire Universe, nourishing and taking care of all things for what they are meant to be; just as a mother's womb nourishes the embryo to completion without any returns. 55:1 Ar-Rahman, the Beneficent, the Instant Source of all mercy and Kindness
Transliteration	Bismi Allāhi alRrahmāni alRrahēemi 55:1 AlRrahmanu
A	بسم الله الرحمن الرحيم 55:1 الرحمن
Edip-Layth	55:2 Has taught the Quran.
The Monotheist Group	55:2 He has taught the Qur'an.
Muhammad Asad	55:2 has imparted this Qur'an [unto man].
Rashad Khalifa

	55:2 Teacher of the Quran.
Shabbir Ahmed	55:2 He is the One Who has made known and taught the Qur'an.
Transliteration	55:2 AAallama alqur- ana
A	55:2 علم القرآن
Edip-Layth	55:3 He created the human being,
The Monotheist Group	55:3 He created the human being.
Muhammad Asad	55:3 He has created man:
Rashad Khalifa	55:3 Creator of the human beings.
Shabbir Ahmed	55:3 He has created the human being (and taken care of his mental and physical needs).
Transliteration	55:3 Khalaqa al-ins ana
A	55:3 خلق الانسان
Edip-Layth	55:4 Taught him how to distinguish.
The Monotheist Group	55:4 He taught him how to distinguish.
Muhammad Asad	55:4 He has imparted unto him articulate thought and speech. ¹
Rashad Khalifa	55:4 He taught them how to distinguish.
Shabbir Ahmed	55:4 He has distinguished him with the ability to clearly express his feelings and thoughts . ¹
Transliteration	55:4 AAallamahu albay ana
A	55:4 علمه البيان
Edip-Layth	55:5 The sun and the moon are perfectly calculated. ¹
The Monotheist Group	55:5 The sun and the moon are perfectly calculated.
Muhammad Asad	55:5 [At His behest] the sun and the moon run their appointed courses; ²
Rashad Khalifa	55:5 The sun and the moon are perfectly calculated.
Shabbir Ahmed	55:5 The sun and the moon run by a mathematical design. ²
Transliteration	55:5 Alshshamsu waalqamaru bi husbanin
A	55:5 الشمس والقمر بحسبان
Edip-Layth	55:6 The stars and the trees submit.
The Monotheist Group	55:6 And the stars and the trees yield.
Muhammad Asad	55:6 [before Him] prostrate themselves the stars and the trees.
Rashad Khalifa	55:6 The stars and the trees prostrate.
Shabbir Ahmed	55:6 The stars and the trees all adore Him (and follow His laws).

Transliteration	55:6 WaalInnajmu waalshshajaru yasjudani
A	55:6 والنجم والشجر يسجدان
Edip-Layth	55:7 He raised the sky and He established the balance.
The Monotheist Group	55:7 And He raised the sky and He established the balance.
Muhammad Asad	55:7 And the skies has He raised high, and has devised [for all things] a measure, ³
Rashad Khalifa	55:7 He constructed the sky and established the law.
Shabbir Ahmed	55:7 The sky (atmosphere) He has raised high, and He has kept perfect balance in the Universe.
Transliteration	55:7 Waalssamaa rafaAAahawawadaAAa almeezana
A	55:7 والسماء رفعها ووضع الميزان
Edip-Layth	55:8 Do not transgress in the balance.
The Monotheist Group	55:8 Do not transgress in the balance.
Muhammad Asad	55:8 so that you [too, O men,] might never transgress the measure [of what is right]:
Rashad Khalifa	55:8 You shall not transgress the law.
Shabbir Ahmed	55:8 So that you, too, never violate balance in your lives.
Transliteration	55:8 Alla taṭghaw fee almeezani
A	55:8 الا تطغوا في الميزان
Edip-Layth	55:9 Observe the weight with equity, and do not fall short in the balance.
The Monotheist Group	55:9 And observe the weight with equity, and do not fall short in the balance.
Muhammad Asad	55:9 weigh, therefore, [your deeds] with equity, and cut not the measure short!
Rashad Khalifa	55:9 You shall establish justice; do not violate the law.
Shabbir Ahmed	55:9 Therefore, establish Balance in the society in absolute justice. And never belittle the Scale of Justice in the community and in all your transactions with your own 'self' and with others.
Transliteration	55:9 Waaqeemoo alwazna bi alqisti walatukhsiroo almeezana
A	55:9 واقموا الوزن بالقسط ولا تخسروا الميزان
Edip-Layth	Lord's Innumerable Favors 55:10 The earth He has made for all creatures.
The Monotheist Group	55:10 And the Earth He has made for all creatures.
Muhammad Asad	55:10 And the earth has He spread out for all living beings,
Rashad Khalifa	55:10 He created the earth for all creatures.
Shabbir Ahmed	55:10 And (know that) He has spread out the earth for all His creatures. ³

Transliteration	55:10 Waal-arda wadaAAahalil-anami
A	55:10 والارض وضعها للانام
Edip-Layth	55:11 In it are fruits, and date palms with their hanging fruit. 2
The Monotheist Group	55:11 In it are fruits, and date palms with their hanging fruit.
Muhammad Asad	55:11 with fruit thereon, and palm trees with sheathed clusters [of dates],
Rashad Khalifa	55:11 In it there are fruits, and date palms with their hanging fruit.
Shabbir Ahmed	55:11 Wherein are fruit and palms with clusters protected in sheaths.
Transliteration	55:11 Feeha fakihatun waalInnakhluthatu al-akmami
A	55:11 فيها فكهة والنخل ذات الاكمام
Edip-Layth	55:12 Grains and the spices.
The Monotheist Group	55:12 And grains and the spices.
Muhammad Asad	55:12 and grain growing tall on its stalks, and sweet-smelling plants.
Rashad Khalifa	55:12 Also grains and the spices.
Shabbir Ahmed	55:12 And grain, corn, leaves, stalks, colorful herbs, vegetables, spices, sweet-smelling plants and fragrant flowers. 4
Transliteration	55:12 Waalhabbu thoo alAAasfiwaalrrayhani
A	55:12 والحب ذو العصف والريحان
Edip-Layth	55:13 So which of your Lord's favors will you deny?
The Monotheist Group	55:13 So which of your Lord's favors will you deny?
Muhammad Asad	55:13 Which, then, of your Sustainer's powers can you disavow? 4
Rashad Khalifa	55:13 (O humans and jinns,) which of your Lord's marvels can you deny?
Shabbir Ahmed	55:13 Then, O Men and women! Which authority of your Lord will you deny?
Transliteration	55:13 Fabi-ayyi ala-i rabbikum atukaththibani
A	55:13 فباى اءاء ربكما تكذبان
Edip-Layth	55:14 He created the human from clay, like pottery.
The Monotheist Group	55:14 He created the human from a clay, like pottery.
Muhammad Asad	55:14 He has created man out of sounding clay, like pottery, 5
Rashad Khalifa	55:14 He created the human from aged clay, like the potter's clay.
Shabbir Ahmed	55:14 He created the human (initially) out of sounding inorganic matter, like pottery. 5
Transliteration	55:14 Khalaqa al-insana min salsalinkaalfakhkhari
A	55:14 خلق الانسن من صلصل كالفخار

Edip-Layth	55:15 The Jinn He created from a smokeless fire.
The Monotheist Group	55:15 And the Jinn He created from a smokeless fire.
Muhammad Asad	55:15 whereas the invisible beings He has created out of a confusing flame of fire. ⁶
Rashad Khalifa	55:15 And created the jinns from blazing fire.
Shabbir Ahmed	55:15 And the Jinns: He has created out of a confusing flame of fire (with a confused fiery disposition). ⁶
Transliteration	55:15 Wakhalaqa alj a nn a min mar i j i nmin nar i n
A	55:15 وخلق الجن من مارج من نار
Edip-Layth	55:16 So which of your Lord's favors will you deny?
The Monotheist Group	55:16 So which of your Lord's favors will you deny?
Muhammad Asad	55:16 Which, then, of your Sustainer's powers can you disavow?
Rashad Khalifa	55:16 (O humans and jinns,) which of your Lord's marvels can you deny?
Shabbir Ahmed	55:16 Then, O Men and women! Which authority of your Lord will you deny?
Transliteration	55:16 Fabi-ayyi a la-i rabbikum a tukath h ib a ni
A	55:16 فباى ءالاء ربكما تكذبان
Edip-Layth	55:17 The Lord of the two easts and the two wests.
The Monotheist Group	55:17 The Lord of the two easts and the two wests.
Muhammad Asad	55:17 [He is] the Sustainer of the two farthest points of sunrise, and the Sustainer of the two farthest points of sunset. ⁷
Rashad Khalifa	55:17 Lord of the two easts and the two wests.
Shabbir Ahmed	55:17 Lord of the two Easts and the two Wests. ⁷
Transliteration	55:17 Rabbu almashriqayni warabbu almaghribayni
A	55:17 رب المشرقين ورب المغربين
Edip-Layth	55:18 So which of your Lord's favors will you deny?
The Monotheist Group	55:18 So which of your Lord's favors will you deny?
Muhammad Asad	55:18 Which, then, of your Sustainer's powers can you disavow?
Rashad Khalifa	55:18 Which of your Lord's marvels can you deny?
Shabbir Ahmed	55:18 Then, O Men and women! Which authority of your Lord will you deny?
Transliteration	55:18 Fabi-ayyi a la-i rabbikum a tukath h ib a ni
A	55:18 فباى ءالاء ربكما تكذبان
Edip-Layth	55:19 He merges the two seas where they meet.

The Monotheist Group	55:19 He merges the two seas where they meet.
Muhammad Asad	55:19 He has given freedom to the two great bodies of water, so that they might meet:
Rashad Khalifa	55:19 He separates the two seas where they meet.
Shabbir Ahmed	55:19 He has let free the two seas. They meet. ⁸
Transliteration	55:19 Maraja albaḥrayni yaltaqiyāni
A	55:19 مرج البحرين يلتقيان
Edip-Layth	55:20 A barrier is placed between them, which they do not cross. ³
The Monotheist Group	55:20 A barrier is placed between them, which they do not cross.
Muhammad Asad	55:20 [yet] between them is a barrier which they may not transgress. ⁸
Rashad Khalifa	55:20 A barrier is placed between them, to prevent them from transgressing.
Shabbir Ahmed	55:20 Yet, there is a Barrier between them that they cannot exceed. ⁹
Transliteration	55:20 Baynahumaḥ barzakhun lā yabghiyāni
A	55:20 بينهما برزخ لا يبغيان
Edip-Layth	55:21 So which of your Lord's favors will you deny?
The Monotheist Group	55:21 So which of your Lord's favors will you deny?
Muhammad Asad	55:21 Which, then, of your Sustainer's powers can you disavow?
Rashad Khalifa	55:21 Which of your Lord's marvels can you deny?
Shabbir Ahmed	55:21 Then, O Men and women! Which authority of your Lord will you deny?
Transliteration	55:21 Fabi-ayyi alā-i rabbikum atukaththibāni
A	55:21 فبأي آلاء ربكما تكذبان
Edip-Layth	55:22 Out of both of them come pearls and coral.
The Monotheist Group	55:22 Out of both of them comes pearls and coral.
Muhammad Asad	55:22 Out of these two [bodies of water] come forth pearls, both great and small.
Rashad Khalifa	55:22 Out of both of them you get pearls and coral.
Shabbir Ahmed	55:22 From both of them come forth pearl and coral.
Transliteration	55:22 Yakhruju minhumā allu/luo waalmarjanu
A	55:22 يخرج منهما اللؤلؤ والمرجان
Edip-Layth	55:23 So which of your Lord's favors will you deny?
The Monotheist Group	55:23 So which of your Lord's favors will you deny?
Muhammad Asad	55:23 Which, then, of your Sustainer's powers can you disavow?

Rashad Khalifa	55:23 Which of your Lord's marvels can you deny?
Shabbir Ahmed	55:23 Then, O Men and women! Which authority of your Lord will you deny?
Transliteration	55:23 Fabi-ayyi ala -i rabbikum atukaththibani
A	55:23 فباىءالاء ربكما تكذبان
Edip-Layth	55:24 To Him are the ships that roam the sea like flags.
The Monotheist Group	55:24 And to Him are the ships that roam the sea like flags.
Muhammad Asad	55:24 And His are the lofty ships that sail like [floating] mountains through the seas. ⁹
Rashad Khalifa	55:24 He gave you ships that roam the sea like flags.
Shabbir Ahmed	55:24 And His are the bannered ships sailing through the sea, lofty as mountains. ¹⁰
Transliteration	55:24 Walahu aljawari almunsha atufee alba hri kaal-aAal ami
A	55:24 وله الجوار المنشآت فى البحر كالأعلم
Edip-Layth	55:25 So which of your Lord's favors will you deny?
The Monotheist Group	55:25 So which of your Lord's favors will you deny?
Muhammad Asad	55:25 Which, then, of your Sustainer's powers can you disavow?
Rashad Khalifa	55:25 Which of your Lord's marvels can you deny?
Shabbir Ahmed	55:25 Then, O Men and women! Which authority of your Lord will you deny?
Transliteration	55:25 Fabi-ayyi ala -i rabbikum atukaththibani
A	55:25 فباىءالاء ربكما تكذبان
Edip-Layth	55:26 Everyone upon it will fade away.
The Monotheist Group	55:26 Everyone upon it will fade-away.
Muhammad Asad	55:26 All that lives on earth or in the heavens is bound to pass away: ¹⁰
Rashad Khalifa	55:26 Everyone on earth perishes.
Shabbir Ahmed	55:26 All things therein (in the Universe) are ever changing. ¹¹
Transliteration	55:26 Kullu man AAalayh a fanin
A	55:26 كل من عليها فان
Edip-Layth	55:27 The presence of your Lord will remain, the One with Majesty and Honor. ⁴
The Monotheist Group	55:27 And the presence of your Lord will remain, the One with Majesty and Honor.
Muhammad Asad	55:27 but forever will abide thy Sustainer's Self, ¹¹ full of majesty and glory.
Rashad Khalifa	55:27 Only the presence of your Lord lasts. Possessor of Majesty and Honor.

Shabbir Ahmed	55:27 But forever will abide the Countenance of your Lord of Majesty and Honor. 12
Transliteration	55:27 Wayabqā wajhu rabbika thoo aljalali waal-ikrami
A	55:27 ويبقى وجه ربك ذو الجلال والاكرام
Edip-Layth	55:28 So which of your Lord's favors will you deny?
The Monotheist Group	55:28 So which of your Lord's favors will you deny?
Muhammad Asad	55:28 Which, then, of your Sustainer's powers can you disavow?
Rashad Khalifa	55:28 Which of your Lord's marvels can you deny?
Shabbir Ahmed	55:28 Then, O Men and women! Which authority of your Lord will you deny?
Transliteration	55:28 Fabi-ayyi ala -i rabbikum atuka th thi bani
A	55:28 فباى ءالاء ربكما تكذبان
Edip-Layth	55:29 Those in the heavens and earth ask Him, everyday He is in some matter.
The Monotheist Group	55:29 Those in the heavens and Earth ask Him, everyday He is in some matter.
Muhammad Asad	55:29 On Him depends all creatures 12 in the heavens and on earth; [and] every day He manifests Himself in yet another [wondrous] way.
Rashad Khalifa	55:29 Imploring Him is everyone in the heavens and the earth. Every day He is in full control.
Shabbir Ahmed	55:29 All creatures in the heavens and earth seek their needs from Him. And every day is He in a Marvelous Splendor.
Transliteration	55:29 Yas-aluhu man fee aIssamawatiwaal-ardi kulla yawmin huwa fee sha/n in
A	55:29 يسله من فى السموت والارض كل يوم هو فى شان
Edip-Layth	55:30 So which of your Lord's favors will you deny?
The Monotheist Group	55:30 So which of your Lord's favors will you deny?
Muhammad Asad	55:30 Which, then, of your Sustainer's powers can you disavow?
Rashad Khalifa	55:30 Which of your Lord's marvels can you deny?
Shabbir Ahmed	55:30 Then, O Men and women! Which authority of your Lord will you deny?
Transliteration	55:30 Fabi-ayyi ala -i rabbikum atuka th thi bani
A	55:30 فباى ءالاء ربكما تكذبان
Edip-Layth	55:31 We will call you to account, both of you beings.
The Monotheist Group	55:31 We will call you to account, both of you beings.
Muhammad Asad	55:31 [ONE DAY] We shall take you to task, 13 O you sin-laden two! 14
Rashad Khalifa	55:31 We will call you to account, O humans and jinns.
Shabbir Ahmed	55:31 Soon shall We free you, O Burdened men and women! 13

Transliteration	55:31 Sanafrughu lakum ayyuha alththaqalani
A	55:31 سنفرغ لكم ايه الثقلان
Edip-Layth	55:32 So which of your Lord's favors will you deny?
The Monotheist Group	55:32 So which of your Lord's favors will you deny?
Muhammad Asad	55:32 Which, then, of your Sustainer's powers can you disavow?
Rashad Khalifa	55:32 Which of your Lord's marvels can you deny?
Shabbir Ahmed	55:32 Then, O Men and women! Which authority of your Lord will you deny?
Transliteration	55:32 Fabi-ayyi ala-i rabbikum atukaththibani
A	55:32 فباىءالاء ربكما تكذبان
Edip-Layth	55:33 O tribes of Jinn and humans, if you can penetrate the diameters of the heavens and the earth, then go ahead and penetrate. You will not penetrate without authority.
The Monotheist Group	55:33 O tribes of Jinn and humans, if you can penetrate the outer limits of the heavens and the Earth, then go ahead and penetrate. You will not penetrate without might.
Muhammad Asad	55:33 O you who live in close communion with [evil] invisible beings and humans! ¹⁵ If you [think that you] can pass beyond the regions of the heavens and the earth, pass beyond them! ¹⁶ [But] you cannot pass beyond them, save by a sanction [from God]! ¹⁷
Rashad Khalifa	55:33 O you jinns and humans, if you can penetrate the outer limits of the heavens and the earth, go ahead and penetrate. You cannot penetrate without authorization.
Shabbir Ahmed	55:33 O Communities of the nomads and the urban! If you can break through the outer limits of the heavens and earth, then, break through. Never can you break through without an authority. Can you bring any evidence? ¹⁴
Transliteration	55:33 Ya maAAashara aljinni wa al-insiini istaAAatum an tanfu thoo min aq tari alssamawatiwaal-ardi faonfuthoo la tanfuthoonaila bisultanin
A	55:33 يمعشر الجن والانس ان استطعتم ان تنفذوا من اقطار السموت والارض فانفذوا لا تنفذون الا بسلطن
Edip-Layth	55:34 So which of your Lord's favors will you deny?
The Monotheist Group	55:34 So which of your Lord's favors will you deny?
Muhammad Asad	55:34 Which, then, of your Sustainer's powers can you disavow?
Rashad Khalifa	55:34 Which of your Lord's marvels can you deny?
Shabbir Ahmed	55:34 Then, O Men and women! Which authority of your Lord will you deny?
Transliteration	55:34 Fabi-ayyi ala-i rabbikum atukaththibani
A	55:34 فباىءالاء ربكما تكذبان
	55:35 He sends against both of you projectiles of fire and copper; so you will not

Edip-Layth	succeed.
The Monotheist Group	55:35 He sends against both of you projectiles of fire, and of copper; so you will not succeed.
Muhammad Asad	55:35 A flash of fire will be let loose upon you, and smoke, and you will be left without succour!
Rashad Khalifa	55:35 You get bombarded with projectiles of fire and metal, and you cannot win.
Shabbir Ahmed	55:35 A blaze will be unleashed upon you, and thick smoke, and you will not be able to defend yourselves. 15
Transliteration	55:35 Yursalu AAalaykuma shuwa ^{ath} unmin na ^r in wanu ^h asun fala ^l tantasira ⁿ i
A	55:35 يرسل عليكم شواظ من نار ونحاس فلا تنتصران
Edip-Layth	55:36 So which of your Lord's favors will you deny?
The Monotheist Group	55:36 So which of your Lord's favors will you deny?
Muhammad Asad	55:36 Which, then, of your Sustainer's powers can you disavow?
Rashad Khalifa	55:36 Which of your Lord's marvels can you deny?
Shabbir Ahmed	55:36 Then, O Men and women! Which authority of your Lord will you deny?
Transliteration	55:36 Fabi-ayyi ala-i rabbikum atukath th ibani
A	55:36 فباي اءلاء ربكما تكذبان
Edip-Layth	55:37 Then, when the universe is torn, and turns like a rose-colored paint.
The Monotheist Group	55:37 Then, when the universe is torn, and turns like a rose colored paint.
Muhammad Asad	55:37 And when the sky is rent asunder and becomes red like [burning] oil 18
Rashad Khalifa	55:37 When the sky disintegrates, and turns rose colored like paint.
Shabbir Ahmed	55:37 And when the power of the high elite will shatter and they will burn in anguish. 16
Transliteration	55:37 Fa-itha inshaqqati alssama ^o faka ⁿ at wardatan kaal ^d diha ⁿ i
A	55:37 فاذا انشقت السماء فكانت وردة كالدهان
Edip-Layth	55:38 So which of your Lord's favors will you deny?
The Monotheist Group	55:38 So which of your Lord's favors will you deny?
Muhammad Asad	55:38 which, then, of your Sustainer's powers can you disavow?
Rashad Khalifa	55:38 Which of your Lord's marvels can you deny?
Shabbir Ahmed	55:38 Then, O Men and women! Which authority of your Lord will you deny?
Transliteration	55:38 Fabi-ayyi ala-i rabbikum atukath th ibani
A	55:38 فباي اءلاء ربكما تكذبان
Edip-Layth	55:39 On that day, no more questioning is asked of human or Jinn as to his sins.

The Monotheist Group	55:39 On that Day, no more questioning is asked of human or Jinn as to his sins.
Muhammad Asad	55:39 For on that Day neither man nor invisible being will be asked about his sins. ¹⁹
Rashad Khalifa	55:39 On that day, no human, nor a jinn, will be asked about his sins.
Shabbir Ahmed	55:39 In that Era neither the civilized nor the uncivilized will be asked why they trailed behind.
Transliteration	55:39 Fayawma-i th in la yus-alu AAan th anbihiinsun wala jannun
A	55:39 فيومئذ لا يسأل عن ذنبه انس ولا جان
Edip-Layth	55:40 So which of your Lord's favors will you deny?
The Monotheist Group	55:40 So which of your Lord's favors will you deny?
Muhammad Asad	55:40 Which, then, of your Sustainer's powers can you disavow?
Rashad Khalifa	55:40 Which of your Lord's marvels can you deny?
Shabbir Ahmed	55:40 Then, O Men and women! Which authority of your Lord will you deny?
Transliteration	55:40 Fabi-ayyi ala-i rabbikum atukath th ibani
A	55:40 فباي اءالاء ربكما تكذبان
Edip-Layth	55:41 The guilty will be recognized by their features; they will be taken by the forelocks and the feet.
The Monotheist Group	55:41 The guilty will be recognized by their features; they will be taken by the forelocks and the feet.
Muhammad Asad	55:41 All who were lost in sin shall by their marks be known, and shall by their forelocks and their feet be seized! ²⁰
Rashad Khalifa	55:41 (This is because) the guilty will be recognized by their looks; they will be taken by the forelocks and the feet.
Shabbir Ahmed	55:41 The violators of human rights will be clearly identified, firmly seized and held accountable. ¹⁷
Transliteration	55:41 YuAArafu almujr ^{im} oona biseem a ^h umfayu/khat ^h u bi alInnawasee wa al-aqdami
A	55:41 يعرف المجرمون بسيمهم فيؤخذ بالنوصى والاقدام
Edip-Layth	55:42 So which of your Lord's favors will you deny?
The Monotheist Group	55:42 So which of your Lord's favors will you deny?
Muhammad Asad	55:42 Which, then, of your Sustainer's powers can you disavow?
Rashad Khalifa	55:42 Which of your Lord's marvels can you deny?
Shabbir Ahmed	55:42 Then, O Men and women! Which authority of your Lord will you deny?
Transliteration	55:42 Fabi-ayyi ala-i rabbikum atukath th ibani
A	55:42 فباي اءالاء ربكما تكذبان

Edip-Layth	55:43 This is hell that the criminals used to deny.
The Monotheist Group	55:43 This is Hell that the criminals used to deny.
Muhammad Asad	55:43 This will be the hell which those who are lost in sin [now] call a lie:
Rashad Khalifa	55:43 This is Gehenna that the guilty used to deny.
Shabbir Ahmed	55:43 This is Hell that the guilty deny.
Transliteration	55:43 H athihi jahannamu allatee yukath th ibubi h a almujr im oona
A	55:43 هذه جهنم التي يكذب بها المجرمون
Edip-Layth	55:44 They will move between it and a boiling liquid.
The Monotheist Group	55:44 They will move between it and a boiling liquid.
Muhammad Asad	55:44 between it and [their own] burning-hot despair will they wander to and fro! ²¹
Rashad Khalifa	55:44 They will circulate between it and an intolerable inferno.
Shabbir Ahmed	55:44 They wander between it and their smoldering anguish.
Transliteration	55:44 Ya t oofoona bayna h a wabayna h ameemi n an i n
A	55:44 يطوفون بينها وبين حميم ءان
Edip-Layth	55:45 So which of your Lord's favors will you deny?
The Monotheist Group	55:45 So which of your Lord's favors will you deny?
Muhammad Asad	55:45 Which, then, of your Sustainer's powers can you disavow?
Rashad Khalifa	55:45 Which of your Lord's marvels can you deny?
Shabbir Ahmed	55:45 Then, O Men and women! Which authority of your Lord will you deny?
Transliteration	55:45 Fabi-ayyi a la-i rabbikum a tukath th ib a ni
A	55:45 فباى ءالاء ربكما تكذبان
Edip-Layth	55:46 For he who revered the majesty of his Lord, will be two paradises.
The Monotheist Group	55:46 And for he who revered the majesty of his Lord, will be two paradises.
Muhammad Asad	55:46 BUT FOR THOSE who of their Sustainer's Presence stand in fear, two gardens [of paradise are readied] - ²²
Rashad Khalifa	55:46 For those who reverence the majesty of their Lord, two gardens (one for the jinns and one for the humans).
Shabbir Ahmed	55:46 And for him who stands in fear of his Lord's Presence, are two Paradises - one here one there.
Transliteration	55:46 Waliman kh a fa maq a ma rabbi h jannat a ni
A	55:46 ولمن خاف مقام ربه جنتان
Edip-Layth	55:47 So which of your Lord's favors will you deny?

The Monotheist Group	55:47 So which of your Lord's favors will you deny?
Muhammad Asad	55:47 which, then, of your Sustainer's powers can you disavow?
Rashad Khalifa	55:47 Which of your Lord's marvels can you deny?
Shabbir Ahmed	55:47 Then, O Men and women! Which authority of your Lord will you deny?
Transliteration	55:47 Fabi-ayyi al a -i rabbikum at ukath th ibani
A	55:47 فباى ءالاء ربكما تكذبان
Edip-Layth	55:48 Full of provisions.
The Monotheist Group	55:48 Full of provisions.
Muhammad Asad	55:48 [two gardens] of many wondrous hues. ²³
Rashad Khalifa	55:48 Full of provisions.
Shabbir Ahmed	55:48 Abounding in two facets, art and science. ¹⁸
Transliteration	55:48 Th aw a ta afn a ni
A	55:48 ذواتا افنان
Edip-Layth	55:49 So which of your Lord's favors will you deny?
The Monotheist Group	55:49 So which of your Lord's favors will you deny?
Muhammad Asad	55:49 Which, then, of your Sustainer's powers can you disavow?
Rashad Khalifa	55:49 Which of your Lord's marvels can you deny?
Shabbir Ahmed	55:49 Then, O Men and women! Which authority of your Lord will you deny?
Transliteration	55:49 Fabi-ayyi al a -i rabbikum at ukath th ibani
A	55:49 فباى ءالاء ربكما تكذبان
Edip-Layth	55:50 In them are two springs, flowing.
The Monotheist Group	55:50 In them are two springs, flowing.
Muhammad Asad	55:50 In [each of] these two [gardens] two springs will flow. ²⁴
Rashad Khalifa	55:50 Two springs are in them, flowing.
Shabbir Ahmed	55:50 Wherein flow two springs, creativity and aesthetics.
Transliteration	55:50 Feehima AA ayn a ni tajriy a ni
A	55:50 فيهما عينان تجريان
Edip-Layth	55:51 So which of your Lord's favors will you deny?
The Monotheist Group	55:51 So which of your Lord's favors will you deny?
Muhammad Asad	55:51 Which, then, of your Sustainer's powers can you disavow?
Rashad Khalifa	55:51 Which of your Lord's marvels can you deny?

Shabbir Ahmed	55:51 Then, O Men and women! Which authority of your Lord will you deny?
Transliteration	55:51 Fabi-ayyi al a -i rabbikum at u k at h t h i b a n i
A	55:51 فباى ءالاء ربكما تكذبان
Edip-Layth	55:52 In them will be of every fruit, in pairs.
The Monotheist Group	55:52 In them will be of every fruit, in pairs.
Muhammad Asad	55:52 In [each of] these two will two kinds of every fruit be [found].
Rashad Khalifa	55:52 Of every fruit in them, two kinds.
Shabbir Ahmed	55:52 Wherein are two kinds of fruit, of their own labor and of the added reward. 19
Transliteration	55:52 Feehima min kulli f a k i h a t i n z a w j a n i
A	55:52 فيهما من كل فكهة زوجان
Edip-Layth	55:53 So which of your Lord's favors will you deny?
The Monotheist Group	55:53 So which of your Lord's favors will you deny?
Muhammad Asad	55:53 Which, then, of your Sustainer's powers can you disavow?
Rashad Khalifa	55:53 Which of your Lord's marvels can you deny?
Shabbir Ahmed	55:53 Then, O Men and women! Which authority of your Lord will you deny?
Transliteration	55:53 Fabi-ayyi al a -i rabbikum at u k at h t h i b a n i
A	55:53 فباى ءالاء ربكما تكذبان
Edip-Layth	55:54 While reclining upon furnishings lined with satin, the fruits of the two paradises are within reach.
The Monotheist Group	55:54 While reclining upon furnishings lined with satin, the fruits of the two paradises are within reach.
Muhammad Asad	55:54 [In such a paradise the blest will dwell,] reclining upon carpets lined with rich brocade; ²⁶ and the fruit of both these gardens will be within easy reach.
Rashad Khalifa	55:54 While relaxing on furnishings lined with satin, the fruits are within reach.
Shabbir Ahmed	55:54 Reclining on luxurious carpets lined with rich brocade, the fruit of both Gardens at hand.
Transliteration	55:54 Muttaki-eena AA a l a furushin ba t a -inu h a m i n istabra q i n wa j a n a aljannatayni danin
A	55:54 متكين على فرش بطائنها من استبرق وجنى الجنتين دان
Edip-Layth	55:55 So which of your Lord's favors will you deny?
The Monotheist Group	55:55 So which of your Lord's favors will you deny?
Muhammad Asad	55:55 Which, then, of your Sustainer's powers can you disavow?
Rashad Khalifa	55:55 Which of your Lord's marvels can you deny?

Shabbir Ahmed	55:55 Then, O Men and women! Which authority of your Lord will you deny?
Transliteration	55:55 Fabi-ayyi al a -i rabbikum at u k at h t h i b a n i
A	55:55 فباى ءالاء ربكما تكذبان
Edip-Layth	55:56 In them are the best of the fruits hanging low, untouched before by any human or Jinn.
The Monotheist Group	55:56 In them are attendants with a splendid look, unknown before by any human or Jinn.
Muhammad Asad	55:56 In these [gardens] will be mates of modest gaze, whom neither man nor invisible being will have touched ere then. ²⁷
Rashad Khalifa	55:56 Their beautiful mates were never touched by any human or jinn.
Shabbir Ahmed	55:56 Therein women have a modest gaze, never touched by human vices or evil prompting. ²⁰
Transliteration	55:56 Feehinna qasir a t u al t t a r f i l a m ya t i m i t h h u n n a insun qablahum wal a j a n n u n
A	55:56 فيهن قصرت الطرف لم يطمثهن انس قبلهم ولا جان
Edip-Layth	55:57 So which of your Lord's favors will you deny?
The Monotheist Group	55:57 So which of your Lord's favors will you deny?
Muhammad Asad	55:57 Which, then, of your Sustainer's powers can you disavow?
Rashad Khalifa	55:57 Which of your Lord's marvels can you deny?
Shabbir Ahmed	55:57 Then, O Men and women! Which authority of your Lord will you deny?
Transliteration	55:57 Fabi-ayyi al a -i rabbikum at u k at h t h i b a n i
A	55:57 فباى ءالاء ربكما تكذبان
Edip-Layth	55:58 They look like rubies and coral.
The Monotheist Group	55:58 They look like rubies and coral.
Muhammad Asad	55:58 [When you are promised splendours] as though [of] rubies and [of] pearls
Rashad Khalifa	55:58 They look like gems and coral.
Shabbir Ahmed	55:58 Like rubies and pearls.
Transliteration	55:58 Kaannahunna aly a qootu waalmarj a n u
A	55:58 كانهن الياقوت والمرجان
Edip-Layth	55:59 So which of your Lord's favors will you deny?
The Monotheist Group	55:59 So which of your Lord's favors will you deny?
Muhammad Asad	55:59 which, then, of your Sustainer's powers can you disavow?
Rashad Khalifa	55:59 Which of your Lord's marvels can you deny?
Shabbir Ahmed	55:59 Then, O Men and women! Which authority of your Lord will you deny?

Transliteration	55:59 Fabi-ayyi al a-i rabbikum at ukath th ibani
A	55:59 فباى ءالاء ربكما تكذبان
Edip-Layth	55:60 Is there any reward for goodness except goodness?
The Monotheist Group	55:60 Is there any reward for goodness except goodness?
Muhammad Asad	55:60 Could the reward of good be aught but good?
Rashad Khalifa	55:60 Is the reward of goodness anything but goodness?
Shabbir Ahmed	55:60 Is the reward of benevolence anything but benevolence itself? 21
Transliteration	55:60 Hal jaz a o al-i h sani illa a l-i h sanu
A	55:60 هل جزاء الاحسن الا الاحسن
Edip-Layth	55:61 So which of your Lord's favors will you deny?
The Monotheist Group	55:61 So which of your Lord's favors will you deny?
Muhammad Asad	55:61 Which, then, of your Sustainer's powers can you disavow?
Rashad Khalifa	55:61 Which of your Lord's marvels can you deny?
Shabbir Ahmed	55:61 Then, O Men and women! Which authority of your Lord will you deny?
Transliteration	55:61 Fabi-ayyi al a-i rabbikum at ukath th ibani
A	55:61 فباى ءالاء ربكما تكذبان
Edip-Layth	55:62 Besides these will be two other paradises.
The Monotheist Group	55:62 And besides these will be two other paradises.
Muhammad Asad	55:62 And besides those two will be yet two [other] gardens - 28
Rashad Khalifa	55:62 Below them are two gardens (one for the jinns and one for the humans).
Shabbir Ahmed	55:62 And other than these two, shall be two more Gardens. 22
Transliteration	55:62 Wamin doonihim a jannat ani
A	55:62 ومن دونهما جنتان
Edip-Layth	55:63 So which of your Lord's favors will you deny?
The Monotheist Group	55:63 So which of your Lord's favors will you deny?
Muhammad Asad	55:63 which, then, of your Sustainer's powers can you disavow?
Rashad Khalifa	55:63 Which of your Lord's marvels can you deny?
Shabbir Ahmed	55:63 Then, O Men and women! Which authority of your Lord will you deny?
Transliteration	55:63 Fabi-ayyi al a-i rabbikum at ukath th ibani
A	55:63 فباى ءالاء ربكما تكذبان
Edip-Layth	55:64 Dark green in color.

The Monotheist Group	55:64 Dark green in color.
Muhammad Asad	55:64 two [gardens] of the deepest green. ²⁹
Rashad Khalifa	55:64 Side by side.
Shabbir Ahmed	55:64 Both ever-fresh, lush green, pleasing.
Transliteration	55:64 Mudhammatani
A	55:64 مدهامتان
Edip-Layth	55:65 So which of your Lord's favors will you deny?
The Monotheist Group	55:65 So which of your Lord's favors will you deny?
Muhammad Asad	55:65 Which, then, of your Sustainer's powers can you disavow?
Rashad Khalifa	55:65 Which of your Lord's marvels can you deny?
Shabbir Ahmed	55:65 Then, O Men and women! Which authority of your Lord will you deny?
Transliteration	55:65 Fabi-ayyi ala-i rabbikum atukaththibani
A	55:65 فباى ءالاء ربكما تكذبان
Edip-Layth	55:66 In them, two springs which gush forth.
The Monotheist Group	55:66 In them, two springs which gush forth.
Muhammad Asad	55:66 In [each of] these two [gardens] will two springs gush forth.
Rashad Khalifa	55:66 In them, wells to be pumped.
Shabbir Ahmed	55:66 Therein are two springs gushing forth. ²³
Transliteration	55:66 Feehima AAaynani naddakhatani
A	55:66 فيهما عينان نضاختان
Edip-Layth	55:67 So which of your Lord's favors will you deny?
The Monotheist Group	55:67 So which of your Lord's favors will you deny?
Muhammad Asad	55:67 Which, then, of your Sustainer's powers can you disavow?
Rashad Khalifa	55:67 Which of your Lord's marvels can you deny?
Shabbir Ahmed	55:67 Then, O Men and women! Which authority of your Lord will you deny?
Transliteration	55:67 Fabi-ayyi ala-i rabbikum atukaththibani
A	55:67 فباى ءالاء ربكما تكذبان
Edip-Layth	55:68 In them are fruits, date palms, and pomegranate.
The Monotheist Group	55:68 In them are fruits, date palms, and pomegranate.
Muhammad Asad	55:68 In both of them will be [all kinds of] fruit, and date-palms and pomegranates.
Rashad Khalifa	55:68 In them are fruits, date palms, and pomegranate.

Shabbir Ahmed	55:68 Therein are fruit, and palms and pomegranate. 24
Transliteration	55:68 Feehima f ^ā kihātun wanakh ^{lun} warumman ^{un}
A	55:68 فيهما فكهة ونخل ورمان
Edip-Layth	55:69 So which of your Lord's favors will you deny?
The Monotheist Group	55:69 So which of your Lord's favors will you deny?
Muhammad Asad	55:69 Which, then, of your Sustainer's powers can you disavow?
Rashad Khalifa	55:69 Which of your Lord's marvels can you deny?
Shabbir Ahmed	55:69 Then, O Men and women! Which authority of your Lord will you deny?
Transliteration	55:69 Fabi-ayyi ^{alā} -i rabbikum ^{atukaththibani}
A	55:69 فباى ءالاء ربكما تكذبان
Edip-Layth	55:70 In them is what is good and beautiful.
The Monotheist Group	55:70 In them is what is good and beautiful.
Muhammad Asad	55:70 In these [gardens] will be [all] things most excellent and beautiful.
Rashad Khalifa	55:70 In them are beautiful mates.
Shabbir Ahmed	55:70 Therein are all things most excellent, symmetrical, beautiful. 25
Transliteration	55:70 Feehinna khayr ^{atun} ^{hisanun}
A	55:70 فيهن خيرت حسان
Edip-Layth	55:71 So which of your Lord's favors will you deny?
The Monotheist Group	55:71 So which of your Lord's favors will you deny?
Muhammad Asad	55:71 Which, then, of your Sustainer's powers can you disavow?
Rashad Khalifa	55:71 Which of your Lord's marvels can you deny?
Shabbir Ahmed	55:71 Then, O Men and women! Which authority of your Lord will you deny?
Transliteration	55:71 Fabi-ayyi ^{alā} -i rabbikum ^{atukaththibani}
A	55:71 فباى ءالاء ربكما تكذبان
Edip-Layth	55:72 Companions, inside grand pavilions. 5
The Monotheist Group	55:72 Companions, inside grand pavilions.
Muhammad Asad	55:72 [There the blest will live with their] companions pure 30 and modest, in pavilions [splendid] -
Rashad Khalifa	55:72 Confined in the tents.
Shabbir Ahmed	55:72 Modest, intelligent companions in blessed shades. 26
Transliteration	55:72 Hoorun maq ^{soor} atun feealkhiy ^{ami}

A	55:72 حور مقصورت فی الخيام
Edip-Layth	55:73 So which of your Lord's favors will you deny?
The Monotheist Group	55:73 So which of your Lord's favors will you deny?
Muhammad Asad	55:73 which, then, of your Sustainer's powers can you disavow?
Rashad Khalifa	55:73 Which of your Lord's marvels can you deny?
Shabbir Ahmed	55:73 Then, O Men and women! Which authority of your Lord will you deny?
Transliteration	55:73 Fabi-ayyi ala -i rabbikum atukaththibani
A	55:73 فباى ءالاء ربكما تكذبان
Edip-Layth	55:74 No human has ever touched them, nor Jinn.
The Monotheist Group	55:74 No human has ever touched them, nor Jinn.
Muhammad Asad	55:74 [companions] whom neither man nor invisible being will have touched ere then.
Rashad Khalifa	55:74 No human ever touched them, nor a jinn.
Shabbir Ahmed	55:74 Companions never touched by human vices or evil prompting. 27
Transliteration	55:74 Lam ya ^t mithhunna insun qablahum wa ^a lajannun
A	55:74 لم يطمثهن انس قبلهم ولا جان
Edip-Layth	55:75 So which of your Lord's favors will you deny?
The Monotheist Group	55:75 So which of your Lord's favors will you deny?
Muhammad Asad	55:75 Which, then, of your Sustainer's powers can you disavow?
Rashad Khalifa	55:75 Which of your Lord's marvels can you deny?
Shabbir Ahmed	55:75 Then, O Men and women! Which authority of your Lord will you deny?
Transliteration	55:75 Fabi-ayyi ala -i rabbikum atukaththibani
A	55:75 فباى ءالاء ربكما تكذبان
Edip-Layth	55:76 Reclining on green carpets, in beautiful surroundings.
The Monotheist Group	55:76 Reclining on green carpets, in beautiful surroundings.
Muhammad Asad	55:76 [In such a paradise will they dwell,] reclining upon meadows green and carpets rich in beauty.
Rashad Khalifa	55:76 They relax on green carpets, in beautiful surroundings.
Shabbir Ahmed	55:76 Relaxing on ever-fresh meadows and splendid carpets.
Transliteration	55:76 Muttaki-eena AA ala ra ^a frafin khud ^r inwaAAabqariyyin hisanin
A	55:76 متکین علی رفرف خضر وعبقری حسان
Edip-Layth	55:77 So which of your Lord's favors will you deny?

The Monotheist Group	55:77 So which of your Lord's favors will you deny?
Muhammad Asad	55:77 Which, then, of your Sustainer's powers can you disavow?
Rashad Khalifa	55:77 Which of your Lord's marvels can you deny?
Shabbir Ahmed	55:77 Then, O Men and women! Which authority of your Lord will you deny?
Transliteration	55:77 Fabi-ayyi al a -i rabbikum a tukath th ib a n
A	55:77 فباى ءالاء ربكما تكذبان
Edip-Layth	55:78 Glorified be the name of your Lord, Possessor of Majesty and Honor.
The Monotheist Group	55:78 Glorified be the name of your Lord, Possessor of Majesty and Honor.
Muhammad Asad	55:78 HALLOWED be thy Sustainer's name, full of majesty and glory!
Rashad Khalifa	55:78 Most exalted is the name of your Lord, Possessor of Majesty and Honor.
Shabbir Ahmed	55:78 Ever blissful is the Name of your Lord, the Lord of Majesty and Honor!
Transliteration	55:78 Tab a raka ismu rabbika th eeal j al a li waal-ik r a mi
A	55:78 تبرك اسم ربك ذى الجلال والاکرام

<< Prev 55:1-78 Next >>

Return to top

End Notes

Muhammad Asad - The Message Of Quran

Muhammad Asad - End Note 1 (55:4)

The term al-bayan - denoting "the means whereby a thing is [intellectually] circumscribed and made clear" (Raghib) - applies to both thought and speech inasmuch as it comprises the faculty of making a thing or an idea apparent to the mind and conceptually distinct from other things or ideas, as well as the power to express this cognition clearly in spoken or written language (Taj al-'Arus): hence, in the above context, "articulate thought and speech", recalling the "knowledge of all the names" (i.e., the faculty of conceptual thinking) with which man is endowed (see 2:31 and the corresponding note 23).

Muhammad Asad - End Note 2 (55:5)

Lit., "according to a definite reckoning".

Muhammad Asad - End Note 3 (55:7)

The noun mizan, usually denoting a "balance", has here the more general connotation of "measure" or "measuring" by any means whatsoever (Zamakhshari), in both the concrete and abstract senses of the word. (Cf. also the parabolic use of the term mizan in 42:17 and 57:25.)

Muhammad Asad - End Note 4 (55:13)

The majority of the classical commentators interpret the dual form of address appearing in this phrase - . rabbikuma ("the Sustainer of you two") and tukadhdhiban ("do you [or "can you"] two disavow") - as relating to the worlds of men and of the 'invisible beings' (jinn see Appendix III); but the most obvious explanation (mentioned, among others, by Razi) is that it refers to the two categories of human beings, men and women, to both of whom the Qur'an is addressed. The plural noun ala, rendered by me as "powers", signifies literally "blessings" or "bounties"; but as the above refrain, which is repeated many times in this surah, bears not only on the bounties which God bestows on His creation but, more generally, on all manifestations of His creativeness and might, some of the earliest commentators - e.g., Ibn Zayd, as quoted by Tabari - regard the term ala, in this context, as synonymous with qudrah ("power" or "powers").

Muhammad Asad - End Note 5 (55:14)

See 15:26 and the corresponding note 24.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 6 (55:15)

Cf. 15:27 - "the fire of scorching winds (nar as-samum)" - thus stressing their non-corporeal origin and composition. The significance of the term jinn ("invisible beings") has been touched upon briefly in note 86 on 6:100 and note 67 on 37:158; for a more detailed explanation, see Appendix III.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 7 (55:17)

I.e., of the extreme points of sunrise and sunset in summer and in winter (see 37:5 and 70:40), including "all that is between them": a metonym for God's being the Ultimate Cause of the orbital movement within the universe.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 8 (55:20)

See 25:53 and the corresponding notes 41 and 42.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 9 (55:24)

Lit., "in the sea like mountains". The reference to ships as "belonging to God" is meant to stress the God-given nature of man's intelligence and inventiveness - a reflection of God's creative powers - which expresses itself in all that man is able to produce. (See also 42:32-34 and the corresponding notes.)

Muhammad Asad - End Note 10 (55:26)

Lit., "Everyone who is upon it i.e., on earth and/or, according to Ibn Kathir, in the heavens - since the pronoun in alayha apparently relates to the whole universe.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 11 (55:27)

Lit., "face", or "countenance", a term used metonymically in classical Arabic to denote the "self" or "whole being" of a person - in this case, the essential Being, or Reality, of God. Cf. also 28:88, "Everything is bound to perish, save His [eternal] Self".

Muhammad Asad - End Note 12 (55:29)

Lit., "Him does ask [or "of Him does beg"] whoever is", etc.: i.e., all depend on Him for their safety and sustenance.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 13 (55:31)

Lit., "We shall apply Ourselves to you".

Muhammad Asad - End Note 14 (55:31)

I.e., "you sin-laden men and women" (see note 4 above). According to an interpretation quoted by Razi, the designation thaqalan (the dual form of thaqal, "a thing of weight") signifies that both these categories of human beings are liable to, and therefore burdened with, sinning.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 15 (55:33)

For an explanation of this rendering of mashar al-jinn wa- 'l-ins, see note 112 on the first paragraph of 6:128.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 16 (55:33)

I.e., in order to escape God's judgment and chastisement.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 17 (55:33)

I.e., "unless He wills to reprieve you": cf. the last paragraph of 6:128 and the corresponding note 114.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 18 (55:37)

This is one of several legitimate interpretations of the term dihan (see Tabari); another is "freshly tanned [or "red"] leather", synonymous with adim (Zamakhshari); and yet another, "dregs of olive-oil" (Raghib). All these interpretations have one idea in common - namely, the sudden and surprising change (or changes) of colour to which the sky will be subject at the Last Hour.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 19 (55:39)

I.e., the sinners "will find all that they ever wrought [now] facing them" (18:49), and "their own tongues and hands and feet will bear witness against them by [recalling] all that they did" (24:24).

Muhammad Asad - End Note 20 (55:41)

This is an allusion to their utter humiliation and disgrace. When the ancient Arabs wanted to stress someone's subjection to another person, they would say, "His forelock is in the hand of so-and-so." (See also 96:15-16 and the corresponding note 8.)

Muhammad Asad - End Note 21 (55:44)

For my rendering of hamim as "burning despair", see note on the last sentence of 6:70. The allegorical nature of all Quranic descriptions of "rewards" and "punishments" in the hereafter is clearly hinted at in the phrasing of the above verse, which speaks of the sinners "wandering to and fro" between hell and burning despair (baynaha wa-bayna hamim) - i.e., tossed between factual suffering and the despair of vain regrets.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 22 (55:46)

I.e., two kinds of paradise, to be experienced simultaneously. Various interpretations are advanced on this score by the classical commentators: e.g., "a paradise for their doing of good deeds, and another paradise for their avoidance of sins" (Zamakhshari); or a paradise that "will comprise both spiritual and physical joys, [so that it will seem] as if it were two paradises" (Razi). Finally, one might conclude that the pointed reference to the "two gardens" of paradise contains - like the preceding reference to the sinners' "wandering between hell and burning despair" - a pointed allusion to the allegorical character of all descriptions of the life to come, as well as to the inexpressible intensity (or multiplication) of all imaginable and unimaginable sensations in that afterlife. The subsequent descriptions of the joys of paradise must be understood in the same symbolic light.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 23 (55:48)

According to Tabari, the noun fann (lit., "mode" or "manner") is in this case synonymous with lawn ("colour" or "hue"). Afnan is a double plural, and hence denotes "many hues" and since - as pointed out in the Taj al-'Arus - one of the several accepted meanings of fann is "a wonderful thing", afnan can also be understood as "many wonderful things". The rendering adopted by me combines both these interpretations. As regards the indescribable nature of what is termed "paradise", see 32:17 and the corresponding note 15.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 24 (55:50)

The "two springs" of paradise call to mind the "two seas" spoken of in 18:60-61, which, according to Baydawi, symbolize the two sources or streams of knowledge accessible to man: the one obtained through the observation and intellectual analysis of external phenomena (ilm az-zahir), and the other through inward, mystic insight (ilm al-batin).

Muhammad Asad - End Note (55:52)

Muhammad Asad - End Note 26 (55:54)

Cf. 18:31 and the corresponding note 41. The "reclining upon carpets" (or "upon couches" in 18:31) is a symbol of utter restfulness and peace of mind. The mention of the "carpets" of paradise being lined with rich brocade is perhaps meant to convey the idea that - just as the lining of a carpet is, as a rule, invisible - the beauty of paradise has nothing to do with outward show, being of an inner, spiritual nature (Razi). This concept appears already in an earlier interpretation, quoted by Zamakhshari, according to which the "carpets" spoken of here consist of light.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 27 (55:56)

See 56:35-36 and the corresponding note 14. As regards the expression qasirat at-tarf (lit., "such as restrain their gaze"), see note 46 on 38:52, the earliest Quranic instance of this expression.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 28 (55:62)

Most of the commentators assume - not very convincingly - that the "two other gardens" are those to which believers of lesser merit will attain. As against this weak and somewhat arbitrary interpretation, it seems to me that the juxtaposition of "two other gardens" with the "two" previously mentioned is meant to convey the idea of infinity in connection with the concept of paradise as such: gardens beyond gardens beyond gardens in an endless vista, slightly varying in description, but all of them symbols of supreme bliss.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 29 (55:64)

I.e., by reason of abundant watering (Taj al-'Arus). It is to be noted that the adjective "green" is often used in the Qur'an to indicate ever-fresh life: e.g., the "green garments" which the inmates of paradise will wear (18:31 and 76:21), or the "green meadows" upon which they will recline (cf. verse 76 of the present surah).

Muhammad Asad - End Note 30 (55:72)

For this rendering of the plural noun hur (which is both masculine and feminine), see note 8 on 56:22, the earliest occurrence of this term in the Qur'an; also note 13 on 56:34.

Shabbir Ahmed -

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 1 (55:4)

Bayaan = Statement = Intelligent speech = Utterance = Clear expression of feelings and thoughts by signs, speech or writing. 2:256, 3:137, 16:89, 75:19. Bayaan is more versatile than Nutq = Expression in human speech or signs 21:63, 27:16, 41:21, 45:29. Saut = Voice or sound: human, animal or inanimate. 17:64, 31:19, 49:2

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 2 (55:5)

Such are the changeless Divine laws

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 3 (55:10)

Anaam = All living beings

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 4 (55:12)

The three Arabic terms used in this verse include all the meanings rendered

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 5 (55:14)

Human evolution: 2:30, 6:2, 7:189, 15:26-27, 22:5, 23:1213, 25:54, 32:7-9, 35:11, 37:11, 71:17

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 6 (55:15)

Jinns: 2:102, 6:76, 6:100, 6:112, 6:128 -130, 7:12, 7:38, 8:27, 11:119, 15:17, 15:27, 21:82, 32:13, 34:12-14, 37:158, 38:76, 46:29-32, 72:1-15, 75:2-6, 114:6. Jinn pertains to something hidden, rarely seen, therefore, after using Tasreef, Al-Jinn = The nomads. Jannah from the same root word means a garden hidden in foliage. When the Jinns or the nomads move to dwell in towns and become civilized, they are referred to as Ins = Urbanites. Among the verses referred to above, Jinn, at times, denotes the hidden evil prompting that goes on in the human mind. In the sense of flashes of evil prompting, Jinn can be understood as Satan in minor forms. Satan = Selfish or rebellious desires works in concert with destructive emotions which have been described as being fiery in the Jahiliyah poetry. 'Emotions being fiery' stands up to reason. Verse 21:37 convincingly shows what the 'creation of Jinn out of fire' actually means. Using exactly the same terms khuliq and min it states Khuliq-alinsaanu min 'ajal. Literally that would translate as: He created man out of haste. Whereas the clear understanding is: Man has been created with a tendency to be hasty and looking for instant gains or results. Such is the case in 21:37 with Khulaq-al-jaanna mim-maarij-im-min naar -Breaking the sentence for clarity: Khulaq-al-jaanna min marijin min naar. He has given a fiery, emotional disposition to uncivilized human beings

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 7 (55:17)

The East and West of the summer, and the East and West of the winter. The science of Astronomy will almost certainly learn more about the two Easts and Wests. 37:5, 70:40

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 8 (55:19)

25:53

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 9 (55:20)

The great bodies of salt water and fresh water do not mix. In addition to the physical observation in numerous parts of the world where the two waters meet and yet do not mix, let us recall 18:60-70. The meeting of the two seas and yet, not meeting may allude to a marvelous phenomenon: The waves of human intellect meet with the Ocean of Divine revelation only in case of prophets. So, for them they meet and for the rest they never meet!

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 10 (55:24)

'His ships' needs a comment. All creativity of human beings issues forth from the gifts of mind and body bestowed by God. So, God rightfully declares His Ownership of all things in the Universe, including those manufactured by people. In fact, I could only discern one Right that God assigns to Himself: Ownership of all things. But, unfortunately, the Muslim clergy has confused the masses into thinking that people owe two kinds of rights on themselves: Huqooqullah (God's rights) such as worshiping Him, praying five times a day and other rituals. And Huqooqul 'Ibaad (People's rights) such as treating them nicely, helping them in need, honoring elders etc. But this dichotomy, the so-called Huqooqullah and Huqooqul 'Ibaad are nowhere found in the Qur'an. The Book is replete with human rights all through. This huge blunder is not without consequence. A 'practicing Muslim' is thought to be the one who wears a particular style of garment, holds a rosary bead in hands, grows a beard, uses miswaak for cleaning the teeth, prays five times a day and so on. If it happens to be a female, a 'practicing Muslimah', in addition, uses veil, niqaab and, for perfection, dons a burka! All this happens while these 'practicing Muslims' keep violating human rights

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 11 (55:26)

Faani = Ever-changing = Mortal

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 12 (55:27)

Baaqi = Remaining = Eternal = Survivor = Changeless. Baqa = To stay, remain. Wajh = Face = Countenance = Self = Whole being = Whole person. 28:88

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 13 (55:31)

Thaqi = Ghalal = Load, weight, burden = Shackles. Through His messages revealed to His messenger, God will break all shackles men and women are carrying 7:157

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 14 (55:33)

Sultan = Evidence = Proof = Authority = Power 4:153, 14:11, 15:42, 17:80, 37:156, 69:29. Using Tasreef the simple understanding is this: You can only continue your evolution beyond the temporal and spatial bounds you now see, if you have primed your 'self' for immortality, instead of mere survival of the unfit

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 15 (55:35)

If you think that you can escape Divine laws, you will never find your way in the thick smoke of conjecture

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 16 (55:37)

Samaa allegorically rendered as the high elite

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 17 (55:41)

Mujrim = Guilty = One who steals the fruit of others' labor = Violator of human rights

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 18 (55:48)

Afnan = Creative works, art and science

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 19 (55:52)

50:35

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 20 (55:56)

37:48, 38:52, 44:54, 52:20, 55:15, 55:72, 56:22 ♦ Jinn, Jann, Jaann, evil prompting ♦ Ins = Human, is often incorrectly translated in this verse as 'man'. The mistranslation then goes on to state that there are women whom no Jinn or man has ever touched. Women (and men) who qualify for Paradise have had all their faults remitted and absolved, therefore, untouched by vice

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 21 (55:60)

10:26, 16:30, 39:10, 74:6, 76:9

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 22 (55:62)

The human 'self' and the new Universe will keep evolving 69:17

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 23 (55:66)

Personal delight and shared joy 52:25

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 24 (55:68)

Fruit within the fruit of reward

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 25 (55:70)

Khair = Good thing = Beneficial = Excellent. Hisaan = Nicely balanced = Beautifully symmetrical = Symmetrically beautiful

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 26 (55:72)

Hoor = Houri = Modest, intelligent companions, male or female. Unfortunately, this word has been almost invariably translated as 'gorgeous women with big eyes'. Hoor applies to men and women both. The male gender is Ahwar and the female is Hawra. Again, Hoor = Men and women of vision who are modest and delightful companions. Khiyaam = Blessed shady environment, instead of the literal 'tents or pavilions'

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 27 (55:74)

55:15, 55:56

Edip-Layth - End Note 1 (55:5)

The motion of the Sun and Moon follows a very accurate pattern. We can predict their precise locations years ahead of time. Instead of following the hadith that recommends eyewitness testimony of the moon, if people follow God's signs in nature, they will not argue every year about the timing of Ramadan and other holy-days. The eyewitness testimony regarding the new Moon has been proven many times to be false. Ironically, the same people who consider astronomic computation to be a Satanic innovation, rely on astronomic computation regarding the times of Sala prayers. Their minds are so distorted with contradictory teachings that they live in a universe of falsehood and contradiction.

Edip-Layth - End Note 2 (55:11)

Planet earth is a big spaceship and we are astronauts beamed here through conception.

Edip-Layth - End Note 3 (55:20)

See 25:53.

Edip-Layth - End Note 4 (55:27)

See 55:78.

Edip-Layth - End Note 5 (55:72)

See 44:54.

49:6 O you who believe, if a wicked person brings any news to you, you shall first investigate, lest you commit injustice towards some people, out of ignorance, then become sorry and remorseful for what you have done.

Rashad Khalifa (The Final Testament)

 Translations ▼

 Chapter/Verse ▼

 Refresh

 Search

<< Prev 56:1-96 Next >>

Edip-Layth	In the name of God, the Gracious, the Compassionate. 56:1 When the inevitable comes to pass.
The Monotheist Group	In the name of God, the Almighty, the Merciful. 56:1 When the inevitable comes to pass.
Muhammad Asad	In the name of God, The Most Gracious, The Dispenser of Grace: 56:1 WHEN THAT which must come to pass ¹ [at last] comes to pass,
Rashad Khalifa	In the name of GOD, Most Gracious, Most Merciful. 56:1 When the inevitable comes to pass.
Shabbir Ahmed	BISMILLAH-IR-RAHMAN-IR-RAHEEM With the Glorious Name of God, the Ultimate Source of Instant Beneficence and Eternal mercy Who encompasses the entire Universe, nourishing and taking care of all things for what they are meant to be; just as a mother's womb nourishes the embryo to completion without any returns. 56:1 When the Inevitable Episode unfolds.
Transliteration	Bismi All a hi al r rah m ani al r rah e emi 56:1 I t ha waqaAAati alwa q iAAatu
A	بسم الله الرحمن الرحيم 56:1 اذا وقعت الواقعة
Edip-Layth	56:2 Nothing can stop it from happening.
The Monotheist Group	56:2 Nothing can stop it from happening.
Muhammad Asad	56:2 there will be nought that could give the lie to its having come to pass,

Rashad Khalifa	56:2 Nothing can stop it from happening.
Shabbir Ahmed	56:2 None could, then, deny its unfolding.
Transliteration	56:2 Laysa liwaqAAatiha kathibatun
A	56:2 ليس لوقعتها كاذبة
Edip-Layth	56:3 Abasing, exalting.
The Monotheist Group	56:3 It will bring low, and raise up.
Muhammad Asad	56:3 abasing [some], exalting [others]!
Rashad Khalifa	56:3 It will lower some, and raise others.
Shabbir Ahmed	56:3 Lowering some, raising others, the great equalizer!
Transliteration	56:3 Kha f idatun rafiAAatun
A	56:3 خافضة رافعة
Edip-Layth	56:4 When the earth will be shaken a terrible shake.
The Monotheist Group	56:4 When the Earth will be shaken a terrible shake.
Muhammad Asad	56:4 When the earth is shaken with a shaking [severe],
Rashad Khalifa	56:4 The earth will be shaken up.
Shabbir Ahmed	56:4 When the land is shaken with a hard shaking (popular uprising).
Transliteration	56:4 I th a rujjati al-ar d u rajja n
A	56:4 اذا رجت الارض رجا
Edip-Layth	56:5 The mountains will be wiped out.
The Monotheist Group	56:5 And the mountains will be wiped out.
Muhammad Asad	56:5 and the mountains are shattered into [countless] shards,
Rashad Khalifa	56:5 The mountains will be wiped out.
Shabbir Ahmed	56:5 And the tyrannical powers crumble,
Transliteration	56:5 Wabussati aljib a lu bass a n
A	56:5 وبست الجبال بسا
Edip-Layth	56:6 So that they become only scattered dust.
The Monotheist Group	56:6 So that they become only scattered dust.
Muhammad Asad	56:6 so that they become as scattered dust
Rashad Khalifa	56:6 As if they never existed.
Shabbir Ahmed	56:6 Such that they scatter like sand in a sandstorm. ¹
Transliteration	56:6 Faka n at haba a n munbaththa n
A

Edip-Layth	56:7 You will be in three groupings.
The Monotheist Group	56:7 And you will be in three groupings.
Muhammad Asad	56:7 [on that Day,] then, shall you be [divided into] three kinds.
Rashad Khalifa	56:7 You will be stratified into three kinds.
Shabbir Ahmed	56:7 Then, you shall be three kinds.
Transliteration	56:7 Wakuntum azwajan thalathatan
A	56:7 وكنتم أزوجا ثلاثة

Edip-Layth	56:8 So those on the right; who will be from those on the right?
The Monotheist Group	56:8 So those on the right, who will be from those on the right?
Muhammad Asad	56:8 Thus, there shall be such as will have attained to what is right: ² oh, how [happy] will be they who have attained to what is right!
Rashad Khalifa	56:8 Those who deserved bliss will be in bliss.
Shabbir Ahmed	56:8 So, (firstly) the blessed ones. Oh, how wonderful are the blessed ones! ²
Transliteration	56:8 Faas-habu almaymanati maas-habu almaymanati
A	56:8 فاصحب الميمنة ما اصحب الميمنة

Edip-Layth	56:9 Those on the left; who will be from those on the left?
The Monotheist Group	56:9 And those on the left, who will be from those on the left?
Muhammad Asad	56:9 And there shall be such as will have lost them selves in evil: oh, how [unhappy] will be they who have lost themselves in evil! ³
Rashad Khalifa	56:9 Those who deserved misery will be in misery.
Shabbir Ahmed	56:9 And (secondly) the unblessed ones. Ah, how unfortunate are the unblessed ones! ³
Transliteration	56:9 Waas-habu almash-amati maas-habu almash-amati
A	56:9 واصحب المشمة ما اصحب المشمة

Edip-Layth	The Higher Heaven 56:10 Those foremost; who will be from those foremost?
The Monotheist Group	56:10 And those foremost, who will be from those foremost?
Muhammad Asad	56:10 But the foremost shall be [they who in life were] the foremost [in faith and good works]:
Rashad Khalifa	56:10 Then there is the elite of the elite.
Shabbir Ahmed	56:10 And (thirdly) the foremost are the foremost in doing good. ⁴
Transliteration	56:10 Waalssabiqoona alssabiqoona

A
Edip-Layth	56:11 They will be the ones who are brought near.
The Monotheist Group	56:11 They will be the ones who are brought near.
Muhammad Asad	56:11 they who were [always] drawn close unto God!
Rashad Khalifa	56:11 They are those who will be closest (to God).
Shabbir Ahmed	56:11 They are the ones near (to their Lord), in both lives.
Transliteration	56:11 Ol a -ika almuqarraboona
A	56:11 اولئك المقربون
Edip-Layth	56:12 In the paradises of bliss.
The Monotheist Group	56:12 In the paradises of bliss.
Muhammad Asad	56:12 In gardens of bliss [will they dwell] -
Rashad Khalifa	56:12 In the gardens of bliss.
Shabbir Ahmed	56:12 In Gardens of Delight.
Transliteration	56:12 Fee jannati alInnaAAeemi
A	56:12 فى جنت النعيم
Edip-Layth	56:13 Many from the first generations. ¹
The Monotheist Group	56:13 Many from the first generations.
Muhammad Asad	56:13 a good many of those of olden times,
Rashad Khalifa	56:13 Many from the first generations.
Shabbir Ahmed	56:13 A good many of those who led in goodness.
Transliteration	56:13 Thullatun mina al-awwaleena
A	56:13 ثلة من الاولين
Edip-Layth	56:14 A few from the later generations.
The Monotheist Group	56:14 And a few from the later generations.
Muhammad Asad	56:14 but [only] a few of later times. ⁴
Rashad Khalifa	56:14 Few from the later generations.
Shabbir Ahmed	56:14 And some of those who followed them. ⁵
Transliteration	56:14 Waqaleelun mina al- a khireena
A	56:14 وقليل من الءاخرين
Edip-Layth	56:15 Upon luxurious furnishings.
The Monotheist Group	56:15 Upon luxurious furnishings.

Muhammad Asad	56:15 [They will be seated] on gold-encrusted thrones of happiness,
Rashad Khalifa	56:15 On luxurious furnishings.
Shabbir Ahmed	56:15 On decorated thrones.
Transliteration	56:15 AAala sururin mawdoonatin
A	56:15 على سرر موضونة
Edip-Layth	56:16 Residing in them, neighboring each other.
The Monotheist Group	56:16 Residing in them, neighboring each other.
Muhammad Asad	56:16 reclining upon them, facing one another [in love]. ⁵
Rashad Khalifa	56:16 Enjoying everything, they will be neighbors.
Shabbir Ahmed	56:16 Reclining thereon, socializing.
Transliteration	56:16 Muttaki-eena AAalayha mutaqabileena
A	56:16 متكين عليها متقابلين
Edip-Layth	56:17 Moving amongst them will be immortal children.
The Monotheist Group	56:17 Moving amongst them will be immortal children.
Muhammad Asad	56:17 Immortal youths will wait upon them
Rashad Khalifa	56:17 Serving them will be immortal servants.
Shabbir Ahmed	56:17 Their children immortal, playful around them. ⁶
Transliteration	56:17 Yafoofu AAalayhim wildan mukhalladoona
A	56:17 يطوف عليهم ولدن مخلدون
Edip-Layth	56:18 With cups and pitchers, drinks which are pure.
The Monotheist Group	56:18 With cups, pitchers and drinks which are pure.
Muhammad Asad	56:18 with goblets, and ewers, and cups filled with water from unsullied springs ⁶
Rashad Khalifa	56:18 With cups, pitchers and pure drinks.
Shabbir Ahmed	56:18 With goblets, glistening beakers, and sparkling drinks.
Transliteration	56:18 Bi-akwabin waabareeqa waka/sinmin maAAeenin
A	56:18 باكواب وابريق وكس من معين
Edip-Layth	56:19 They do not run out, nor do they get bored.
The Monotheist Group	56:19 They do not run out, nor do they get bored.
Muhammad Asad	56:19 by which their minds will not be clouded and which will not make them drunk;
Rashad Khalifa	56:19 They never run out, nor do they get bored.
Shabbir Ahmed	56:19 Wherefrom they get no headache nor beclouding of mind. ⁷

Transliteration	56:19 La yuṣaddaAAoona AAanhawala yunzifoona
A	56:19 لا يصدعون عنها ولا ينزفون
Edip-Layth	56:20 Fruits of their choice.
The Monotheist Group	56:20 And fruits of their choice.
Muhammad Asad	56:20 and with fruit of any kind that they may choose,
Rashad Khalifa	56:20 Fruits of their choice.
Shabbir Ahmed	56:20 And fruit of their choice.
Transliteration	56:20 Wafakihatim mimmayatakhayyaroona
A	56:20 وفكهة مما يتخيرون
Edip-Layth	56:21 Meat of birds that they desire.
The Monotheist Group	56:21 And meat of birds that they desire.
Muhammad Asad	56:21 and with the flesh of any fowl that they may desire. ⁷
Rashad Khalifa	56:21 Meat of birds that they desire.
Shabbir Ahmed	56:21 The supreme delicacies of life.
Transliteration	56:21 Walaḥmi tayrin mimmayashtahoona
A	56:21 ولحم طير مما يشتهون
Edip-Layth	56:22 Wonderful companions,
The Monotheist Group	56:22 And wonderful companions.
Muhammad Asad	56:22 And [with them will be their] companions pure, most beautiful of eye, ⁸
Rashad Khalifa	56:22 Beautiful mates.
Shabbir Ahmed	56:22 And lovely, intelligent spouses of vision. ⁸
Transliteration	56:22 Waḥoorun AAeenun
A	56:22 وهور عين
Edip-Layth	56:23 Like pearls which are sheltered.
The Monotheist Group	56:23 Like pearls which are sheltered.
Muhammad Asad	56:23 like unto pearls [still] hidden in their shells.
Rashad Khalifa	56:23 Like protected pearls.
Shabbir Ahmed	56:23 Like pearls well guarded, far from vice.
Transliteration	56:23 Kaamthali allu/lui almaknooni
A	56:23 كأمثل اللولو المكنون

Edip-Layth	56:24 A reward for their works.
The Monotheist Group	56:24 A reward for their works.
Muhammad Asad	56:24 [And this will be] a reward for what they did [in life].
Rashad Khalifa	56:24 Rewards for their works.
Shabbir Ahmed	56:24 A reward for what they used to do. 9
Transliteration	56:24 Jazaa n bima k anooyaAAamaloona
A	56:24 جزاء بما كانوا يعملون
Edip-Layth	56:25 They never hear any nonsense therein, nor sinful utterances.
The Monotheist Group	56:25 They never hear any nonsense therein, nor sinful utterances.
Muhammad Asad	56:25 No empty talk will they hear there, nor any call to sin,
Rashad Khalifa	56:25 They never hear any nonsense therein, nor sinful utterances.
Shabbir Ahmed	56:25 No vain talk will they hear therein, nor any call restraining from further development. 10
Transliteration	56:25 La yasmaAAoona fee h a laghwanwala ta/theema n
A	56:25 لا يسمعون فيها لغوا ولا تأثيما
Edip-Layth	56:26 Only the utterances of: "Peace. Peace."
The Monotheist Group	56:26 Only the utterances of: "Peace. Peace."
Muhammad Asad	56:26 but only the tiding of inner soundness and peace. 9
Rashad Khalifa	56:26 Only the utterance: "Peace, peace."
Shabbir Ahmed	56:26 Nothing but the greeting and tiding of Peace! 11
Transliteration	56:26 Illa qeelan sala m an sala m an
A	56:26 الا قبيلا سلما سلما
Edip-Layth	The Lower Heaven 56:27 Those on the right; who will be with those on the right?
The Monotheist Group	56:27 And those on the right, who will be with those on the right?
Muhammad Asad	56:27 NOW AS FOR those who have attained to righteous ness - what of those who have attained to righteousness? 10
Rashad Khalifa	The Lower Heaven 56:27 Those of the right side, will be on the right side.
Shabbir Ahmed	56:27 And the blessed ones. Oh, how wonderful are the blessed ones!
Transliteration	56:27 Waas - habu alyameeni ma s -habu alyameeni
A	56:27 واصحب اليمين ما اصحب اليمين
Edip-Layth	56:28 In lush orchards.

The Monotheist Group	56:28 In lush orchards.
Muhammad Asad	56:28 [They, too, will find themselves] amidst fruit- laden lote-trees, ¹¹
Rashad Khalifa	56:28 In lush orchards.
Shabbir Ahmed	56:28 In orchards without thorns.
Transliteration	56:28 Fee sidrin makh d oodin
A	56:28 فى سدر مخضود
E dip-Layth	56:29 Fruit-trees which are ripe.
The Monotheist Group	56:29 And fruit-trees which are ripe.
Muhammad Asad	56:29 and acacias flower-clad,
Rashad Khalifa	56:29 Fragrant fruits.
Shabbir Ahmed	56:29 And trees laden with fruit and flower.
Transliteration	56:29 Wa t al h in man d oodin
A	56:29 وطلح منضود
E dip-Layth	56:30 Extended shade.
The Monotheist Group	56:30 And extended shade.
Muhammad Asad	56:30 and shade extended, ¹²
Rashad Khalifa	56:30 Extended shade.
Shabbir Ahmed	56:30 And cool expanded shades of abundant delight.
Transliteration	56:30 Wa t h i llin mam d oodin
A	56:30 وظل ممدود
E dip-Layth	56:31 Flowing water.
The Monotheist Group	56:31 And flowing water.
Muhammad Asad	56:31 and waters gushing,
Rashad Khalifa	56:31 Abundant water.
Shabbir Ahmed	56:31 And water falls.
Transliteration	56:31 Wa m a a -in maskoob i n
A	56:31 وماء مسكوب
E dip-Layth	56:32 Many fruits.
The Monotheist Group	56:32 And many fruits.
Muhammad Asad	56:32 and fruit abounding,
Rashad Khalifa	56:32 Many fruits.

Shabbir Ahmed	56:32 And fruit abounding.
Transliteration	56:32 Waf a kihat i n katheer a t i n
A	56:32 وفكهة كثيرة
Edip-Layth	56:33 Neither ending; nor forbidden.
The Monotheist Group	56:33 Neither ending; nor forbidden.
Muhammad Asad	56:33 never-failing and never out of reach.
Rashad Khalifa	56:33 Never ending; never forbidden.
Shabbir Ahmed	56:33 Never interrupted, never too far.
Transliteration	56:33 La maq t ooAAat i n wal a mamn oo AAat i n
A	56:33 لا مقطوعة ولا ممنوعة
Edip-Layth	56:34 Raised furnishings.
The Monotheist Group	56:34 And raised furnishings.
Muhammad Asad	56:34 And [with them will be their] spouses, raised high: ¹³
Rashad Khalifa	56:34 Luxurious furnishings.
Shabbir Ahmed	56:34 And on thrones, raised in honor.
Transliteration	56:34 Wafurushin marfooAAat i n
A	56:34 وفرش مرفوعة
Edip-Layth	56:35 We have produced them in a special way.
The Monotheist Group	56:35 We have planted them deeply.
Muhammad Asad	56:35 for, behold, We shall have brought them into being in a life renewed,
Rashad Khalifa	56:35 We create for them mates.
Shabbir Ahmed	56:35 We have given these women a new being (wholly different from the Age of Ignorance 56:37.)
Transliteration	56:35 Inna ansha/n a hunna insha a n
A	56:35 انا انشانهن انشاء
Edip-Layth	56:36 Made them young.
The Monotheist Group	56:36 And made them never previously touched.
Muhammad Asad	56:36 having resurrected them as virgins, ¹⁴
Rashad Khalifa	56:36 Never previously touched.
Shabbir Ahmed	56:36 And made them of unparalleled virtue. ¹²
Transliteration	56:36 FajaAAaln a hunna abka r a n
A	56:36 فجعلنهن ابكارا

Edip-Layth	56:37 A perfect match.
The Monotheist Group	56:37 Perfect and without spoil.
Muhammad Asad	56:37 full of love, well-matched
Rashad Khalifa	56:37 Perfectly matched.
Shabbir Ahmed	56:37 Eloquent, made of the same mettle, harmonious, blending well in the society. 13
Transliteration	56:37 AAuruban atraban
A	56:37 عربا اترابا
Edip-Layth	56:38 For those on the right side.
The Monotheist Group	56:38 For those on the right side.
Muhammad Asad	56:38 with those who have attained to righteousness: 15
Rashad Khalifa	56:38 For those on the right side.
Shabbir Ahmed	56:38 For the companions of the right hand (the most blessed ones) -
Transliteration	56:38 Li-as-habi alyameeni
A	56:38 لاصحب اليمين
Edip-Layth	56:39 Many from the early generations.
The Monotheist Group	56:39 Many from the early generations.
Muhammad Asad	56:39 a good many of olden times,
Rashad Khalifa	56:39 Many from the early generations.
Shabbir Ahmed	56:39 A good many of those who led in goodness,
Transliteration	56:39 Thullatun mina al-awwaleena
A	56:39 ثلة من الاولين
Edip-Layth	56:40 Many from the later generations.
The Monotheist Group	56:40 And many from the later generations.
Muhammad Asad	56:40 and a good many of later times. 16
Rashad Khalifa	56:40 Many from the later generations.
Shabbir Ahmed	56:40 And a good many of those who followed after them. 14
Transliteration	56:40 Wathullatun mina al-akhireena
A	56:40 وثلة من الءاخرين
Edip-Layth	Hell 56:41 Those on the left, who will be from those on the left?
The Monotheist Group

	56:41 And those on the left, who will be from those on the left?
Muhammad Asad	56:41 BUT AS FOR those who have persevered in evil - what of those who have persevered in evil? ¹⁷
Rashad Khalifa	Hell 56:41 Those of the left, will be on the left.
Shabbir Ahmed	56:41 Then, the unblessed ones. Ah, how unfortunate are the unblessed ones! ¹⁵
Transliteration	56:41 Waas-habu alshshimalima as-habu alshshimali
A	56:41 واصحب الشمال ما اصحب الشمال
Edip-Layth	56:42 In fierce hot winds and boiling water.
The Monotheist Group	56:42 In fierce hot winds and boiling water.
Muhammad Asad	56:42 [They will find themselves] in the midst of scorching winds, and burning despair, ¹⁸
Rashad Khalifa	56:42 In misery and inferno.
Shabbir Ahmed	56:42 In scorching wind, smoldering anguish!
Transliteration	56:42 Fee samoomin wahameemin
A	56:42 في سموم وحميم
Edip-Layth	56:43 A shade that is unpleasant.
The Monotheist Group	56:43 And a shade that is unpleasant.
Muhammad Asad	56:43 and the shadows of black smoke -
Rashad Khalifa	56:43 Even their shade is hot.
Shabbir Ahmed	56:43 Enshrouded in smoke, opaque.
Transliteration	56:43 Wa th illin min yahmoomin
A	56:43 وظل من يحموم
Edip-Layth	56:44 Neither cool, nor helpful.
The Monotheist Group	56:44 Neither cool, nor helpful.
Muhammad Asad	56:44 [shadows] neither cooling nor soothing.
Rashad Khalifa	56:44 Never cool, never tolerable.
Shabbir Ahmed	56:44 Neither coolness of contentment nor honor of accomplishment.
Transliteration	56:44 La baridin wala kareemin
A	56:44 لا بارد ولا كريم
Edip-Layth	56:45 They used to be indulged in luxury before this.
The Monotheist Group	56:45 They used to be indulged in luxury before this.
	56:45 For, behold, in times gone by they were wont to abandon themselves

Muhammad Asad	wholly to the pursuit of pleasures, ¹⁹
Rashad Khalifa	56:45 They used to be rich.
Shabbir Ahmed	56:45 Before this, they were sunk in luxury, exploiting the poor.
Transliteration	56:45 Innahum kanoo qabla thalikamutrafeena
A	56:45 انهم كانوا قبل ذلك مترفين
Edip-Layth	56:46 They persisted in the great blasphemy.
The Monotheist Group	56:46 And they persisted in the great blasphemy.
Muhammad Asad	56:46 and would persist in heinous sinning,
Rashad Khalifa	56:46 They insisted on the great blasphemy.
Shabbir Ahmed	56:46 And stubbornly persisted in their violations.
Transliteration	56:46 Wak anoo yu si rroona AAa al h in thi alAAa theemi
A	56:46 وكانوا يصرون على الحنث العظيم
Edip-Layth	56:47 They used to say, "After we die and turn to dust and bones, shall we then get resurrected?"
The Monotheist Group	56:47 And they used to say: "After we die and turn to dust and bones, we will get resurrected?"
Muhammad Asad	56:47 and would say, What! After we have died and become mere dust and bones, shall we, forsooth, be raised from the dead? -
Rashad Khalifa	56:47 They said, "After we die and turn to dust and bones, we get resurrected?"
Shabbir Ahmed	56:47 And they used to say, "What! When we die and become dust and bones, shall we possibly be raised?"
Transliteration	56:47 Wak anoo yaqooloona a-i tha mitn awakunna tur aban waAAa thamana-inna lamabAAoothoona
A	56:47 وكانوا يقولون انذا متنا وكنا ترابا وعظما ءنا لمبعوثون
Edip-Layth	56:48 "As well as our forefathers?"
The Monotheist Group	56:48 "As well as our forefathers?"
Muhammad Asad	56:48 and perhaps, too, our forebears of old?"
Rashad Khalifa	56:48 "Does this include our forefathers?"
Shabbir Ahmed	56:48 And also our forefathers?"
Transliteration	56:48 Awa abaona al-awwaloona
A	56:48 اوءابلونا الاولون
Edip-Layth	56:49 Say, "The people of old and the later generations,"
The Monotheist Group	56:49 Say: "The people of old and the later generations,"
Muhammad Asad	56:49 Say: Verily, those of olden times and those of later times

Rashad Khalifa	56:49 Say, "The early generations and the later generations.
Shabbir Ahmed	56:49 Say, "Surely, those of old, and those of later generations,
Transliteration	56:49 Qul inna al-awwaleena waal- a khiireena
A	56:49 قل ان الاولين والءاخرين
Edip-Layth	56:50 "Will be summoned to a meeting on a predetermined day."
The Monotheist Group	56:50 "Will be summoned to a meeting on a predetermined Day."
Muhammad Asad	56:50 will indeed be gathered together at an appointed time on a Day known [only to God]:
Rashad Khalifa	56:50 "Will be summoned to a meeting on a predetermined day.
Shabbir Ahmed	56:50 All will be gathered together at an appointed time on a Day well-known." 16
Transliteration	56:50 LamajmooAAoona ila meeqa t iyawmin maAAaloom i n
A	56:50 لمجموعون الى ميقت يوم معلوم
Edip-Layth	56:51 "Then you, O rejecting strayers,"
The Monotheist Group	56:51 "Then you, O rejecting strayers,"
Muhammad Asad	56:51 and then, verily, O you who have gone astray and called the truth a lie,
Rashad Khalifa	56:51 "Then you, O disbelieving strayers.
Shabbir Ahmed	56:51 Then you truly, O You that go wrong and deny the truth!
Transliteration	56:51 Thumma innakum ayyuha a l da lloonaalmukath th iboona
A	56:51 ثم انكم ايها الضالون المكذبون
Edip-Layth	56:52 "Will eat from the tree of Bitterness,"
The Monotheist Group	56:52 "Will eat from the tree of Bitterness,"
Muhammad Asad	56:52 you will indeed have to taste of the tree of deadly fruit, 20
Rashad Khalifa	56:52 "Will eat from the trees of bitterness.
Shabbir Ahmed	56:52 You will eat from the tree of your bitter deeds. 17
Transliteration	56:52 La a kiloona min shajarin min zaqqoom i n
A	56:52 لءاكلون من شجر من زقوم
Edip-Layth	56:53 "Filling your bellies therewith,"
The Monotheist Group	56:53 "Filling your bellies therefrom,"
Muhammad Asad	56:53 and will have to fill your bellies therewith,
Rashad Khalifa	56:53 "Filling your bellies therefrom.
Shabbir Ahmed	56:53 Then you will fill your bellies with it.

Transliteration	56:53 Fa m ali-oona min h a albu t oona
A	56:53 فمالون منها البطون
Edip-Layth	56:54 "Then drinking on top of it boiling water,"
The Monotheist Group	56:54 "Then drinking on top of it boiling water,"
Muhammad Asad	56:54 and will thereupon have to drink [many a draught] of burning despair -
Rashad Khalifa	56:54 "Then drinking on top of it hellish drinks.
Shabbir Ahmed	56:54 And drink burning anguish on top of it (that you gave to others).
Transliteration	56:54 Fa s h a riboona AAalayhi mina al h ameemi
A	56:54 فشريون عليه من الحميم
Edip-Layth	56:55 "So you will drink like thirsty camels!"
The Monotheist Group	56:55 "So you will drink like thirsty camels!"
Muhammad Asad	56:55 drink it as the most insatiably thirsty camels drink!"
Rashad Khalifa	56:55 "Then adding drinks of sand."
Shabbir Ahmed	56:55 And you will drink as the camels with false thirst drink." 18
Transliteration	56:55 Fa s h a riboona shurba al h eemi
A	56:55 فشريون شرب الهيم
Edip-Layth	56:56 Such is their share on the day of Judgment.
The Monotheist Group	56:56 Such is their share on the Day of Judgment.
Muhammad Asad	56:56 Such will be their welcome on Judgment Day!
Rashad Khalifa	56:56 Such is their share on the Day of Judgment.
Shabbir Ahmed	56:56 Such will be their welcome on the Day of Judgment.
Transliteration	56:56 Ha t ha nuzuluhum yawma al d deeni
A	56:56 هذا نزلهم يوم الدين
Edip-Layth	Observe, Question, Reflect and Appreciate 56:57 We have created you, if you could only acknowledge!
The Monotheist Group	56:57 We have created you, if you could only believe!
Muhammad Asad	56:57 WE who have created you, [O men:] why, then, do you not accept the truth?
Rashad Khalifa	Reflections 56:57 We have created you, if you could only believe!
Shabbir Ahmed	56:57 It is We Who have created you. Will you not, then, admit the truth?
Transliteration	56:57 Na h nu khalaq n akum falaw l atu s addi q oona
A	56:57 نحن خلقنكم فلولا تصدقون

Edip-Layth	56:58 Have you noted the semen that you produce?
The Monotheist Group	56:58 Have you noted the semen that you produce?
Muhammad Asad	56:58 Have you ever considered that [seed] which you emit? ²¹
Rashad Khalifa	56:58 Have you noted the semen that you produce?
Shabbir Ahmed	56:58 Have you ever considered the human seed?
Transliteration	56:58 Afaraaytum ma tumnoona
A	56:58 افرءيتم ما تمنون
Edip-Layth	56:59 Did you create it, or were We the Ones who created it?
The Monotheist Group	56:59 Did you create it, or were We the Ones who created it?
Muhammad Asad	56:59 Is it you who create it - or are We the source of its creation?
Rashad Khalifa	56:59 Did you create it, or did we?
Shabbir Ahmed	56:59 Is it you who create it or are We the Creator?
Transliteration	56:59 Aantum takhluqoonahu am nahnu alkhaliqoona
A	56:59 ءانتم تخلقونه ام نحن الخلقون
Edip-Layth	56:60 We have predetermined death for you. Nothing can stop Us,
The Monotheist Group	56:60 We have predetermined death for you. Nothing can stop Us,
Muhammad Asad	56:60 We have [indeed] decreed that death shall be [ever-present] among you: but there is nothing to prevent Us
Rashad Khalifa	56:60 We have predetermined death for you. Nothing can stop us
Shabbir Ahmed	56:60 We have decreed death (designed the laws of death) among you. And there is nothing to prevent Us
Transliteration	56:60 Nahnu qaddarna baynakumualmawta wama nahnu bimasbooqeena
A	56:60 نحن قدرنا بينكم الموت وما نحن بمسبوقين
Edip-Layth	56:61 From transforming your forms, and establishing you in what you do not know.
The Monotheist Group	56:61 From transforming your forms, and establishing you in what you do not know.
Muhammad Asad	56:61 from changing the nature of your existence ²² and bringing you into being [anew] in a manner [as yet] unknown to you.
Rashad Khalifa	56:61 from substituting new generations in your place, and establishing what you do not know.
Shabbir Ahmed	56:61 From changing your forms and making you in a manner, and in an environment, that is (as yet) unknown to you.
Transliteration	56:61 AAala an nubaddila amthalakumwanunshi-akum fee ma la taAalamoona
A

56:61 على ان نبذل امثلكم وننشئكم فى ما لا تعلمون

Edip-Layth	56:62 You have come to know about the first creation. If only you would remember.
The Monotheist Group	56:62 You have come to know about the first creation. If only you would remember.
Muhammad Asad	56:62 And [since] you are indeed aware of the [miracle of your] coming into being in the first instance - why, then, do you not bethink yourselves [of Us]?
Rashad Khalifa	56:62 You know about the first creation. Do you not remember?
Shabbir Ahmed	56:62 Of course, you know the first coming into being. Why, then, do you not reflect?
Transliteration	56:62 Walaqad AAalimtum aInnash-ata al-oolafalawla tathakkaroonaa

56:62 ولقد علمتم النشأة الاولى فلولا تذكرون

Edip-Layth	56:63 Have you noted the crops you reap?
The Monotheist Group	56:63 Have you noted the crops you reap?
Muhammad Asad	56:63 Have you ever considered the seed which you cast upon the soil?
Rashad Khalifa	56:63 Have you noted the crops you reap?
Shabbir Ahmed	56:63 Have you thought of the crops that you cultivate?
Transliteration	56:63 Afaraaytum ma taḥruthoonaa

56:63 افرءيتم ما تحرثون

Edip-Layth	56:64 Did you grow them, or were We the Ones who grew them?
The Monotheist Group	56:64 Did you grow them, or were We the Ones who grew them?
Muhammad Asad	56:64 Is it you who cause it to grow - or are We the cause of its growth?
Rashad Khalifa	56:64 Did you grow them, or did we?
Shabbir Ahmed	56:64 Is it you who grow it or are We the Grower?
Transliteration	56:64 Aantum tazraAAoonahu am naḥnu alzzariAAoonaa

56:64 ءانتم تزرعونه ام نحن الزرعون

Edip-Layth	56:65 If We wished, We could turn them into hay. Then you would be left in wonderment:
The Monotheist Group	56:65 If We wished, We can turn them into hay. Then you will be left in wonderment:
Muhammad Asad	56:65 [For,] were it Our will, We could indeed turn it into chaff, and you would be left to wonder [and to lament],
Rashad Khalifa	56:65 If we will, we can turn it into hay. Then you will lament:
Shabbir Ahmed	56:65 If We willed, We surely could turn it into chaff, then you would be left to exclaim,

Transliteration

— — — — —

	56:65 Law nashao lajaAAalnahu hutamanfathaltum tafakka ^h oona
A	56:65 لو نشاء لجعلنه حطما فظلتم تفكهون
Edip-Layth	56:66 "We are lost."
The Monotheist Group	56:66 "We are lost."
Muhammad Asad	56:66 Verily, we are ruined!
Rashad Khalifa	56:66 "We lost.
Shabbir Ahmed	56:66 "Ah, we are now under debt.
Transliteration	56:66 Inna lamughramoon ^a
A	56:66 انا لمغرمون
Edip-Layth	56:67 "No, we are deprived!"
The Monotheist Group	56:67 "No, we are deprived!"
Muhammad Asad	56:67 Nay, but we have been deprived [of our livelihood]!"
Rashad Khalifa	56:67 "We are deprived."
Shabbir Ahmed	56:67 Nay, we are deprived."
Transliteration	56:67 Bal na ^h nu ma ^h roomoon ^a
A	56:67 بل نحن محرومون
Edip-Layth	56:68 Have you noted the water you drink?
The Monotheist Group	56:68 Have you noted the water you drink?
Muhammad Asad	56:68 Have you ever considered the water which you drink?
Rashad Khalifa	56:68 Have you noted the water you drink?
Shabbir Ahmed	56:68 Have you thought of the water you drink?
Transliteration	56:68 Afaraaytumu alma ^a alla ^h ee ^t ashraboona
A	56:68 افرءيتم الماء الذى تشربون
Edip-Layth	56:69 Did you send it down from the clouds, or was it We who sent it down?
The Monotheist Group	56:69 Did you send it down from the clouds, or was it We who sent it down?
Muhammad Asad	56:69 Is it you who cause it to come down from the clouds - or are We the cause of its coming down?
Rashad Khalifa	56:69 Did you send it down from the clouds, or did we?
Shabbir Ahmed	56:69 Do you bring it down from the rain-clouds or do We?
Transliteration	56:69 Aantum anzaltumoo ^h u mina almuzni am na ^h nualmunziloona
A	56:69 ءانتم انزلتموه من المزن ام نحن المنزلون
Edip-Layth	56:70 If We wished, We could make it salty. If only you would give thanks.

The Monotheist Group	56:70 If We wished, We can make it salty. If only you would give thanks.
Muhammad Asad	56:70 [It comes down sweet - but] were it Our will, We could make it burningly salty and bitter: why, then, do you not give thanks [unto Us]?
Rashad Khalifa	56:70 If we will, we can make it salty. You should be thankful.
Shabbir Ahmed	56:70 If We willed, We surely could make it salty. Why, then, do you not show gratitude? ¹⁹
Transliteration	56:70 Law nashāo jaAAalnahu ojañanfalawla tashkuroona
A	56:70 لو نشاء جعلنه اجاجا فلولاً تشكرون
Edip-Layth	56:71 Have you noted the fire you kindle?
The Monotheist Group	56:71 Have you noted the fire you kindle?
Muhammad Asad	56:71 Have you ever considered the fire which you kindle?
Rashad Khalifa	56:71 Have you noted the fire you ignite?
Shabbir Ahmed	56:71 Did you consider the fire you strike out?
Transliteration	56:71 Afaraaytumu alInnara allateetooroona
A	56:71 افريتم النار التي تورون
Edip-Layth	56:72 Did you initiate its tree, or was it We who initiated it?
The Monotheist Group	56:72 Did you establish its tree, or was it We who established it?
Muhammad Asad	56:72 Is it you who have brought into being the tree that serves as its fuel ²³ - or are We the cause of its coming into being?
Rashad Khalifa	56:72 Did you initiate its tree, or did we?
Shabbir Ahmed	56:72 Is it you who grow its tree, or do We grow it? ²⁰
Transliteration	56:72 Aantum ansha/tum shajarataha am nahnu almunshi-oona
A	56:72 ءانتم انشأتم شجرتها ام نحن المنشون
Edip-Layth	56:73 We rendered it a reminder, and a useful tool for the users.
The Monotheist Group	56:73 We rendered it a reminder, and a useful tool for the users.
Muhammad Asad	56:73 It is We who have made it a means to remind [you of Us], ²⁴ and a comfort for all who are lost and hungry in the wilderness [of their lives]. ²⁵
Rashad Khalifa	56:73 We rendered it a reminder, and a useful tool for the users.
Shabbir Ahmed	56:73 We, yes, We have made this (fire) a reminder, and a gift for all of you who surely need it. ²¹
Transliteration	56:73 Nahnu jaAAalnaha tathkiratanwamataAAan lilmuqweena
A	56:73 نحن جعلناها تذكرة ومتعاً للمقوين
Edip-Layth	56:74 You shall glorify the name of your Lord, the Great.

The Monotheist Group	56:74 You shall glorify the name of your Lord, the Great.
Muhammad Asad	56:74 Extol, then, the limitless glory of thy Sustainer's mighty name!
Rashad Khalifa	56:74 You shall glorify the name of your Lord, the Great.
Shabbir Ahmed	56:74 Work hard, then, to establish the glory of your Lord's Supreme Name.
Transliteration	56:74 Fasabbih biismi rabbika alAAa theemi
A	56:74 فسبح باسم ربك العظيم
Edip-Layth	Quran Accessible Only by the Pure 56:75 I do swear by the positions of the stars. ³
The Monotheist Group	56:75 I do swear by the positions of the stars.
Muhammad Asad	56:75 NAY, I call to witness the coming-down in parts [of this Qur'an] ²⁶
Rashad Khalifa	Only the Sincere Can Understand the Quran 56:75 I swear by the positions of the stars.
Shabbir Ahmed	56:75 Nay, I present the stellar orbits as witness. ²²
Transliteration	56:75 Fal a oqsimu bimaw a qiAAi alInnujoomi
A	56:75 فلا أقسم بموقع النجوم
Edip-Layth	56:76 This is an oath, if you only knew, that is great.
The Monotheist Group	56:76 This is an oath, if you only knew, that is great.
Muhammad Asad	56:76 and, behold, this is indeed a most solemn affirmation, if you but knew it!
Rashad Khalifa	56:76 This is an oath, if you only knew, that is awesome.
Shabbir Ahmed	56:76 This is a an awesome oath if your knowledge can encompass it.
Transliteration	56:76 Wa-innahu laqasamun law taAAalamoona AAa theemun
A	56:76 وانه لقسم لو تعلمون عظيم
Edip-Layth	56:77 It is an honorable Quran. ⁴
The Monotheist Group	56:77 It is an honorable Qur'an.
Muhammad Asad	56:77 Behold, it is a truly noble discourse,
Rashad Khalifa	56:77 This is an honorable Quran.
Shabbir Ahmed	56:77 That this Qur'an is a Noble Monograph.
Transliteration	56:77 Innahu laqur- a nun kareem un
A	56:77 انه لقرآن كريم
Edip-Layth	56:78 In a protected record.
The Monotheist Group	56:78 In a protected book.
Muhammad Asad	56:78 [conveyed unto man] in a well-guarded divine writ

Rashad Khalifa	56:78 In a protected book.
Shabbir Ahmed	56:78 In a well-guarded Book. 23
Transliteration	56:78 Fee kitābin maknoonin
A	56:78 في كتب مكنون
Edip-Layth	56:79 None can grasp it except those pure.
The Monotheist Group	56:79 None can grasp it except those purified.
Muhammad Asad	56:79 which none but the pure [of heart] can touch: 27
Rashad Khalifa	56:79 None can grasp it except the sincere.
Shabbir Ahmed	56:79 This is a Book that none but the pure of mind can grasp. 24
Transliteration	56:79 La yamassuhu illa almuṭahharoona
A	56:79 لا يمسسه الا المطهرون
Edip-Layth	56:80 A revelation from the Lord of the worlds.
The Monotheist Group	56:80 A revelation from the Lord of the worlds.
Muhammad Asad	56:80 a revelation from the Sustainer of all the worlds!
Rashad Khalifa	56:80 A revelation from the Lord of the universe.
Shabbir Ahmed	56:80 A revelation from the Lord of the worlds.
Transliteration	56:80 Tanzeelun min rabbi alAAalameena
A	56:80 تنزيل من رب العلمين
Edip-Layth	56:81 Are you disregarding this hadith? 5
The Monotheist Group	56:81 Are you disregarding this narration?
Muhammad Asad	56:81 Would you, now, look down with disdain on a tiding like this, 28
Rashad Khalifa	56:81 Are you disregarding this narration?
Shabbir Ahmed	56:81 Is it this Hadith that you would hold in low esteem? 25
Transliteration	56:81 Afa bihaṭṭa alḥadeethi antummudhinoona
A	56:81 افبهذا الحديث انتم مدهنون
Edip-Layth	56:82 You made your denial your livelihood?
The Monotheist Group	56:82 And you have your provisions, yet you are denying?
Muhammad Asad	56:82 and make it your daily bread [as it were] to call the truth a lie?
Rashad Khalifa	56:82 Do you make it your business that you disbelieve?
Shabbir Ahmed	56:82 And make its denial your daily bread? 26
Transliteration	56:82 WatajAAaloona rizqakum annakum tukaṭṭhiboona

A	56:82 وتجعلون رزقكم انكم تكذبون
Edip-Layth	56:83 So when the time comes and it reaches your throat.
The Monotheist Group	56:83 So when the time comes and it reaches your throat.
Muhammad Asad	56:83 Why, then, ²⁹ when [the last breath] comes up to the throat [of a dying man],
Rashad Khalifa	56:83 When the time comes and it (your soul) reaches your throat -
Shabbir Ahmed	56:83 Why, then, as the last breath comes up to the throat,
Transliteration	56:83 Falawlā itha balaghātī alḥulqooma
A	56:83 فلولا اذا بلغت الحلقوم
Edip-Layth	56:84 At that moment you look around.
The Monotheist Group	56:84 And at that moment you look around.
Muhammad Asad	56:84 the while you are [helplessly] looking on -
Rashad Khalifa	56:84 you will then look around.
Shabbir Ahmed	56:84 And at that moment you are looking.
Transliteration	56:84 Waantum ḥeena-ithin tanṭuroona
A	56:84 وانتم حينئذ تنظرون
Edip-Layth	56:85 We are closer to it than you are, but you do not see.
The Monotheist Group	56:85 We are closer to it than you are, but you do not see.
Muhammad Asad	56:85 and while We are closer to him than you, although you see [Us] not -:
Rashad Khalifa	56:85 We are closer to it than you are, but you do not see.
Shabbir Ahmed	56:85 And We are closer to him (the dying person) than you are, although you see not.
Transliteration	56:85 Wanaḥnu aqrabu ilayhi minkum walākinlā tubṣiroona
A	56:85 ونحن اقرب اليه منكم ولكن لا تبصرون
Edip-Layth	56:86 If it is true that you do not owe any account.
The Monotheist Group	56:86 If it is true that you do not owe any account.
Muhammad Asad	56:86 why, then, if [you think that] you are not truly dependent [on Us],
Rashad Khalifa	56:86 If it is true that you do not owe any accounting -
Shabbir Ahmed	56:86 Why not then, if you are not fully dependent (on Us),
Transliteration	56:86 Falawlā in kuntum ghayra madeeneenā
A	56:86 فلولا ان كنتم غير مدينين
Edip-Layth	56:87 Then return it, if you are truthful?

The Monotheist Group	56:87 Then return it, if you are truthful?
Muhammad Asad	56:87 can you not cause that [ebbing life] to return - if what you claim is true?
Rashad Khalifa	56:87 why do you not restore (your soul), if you are truthful?
Shabbir Ahmed	56:87 Make the departing life return, if you are truthful? 27
Transliteration	56:87 TarjiAAoonah a in kuntum s adiqeena
A	56:87 ترجعونها ان كنتم صدقين
Edip-Layth	56:88 So, if he is one of those who are made near.
The Monotheist Group	56:88 So, if he is one of those who are made near.
Muhammad Asad	56:88 [ALL OF YOU are destined to die.] Now if one happens to be of those who are drawn close unto God, 30
Rashad Khalifa	56:88 If he is one of those close to Me -
Shabbir Ahmed	56:88 If he is of those drawn near (for having lived a life upright),
Transliteration	56:88 Faamma a in k a na minaalmuqarrabeena
A	56:88 فلما ان كان من المقربين
Edip-Layth	56:89 Then joy, and rose buds, and paradises of bliss.
The Monotheist Group	56:89 Then joy, and rose buds, and paradises of bliss.
Muhammad Asad	56:89 happiness [awaits him in the life to come], and inner fulfillment, and a garden of bliss.
Rashad Khalifa	56:89 then joy, flowers, and gardens of bliss.
Shabbir Ahmed	56:89 (For him are) jubilation, inner fulfillment, and a Garden of bliss!
Transliteration	56:89 Faraw h un waray h anun wajannatunaAAeemin
A	56:89 فروح وريحان وجنت نعيم
Edip-Layth	56:90 If he is one of the people of the right.
The Monotheist Group	56:90 And if he is one of the people of the right.
Muhammad Asad	56:90 And if one happens to be of those who have attained to righteousness, 31
Rashad Khalifa	56:90 And if he is one of the right -
Shabbir Ahmed	56:90 And thus he is of the blessed ones,
Transliteration	56:90 Waamma a in k a na min as- h abialyameeni
A	56:90 واما ان كان من اصحاب اليمين
Edip-Layth	56:91 Then: "Peace" from the people of the right.
The Monotheist Group	56:91 Then: "Peace" from the people of the right.
Muhammad Asad	56:91 [he, too, will be welcomed into paradise with the words,] Peace be unto thee [that art] of those who have attained to righteousness!"

Rashad Khalifa	56:91 peace is the lot of those on the right.
Shabbir Ahmed	56:91 So, "Salutation of Peace be upon you!" - from the blessed ones. 28
Transliteration	56:91 Fasala m un laka min a s - h abialyameeni
A	56:91 فسلم لك من اصحب اليمين
Edip-Layth	56:92 But if he is one of the deniers, the strayers.
The Monotheist Group	56:92 But if he is one of the deniers, the strayers.
Muhammad Asad	56:92 But if one happens to be of those who are wont to call the truth a lie, and [thus] go astray,
Rashad Khalifa	56:92 But if he is one of the disbelievers, the strayers -
Shabbir Ahmed	56:92 But if he is of the rejecters, the straying,
Transliteration	56:92 Waamma in kana mina almukath th ibeenaa l ddalleena
A	56:92 واما ان كان من المكذبين الضالين
Edip-Layth	56:93 Then an abode of boiling water.
The Monotheist Group	56:93 Then an abode of boiling water.
Muhammad Asad	56:93 a welcome of burning despair [awaits him in the life to come,]
Rashad Khalifa	56:93 then an abode of inferno -
Shabbir Ahmed	56:93 Then the welcome will be a smoldering anguish.
Transliteration	56:93 Fanuzulun min h ameemin
A	56:93 فنزل من حميم
Edip-Layth	56:94 A burning in hell.
The Monotheist Group	56:94 And a burning in Hell.
Muhammad Asad	56:94 and the heat of a blazing fire!
Rashad Khalifa	56:94 and burning in Hell.
Shabbir Ahmed	56:94 And scorching heat before the Insurmountable Barrier.
Transliteration	56:94 Watas l iyatu ja h eemin
A	56:94 وتصلية جحيم
Edip-Layth	56:95 This is the absolute truth.
The Monotheist Group	56:95 This is the absolute truth.
Muhammad Asad	56:95 Verily, this is indeed the truth of truths! 32
Rashad Khalifa	56:95 This is the absolute truth.
Shabbir Ahmed	56:95 This a truth of certainty.
Transliteration	56:95 Inna ha t ha lahuwa h aqqualyaqeeni

A	56:95 ان هذا لهو حق اليقين
Edip-Layth	56:96 You shall glorify the name of your Lord, the Great. ⁶
The Monotheist Group	56:96 You shall glorify the name of your Lord, the Great.
Muhammad Asad	56:96 Extol, then, the limitless glory of thy Sustainer's mighty name!
Rashad Khalifa	56:96 You shall glorify the name of your Lord, the Great.
Shabbir Ahmed	56:96 Strive, then, to glorify the Name of your Lord Supreme. ²⁹
Transliteration	56:96 Fasabbiḥ biismi rabbika alAAaṭḥeemi
A	56:96 فسبح باسم ربك العظيم

<< Prev 56:1-96 Next >>

Return to top

End Notes

Muhammad Asad - The Message Of Quran

Muhammad Asad - End Note 1 (56:1)

I.e., the Last Hour and Resurrection.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 2 (56:8)

Lit., "those [or "the people"] of the right side": see note 25 on 74:39.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 3 (56:9)

Lit., "those [or "the people"] of the left side". Similarly to the use of the expression maymanah as a metonym for "attaining to what is right", the term mashamah is used to denote "losing oneself in evil" (e.g., in 90:19). The origin of both these metonyms is based on the belief of the pre-Islamic Arabs that future events could be predicted by observing the direction of the flight of birds at certain times: if they flew to the right, the event in question promised to be auspicious; if to the left, the contrary. This ancient belief was gradually absorbed by linguistic usage, so that "right" and "left" became more or less synonymous with "auspicious" and "inauspicious". In the idiom of the Qur'an, these two concepts have been deepened into "righteousness" and "unrighteousness", respectively.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 4 (56:14)

The above stress on the "many" and the "few" contains an allusion to the progressive diminution, in the historical sense, of the element of excellence in men's faith and ethical achievements. (See also note 16 on verses 39-40.)

Muhammad Asad - End Note 5 (56:16)

See note 34 on 15:47 , which explains the symbolism of the above two verses.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 6 (56:18)

This is evidently a symbolic allusion to the imperishable quality - the eternal youthfulness, as it were - of all the experiences in the state described as "paradise". (See also next two notes.)

Muhammad Asad - End Note 7 (56:21)

Regarding this and any other Quranic description of the joys of paradise, see 32:17 and, in particular, the corresponding note 15. The famous hadith quoted in that note must be kept in mind when reading any Quranic reference to the state or quality of human life in the hereafter.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 8 (56:22)

The noun hur - rendered by me as "companions pure" - is a plural of both ahwar (masc.) and hawra (fem.), either of which describes "a person distinguished by hawar", which latter term primarily denotes "intense whiteness of the eyeballs and lustrous black of the iris" (Qamus). In a more general sense, hawar signifies simply "whiteness" (Asas) or, as a moral qualification, "purity" (cf. Tabari, Razi and Ibn Kathir in their explanations of the term hawariyyun in 3:52). Hence, the compound expression hur'in signifies, approximately, "pure beings [or, more specifically, "companions pure"], most beautiful of eye" (which latter is the meaning of in, the plural of a'yan). In his comments on the identical expression in 52:20, Razi observes that inasmuch as a person's eye reflects his soul more clearly than any other part of the human body, it may be understood as "rich of soul" or "soulful". As regards the term hur in its more current, feminine connotation, quite a number of the earliest Qur'an-commentators - among them Al-Hasan al-Basri - understood it as signifying no more and no less than "the righteous among the women of the human kind" (Tabari) - "[even] those toothless old women of yours whom God will resurrect as new beings" (Al-Hasan, as quoted by Razi in his comments on 44:54). See in this connection also note 46 on 38:52.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 9 (56:26)

Lit., "only the saying, 'Peace, peace' (salam)!" Regarding this latter term, see note 48 on 19:62, and note 29 on 5:16 .

Muhammad Asad - End Note 10 (56:27)

Lit., "those on the right hand". According to some commentators, it is those who had not always been "foremost in faith and good works", but have gradually, after erring and sinning, attained to righteousness (Razi). However, though they may not have been as perfect in life as the "foremost", their ultimate achievement brings them to the same state of spiritual fulfillment as those others.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 11 (56:28)

See note 10 on 53:14.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 12 (56:30)

See note 74 on 4:57 .

Muhammad Asad - End Note 13 (56:34)

Or: "[they will rest on] couches raised high". The rendering adopted by me is regarded as fully justified by some of the most outstanding commentators (e.g., Baghawi, Zamakhshari , Razi, Baydawi, etc.), and this for two reasons: firstly, because in the classical Arabic idiom, the term firash (lit., "bed" or

"couch") is often used tropically to denote "wife" or "husband" (Raghib; also Qamus, Taj al-'Arus, etc.); and, secondly, because of the statement in the next verse that God "shall have brought them (hunna) into being in a life renewed". (In the context of this interpretation, Zamakhshari quotes also 36:56, which thus refers to the inmates of paradise: "in happiness will they and their spouses on couches recline". There is no doubt that the "spouses raised high" - i.e., to the status of the blest - are identical with the hur mentioned in verse 22 above as well as in 44:54, 52:20 and 55:72.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 14 (56:36)

Lit., "and We shall have made them virgins". According to a number of authentic Traditions (quoted in full by Tabari and Ibn Kathir), the Prophet stated on several occasions that all righteous women, however old and decayed they may have been on earth, will be resurrected as virginal maidens and will, like their male counterparts, remain eternally young in paradise.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 15 (56:38)

I.e., equal in dignity with all other inmates of paradise. As regards the term atrab (sing. tirb), rendered above - as well as in 38:52 and 78:33 - as "well-matched", there is no doubt that it primarily denotes "[persons] of equal age" (a meaning adopted by most of the commentators); however, as pointed out by all philological authorities, this term is also used in the sense of "[persons] equal in quality", that is, "well-matched": a significance which, to my mind, is eminently appropriate here inasmuch as it is meant to stress the equal excellence of all who have attained to righteousness, whether they be men or women; or, alternatively, the equal attraction towards one another and, thus, a mutual fulfillment of their spiritual and emotional needs; or both of the above meanings.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 16 (56:40)

In contrast with "the foremost", who have always been "drawn close unto God" - and of whom there are less and less as time goes on (see note 4 above) - there will always be many of those who attain to righteousness after initial stumbling and sinning (see note 10.).

Muhammad Asad - End Note 17 (56:41)

I.e., until their death. Literally, the phrase reads, "those on the left hand" (see note 3 on verse 9 above).

Muhammad Asad - End Note 18 (56:42)

For this rendering of hamim, see surah 6 note 62.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 19 (56:45)

I.e., to the exclusion of all moral considerations. For the meaning of the term mutraf, see surah 11 note 147.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 20 (56:52)

See note 22 on 37:62.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 21 (56:58)

This refers to both the male semen and the female ovum, and thus, by implication, to the awe-inspiring, complex phenomenon of procreation as such.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 22 (56:61)

Lit., "changing your likenesses (amthal)". However, the term mathal signifies also, tropic ally, the state, condition and the qualities (sifat) of a thing or person - in brief, "the nature of his [or its] existence".

Muhammad Asad - End Note 23 (56:72)

Lit., "its tree": a metonym pointing to the plant-origin, direct or indirect, of almost all the known fuels, including mineral fuels like coal, which is but petrified wood, or petroleum, which is a liquefied residue of plant-nourished organisms buried in the earth for millions of years.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 24 (56:73)

Inasmuch as "fire" (in the widest sense of this word) is the source of all light known to man, it is apt to remind him that "God is the light of the heavens and the earth" (see 24:35 and the corresponding notes).

Muhammad Asad - End Note 25 (56:73)

The participial noun muqw is derived from the verb qawiya, "it became deserted" or "desolate". From the same root is derived the noun qawa (or qiwa), which signifies "desert", "wilderness" or "wasteland" as well as "hunger" or "starvation". Hence, muqw denotes "one who is hungry" as well as "one who is lost [or "who wanders"] in a deserted place". In the above verse this expression is evidently used tropically, for it is difficult to imagine that, as some commentators assume, it relates merely to "wayfarers in the desert". My composite rendering of al-muqwin as "all who are lost and hungry in the wilderness", on the other hand, is literal and tropical at the same time, inasmuch as it describes people who are lonely, unfortunate and confused, and who hunger after human warmth and spiritual light.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 26 (56:75)

Or: "the setting [or "orbiting"] of the stars". The term mawqi (of which mawaqi' is the plural) denotes the "time [or "place" or "manner"] at which something comes down". Although many of the commentators think that the phrase mawaqi an-nujum relates to the break-up of the stars at the Last Hour, Ibn Abbas, Ikrimah and As-Suddi were definitely of the opinion, strongly supported by the subsequent verses, that this phrase refers to the step-by-step revelation - or "coming-down in parts (nujum)" - of the Qur'an (cf. Tabari and Ibn Kathir; see also note 1 on 53:1). By "calling to witness" the gradual manner of its revelation, the Qur'an points implicitly to the astounding fact that it has remained free of all inconsistencies and inner contradictions (cf. 4:82 and the corresponding note 97) despite all the dramatic changes in the Prophet's life during the twenty-three years of the "unfolding" of the divine writ: and this explains, too, the subsequent parenthetical clause (verse 76).

Muhammad Asad - End Note 27 (56:79)

I.e., which only the pure of heart can truly understand and derive benefit from. As for the preceding reference to "a well-guarded [i.e., incorruptible] divine writ" (kitab maknun), see 85:21-22 and the corresponding note 11.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 28 (56:81)

I.e., the message of resurrection and judgment.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 29 (56:83)

The elliptic implication is: "If, then, as you claim, you are really independent of any Supreme Power, why do you not, etc., thus connecting with verses 57-74.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 30 (56:88)

I.e., the "foremost" spoken of in verses 10-11 of this surah.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 31 (56:90)

See note 10 on verse 27 above.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 32 (56:95)

Lit., "a truth of certainty", i.e., a truth most certain. The pronoun "this" in the above sentence relates not merely to the announcement of resurrection and life after death, but also - and primarily - to the stress on man's utter dependence on God.

Shabbir Ahmed -

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 1 (56:6)

20:105, 28:20, 77:10, 81:3

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 2 (56:8)

Yumn = Blessing = Bliss = Grace = On the right side = Consequence of right actions. 19:52, 28:30, 56:27

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 3 (56:9)

Mash'amah and Ash-Shimaal = Unblessed = On the left side = Consequence of wrong actions 18:17, 56:41, 69:25

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 4 (56:10)

55:63, 57:10

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 5 (56:14)

verses 13 and 14 are usually rendered, under the influence of fabricated tradition, to mean that most of the dwellers of Paradise will come from generations of the old (before the advent of the exalted prophet Muhammad) and a few from the later generations. That is evidently contrary to the Qur'an and to Divine Justice. And it certainly belittles the Perfected Final revelation of God

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 6 (56:17)

13:23, 52:21-24, 76:19

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 7 (56:19)

37:47

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 8 (56:22)

Hoorun 'Een = Lovely, modest companions of vision, male and female. This term carries special significance for the abuse it has been made to go through. Almost invariably translated as 'gorgeous women with big black eyes', that translation is neither linguistically correct nor does it fit into the Big Picture. Een and derivatives literally refer to eyes and as an allegory for vision and insight 23:27,

25:74, 33:51, 40:19, 52:48, 54:14

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 9 (56:24)

The Qur'an is replete with the instruction that Paradise cannot be achieved through rites and rituals, any dogmas, prayers and lip-service, rather only by actions that benefit others and help improve the society

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 10 (56:25)

Ithm = Word or action that restrains, drags down or hurts human potential

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 11 (56:26)

And on earthly Paradise individuals contribute toward peace and security of the society

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 12 (56:36)

Abkara = Of matchless virtue = Untouched by vice = Pure. The word Abkara has been restricted to virginity except by Allama G. A. Parwez. Qamoos and Raghīb among the ancient experts of the Quraish dialect give it the correct meaning rendered here, as they cite several examples from ancient Arabic poetry. Interestingly, this is very similar to the wrong translation of 'a maiden' to 'a virgin' from Greek to English relating to Mary

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 13 (56:37)

'Urub from 'Arabi = Eloquent. Turaab = Dust = Harmonious = Of the same mettle = Well-blended.
43:18, 78:33

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 14 (56:40)

56:13-14

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 15 (56:41)

56:9

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 16 (56:50)

Ma'loom = Well known = Known to God alone. The word Ma'loom signifies the absolute truth about the Day of Resurrection

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 17 (56:52)

37:62, 44:43, 56:52

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 18 (56:55)

Greed could never give inner contentment. 26:225, 102:1-2

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 19 (56:70)

By setting up an equitable system of provision for all

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 20 (56:72)

41:10. 'Its tree' points to the plant origin of almost all the known fuels: mineral, petrified, the liquefied residue left by plant-nourished organisms

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 21 (56:73)

The use of fire is one of the Divine gifts that distinguishes mankind from the Animal Kingdom

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 22 (56:75)

Mawaqi' = Locations of the celestial bodies in their orbits

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 23 (56:78)

As conveyed to you

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 24 (56:79)

Those who approach the Qur'an with minds contaminated with preconceived notions and extrinsic material, will never understand it. Mutahharoon = Those who rid their minds of blind following and false dogmas. (2:222). It is a common insult to say that men cannot touch it without wudhu (ablution) and women cannot touch it during menstruation. Why would God place hurdles in the way of approaching His guidance?

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 25 (56:81)

And uphold manmade hadith

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 26 (56:82)

Making money by peddling conjecture, such as frightening people with the spurious dogmas of 'evil eye' or 'demon-possession' and claiming to cure them by blowing into knots or water to drink!

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 27 (56:87)

God alone is the Giver of life and death, and man owes all his abilities to Him

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 28 (56:91)

56:38

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 29 (56:96)

Follow His commands to manifest His glory on earth as it is in the heavens

Edip-Layth - Quran: A Reformist Translation

Edip-Layth - End Note 1 (56:13)

Early supporters of the message are rewarded with higher ranks since they take more risks by accepting the truth when it has greater opposition.

Edip-Layth - End Note (56:21)

Edip-Layth - End Note 3 (56:75)

Our universe consists of billions of galaxies, each containing billions of stars. Each of these heavenly bodies that we are even unable to count, move in orbits determined by the same explosion and by the same universal laws of gravity. The more our knowledge of astronomy and cosmology increases, the more we appreciate the meaning of this oath. Can the expression "the place of stars" refer to black holes? For the function of oaths in the Quran see 89:5.

Edip-Layth - End Note 4 (56:77)

You will find on the cover of almost all published Quranic manuscripts a few verses. If you check, you will probably find 56:77-79 written in Arabic calligraphy. Why among hundreds of verses describing the Quran, has the convention decided on these verses? Out of more than 50 descriptive noun- adjectives used for the Quran, why would they pick "Karym" (Honorable)? Al-Quran il-Karym? Why not more frequently used words such as Zikr (Message), Hakym (Wise), Mubyn (Clear), Nur (Light), instead of Karym? Why is this verse highlighted in connection to the Quran? Why not, for instance, the verses repeatedly reminding us of the easy-to- understand language of the Quran (54:17,22,32,40)? Or, why not one of these verses: 12:111; 15:1; 17:9; 17:88; 17:89; 30:58; 41:3; 55:2 . . .? We have all the reason to be suspicious of the intention of those who dedicated Chapter 36 (Ya Sin) to be recited in funerals for the DEAD, the chapter that contains the only verse declaring that the Quran is sent to remind the LIVING beings (36:70)! We have all the reason to be suspicious of the intention of those who picked the name hadith, a negative word when used for hearsay narrations and teachings other than the Quran, to depict another source besides the Quran! So, why did they pick the word "Karym" as the most common adjective for the Quran and verses 56:77-79 as the most common subtitle for the covers of manuscripts? Those who appreciate the Quran know the answer to the question very well: The polytheistic clergymen and scholars who betrayed the Quran, reached a consensus in not understanding or misunderstanding 56:77-79, and they thought they could repel others from the Quran according to their misunderstanding. They distorted the meaning of these verses by claiming that those who do not have ablution, including the women who they considered "dirty" because of menstruation, should not touch the Quran. Now we may infer why the verse whose meaning has been distorted by consensus is picked for the cover of the Quran manuscripts. Now we may infer why the adjective mentioned in that verse was made the most popular adjective of the Quran. We believe that this is a part of a diabolic conspiracy to prevent the Quran from becoming a pocket book, a book of quick reference; they keep the Quran on high shelves or nail it on high walls far away from people's reach. Unfortunately, this plan has worked successfully. The Quran has been transformed from being a guide, a reference book, a map, a compass, into a dangerous object, like a train, like a high-voltage transformer station! When the Quran becomes a book too- difficult-to-understand, making it impossible to reach its "high" meanings, and dangerous to touch, then rush in volumes of hadiths, loads of sunna, barrels of hearsay, mishmash heaps of sectarian teachings, piles of nonsense, tons of superstitions, hordes of holy men, and troops of holy merchants. This explains the misery, backwardness, oppression, repression, division, and corruption rampant in the so-called "Muslim countries." The unappreciative people who deem the Quran insufficient, because of their prejudice, are not permitted to understand the Quran (6:110; 17:45; 18:57). It is interesting that those who do not accept the Quran as the sole authority do not understand the very verses about understanding the Quran. Thus, 7:3; 17:46; 41:44; 56:79 are delicious art work that function both as the "thesis and the evidence."

Edip-Layth - End Note 5 (56:81)

For the meaning and prophetic implication of the word hadith, see 7:185; 12:111; 31:6; 33:38; 35:43; 45:6; 52:34; 77:50.

Edip-Layth - End Note 6 (56:96)

Or "Exalt your Lord with His great name/attribute."

Best viewed using your own brain

Tested on 1024x768 resolution with  FIREFOX 2

Kitabun Marqum v0.6.7 - Kitabun Marqum - Quran Research Platform by QuraniX Team Copyright © 2002-2011 All rights reserved.
Copyrights of all translations belong to their respective authors.

49:6 O you who believe, if a wicked person brings any news to you, you shall first investigate, lest you commit injustice towards some people, out of ignorance, then become sorry and remorseful for what you have done.

Rashad Khalifa (The Final Testament)

 Translations ▼

 Chapter/Verse ▼

 Refresh

 Search

<< Prev 57:1-29 Next >>

Edip-Layth	In the name of God, the Gracious, the Compassionate. 57:1 Glorifying God is everything in the heavens and the earth. He is the Noble, the Wise.
The Monotheist Group	In the name of God, the Almighty, the Merciful. 57:1 Glorifying God is everything in the heavens and the Earth. He is the Noble, the Wise.
Muhammad Asad	In the name of God, The Most Gracious, The Dispenser of Grace: 57:1 ALL THAT IS in the heavens and on earth extols God's limitless glory: for He alone is almighty, truly wise!
Rashad Khalifa	In the name of GOD, Most Gracious, Most Merciful. 57:1 Glorifying GOD is everything in the heavens and the earth. He is the Almighty, Most Wise.
Shabbir Ahmed	BISMILLAH-IR-RAHMAN-IR-RAHEEM With the Glorious Name of God, the Ultimate Source of Instant Beneficence and Eternal mercy Who encompasses the entire Universe, nourishing and taking care of all things for what they are meant to be; just as a mother's womb nourishes the embryo to completion without any returns. 57:1 All things in the heavens and earth are working relentlessly to fulfill the Divine Plan. He is the Almighty, the Wise.
Transliteration	Bismi Allāhi alRrahmāni alRrahēemi 57:1 Sabbaḥa lill āhi m ā fee a Issamawatiwaal-ardi wahuwa alAAazeezu alḥakeemu
A	بسم الله الرحمن الرحيم 57:1 سبّح لله ما في السموات والارض وهو العزيز الحكيم

Edip-Layth	57:2 To Him is the kingship of the heavens and the earth. He brings life and death. He is capable of all things.
The Monotheist Group	57:2 To Him is the kingship of the heavens and the Earth. He brings life and death. And He is capable of all things.
Muhammad Asad	57:2 His is the dominion over the heavens and the earth; He grants life and deals death; and He has the power to will anything.
Rashad Khalifa	57:2 To Him belongs the kingship of the heavens and the earth. He controls life and death. He is Omnipotent.
Shabbir Ahmed	57:2 Unto Him belongs the Dominion of the heavens and earth. His are the laws of life and death and He has Power over all things.
Transliteration	57:2 Lahu mulku a Issamawatiwaal-ardi yu hyee wayumeetu wahuwa AAal akulli shay-in qadeerun
A	57:2 له ملك السموت والارض يحي ويميت وهو على كل شيء قدير
Edip-Layth	57:3 He is the First and the Last, the Evident and the Innermost. He is fully aware of all things.
The Monotheist Group	57:3 He is the First and the Last, the Evident and the Innermost. And He is fully aware of all things.
Muhammad Asad	57:3 He is the First and the Last, ¹ and the Outward as well as the Inward: ² and He has full knowledge of everything.
Rashad Khalifa	57:3 He is the Alpha and the Omega. He is the Outermost and the Innermost. He is fully aware of all things.
Shabbir Ahmed	57:3 He has no beginning and He has no ending. He is the Evident and the Hidden. And He is the Knower of all things. ¹
Transliteration	57:3 Huwa al-awwalu waal-akhiru waalththahiruwaalbatinu wahuwa bikulli shay-in AAaleemun
A	57:3 هو الاول والآخر والظاهر والباطن وهو بكل شيء عليم
Edip-Layth	57:4 He is the One who created the heavens and the earth in six days, and then He settled over the dominion. He knows everything that enters into the land, everything that comes out of it, everything that comes down from the sky, and everything that climbs into it. He is with you wherever you may be. God is Seer of everything you do. ¹
The Monotheist Group	57:4 He is the One who created the heavens and the Earth in six days, then He settled over the dominion. He knows everything that enters into the land, and everything that comes out of it, and everything that comes down from the sky, and everything that climbs into it. And He is with you wherever you may be. God is Seer of everything you do.
Muhammad Asad	57:4 He it is who has created the heavens and the earth in six aeons, and is established on the throne of His almightiness. ³ He knows all that enters the earth, and all that comes out of it, as well as all that descends from the skies, and all that ascends to them. ⁴ And He is with you wherever you may be; and God sees all that you do.
Rashad Khalifa	57:4 He is the One who created the heavens and the earth in six days, then assumed all authority. He knows everything that enters into the earth, and everything that comes out of it, and everything that comes down from the sky, and everything that climbs into it. He is with you wherever you may be. GOD is Seer of everything you do.

Shabbir Ahmed	57:4 He is the One Who has created the heavens and earth in six stages, and is established on the Throne of His Almightyness of Supreme Control. He knows all that enters the earth and all that comes out of it, and all that descends from the sky, and all that ascends therein. And He is with you wherever you may be. God is Seer of what you do. ²
Transliteration	57:4 Huwa alla ^{thee} khalaqa a lssamawatiwaal-arda fee sittati ayy amin thumma istawaAAala alAAarshi yaAAlamu m a yaliju fee al-ar diwama yakhruju minh a wama yanzilu mina a lssama-iwama yaAAaruju feeh a wahuwa maAAakum ayna makuntum waAllahu bima taAAmaloona baseerun
A	57:4 هو الذى خلق السموت والارض فى ستة ايام ثم استوى على العرش يعلم ما يلج فى الارض وما يخرج منها وما ينزل من السماء وما يعرج فيها وهو معكم اين ما كنتم والله بما تعملون بصير
Edip-Layth	57:5 To Him is the kingship of the heavens and the earth, and to God all matters are returned.
The Monotheist Group	57:5 To Him is the kingship of the heavens and the Earth, and to God all matters are returned.
Muhammad Asad	57:5 His is the dominion over the heavens and the earth; and all things go back unto God [as their source].
Rashad Khalifa	57:5 To Him belongs the kingship of the heavens and the earth. All matters are controlled by GOD.
Shabbir Ahmed	57:5 Unto Him belongs the Kingdom of the heavens and earth and to God return all affairs. ³
Transliteration	57:5 Lahu mulku alssamawatiwaal-ardi wa-ilah Allahi turjaAAual-omooru
A	57:5 له ملك السموت والارض والى الله ترجع الامور
Edip-Layth	57:6 He merges the night into the day, and merges the day into the night. He is fully aware of what is inside the chests.
The Monotheist Group	57:6 He merges the night into the day, and merges the day into the night. He is fully aware of what is inside the chests.
Muhammad Asad	57:6 He makes the night grow longer by shortening the day, and makes the day grow longer by shortening the night; and He has full knowledge of what is in the hearts [of men].
Rashad Khalifa	57:6 He merges the night into the day, and merges the day into the night. He is fully aware of the innermost thoughts.
Shabbir Ahmed	57:6 He merges the night into the day, and merges the day into the night. He is Knower of all that is in the hearts.
Transliteration	57:6 Yooliju allayla fee a Innahariwayooliju a Innahara fee allayi wahuwa AAaleemun bithatialsudoori
A	57:6 يولج الليل فى النهار ويولج النهار فى الليل وهو عليم بذات الصدور
	57:7 Acknowledge God and His messenger, and spend from what He has made

Edip-Layth	you successors to. Those among you who acknowledge and spend have deserved a great recompense.
The Monotheist Group	57:7 Believe in God and His messenger, and spend from what He has made you successors to. Those among you who believe and spend have deserved a great recompense.
Muhammad Asad	57:7 BELIEVE in God and His Apostle, and spend on others out of that of which He has made you trustees: ⁵ for, those of you who have attained to faith and who spend freely [in God's cause] shall have a great reward.
Rashad Khalifa	57:7 Believe in GOD and His messenger, and give from what He has bestowed upon you. Those among you who believe and give (to charity) have deserved a great recompense.
Shabbir Ahmed	57:7 Believe in God and His messenger. And spend on others of what He has made you trustees of (your wealth and persons). Those of you who believe and spend on fellow humans, theirs will be a Great reward. ⁴
Transliteration	57:7 Aminoo bi Allāhiwarasoolihi waanfiqoo mimm a jaAAalakum mustakhlafeenafeehi fa allatheena amanoo minkum waanfaqoolahum ajrun kabeerun
A	57:7 ءامنوا بالله ورسوله وانفقوا مما جعلكم مستخلفين فيه فالذين ءامنوا منكم وانفقوا لهم اجر كبير
Edip-Layth	57:8 Why should you not acknowledge God when the messenger is inviting you to acknowledge your Lord? He has already taken a pledge from you, if you are those who acknowledge.
The Monotheist Group	57:8 Why should you not believe in God when the messenger is inviting you to believe in your Lord? And He has already taken a pledge from you, if you are believers.
Muhammad Asad	57:8 And why should you not believe in God, seeing that the Apostle calls you to believe in [Him who is] your Sustainer, and [seeing that] He has taken a pledge from you? ⁶ [Why should you not believe in Him] if you are able to believe [in anything]? ⁷
Rashad Khalifa	57:8 Why should you not believe in GOD when the messenger is inviting you to believe in your Lord? He has taken a pledge from you, if you are believers.
Shabbir Ahmed	57:8 And what is amiss with you that keeps you from having conviction in God? And the messenger invites you to believe in your Sustainer and he has taken your pledge, if you are believers.
Transliteration	57:8 Wama lakum I a tu/minoona bi Allāhiwaalrrasoolu yadAAookum litu/minoo birabbikum waqad akhathameethaqakum in kuntum mu/mineena
A	57:8 وما لكم لا تؤمنون بالله والرسول يدعوكم لتؤمنوا بربكم وقد اخذ ميثقكم ان كنتم مومنين
Edip-Layth	57:9 He is the One who sends down to His servant clear signs, to bring you out of the darkness into the light. God is Kind towards you, Compassionate.
The Monotheist Group	57:9 He is the One who sends down to His servant clear revelations, to bring you out of the darkness into the light. God is Compassionate towards you, Merciful.
Muhammad Asad	57:9 It is He who bestows from on high clear messages unto [this] His servant, to lead you out of the deep darkness into the light: for, behold, God is most compassionate towards you, a dispenser of grace.

Rashad Khalifa	57:9 He is the One who sends down to His servant clear revelations, in order to lead you out of the darkness into the light. GOD is Compassionate towards you, Most Merciful.
Shabbir Ahmed	57:9 He is the One Who sends down clear messages to His servant, to bring you out from the depths of darkness to the splendorous light. For you, God is Compassionate, Merciful.
Transliteration	57:9 Huwa allathee yunazzilu AAalaAAabdihi ayatin bayyinatin liyukhrijakummina al thth ulumati ila alnnooriwa-inna Allaha bikum laraoofun raheemun
A	57:9 هو الذى ينزل على عبده آيات بينت ليخرجكم من الظلمت الى النور وان الله بكم لرءوف رحيم
Edip-Layth	57:10 Why do you not spend in the cause of God, when God possesses all wealth in the heavens and the earth? Not equal among you are those who spent before the victory and fought. They attained a greater rank than those who spent after the victory and fought. For each, God promises goodness. God is Ever-aware in everything you do.
The Monotheist Group	57:10 And why do you not spend in the cause of God, when God possesses all wealth in the heavens and the Earth? Not equal among you are those who spent before the victory and fought. They attained a greater rank than those who spent after the victory and fought. And for each, God promises goodness. And God is Expert in everything you do.
Muhammad Asad	57:10 And why should you not spend freely in the cause of God, seeing that God's [alone] is the heritage of the heavens and the earth? ⁸ Not equal are those of you who spent and fought [in God's cause] before the Victory ⁹ [and those who did not do so]: they are of a higher rank than those who would spend and fight [only] after it - although God has promised the ultimate good to all [who strive in His cause]. ¹⁰ and god is aware of that you do.
Rashad Khalifa	57:10 Why do you not spend in the cause of GOD, when GOD possesses all wealth in the heavens and the earth?
Shabbir Ahmed	57:10 And why should you not spend in the cause of God when to God belongs the heritage of the heavens and earth? Those who spend and fight before the victory are not at the same level as the rest of you. They have a greater rank than those who spend and fight after the victory. Unto each God has promised good. He is Aware of what you do. ⁵
Transliteration	57:10 Wama lakum all a tunfiqoo feesabeeli All ahi walill ahi meer athu alssamawatiwaal-ardi la yastawee minkum man anfaqa minqabli alfat hi waqatala ola-ika aAA th amudarajatan mina alla the ena anfaqoo min baAAadu waqataloowakullan waAAada All ahu al husna wa Allahubima taAAamaloona khabeerun
A	57:10 وما لكم الا تنفقوا فى سبيل الله والله ميرث السموت والارض لا يستوى منكم من انفق من قبل الفتح وقتل اولئك اعظم درجة من الذين انفقوا من بعد وقتلوا وكلا وعد الله الحسنى والله بما تعملون خبير
Edip-Layth	57:11 Who will lend God a loan of goodness, to have it multiplied for him manifold, and he will have a generous recompense?
The Monotheist Group	57:11 Who will lend God a loan of goodness, to have it multiplied for him manifold, and he will have a generous recompense?

Muhammad Asad	57:11 WHO IS IT that will offer up unto God a goodly loan, which He will amply repay ¹¹ For, such [as do so] shall have a noble reward
Rashad Khalifa	Special Honor 57:11 Who would like to loan GOD a loan of righteousness, to have it multiplied for him manifold, and end up with a generous recompense?
Shabbir Ahmed	57:11 Who is it that will lend to God a goodly loan that He may increase it manifold, and his may be a generous reward?
Transliteration	57:11 Man tha allathee yuqriduAllaha qardan hasanan fayudaAAaifahulahu walahu ajrun kareemun
A	57:11 من ذا الذى يقرض الله قرضا حسنا فيضعفه له وله اجر كريم
Edip-Layth	Light and Truth 57:12 The day will come when you see the acknowledging men and the acknowledging women with their light radiating around them and to their right. "Good news is yours today, you will have paradises with flowing rivers, abiding therein. This is the great triumph!"
The Monotheist Group	57:12 The Day will come when you see the believing men and the believing women with their light radiating around them and to their right. "Good news is yours today, you will have paradises with flowing rivers, abiding therein. This is the great triumph!"
Muhammad Asad	57:12 on the Day when thou shalt see all believing men and believing women, with their light spreading rapidly before them and on their right, ¹² [and with this welcome awaiting them:] A glad tiding for you today: gardens through which running waters flow, therein to abide! This, this is the triumph supreme!"
Rashad Khalifa	The Great Triumph 57:12 The day will come when you see the believing men and women with their lights radiating ahead of them and to their right. Good news is yours that, on that day, you will have gardens with flowing streams. You will abide therein forever. This is the great triumph.
Shabbir Ahmed	57:12 On the Day when you will see the believing men and the believing women, their lights shining forth before them, blessing them, (it will be said), "A happy news for you this Day - Gardens beneath which rivers flow, (for you) to abide therein. This, this is the Supreme Triumph!" ⁶
Transliteration	57:12 Yawma tar a almu/mineena wa almu/minat iyasAAa nooruhum bayna aydeehim wabi-aymanihim bushrakumualyawma jannatun tajree min ta htiha al-anharukhalideena feeha thalika huwa alfawzu alAAa theemu
A	57:12 يوم ترى المؤمنين والمومنات يسعى نورهم بين ايديهم وبأيمانهم بشركم اليوم جنت تجري من تحتها الانهر خالدين فيها ذلك هو الفوز العظيم
Edip-Layth	57:13 On that day, the hypocrite men and the hypocrite women will say to those who acknowledged: "Wait for us! Let us absorb some of your light." It will be said, "Go back behind you, and seek light." So a barrier will be set up between them, whose gate separates compassion on the inner side, from retribution on the outer side.
The Monotheist Group	57:13 On that Day, the hypocrite men and the hypocrite women will say to those who believed: "Wait for us! Let us absorb some of your light." It will be said: "Go back behind you, and seek light." So a barrier will be put forth between them, whose gate separates mercy on the inner side, from retribution on the outer side.

Muhammad Asad	57:13 On that Day shall the hypocrites, both men and women, ¹³ speak [thus] unto those who have attained to faith: Wait for us! Let us have a [ray of] light from your light!" [But] they will be told: Turn back, and seek a light [of your own]!"¹⁴ And thereupon a wall will be raised between them [and the believers], with a gate in it: within it will be grace and mercy, and against the outside thereof, suffering.¹⁵
Rashad Khalifa	The Worst Losers 57:13 On that day, the hypocrite men and women will say to those who believed, "Please allow us to absorb some of your light." It will be said, "Go back behind you, and seek light." A barrier will be set up between them, whose gate separates mercy on the inner side, from retribution on the outer side.
Shabbir Ahmed	57:13 On that Day the hypocrite men and the hypocrite women will say to the believers, "Wait, look at us. Let us borrow from your light!" It will be said, "Go back behind and seek light." Then a barrier will be erected with a gate therein. On the inner side of it will be grace, and on the outer side of it the doom.
Transliteration	57:13 Yawma yaqoolu almun afiquona wa almunafiquat lillatheena amanoo onthuroonanaqtabis min noorikum qeela irjiAAoo war aakum fa iltamisoonooran faduriba baynahum bisoorin lahu b abun b atinuhufeehi a Irrahmatu wathahiruhumin qibalihi alAAathabu
A	57:13 يوم يقول المنافقون والمنفقت للذين ءامنوا انظرونا نقتبس من نوركم قيل ارجعوا وراءكم فالتمسوا نورا فضرب بينهم بسور له باب باطنه فيه الرحمة وظهره من قبله العذاب
Edip-Layth	57:14 They will call upon them: "Were we not with you?" They will reply: "Yes, but you led yourselves into temptation, and you hesitated, and doubted, and became misled by wishful thinking, until God's judgment came. You were diverted from God by arrogance."
The Monotheist Group	57:14 They will call upon them: "Were we not with you?" They will reply: "Yes, but you led yourselves into temptation, and you hesitated, and doubted, and became misled by wishful thinking, until God's judgment came. You were diverted from God by arrogance."
Muhammad Asad	57:14 They [who will remain without] will call out to those [within], Were we not with you?" - [to which] the others will answer: So it was! But you allowed yourselves to succumb to temptation,¹⁶ and you were hesitant [in your faith], ¹⁷ and you were doubtful [of resurrection]; and your wishful thinking beguiled you until God's command came to pass:¹⁸ for, [indeed, your own] deceptive thoughts about God deluded you¹⁹
Rashad Khalifa	57:14 They will call upon them, "Were we not with you?" They will answer, "Yes, but you cheated your souls, hesitated, doubted, and became misled by wishful thinking, until GOD's judgment came. You were diverted from GOD by illusions.
Shabbir Ahmed	57:14 They will cry to them, "Were we not with you?" The others (believers) will answer, "Yes, certainly! But you let your own 'self' succumb to temptation. And you tempted one another, and you were ever hesitant (watching which side was prevailing), and doubted (God's promise). And your wishful thinking misled you until God's command came to pass. Your own deceptions concerning God deceived you. ⁷
Transliteration	57:14 Yunadoonahum alam nakun maAAakum q aloobala walakinnakum fatantum anfusakum watarabba stumwairtabtum wagharratkumu al-am aniyyu hattajaa amru Allahi wagharrakum biAllahialgharooru

A	57:14 ينادونهم ألم نكن معكم قالوا بلى ولكنكم فتنتم أنفسكم وتربصتم وارتبتم وغرتمكم بالإماني حتى جاء أمر الله وغركم بالله الغرور
Edip-Layth	57:15 "This day, no ransom can be taken from you, nor from those who rejected. Your abode is the fire, it is your patron; what a miserable abode."
The Monotheist Group	57:15 "This Day, no ransom can be taken from you, nor from those who disbelieved. Your abode is the Fire, it is your patron; what a miserable abode."
Muhammad Asad	57:15 And so, no ransom ²⁰ shall be accepted today from you, and neither from those who were [openly] bent on denying the truth. Your goal is the fire: it is your [only] refuge -²¹ and how evil a journey's end!"
Rashad Khalifa	57:15 "Therefore, today no ransom can be taken from you, nor from those who disbelieved. Your abode is the fire; it is your lord, and miserable abode."
Shabbir Ahmed	57:15 So this Day no ransom can be accepted from you, nor from the open rejecters. Your home is the fire. That is your caretaker and a miserable destination it is.
Transliteration	57:15 Faalyawma l a yu/kha thuminkum fidyatun wal a mina alla theena kafaroo ma/wakumualnnaru hiya mawlakum wabi/sa alma^{seeru}
A	57:15 فالיום لا يوذ منكم فدية ولا من الذين كفروا ملوكم النار هي ملوكم وبئس المصير
Edip-Layth	57:16 Has not the time come for those who acknowledged to open up their hearts for the remembrance of God, and the truth that is revealed herein? They should not be like those who were given the book before, and the waiting became long for them, so their hearts became hardened, and many of them were wicked.
The Monotheist Group	57:16 Has not the time come for those who believed to open up their hearts for the remembrance of God, and the truth that is revealed herein? And they should not be like those who were given the Scripture before, and the waiting became long for them, so their hearts became hardened, and many of them were wicked.
Muhammad Asad	57:16 IS IT NOT time that the hearts of all who have attained to faith should feel humble at the remembrance of God and of all the truth that has been bestowed [on them] from on high, ²² lest they become like those who were granted revelation aforetime,²³ and whose hearts have hardened with the passing of time so that many of them are [now] depraved?²⁴
Rashad Khalifa	Deterioration of Religion 57:16 Is it not time for those who believed to open up their hearts for GOD's message, and the truth that is revealed herein? They should not be like the followers of previous scriptures whose hearts became hardened with time and, consequently, many of them turned wicked.
Shabbir Ahmed	57:16 Is it not yet time for the believers that their hearts humble at the remembrance of God, reflecting on the truth that has been revealed? Do not be like those who were given the scripture before, and whose hearts were hardened with time. And so, a great many of them have drifted away from truth.
Transliteration	57:16 Alam ya/ni lilla theena amanooan takhshaAAa quloobuhum li thikri All ahi wamanazala mina al haqqi wal a yakoonoo ka alla^{theena}ootoo alkitaba min qablu fata^{la} AAalayhimu al-amadufa^{qasat} quloobuhum wakatheerun minhum fa^{siqoona}
A	57:16 ألم يأن للذين ءامنوا ان تخشع قلوبهم لذكر الله وما نزل من الحق ولا يكونوا كالذين اوتوا الكتب من قبل فطال عليهم الامد فقست قلوبهم وكثير منهم فاسقون

Edip-Layth	57:17 Know that God revives the land after it had died. We have made clear to you the signs, perhaps you may understand.
The Monotheist Group	57:17 Know that God revives the land after it had died. We have made clear to you the signs, perhaps you may understand.
Muhammad Asad	57:17 [But] know that God gives life to the earth after it has been lifeless! ²⁵ We have indeed made Our messages clear unto you, so that you might use your reason.
Rashad Khalifa	57:17 Know that GOD revives the land after it had died. We thus explain the revelations for you, that you may understand.
Shabbir Ahmed	57:17 Know all of you that God gives life to the land after it has been dead. We have made Our messages clear for you so that you might use your intellect.
Transliteration	57:17 IAAalamoo anna All aha yu hyeeal-arda baAAda mawtiḥ a qad bayyann a lakumual-ayati laAAallakum taAAaqiloonā
A	57:17 اعلّموا ان الله يحيى الارض بعد موتها قد بينا لكم الاءايت لعلمكم تعقلون
Edip-Layth	57:18 Surely, the charitable men and charitable women, who have loaned God a loan of goodness, He will multiply their reward, and they will have a generous recompense.
The Monotheist Group	57:18 Surely, the charitable men and charitable women, who have loaned God a loan of goodness, He will multiply their reward, and they will have a generous recompense.
Muhammad Asad	57:18 Verily, as for the men and women who accept the truth as true ²⁶ and who [thus] offer up unto God a goodly loan, they will be amply repaid, ²⁷ and shall have a noble reward [in the life to come].
Rashad Khalifa	57:18 Surely, the charitable men and women, have loaned GOD a loan of goodness. They will receive their reward multiplied manifold; they have deserved a generous recompense.
Shabbir Ahmed	57:18 Men and women who stand true to their proclamations of belief and lend a goodly loan to God, they will be repaid manifold. And theirs will be a generous reward.
Transliteration	57:18 Inna almu ssaddiqeena wa almussaddiqatiwaaqradoo All aha qar dan hasanan yudaAAafulahum walahum ajrun kareem un
A	57:18 ان المصدقين والمصدقات واقترضوا الله قرضاً حسناً يضاعف لهم ولهم اجر كريم
Edip-Layth	57:19 Those who acknowledged God and His messengers are the truthful ones. The martyrs at their Lord will have their reward and their light. As for those who rejected and rejected Our signs, they are the dwellers of hell.
The Monotheist Group	57:19 And those who believed in God and His messengers are the truthful ones. And the martyrs at their Lord will have their reward and their light. As for those who disbelieved and rejected Our revelations, they are the dwellers of Hell.
Muhammad Asad	57:19 For, they who have attained to faith in God and His Apostle - it is they, they who uphold the truth, and they who bear witness [thereto] before God: ²⁸ [and so] they shall have their reward and their light! But as for those who are bent on denying the truth and on giving the lie to Our messages - it is they who are destined for the blazing fire!
	57:19 Those who believed in GOD and His messengers are the saints and

Rashad Khalifa	martyrs. Reserved for them at their Lord are their rewards and their light. As for those who disbelieved and rejected our revelations, they have incurred Hell.
Shabbir Ahmed	57:19 Those who believe in God and His messengers, they are the truthful, as well as the witnesses to the truth in the sight of their Lord. For them is their reward and their light. But, those who oppose or deny Our revelations, they are the companions of the Blazing Fire.
Transliteration	57:19 Waallatheena amanoo bi Allahiwarusulihi ol a-ika humu a Issiddeeqoona waalshshuhadaoAAinda rabbihim lahum ajruhum wanooruhum waallatheenakafaroo wakaththaboo bi-ayatina ola-ikaas-habu aljaheemi
A	57:19 وَالَّذِينَ ءَامَنُوا بِٱللَّهِ وَرَسُولِهِ ءَآلُكُمْ هُمُ الصَّٰدِقُونَ وَالشَّهَآءُ عِنْدَ رَبِّهِمْ لَهُمْ أَجْرُهُمْ وَنُورُهُمْ وَالَّذِينَ كَفَرُوا وَكَذَّبُوا بِآيَاتِنَا ءَآلُكُمْ أَصْحَابُ ٱلْجَحِيمِ
Edip-Layth	The Purpose of Life on Earth 57:20 Know that this worldly life is no more than play and amusement, and boasting among you, and an increase in wealth and children. It is like plants that are supplied by an abundant rain, which appear pleasing to those who do not appreciate. But then they dry up and turn yellow, and become useless hay. In the Hereafter there is severe retribution, and forgiveness from God and approval. This worldly life is no more than a deceiving enjoyment.
	57:20 Know that this worldly life is no more than play and amusement and adornments, and boasting among you, and to increase in wealth and children. It is like plants that are supplied by an abundant rain, which appear pleasing to the disbelievers. But then they dry-up and turn yellow, and become useless hay. And in the Hereafter there is severe retribution, and forgiveness from God and approval. This worldly life is no more than a deceiving enjoyment.
	57:20 KNOW [O men] that the life of this world is but a play and a passing delight, and a beautiful show, and [the cause of] your boastful vying with one another, and [of your] greed for more and more riches and children. ²⁹ Its parable is that of ³⁰ [life-giving] rain: the herbage which it causes to grow delights the tillers of the soil; ³¹ but then it withers, and thou canst see it turn yellow; and in the end it crumbles into dust. But [the abiding truth of man's condition will become fully apparent] in the life to come: [either] suffering severe, or ³² God's forgiveness and His goodly acceptance: for the life of this world is nothing but an enjoyment of self-delusion.
Rashad Khalifa	Preoccupation With This Life Condemned 57:20 Know that this worldly life is no more than play and games, and boasting among you, and hoarding of money and children. It is like abundant rain that produces plants and pleases the disbelievers. But then the plants turn into useless hay, and are blown away by the wind. In the Hereafter there is either severe retribution, or forgiveness from GOD and approval. This worldly life is no more than a temporary illusion.
Shabbir Ahmed	57:20 Know all of you that (in comparison to Eternity) the life of this world is only play and a fleeting delight, and your mutual bragging, and pursuit of riches and children. It is like abundant rain that brings forth plantation and pleases the farmers. But then the plantation may wither and you can see it turn into yellow hay. And in the end it crumbles into dust! But in the Hereafter it is either grievous suffering or forgiveness from God and His approval. And what is the life of this world, but an enjoyment of illusion. ⁸
Transliteration	57:20 IAAalamoo annam a al hayatualddunya laAAibun walahwun wazeenaton watafakhurunbaynakum watak athurun fee al-amw ali wa al-awladikamathali ghaythin aAAjaba alkuff ara nab atuhuthumma yaheeru fatar ahu mu sfarran

	thumma yakoonu hutamanwafee al- akhirati AAa thabun shadeedun wamaghfiratunmina All ahi wari dwanun wam a al hayatualldunya ill a mat aAAu alghuroori
A	57:20 اعلموا انما الحياة الدنيا لعب ولهو وزينة وتفاخر بينكم وتكاثر في الامول والاولاد كمثل غيث اعجب الكفار نباته ثم يهيج فتزبه مصفرا ثم يكون حطما وفي الءاخرة عذاب شديد ومغفرة من الله ورضون وما الحياة الدنيا الا متع الغرور
Edip-Layth	57:21 You shall race towards forgiveness from your Lord, and a Paradise whose width is as the width of the heaven and the earth, prepared for those who acknowledged God and His messengers. Such is God's grace that He bestows upon whomever He wills. God is the Possessor of Infinite Grace.
The Monotheist Group	57:21 You shall race towards forgiveness from your Lord, and a Paradise whose width is as the width of the heaven and the Earth, prepared for those who believed in God and His messengers. Such is God's grace that He bestows upon whomever He wills. God is the Possessor of Infinite Grace.
Muhammad Asad	57:21 [Hence,] vie with one another in seeking to attain to your Sustainer's forgiveness, ³³ and [thus] to a paradise as vast as the heavens and the earth, which has been readied for those who have attained to faith in God and His Apostle: ³⁴ such is the bounty of God which He grants unto whomever He wills - for God is limitless in His great bounty.
Rashad Khalifa	The Intelligent Alternative 57:21 Therefore, you shall race towards forgiveness from your Lord, and a Paradise whose width encompasses the heaven and the earth. It awaits those who believed in GOD and His messengers. Such is GOD's grace that He bestows upon whomever He wills. GOD is Possessor of Infinite Grace.
Shabbir Ahmed	57:21 Be foremost in seeking the protection from your Lord, and a Garden as vast as the heaven and the earth. It has been readied for those who choose to believe in God and His messengers. Such is God's bounty that He bestows upon him who wills it. God is the Lord of abounding bounty. ⁹
Transliteration	57:21 Sabiqoo il a maghfiratin minrabbikum wajannatin AAar duha kaAAar di alssama-iwaal-ardi oAAaidat lilla theena amanoobiAllahi warusulihi thalika fa dlu Allahiyyu/teehee man yashao waAllahu thooalfadli alAAattheemi
A	57:21 سابقوا الى مغفرة من ربكم وجنة عرضها كعرض السماء والارض اعدت للذين ءامنوا بالله ورسله ذلك فضل الله يؤتيه من يشاء والله ذو الفضل العظيم
Edip-Layth	The Key of Happiness: Stoic Submission to God 57:22 No misfortune can happen on earth, or in yourselves, except it is decreed in a record, before We bring it about. This is easy for God to do. ²
The Monotheist Group	57:22 No misfortune can happen on Earth, or in yourselves, except it is decreed in a record, before We bring it about. This is easy for God to do.
Muhammad Asad	57:22 NO CALAMITY can ever befall the earth, and nei ther your own selves, ³⁵ unless it be [laid down] in Our decree before We bring it into being: verily, all this ³⁶ is easy for God.
Rashad Khalifa	Profound Fact 57:22 Anything that happens on earth, or to you, has already been recorded, even before the creation. This is easy for GOD to do. ²

Shabbir Ahmed	57:22 No disaster befalls the earth, nor yourselves but according to the laws that We have already recorded in the Book of decrees. Surely, all this is easy for God.
Transliteration	57:22 Ma asaba min museebatinfee al-ardi wala fee anfusikum illa fee kitabinmin qabli an nabraaha inna thalika AAala Allahiaseerun
A	57:22 ما اصاب من مصيبة فى الارض ولا فى انفسكم الا فى كتب من قبل ان نبراها ان ذلك على الله يسير
Edip-Layth	57:23 In order that you do not despair over anything that has passed you by, nor be exultant of anything He has bestowed upon you. God does not like those who are boastful, proud.
The Monotheist Group	57:23 In order that you do not despair over anything that has passed you by, nor be happy of anything He has bestowed upon you. God does not like those who are boastful, proud.
Muhammad Asad	57:23 [Know this,] so that you may not despair over whatever [good] has escaped you nor exult [unduly] over whatever [good] has come to you: ³⁷ for, God does not love any of those who, out of self-conceit, act in a boastful manner ³⁸
Rashad Khalifa	57:23 Thus, you should not grieve over anything you miss, nor be proud of anything He has bestowed upon you. GOD does not love those who are boastful, proud.
Shabbir Ahmed	57:23 Thus despair not over whatever has left you, nor exult for whatever you have been given. For, God does not love those who are boastful, proud.
Transliteration	57:23 Likayla ta/saw AAala a m afatakum wala tafral hoo bim a atakumwaAllahu la yuhibbu kulla mukhtalinfakhoorin
A	57:23 لكيلا تاسوا على ما فاتكم ولا تفرحوا بما ءاتكم والله لا يحب كل مختال فخور
Edip-Layth	57:24 They are stingy, and order the people to be stingy. For anyone who turns away, then know that God is the Rich, the Praiseworthy.
The Monotheist Group	57:24 They are stingy, and order the people to be stingy. And for anyone who turns away, then know that God is the Rich, the Praiseworthy.
Muhammad Asad	57:24 those who are niggardly [with God's bounty] and bid others to be niggardly! ³⁹ And he who turns his back [on this truth ⁴⁰ ought to know that], verily, God alone is self-sufficient, the One to whom all praise is due!
Rashad Khalifa	57:24 They are stingy, and enjoin the people to be stingy. If one turns away, then GOD is the Rich, the Praiseworthy.
Shabbir Ahmed	57:24 They are stingy and enjoin people to be stingy. But if anyone turns away, then (he should know that) God is free of want, Worthy of all praise.
Transliteration	57:24 Allatheena yabkhaloona waya/muroona a Innasabialbukhli waman yatawalla fa-inna Allaha huwaalghaniyyu alhameedu
A	57:24 الذين ييخلون ويامرون الناس بالبخل ومن يتول فان الله هو الغنى الحميد
Edip-Layth	Iron: an Important Metal 57:25 We have sent Our messengers with clear proofs, and We sent down with them the book and the balance, that the people may uphold justice. We sent down the iron, wherein there is great strength, and many benefits for the people. So that God would distinguish those who would support Him and His messengers on acknowledgement. God is Powerful, Noble. ³

The Monotheist Group	57:25 We have sent Our messengers with clear proofs, and We sent down with them the Scripture and the balance, so that the people may uphold justice. And We sent down the iron, wherein there is great strength, and many benefits for the people. So that God would distinguish those who would support Him and His messengers on faith. God is Powerful, Noble.
Muhammad Asad	57:25 Indeed, [even aforetime] did We send forth Our apostles with all evidence of [this] truth; and through them ⁴¹ We bestowed revelation from on high, and [thus gave you] a balance [wherewith to weigh right and wrong], so that men might behave with equity; and We bestowed [upon you] from on high [the ability to make use of] iron, in which there is awesome power as well as [a source of] benefits for man: ⁴² and [all this was given to you] so that God might mark out those who would stand up for him and His Apostle, ⁴³ even though He [Himself] is beyond the reach of human perception. ⁴⁴ Verily, God is powerful, almighty!
Rashad Khalifa	Iron: The Most Useful Metal 57:25 We sent our messengers supported by clear proofs, and we sent down to them the scripture and the law, that the people may uphold justice. And we sent down the iron, wherein there is strength, and many benefits for the people. All this in order for GOD to distinguish those who would support Him and His messengers, on faith. GOD is Powerful, Almighty.
Shabbir Ahmed	57:25 We sent Our messengers with the evident truth and revealed with them the law and the Standard of right and wrong that mankind may deal in justice. And We have bestowed on from high the iron in which there is awesome power and many benefits for people. For, God marks out those who help Him and His messengers although the victory may initially be obscure to them. Surely, God is Strong, Almighty. ¹⁰
Transliteration	57:25 Laqad arsalnā a rusulan ā bi albayyināti waanzalnā maAAahumu alkit āba waalmeezanaliyaqooma a Innāsu bi alqistī waanzaln āalḥadeeda feeḥi ba/sun shadeedun wamanāfiAAu liInnāsiwaliyaAAalama Allāhu man yansuruḥu warusulahu bialghaybiinna Allāha qawīyyun AAazeezun
A	57:25 لقد ارسلنا رسلنا بالبينت وانزلنا معهم الكتب والميزان ليقوم الناس بالقسط وانزلنا الحديد فيه باس شديد ومنفع للناس وليعلم الله من ينصره ورسله بالغيب ان الله قوى عزيز
Edip-Layth	Prophethood 57:26 We had sent Noah and Abraham, and We placed in their progeny the prophethood and the book. Some of them were guided, while many were wicked.
The Monotheist Group	57:26 And We had sent Noah and Abraham, and We placed in their progeny the prophethood and the Scripture. Some of them were guided, while many were wicked.
Muhammad Asad	57:26 And, indeed, [to the same end] ⁴⁵ We sent forth Noah and Abraham [as Our message-bearers], and established prophethood and revelation among their descendants; and some of them were on the right way, but many were iniquitous.
Rashad Khalifa	The Prophets 57:26 We sent Noah and Abraham, and we granted their descendants prophethood and the scripture. Some of them were guided, while many were wicked.
Shabbir Ahmed	57:26 We sent Noah and Abraham and granted prophethood and scripture to their progeny. Some of them remained rightly guided, but a great many of them drifted away.

Transliteration	57:26 Walaqad arsaln a noo han wa-ibr a heemawajaAAaln a fee th urriyyatihim a alInnubuwwatawaalkit a ba famin h um muhtadin wakatheerun min h um f a siqoona
A	57:26 ولقد ارسلنا نوحا وابراهيم وجعلنا فى نريتهما النبوة والكتب فمنهم مهتد وكثير منهم ففسقون
Edip-Layth	57:27 Then We sent in their tracks Our messengers. We sent Jesus the son of Mary, and We gave him the Injeel, and We ordained in the hearts of his followers kindness and compassion. But they invented Monasticism which We never decreed for them. They wanted to please God, but they did not observe it the way it should have been observed. Consequently, We gave those who acknowledged among them their recompense, while many of them were wicked. ⁴
The Monotheist Group	57:27 Then We sent in their tracks Our messengers. We sent Jesus the son of Mary, and We gave him the Injeel, and We ordained in the hearts of his followers kindness and mercy. But they invented Monasticism which We never decreed for them. They wanted to please God, but they did not observe it the way it should have been observed. Consequently, We gave those who believed among them their recompense, while many of them were wicked.
Muhammad Asad	57:27 And thereupon We caused [other of] Our apostles to follow in their footsteps; and [in the course of time] We caused them to be followed by Jesus, the son of Mary, upon whom We bestowed the Gospel; ⁴⁶ and in the hearts of those who [truly] followed him We engendered compassion and mercy. But as for monastic asceticism - ⁴⁷ We did not enjoin it upon them: they invented it themselves out of a desire for God's goodly acceptance. ⁴⁸ But then, they did not [always] observe it as it ought to have been observed: ⁴⁹ and so We granted their recompense unto such of them as had [truly] attained to faith, whereas many of them became iniquitous. ⁵⁰
Rashad Khalifa	Deterioration of Religion 57:27 Subsequent to them, we sent our messengers. We sent Jesus the son of Mary, and we gave him the Injeel (Gospel), and we placed in the hearts of his followers kindness and mercy. But they invented hermitism which we never decreed for them. All we asked them to do was to uphold the commandments approved by GOD. But they did not uphold the message as they should have. Consequently, we gave those who believed among them their recompense, while many of them were wicked.
Shabbir Ahmed	57:27 Then, in succession, We followed them up with (other of) Our messengers. We caused them to be followed by Jesus son of Mary and gave him the Gospel. And We placed kindness and compassion in the hearts of those who followed him. As for monastic asceticism - We had never ordained it to them. They invented it themselves to seek God's approval. But then, they did not uphold the Gospel with right observance. And so those who truly believed among them, We gave them their reward. But, a great many of them have been drifting away.
Transliteration	57:27 Thumma qaffayn a AAal a a th a rihimbirusulina waqaffayn a biAAees a ibni maryamawa a tayn a hu al-injeela wajaAAaln a fee quloobialla th eena ittabaAAoohu ra/fatan wara h matan wara h b a niyyatanibtadaAAooha m a katabn a h a AAalayhimill a ibtigh a ri dw ani All a hifama raAAawh a h aqqa riAA a yatih a fa a tayna alla th eena a manoo min h umajrahum wakatheerun min h um f a siqoona
A	57:27 ثم قفينا على اثرهم برسلنا وقفينا بعيسى ابن مريم وءاتينه الانجيل وجعلنا فى قلوب الذين اتبعوه رافة ورحمة ورهبانية ابتدعوها ما كتبناها عليهم الا ابتغاء رضون الله فما رعوها حق رعايتها فاتينا الذين ءامنوا منهم اجرهم وكثير منهم ففسقون

Edip-Layth	57:28 O you who acknowledge, you shall reverence God and acknowledge His messenger. He will then grant you double the reward from His mercy, and He will make for you a light by which you shall walk, and He will forgive you. God is Forgiving, Compassionate.
The Monotheist Group	57:28 O you who believe, you shall reverence God and believe in His messenger. He will then grant you double the reward from His mercy, and He will make for you a light by which you shall walk, and He will forgive you. And God is Forgiving, Merciful.
Muhammad Asad	57:28 O YOU who have attained to faith! ⁵¹ Remain conscious of God, and believe in His Apostle, [and] He will grant you doubly of His grace, and will light for you a light wherein you shall walk, and will forgive you [your past sins]: for God is much-forgiving, a dispenser of grace.
Rashad Khalifa	57:28 O you who believe, you shall reverence GOD and believe in His messenger. He will then grant you double the reward from His mercy, endow you with light to guide you, and forgive you. GOD is Forgiver, Most Merciful.
Shabbir Ahmed	57:28 O You who have chosen to be graced with belief! Be mindful of God and put faith in His messenger. And He will bestow on you a double reward of His grace. He will appoint for you a light by which you shall walk, and He will absolve your faults. God is Forgiving, Merciful.
Transliteration	57:28 Ya ayyuh a alla theena amanooittaqoo All aha wa aminoo birasoolihi yu/tikumkiflayni min rahmatihi wayajAAal lakum nooran tamshoonabihi wayaghfir lakum waAllahu ghafoorun raheemun
A	57:28 يَا أَيُّهَا الَّذِينَ ءَامَنُوا اتَّقُوا اللَّهَ وَءَامِنُوا بِرَسُولِهِ يُؤْتِكُمْ كِفْلَيْنِ مِنْ رَحْمَتِهِ وَيَجْعَلْ لَكُمْ نُورًا تَمْشُونَ بِهِ وَيَغْفِرْ لَكُمْ وَاللَّهُ غَفُورٌ رَحِيمٌ
Edip-Layth	The People of the Book Should Know 57:29 So that the followers of the book should know that they have no power over God's grace, and that all grace is in God's hand. He bestows it upon whoever/whomever He wills. God is Possessor of Infinite Grace.
The Monotheist Group	57:29 So that the followers of the Scripture should know that they have no power over God's grace, and that all grace is in God's hand. He bestows it upon whomever He wills. God is Possessor of Infinite Grace.
Muhammad Asad	57:29 And the followers of earlier revelation should know ⁵² that they have no power whatever over any of God's bounty, ⁵³ seeing that all bounty is in God's hand [alone]: He grants it unto whomever He wills - for God is limitless in His great bounty.
Rashad Khalifa	57:29 Thus, the followers of previous scripture should know that they have not monopolized GOD's mercy and grace, and that all grace is in GOD's hand. He bestows it upon whomever He wills. GOD is Possessor of Infinite Grace.
Shabbir Ahmed	57:29 And the People of the scripture should know that they have no power whatsoever over the bounty of God. All bounty is in God's hand and He grants it according to His laws. God is the Lord of a tremendous bounty. ¹¹
Transliteration	57:29 Li-alla yaAAlama ahlu alkit abialla yaqdiroona AAal a shay-in min fa dli Allahiwaanna alfa dla biyadi All ahi yu/teehi man yash aowaAllahu thoo alfa dli alAAatheemi
A	57:29 لئلا يعلم اهل الكتب الا يقدرון على شىء من فضل الله وان الفضل بيد الله يؤتیه من یشاء والله ذو الفضل العظيم

Return to top

End Notes

Muhammad Asad - The Message Of Quran

Muhammad Asad - End Note 1 (57:3)

I.e., His Being is eternal, without anything preceding His existence and without anything outlasting its infinity: an interpretation given by the Prophet himself, as recorded in several well-authenticated Traditions. Thus, "time" itself - a concept beyond man's understanding - is but God's creation.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 2 (57:3)

I.e., He is the transcendental Cause of all that exists and, at the same time, immanent in every phenomenon of His creation - cf. the oft-repeated Quranic phrase (e.g., in verse 5), "all things go back unto God [as their source]"; in the words of Tabari, "He is closer to everything than anything else could be". Another - perhaps supplementary - rendering could be, "He is the Evident as well as the Hidden", i.e., "His existence is evident (zahir) in the effects of His activity, whereas He Himself is not perceptible (ghayr mudrak) to our senses" (Zamakhshari).

Muhammad Asad - End Note 3 (57:4)

Cf. the identical phrase in 7:54 and the corresponding note.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 4 (57:4)

See note 1 on 34:2.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 5 (57:7)

Implying that all that man "possesses is but held in trust from God, since "all that is in the heavens and on earth belongs to Him", whereas man is allowed only its usufruct.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 6 (57:8)

God's "taking a pledge" is a metonymic allusion to the faculty of reason with which He has endowed man, and which ought to enable every sane person to grasp the evidence of God's existence by observing the effects of His creativeness in all nature and by paying heed to the teachings of His prophets (Zamakhshari). See in this connection 7:172 and the corresponding note 139

Muhammad Asad - End Note 7 (57:8)

Lit., "if you are believers": implying, according to Razi, "if you can believe in anything on the basis of sound evidence".

Muhammad Asad - End Note 8 (57:10)

I.e., "that to God belongs all that is", etc.: see note 5 above; also note 22 on 15:23.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 9 (57:10)

I.e., before the conquest of Mecca in 8 H., when the Muslims were still weak and their future uncertain.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 10 (57:10)

The above principle applies, of course, to the relative merits of believers of all times who strive in God's cause before and/or after success has been achieved.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 11 (57:11)

See note 234 on the identical phrase in 2:245. In the present instance the meaning is apparently wider, applying to all that man may do selflessly, for the sake of God alone.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 12 (57:12)

See note 25 on the expression ashab al-yamin ("those on the right hand") in 74:39. In many instances, the metaphor of "the right hand" or "right side" is used in the Qur'an to denote "righteousness" and, therefore, "blessedness", symbolized in the present context by the "light spreading rapidly" before and on the right side of the believers as a result of their "cognition of God, and their high morality, and their freedom from ignorance and blameworthy traits" (Razi).

Muhammad Asad - End Note 13 (57:13)

Meant here are, apparently, not only outright "hypocrites" (in the connotation given to this term in Western languages), but also people who, being shaky in their beliefs and uncertain in their moral convictions, are inclined to deceive themselves (see note 7 on 29:11).

Muhammad Asad - End Note 14 (57:13)

I.e., "you should have sought light while you lived on earth".

Muhammad Asad - End Note 15 (57:13)

The stress on there being a gate in the wall separating true believers and hypocrites (or the weak of faith) points to the possibility of the latter's redemption: cf. the famous hadith quoted in note 10 on 40:2. Mujahid (as quoted by Tabari) identifies the "wall" spoken of here with the "barrier" (hijab) mentioned in 7:46.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 16 (57:14)

Sc., "by the prospect of worldly gains" or "by fear for your personal safety" - both of which characterize the half-hearted as well as the hypocrites.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 17 (57:14)

Thus Ibn Zayd (quoted by Tabari), explaining the verb tarabbastum.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 18 (57:14)

I.e., "until your death".

Muhammad Asad - End Note 19 (57:14)

See note 30 on the last sentence of 31:33.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 20 (57:15)

I.e., belated repentance.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 21 (57:15)

Lit., "your friend" (mawlakum) - i.e., "the only thing by which you may hope to be purified and redeemed": cf. the saying of the Prophet mentioned in note 10 on 40:12; see also the last note 15 above.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 22 (57:16)

I.e., "Should not the remembrance of God and His revelation make them humble rather than proud?" This is an emphatic warning against all smugness, self-righteousness and false pride at having "attained to faith" - a failing which only too often attains to such as consider themselves "pious".

Muhammad Asad - End Note 23 (57:16)

This is apparently an allusion to the spiritually arrogant among the Jews, who regard themselves as "God's chosen people" and, therefore, as predestined for His acceptance.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 24 (57:16)

I.e., so that now they act contrary to the ethical precepts of their religion: implying that the purpose of all true faith is to make man humble and God-conscious rather than self-satisfied, and that a loss of that spiritual humility invariably results in moral degeneration.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 25 (57:17)

According to most of the commentators - and, particularly, Zamakhshari, Razi and Ibn Kathir - this is a parabolic allusion to the effect of a re-awakening of God-consciousness in hearts that had become deadened by self-satisfaction and false pride.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 26 (57:18)

Or: "who give in charity" - depending on the vocalization of the consonants sad and dal. In view of the sequence, the sense given in my rendering seems preferable (and is, indeed, stressed by Zamakhshari), although in the reading of Hafs ibn Sulayman al-Asadi, on which this translation is based, the relevant nouns appear in the spelling mussaddiqin and mussaddiqat, "men and women who give in charity".

Muhammad Asad - End Note 27 (57:18)

See verse 11 above.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 28 (57:19)

I.e., by their readiness for any sacrifice.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 29 (57:20)

Commenting at length on this passage, Razi makes it clear that life as such is not to be despised, inasmuch as it has been created by God: cf. 38:27 - "We have not created heaven and earth and all that is between them without meaning and purpose"; and 23:115 - "Did you think that We have created you in mere idle play?" But whereas life in itself is a positive gift of God and - as Razi points out - the potential source of all blessings, it loses this positive quality if it is indulged in recklessly, blindly and with disregard of spiritual values and considerations: in brief, if it is indulged in without any thought of the hereafter.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 30 (57:20)

Lit., "(It is) like the parable of", etc.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 31 (57:20)

This is the sole instance in the Qur'an where the participial noun kafir (in its plural form kuffar) has its original meaning of "tiller of the soil". For the etymology of this meaning, see note 4 on 74: 10, where the term kafir (in the sense of "denier of the truth") appears for the first time in the sequence of Quranic revelation.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 32 (57:20)

According to Tabari, the conjunction wa has here the meaning of aw ("or").

Muhammad Asad - End Note 33 (57:21)

Sc., "rather than in striving for glory and worldly possessions": implying elliptically that no man is free from faults and transgressions, and hence everyone is in need of God's forgiveness. (Cf. note 41 on 24:31.)

Muhammad Asad - End Note 34 (57:21)

For a further qualification of the humility which characterizes true believers, see 3:133-135.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 35 (57:22)

I.e., "the earth or mankind as a whole, or any of you individually": an allusion to natural as well as man-made catastrophes, and to individual suffering through illness, moral or material deprivation, etc.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 36 (57:22)

I.e., God's decreeing an event and bringing it into being.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 37 (57:23)

Thus, the knowledge that whatever has happened had to happen - and could not have not happened - because, obviously, it had been willed by God in accordance with His unfathomable plan, ought to enable a true believer to react with conscious equanimity to whatever good or ill comes to him.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 38 (57:23)

I.e., attributing their good fortune to their own merit or "luck".

Muhammad Asad - End Note 39 (57:24)

Cf. last sentence of 4:36 and the whole of verse 37.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 40 (57:24)

I.e., does not want to admit that whatever has happened must have been willed by God.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 41 (57:25)

Lit., "with them".

Muhammad Asad - End Note 42 (57:25)

Side by side with enabling man to discriminate between right and wrong (which is the innermost purpose of all divine revelation), God has endowed him with the ability to convert to his use the natural resources of his earthly environment. An outstanding symbol of this ability is man's skill, unique among all animated beings, in making tools; and the primary material for all tool-making - and, indeed, for all human technology - is iron: the one metal which is found abundantly on earth, and which can be utilized for beneficial as well as destructive ends. The awesome power (bas shadid) inherent in iron manifests itself not merely in the manufacture of weapons of war but also, more subtly, in man's ever-growing tendency to foster the development of an increasingly complicated technology which places the machine in the foreground of all human existence and which, by its inherent - almost irresistible - dynamism, gradually estranges man from all inner connection with nature. This process of growing mechanization, so evident in our modern life, jeopardizes the very structure of human society and, thus, contributes to a gradual dissolution of all moral and spiritual perceptions epitomized in the concept of "divine guidance". It is to warn man of this danger that the Qur'an stresses - symbolically and metonymically - the potential evil (ba's) of "iron" if it is put to wrong use: in other words, the danger of man's allowing his technological ingenuity to run wild and thus to overwhelm his spiritual consciousness and, ultimately, to destroy all possibility of individual and social happiness.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 43 (57:25)

Lit., "those who succour Him and His Apostle", i.e., those who stand up for the cause of God and His Apostle. The meaning is that only they who put God's spiritual and material gifts to right use can be described as "true believers".

Muhammad Asad - End Note 44 (57:25)

See note 3 on 2:3.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 45 (57:26)

I.e., to give man a balance wherewith to weigh right and wrong, and so to enable him to behave with equity (see preceding verse).

Muhammad Asad - End Note 46 (57:27)

See surah 3 note 4.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 47 (57:27)

The term rahbaniyyah combines the concepts of monastic life with an exaggerated asceticism, often amounting to a denial of any value in the life of this world - an attitude characteristic of early Christianity but disapproved of in Islam (cf. 2:143 - "We have willed you to be a community of the middle way" - and the corresponding note 118).

Muhammad Asad - End Note 48 (57:27)

Or: "they invented it themselves, [for] We did not enjoin it upon them: [We enjoined upon them] only the seeking of God's goodly acceptance". Both these interpretations are equally legitimate, and are accepted as such by most of the classical commentators. The rendering adopted by me corresponds to the interpretation given by Sa'id ibn Jubayr and Qatadah (both of them cited by Tabari and Ibn Kathir).

Muhammad Asad - End Note 49 (57:27)

I.e., not all of them observed it in the right spirit (Tabari, Zamakhshari, Ibn Kathir), inasmuch as in the course of time many of them - or, rather, many of those who came after the early ascetics (Tabari) - corrupted their devotions by accepting the ideas of Trinity and of God's incarnation in Jesus, and by lapsing into empty formalism (Razi).

Muhammad Asad - End Note 50 (57:27)

Sc., "and were deprived of Our grace".

Muhammad Asad - End Note 51 (57:28)

As is evident from the preceding passage as well as from verse 29, the people thus addressed are the followers of earlier revelation (ahl al-kitab), and in particular the true - i.e., Unitarian - followers of Jesus.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 52 (57:29)

Lit., "so that the followers of earlier revelation (i.e., the Bible) may know".

Muhammad Asad - End Note 53 (57:29)

I.e., that they have no exclusive claim to any of God's bounty - which latter term relates, in the present context, to a bestowal of divine revelation. This is addressed in the first instance to the Jews, who reject the revelation granted to Muhammad in the belief that the office of prophethood is an exclusive "preserve" of the children of Israel, as well as to the Christians who, as followers of the Bible, implicitly accept this unwarranted claim.

Shabbir Ahmed -

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 1 (57:3)

He is Evident through His attributes and Hidden to the eyes

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 2 (57:4)

Six Stages or Eras: 7:54, 10:3, 11:7, 25:59, 50:38, 57:4, 41:10

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 3 (57:5)

All things find their Source in Him and His laws determine the final end of all actions

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 4 (57:7)

Nafaq = Keeping open = Spending on others = Not hoarding

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 5 (57:10)

55:62, 56:8-12

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 6 (57:12)

57:9

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 7 (57:14)

The hypocrites used to tell lies about God and His messenger. Their wishful thinking: That they would never be exposed. 3:179

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 8 (57:20)

Therefore, invest in the life to come for lasting rewards. 3:14-15, 10:2425, 16:92, 18:45-46, 14:18, 24:39, 83:26, 102:1. Kuffar in this verse, very uniquely, has been used in the very literal sense. Contrary to the popular translations, Kuffar here does not mean 'disbelievers' or 'unbelievers'. It refers to those who conceal the truth. This is the only verse in the Qur'an where Kuffar is indicating those who hide something -specifically, the farmers who cover the seed with soil. While that in itself is a laudable work, in the given similitude the verse is talking about a crop that quickly turns into useless chaff. However, in this instance Kuffar = Farmers. In general, the term indicates those who conceal the truth, and actively and knowingly hide or deny it. Also those who 'hide gratitude' or refuse to be grateful for any blessings bestowed upon them, including the blessing of guidance

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 9 (57:21)

The Paradise encompasses the entire Universe. 3:133

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 10 (57:25)

Meezaan = Balance of measure = Standard of justice. As proven by modern science, the iron is not native to earth. It has come down from higher celestial bodies

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 11 (57:29)

He is the Lord of the worlds and the Lord of all mankind and He does not discriminate between people. 1:1, 114:1

Edip-Layth - Quran: A Reformist Translation

Edip-Layth - End Note 1 (57:4)

For the evolutionary creation of the universe, See 41:9-10.

Edip-Layth - End Note 2 (57:22)

Proving the existence of free will is philosophically and scientifically impossible. Considering Gödel's incompleteness theorem, it is impossible to eliminate axioms in axiomatic deductions. The assertion, "I have freedom of will" is not only nonfalsifiable, but also contradicts the deterministic laws governing matter and energy. As Nietzsche and Blanchard argued, it might be impossible to predict the interactive motion of hundreds of billiard balls, yet the motion of each ball depends on the mass and velocity of the ball colliding it. The motion of all balls depends on the motion of the first ball, and its motion depends on the angle and kinetic energy of the cue, which passes it to the balls during the impact. Sartre and other atheistic existentialists assumed the existence of freedom of will by asserting that "existence preceded essence" yet they never explained why one egg ended up with a snake while another with a bird; they ignored the fact that there could not be existence without essence. Nevertheless, if there is freedom of will, it cannot be possible without an omnipotent, the greatest paradox- solver God. Without God, there is no justification for believing in one's freedom in a world where every atom and molecule works in a deterministic way. Does the human brain function according to the laws governing quarks? So far, there is no scientific evidence showing such a relationship. Muslims cannot be accused of being fatalistic; to the contrary, freedom of will is only possible with the existence of God, and muslims can only be accused of believing in freedom of will. See 6:110; 7:15,30; 13:11; 18:29; 42:13,48; 46:15; 57:22. However, acceptance of freedom of will based on divine communication creates other logical problems or paradoxes. Leaving aside the uncertainty principle and speculations related to quantum physics, it seems impossible to assert the freedom of an agent who did not even choose his or her genetic makeup, the time, the space, and the conditions where he or she would be born. Obviously, this is a paradox, since it is impossible to choose existence or the qualities of existence without having an existence or the qualities for choosing qualities! In other words, the paradox of freedom of will is triggered at the moment of creation. Did God ask us whether to give us freedom of will and subject us to a test? If yes, then how could we have the freedom to choose or reject freedom, if we did not have it in the first place? If no, then, how can we have freedom of will, while we were forced to have it in the first place? Though believing that we humans have freedom of will is one of the paradoxes most difficult to digest, I acknowledge it because of the proven book (18:29; 57:22). God, as a demonstration of His creative powers, chose to test the results of creating a being with the ability to freely choose its own destiny (18:29; 6:110; 13:11). God downloaded His revelation/information/logic (ruh) to the prototypical human that would provide him with innate rules of reasoning to distinguish falsehood from truth, bad from good (15:29; 32:9; 38:72;). Messengers and books containing ruh were only a bonus mercy, mere reminders of the facts that could be discovered by reason (2:37-38; 10:57; 11:17; 16:89; 21:107; 29:51; 16:2; 36:69; 37:87; 39:21; 42:52; 58:22). After the two human prototypes failed the first test (2:11-27), God created life and death on this planet to give another chance, to reform ourselves, this time subjecting billions of individuals inheriting and operating the same basic program to the same test (67:2). After letting the program run for a period, an individual is deemed accountable to God (46:15). God decided to punish those who freely choose a path contradictory to its original program as they corrupt it through false ideas and actions (2:57; 4:107; 6:12,20,26,110; 7:9,30,53,177; 59:19). The programs that are infected with viruses will experience a regretful stage in a quarantine called Hell (Hell and Paradise are allegories: 13:35; 17:60; 37:62-64; 7:44-50). In this stage the corrupt programs and their chief infector (Satan) will be penalized (7:11-27; 38:71-88), and then they will altogether be annihilated there (87:13). The only virus that will not be healed on the day of Judgment is the virus that creates a schizophrenic personality, a personality that submits itself to others besides God, a personality that does not free itself from false gods thereby alienating itself from its origin, that is God (4:48,116).

Edip-Layth - End Note 3 (57:25)

This chapter, which mentions the qualities of iron provides some interesting information regarding the physical structure of the element, which in the 1980's led me to write a booklet on it. Since it is the only chapter elaborating on the benefits and harms of iron, the chapter is called Sura al-Hadid, that is, Chapter Iron. We know that during the era of Quranic revelation, Arabs were not using the so-called Arabic numerals. They adopted those numerals about two centuries after Muhammad. During the time of Muhammad, Arabs were using their Alphabet letters as numbers. The 28 letters of the Arabic alphabet then was arranged in a different order that started with the letters ABJD, thus known as Abjad, or Gematria. Since Arabic and Hebrew are closely related languages, their numerical system too resembled each other. Each letter corresponded to a number, such as A for 1, B for 2, J for 3, D for 4. When it reached 10, the corresponding numerical values would continue as multiples of tens and when reaching 100, they would continue as multiples of hundred ending with 1000. Archeological evidence shows that then they were distinguishing letters from numbers by using different color ink or simply by putting a line over the letter, resembling the Roman numerals. However, a literary text might use letters/numbers for multiple purposes; that is for both their semantic or lexicon function and at the same time for their numerical value. Such a multi-use requires an extreme command and knowledge of language and the author is limited by the language. When Arabs abandoned the Abjad system, it was still used by poets and charlatan healers who wished to take advantage of an antiquated numerical system that became a curiosity for the gullible. Poets wrote verses about events or epithets for important figures, with the date of the event or the death embedded in the numerical values of the letters of a word or a phrase in their verses. The usage of the Abjad in the Quran is extensive, impressive and prophetic (For another example see 74:1-2). When we add up the numerical values of letters comprising the word HaDYD (iron), it gives the atomic number of any iron element: $8+4+10+4=26$. If we add up the numerical values of the letters comprising the word AL-HaDYD (the iron, or a particular version of iron), it gives the atomic weight of a particular isotope of the iron element: $1+30+8+4+10+4=57$. Of course, this interesting coincidence has nothing to do with the Quran, since the word HaDYD already existed in the language of common people, including the opponents of the Quran. However, when we study the details of this chapter we will learn that the author of the book was aware of the unique relationship between this word, its numerical values, and the related physical or chemical properties. This chapter is listed as the 57th chapter of the Quran, corresponding to the numerical value of its popular name, and at the same time corresponding to the atomic weight of a particular isotope of iron. Iron has five isotopes, with the atomic number of 54, 55, 56, 57, and 58, containing 29, 30, 31, and 32 neutrons, respectively. We also observe that the only verse mentioning the physical properties of iron is listed as the 26th verse, including the unnumbered verse, Bismillah, in the beginning of chapter. (Bismillah, as the first and the most repeated verse of the Quran has a unique role in the mathematical structure of the Quran). The chapter contains 29 numbered verses and 30 verses, when you include Bismillah; each number giving us the number of neutrons of different isotopes of iron. Iron with 30 neutrons has the most stable nucleus possible, and thus cannot be subjected to fission or fusion. Formation of iron marks the formation of planets and death of stars. Iron with 31 neutrons has a nuclear spin and is used in industry. The word God occurs 32 times in the chapter, two of them in the verse mentioning iron. Thus, the verse about the iron contains the 26th occurrence of the word God, with or without including the unnumbered Bismillah. The verb "we sent down" is interesting, since it describes the formation of planets.

Edip-Layth - End Note 4 (57:27)

According to a law attributed to Moses, eunuchs were not respected. "No one who has been emasculated by crushing or cutting may enter the assembly of the Lord" (Deuteronomy 23:1). However, Christians who later fabricated hadith attributing them to Jesus, turned castration or hermitic life into a righteous act: "Jesus replied, 'Moses permitted you to divorce your wives because your hearts were hard. But it was not this way from the beginning. I tell you that anyone who divorces his wife, except for marital unfaithfulness, and marries another woman commits adultery.' The disciples said to him, 'If this is the situation between a husband and wife, it is better not to marry.' Jesus replied, 'Not everyone can accept this word, but only those to whom it has been given. For some are eunuchs because they were born that way; others were made that way by men; and others have renounced marriage--because of the kingdom of heaven. The one who can accept this should accept it'" (Matthew 19:8-12). "These are they which were not defiled with women; for they are virgins" (Revelation 14:4). St. Paul, the voice behind the Gospels of the Nicene Conference, praised hermitic life: "Now for the matters you wrote about: It is good for a man not to marry" (1 Corinthians 7:1). Today, only the Catholic Church and some small sects are struggling to keep this innovation alive. However, as the Quran states, they do not follow their own fabricated practice of celibacy. Worse, their churches have become notorious for pedophilia and child abuse, and many rich churches have recently declared bankruptcy because of a series of litigations by abused children. The unnatural religious innovation in the name of God, led many priests to engage in child abuse and sodomy, perhaps attracting homosexuals to the ranks of priesthood for various reasons. Some religious men with homosexual tendencies who thought celibacy to be a cure for their desires ended up getting more opportunity to spend time with altar boys in their churches. Perhaps some homosexuals picked the profession just to indulge in their perverted act behind holy curtains. In 2004, the Conference of Catholic Bishops found 11,000 cases of sexual abuse by about 4,000 priests and deacons since 1950. The real numbers are most likely much higher. The sex-abuse lawsuits cost the Church billions of dollars in compensation, leading some dioceses to financial bankruptcy. The moral bankruptcy and perversion, however, was going on for centuries and was kept a "holy secret" by the powerful and secretive Church. It is only in the last decades that children have more of a voice, and the Church's financial and social power to keep the evil deeds of its priests as secrets behind the confession session is weakening. The Catholic Church, which is also having problems in recruiting priests, is in a dilemma. If they adhere to their centuries-old celebrated rule, then they will continue suffering from the perverted behavior of priests and a shortage of new recruits. If they amend their rules and abandon the practice, then their credibility and claim of infallibility will get hurt, again. If history is a guide, the Church will resist until reality will force them to abandon it. They will always find a way to justify their blunder to their faithful, who consider reason and religion to be like ice and fire, with their eternally "infallible" teachings of their Popes! The popes who not only stole the power of forgiveness, infallibility, the keys of heaven from God, but also stole the Biblical title of God, "holy father." According to the Quran, the Pope is no different than Pharaoh, since he is claiming divine powers. According to the Quran, Catholics are mentally and spiritually enslaved by their Popes. Isn't it time to accept the truth so that truth will set us all free? The Quran encourages man and woman to marry. Sex, as long as it is done within the limit of God's law, is considered one of God's great blessings. See 30:21. Also see 3:71; 4:161; 9:24; 2:42; 2:188.

Rashad Khalifa - The Final Testament

Rashad Khalifa - End Note 2 (57:22)

We are absolutely free to side with God, or with Satan. God happens to know precisely what kind of decision each of us will make. The video tape of your life, from birth to death, is already recorded. See Appendix 14.

Best viewed using your own brain

Tested on 1024x768 resolution with  FIREFOX 2

Kitabun Marqum v0.6.7 - Kitabun Marqum - Quran Research Platform by QuraniX Team Copyright © 2002-2011 All rights reserved.
Copyrights of all translations belong to their respective authors.

49:6 O you who believe, if a wicked person brings any news to you, you shall first investigate, lest you commit injustice towards some people, out of ignorance, then become sorry and remorseful for what you have done.

Rashad Khalifa (The Final Testament)

 Translations ▼

 Chapter/Verse ▼

 Refresh

 Search

<< Prev 58:1-22 Next >>

Eidip-Layth	In the name of God, the Gracious, the Compassionate. 58:1 God has heard the woman who argues with you regarding her husband, and she complains to God. God hears the argument between you. God is Hearer, Seer. ¹
The Monotheist Group	In the name of God, the Almighty, the Merciful. 58:1 God has heard the woman who has argued with you regarding her husband, and she complained to God. And God hears the argument between you. God is Hearer, Seer.
Muhammad Asad	In the name of God, The Most Gracious, The Dispenser of Grace: 58:1 GOD has indeed heard the words of her who pleads with thee concerning her husband, and complains Unto God. ¹ And God does hear what you both have to say: ² verily, God is all-hearing, all-seeing.
Rashad Khalifa	In the name of GOD, Most Gracious, Most Merciful. 58:1 GOD has heard the woman who debated with you about her husband, and complained to GOD. GOD heard everything the two of you discussed. GOD is Hearer, Seer.
Shabbir Ahmed	BISMILLAH-IR-RAHMAN-IR-RAHEEM With the Glorious Name of God, the Ultimate Source of Instant Beneficence and Eternal mercy Who encompasses the entire Universe, nourishing and taking care of all things for what they are meant to be; just as a mother's womb nourishes the embryo to completion without any returns. 58:1 God has heard her who pleads with you (O Prophet!) concerning her husband, and complains to God. And God has heard your mutual dialogue. Certainly, God is Hearer, Seer.
Transliteration	Bismi Allāhi alRrahmani alRrahēemi 58:1 Qad samiAAa All ahu qawla allatee tuj adilukafee zawjih a watashtakee il a Allāhi waAllahuyasmaAAu tahawurakuma inna Allaha sameeAAunbaseerun

A

58:1 قد سمع الله قول التي تجدلك في زوجها وتشتكى الى الله والله يسمع تحاوركما ان الله سميع بصير

Edip-Layth

58:2 Those among you who estrange their wives by saying to them: "You are as my mother." They can never be as their mothers, for their mothers are the women who gave birth to them. Indeed, they are uttering what is strange and a falsehood. God is Pardoner, Forgiver.

The Monotheist Group

58:2 Those among you who estrange their wives by saying to them: "You are as my mother." They can never be as their mothers, for their mothers are the women who gave birth to them. Indeed, they are uttering what is strange and a falsehood. And God is Pardoner, Forgiver.

Muhammad Asad

58:2 As for those of you who [henceforth] separate themselves from their wives by saying, Thou art as unlawful to me as my mother", ³ [let them bear in mind that] they can never be [as] their mothers: none are their mothers save those who gave them birth: and so, behold, they but utter a saying that runs counter to reason,⁴ and is [therefore] false. But, behold, God is indeed an absolver of sins, much-forgiving:

Rashad Khalifa

58:2 Those among you who estrange their wives (by declaring them as forbidden in sex) as their mothers know full well that they are not their mothers. Their mothers are the women who gave birth to them. Indeed, they are committing a blasphemy and a falsehood. GOD is Pardoner, Forgiver.

Shabbir Ahmed

58:2 Those of you who 'divorce' their wives by calling them their mothers, they, by no means, become their mothers. Their mothers are only those who gave birth to them. And so they only utter what is contrary to reason, and thus, false. God is Absolver of faults, Forgiving. ¹

Transliteration

58:2 Allatheena yu thahiroonaminkum min nis a-ihim m a hunna ommah atihim inommahatuhum ill a all a-ee waladnahumwa-innahum layaqooloona munkaran mina alqawli wazooran wa-innaAllaha laAAafuwwun ghafoorun

A

58:2 الذين يظهرون منكم من نسائهم ما هن امهتهم ان امهتهم الا الى ولدنهم وانهم ليقولون منكرا من القول وزورا وان الله لعفو غفور

Edip-Layth

58:3 Those who had estranged their wives in this manner, then they again repeat it, they shall free a slave before they have sexual contact between them. This is to enlighten you. God is well aware of everything you do.²

The Monotheist Group

58:3 Those who had estranged their wives in this manner, then they do again repeat it, they shall free a slave before they have sexual contact between them. This is to enlighten you. God is well aware of everything you do.

Muhammad Asad

58:3 hence, as for those who would separate themselves from their wives by saying, Thou art as unlawful to me as my mother", and thereafter would go back on what they have said, [their atonement] shall be the freeing of a human being from bondage⁵ before the couple may touch one another again: this you are [hereby] exhorted to do - for God is fully aware of all that you do.⁶

Rashad Khalifa

58:3 Those who estrange their wives in this manner, then reconcile thereafter, shall atone by freeing a slave before resuming their sexual relations. This is to enlighten you. GOD is Cognizant of everything you do.

Shabbir Ahmed	58:3 So, those of you who have made senseless declarations about their wives, estranged them, and then wish to go back on their utterance -they should free a human being from bondage before the couple may have intimate relations with each other. This you are admonished to perform. God is aware of all you do. ²
Transliteration	58:3 Wa a llat h een a yu th ahiroonamin nis a -ihim thumma yaAAoodoona lim a qaloofata h reeru raqabatin min qabli an yatam assa th alikumtooAAa th oona bihi waAll ah u bim a taAAamaloo n a khabeer un
A	58:3 والذين يظهرون من نسائهم ثم يعودون لما قالوا فتحرير رقبة من قبل ان يتماسا ذلكم توعظون به والله بما تعملون خبير
Edip-Layth	58:4 If he cannot find anyone, then he shall fast two consecutive months before any sexual contact between them. If he cannot, then he shall feed sixty poor people. That is so you would acknowledge God and His messenger. These are the limits set by God. Those who do not appreciate have incurred a painful retribution. ³
The Monotheist Group	58:4 If he cannot find any, then he shall fast two consecutive months before any sexual contact between them. If he cannot, then he shall feed sixty poor people. That is so you would believe in God and His messenger. And these are the limits set by God. The disbelievers have incurred a painful retribution.
Muhammad Asad	58:4 However, he who does not have the where withal shall fast [instead] for two consecutive months ⁷ before the couple may touch one another again; and he who is unable to do it shall feed sixty needy ones: ⁸ this, so that you might prove your faith in God and His Apostle. ⁹ Now these are the bounds set by God; and grievous suffering [in the life to come] awaits all who deny the truth.
Rashad Khalifa	58:4 If you cannot find a slave to free, you shall fast two consecutive months before resuming sexual relations. If you cannot fast, then you shall feed sixty poor people. You shall believe in GOD and His messenger. These are GOD's laws. The disbelievers have incurred a painful retribution.
Shabbir Ahmed	58:4 However, he who does not have the means thereof, let him observe daytime Abstinence (from food, drink and sex as in the month of Ramadhan) for two consecutive months before the couple may intimately touch each other. And if he is unable to do that either, he should arrange the feeding of sixty needy ones. This is so that you might be true to your faith in God and His messenger. These are the bounds ordained by God. For the deniers is a painful doom. ³
Transliteration	58:4 Faman lam yajid fa siya mushahrayni mutat abi AAayni min qabli an yatam assa faman lam yasta ti AA fa- it AA amu sitteenamiskeenan th alika litu/minoo biAll ah iwarasoolihi watilka h udoodu All ah i walilk a fireenaAAa th abun aleem un
A	58:4 فمن لم يجد فصيام شهرين متتابعين من قبل ان يتماسا فمن لم يستطع فاطعام ستين مسكينا ذلك لتؤمنوا بالله ورسوله وتلك حدود الله للكافرين عذاب اليم
Edip-Layth	58:5 Those who oppose God and His messenger will be disgraced, like their previous counterparts were disgraced. We have sent down clear proofs, and the ingrates have incurred a shameful retribution.
The Monotheist Group	58:5 Those who oppose God and His messenger will be disgraced, like their previous counterparts were disgraced. We have sent down clear proofs, and the rejecters have incurred a shameful retribution.
Muhammad Asad	58:5 Verily, those who contend against God and His Apostle shall be brought low even as those [evildoers] who lived before them were brought low after We had bestowed [on them] clear messages from on high. ¹⁰ And [so,] for those who deny the truth there will be shameful suffering in store

Rashad Khalifa	58:5 Surely, those who fight GOD and His messenger are committed to defeat, like their previous counterparts were committed to defeat. We have sent down clear proofs, and the rejectors have incurred a shameful retribution.
Shabbir Ahmed	58:5 Surely, those who oppose God and His messenger will be disgraced as were disgraced those before their times. Thus, We have sent down clear messages, and the rejectors will have a humiliating doom.
Transliteration	58:5 Inna alla the ena yu h addoona All a hawarasoolahu kubitoo kam a kubita alla the ena minqablihim waqad anzalna a yatin bayyina t inwalilka f ireena AAa th abun muheen un
A	58:5 ان الذين يحادون الله ورسوله كتبوا كما كبت الذين من قبلهم وقد انزلنا آيات بينت وللكافرين عذاب مهين
Edip-Layth	58:6 The day when God resurrects them all, then He informs them of what they had done. God has recorded it, while they have forgotten it. God witnesses all things.
The Monotheist Group	58:6 The Day when God resurrects them all, then He informs them of what they had done. God has recorded it, while they have forgotten it. God witnesses all things.
Muhammad Asad	58:6 on the Day when God will raise them all from the dead and will make them truly understand all that they did [in life]: God will have taken [all of] it into account, even though they [themselves] may have forgotten it - for God is witness unto everything.
Rashad Khalifa	58:6 The day will come when GOD will resurrect them all, then inform them of everything they had done. GOD has recorded everything, while they have forgotten it. GOD witnesses all things.
Shabbir Ahmed	58:6 On the Day when God will raise all of them together, He will inform them of what they truly accomplished. God keeps a meticulous record even though they may have forgotten it. God is Witness over all things.
Transliteration	58:6 Yawma yabAAathuhumu All a hu jameeAAan f ayunabbi-ohum bim a AAamiloo a h s a hu All a huwanasoo h u waAll a hu AA a la kulli shay-inshaheed un
A	58:6 يوم يبعثهم الله جميعا فينبئهم بما عملوا احصه الله ونسوه والله على كل شيء شهيد
Edip-Layth	God is Omnipresent 58:7 Do you not realize that God knows everything in the heavens and everything on earth? No three people can meet secretly without Him being their fourth, nor five without Him being the sixth, nor less than that, nor more, without Him being there with them wherever they may be. Then, on the day of resurrection, He will inform them of everything they had done. God is fully aware of all things.
The Monotheist Group	58:7 Do you not realize that God knows everything in the heavens and everything on Earth? No three people can meet secretly without Him being their fourth, nor five without Him being the sixth, nor less than that, nor more, without Him being there with them wherever they may be. Then, on the Day of Resurrection, He will inform them of everything they had done. God is fully aware of all things.
	58:7 ART THOU NOT aware that God knows all that is in the heavens and all that is on earth? Never can there be a secret confabulation between three persons

Muhammad Asad	without His being the fourth of them, nor between five without His being the sixth of them; and neither between less than that, or more, without His being with them wherever they may be. But in the end, on Resurrection Day, He will make them truly understand what they did: for, verily, God has full knowledge of everything.
Rashad Khalifa	God is With You Now 58:7 Do you not realize that GOD knows everything in the heavens and everything on earth? No three people can conspire secretly without Him being their fourth, nor five without Him being the sixth, nor less than that, nor more, without Him being there with them wherever they may be. Then, on the Day of Resurrection, He will inform them of everything they had done. GOD is fully aware of all things.
Shabbir Ahmed	58:7 Do you not realize that God knows all that is in the heavens and all that is on earth. There is no secret meeting of three but He is their fourth, nor of five but He is their sixth, nor of less than that or more but He is with them wherever they may be. And ultimately, on the Day of Resurrection, He will make them understand what they really accomplished. God is Knower of all things and events.
Transliteration	58:7 Alam tara anna All aha yaAAalamu m afee a lssamawati wam a fee al-ar dima yakoonu min najw a thal athatin ill ahuwa r abiAAuhum wal a khamsatin ill a huwa sadisuhumwala adn a min thalika wal a aktharail a huwa maAAahum ayna m a kanoo thummayunabbi-ohum bima AAamiloo yawma alqiy a mati innaAllaha bikulli shay-in AAaleemun
A	58:7 ألم تر ان الله يعلم ما فى السموت وما فى الارض ما يكون من نجوى ثلاثة الا هو رابعهم ولا خمسة الا هو سادسهم ولا ادنى من ذلك ولا اكثر الا هو معهم اين ما كانوا ثم ينبئهم بما عملوا يوم القيمة ان الله بكل شىء عليم
Edip-Layth	58:8 Have you noted those who were forbidden from holding meetings in secret, but then insist on it? They meet secretly to commit sin, transgression, and disobedience of the messenger. When they come to you, they greet you with a greeting other than what God greets you with. They say inside themselves: "Why does God not punish us for our utterances?" Hell will be sufficient for them, wherein they burn; what a miserable destiny.
The Monotheist Group	58:8 Have you noted those who were enjoined from holding meetings in secret, but then they insist on it? They meet secretly to commit sin, transgression, and disobedience of the messenger. When they come to you, they greet you with a greeting other than that which God greets you with. They say inside themselves: "Why does God not punish us for our utterances?" Hell will be sufficient for them, wherein they burn; what a miserable destiny.
Muhammad Asad	58:8 Art thou not aware of such as have been forbidden [to intrigue through] secret confabulations, ¹¹ and yet [always] revert to that which they have been forbidden, and conspire with one another with a view to sinful doings, and aggressive conduct, and disobedience to the Apostle? ¹² Now whenever such [people] approach thee, [O Muhammad,] ¹³ they salute thee with a greeting which God has never countenanced; ¹⁴ and they say to themselves, Why does not God chastise us for what we are saying?" ¹⁵ Hell shall be their allotted portion: they shall [indeed] enter it - and how vile a journey's end!
Rashad Khalifa	Do Not Conspire 58:8 Have you noted those who were enjoined from conspiring secretly, then insist on conspiring? They conspire to commit sin, transgression, and disobedience of the messenger. When they come to you, they greet you with a greeting other than that decreed by GOD. They say inside themselves, "GOD will not punish us for our utterances." Their only requital is Gehenna, wherein they burn; what a miserable destiny.

Shabbir Ahmed	58:8 Have you not noticed those who were forbidden to hold secret meetings, and yet revert to what they were forbidden? And they hold secret meetings for hampering progress, creating dissension in the society, and disobeying the messenger. And when they come to you (O Messenger!), they do not greet you in the way that God greets you. And they say to themselves, "Why does not God punish us for what we say?" Sufficient for them is Hell wherein they will burn. And how miserable is that destination! ⁴
Transliteration	58:8 Alam tara il a alla the ena nuhooAAani a Innaj wa thumma yaAAoodoona lim a nuhooAAanhu wayatan a jawna bi al-ithmi wa aAAud wa niwamaAAsiyati a Irrasooli wa-ith a j a ookah ay yawka bim a lam yu h ayyika bihi All a huwayaqooloona fee anfusihi lawl a yuAAa th hibunaAll ah u bim a naqoolu h asbuhum jahannamu ya sl awnah a fabi/sa alma s eeru
A	58:8 ألم تر الى الذين نهوا عن النجوى ثم يعودون لما نهوا عنه ويتتجون بالاثم والعدون ومعصيت الرسول واذا جاءوك حيوك بما لم يحيك به الله ويقولون فى انفسهم لولا يعذبنا الله بما نقول حسبهم جهنم يصلونها فبئس المصير
Edip-Layth	58:9 O you who acknowledge, if you must meet secretly, then you shall not meet to commit sin, transgression, and to disobey the messenger. You shall meet to work righteousness and piety. Be aware of God, before whom you will be summoned.
The Monotheist Group	58:9 O you who believe, if you must meet secretly, then you shall not meet to commit sin, transgression, and to disobey the messenger. You shall meet to work righteousness and piety. And be aware of God, before whom you will be summoned.
Muhammad Asad	58:9 [Hence,] O you who have attained to faith, when you do hold secret confabulations, do not conspire with one another with a view to sinful doings, and aggressive conduct, and disobedience to the Apostle, ¹⁶ but [rather] hold counsel in the cause of virtue and God-consciousness: and [always] remain conscious of God, unto whom you all shall be gathered.
Rashad Khalifa	58:9 O you who believe, if you have to confer secretly, you shall not confer to commit sin, transgression, and to disobey the messenger. You shall confer to work righteousness and piety. You shall reverence GOD, before whom you will be summoned.
Shabbir Ahmed	58:9 O You who have chosen to be graced with belief! If you have to confer secretly, never do it for hampering progress, dissension or disobedience of the messenger. But confer to expand opportunities in the society and consolidate the gains you have made. And remain mindful of God to Whom you all shall be gathered. ⁵
Transliteration	58:9 Ya ayyuh a alla the ena a manooi th a tan a jaytum fal a tatan a jaw bi al-ithmiwa a AAud wa ni wamaAA si yati a Irrasooliwa a tan a jaw bi albirri wa al tt aqwa wa tt aqooAll ah a alla th ee ilayhi tu h sharoona
A	58:9 ياايها الذين ءامنوا اذا تتجيتم فلا تتنجوا بالاثم والعدون ومعصيت الرسول وتنجوا بالبر والتقوى واتقوا الله الذى اليه تحشرون
Edip-Layth	58:10 Secret meetings are from the devil, to cause grief to those who acknowledged. However, he cannot harm them except by God's will. In God those who acknowledge shall put their trust.

The Monotheist Group	58:10 Secret meetings are from the devil, to cause grief to those who believed. However, he cannot harm them except if God wills. In God the believers shall put their trust.
Muhammad Asad	58:10 [All other kinds of] secret confabulations are but of Satan's doing, so that he might cause grief to those who have attained to faith; yet he cannot harm them in the least, unless it be by God's leave: 17 in God, then, let the believers place their trust!
Rashad Khalifa	58:10 Secret conspiracy is the devil's idea, through which he seeks to hurt those who believed. However, he cannot hurt them against GOD's will. In GOD the believers shall trust.
Shabbir Ahmed	58:10 Secret counsels are inspired by Satan (the selfish desires), in order to cause grief to the believers. But he cannot harm them in the least contrary to the laws of God. So, in God should the believers put their trust. 6
Transliteration	58:10 Innama a Innajwa mina a lshshaytaniliyahzuna alla theena amanoo walaysa bidarrihimshay-an illa bi-ithni Allahi waAAalaAllahi falyatawakkali almu/minoon a
A	58:10 انما النجوى من الشيطان ليحزن الذين ءامنوا وليس بضارهم شيئا الا بانئذ الله وعلى الله فليتوكل المؤمنون
During Conventions, Assemblies, Conferences
Edip-Layth	58:11 O you who acknowledge, if you are told to make room in the councils, then you shall make room. God will then make room for you. If you are asked to step down, then step down. God will raise those among you who acknowledge, and those who acquire knowledge to higher ranks. God is fully aware of everything you do.
The Monotheist Group	58:11 O you who believe, if you are told to make room in the assemblies, then you shall make room. God will then make room for you. And if you are told to leave, then leave. God will raise those among you who believe, and those who acquire knowledge to higher ranks. God is fully aware of everything you do.
Muhammad Asad	58:11 O YOU who have attained to faith! When you are told, "Make room for one another in your collective life", do make room: 18 [and in return,] God will make room for you [in His grace]. 19 And whenever you are told, "Rise up [for a good deed]", do rise up; 20 [and] God will exalt by [many] degrees those of you who have attained to faith and, [above all,] such as have been vouchsafed [true] knowledge: for God is fully aware of all that you do.
Rashad Khalifa	58:11 O you who believe, if you are told, "Please make room," you shall make room for each other to sit. GOD will then make room for you. If you are asked to get up and move, get up and move. GOD raises those among you who believe, and those who acquire knowledge to higher ranks. GOD is fully Cognizant of everything you do.
Shabbir Ahmed	58:11 O You who have chosen to be graced with belief! When you are told to make room in the assemblies (and accommodate one another in your society), do make room. God will open up His resources for you. And when you are told to rise up, do rise up (to the occasion). God will exalt to high ranks those of you who choose to believe and who attain knowledge. God is Aware of all you do. 7
Transliteration	58:11 Ya ayyuh a alla theena amanooitha qeela lakum tafassa hoo fee almajalisifaifsa hoo yafsa hi All ahu lakum wa-i thaqeela onshuzoo fa onshuzoo yarfaAAi Allahu allatheena amanoo minkum wa allatheena ootoo alAAilmadaraj atin

	waAllahu bima taAAmaloonakhabeerun
A	58:11 يايها الذين ءامنوا اذا قيل لكم تفسحوا فى المجلس فافسحوا يفسح الله لكم واذا قيل انشزوا فانشزوا يرفع الله الذين ءامنوا منكم والذين اوتوا العلم درجت والله بما تعملون خبير
Edip-Layth	Lobbying 58:12 O you who acknowledge, if you wish to hold a private meeting with the messenger, you shall offer a charity before you do so. This is better for you, and purer. If you cannot afford it, then God is Forgiver, Compassionate. ⁴
The Monotheist Group	58:12 O you who believe, if you wish to hold a private meeting with the messenger, you shall offer a charity before you do so. This is better for you, and purer. If you cannot do so, then God is Forgiver, Merciful.
Muhammad Asad	58:12 O YOU who have attained to faith! Whenever you [intend to] consult the Apostle, offer up something in charity on the occasion of your consultation: ²¹ this will be for your own good, and more conducive to your [inner] purity. Yet if you are unable to do so, ²² [know that,] verily, God is much-forgiving, a dispenser of grace.
Rashad Khalifa	58:12 O you who believe, when you wish to confer with the messenger, you shall offer a charity (to the poor) before you do so. This is better for you, and purer. If you cannot afford it, then GOD is Forgiver, Most Merciful.
Shabbir Ahmed	58:12 O You who have chosen to be graced with belief! Whenever you wish to confer with the messenger by yourself, give something in charity to the needy or do an act of benevolence. That will be for your own good and erase the imprints of your faults on your own 'self'. But if you have no opportunity, then, remember, God is Forgiving, Merciful. ⁸
Transliteration	58:12 Ya ayyuh a alla theena amanooitha n ajaytumu a Irrasoola faqaddimoo baynayaday najw akum sadaqatan thalika khayrunlakum waa tharu fa-in lam tajidoo fa-inna Allahaghafoorun raheemun
A	58:12 يايها الذين ءامنوا اذا نجيتم الرسول فقدموا بين يدي نجوبكم صدقة ذلك خير لكم واطهر فان لم تجدوا فان الله غفور رحيم
Edip-Layth	58:13 Are you reluctant to offer a charity before such a meeting? If you do not do it; and God had forgiven you; then you shall hold the contact prayer, contribute towards betterment, and obey God and His messenger. God is fully Aware of everything you do.
The Monotheist Group	58:13 Are you reluctant to offer a charity before such meeting? If you cannot do such, and God has forgiven you; then you shall uphold the communion, and contribute towards betterment, and obey God and His messenger. God is fully Aware of everything you do.
Muhammad Asad	58:13 Do you, perchance, fear lest [you may be sinning if] you cannot offer up anything in charity on the occasion of your consultation [with the Apostle]? But if you fail to do it [for lack of opportunity], and God turns unto you in His mercy, remain but constant in prayer and render [no more than] the purifying dues, ²⁴ and [thus] pay heed unto God and His Apostle: for God is fully aware of all that you do.
Rashad Khalifa	58:13 If you failed to give to charity before conferring, then repented thereafter, GOD accepts your repentance. You shall observe the contact prayers (Salat), give the obligatory charity (Zakat), and obey GOD and His messenger. GOD is fully Cognizant of everything you do.

Shabbir Ahmed	58:13 Is it that you are afraid of a transgression if you are not able to do such an act of kindness before you confer with the messenger? Yet if you fail to find an opportunity to do it, God has already accepted your repentance. So, stay focused on establishing Salaat, the Divine System, and setting up the Economic Order of Zakaat. And obey God and His messenger. God is Aware of all you do. ⁹
Transliteration	58:13 Aashfaqtum an tuqaddimoo bayna yaday najw akumsadaqatin fa-i th lam tafAAaloo wat abaAllahu AAalaykum faaqeemoo a lssalatawaaatoo a lzzakata waaiteeAAoo Allahawarasoolahu waAllahu khabeerun bimataAAamaloona
A	58:13 ءاشفقتم ان تقدموا بين يدي نجوكم صدقت فاذ لم تفعلوا وتاب الله عليكم فاقيموا الصلوة وءاتوا الزكوة واطيعوا الله ورسوله والله خبير بما تعملون
Edip-Layth	58:14 Have you noted those who befriended people with whom God is angry? They are now neither from you nor from them. They deliberately swear to lies while they know!
The Monotheist Group	58:14 Have you noted those who befriended people with whom God is angry? They are now neither from you nor from them. And they deliberately swear to lies while they know!
Muhammad Asad	58:14 ART THOU NOT aware of those who would be friends with people whom God has condemned? ²⁵ They are neither of you [O believers] nor of those [who utterly reject the truth]: and so they swear to a falsehood the while they know [it to be false].
Rashad Khalifa	Choose Your Friends 58:14 Have you noted those who befriended people with whom GOD is angry? They neither belong with you, nor with them. They deliberately swear lies!
Shabbir Ahmed	58:14 Have you not seen those who befriend a people whom God disapproves? They are neither of you nor of them, and they knowingly swear on falsehood.
Transliteration	58:14 Alam tara il a alla theenatawallaw qawman gha diba All ahu AAalayhim mahum minkum wala minhum waya hlifoona AAalalkathibi wahum yaAAalamoona
A	58:14 ألم تر الى الذين تولوا قوما غضب الله عليهم ما هم منكم ولا منهم ويحلفون على الكذب وهم يعلمون
Edip-Layth	58:15 God has prepared for them a severe retribution. Miserable indeed is what they used to do.
The Monotheist Group	58:15 God has prepared for them a severe retribution. Miserable indeed is what they used to do.
Muhammad Asad	58:15 God has readied for them suffering severe [in the life to come]. Behold, evil indeed is what they are wont to do:
Rashad Khalifa	58:15 GOD has prepared for them a severe retribution. Miserable indeed is what they used to do.
Shabbir Ahmed	58:15 God has readied for them a severe suffering. For their behavior is certainly very disruptive.
Transliteration	58:15 aAAadda All ahu lahum AAa thabanshadeedan innahum s aa m a k anoo yaAAamaloona
A	58:15 اعد الله لهم عذابا شديدا انهم ساء ما كانوا يعملون
	58:16 They used their treaties/oaths as a means of repelling from the path of

Edip-Layth	God. Consequently, they have incurred a shameful retribution.
The Monotheist Group	58:16 They used their oaths as a means of repelling from the path of God. Consequently, they have incurred a shameful retribution.
Muhammad Asad	58:16 they have made their oaths a cover [for their falseness], and thus they turn others away from the path of God: ²⁶ hence, shameful suffering awaits them.
Rashad Khalifa	58:16 They used their oaths as a means of repelling from the path of GOD. Consequently, they have incurred a shameful retribution.
Shabbir Ahmed	58:16 They use their oaths as cover and bar others from the path of God. For them will be a humiliating doom.
Transliteration	58:16 Ittakhat ^{hoo} aym a nahum junnatanfa ^s addoo AAan sabeeli All a hi falahum AAath ^a bunmuheenun
A	58:16 اتخذوا ايمنهم جنة فصدوا عن سبيل الله فلهم عذاب مهين
Edip-Layth	58:17 Neither their money, nor their children will help them against God in the least. They have incurred the hellfire, in it they will abide.
The Monotheist Group	58:17 Neither their money, nor their children will help them against God in the least. They have incurred the Hellfire, in it they will abide.
Muhammad Asad	58:17 Neither their worldly possessions nor their offspring will be of the least avail to them against God: it is they who are destined for the fire, therein to abide!
Rashad Khalifa	58:17 Neither their money, nor their children will help them against GOD. They have incurred the hellfire, wherein they abide forever.
Shabbir Ahmed	58:17 Their wealth and their children and party will avail them not against God. It is those who are companions of the fire, therein to abide.
Transliteration	58:17 Lan tughniya AAanhum amw a luhum wal ^a awl ^a duhum mina All a hi shay-an ol ^a -ika as- h abua ^l nnari hum fee ^h a k halidoona
A	58:17 لن تغنى عنهم اموالهم ولا اولدهم من الله شيئا اولئك اصحاب النار هم فيها خالدون
Edip-Layth	58:18 The day will come when God resurrects them all. Then they will swear to Him, just as they swear to you, thinking that they actually are right! Indeed, they are the liars.
The Monotheist Group	58:18 The Day will come when God resurrects them all. Then they will swear to Him, just as they swear to you, thinking that they actually are right! Indeed, they are the liars.
Muhammad Asad	58:18 On the Day when God will raise them all from the dead, they will swear before Him as they [now] swear before you, thinking that they are on firm ground [in their assumptions]. ²⁷ Oh, verily, it is they, they who are the [greatest] liars! ²⁸
Rashad Khalifa	58:18 The Day will come when GOD resurrects them all. They will swear to Him then, just as they swear to you now, thinking that they really are right! Indeed, they are the real liars.
Shabbir Ahmed	58:18 On the Day, when God will raise them all together, they will swear to Him then as they swear to you now, and they fancy that they have some standing. Nay! Certainly, they are liars.

Transliteration	58:18 Yawma yabAAathuhumu All ahu jameeAAanfaya hlifoona lahu kam a ya hlifoona lakum waya hsaboonaannahum AAal a shay-in al a innahum humu alkathiboona
A	58:18 يوم يبعثهم الله جميعا فيحلفون له كما يحلفون لكم ويحسبون انهم على شيء الا انهم هم الكاذبون
Edip-Layth	The Party of Devil versus the Party of God 58:19 The devil has overtaken them, and has caused them to forget the remembrance of God. These are the party of the devil. Absolutely, the party of the devil are the losers.
The Monotheist Group	58:19 The devil has overtaken them, and has caused them to forget the remembrance of God. These are the party of the devil. Absolutely, the party of the devil are the losers.
Muhammad Asad	58:19 Satan has gained mastery over them, and has caused them to remain oblivious of the remembrance of God. Such as these are Satan's partisans: oh, verily, it is they, the partisans of Satan, who will truly be the losers!
Rashad Khalifa	58:19 The devil has possessed them, and has caused them to disregard GOD's message. These are the party of the devil. Absolutely, the party of the devil are the losers.
Shabbir Ahmed	58:19 Their selfish desires have overpowered them, and made them oblivious to God's reminder. Such as these are the party of the Satan. Oh, certainly, it is they, the Satan's party who are the ultimate losers.
Transliteration	58:19 Istahwatha AAalayhimu a Ishshaytanufaansahum thikra All ahi ol a-ika hizbualshshaytani ala inna hizba alshshaytanihumu alkhasiroona
A	58:19 استحوذ عليهم الشيطان فانسهم ذكر الله اولئك حزب الشيطان الا ان حزب الشيطان هم الخسرون
Edip-Layth	58:20 Surely, those who oppose God and His messenger, they will be with the lowliest.
The Monotheist Group	58:20 Surely, those who oppose God and His messenger, they will be with the lowliest.
Muhammad Asad	58:20 Verily, those who contend against God and His Apostle - it is they who [on Judgment Day] shall find themselves among the most abject.
Rashad Khalifa	58:20 Surely, those who oppose GOD and His messenger will be with the lowliest.
Shabbir Ahmed	58:20 Those who oppose God and His messenger, will be among the most humiliated ones.
Transliteration	58:20 Inna allatheena yuhaddoona Allahawarasoolahu ola-ika fee al-atthalleena
A	58:20 ان الذين يحدون الله ورسوله اولئك في الاذلين
Edip-Layth	58:21 God has decreed: "I and My messengers will be the victors." God is Powerful, Noble.
The Monotheist Group	58:21 God has decreed: "I and My messengers will be the victors." God is Powerful, Noble.
Muhammad Asad	58:21 [For] God has thus ordained: I shall most certainly prevail, I and My apostles!" Verily, God is powerful, almighty!

Rashad Khalifa	58:21 GOD has decreed: "I and My messengers will most assuredly win." GOD is Powerful, Almighty.
Shabbir Ahmed	58:21 For, God has decreed, "It is I and My messengers who must prevail." Behold! God is Strong, Almighty.
Transliteration	58:21 Kataba Allahu laaghlibanna anawarusulee inna Allaha qawiiyyun AAazeezun
A	58:21 كتب الله لاغلبن انا ورسلى ان الله قوى عزيز
Edip-Layth	58:22 You will not find any people who acknowledge God and the Last day befriending those who oppose God and His messenger, even if they were their parents, or their children, or their siblings, or their tribe. For these, He decrees trust into their hearts, and supports them with a Spirit from Him, and He admits them into paradises with rivers flowing beneath, wherein they will abide. God is pleased with them, and they are pleased with Him. These are the party of God. Most assuredly, the party of God are the winners.
The Monotheist Group	58:22 You will not find any people who believe in God and the Last Day leaning towards those who oppose God and His messenger, even if they were their parents, or their children, or their siblings, or their tribe. For these, He decrees faith into their hearts, and supports them with Spirit from Him, and He admits them into paradises with rivers flowing beneath, wherein they will abide. God is pleased with them, and they are pleased with Him. These are the party of God. Most assuredly, the party of God are the winners.
Muhammad Asad	58:22 Thou canst not find people who [truly] believe in God and the Last Day and [at the same time] love anyone who contends against God and His Apostle - even though they be their fathers, or their sons, or their brothers, or [others of] their kindred. ²⁹ [As for the true believers,] it is they in whose hearts He has inscribed faith, and whom He has strengthened with inspiration from Himself, ³⁰ and whom [in time] He will admit into gardens through which running waters flow, therein to abide. Well-pleased is God with them, and well-pleased are they with Him. They are God's partisans: oh, verily, it is they, the partisans of God, who shall attain to a happy state!
Rashad Khalifa	Run For Your Life 58:22 You will not find people who believe in GOD and the Last Day befriending those who oppose GOD and His messenger, even if they were their parents, or their children, or their siblings, or their tribe. For these, He decrees faith into their hearts, and supports them with inspiration from Him, and admits them into gardens with flowing streams wherein they abide forever. GOD is pleased with them, and they are pleased with Him. These are the party of GOD. Most assuredly, GOD's party are the winners.
Shabbir Ahmed	58:22 You will not find those who truly believe in God and the Last Day endear anyone who opposes God and His messenger, even though they be their fathers or their sons or their brothers or their tribe. God has inscribed conviction on their hearts, and has strengthened them with Energy from Himself. So, He will admit them into Gardens underneath which rivers flow. Well pleased is God with them, and well pleased are they with Him. They are the party of God. Oh, certainly, it is they, the party of God, who are truly successful.
Transliteration	58:22 La tajidu qawman yu/minoona bi Allahiwaalyawmi al- akhiri yuw addoona man haddaAllaha warasoolahu walaw k anoo abaaHumaw abn aahum aw ikhwanahum aw AAasheeratahum ol a-ikakataba fee quloobihimu al-eem ana waayyadahum biroo hinminhu wayudkhiluhum jann atin tajree min ta htihaal-anharu kh alideena feeha radiya AllahuAAanhum waradoo AAanhu ol a-ika hizbu Allahiala inna hizba Allahi humu almuflihooona

58:22 لا تجد قوما يؤمنون بالله واليوم الآخر يوادون من حاد الله ورسوله ولو كانوا ءاباءهم
او ابناءهم او اخونهم او عشيرتهم اولئك كتب في قلوبهم الاليمان وايدهم بروح منه ويدخلهم
جنت تجري من تحتها الانهر خالدين فيها رضى الله عنهم ورضوا عنه اولئك حزب الله الا ان
حزب الله هم المفلحون

<< Prev 58:1-22 Next >>

Return to top

End Notes

Edip-Layth - Quran: A Reformist Translation

Edip-Layth - End Note 1 (58:1)

This is the only chapter that contains the word Allah (God) in each verse.

Edip-Layth - End Note 2 (58:3)

The Quran abolished slavery. See 4:25; 90:1-20.

Edip-Layth - End Note 3 (58:4)

The beginning of the verse, "faman lam yajid" (literally: as for the one who does not find), clearly indicates that the slaves instructed to be freed in the previous verse are not expected to belong to muslims. Otherwise, an expression such as "if one does not possess" should have been used. Slavery is prohibited by the Quran as one of the greatest sins. See: 3:79; 4:3,25,92; 5:89; 8:67; 24:32-33; 58:3-4; 90:13; 2:286; 12:39-42; 79:24.

Edip-Layth - End Note 4 (58:12)

Muhammad was appointed by God as a messenger and was accepted by muslims, with their free will, as a messenger of God. Muhammad was also elected as a leader of a constitutional city-state government by a diverse community comprising of Christians, Jews, and Pagans, beside muslims. Muhammad is no longer alive, yet the rule applies to our leaders and governments. Democracies suffer greatly from the corrupting influence of lobbies that promote special interests, usually of the most powerful segments of the population. Financial contributions and favors provided by lobbies create a quid pro quo relationship between the lawmakers and the wealthy. Big governments allied with big corporations create one of the worst governments: the governments of the wealthy, by the wealthy and for the wealthy, which we are asked to avoid (59:7). Such governments may drag an entire nation to unjustified wars of aggression to benefit big corporations, especially the weapons industry and the contractors who profit from such adventures, adventures that usually cost the lower class in terms of blood and higher cost of living. Thus, this verse recommends those who wish to lobby to pay some charity to the needy before asking for a conference with their elected leaders. This financial contribution for public good, not the valet of the elected officials, is a reminder to the parties that their conference should not betray the publicly declared interest of the people.

Muhammad Asad - The Message Of Quran

Muhammad Asad - End Note 1 (58:1)

classical commentators, this is a reference to the case of Khawlah (or Khuwaylah) bint Thalabah, whose husband Aws ibn as-Samit divorced her by pronouncing the arbitrary pre-Islamic oath known as zihar (explained in note 3 on 33:4). When she pleaded before the Prophet against this divorce - which deprived her of all her marital rights and, at the same time, made it impossible for her to remarry - the iniquitous custom of zihar was abolished by the revelation of verses 2-4 of this surah. In view of the sequence, as well as of several Traditions to this effect, there is no doubt that the above verse alludes, in the first instance, to the divine condemnation of zihar. However the deliberately unspecified reference to "her who pleads concerning her husband" seems to point to all cases where a wife has reason to complain against her husband: that is to say, not merely to an appeal against an unjustified or cruel divorce, but also to a wife's demand for release from an unbearable marriage. Such dissolution of the marriage-tie at the wife's instance - termed khul - is fully sanctioned by the shari'ah on the basis of 2:229 and a number of extremely well-authenticated Traditions. (For a fuller discussion of this problem, see note 218 on the second paragraph of 2: 229.)

Muhammad Asad - End Note 2 (58:1)

Lit., "does hear the mutual contentions of both of you (tahawurakuma)", i.e., of husband and wife alike, embracing with His infinite wisdom and justice the innermost motivations of both. Alternatively - if the above verse is understood as referring specifically to the case of Khawlah - the second person indicated by the suffix kuma ("both of you") may relate to the Prophet, who, before the revelation of this surah, thought that a divorce through zihar was valid and, therefore, repeatedly told Khawlah, "Thou art now indeed unlawful to him" (Tabari). This opinion was subsequently - almost immediately - reversed by the divine prohibition of zihar expressed in verses 2 ff.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 3 (58:2)

For this explanatory rendering of the verb yuzahirun, see surah 33 note 3. My interpolation of the word "henceforth" is necessary in view of the fact that the custom of zihar - in its sense of a definitive act of divorce - had been abolished by verses 2-4 of the present surah.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 4 (58:2)

For this particular rendering of the term munkar, see surah 16 note 109.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 5 (58:3)

I.e., the freeing or purchasing the freedom of a slave or captive. In modern times, when slavery is more or less non-existent, the concept of tahrir raqabah may, I believe, be legitimately extended to the redeeming of a human being from the bondage of debt or of great poverty.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 6 (58:3)

Cf. 2:225 - "God will not take you to task for oaths which you may have uttered without thought, but will take you to task [only] for what your hearts have conceived [in earnest]".

Muhammad Asad - End Note 7 (58:4)

I.e., in the manner prescribed for fasting during the month of Ramadan (see 2:183-187). As regards the phrase "he who does not find the wherewithal (lam yajid)", it may indicate either a lack of financial means or the impossibility of finding anyone else who could be redeemed from factual or figurative bondage (see note 5 above). According to many Islamic scholars of our times (e.g., Rashid Rida, commenting on 4:92), this relates, in the first instance, to circumstances in which "slavery will have been abolished in accordance with the aim of Islam" (Manar V, 337).

Muhammad Asad - End Note 8 (58:4)

Or, alternatively, one needy person for sixty days. The inability to fast for two consecutive months may be due either to ill-health or to really compelling external circumstances (for instance, the necessity of performing labours which require great physical and/or mental vigour and alertness).

Muhammad Asad - End Note 9 (58:4)

Sc., "by showing that you have renounced the practices of the Time of Ignorance" (Razi). In other words, the pronouncement of zihar is not to be considered a divorce, as was the case in pre-Islamic times, but solely as a reprehensible act which must be atoned for by a sacrifice.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 10 (58:5)

Sc., "which they chose to disregard". Thus, proceeding from the particular to the general, the present passage connects with the reference, at the end of verse 4, to "all who deny the truth", i.e., of divine revelation.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 11 (58:8)

The prohibition referred to here arises from the Quranic statement, "No good comes, as a rule, out of secret confabulations - save those which are devoted to enjoining charity, or equitable dealings, or setting things to rights between people" (see 4:114 and the corresponding note 138). Although there is no doubt that, as the classical commentators point out, the "secret confabulations" spoken of in this passage relate to intrigues aimed against the Prophet and his followers by some of their unbelieving contemporaries, there is no doubt, either, that the passage has a general import, and is, therefore, valid for all times.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 12 (58:8)

I.e., in the wider sense, disobedience to the Apostle's ethical teachings.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 13 (58:8)

The reference to "approaching" the Prophet has here a twofold meaning, relating literally to his unbelieving contemporaries, and figuratively to an intellectual "approach" to his person and his teachings by hostile critics of all later times. The same observation is valid with regard to the next clause as well.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 14 (58:8)

Lit., "with which God has never saluted thee". Historically, this is an allusion to the hostile attitude of the Jews of Medina towards the Prophet. It is recorded that instead of pronouncing the traditional greeting "Peace be upon thee" when encountering him, some of them used to mumble the word salam ("peace") in such a way as to make it indistinguishable from sam ("death"); and they employed the same scurrilous play of words with regard to the Prophet's Companions as well. (The relevant ahadith are quoted in full, with indication of the sources, by Tabari and Ibn Kathir in their commentaries on the above verse.) But see also the preceding note.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 15 (58:8)

Sc., "if Muhammad is truly a prophet".

Muhammad Asad - End Note 16 (58:9)

See note 12.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 17 (58:10)

I.e., in and by itself, the force of evil epitomized in the concept of "Satan" has no power whatever: cf. 14:22 - "I had no power at all over you: I but called you - and you responded unto me. Hence, blame not me, but blame yourselves." (See also Razi's views quoted in my note 31 on the above-mentioned verse.) As regards the problem of God's "letting" or "allowing" a person to go astray (implied in the phrase "unless it be by God's leave"), see note 4 on 14:4.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 18 (58:11)

Lit., "in the assemblies (al-majalis)". Although it is frequently assumed that this refers to the assemblies held by the Prophet, when his followers would throng around him in their eagerness the better to hear what he had to say, or - more generally - to congregations in mosques, etc., in later times, I am (with Razi) of the opinion that the plural noun majalis is used here in a tropical or metaphorical sense, denoting the totality of men's social life. Taken in this sense, the "making room for one another" implies the mutual providing of opportunities for a decent life to all - and especially to the needy or handicapped - members of the community. See also next note.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 19 (58:11)

Commenting on this passage, Razi says: "This verse indicates that if one widens the means (ahwab) of happiness and well-being of God's creatures (ibad), God will widen for him all that is good in this life and in the hereafter. Hence, no reasonable person (al-aqil) could ever restrict (the purport of) this verse to merely making room for one another in an [actual] assembly."

Muhammad Asad - End Note 20 (58:11)

The interpretation implied in the words "for a good deed" interpolated by me above is analogous to that offered by most of the classical commentators, and most explicitly by Tabari; in the words of Qatadah (ibid.), "Whenever you are called upon to do a good deed, respond to this call."

Muhammad Asad - End Note (58:11)

Muhammad Asad - End Note 21 (58:12)

Cf. the saying of the Prophet: "The superiority of a learned man (alim) over a [mere] worshipper (abid) is like the superiority of the moon on the night when it is full over all other stars" (Ibn Hanbal, Abu Da'ud, Tirmidhi, Nasa'i, Ibn Majah and Darimi).

Muhammad Asad - End Note 22 (58:12)

This call to an exercise of charity on every occasion (bayna yaday) of one's "consultation" with God's Apostle has been widely misunderstood as applying only to factual consultations with him, i.e., in his lifetime, supposedly with a view to lessening the encroachments on his time by some of his too-eager followers. This misunderstanding, together with the qualified dispensation from the above-mentioned injunction expressed in the next verse, has given rise to the unwarranted contention by some of the commentators that this injunction has been "abrogated". But apart from the fact that the theory of "abrogation" as such is entirely untenable (see 2:106 and the corresponding note 87), the above verse reveals its true meaning as soon as we realize that the term "the Apostle" (ar-rasul) is used in the Qur'an not merely to designate the unique person of the Prophet Muhammad but also the sum-total of the teachings conveyed by him to the world. This is evident from the many Quranic exhortations, "Pay heed unto God and the Apostle", and, more specifically (in 4:59), "if you are at variance over any matter, refer it unto God (i.e., the Qur'an) and the Apostle (i.e., his Sunnah)", which latter is but meant to elucidate the former. Taken in this sense, the above reference to a "consultation with the Apostle" obviously applies not only to his person and his contemporaries, but rather to his teachings in general and to believers of all times and environments. In other words, every believer is exhorted to "offer up something in charity" - whether it be material alms to a needy person, or the imparting of knowledge to such as may be in need of enlightenment, or even a mere word of kindness to a weak human being - whenever he intends to immerse himself in a study of the Apostle's teachings or, as the Qur'an phrases it, to "consult" him who has conveyed the divine writ to us.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 24 (58:13)

I.e., the obligatory tax (zakah) which is meant to purify a believer's possessions and income from the taint of selfishness: implying that one's inability to do more by way of charity does not constitute a sin.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 25 (58:14)

For the meaning of "God's condemnation", see note on the last verse of Al-Fatihah. In this particular context, the ones "who would be friends with people whom God has condemned" are the half-hearted who - while dimly perceiving the truth of God's existence and self-revelation - are nevertheless unwilling to surrender themselves to this truth for fear of estranging themselves from their God-denying environment and, thus, of losing what they regard as the material advantages of a spiritually uncommitted life: and it is this moral falsehood to which the last sentence of this verse refers. (See also the last verse of surah 60.)

Muhammad Asad - End Note 26 (58:16)

I.e., by sowing doubts in other people's hearts.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 27 (58:18)

Namely, that their preference of worldly benefits to a spiritual commitment is "reasonable" and, therefore, morally "justified". It is to this flagrant self-deception that the next sentence refers.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 28 (58:18)

The definite article al prefixed to the participial noun kadhibun indicates that the people thus characterized have reached the utmost degree of self-deception; hence my interpolation of the adjective "greatest" in consonance with Zamakhshari 's interpretation of the above phrase.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 29 (58:22)

The operative phrase of this passage is contained in the words, "anyone who contends against (man hadda) God and His Apostle": i.e., anyone who is engaged in active hostility against God's message and the person or the teachings of His Apostle. As regards relations with non-believers who are not actively hostile to Islam, the Qur'an explicitly permits and implicitly ordains in many places (e.g., in 60:8-9) kindness and friendliness towards them.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 30 (58:22)

For my rendering of ruh as "inspiration" or, occasionally, as "divine inspiration", see note 2 on 16:2. As pointed out by Zamakhshari, the pronominal suffix in minhu may relate to God - as in my rendering - or to the believers' faith, in which latter case the phrase could be rendered as "strengthened with inspiration [flowing] there-from".

Shabbir Ahmed -

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 1 (58:2)

The procedure of divorce has been clearly given in 2:228-230, 4:3, 4:19, 4:35, 4:128, 33:4, 65:1-2. Zihar = Extra = Redundant = Sundry = Putting away = Senseless word or action. Zihar = Addressing the wife as mother and thinking that it nullifies the wedlock. Implicitly this encompasses similar meaningless utterances under any circumstances

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 2 (58:3)

Freeing from bondage includes relieving someone from any kind of oppression and from a crushing burden of debt

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 3 (58:4)

2:183

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 4 (58:8)

Ithm = Hampering progress. 'Udwaan = Wedges of discord

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 5 (58:9)

Birr = Usually translated as the vague and mundane 'good' = Creating room for fellow humans to make progress = Virtue = Make expanse = Make room for others in the society = Help people to adjust and make progress in a new environment = Exponential growth. Taqwa = Seeking to journey through life in security = Protect oneself from disintegration of the personality = Being observant = Journeying in security = Being careful = Getting empowered against evil = Avoid overstepping the laws = Consolidating the gains = Exercising caution = Guarding oneself against deterioration = Good conduct = Building character = Choosing to live upright = Fear the consequences of violating Divine Commands = Being mindful of the Creator = Remaining conscious of the Divinely ordained Values = Taking precaution

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 6 (58:10)

Satan, the selfish desires, cannot harm the believers unless they forsake Divine Commands. 15:42, 17:65, 38:83. In these verses, 9 and 10, the terms Ithm, 'Udwaan, Birr, Taqwa have been translated in their broad and exact Qur'anic sense

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 7 (58:11)

Fas'h = Open up = Make room = Accommodate others. Nushooz, 4:34

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 8 (58:12)

He absolves faults and rewards good deeds and intentions

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 9 (58:13)

58:12. The command in these two verses, 12 and 13 is fully applicable even today. It serves as a constant reminder to us for doing an act of kindness whenever we 'confer' with God and His messenger, the teachings embodied in the Qur'an. This act of kindness certainly includes conveying even one verse to one person. 'Each one teach one'. It is unfortunate that some of the traditional commentators consider these two verses abrogated after the exalted prophet's lifetime! The very thought of abrogation of any verses of the Qur'an is absolutely untenable and non-Qur'anic. 2:106

Best viewed using your own brain

Tested on 1024x768 resolution with  FIREFOX 2

Kitabun Marqum v0.6.7 - Kitabun Marqum - Quran Research Platform by QuraniX Team Copyright © 2002-2011 All rights reserved.
Copyrights of all translations belong to their respective authors.

49:6 O you who believe, if a wicked person brings any news to you, you shall first investigate, lest you commit injustice towards some people, out of ignorance, then become sorry and remorseful for what you have done.

Rashad Khalifa (The Final Testament)

 Translations ▼

 Chapter/Verse ▼

 Refresh

 Search

<< Prev 59:1-24 Next >>

Edip-Layth	In the name of God, the Gracious, the Compassionate. 59:1 Glorifying God is everything in the heavens and the earth, and He is the Noble, the Wise.
The Monotheist Group	In the name of God, the Almighty, the Merciful. 59:1 Glorifying God is everything in the heavens and the Earth, and He is the Noble, the Wise.
Muhammad Asad	In the name of God, The Most Gracious, The Dispenser of Grace: 59:1 ALL THAT IS in the heavens and all that is on earth extols God's limitless glory: for He alone is almighty, truly wise.
Rashad Khalifa	In the name of GOD, Most Gracious, Most Merciful. 59:1 Glorifying GOD is everything in the heavens and the earth, and He is the Almighty, Most Wise.
Shabbir Ahmed	BISMILLAH-IR-RAHMAN-IR-RAHEEM With the Glorious Name of God, the Ultimate Source of Instant Beneficence and Eternal mercy Who encompasses the entire Universe, nourishing and taking care of all things for what they are meant to be; just as a mother's womb nourishes the embryo to completion without any returns. 59:1 All that is in the heavens and all that is on earth strives to manifest the glory of God. For, He is Almighty, the Wise.
Transliteration	Bismi Allāhi alRaḥmāni alRaḥeemi 59:1 Sabbaḥa lillāhi m a fee a Issamawatiwama fee al-ar ḍi wahuwa alAAazeezu alḥakeemu
A	بسم الله الرحمن الرحيم 59:1 سبّح لله ما في السموت وما في الارض وهو العزيز الحكيم

Edip-Layth	The Mass Exile 59:2 He is the One who drove out those who rejected among the people of the book from their homes at the very first mass exile. You never thought that they would leave, and they thought that their fortresses would protect them from God. But then God came to them from where they did not expect, and He cast fear into their hearts. They destroyed their homes with their own hands and the hands of those who acknowledge. So take a lesson, O you who possess vision. ¹
The Monotheist Group	59:2 He is the One who drove out those who disbelieved among the people of the Scripture from their homes at the very first mobilization. You never thought that they would leave, and they thought that their fortresses would protect them from God. But then God came to them from where they did not expect, and He cast terror into their hearts. They destroyed their homes with their own hands and the hands of the believers. So learn from this, O you who possess vision.
Muhammad Asad	59:2 He it is who turned out of their homes, at the time of [their] first gathering [for war], such of the followers of earlier revelation as were bent on denying the truth. ¹ You did not think [O believers] that they would depart [without resistance] - just as they thought that their strongholds would protect them against God: but God came upon them in a manner which they had not expected, ² and cast terror into their hearts; [and thus] they destroyed their homes by their own hands as well as the hands of the believers. ³ Learn a lesson, then, O you who are endowed with insight!
Rashad Khalifa	God Defends the Believers 59:2 He is the One who evicted those who disbelieved among the people of the scripture from their homes in a mass exodus. You never thought that they would leave, and they thought that their preparations would protect them from GOD. But then GOD came to them whence they never expected, and threw terror into their hearts. Thus, they abandoned their homes on their own volition, in addition to pressure from the believers. You should learn from this, O you who possess vision.
Shabbir Ahmed	59:2 He is the One Who evicted the disbelievers among the People of the Book from their homes at the first gathering (of the forces). You never thought that they would leave and they thought that their strongholds would defend them against God. But God's requital came to them from directions they little expected, and caused fear in their hearts. So, they dismantled their dwellings with their own hands and (got them dismantled) at the hands of the believers. Learn a lesson, then, O You who are endowed with insight! ¹
Transliteration	59:2 Huwa allathee akhraj al-theenakafaroo min ahli alkit abi min diy arihim li-awwalialhashri ma thanantum an yakhrujoo wa thannooannahum maniAAatuhum husoonuhum mina Allahifaatahumu Allahu min haythu lam ya htasiboowaqathafa fee quloobihimu a IrruAAaba yukhriboonabuyootahum bi-aydeehim waaydee almu/mineena faiAAatabiroo yaolee al-absari
A	59:2 هو الذى اخرج الذين كفروا من اهل الكتب من ديارهم لاول الحشر ما ظننتم ان يخرجوا وظنوا انهم مانعتهم حصونهم من الله فاتتهم الله من حيث لم يحتسبوا وقنف في قلوبهم الرعب يخربون بيوتهم بايديهم وايدي المومنين فاعتبروا ياولى الابصر
Edip-Layth	59:3 Had God not decreed to banish them, He would have punished them in this life. In the Hereafter they will face the retribution of the fire.
The Monotheist Group	59:3 And had God not decreed to banish them, He would have punished them in this life. And in the Hereafter they will face the retribution of the Fire.
Muhammad Asad	59:3 And had it not been for God's having ordained banishment for them, He would indeed have imposed [yet greater] suffering on them in this world: still, in the life to come there awaits them suffering through fire:

Rashad Khalifa	59:3 If GOD did not force them to leave, He would have requited them in this life (even worse than forcing them to leave). In the Hereafter He will commit them to the retribution of Hell.
Shabbir Ahmed	59:3 And if God had not decreed banishment for them, He would have punished them harder in this world, yet for them is suffering of the fire in the life to come.
Transliteration	59:3 Walawla an kataba Allahu AAalayhimu aljalaa laAAa ththabahum fee alddunya walahum fee al-akhirati AAa thabun nari
A	59:3 ولولا ان كتب الله عليهم الجلاء لعذبهم في الدنيا ولهم في الـآخرة عذاب النار
Edip-Layth	59:4 This is because they challenged God and His messenger. Whosoever challenges God, then God is severe in punishment.
The Monotheist Group	59:4 This is because they challenged God and His messenger. And whosoever challenges God, then God is severe in punishment.
Muhammad Asad	59:4 this, because they cut themselves off from God and His Apostle: 4 and as for him who cuts himself off from God and His Apostle - verily, God is severe in retribution!
Rashad Khalifa	59:4 This is because they opposed GOD and His messenger. For those who oppose GOD and His messenger, GOD is most strict in enforcing retribution.
Shabbir Ahmed	59:4 This, because they had opposed God and His messenger. And whoever opposes God, for him God is Stern in grasping.
Transliteration	59:4 Thalika bi-annahum shaqqoo Allahu wawarasoolahu waman yushaqqi Allaha fa-inna Allahu hashadeedu alAAiqabi
A	59:4 ذلك بانهم شاقوا الله ورسوله ومن يشاق الله فان الله شديد العقاب
Edip-Layth	59:5 Whether you cut down a tree or left it standing on its root, it was by God's leave. He will surely humiliate the wicked.
The Monotheist Group	59:5 Whether you cut down a tree or left it standing on its root, it was by God's leave. He will surely humiliate the wicked.
Muhammad Asad	59:5 Whatever [of their] palm trees you may have cut down, [O believers,] or left standing on their roots, was [done] by God's leave, 5 and in order that He might confound the iniquitous.
Rashad Khalifa	59:5 Whether you chop a tree or leave it standing on its trunk is in accordance with GOD's will. He will surely humiliate the wicked.
Shabbir Ahmed	59:5 Whatever palm-trees you cut down or left standing on their roots, it was by God's leave, in order that He may disgrace those who drifted away from their treaties. 2
Transliteration	59:5 Ma qataAAum min leenatin awtaraktumoo haqa-imatan AAala osoolihafabi-ithni Allahi waliyukhziya alfasiqeena
A	59:5 ما قطعتم من لينة او تركتموها قائمة على اصولها فبائن الله وليخزي الفاسقين
Edip-Layth	Distribute the Wealth; Avoid Creating Monopolies 59:6 What God provided to His messenger, without you having to battle for it on horses or on foot, was because God sends His messengers against whomever He wills. God is capable of all things.

The Monotheist Group	59:6 And what God provided to His messenger, without you having to battle for it on horses or on foot, was because God sends His emissaries against whomever He wills. And God is capable of all things.
Muhammad Asad	59:6 Yet [remember:] whatever [spoils taken] from the enemy ⁶ God has turned over to His Apostle, you did not have to spur horse or riding-camel for its sake: ⁷ but God gives His apostles mastery over whomever He wills - for God has the power to will anything.
Rashad Khalifa	59:6 Whatever GOD restored for His messenger was not the result of your war efforts, whether you fought on horses or on foot. GOD is the One who sends His messengers against whomever He wills. GOD is Omnipotent.
Shabbir Ahmed	59:6 And whatever God has turned over to His messenger, you did not toil on any horse or camel for it. But God gives His messengers upper hand according to His laws. God has appointed due measure for all things and events.
Transliteration	59:6 Wama afa AAa Allahu AAa al arasoolihi minhum fama awjaftum AAalayhi min khaylin wal arikabin wal akinna Allahu yusalli turusulahu AAa al man yashaa waAllahu AAa kulli shay-in qadeer un
A	59:6 وما افاء الله على رسوله منهم فما اوجفتم عليه من خيل ولا ركاب ولكن الله يسلط رسله على من يشاء والله على كل شيء قدير
Edip-Layth	59:7 Whatever God provided to His messenger from the people of the townships, then it shall be to God and His messenger; for the relatives, the orphans, the poor, and the wayfarer. Thus, it will not remain monopolized by the rich among you. You may take what the messenger gives you, but do not take what he withholds you from taking. Be aware of God, for God is mighty in retribution. ²
The Monotheist Group	59:7 And whatever God provided to His messenger from the people of the townships, then it shall be to God and His messenger, and the relatives, and the orphans, and the poor, and the wayfarer. Thus, it will not remain monopolized by the rich among you. And you may take what the messenger gives you, but do not take what he withholds you from taking. And be aware of God, for God is mighty in retribution.
Muhammad Asad	59:7 Whatever [spoils taken] from the people of those villages God has turned over to His Apostle - [all of it] belongs to God and the Apostle, ⁸ and the near of kin [of deceased believers], and the orphans, and the needy, and the wayfarer, ⁹ so that it may not be [a benefit] going round and round among such of you as may [already] be rich. Hence, accept [willingly] whatever the Apostle ¹⁰ gives you [thereof], and refrain from [demanding] anything that he withholds from you; and remain conscious of God: for, verily, God is severe in retribution.
Rashad Khalifa	The Spoils of War 59:7 Whatever GOD restored to His messenger from the (defeated) communities shall go to GOD and His messenger (in the form of a charity). You shall give it to the relatives, the orphans, the poor, and the traveling alien. Thus, it will not remain monopolized by the strong among you. You may keep the spoils given to you by the messenger, but do not take what he enjoins you from taking. You shall reverence GOD. GOD is strict in enforcing retribution.
Shabbir Ahmed	59:7 Whatever God has turned over to His messenger from those communities belongs to God and His messenger (the Central authority). ³ The Central Government (The Central authority) -The welfare of the families of the believers. -The orphans. -Those who still feel left alone in the society. -The widows. -Those who have no means of earning their livelihood. - The disabled who cannot move around looking for the bounty of God. -The homeless son of the street. -Those who are on their way to join you, and -Those who travel a distance to seek help. So that it may not keep revolving between the wealthy among you. So, take what the messenger gives you, and abstain from what he forbids you. Be mindful of God. Surely, God is Stern in grasping.

Transliteration	59:7 Ma afaa Allahu AAal ^a arasoolihi min ahli alqur ^a falill ^a hi wali Irrasooliwalithee alqurba wa alyatama wa almasakeeniwaibni a Issabeeli kay l ^a yakoona doolatanbayna al-aghniya-i minkum wama ^a atakumualIrrasoolu fakhuthoo ^h hu wama nahakumAAanhu faintahoo waittaqoo Allaha inna Allahashadeedu alAAaiqabi
A	59:7 ما افاء الله على رسوله من اهل القرى فله وللرسول ولذی القربى والیتمی والمسکین وابن السبیل کی لا یكون دولة بین الاغنیاء منکم وما ءاتکم الرسول فخذوه وما نهکم عنه فانتهوا واتقوا الله ان الله شدید العقاب
Edip-Layth	59:8 For the immigrants who are poor and were driven out of their homes and deprived of their properties, they sought God's grace and pleasure, and they supported God and His messenger. They are the truthful ones.
The Monotheist Group	59:8 For the immigrants who are poor and were driven out of their homes and deprived of their properties, they sought God's grace and pleasure, and they supported God and His messenger. They are the truthful ones.
Muhammad Asad	59:8 [Thus, part of such war-gains shall be given] to the poor among those who have forsaken the domain of evil: ¹¹ those who have been driven from their homelands and their possessions, seeking favour with God and [His] goodly acceptance, and who aid [the cause of] God and His Apostle: it is they, they who are true to their word!
Rashad Khalifa	59:8 (You shall give) to the needy who immigrated. They were evicted from their homes and deprived of their properties, because they sought GOD's grace and pleasure, and because they supported GOD and His messenger. They are the truthful.
Shabbir Ahmed	59:8 And it is for the poor refugees who have been expelled from their homelands and their property. And they seek God's bounty and approval, and support God and His messenger. They are the ones true to their faith.
Transliteration	59:8 Lilfuqara-i almuh ajireena alla theenaokhrijoo min diy arihim waamw alihim yabtaghoona fa dlanmina All ^a hi wari dwanan wayan suroonaAllaha warasoolahu ola-ika humu alssadiqoona
A	59:8 للفقراء المهجرين الذين اخرجوا من ديارهم وامولهم يبتغون فضلا من الله ورضونا وينصرون الله ورسوله اولئك هم الصدقون
Edip-Layth	59:9 Those who provided them with shelter, and were those who acknowledge before them; they love those who immigrated to them, and they find no hesitation in their hearts in helping them, and they readily give them priority over themselves, even when they themselves need what they give away. Indeed, those who overcome their hedonism are the successful ones.
The Monotheist Group	59:9 And those who provided them with shelter, and were believers before them; they love those who immigrated to them, and they find no hesitation in their hearts in helping them, and they readily give them priority over themselves, even when they themselves need what they give away. Indeed, those who overcome their desires are the successful ones.
	59:9 And [it shall be offered, too, unto the poor from among] those who, before them, ¹² had their abode in this realm and in faith - [those] who love all that

Muhammad Asad	come to them in search of refuge, and who harbour in their hearts no grudge for whatever the others may have been given, but rather give them preference over themselves, even though poverty be their own lot: ¹³ for, such as from their own covetousness are saved - it is they, they that shall attain to a happy state! ¹⁴
Rashad Khalifa	59:9 As for those who provided them with a home and a refuge, and were believers before them, they love those who immigrated to them, and find no hesitation in their hearts in helping them. In fact, they readily give them priority over themselves, even when they themselves need what they give away. Indeed, those who overcome their natural stinginess are the successful ones.
Shabbir Ahmed	59:9 Also, (true are) those who resided in the city (Madinah) before them and attained faith. They love those who immigrated to them, and find no hesitation in their hearts in helping them. They actually give them preference over themselves, even though poverty be their own lot. And whoever is saved from greediness of the heart, such are the ones who truly prosper.
Transliteration	59:9 Waallatheena tabawwaoo a lddarawaal-eemana min qablihim yu hibboona man h ajarailayhim wal a yajidoona fee sudoorihim hajatanmimma ootoo wayu/thiroona AAal a anfusihi walaw k anabihim kha sasatun waman yooqa shuhha nafsihi faola-ikahumu almuflihoona
A	59:9 والذين تبوءوا الدار والايمان من قبلهم يحبون من هاجر اليهم ولا يجدون في صدورهم حاجة مما اوتوا ويؤثرون على انفسهم ولو كان بهم خصاصة ومن يوق شح نفسه فاولئك هم المفلحون
Edip-Layth	59:10 Those who came after them saying: "Our Lord, forgive us and our brothers who preceded us to the acknowledgement, and do not place in our hearts any animosity towards those who acknowledged. Our Lord, You are Kind, Compassionate."
The Monotheist Group	59:10 And those who came after them saying: "Our Lord, forgive us and our brothers who preceded us to the faith, and do not place in our hearts any animosity towards those who believed. Our Lord, You are Compassionate, Merciful."
Muhammad Asad	59:10 And so, they who come after them pray: ¹⁵ O our Sustainer! Forgive us our sins, as well as those of our brethren who preceded us in faith, and let not our hearts entertain any unworthy thoughts or feelings against [any of] those who have attained to faith. O our Sustainer! Verily, Thou art compassionate, a dispenser of grace!"
Rashad Khalifa	59:10 Those who became believers after them say, "Our Lord, forgive us and our brethren who preceded us to the faith, and keep our hearts from harboring any hatred towards those who believed. Our Lord, You are Compassionate, Most Merciful."
Shabbir Ahmed	59:10 And those who came after them, say, "Our Lord! Forgive us and our brothers and sisters who preceded us in faith. And let not be any malice in our hearts toward those who have chosen to believe. Our Lord! You are truly Compassionate, Merciful."
Transliteration	59:10 Waallatheena j aoo minbaAAadihim yaqooloona rabban a ighfir lan a wali-ikhwaningaallatheena sabaqoon a bi al-eemani wal atajAAal fee quloobin a ghillan lillatheena amanoorabbana innaka raoofun raheemun
A	59:10 والذين جاءوا من بعدهم يقولون ربنا اغفر لنا ولاخواننا الذين سبقونا بالايمان ولا تجعل في قلوبنا غلا للذين ءامنوا ربنا انك رؤوف رحيم

Edip-Layth	The Conspiracy of Hypocrite Warmongers 59:11 Have you noted those who are hypocrites, they say to their companions in denial among the people of the book: "If you are driven out we will go out with you, and we will never obey anyone who opposes you. If anyone fights you, we will support you." God bears witness that they are liars.
The Monotheist Group	59:11 Have you noted those who are hypocrites, they say to their companions in disbelief among the people of the Scripture: "If you are driven out we will go out with you, and we will never obey anyone who opposes you. And if anyone fights you, we will support you." God bears witness that they are liars.
Muhammad Asad	59:11 ART THOU NOT aware of how those who would always dissemble [their real feelings]¹⁶ speak to their truth-denying brethren from among the followers of earlier revelation:¹⁷ If you are driven away, we shall most certainly go forth with you, and shall never pay heed to anyone against you; and if war is waged against you, we shall most certainly come to your succour." But God bears witness that they are most flagrantly lying:
Rashad Khalifa	59:11 Have you noted those who are plagued with hypocrisy, and how they said to their companions in disbelief among the people of the scripture, "If you are evicted we will go out with you, and will never obey anyone who opposes you. If anyone fights you, we will fight on your side." GOD bears witness that they are liars.
Shabbir Ahmed	59:11 Have you not noted the hypocrites how they told their disbelieving brethren among the People of the scripture, "If you are driven out, we certainly will go forth with you, and shall never heed anyone against you. And if you are attacked, certainly we shall help you." But God bears witness that they are liars.
Transliteration	59:11 Alam tara il a alla theena n afaqooyaqooloona li-ikhw anihimu alla theena kafaroo minahli alkitabi la-in okhrijtum lanakhrujanna maAAakum wal anuṭeeAAu feekum a ḥadan abadan wa-in qootiltum lanan surannakumwaAllahu yashhadu innahum lakathiboona
A	59:11 ألم تر الى الذين نافقوا يقولون لآخونهم الذين كفروا من أهل الكتب لن إخراجهم لنخرجن معكم ولا نطيع فيكم احدا أبدا وإن قوتلتم لننصرنكم والله يشهد انهم لكاذبون
Edip-Layth	59:12 If they were driven out, they would not have gone out with them, and if anyone fought them, they would not have supported them. Even if they supported them, they would have turned around and fled. They could never win.
The Monotheist Group	59:12 If they were driven out, they would not have gone out with them, and if anyone fought them, they would not have supported them. And even if they supported them, they would have turned around and fled. They could never win.
Muhammad Asad	59:12 [for] if those [to whom they have pledged themselves] are indeed driven away, they will not go forth with them; and if war is waged against them, they will not come to their succour; and even if they [try to] succour them, they will most certainly turn their backs [in flight], and in the end will [themselves] find no succour.
Rashad Khalifa	59:12 In fact, if they were evicted, they would not have gone out with them, and if anyone fought them, they would not have supported them. Even if they supported them, they would have turned around and fled. They could never win.
Shabbir Ahmed	59:12 If they (Banu Nadhir) are driven away, they (the hypocrites) will not go forth with them, and if they are attacked they will not help. And even if they try to help them, they will turn their backs in flight, and themselves find no help.
Transliteration	59:12 La-in okhrijoo l a yakhrujoonamaAAahum wala-in qootiloo l a yansuroonahum wala-inna saroohum layuwallunna al-adb ara thumma

	layunṣaroona
A	59:12 لن اخرجوا لا يخرجون معهم ولن قوتلوا لا ينصرونهم ولن نصروهم ليولن الادبر ثم لا ينصرون
Edip-Layth	59:13 Indeed, you strike more trepidation in their hearts than God. This is because they are people who do not reason.
The Monotheist Group	59:13 Indeed, you strike more terror in their hearts than their fear of God. This is because they are people who do not comprehend.
Muhammad Asad	59:13 Nay, [O believers,] you arouse in their bosoms a fear more intense than [even their fear of] God: this, because they are people who fail to grasp the truth.¹⁸
Rashad Khalifa	59:13 Indeed, you strike more terror in their hearts than their fear of GOD. This is because they are people who do not comprehend.
Shabbir Ahmed	59:13 Nay, you believers arouse a fear in their hearts more intense than even the fear of God. This is because they are a people who do not understand (that all strength derives from following Divine laws).
Transliteration	59:13 Laantum ashaddu rahbatan fee ṣudoorihimmina Allāhi ṭhalika bi-annahum qawmun layafqahoona
A	59:13 لانتم اشد رهبة في صدورهم من الله ذلك بانهم قوم لا يفقهون
Edip-Layth	59:14 They will not fight you all unless they are in fortified towns, or from behind walls. Their might appears formidable among themselves. You would think that they are united, but their hearts are divided. This is because they are people who do not understand.
The Monotheist Group	59:14 They will not fight you all unless they are in fortified towns, or from behind walls. Their might appears formidable among themselves. You would think that they are united, but their hearts are divided. This is because they are people who do not understand.
Muhammad Asad	59:14 Never will they fight you, [even] in unison, otherwise than from within fortified strongholds or from behind walls. ¹⁹ Severe is their warlike discord among themselves: thou wouldst think that they are united, whereas [in fact] their hearts are at odds [with one another]: this, because they are people who will not use their reason.²⁰
Rashad Khalifa	59:14 They do not get together to fight you unless they are in well-shielded buildings, or behind walls. Their might appears formidable among themselves. You would think that they are united, when in fact their hearts are divided. This is because they are people who do not understand.
Shabbir Ahmed	59:14 They will never fight you, even if they form a coalition, other than from within the fortified strongholds or from behind walls. They have great adversity in their own ranks. You may think they are united but their hearts are far apart. This is so, because they are a people who do not use their intellect. ⁴
Transliteration	59:14 La yuqatiloonaikum jameeAAanilla fee quran mu ḥassanatin aw min war a-ijudurin ba/suhum baynahum shadeedun ta ḥsabuhum jameeAAanwaquloobuhum shatta ṭhalika bi-annahum qawmun layaAAaqiloona
A	59:14 لا يقتلونكم جميعا الا في قرى محصنة او من وراء جدر باسهم بينهم شديد تحسبهم جميعا وقلوبهم شتى ذلك بانهم قوم لا يعقلون

Edip-Layth	59:15 Like the example of those who preceded them. They suffered the consequences of their decisions. They have incurred a painful retribution.
The Monotheist Group	59:15 Like the example of those who preceded them. They suffered the consequences of their decisions. They have incurred a painful retribution.
Muhammad Asad	59:15 [To both kinds of your enemies, O believers, is bound to happen] ²¹ the like of [what happened to] those who, a short while before them, had to taste the evil that came from their own doings, ²² with [yet more] grievous suffering awaiting them [in the life to come]:
Rashad Khalifa	59:15 Their fate is the same as their counterparts who preceded them. They suffered the consequences of their decisions. They have incurred a painful retribution.
Shabbir Ahmed	59:15 Their example is the same as of those who lately preceded them. They tasted the calamity for their (wrong) decisions, and theirs is the awful doom.
Transliteration	59:15 Kamathali alla the ena min qablihimqareeban tha qoo wab a la amrihim walahum AAa th abunaleem un
A	59:15 كمثل الذين من قبلهم قريبا ذاقوا وبال امرهم ولهم عذاب اليم
Edip-Layth	59:16 Like the example of the devil, when he says to the human being: "Reject," then as soon as he rejects, he says: "I disown you. I fear God, the Lord of the worlds."
The Monotheist Group	59:16 Like the example of the devil, when he says to the human being: "Disbelieve," then as soon as he disbelieves, he says: "I disown you. I fear God, the Lord of the worlds."
Muhammad Asad	59:16 the like of [what happens] when Satan says unto man, Deny the truth!" - but as soon as [man] has denied the truth, [Satan] says, Behold, I am not responsible for thee: behold, I fear God, the Sustainer of all the worlds!" ²³
Rashad Khalifa	59:16 They are like the devil: he says to the human being, "Disbelieve," then as soon as he disbelieves, he says, "I disown you. I fear GOD, Lord of the universe."
Shabbir Ahmed	59:16 They (the hypocrites) are like Satan when he says to man, "Reject the truth." But as soon as man has rejected the truth, he says, "I am free of you. I do fear God, the Lord of the worlds."
Transliteration	59:16 Kamathali a Ishshay t ani i th qala lil-ins a ni okfur falam a kafara q a lainnee baree-on minka innee ak h afu All a ha rabba alAA a lameena
A	59:16 كمثل الشيطان اذ قال للانسن اكفر فلما كفر قال انى برىء منك انى اخاف الله رب العلمين
Edip-Layth	59:17 So the destiny for both of them is the fire, abiding therein. Such is the recompense for the wicked.
The Monotheist Group	59:17 So the destiny for both of them is the Fire, abiding therein. And such is the recompense for the wicked.
Muhammad Asad	59:17 Thus, in the end, both [the deniers of the truth and the hypocrites] ²⁴ will find themselves in the fire, therein to abide: for such is the recompense of evil-doers.
Rashad Khalifa	59:17 The destiny for both of them is the Hellfire, wherein they abide forever.

	This is the requital for the transgressors.
Shabbir Ahmed	59:17 Thus, the end for both is in the fire, therein to abide. Such is the reward of those who relegate the truth. ⁵
Transliteration	59:17 Fakana AA aqibatahum aannahuma fee a Innari kh alidayni feeh awathalika jazao al th halimeena
A	59:17 فكان عقبتهما انهما فى النار خلدن فيها وذلك جزوا الظلمين
Edip-Layth	Be God-conscious 59:18 O you who acknowledge, be aware of God, and let every person examine what it has put forth for tomorrow. Be aware of God; God is fully aware of everything you do.
The Monotheist Group	59:18 O you who believe, be aware of God, and let every soul examine what it has put forth for tomorrow. And be aware of God; God is fully aware of everything you do.
Muhammad Asad	59:18 O YOU who have attained to faith! Remain conscious of God; and let every human being look to what he sends ahead for the morrow! And [once again]: Remain conscious of God, for God is fully aware of all that you do;
Rashad Khalifa	59:18 O you who believe, you shall reverence GOD, and let every soul examine what it has sent ahead for tomorrow. You shall reverence GOD; GOD is fully Cognizant of everything you do.
Shabbir Ahmed	59:18 O You who have chosen to be graced with belief! Be mindful of God and watch everyday what you have invested for your own 'self' for tomorrow. Again, remain conscious of God (today and every day). God is fully Aware of all your actions.
Transliteration	59:18 Ya ayyuh a alla theena amanooittaqoo All aha waltan th ur nafsun maqaddamat lighadin waittaqoo Allaha inna Allahakhaberun bima taAAmaloona
A	59:18 ياايها الذين ءامنوا اتقوا الله ولتنظر نفس ما قدمت لعد واتقوا الله ان الله خبير بما تعملون
Edip-Layth	59:19 Do not be like those who forgot God, so He made them forget themselves. These are the wicked.
The Monotheist Group	59:19 And do not be like those who forgot God, so He made them forget themselves. These are the wicked.
Muhammad Asad	59:19 and be not like those who are oblivious of God, and whom He therefore causes to be oblivious of [what is good for] their own selves: [for] it is they, they who are truly depraved! ²⁵
Rashad Khalifa	59:19 Do not be like those who forgot GOD, so He made them forget themselves. These are the wicked.
Shabbir Ahmed	59:19 And be not like those who forgot God, therefore, He (His law) made them forget themselves. It is those who have drifted away (from the road to success).
Transliteration	59:19 Wala takoonoo ka alla th eenanasoo All aha faans ahum anfusahum ol a-ikahumu al f asiqoona
A	59:19 ولا تكونوا كالذين نسوا الله فانسبهم انفسهم اولئك هم الفسقون
Edip-Layth	59:20 Not equal are the dwellers of the fire and the dwellers of Paradise; the dwellers of Paradise are the winners.

The Monotheist Group	59:20 Not equal are the dwellers of the Fire and the dwellers of Paradise; the dwellers of Paradise are the winners.
Muhammad Asad	59:20 Not equal are those who are destined for the fire and those who are destined for paradise: those who are destined for paradise - it is they, they [alone] who shall triumph [on Judgment Day]!
Rashad Khalifa	59:20 Not equal are the dwellers of the Hellfire and the dwellers of Paradise; the dwellers of Paradise are the winners.
Shabbir Ahmed	59:20 Not equal are the dwellers of the fire and the dwellers of the Garden. Dwellers of the Garden, they are the ones crowned with honor.
Transliteration	59:20 La yastawee a s-habu a lnnariwaas-habu aljannati a s-habu aljannatihumu alfa-izoona
A	59:20 لا يستوى اصحب النار واصحب الجنة اصحب الجنة هم الفائزون
Edip-Layth	59:21 Had We sent down this Quran to a mountain, you would have seen it trembling, crumbling, out of reverence for God. Such are the examples We cite for the people, that they may reflect.
The Monotheist Group	59:21 Had We sent down this Qur'an to a mountain, you would have seen it trembling, crumbling, out of reverence for God. And such are the examples We put forth for the people, that they may reflect.
Muhammad Asad	59:21 HAD WE bestowed this Qur'an from on high upon a mountain, thou wouldst indeed see it humbling itself, breaking asunder for awe of God. ²⁶ And [all] such parables We propound unto men, so that they might [learn to] think.
Rashad Khalifa	Greatness of the Quran 59:21 If we revealed this Quran to a mountain, you would see it trembling, crumbling, out of reverence for GOD. We cite these examples for the people, that they may reflect.
Shabbir Ahmed	59:21 Had We sent down this Qur'an upon a mountain, you would have seen it humble itself and rent asunder for awesomeness of God. Such examples We cite for mankind, so that they might think.
Transliteration	59:21 Law anzaln a h atha alqur- anaAAala jabalin laraaytahu kh ashiAAan mutaṣaddiAAanmin khashyati All ahi watilka al-amth alu na dribuhalInnasi laAAallahum yatafakkaroona
A	59:21 لو انزلنا هذا القرآن على جبل لرايته خشعا متصدعا من خشية الله وتلك الامثل نضربها للناس لعلهم يتفكرون
Edip-Layth	59:22 He is God; there is no other god beside Him. Knower of all secrets and declarations. He is the Gracious, the Compassionate. ³
The Monotheist Group	59:22 He is God; there is no other god beside Him. Knower of all secrets and declarations. He is the Almighty, the Merciful.
Muhammad Asad	59:22 GOD IS HE save whom there is no deity: the One who knows all that is beyond the reach of a created being's perception, as well as all that can be witnessed by a creature's senses or mind: ²⁷ He, the Most Gracious, the Dispenser of Grace.
Rashad Khalifa	God 59:22 He is the One GOD; there is no other god beside Him. Knower of all secrets and declarations. He is the Most Gracious, Most Merciful.

Shabbir Ahmed	59:22 He is God; there is no god besides Him. Knower of all that is secret or open. He is the Instant and Sustaining Source of all mercy and Kindness.
Transliteration	59:22 Huwa All a hu alla thee I ai laha ill a huwa AA al imu alghaybi waalshshahadatihuwa alrah ma nu alrra he emu
A	59:22 هو الله الذى لا اله الا هو علم الغيب والشهادة هو الرحمن الرحيم
Edip-Layth	59:23 He is God; there is no other god beside Him. The King, the Holy, the Peace, the Trusted, the Supreme, the Noble, the Powerful, the Dignified. God be glorified; far above what they set up.
The Monotheist Group	59:23 He is God; there is no other god beside Him. The King, the Holy, the Peace, the Faithful, the Supreme, the Noble, the Powerful, the Dignified. God be glorified; far above what they set up.
Muhammad Asad	59:23 God is He save whom there is no deity: the Sovereign Supreme, the Holy, the One with whom all salvation rests, ²⁸ the Giver of Faith, the One who determines what is true and false, ²⁹ the Almighty, the One who subdues wrong and restores right, ³⁰ the One to whom all greatness belongs! Utterly remote is God, in His limitless glory, from anything to which men may ascribe a share in His divinity!
Rashad Khalifa	59:23 He is the One GOD; there is no other god beside Him. The King, the Most Sacred, the Peace, the Most Faithful, the Supreme, the Almighty, the Most Powerful, the Most Dignified. GOD be glorified; far above having partners.
Shabbir Ahmed	59:23 He is God; there is no god besides Him (no deity, no law-giver and none worthy of worship or obedience)! The King Supreme, the Impeccable, the Peace and the Source of all peace, the Guardian of faith and security, the Watcher over all things, the Majestic, All Powerful, the Superb. Glorious is God, far above what they ascribe to Him.
Transliteration	59:23 Huwa All a hu alla thee I ai laha ill a huwa almaliku alquddoosu alssalamualmu/minu almuhayminu alAAazeezu aljabb aru almutakabbirusub hana All ah i AAamma yush rikoona
A	59:23 هو الله الذى لا اله الا هو الملك القدوس السلم المومن المهيمن العزيز الجبار المتكبر سبحن الله عما يشركون
Edip-Layth	59:24 He is God; the Creator, the Initiator, the Designer. To Him belong the most beautiful names. Glorifying Him is everything in the heavens and the earth. He is the Noble, the Wise.
The Monotheist Group	59:24 He is God; the Creator, the Initiator, the Designer. To Him belong the most beautiful names. Glorifying Him is everything in the heavens and the Earth. He is the Noble, the Wise.
Muhammad Asad	59:24 He is God, the Creator, the Maker who shapes all forms and appearances! ³¹ His [alone] are the attributes of perfection. ³² All that is in the heavens and on earth extols His limitless glory: for He alone is almighty, truly wise!
Rashad Khalifa	59:24 He is the One GOD; the Creator, the Initiator, the Designer. To Him belong the most beautiful names. Glorifying Him is everything in the heavens and the earth. He is the Almighty, Most Wise.
	59:24 He is God, the Supreme Creator, the Shaper out of nothing, the Designer.

Shabbir Ahmed	His Names are the most beautiful Names, and His alone are the attributes of perfection. All things in the heavens and earth strive to manifest His glory. And He is Almighty, the Wise. 6
Transliteration	59:24 Huwa All ahu alkh aliku alb ari-oalmuṣawwiru lahu al-asm ao alhusnayusabbihu lahu m a fee a Issamawatiwaal-ardi wahuwa alAAazeezu alhakeemu
A	59:24 هو الله الخلق البارئ المصور له الاسماء الحسنی یسبح له ما فی السموت والارض وهو العزیز الحکیم

<< Prev 59:1-24 Next >>

Return to top

End Notes

Edip-Layth - Quran: A Reformist Translation

Edip-Layth - End Note 1 (59:2)

According to hadith books, there were three Jewish tribes in Yathrib: Banu Qaynuqa, Banu al-Nadir and Banu Qurayza. They provoked muslims and the first two tribes were forced to leave the city with their transportable possessions. However, prophet Muhammad allegedly did not forgive Banu Qurayza; their necks were struck and their children were made slaves. Estimates of those killed vary from 400 to 900. The Quran refers to the event and contrary to the claims of hearsay collections, never mentions killing or enslaving them, which is in direct contradiction to many verses of the Quran. The Quran, in these verses, informs us that a group from "The People of the Book" was forced to leave the territory because of their violation of the constitution and secretly organizing war together with their enemies against muslims (59:1-4). Verse 59:3 clearly states that they were not penalized further in this world. The credibility of the story of Muhammad massacring Bani Qurayza Jews has been a controversial subject since the time it was published by Ibn Ishaq. Ibn Ishaq, who died in 151 A.H., that is 145 years after the event in question, was severely criticized by his peers for relying on highly exaggerated Jewish stories. He was also harshly criticized for presenting forged poetry attributed to famous poets. Some of his contemporary scholars, such as Malik, called him "a liar." However, his work was later copied by others without critical examination. This is an example of hearsay used by dubious Jewish reporters for propaganda purposes. Modern scholars found astonishing similarities between Ibn Ishaq and the account of historian Josephus regarding King Alexander, who ruled in Jerusalem before Herod the Great, hung upon crosses 800 Jewish captives, and slaughtered their wives and children before their eyes. Many other similarities in the details of the story of Banu Qurayza and the event reported by Josephus are compelling. Besides, the lack of reference or justification in the Quran for such a massacre of great magnitude, and the verses instructing principles for muslims to abide by removes all credibility from this story (35:18: 61:4). The Quran gives utmost importance to human life (5:32) and considers racism and anti-Semitism evil (49:11-13).

Edip-Layth - End Note 2 (59:7)

The Quran clearly warns us against the power of a few wealthy people, and asks us to distribute the wealth of a nation among its population in a more egalitarian way. See 58:12. Contrary to the political alliance of many clergymen with the wealthy and the privileged throughout history, the Bible too contains many verses protective of the weak and poor. "He upholds the cause of the oppressed and gives food to the hungry. The Lord sets prisoners free, the Lord gives sight to the blind, the Lord lifts up those who are bowed down, the Lord loves the righteous" (Psalm 146:7-8). "Is not this the sort of fast that pleases me: to break unjust fetters, to undo the thongs of the yoke, to let the oppressed go free, and to break all yokes? Is it not sharing your food with the hungry, and sheltering the homeless poor?" (Isaiah 58:6-7). "The Spirit of the Lord GOD is upon me; because the LORD hath anointed me to preach good tidings unto the meek; he hath sent me to bind up the brokenhearted, to proclaim liberty to the captives, and the opening of the prison to them that are bound" (Isaiah 61:1). The following verses from the Bible are very instructive today since it rejects unequivocally the deity of Jesus and the baptizing of Capitalism. "As Jesus started on his way, a man ran up to him and fell on his knees before him. 'Good teacher,' he asked, 'what must I do to inherit eternal life?' 'Why do you call me good?' Jesus answered. 'No one is good except God alone. You know the commandments: 'Do not murder, do not commit adultery, do not steal, do not give false testimony, do not defraud, honor your father and mother.'" 'Teacher,' he declared, 'all these I have kept since I was a boy.' Jesus looked at him and loved him. 'One thing you lack,' he said. 'Go, sell everything you have and give to the poor, and you will have treasure in heaven. Then come, follow me.' At this the man's face fell. He went away sad, because he had great wealth. Jesus looked around and said to his disciples, 'How hard it is for the rich to enter the kingdom of God!' The disciples were amazed at his words. But Jesus said again, 'Children, how hard it is to enter the kingdom of God! It is easier for a camel to go through the eye of a needle than for a rich man to enter the kingdom of God.'" (Mark 10:17-25). Muhammad was both the messenger of God and elected leader of a diverse group in the city-state of Yathrib. As a leader and commander, he had the right to allocate the spoils of war. The verse does not mean that Muhammad gave us another book, or a television set, or silly stories, or numerous prohibitions; it is about a specific case, that is, the distribution of spoils of war. The followers of hadith and sunna, abuse this verse and take it out of context hoping to justify volumes of books containing numerous contradictory and silly hearsay reports. They want us to believe that to "take whatever Muhammad has given" means to take whatever story Bukhari and his ilk told several centuries after Muhammad's departure! See 49:1.

Edip-Layth - End Note 3 (59:22)

The Quran contains more than 100 attributes of God (most likely, 114). The Bible lists many similar attributes for God:

- None beside Him: Deuteronomy 4: 35; Isaiah 44: 6;
- None before Him: Isaiah 43: 10;
- None like to Him: Exodus 9: 14; Deuteronomy 33: 26; 2 Samuel 7: 22; Isaiah 46: 5,9;
- None good but He: Matthew 19: 17;
- Fills heaven and earth: 1 Kings 8: 27; Jeremiah 23: 24;
- God Is light: Isaiah 60: 19; James 1: 17; 1 John 1: 5;
- Love: 1 John 4: 8,16; Invisible: Job 23: 8-9;
- Unsearchable: Job 11: 7; 37: 23; Psalms 145: 3; Isaiah 40: 28;
- Eternal: Deuteronomy 33: 27; Psalms 90: 2;
- Omnipotent: Genesis 17: 1; Exodus 6: 3;
- Omniscient: Psalms 139: 1-6; Proverbs 5: 21;
- Omnipresent: Psalms 139: 7; Jeremiah 23: 23;
- Immutable: Psalms 102: 26-27;
- Glorious: Exodus 15: 11; Psalms 145: 5;
- Most High: Psalms 83: 18; Acts 7: 48;
- Perfect: Matthew 5: 48;
- Holy: Psalms 99: 9; Isaiah 5: 16;
- Just: Deuteronomy 32: 4; Isaiah 45: 21;
- True: Jeremiah 10: 10; John 17: 3;
- Upright: Ps 25: 8; 92: 15;
- Righteous: Psalms 145: 17;
- Good: Psalms 25: 8; 119: 68;
- Great: 2 Chronicles 2: 5; Psalms 86: 10;
- Gracious: Exodus 34: 6; Psalm 116: 5;
- Merciful: Exodus 34: 6-7;
- Compassionate: 2 Kings 13: 23;
- Forgiving: Numbers 14: 18; Micah 7: 1;
- Should be worshipped in spirit and in truth: John 4: 24.

However, the Bible also contains a few attributes that do not fit the overall depiction of God in the Quran. For instance, according to the Old Testament, God is Jealous (Joshua 24: 19; Nahum 1: 2), or a Consuming Fire (Hebrews 12: 29). The God of the Old Testament demonstrates weak qualities, since He regrets creating Adam (Genesis 6: 6-7); worries about his reputation (Ezekiel 20: 8-10); cannot see Adam (3: 8- 10); rests, eats, sleeps (Exodus 31: 17; Genesis 18: 1- 8; Psalm 78: 65); can be seen and cannot be seen (Genesis 32: 30, compare it to Exodus 33: 17-20; John 1: 18); loses a wrestling match with Jacob (Genesis 32: 24-30); and is forgetful (Lamentations 5: 20; Psalms 13: 1). For God's attributes in the Quran, see 7:180.

Muhammad Asad - The Message Of Quran

Muhammad Asad - End Note 1 (59:2)

For this and the subsequent historical references, see the introductory note to this surah. The tribe of Banu n-Nadir - who, as Jews, are naturally termed ahl al-kitab ("followers of earlier revelation") - are characterized as "such as were bent on denying the truth" (alladhina kafaru, see note 6 on 2:6) because they treacherously turned against the Prophet despite their earlier admission that he was truly the bearer of God's message announced in their own holy scriptures (Deuteronomy xviii, 15 and 18).

Muhammad Asad - End Note 2 (59:2)

Lit., "from whence they had not thought (it possible)": an allusion to the last-minute, unexpected failure of Abd Allah ibn Ubayy to come to their aid.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 3 (59:2)

As mentioned in the introductory note, the Banu n-Nadir had originally concluded a treaty of mutual non-interference with the Muslim community, and were to live at Medina as its friendly neighbours; and even later, when their hostility to the Muslims had become apparent and they were ordered to emigrate, they were to be allowed to retain ownership of their plantations. Subsequently, however, they forfeited by their treachery both their citizenship and the rights to their landed property, and thus "destroyed their homes by their own hands".

Muhammad Asad - End Note 4 (59:4)

For this condemnation of the Banu n-Nadir, see note 1 above. As regards my rendering of the verb shaqqu as "they cut themselves off", see note 16 on 8:13 .

Muhammad Asad - End Note 5 (59:5)

I.e., to facilitate the military operations against the strongholds of the Banu n-Nadir (Abd Allah ibn Mas'ud, as quoted by Zamakhshari et al.). It should, however, be noted that apart from such stringent military exigencies, all destruction of enemy property - and, in particular, of trees and crops - had been and continued to be prohibited by the Prophet (Tabari, Baghawi, Zamakhshari , Razi, Ibn Kathir), and has thus become an integral part of Islamic Law.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 6 (59:6)

Lit., "from them": i.e., from the Banu n-Nadir.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 7 (59:6)

I.e., "you did not have to fight for it, since the enemy surrendered without giving battle". The term fay (a noun derived from the verb fa'a, "he returned (something)" or "turned [it] over") is applied in the Qur'an and the Traditions exclusively to war-gains - whether consisting of lands, or tribute, or indemnities - which are obtained, as a condition of peace, from an enemy who has laid down arms before actual fighting has taken place (Taj al-'Arus).

Muhammad Asad - End Note 8 (59:7)

Sc., and not to individual Muslim warriors. As so often in the Qur'an, the expression "God and the Apostle" is here a metonym for the Islamic cause, and for a government that rules in accordance with the laws of the Qur'an and the teachings of the Prophet.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 9 (59:7)

Cf. 8:41, which relates to booty acquired in actual warfare, out of which only one-fifth is to be reserved for the above five categories (see note 41 on 8:41). In distinction from all such booty, the gains obtained through fay are to be utilized in their entirety under these five headings. As regards the term ibn as-sabil ("wayfarer"), see surah 2 note 145

Muhammad Asad - End Note 10 (59:7)

Respectively, in later times, the head of an Islamic state, who has to decide - in the light of the exigencies - how the share of "God and His Apostle" is to be utilized for the common weal.

Muhammad Asad - End Note (59:7)

Muhammad Asad - End Note 11 (59:8)

For this rendering of the term muhajirun ("emigrants"), see surah 2 note 203.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 12 (59:9)

I.e., before the coming to them of "those who have forsaken the domain of evil" (see next note).

Muhammad Asad - End Note 13 (59:9)

This relates, in the first instance, to the historical ansar ("helpers") of Medina, who had embraced Islam before the Prophet's and his Meccan followers' coming to them, and who received the refugees with utmost generosity, sharing with them like brethren their own dwellings and all their possessions. In a wider sense, the above refers also to all true believers, at all times, who live in freedom and security within the realm of Islam, and are prepared to receive with open arms anyone who is compelled to leave his homeland in order to be able to live in accordance with the dictates of his faith.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 14 (59:9)

Thus, greed, niggardliness and covetousness are pointed out here as the main obstacles to man's attaining to a happy state in this world and in the hereafter (cf. surah 102).

Muhammad Asad - End Note 15 (59:10)

I.e., all who attain to a belief in the Qur'an and its Prophet (Razi).

Muhammad Asad - End Note 16 (59:11)

I.e., the hypocrites of Medina (see introductory note as well as next note).

Muhammad Asad - End Note 17 (59:11)

The Banu n-Nadir. From the construction of the next verse it appears that the whole of this passage (verses 11-14) was revealed before the actual advance of the Muslims against the Nadir strong holds: verses 12 -14 might be of a prophetic nature, predicting what was yet to happen (Zamakhshari). Alternatively, the passage may be understood in a wider, timeless sense, applying to the falsity and futility inherent in all "alliances" between, on the one hand, people who openly deny the truth and, on the other, half-hearted waverers who have neither the will to commit themselves to a spiritual proposition nor the moral courage to declare openly their lack of belief.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 18 (59:13)

Inasmuch as they do not - or, at best, only half-heartedly -believe in God, the tangible, material dangers facing them in this world arouse in them a far greater fear than the thought of His ultimate judgment.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 19 (59:14)

The meaning is: "Even if they were able - which they are not - to put forth against you a truly unified front, they will always fight you only from what they regard as well-established 'positions of strength'."

Muhammad Asad - End Note 20 (59:14)

Sc., "with a view to achieving what is good for them": implying that people who have no real faith and no definite moral convictions can never attain to true unity among themselves, but are always impelled to commit acts of aggression against one another.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 21 (59:15)

This interpolation - relating as it does to both the out right deniers of the truth and the hypocrites - is justified by the occurrence of the dual form in verse 17.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 22 (59:15)

In the first instance, this is apparently an allusion to the fate of the pagan Quraysh at the battle of Badr (Zamakhshari) or, according to some authorities (quoted by Tabari), to the treachery and subsequent expulsion from Medina, in the month of Shawwal, 2H., of the Jewish tribe of Banu Qaynuqa. But in a wider perspective - strongly suggested by the next two verses - the meaning is general and not restricted to any particular time or historical occurrence.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 23 (59:16)

Cf. 8:48; also 14:22 and the corresponding notes.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 24 (59:17)

Lit., "the end (aqibah) of both will be that both",etc.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 25 (59:19)

I.e., by having made a deliberately wrong use of the faculty of reason with which God has endowed man, and - by remaining oblivious of Him - having wasted their own spiritual potential.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 26 (59:21)

I.e., in contrast with those who, by remaining oblivious of God and all moral imperatives, are spiritually more dead than an inert mountain.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 27 (59:22)

See note 65 on the second paragraph of 6:73.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 28 (59:23)

Lit., "the Salvation" (as-salam) : see surah 5 note 29.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 29 (59:23)

For this rendering of muhaymin ,see 5:48- where this term is applied to the Qur'an - and the corresponding note.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 30 (59:23)

Since the verb jabara -from which the noun jabbaris derived - combines the concepts of "setting right" or "restoring" (e.g., from astate of brokenness, ill-health, or misfortune) and of "compelling" or "subduing(someone or something) to one's will", I believe that the termal-jabbar, when applied to God, is best rendered as above.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 31 (59:24)

Thus Baydawi. The two termsal-bari ("the Maker") andal-musawwir ("the Shaper", i.e., of all forms and appearances) evidently constitute here one single unit.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 32 (59:24)

For this rendering of al-asmaal-husna, see surah 7 note 145.

Shabbir Ahmed -

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 1 (59:2)

'God came' = His requital came. They dismantled their immovable property to prevent the believers from benefiting from it

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 2 (59:5)

3:159. Lina = Softness, gentleness = Soft young palm-tree. Faasiq = One who drifts away

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 3 (59:7)

The messenger will spend it on The Central Government (The Central authority) -The welfare of the families of the believers. -The orphans. -Those who still feel left alone in the society. -The widows. - Those who have no means of earning their livelihood. - The disabled who cannot move around looking for the bounty of God. -The homeless son of the street. -Those who are on their way to join you, and - Those who travel a distance to seek help. So that it may not keep revolving between the wealthy among you. So, take what the messenger gives you, and abstain from what he forbids you. Be mindful of God. Surely, God is Stern in grasping.

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 4 (59:14)

Their alliances are based on selfishness rather on a noble ideology

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 5 (59:17)

Both = The person and his selfish desires

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 6 (59:24)

He runs the Universe in His Infinite power with His Infinite wisdom

Best viewed using your own brain

Tested on 1024x768 resolution with  FIREFOX 2

Kitabun Marqum v0.6.7 - Kitabun Marqum - Quran Research Platform by QuraniX Team Copyright © 2002-2011 All rights reserved.
Copyrights of all translations belong to their respective authors.

49:6 O you who believe, if a wicked person brings any news to you, you shall first investigate, lest you commit injustice towards some people, out of ignorance, then become sorry and remorseful for what you have done.

Rashad Khalifa (The Final Testament)

 Translations ▼

 Chapter/Verse ▼

 Refresh

 Search

<< Prev 60:1-13 Next >>

Edip-Layth	In the name of God, the Gracious, the Compassionate. 60:1 O you who acknowledge, do not take My enemy and your enemy as allies, you extend love to them, even though they have rejected the truth that has come to you. They drive you and the messenger out, simply because you acknowledge God, your Lord. If you are mobilizing to strive in My cause, seeking My blessings, then how can you secretly love them? I am fully aware of everything you conceal and what you declare. Whosoever of you does this, then he has gone astray from the right path.
The Monotheist Group	In the name of God, the Almighty, the Merciful. 60:1 O you who believe, do not take My enemy and your enemy as allies, you extend love to them, even though they have rejected the truth that has come to you. They drive you and the messenger out, simply because you believe in God, your Lord. If you are mobilizing to strive in My cause, seeking My blessings, then how can you secretly love them? I am fully aware of everything you conceal and what you declare. And whosoever of you does this, then he has gone astray from the right path.
Muhammad Asad	In the name of God, The Most Gracious, The Dispenser of Grace: 60:1 O YOU who have attained to faith! Do not take My enemies - who are your enemies as well¹ - for your friends, showing them affection even though they are bent on denying whatever truth has come unto you, [and even though] they have driven the Apostle and yourselves away, [only] because you believe in God, your Sustainer!² If [it be true that] you have gone forth [from your homes] to strive in My cause, and out of a longing for My goodly acceptance, [do not take them for your friends,] inclining towards them in secret affection: for I am fully aware of all that you may conceal as well as of all that you do openly. And any of you who does this has already strayed from the right path.³
Rashad Khalifa	In the name of GOD, Most Gracious, Most Merciful. 60:1 O you who believe, you shall not befriend My enemies and your enemies, extending love and friendship to them, even though they have disbelieved in the truth that has come to you. They persecute the messenger, and you, just because you believe in GOD, your Lord. If you mobilize to struggle in My cause, seeking My blessings, how can you secretly love them? I am fully aware of everything you conceal, and everything you declare. Those among you who do this have indeed strayed off the right path.

Shabbir Ahmed	BISMILLAH-IR-RAHMAN-IR-RAHEEM With the Glorious Name of God, the Ultimate Source of Instant Beneficence and Eternal mercy Who encompasses the entire Universe, nourishing and taking care of all things for what they are meant to be; just as a mother's womb nourishes the embryo to completion without any returns. 60:1 O You who have chosen to be graced with belief! Do not take My enemies - who are your enemies as well - for friends. Do you extend love and friendship to them when they reject the truth that has come to you, driving out the messenger and you because you believe in God, your Lord? If you are committed to strive in My way and to seek My approval, befriend them not. Do you show them friendship in secret, though I am best Aware of what you conceal and what you reveal? And whoever among you does that, he has certainly strayed from the right way. ¹
Transliteration	Bismi Allāhi alRrahmāni alRrahēemi 60:1 Ya ayyuha allatheena amanoola tattakhiṭhoo AAaduwwē waAAaduwwakum awliyaatulqoona ilayhim bi alṁawaddati waqad kafaroo bim a jaakummina alḥaqqi yukhrijoona a Irrasoola wa-iyy akuman tu/minoo bi Allāhi rabbikum in kuntum kharajtumjihādan fee sabeelee wa ibtighaa mar dateetusirroona ilayhim bi alṁawaddati waan a aAAlamu bim aakhfaytum wam a aAAlantum waman yafAAalhu minkum faqad dallasawaa alssabeeli
A	بسم الله الرحمن الرحيم 60:1 يَا أَيُّهَا الَّذِينَ ءَامَنُوا لَا تَتَّخِذُوا عَدُوَّ وَعَدُوَّكُمْ أَوْلِيَاءَ تَلْقَوْنَ إِلَيْهِم بِالْمُودَةِ وَقَدْ كَفَرُوا بِمَا جَاءَكُمْ مِنَ الْحَقِّ يُخْرِجُونَ الرَّسُولَ وَإِيَّاكُمْ أَنْ تُؤْمِنُوا بِاللَّهِ رَبِّكُمْ أَنْ كُنْتُمْ خَرَجْتُمْ جِهَادًا فِي سَبِيلِي وَابْتِغَاءَ مَرْضَاتِي تُسِرُّونَ إِلَيْهِم بِالْمُودَةِ وَأَنَا أَعْلَمُ بِمَا اخْفَيْتُمْ وَمَا أَعْلَنْتُمْ وَمَنْ يَفْعَلْهُ مِنْكُمْ فَقَدْ ضَلَّ سَوَاءَ السَّبِيلِ
Edip-Layth	60:2 If they encounter you, they treat you as enemies, and they extend their hands and tongues against you to hurt you. They desire you to reject.
The Monotheist Group	60:2 If they encounter you, they treat you as enemies, and they extend their hands and tongues against you to hurt you. They desire you to disbelieve.
Muhammad Asad	60:2 If they could but overcome you, they would [still] remain your foes, and would stretch forth their hands and tongues against you with evil intent: for they desire that you [too] should deny the truth.
Rashad Khalifa	60:2 Whenever they encounter you, they treat you as enemies, and hurt you with their hands and tongues. They want you to disbelieve.
Shabbir Ahmed	60:2 If they ever overcome you, they will divide you, and smite you with their hands and tongues causing much disruption. For, they will love to see you reject the truth. ²
Transliteration	60:2 In yathqafookum yakoonoo lakam aAAad aanwayabsuṭoo ilaykum aydiyahum waalsinatahum bialssoo-iwawaddoo law takfuroona
A	60:2 أَنْ يَتَّقَوْكُمْ يَكُونُوا لَكُمْ أَعْدَاءَ وَيَبْسُطُوا إِلَيْكُمْ أَيْدِيَهُمْ وَالسِّنْتَهِم بِالسُّوءِ وَوَدُّوا لَوْ تَكْفُرُونَ

Edip-Layth	60:3 Neither your relatives nor your children will benefit you; on the day of resurrection He will separate between you. God is Seer of everything you do.
The Monotheist Group	60:3 Neither your relatives nor your children will benefit you; on the Day of Resurrection He will separate between you. And God is Seer of everything you do.
Muhammad Asad	60:3 But [bear in mind that] neither your kinsfolk nor [even] your own children will be of any benefit to you on Resurrection Day, [for then] He will decide between you [on your merit alone]: and God sees all that you do.
Rashad Khalifa	60:3 Your relatives and [your children] ¹ can never help you. On the Day of Resurrection, He will judge among you. GOD is Seer of everything you do.
Shabbir Ahmed	60:3 (Divine Ideology comes first. Know that) Your family, relatives and your children will not avail you on the Resurrection Day. He will decide between you on individual merit alone. God is Seer of all that you do.
Transliteration	60:3 Lan tanfaAAakum ar hamukum wal aawladukum yawma alqiy amati yaf silu baynakumwaAllahu bima taAAmaloona baseerun
A	60:3 لن تنفعكم ارحامكم ولا اولدكم يوم القيمة يفصل بينكم والله بما تعملون بصير
Edip-Layth	Role Models 60:4 There has been a good example set for you by Abraham and those with him, when they said to their people: "We are innocent from you and what you serve besides God. We have rejected you, and it appears that there shall be animosity and hatred between us and you until you acknowledge God alone." Except for the saying of Abraham to his father: "I will ask forgiveness for you, but I do not possess any power to protect you from God." "Our Lord, we have put our trust in You, and we turn to You, and to You is the final destiny." ¹
The Monotheist Group	60:4 There has been a good example set for you by Abraham and those with him, when they said to their people: "We are innocent from you and what you serve besides God. We have rejected you, and it appears that there shall be animosity and hatred between us and you until you believe in God alone." Except for the saying of Abraham to his father: "I will ask forgiveness for you, but I do not possess any power to protect you from God." "Our Lord, we have put our trust in You, and we turn to You, and to You is the final destiny."
Muhammad Asad	60:4 Indeed, you have had a good example in Abraham and those who followed him, when they said unto their [idolatrous] people: "Verily, we are quit of you and of all that you worship instead of God: we deny the truth of whatever you believe; and between us and you there has arisen enmity and hatred, to last until such a time ⁴ as you come to believe in the One God!" The only exception was Abraham's saying to his father "I shall indeed pray for [God's] forgiveness for thee, ⁶ although I have it not in my power to obtain anything from God in thy behalf." [And Abraham and his followers prayed:] "O our Sustainer! In Thee have we placed our trust, and unto Thee do we turn: for unto Thee is all journeys' end. ⁵
Rashad Khalifa	Abraham: An Example 60:4 A good example has been set for you by Abraham and those with him. They said to their people, "We disown you and the idols that you worship besides GOD. We denounce you, and you will see nothing from us except animosity and hatred until you believe in GOD ALONE." However, a mistake was committed by Abraham when he said to his father, "I will pray for your forgiveness, but I possess no power to protect you from GOD." "Our Lord, we trust in You, and submit to You; to You is the final destiny.
	60:4 There is an excellent pattern for you in Abraham, and his companions. They said to their people, "Truly, we stay clear of you and of what you worship instead

Shabbir Ahmed	of God. We reject you. And between us and you has arisen absolute distance and aversion until you believe in God alone." The only exception was Abraham's saying to his father, "I will pray for your forgiveness, although I own nothing for you from God." Then he prayed, "Our Lord! In You we place our trust, to You we turn for guidance, and unto You is the journey's end. ³
Transliteration	60:4 Qad kanat lakum oswatun hasanatunfee ibraheema waallatheena maAAahu ithqaloo liqawmihim inn a bura ao minkum wamimm ataABudoona min dooni Allahi kafarn a bikum wabad abaynana wabaynakumu alAAad awatu waalbaghdaoabadan hatta tu/minoo bi Allahi wa hdahuilla qawla ibr aheema li-abeehi laastaghfiranna lakawam a amliku laka mina All ahi min shay-in rabbanaAAalayka tawakkalna wa-ilayka anabna wa-ilayka almasseeru
A	60:4 قد كانت لكم اسوة حسنة فى ابراهيم والذين معه اذ قالوا لقومهم انا برعوا منكم ومما تعبدون من دون الله كفرنا بكم وبدا بيننا وبينكم العداوة والبغضاء ابدأ حتى تؤمنوا بالله وحده الا قول ابراهيم لابييه لاستغفرن لك وما املك لك من الله من شىء ربنا عليك توكلنا واليك انبنا واليك المصير
Edip-Layth	60:5 "Our Lord, do not let us become a test for those who rejected, and forgive us. Our Lord, You are the Noble, the Wise."
The Monotheist Group	60:5 "Our Lord, do not let us become a test for those who rejected, and forgive us. Our Lord, You are the Noble, the Wise."
Muhammad Asad	60:5 O our Sustainer! Make us not a plaything ⁷ for those who are bent on denying the truth! And forgive us our sins, O our sustainer: for Thou alone art, almighty, truly wise!"
Rashad Khalifa	60:5 "Our Lord, let us not be oppressed by those who disbelieved, and forgive us. You are the Almighty, Most Wise."
Shabbir Ahmed	60:5 Our Lord! Let us not be made a target of persecution at the hands of the rejecters. And protect us, our Lord!" Surely, You, You alone are the Mighty, the Wise." ⁴
Transliteration	60:5 Rabbana l a tajAAaln afitnatan lilla theena kafaroo wa ighfir lan arabbana innaka anta alAAazeezu alhakeemu
A	60:5 ربنا لا تجعلنا فتنة للذين كفروا واغفر لنا ربنا انك انت العزيز الحكيم
Edip-Layth	60:6 Certainly, a good example has been set by them for those who seek God and the Last day. Whosoever turns away, then God is the Rich, the Praiseworthy.
The Monotheist Group	60:6 Certainly, a good example has been set by them for those who seek God and the Last Day. And whosoever turns away, then God is the Rich, the Praiseworthy.
Muhammad Asad	60:6 In them, indeed, you have a good example for everyone who looks forward [with hope and awe ⁸] to God and the Last Day. And if any turns away, [let him know that] God is truly self-sufficient, the One to whom all praise is due."
Rashad Khalifa	60:6 A good example has been set by them for those who seek GOD and the Last Day. As for those who turn away, GOD is in no need (of them), Most Praiseworthy.
Shabbir Ahmed	60:6 In them, you have an excellent pattern, for anyone whose hope is in God and in the Last Day. And whoever turns away, then God is Absolutely Independent, Worthy of all praise.

Transliteration	60:6 Laqad k āna lakum feehim oswatun ḥasanatunliman k āna yarjoo All āha waalyawma al- ākhirawaman yatawalla fa-inna All āha huwa alghanniyyu alḥameedu
A	60:6 لقد كان لكم فيهم أسوة حسنة لمن كان يرجوا الله واليوم الآخر ومن يتول فان الله هو الغنى الحميد
Edip-Layth	Ultimate Social and Political Goal: Compassion, Peace, and Justice among People 60:7 Perhaps God will grant compassion between you and those you consider enemies; and God is Omnipotent. God is Forgiving, Compassionate.
The Monotheist Group	60:7 Perhaps God will grant compassion between you and those you consider enemies; and God is Capable. And God is Forgiving, Merciful.
Muhammad Asad	60:7 [But] it may well be that God will bring about [mutual] affection between you [O believers] and some of those whom you [now] face as enemies: for, God is all-powerful - and God is much-forgiving, a dispenser of grace.
Rashad Khalifa	60:7 GOD may change the animosity between you and them into love. GOD is Omnipotent. GOD is Forgiver, Most Merciful.
Shabbir Ahmed	60:7 It may well be that God will bring about affection between you and those whom you now consider enemies. Certainly, God is Able to do all things, and God is Forgiving, Merciful.
Transliteration	60:7 AAasa All āhu an yajAAalabaynakum wabayna alla theena AA adaytum minhumwaddatan waAllāhu qadeerun waAllāhughafoorun raḥeemun
A	60:7 عسى الله ان يجعل بينكم وبين الذين عاديتم منهم مودة والله قدير والله غفور رحيم
Edip-Layth	60:8 God does not forbid you from those who have not fought you because of your system, nor drove you out of your homes, that you deal kindly and equitably with them. For God loves the equitable.
The Monotheist Group	60:8 God does not forbid you from those who have not fought you because of your system, nor drove you out of your homes, that you deal kindly and equitably with them. For God loves the equitable.
Muhammad Asad	60:8 As for such [of the unbelievers] as do not fight against you on account of [your] faith, and neither drive you forth from your homelands, God does not forbid you to show them kindness and to behave towards them with full equity: 9 for, verily, God loves those who act equitably.
Rashad Khalifa	Basic Law Regulating Relations With Unbelievers 60:8 GOD does not enjoin you from befriending those who do not fight you because of religion, and do not evict you from your homes. You may befriend them and be equitable towards them. GOD loves the equitable.
Shabbir Ahmed	60:8 God does not forbid you from being kind, and fully equitable to those who do not fight you on account of Religion, and do not evict you from your homelands. God loves those who lead a just, balanced life. 5
Transliteration	60:8 La yanḥakumu AllāhuAAani alla theena lam yuqatiloookum fee alddeeniwalam yukhrijookum min diy arikum an tabarroohum watuqsi tooilayhim inna All āha yuḥibbu almuqsiṭeena
A	60:8 لا ينهاكم الله عن الذين لم يقاتلوكم في الدين ولم يخرجوكم من دياركم ان تبروهم وتقسطوا اليهم ان الله يحب المقسطين

Edip-Layth	60:9 But God does forbid you regarding those who fought you because of your system, and drove you out of your homes, and helped to drive you out. You shall not ally with them. Those who ally with them, then such are the transgressors.
The Monotheist Group	60:9 But God does forbid you regarding those who fought you because of your system, and drove you out of your homes, and helped to drive you out. You shall not ally with them. Those who ally with them, then such are the transgressors.
Muhammad Asad	60:9 God only forbids you to turn in friendship towards such as fight against you because of [your] faith, and drive you forth from your homelands, or aid [others] in driving you forth: and as for those [from among you] who turn towards them in friendship; it is they, they who are truly wrongdoers!
Rashad Khalifa	60:9 GOD enjoins you only from befriending those who fight you because of religion, evict you from your homes, and band together with others to banish you. You shall not befriend them. Those who befriend them are the transgressors.
Shabbir Ahmed	60:9 God forbids you from befriending only those who fight you on account of Religion and evict you from your homelands, or help others in evicting you. Those who befriend them, will be wrongdoers.
Transliteration	60:9 Innama yanh akumu All ahuAAani alla theena q atalookum fee alddeeniwaakhrajookum min diy arikum wa thaharooAAala ikhr ajikum an tawallawhum waman yatawallahumfaola-ika humu alththalimoona
A	60:9 انما ينهكم الله عن الذين قتلوكم في الدين واخرجوكم من دياركم وظهروا على اخراجكم ان تولوهم ومن يتولهم فاولئك هم الظالمون
Edip-Layth	Regarding Women Seeking Asylum during War 60:10 O you who acknowledge, if the acknowledging women come emigrating to you, then you shall test them. God is fully aware of their acknowledgement. Thus, if you establish that they are those who acknowledge, then you shall not return them to those who do not appreciate. They are no longer lawful for them, nor are those who do not appreciate lawful for them. Return the dowries that were paid. There is no sin upon you to marry them, if you have paid their dowries to them. Do not keep the wives who do not acknowledge, and ask back what dowries you paid. Let them ask back what dowries they had paid. Such is God's judgment; He judges between you. God is Knowledgeable, Wise.
The Monotheist Group	60:10 O you who believe, if the believing women come emigrating to you, then you shall test them. God is fully aware of their belief. Thus, if you establish that they are believers, then you shall not return them to the disbelievers. They are no longer lawful for them, nor are the disbelievers lawful for them. And return the dowries that were paid. And there is no sin upon you to marry them, if you have paid their dowries to them. And do not keep disbelieving wives, and ask back what dowries you paid. And let them ask back what dowries they had paid. Such is God's judgment; He judges between you. God is Knowledgeable, Wise.
Muhammad Asad	60:10 O YOU who have attained to faith! Whenever believing women come unto you, forsaking the domain of evil, ¹⁰ examine them, [although only] God is fully aware of their faith; ¹¹ and if you have thus ascertained that they are believers, do not send them back to the deniers of the truth, [since] they are [no longer] lawful to their erstwhile husbands, ¹² and these are [no longer] lawful to them. None the less, you shall return to them whatever they have spent [on their wives by way of dower]; ¹³ and [then, O believers,] you will be committing no sin if you marry them after giving them their dowers. On the other hand, hold not to the marriage-tie with women who [continue to] deny the truth, ¹⁴ and ask but for [the return of] whatever you have spent [by way of dower] -just as they [whose wives have gone over to you] have the right to demand ¹⁵ [the return of] whatever they have spent. Such is God's judgment: He judges between you [in equity] - for God is all-knowing, wise.

Rashad Khalifa	In Case of War 60:10 O you who believe, when believing women (abandon the enemy and) ask for asylum with you, you shall test them. GOD is fully aware of their belief. Once you establish that they are believers, you shall not return them to the disbelievers. They are not lawful to remain married to them, nor shall the disbelievers be allowed to marry them. Give back the dowries that the disbelievers have paid. You commit no error by marrying them, so long as you pay them their due dowries. Do not keep disbelieving wives (if they wish to join the enemy). You may ask them for the dowry you had paid, and they may ask for what they paid. This is GOD's rule; He rules among you. GOD is Omniscient, Most Wise.
Shabbir Ahmed	60:10 O You who have chosen to be graced with belief! When believing women come to you as immigrants, investigate their case, although only God is best Aware of their faith. Once you establish that they are truly believers, do not return them to the rejecters of the truth. They are not lawful for the rejecters, nor are the rejecters lawful for them. Give the rejecters what they have spent on them (as dowry). And there is no blame on you if you marry these women, when you have given them their due marital gift. And do not hold on to wedlock with women who continue to deny the truth. And you may ask them for the dowry you had paid, just as the rejecters have the right to ask the return of what they spent. This is the Judgment of God. He judges between you, for God is All Knower, All Wise.
Transliteration	60:10 Ya ayyuh a alla theena amanooitha j aakumu almu/min atu muhajiratinfaimtahinoohunna All ahu aAAlamu bi-eem anihinnafa-in AAalimtumoohunna mu/min atin fal atarjiAAoohunna il a alkuff ari l a hunna hillunlahum wal a hum ya hilloona lahunna wa atoohumma anfaqoo wal a jun aha AAalaykum an tanki hoohunnaitha ataytumoo hunna ooorahunna wal atumsikoo biAAaigami alkaw afiri wa is-aloo m aanfaqtum walyas-aloo m a anfaqoo thalikum hukmuAllahi ya hkumu baynakum waAllahuAAaleemun hakeemun
A	60:10 يايها الذين ءامنوا اذا جاءكم المومنت مهاجرت فامتحنوهن الله اعلم بايمنهن فان علمتموهن مومنت فلا ترجعوهن الى الكفار لا هن حل لهم ولا هم يحلون لهن وءاتوهن ما انفقوا ولا جناح عليكم ان تتكحوهن اذا ءاتيتموهن اجورهن ولا تمسكوا بعصم الكوافر وسلوا ما انفقتم وليسلوا ما انفقوا ذلكم حكم الله يحكم بينكم والله عليم حكيم
Edip-Layth	60:11 If any of your wives have gone over to the camp of those who do not appreciate, and you are granted victory over them, then you shall compensate those whose wives have gone over, to the equivalent of what dowry they spent. Be aware of God, whom you acknowledge.
The Monotheist Group	60:11 And if any of your wives have gone-over to the camp of the disbelievers, and you are granted victory over them, then you shall compensate those whose wives have gone-over, to the equivalent of what dowry they spent. And be aware of God, in whom you believe.
Muhammad Asad	60:11 And if any of your wives should go over to the deniers of the truth, and you are thus afflicted in turn, ¹⁶ then give unto those whose wives have gone away the equivalent of what they had spent [on their wives by way of dower], ¹⁷ and remain conscious of God, in whom you believe!
Rashad Khalifa	60:11 If any of your wives join the enemies' camp, and you are forced to fight, you shall force the enemy to compensate the men who lost their wives, by giving them what they spent on their wives. You shall reverence GOD, in whom you believe.

Shabbir Ahmed	60:11 If the dower of a believer's immigrant wife has gone to the disbelievers, at your turn (when a believing woman comes to you for asylum, the government will) compensate your men from what they had given (to their disbelieving wives as dower). Be mindful of God in Whom you are believers.
Transliteration	60:11 Wa-in f atakum shay-on min azw ajikumila alkuff ari faAA aqabtum fa atoo allatheenathahabat azw ajuhum mithla m a anfaqoo wa ittaqooAllaha alla thee antum bihi mu/minoona
A	60:11 وان فاتكم شيء من ازوجكم الى الكفار فعاقبتهم فأتوا الذين ذهبوا زوجهم مثل ما انفقوا واتقوا الله الذي انتم به مومنون
Eidip-Layth	A Group of Women Vote for Muhammad's Leadership by Entering into a Social Contract 60:12 O you prophet, if the acknowledging women come to make allegiance to you that they will not set up anything beside God, nor steal, nor commit adultery, nor kill their born children, nor fabricate any falsehood, nor disobey you in any matter which is righteous, then you shall accept their allegiance, and ask God to forgive them. God is Forgiver, Compassionate.
The Monotheist Group	60:12 O you prophet, if the believing women come to make allegiance to you that they will not set up anything beside God, nor steal, nor commit adultery, nor kill their children, nor fabricate any falsehood, nor disobey you in any matter which is righteous, then you shall accept their allegiance, and ask God to forgive them. God is Forgiver, Merciful.
Muhammad Asad	60:12 O Prophet! Whenever believing women come unto thee to pledge their allegiance to thee, ¹⁸ [pledging] that [henceforth] they would not ascribe divinity, in any way, to aught but God, and would not steal, ¹⁹ and would not commit adultery, and would not kill their children, ²⁰ and would not indulge in slander, falsely devising it out of nothingness: ²¹ and would not disobey thee in anything [that thou declarest to be] right - then accept their pledge of allegiance, and pray to God to forgive them their [past] sins: for, behold, God is much-forgiving, a dispenser of grace.
Rashad Khalifa	60:12 O you prophet, when the believing women (who abandoned the disbelievers) to seek asylum with you pledge to you that they will not set up any idols besides GOD, nor steal, nor commit adultery, nor kill their children, nor fabricate any falsehood, nor disobey your righteous orders, you shall accept their pledge, and pray to GOD to forgive them. GOD is Forgiver, Most Merciful.
Shabbir Ahmed	60:12 O Prophet! When the believing women come to you to take oath of allegiance that they will neither associate anyone with God, nor steal the rights of others, nor commit immodesty, nor kill their children, nor deprive them of good rearing, nor indulge in fabricating slander - either covertly or covertly - nor disobey you in the Qur'anic Values; accept their allegiance and ask God to bestow upon them the protection of forgiveness. God is Forgiving, Merciful.
Transliteration	60:12 Ya ayyuh a Innabiyyu i thajaaaka almu/min atu yub ayiAAnaka AAal aan l a yushrikna bi Allahi shay-an wal ayasriqna wal a yazneena wal a yaqtulna awladahunnawala ya/teena bibuht anin yaftareenahu baynaaydeehinna waarjulihinna wal a yaAA seenaka feemaAAroofin fab ayiAAhunna wa istaghfir lahunna Allahainna Allaha ghafoorun raheemun
A	60:12 ياايها النبي اذا جاءك المومنت يبايعنك على ان لا يشركن بالله شيئا ولا يسرقن ولا يزنين ولا يقتلن اولدهن ولا ياتين ببهتن يفترينه بين ايديهن وارجلهن ولا يعصينك في معروف فبايعنهن واستغفر لهن الله ان الله غفور رحيم

Edip-Layth	60:13 O you who acknowledge, do not ally a people with whom God is angry; for they have given up regarding the Hereafter, just like the ingrates have given up on the people who are already in the graves.
The Monotheist Group	60:13 O you who believe, do not ally a people with whom God is angry; for they have given-up regarding the Hereafter, just like the rejecters have given-up on the people who are already in the graves.
Muhammad Asad	60:13 O YOU who have attained to faith! Be not friends with people whom God has condemned! ²² They [who would befriend them] are indeed bereft of all hope of a life to come ²³ - just as those deniers of the truth are bereft of all hope of [ever again seeing] those who are [now] in their graves. ²⁴
Rashad Khalifa	60:13 O you who believe, do not befriend people with whom GOD is angry, and who are hopelessly stuck in disbelief; they are just as hopeless as the disbelievers who are already in the graves.
Shabbir Ahmed	60:13 O You who have chosen to be graced with belief! Do not befriend a people whom God has condemned. Of the Hereafter they are already in despair - just as the deniers of the truth despair (the resurrection) of those who are in the graves.
Transliteration	60:13 Ya ayyuh a alla theena amanoola tatawallaw qawman gha diba AllahuAAalayhim qad ya-isoo mina al- akhiraati kam a ya-isaalkuffaru min a s-habi alquboori
A	60:13 يَا أَيُّهَا الَّذِينَ ءَامَنُوا لَا تَتَوَلَّوْا قَوْمًا غَضِبَ اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِمْ قَدْ يَئُوسُوا مِنْ ءَآخِرَةِ كَمَا يَئُوسُ الْكُفَّارُ مِنْ أَصْحَابِ الْقُبُورِ

<< Prev 60:1-13 Next >>

Return to top

End Notes

Muhammad Asad - The Message Of Quran

Muhammad Asad - End Note 1 (60:1)

Lit., "and your enemies" - implying that people who deliberately reject God's messages are ipso facto inimical to those who believe in them.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 2 (60:1)

Historically, this is a reference to the forced emigration of the Prophet and his followers from Mecca to Medina. In a more general sense, however, it is an allusion to the potential persecution of believers of all times by "those who are bent on denying the truth", i.e., those who are averse to religious beliefs as such.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 3 (60:1)

As is shown in verses 7-9, this prohibition of taking unbelievers for friends relates only to such of them as are actively hostile towards the believers (cf. 58:22 and the corresponding note 29).

Muhammad Asad - End Note 4 (60:4)

Since the adverb abadan is immediately followed by the particle hatta ("until such a time as. . ."), it is obviously erroneous to give it the meaning of "forever", as has been hitherto done in all translations of the Qur'an into Western languages. In view of the original connotation of the noun abad as "time" or "long time", i.e., of indefinite duration (Jawhari, Zamakhshari's Asas, Mughni, etc.), abadan is best rendered in the present context as "to last [until] . . .", etc.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 5 (60:4)

Lit., "Except for": i.e., an exception from Abraham's statement, "between us and you there has arisen enmity and hatred, to last. . .", etc. In other words, his filial love prevented Abraham from including his father in his declaration of "enmity and hatred": although later - after his father had died as an idolater - Abraham could not but disavow him (cf. 9:114).

Muhammad Asad - End Note 6 (60:4)

Cf. 19:47-48.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 7 (60:5)

Lit., "temptation to evil" (fitnah): cf. 10:85, where the term fitnah has the same meaning as in the present instance.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 8 (60:6)

As in the similar phrase in 33:21, this double connotation is implied in the verb rajawa and all the noun-forms derived from it.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 9 (60:8)

The expression "God does not forbid you" implies in this context a positive exhortation (Zamakhshari). See also note 29 on 58:22.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 10 (60:10)

Lit., "as emigrants" (muhajirat). For an explanation of my rendering this term as above, see surah 2, note 203.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 11 (60:10)

Under the terms of the Truce of Hudaibiyyah, concluded in the year 6 H. between the Prophet and the pagan Quraysh of Mecca, any Meccan minor or other person under guardianship who went over to the Muslims without the permission of his or her guardian was to be returned to the Quraysh (see introductory note to surah 48). The Quraysh took this stipulation to include also married women, whom they considered to be under the "guardianship" of their husbands. Accordingly, when several Meccan women embraced Islam against the will of their husbands and fled to Medina, the Quraysh demanded their forcible return to Mecca. This the Prophet refused on the grounds that married women did not fall within the category of "persons under guardianship". However, since there was always the possibility that some of these women had gone over to the Muslims not for reasons of faith but out of purely worldly considerations, the believers were enjoined to make sure of their sincerity; and so, the Prophet asked each of them: "Swear before God that thou didst not leave because of hatred of thy husband, or out of desire to go to another country, or in the hope of attaining to worldly advantages: swear before God that thou didst not leave for any reason save the love of God and His Apostle" (Tabari). Since God alone knows what is in the heart of a human being, a positive response of the woman concerned was to be regarded as the only humanly attainable - and, therefore, legally sufficient - proof of her sincerity. The fact that God alone is really aware of what is in a human being's heart is incorporated in the shar'i principle that any adult person's declaration of faith, in the absence of any evidence to the contrary, makes it mandatory upon the community to accept that person - whether man or woman - as a Muslim on the basis of this declaration alone.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 12 (60:10)

Lit., "to them". Thus, if a wife embraces Islam while her husband remains outside its pale, the marriage is considered, from the Islamic point of view, to have been automatically annulled.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 13 (60:10)

Such an annulment is to be subject to the same conditions as a khul' (dissolution of marriage, at the wife's instance, from her Muslim husband - see note 218 on the second paragraph of 2:229): that is to say, since the non-Muslim former husband is presumed to have been innocent of any breach of his marital obligations as such, the wife is to be considered the contract-breaking party and has, therefore, to refund the dower (mahr) which she received from him at the time of concluding the marriage. In case of her inability to do so, the Muslim community is obliged to indemnify the erstwhile husband: hence the plural form in the imperative "you shall return" (lit., "give").

Muhammad Asad - End Note 14 (60:10)

I.e., such of the pagan wives of Muslim converts as refuse to abandon their beliefs and their non-Muslim environment, in which case the Muslim husband is to regard the marriage as null and void. As for Muslim wives who, abandoning their husbands, go over to the unbelievers and renounce their faith, see verse 11.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 15 (60:10)

Lit., "and let them demand. . .", etc.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 16 (60:11)

Lit., "and you are thus taking your turn", i.e., like the unbelievers whose wives have gone over to the Muslims and renounced their erstwhile faith.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 17 (60:11)

Since, as a rule, the unbelievers cannot really be expected to indemnify a husband thus deserted, the Muslim community as a whole is bound to undertake this obligation. As a matter of fact, there were only six such cases of apostasy in the lifetime of the Prophet (all of them before the conquest of Mecca in 8 H.); and in each case the Muslim husband was awarded by the communal treasury, on orders of the Prophet, the equivalent of the dower originally paid by him - (Baghawi and Zamakhshari).

Muhammad Asad - End Note 18 (60:12)

This connects with verse 10 above, and particularly with the words, "examine them. . . and if you have thus ascertained that they are believers. . .", etc. (see note 11). Thus, after having "ascertained" their belief as far as is humanly possible, the Prophet - or, in later times, the head of the Islamic state or community - is empowered to accept their pledge of allegiance (bay'ah)" which concludes, as it were, the "examination". It should be noted that this pledge does not differ essentially from that of a male convert.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 19 (60:12)

In this context, according to Razi, the term "stealing" comprises also all acquisition of gains through cheating or other unlawful means.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 20 (60:12)

Sc., "as the pagan Arabs often did, burying their unwanted female offspring alive" (see also note 147 on 6:151).

Muhammad Asad - End Note 21 (60:12)

Lit., "between their hands and their feet": i.e., by their own effort, the "hands" and "feet" symbolizing all human activity.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 22 (60:13)

Cf. 58:14 and the corresponding note 25, which explains the reference to those "who would be friends with people whom God has condemned".

Muhammad Asad - End Note 23 (60:13)

I.e., only people without any real belief in a life to come can remain "neutral" between right and wrong.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 24 (60:13)

I.e., because they utterly reject the idea of resurrection.

Shabbir Ahmed -

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 1 (60:1)

3:117

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 2 (60:2)

'Idia = Wedge = Wedge of division = Enmity = Dissension = Distance. Su = Disruption = Imbalance = Evil = Inequity

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 3 (60:4)

9:113, 14:41, 19:47, 33:21, 58:22

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 4 (60:5)

Ghafarah = Helmet, armor = Protection = Forgiveness = Guarding against detriment = Absolution of faults = Protection against intrinsic or extrinsic loss

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 5 (60:8)

Deen = Divinely Prescribed System of Life = Way of life = Collective system of living = Religion

Rashad Khalifa - The Final Testament

Rashad Khalifa - End Note 1 (60:3)

The Arabic word "awladukum," [your children], occurs in the Original Arabic Quran and is translated as "your money" in the last edition of the English translation. (submission.org editorial change)

Edip-Layth - Quran: A Reformist Translation

Edip-Layth - End Note 1 (60:4)

See 33:21. The Arabic word wahdahu (alone) occurs in the Quran six times and one of them is used to instruct us to follow the Quran alone (17:46). The expression Allahu wahdahu (God alone) occurs in 7:70; 39:45; 4:12,84 and 60:4. These numbers add up to 361, or 19x19 and thus it numerically emphasizes that the main message of the Quran is serving God ALONE. For the same reason, the numerical value of God's attribute WAHiD (One; 6+1+8+4) equals 19, the code of the Quran's numerical structure discovered in 1974. For the important role of the number 19, see chapter 74. We may pray for polytheists to attain salvation; but we cannot ask God to forgive them (4:48, 116). 060:007-9 These verses make it clear that war is allowed only in self-defense. See 9:5,29; 8:19; 47:35. 060:010 We should take a lesson from the meticulous care for the rights of individuals that have participated in war. Returning the dowries paid to the women who sought refuge among muslims to those who live with the aggressive enemies demonstrates the highest standard for a peaceful society that puts the value of justice and peace far above financial gain. It is no wonder Muhammad and his followers soon conquered the hearts of the entire population and were able to return peacefully to their hometown as victors. This shows that Muhammad's mission was not to gain more wealth, as some biased critic claim, since women would be encouraged to smuggle as much as they can from enemy ranks. 060:012 Verse 60:12 informs us about the rights and privileges enjoyed by women in the early muslim community during the life of prophet Muhammad. In this verse, the prophet acknowledges women's right to vote, by taking the pledge of believing women to peacefully surrender themselves to God alone and lead a righteous life. The word "BaYA" used in the verse implies the political nature of the pledge; they accepted the leadership of the prophet individually, with their free choice. This verse is not about some pagan or mushrik women embracing islam, but is about a group of muslim women publicly announcing their allegiance to Muhammad, who became a founder of a federally secular constitutional government in central Arabia. This is a historical document that shows that muslim women were not considered default appendices of their decision- making husbands, brothers, fathers or male guardians, but were rather treated as independent political entities who could vote and enter into social contracts with their leaders. Unfortunately, many of the human rights recognized by islam were later one by one taken away from individuals, especially from women, by the leaders of Sunni and Shiite religions. They replaced the progressive and liberating teaching of the Quran and practice of the early muslims with reactionary and enslaving teachings, thereby resurrecting the dogmas and practices of "the days of ignorance." It took humanity centuries to recognize for women their God-given rights. For instance, the US recognized the right of women to vote in 1919 by passing the 19th Amendment. Exactly, 13 centuries after it was recognized by the Quran. As for the region that once led the world in human rights and freedom, it is now more than 13 centuries behind! After women, the men too lost their dignity to elect their leaders. What a regression!

Edip-Layth - End Note (60:7)

Edip-Layth - End Note (60:10)

Edip-Layth - End Note (60:12)

Best viewed using your own brain

Tested on 1024x768 resolution with  FIREFOX 2

Kitabun Marqum v0.6.7 - Kitabun Marqum - Quran Research Platform by QuraniX Team Copyright © 2002-2011 All rights reserved.
Copyrights of all translations belong to their respective authors.

49:6 O you who believe, if a wicked person brings any news to you, you shall first investigate, lest you commit injustice towards some people, out of ignorance, then become sorry and remorseful for what you have done.

Rashad Khalifa (The Final Testament)

 Translations ▼

 Chapter/Verse ▼

 Refresh

 Search

<< Prev 61:1-14 Next >>

Edip-Layth	In the name of God, the Gracious, the Compassionate. 61:1 Glorifying God is everything in the heavens and everything on the earth. He is the Noble, the Wise.
The Monotheist Group	In the name of God, the Almighty, the Merciful. 61:1 Glorifying God is everything in the heavens and everything on the Earth. And He is the Noble, the Wise.
Muhammad Asad	In the name of God, The Most Gracious, The Dispenser of Grace: 61:1 ALL THAT IS in the heavens and all that is on earth extols God's limitless glory: for He alone is almighty, truly wise!
Rashad Khalifa	In the name of GOD, Most Gracious, Most Merciful. 61:1 Glorifying GOD is everything in the heavens and everything on earth. He is the Almighty, Most Wise.
Shabbir Ahmed	BISMILLAH-IR-RAHMAN-IR-RAHEEM With the Glorious Name of God, the Ultimate Source of Instant Beneficence and Eternal mercy Who encompasses the entire Universe, nourishing and taking care of all things for what they are meant to be; just as a mother's womb nourishes the embryo to completion without any returns. 61:1 All things in the heavens and all things on earth are striving to manifest the glory of God and to fulfill His plan. For, He is the Almighty, the Wise.
Transliteration	Bismi Allāhi alRaḥmāni alRaḥeemi 61:1 Sabbaḥa lillāhi m a fee a Issamawatiwama fee al-ar ḍi wahuwa alAAazeezu alḥakeemu
A	بسم الله الرحمن الرحيم 61:1 سبّح لله ما في السموت وما في الارض وهو العزيز الحكيم

Edip-Layth	61:2 O you who acknowledge, why do you say what you do not do?
The Monotheist Group	61:2 O you who believe, why do you say what you do not do?
Muhammad Asad	61:2 O YOU who have attained to faith! Why do you say one thing and do another? ¹
Rashad Khalifa	61:2 O you who believe, why do you say what you do not do?
Shabbir Ahmed	61:2 O You who have chosen to be graced with belief! Why do you say what you do not do?
Transliteration	61:2 Ya ayyuha alla theena amanoolima taqooloona ma la tafAAaloona
A	61:2 يايها الذين ءامنوا لم تقولون ما لا تفعلون
Edip-Layth	61:3 It is most despicable with God that you would say what you do not do.
The Monotheist Group	61:3 It is most despicable with God that you would say what you do not do.
Muhammad Asad	61:3 Most loathsome is it in the sight of God that you say what you do not do!
Rashad Khalifa	61:3 Most abominable in the sight of GOD is that you say what you do not do.
Shabbir Ahmed	61:3 It is despicable in the sight of God that you say what you do not do.
Transliteration	61:3 Kabura maqtan AAinda All ahi antaqooloo ma la tafAAaloona
A	61:3 كبر مقتا عند الله ان تقولوا ما لا تفعلون
Organized Fighters
Edip-Layth	61:4 God loves those who fight in His cause as one column; they are like bricks in a wall.
The Monotheist Group	61:4 God loves those who fight in His cause as one column; they are like bricks in a wall.
Muhammad Asad	61:4 Verily, God loves [only] those who fight in His cause in [solid] ranks, ² as though they were a building firm and compact.
Rashad Khalifa	61:4 GOD loves those who fight in His cause united in one column, like the bricks in one wall.
Shabbir Ahmed	61:4 Truly, God loves those who fight in His cause in columns as if they were a rock solid wall.
Transliteration	61:4 Inna All aha yu hibbu alla theen ayuqatiloona fee sabeelihi saffan kaannahum bunyanunmar soosun
A	61:4 ان الله يحب الذين يقتلون في سبيله صفا كانهم بنين مرصوص
Edip-Layth	61:5 When Moses said to his people: "O my people, why do you harm me, while you know that I am God's messenger to you?" But when they deviated, God diverted their hearts. God does not guide the wicked people.
The Monotheist Group	61:5 And when Moses said to his people: "O my people, why do you harm me, while you know that I am God's messenger to you?" But when they deviated, God diverted their hearts. And God does not guide the wicked people.
Muhammad Asad	61:5 Now when Moses spoke to his people, [it was this same truth that he had in mind:] "O my people! Why do you cause me grief, ³ the while you know that I am an apostle of God sent unto you?" And so, when they swerved from the right way, God let their hearts swerve from the truth: ⁴ for God does not bestow His guidance upon iniquitous folk.

Rashad Khalifa	61:5 Recall that Moses said to his people, "O my people, why do you hurt me, even though you know that I am GOD's messenger to you?" When they deviated, GOD diverted their hearts. For GOD does not guide the wicked people.
Shabbir Ahmed	61:5 (The people of Moses frequently said what they did not do, so) Moses had to tell them, "O My people! Why do you hurt me, even though you know that I am God's messenger to you?" But when they kept deviating, God let their hearts deviate. For, God does not guide those who keep drifting away from their word. ¹
Transliteration	61:5 Wa-i th q ala moos aliqawmihi y a qawmi lima tu/ ^{thoonanee} waqadtaAAlamoona annee rasoolu All ahi ilaykum falam a z aghooazagha All ahu quloobahum waAllahu layahdee alqawma alfasiqeena
A	61:5 واذا قال موسى لقومه يقوم لم تؤذوننى وقد تعلمون انى رسول الله اليكم فلما زاغوا ازاغ الله قلوبهم والله لا يهدي القوم الفسقين
Edip-Layth	The Messenger after Jesus 61:6 When Jesus, son of Mary, said, "O children of Israel, I am God's messenger to you, authenticating what is present with me of the Torah and bringing good news of a messenger to come after me whose name will be 'most acclaimed.'" But when he showed them the clear proofs, they said, 'This is clearly magic.' ¹
The Monotheist Group	61:6 And when Jesus, son of Mary, said: "O children of Israel, I am God's messenger to you, authenticating what is present with me of the Torah and bringing good news of a messenger to come after me whose name will be 'most acclaimed.'" But when he showed them the clear proofs, they said: "This is clearly magic"
Muhammad Asad	61:6 And [this happened, too,] when Jesus, the son of Mary, said: "O children of Israel! Behold, I am an apostle of God unto you, [sent] to confirm the truth of whatever there still remains ⁵ of the Torah, and to give [you] the glad tiding of an apostle who shall come after me, whose name shall be Ahmad." ⁶ But when he [whose coming Jesus had foretold] came unto them ⁷ with all evidence of the truth, they said: "This [alleged message of his] is [nothing but] spellbinding eloquence!" ⁸
Rashad Khalifa	Messenger After Jesus 61:6 Recall that Jesus, son of Mary, said, "O Children of Israel, I am GOD's messenger to you, confirming the Torah and bringing good news of a messenger to come after me whose name will be even more praised (Ahmad)." Then, when he showed them the clear proofs, they said, "This is profound magic."
Shabbir Ahmed	61:6 (The same happened when) Jesus son of Mary said, "O Children of Israel! I am a messenger of God to you. I confirm (the truth in) the Torah, and give you the good news of a messenger to come after me whose name shall be Ahmad (The praised One)." But when he does come to them with self-evident truth, the People of the scripture will say, "This is obvious magic (a spellbinding utterance)." ²
Transliteration	61:6 Wa-i th q ala AAees a ibnumaryama y a banee isr a-eela innee rasoolu Allahiilaykum mu ^s addiqan lim a bayna yadayya mina a Ittawra ^t i ^w amubashshiran birasoolin ya/tee min baAAadee ismuhu a hmadufalam a j aahum bi albayyinati qaloo ^h atha si ^h run mubeen ^u n

A	61:6 واذا قال عيسى ابن مريم يبنى اسرئيل انى رسول الله اليكم مصدقا لما بين يدي من التوراة ومبشرا برسول ياتى من بعدى اسمه احمد فلما جاءهم بالبينت قالوا هذا سحر مبين
Edip-Layth	61:7 Who is more evil than one who fabricates lies about God, while he is being invited to peacefully surrender? God does not guide the evil people.
The Monotheist Group	61:7 Who is more evil than one who fabricates lies about God, while he is being invited to submission? God does not guide the evil people.
Muhammad Asad	61:7 And who could be more wicked than one who invents [such] a lie about [a message from] God, seeing that he is [but] being called to self-surrender unto Him? But God does not bestow His guidance upon evil-doing folk.
Rashad Khalifa	61:7 Who is more evil than one who fabricates lies about GOD, and he is being invited to Submission? GOD does not guide the evil people.
Shabbir Ahmed	61:7 Who does greater wrong than he who invents a lie against God when he is invited to Islam? God does not guide the wrongdoing people. ³
Transliteration	61:7 Waman athlamu mimmani iftaraAAala Allahi alka th iba wahuwa yudAAaila al-islami waAllahu layahdee alqawma al th th th alimeena
A	61:7 ومن اظلم ممن افترى على الله الكذب وهو يدعى الى الاسلام والله لا يهدى القوم الظالمين
Edip-Layth	61:8 They wish to put out God's light with their mouths. But God will continue with His light, even if the ingrates dislike it.
The Monotheist Group	61:8 They wish to put out God's light with their mouths. But God will continue with His light, even if the rejecters dislike it.
Muhammad Asad	61:8 They aim to extinguish God's light with their utterances: ⁹ but God has willed to spread His light in all its fullness, however hateful this may be to all who deny the truth
Rashad Khalifa	61:8 They wish to put out GOD's light with their mouths. But GOD insists upon perfecting His light, in spite of the disbelievers.
Shabbir Ahmed	61:8 They aim to put out God's light with their mouths (utterances), but God has willed to spread His light in all its fullness, however hateful this may be to the deniers.
Transliteration	61:8 Yureedoona liyu t ^{fi} -oo noora All ^h ibi-afwa ^{hi} him waAllahu mutimmu noorihi walawkariha alka ^f iroona
A	61:8 يريدون ليطفوا نور الله بافوههم والله متم نوره ولو كره الكفرون
Edip-Layth	61:9 He is the One who sent His messenger with the guidance and the system of truth, so that it will manifest it above all other systems, even if those who set up partners dislike it.
The Monotheist Group	61:9 He is the One who sent His messenger with the guidance and the system of truth, so that it will expose all other systems, even if those who set up partners dislike it.
Muhammad Asad	61:9 He it is who has sent forth His Apostle with [the task of] spreading guidance and the religion of truth, to the end that He make it prevail over all [false] religion, ¹⁰ however hateful this may be to those who ascribe divinity to aught but God.
	The Great Prophecy

Rashad Khalifa	61:9 He has sent His messenger with the guidance and the true religion, and will make it dominate all religions, in spite of the idol worshipers.
Shabbir Ahmed	61:9 He is the One Who has sent forth His messenger with the guidance, and the Religion of truth, that He may make it prevail over all religions (other systems of life) however hateful this may be to those who ascribe partners to Him. ⁴
Transliteration	61:9 Huwa allathee arsala rasoolahu bi alhudawadeeni alhaqqi liyu th hirahu AAala aldeenikullihi walaw kariha almushrikoon a
A	61:9 هو الذى ارسل رسوله بالهدى ودين الحق ليظهره على الدين كله ولو كره المشركون
Edip-Layth	61:10 "O you who acknowledge, shall I lead you to a trade that will save you from painful retribution?"
The Monotheist Group	61:10 "O you who believe, shall I lead you to a trade that will save you from painful retribution."
Muhammad Asad	61:10 O YOU who have attained to faith! Shall I point out to you a bargain that will save you from grievous suffering [in this world and in the life to come]? ¹¹
Rashad Khalifa	The Best Deal 61:10 O you who believe, let Me inform you of a trade that will save you from painful retribution.
Shabbir Ahmed	61:10 O You who have chosen to be graced with belief! Shall I tell you of a trade that will save you from a painful doom (in both lives)?
Transliteration	61:10 Ya ayyuha allatheena amanooah adullukum AAala tijaratin tunjeekum min AAathabinaleemin
A	61:10 ياايها الذين ءامنوا هل ادلكم على تجرة تتجيكم من عذاب اليم
Edip-Layth	61:11 "That you acknowledge God and His messenger and strive in the cause of God with your money and your lives. This is best for you, if only you knew."
The Monotheist Group	61:11 "That you believe in God and His messenger and strive in the cause of God with your money and your lives. This is best for you, if only you knew."
Muhammad Asad	61:11 You are to believe in God and His Apostle, and to strive hard in God's cause with your possessions and your lives: this is for your own good - if you but knew it!
Rashad Khalifa	61:11 Believe in GOD and His messenger and strive in the cause of GOD with your money and your lives. This is the best deal for you, if you only knew.
Shabbir Ahmed	61:11 That you put your faith in God and His messenger and strive in the cause of God with your wealth and person. This is for your own good, if you but knew. ⁵
Transliteration	61:11 Tu/minoona bi Allahiwarasoolihi watuj ahidoona fee sabeeli All ahi bi-amwalikumwaanfusikum th alikum khayrun lakum in kuntum taAAalamoon a
A	61:11 تومنون بالله ورسوله وتجهدون فى سبيل الله بامولكم وانفسكم ذلكم خير لكم ان كنتم تعلمون
Edip-Layth	61:12 He will then forgive your sins, and admit you into paradises with rivers flowing beneath, and beautiful mansions in the gardens of Eden. This is the greatest triumph.
	61:12 He will then forgive your sins, and admit you into paradises with rivers

The Monotheist Group	flowing beneath, and beautiful mansions in the gardens of Eden. This is the greatest triumph.
Muhammad Asad	61:12 [If you do so,] He will forgive you your sins, and [in the life to come] will admit you into gardens through which running waters flow, and into goodly mansions in [those] gardens of perpetual bliss: 12 that [will be] the triumph supreme!
Rashad Khalifa	61:12 In return, He forgives your sins, and admits you into gardens with flowing streams, with beautiful mansions in the gardens of Eden. This is the greatest triumph.
Shabbir Ahmed	61:12 He will guard you from trailing behind in humanity, and admit you into Gardens beneath which rivers flow, and into beautiful mansions in the Gardens of Eden, (Gardens of Eternal bliss). That is the Supreme Triumph.
Transliteration	61:12 Yaghfir lakum th unoobakumwayudkhilkum jann a tin tajree min ta h tiha a l-anharu wamas a kina t ayyibatan fee jann a tiAAadnin th alika alfawzu alAAa th ee mu
A	61:12 يغفر لكم ذنوبكم ويدخلكم جنت تجري من تحتها الانهر ومسكن طيبة في جنت عدن ذلك الفوز العظيم
Edip-Layth	61:13 Also you will receive what you love: a triumph from God and a victory that is close at hand. Give good news to those who acknowledge.
The Monotheist Group	61:13 And also you will receive what you love: a triumph from God and a victory that is close at hand. And give good news to the believers.
Muhammad Asad	61:13 And [withal, He will grant you] yet another thing that you dearly love: succour from God [in this world], and a victory soon to come: 13 and [thereof, O Prophet,] give thou a glad tiding to all who believe.
Rashad Khalifa	61:13 Additionally, you get something you truly love: support from GOD and guaranteed victory. Give good news to the believers.
Shabbir Ahmed	61:13 And yet another thing that you so dearly love! Help from God and imminent victory (soon in this very life). So give good news to the believers (O Prophet!)
Transliteration	61:13 Waokhr a tu h ibboonah a na s runmina All a hi wafat h un qarreebun wabashshirialmu/mineena
A	61:13 واخرى تحبونها نصر من الله وفتح قريب وبشر المؤمنين
Edip-Layth	The Supporters (Ansar/Nasara/Nazarenes) 61:14 O you who acknowledge, be God's supporters, as Jesus the son of Mary said to his disciples: "Who are my supporters towards God?" The disciples said, "We are God's supporters." Thus, a group from the Children of Israel acknowledged, and another group rejected. So, We supported those who acknowledged against their enemy, and they were successful.
The Monotheist Group	61:14 O you who believe, be God's supporters, as Jesus the son of Mary said to his disciples: "Who are my supporters towards God?" The disciples said: "We are God's supporters." Thus, a group from the Children of Israel believed, and another group rejected. So We supported those who believed against their enemy, and they were successful.
	61:14 O YOU who have attained to faith! Be helpers [in the cause of God - even as Jesus, the son of Mary, said unto the white-garbed ones, 14 "Who will be my helpers in God's cause?" - whereupon the white-garbed [disciples] replied, "We

Muhammad Asad	shall be [thy] helpers [in the cause] of God!" And so [it happened that] some of the children of Israel came to believe [in the apostleship of Jesus], whereas others denied the truth. ¹⁵ But [now] We have given strength against their foes unto those who have [truly] attained to faith: ¹⁶ and they have become the ones that shall prevail.
Rashad Khalifa	61:14 O you who believe, be GOD's supporters, like the disciples of Jesus, son of Mary. When he said to them, "Who are my supporters towards GOD," they said, "We are GOD's supporters." Thus, a group from the Children of Israel believed, and another group disbelieved. We helped those who believed against their enemy, until they won.
Shabbir Ahmed	61:14 O You who have chosen to be blessed with belief! Be God's helpers. As an example - Jesus son of Mary said to the disciples, "Who are my helpers for God?" They said, "We are God's helpers." Thus a group from the Children of Israel accepted him, and another group rejected him. Then We strengthened those who believed, against their foe, and they became triumphant.
Transliteration	61:14 Ya ayyuha allatheena amanookoonoo an sara Allahi kam a qala AAeesaibnu maryama lil hawariyyeena man an saree il aAllahi q ala al hawariyyoona nahnuansaru All ahi fa amanat ta-ifatun minbanee isr a-eela wakafarat ta-ifatun faayyadnaallatheena amanoo AAala AAaduwwihim faasbahootahhireena
A	61:14 يايها الذين ءامنوا كونوا انصار الله كما قال عيسى ابن مريم للحواريين من انصارى الى الله قال الحواريون نحن انصار الله فامنت طائفة من بنى اسرائيل وكفرت طائفة فايدنا الذين ءامنوا على عدوهم فاصبحوا ظهريين

<< Prev 61:1-14 Next >>

Return to top

End Notes

Muhammad Asad - The Message Of Quran

Muhammad Asad - End Note 1 (61:2)

Lit., "Why do you say what you do not do?" In the first instance, this may be an allusion to such of the Prophet's Companions as had retreated in disorder from their battle stations at Uhud (see surah 3, note 90) despite their previous assertions that they were ready to lay down their lives in the cause of God and His Apostle. In a wider sense, the passage is addressed to all those who claim that they are willing to live up to anything that the divine writ declares to be desirable, then fall short of this determination.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 2 (61:4)

I.e., in unison, with their deeds corresponding to their assertions of faith. This moral necessity is further illustrated - by its opposite - in the subsequent reference to Moses and the recalcitrant among his followers.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 3 (61:5)

Sc., "by admitting that I speak in the name of God, and acting contrary to this you assertion": an allusion to the many instances of the contrariness and rebelliousness of the children of Israel evident from their own scriptures.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 4 (61:5)

Thus, persistence in wrong actions is bound to react on man's beliefs as well. As regards God's "letting their hearts swerve from the truth", see surah 14, note 4. Cf. also the oft-recurring reference to God's "sealing" a sinner's heart explained in note 7 on 2:7.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 5 (61:6)

Lit., "whatever there is between my hands" - a phrase explained in surah 3, note 3.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 6 (61:6)

This prediction is supported by several references in the Gospel of St. John to the Parakletos (usually rendered as "Comforter") who was to come after Jesus. This designation is almost certainly a corruption of Periklytos ("the Much-Praised"), an exact Greek translation of the Aramaic term or name Mawhamana. (It is to be borne in mind that Aramaic was the language used in Palestine at the time of, and for some centuries after, Jesus, and was thus undoubtedly the language in which the original - now lost - texts of the Gospels were composed.) In view of the phonetic closeness of Periklytos and Parakletos it is easy to understand how the translator - or, more probably, a later scribe - confused these two expressions. It is significant that both the Aramaic Mawhamana and the Greek Periklytos have the same meaning as the two names of the Last Prophet, Muhammad and Ahmad, both of which are derived from the verb hamida ("he praised") and the noun hamd ("praise"). An even more unequivocal prediction of the advent of the Prophet Muhammad - mentioned by name, in its Arabic form - is said to be forthcoming from the so-called Gospel of St. Barnabas, which, though now regarded as apocryphal, was accepted as authentic and was read in the churches until the year 496 of the Christian era, when it was banned as "heretical" by a decree of Pope Gelasius. However, since the original text of that Gospel is not available (having come down to us only in an Italian translation dating from the late sixteenth century), its authenticity cannot be established with certainty.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 7 (61:6)

I.e., to the later followers of the Bible.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 8 (61:6)

Alluding to the Qur'an (see 74:24-25 and the corresponding note 12).

Muhammad Asad - End Note 9 (61:8)

Lit., "with their mouths" - i.e., by describing God's message as "nothing but spellbinding eloquence" on the part of Muhammad.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 10 (61:9)

Cf. 3:19 - "the only [true] religion in the sight of God is [man's] self surrender unto Him".

Muhammad Asad - End Note 11 (61:10)

Cf. 9:111 - "God has bought of the believers their lives and their possessions, promising them paradise in return" - which explains the metaphor of a "bargain" (tijarah). My interpolation, between brackets, of the phrase "in this world and in the life to come" is justified by the subsequent verses 12 and 13, one of which relates to the hereafter, and the other to this world.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 12 (61:12)

For this rendering of 'adn, see note 45 on 38:50.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 13 (61:13)

Some of the commentators see in this promise of victory a prediction of actual, warlike conquests by the Muslims. It is, however, much more probable that it relates to a spiritual victory of the Qur'anic message, and its spread among people who had not previously understood it.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 14 (61:14)

For this rendering of al-hawariyyun, see surah 3, note 42.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 15 (61:14)

I.e., some of them recognized him as a prophet - and, therefore, as no more than a created, human being - whereas others denied this truth in the course of time by regarding him as "the son of God" - and, therefore, as "God incarnate" - while still others rejected him and his message altogether. The fact that the earliest followers of Jesus regarded him as purely human is evident from the many theological controversies which persisted during the first three or four centuries of the Christian era. Thus, some renowned theologians, like Theodotus of Byzantium, who lived towards the end of the second century, and his followers - among them Paul of Samosata, Bishop of Antioch in the year 260 - maintained that the "sonship of God" mentioned in the then-existing texts of the Gospels was purely symbolic, denoting no more than that Jesus was a human being exalted by God. The originally widespread teachings of Bishop Arius (280-326) centred in the concept of Jesus as a mortal man chosen by God for a specific task, and in the concept of God as absolutely One, unknowable, and separate from every created being; this doctrine, however, was ultimately condemned by the Councils of Nicaea (325) and Constantinople (381), and gradually ceased to have any influence on the Christian masses.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 16 (61:14)

I.e., all who truly believe in Jesus as God's Apostle and thus, as a forerunner of the Last Prophet, Muhammad, whose message confirms and expands the true message of Jesus.

Shabbir Ahmed -

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 1 (61:5)

Faasiq = One who drifts away - from? - depends on the context

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 2 (61:6)

Gospel of John: 14:16, 15:26, 16:7 Paracletos = Comforter, from original Greek Periclytos = The praised one. In Aramaic, Mawhamana = The praised one

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 3 (61:7)

Zaalimeen = Those who relegate the truth = Oppressors = Those who displace something from its rightful place = Violators of human rights = Wrongdoers = Those who disregard moral Values

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 4 (61:9)

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 5 (61:11)

9:111

Edip-Layth - Quran: A Reformist Translation

Edip-Layth - End Note 1 (61:6)

The word ahmad is an adjective meaning "most acclaimed" or "most celebrated." Traditional sources consider it a proper name for Muhammad. This contradicts historical facts. The name of the prophet that came after Jesus was Muhammad, which is used in the Quran four times. Centuries after the departure of Muhammad, Muhammad-worshippers fabricated 99 names, including Ahmad, for Muhammad, in order to compete with the attributes of God. They could not accept one God having so many beautiful attributes, with their second god having only one attribute, Muhammad. They included many divine attributes, such as, "The First, The Last, The Judge.." in their list for Muhammad. Furthermore, we do not find the word Ahmad in the Bible. Rather we see the translation of the Greek adjective, "paracletos". "And I will pray the Father, and he shall give you another Comforter/Counselor (paracletus), that he may abide with you for ever" (John 14:16). Also, see John 14:26; 15:26 16:7. Jesus predicted the coming of another prophet. The one whose coming was foretold by Jesus is mentioned as "Paracletos" or "Periclytos" in Greek manuscripts. Paracletos means advocate, comforter, or counselor. Periclytos, on the other hand, means "admirable one" (in Arabic ahmad). The "spirit" here, does not mean other than human. There are cases where the word "spirit" is used for humans (2 Thessalonians 2:2; 1 John 4:1-3). If indeed Jesus had prophesied the proper name of the prophet after him, this prophecy would have gotten the attention of almost every one of his supporters. Furthermore, we would see many people among his supporters and later Christians giving the name Ahmad to their sons, hoping that their sons would fulfill the prophecy. But, we do not even see a single Christian named Ahmad. Therefore, the Aramaic or Hebrew equivalent of this word did not become a name. However, the name Muhammad sharing the same root and similar meaning with the word ahmad is instructive. Bible-thumpers assert that there are more than two thousand prophecies foretelling the coming of the Messiah in the Old Testament. Evidently, this is a preposterous claim. But, an impartial reader will find several clear prophecies. Then, the reader may ask, "What is wrong with Jews? Why don't they see those plain prophecies in their book?" Obviously, this problem is not peculiar to Jews. Whenever a new messenger comes, the bigoted religious people reject them in the name of previous messengers. For instance, Egyptians rejected Moses by claiming that Joseph was the last messenger (40:28-38). Jews rejected (J)esu(s) when he started his mission. Those who started worshiping Muhammad too claimed Muhammad to be the last messenger, in contradiction to the Quran (3:81). Christians were and are not different. The Old Testament in Deuteronomy 18:18 prophesies the coming of Muhammad, since he was more like Moses and came from among the Arabs, the brethren of the Children of Israel. "I will raise them up a Prophet from among their brethren, like unto thee, and will put my words in his mouth; and he shall speak unto them all that I shall command him." (Deuteronomy 18:18). Christians try hard to use 18:18 as a prophecy about Jesus, but their fictional "son of God" who "died for the sins of the world" is not like Moses; neither is his miraculous birth, his marital status, nor his political power. However when we compare, we see that Muhammad is much more like Moses than Jesus was. Besides, the Biblical prophecy does not say "among themselves" or "among Children of Israel," but "among their brethren." The word brethren is directly used by the Old Testament to describe the relationship between the family of Isaac and the family of Ishmael (See Genesis 16:12; 25:18). The New Testament too contains some clues regarding the coming prophet, other than the Messiah. John 1:19-25 lists the expected three persons: Christ, Elijah, and That Prophet. These verses, if they are not a fabrication of John, provide us with clues that Jewish people were expecting a "prophet" besides Christ, a prophet that had been prophesied in Deuteronomy 18:18. It is not a surprise that some Christian scholars are using their famous formula, in order to hide this obvious Biblical fact: "Christ + Elijah + That Prophet = Jesus." This is Trinity in Trinity or Pandora's Trinity.

Best viewed using your own brain

Tested on 1024x768 resolution with  FIREFOX 2

Kitabun Marqum v0.6.7 - Kitabun Marqum - Quran Research Platform by QuraniX Team Copyright © 2002-2011 All rights reserved.
Copyrights of all translations belong to their respective authors.

49:6 O you who believe, if a wicked person brings any news to you, you shall first investigate, lest you commit injustice towards some people, out of ignorance, then become sorry and remorseful for what you have done.

Rashad Khalifa (The Final Testament)

 Translations ▼

 Chapter/Verse ▼

 Refresh

 Search

<< Prev 62:1-11 Next >>

Edip-Layth	In the name of God, the Gracious, the Compassionate. 62:1 Glorifying God is everything in the heavens and everything on the earth; the King, the Holy, the Noble, the Wise.
The Monotheist Group	In the name of God, the Almighty, the Merciful. 62:1 Glorifying God is everything in the heavens and everything on the Earth; the King, the Holy, the Noble, the Wise.
Muhammad Asad	In the name of God, The Most Gracious, The Dispenser of Grace: 62:1 ALL THAT IS in the heavens and all that is on earth extols the limitless glory of God, the Sovereign Supreme, the Holy, the Almighty, the Wise!
Rashad Khalifa	In the name of GOD, Most Gracious, Most Merciful. 62:1 Glorifying GOD is everything in the heavens and everything on earth; the King, the Most Sacred, the Almighty, the Most Wise.
Shabbir Ahmed	BISMILLAH-IR-RAHMAN-IR-RAHEEM With the Glorious Name of God, the Ultimate Source of Instant Beneficence and Eternal mercy Who encompasses the entire Universe, nourishing and taking care of all things for what they are meant to be; just as a mother's womb nourishes the embryo to completion without any returns. 62:1 All that is in the heavens and all that is on earth strive to manifest the glory of God, the King Supreme, the Impeccable, the Almighty, the Wise.
Transliteration	Bismi Allāhi alRaḥmāni alRaḥeemi 62:1 Yusabbiḥu lillāhi m ā feea Issamāwāti wam ā fee al-ar ḍialmaliki alquddoosi alAAazeezi alḥakeemi
A	بسم الله الرحمن الرحيم 62:1 يسبح لله ما في السموت وما في الارض الملك القدوس العزيز الحكيم

Edip-Layth	62:2 He is the One who sent to the Gentiles a messenger from among themselves, to recite to them His signs, to purify them, to teach them the book and the wisdom. Before this, they were clearly astray.
The Monotheist Group	62:2 He is the One who sent to the Gentiles a messenger from among themselves, to recite to them His revelations, and to purify them, and teach them the Scripture and the wisdom. And before this, they were clearly astray.
Muhammad Asad	62:2 He it is who has sent unto the unlettered people an apostle from among themselves, ¹ to convey unto them His messages, and to cause them to grow in purity, and to impart unto them the divine writ as well as wisdom - whereas before that they were indeed, most obviously, lost in error
Rashad Khalifa	62:2 He is the One who sent to the gentiles a messenger from among them, to recite to them His revelations, purify them, and teach them the scripture and wisdom. Before this, they had gone far astray.
Shabbir Ahmed	62:2 He is the One Who has sent a messenger among those who had never before received a scripture - to convey to them His messages, to make them grow in humanity, to instruct them in the scripture and wisdom, Judgment and establishment of God's Rule on earth - whereas before that they were obviously lost in error, ¹
Transliteration	62:2 Huwa alla thee baAAatha feeal-ommiyyeena rasoolan minhum yatloo AAalayhim ayati hiwayuzakkeehim wayuAAallimuhumu alkit aba waal hik matawa-in ka noo min qablu lafee dal alin mubeen in
A	62:2 هو الذى بعث فى الامين رسولا منهم يتلوا عليهم ءاياته ويزكيهم ويعلمهم الكتب والحكمة وان كانوا من قبل لفي ضلال مبين
Edip-Layth	62:3 To other generations subsequent to them. He is the Noble, the Wise.
The Monotheist Group	62:3 And to other generations subsequent to them. He is the Noble, the Wise.
Muhammad Asad	62:3 and [to cause this message to spread] from them unto other people as soon as they come into contact with them: ² for He alone is almighty, truly wise!
Rashad Khalifa	62:3 And to many generations subsequent to them. He is the Almighty, Most Wise.
Shabbir Ahmed	62:3 Along with others who have not yet joined them (in time and place). He is Mighty, Wise.
Transliteration	62:3 Waakhareena minhum lamm a yal ha qoobihim wahuwa alAAazeezu al hakeem u
A	62:3 وءاخرين منهم لما يلحقوا بهم وهو العزيز الحكيم
Edip-Layth	62:4 Such is God's grace, which He bestows upon whoever/whomever He wills. God is Possessor of Infinite Grace.
The Monotheist Group	62:4 Such is God's grace, which He bestows upon whomever He wills. God is Possessor of Infinite Grace.
Muhammad Asad	62:4 Such is God's bounty: He grants it to anyone who is willing [to receive it]: ³ for God is limitless in His great bounty.
Rashad Khalifa	62:4 Such is GOD's grace that He bestows upon whomever He wills. GOD is Possessor of Infinite Grace.

Shabbir Ahmed	62:4 Such is God's bounty - which He bestows upon him who is willing to receive it. (His light is available to whoever turns it on) God is the Lord of the magnificent bounty.
Transliteration	62:4 Th alika fa dl u Alla h iyu/tee h i man ya sh ao waAlla h u th ooalfad l i alAAa th ee m i
A	62:4 ذلك فضل الله يؤتيه من يشاء والله ذو الفضل العظيم
Edip-Layth	62:5 The example of those who were given the Torah, but then failed to uphold it, is like the donkey that is carrying a cargo of book. Miserable indeed is the example of people who denied God's signs. God does not guide the wicked people.
The Monotheist Group	62:5 The example of those who were given the Torah, but then failed to uphold it, is like the donkey that is carrying a cargo of books. Miserable indeed is the example of people who denied God's revelations. And God does not guide the wicked people.
Muhammad Asad	62:5 THE PARABLE of those who were graced with the burden of the Torah, and thereafter failed to bear this burden, ⁴ is that of an ass that carries a load of books [but cannot benefit from them]. Calamitous is the parable of people who are bent on giving the lie to God's messages - for God does not bestow His guidance upon such evildoing folk!
Rashad Khalifa	62:5 The example of those who were given the Torah, then failed to uphold it, is like the donkey carrying great works of literature. Miserable indeed is the example of people who rejected GOD's revelations. GOD does not guide the wicked people.
Shabbir Ahmed	62:5 *
Transliteration	62:5 Mathalu alla th ee n a h ummiloo al tt awra t athumma lam ya h miloo h a kamathali al h ima r iyah h milu asf a r an bi/sa mathalu alqawmi alla th eenaka th aboo bi- a y ati Alla h i waAlla h u l a yahdee alqawma a l th th alime n a
A	62:5 مثل الذين حملوا التوراة ثم لم يحملوها كمثل الحمار يحمل أسفارا بئس مثل القوم الذين كذبوا بآيت الله والله لا يهدي القوم الظالمين
Edip-Layth	The Arrogance of Racism 62:6 Say, "O you who are Jewish, if you claim that you are God's chosen, to the exclusion of all other people, then you should long for death if you are truthful!"
The Monotheist Group	62:6 Say: "O you who are Jewish, if you claim that you are God's chosen, to the exclusion of all other people, then you should long for death if you are truthful!"
Muhammad Asad	62:6 Say: "O you who follow the Jewish faith! ⁵ If you claim that you [alone] are close to God, to the exclusion of all other people, then you should be longing for death - if what you say is true!" ⁶
Rashad Khalifa	62:6 Say, "O you who are Jewish, if you claim that you are GOD's chosen, to the exclusion of all other people, then you should long for death if you are truthful!"
Shabbir Ahmed	62:6 Say, "O You who are Jewish! If you claim that you are friends to God to the exclusion of the rest of mankind, then long for death if you are truthful!" (And hope to meet with your Lord for Eternal bliss.)
Transliteration	62:6 Qul ya ayyu h a alla th eenah ad oo in zaAAa m tum annakum awliy a o lill h imin dooni al nn asi fatamannawoo almawta in kuntum s adiqe n a
	62:6 قل يا ايها الذين هادوا ان زعمتم انكم اولياء الله من دون الناس فتمنوا الموت ان كنتم

A	صدقين
Edip-Layth	62:7 But they will never long for it, because of what their hands have brought forth. God is fully aware of the wicked.
The Monotheist Group	62:7 But they will never long for it, because of what their hands have brought forth. God is fully aware of the wicked.
Muhammad Asad	62:7 But never will they long for it, because [they are aware] of what their hands have wrought in this world; ⁷ and God has full knowledge of evildoers.
Rashad Khalifa	62:7 They will never long for it, because of what they have committed. GOD is fully aware of the wicked.
Shabbir Ahmed	62:7 But they will never long for it because of what their hands have sent ahead. God is fully Aware of the wrongdoers. ³
Transliteration	62:7 Wala yatamannawnahu abadan bim aqaddamat aydeehim wa Allahu AAaleemun bial th thlimeena
A	62:7 ولا يتمنونه ابدا بما قنمت ايديهم والله عليم بالظلمين
Edip-Layth	62:8 Say, "The death that you are fleeing from, it will come to find you. Then you will be returned to the Knower of all secrets and declarations, then He will inform you of everything you had done."
The Monotheist Group	62:8 Say: "The death that you are fleeing from, it will come to find you. Then you will be returned to the Knower of all secrets and declarations, then He will inform you of everything you had done."
Muhammad Asad	62:8 Say: "Behold, the death from which you are fleeing ⁸ is bound to overtake you - and then you will be brought back unto Him who knows all that is beyond the reach of a created being's perception as well as all that can be witnessed by a creature's senses or mind, ⁹ whereupon He will make you truly understand all that you were doing [in life].
Rashad Khalifa	62:8 Say, "The death that you are trying to evade will catch up with you sooner or later. Then you will be returned to the Knower of all secrets and declarations, then He will inform you of everything you had done."
Shabbir Ahmed	62:8 Say, "Certainly, the death which you fear so much is bound to overtake you, and then you will be returned to the Knower of the Invisible and Visible. Then He will make you understand what you used to do."
Transliteration	62:8 Qul inna almawta alla thee tafirroonaminhu fa-innahu mul a qeequm thumma turaddoona il a AA al imialghaybi wa al shshah a dati fayunabbi-okum bim a kuntum taAAamaloona
A	62:8 قل ان الموت الذى تفرون منه فانه ملقيكم ثم تردون الى علم الغيب والشهادة فينبئكم بما كنتم تعملون
Edip-Layth	The Assembly Prayer 62:9 O you who acknowledge, if the contact prayer is called to on the day of assembly, then you shall hasten towards the remembrance of God, and cease all selling. This is better for you, if you only knew. ¹
The Monotheist Group	62:9 O you who believe, if the communion is called to on the day of assembly, then you shall hasten towards the remembrance of God, and cease all selling. This is better for you, if you only knew.

Muhammad Asad	62:9 O YOU who have attained to faith! When the call to prayer is sounded on the day of congregation, ¹⁰ hasten to the remembrance of God, and leave all worldly commerce: this is for your own good, if you but knew it.
Rashad Khalifa	Important Commandments to All Believers 62:9 O you who believe, when the Congregational Prayer (Salat Al-Jumu`ah) is announced on Friday, you shall hasten to the commemoration of GOD, and drop all business. This is better for you, if you only knew.
Shabbir Ahmed	62:9 O You who have chosen to be graced with belief! When the call for Salaat is announced on the Day of the Congregation, hasten to the remembrance of God and leave your commerce. That is for your own good if you use your knowledge to understand.
Transliteration	62:9 Ya ayyu h a alla th eena amanoo ith a noodiya li lssalati min yawmialjumuAAati faisAAaw il a th ikri All ah iwa th aroo albayAAa th alikum khayrun lakum in kuntumtaAAalamoona
A	62:9 يايها الذين ءامنوا اذا نودى للصلاة من يوم الجمعة فاسعوا الى ذكر الله وذروا البيع ذلكم خير لكم ان كنتم تعلمون
Edip-Layth	62:10 Then, once the contact prayer is complete, you shall disperse through the land and seek God's provisions, and remember God frequently, so that you may succeed.
The Monotheist Group	62:10 Then, once the communion is complete, you shall disperse through the land and seek God's provisions, and remember God frequently that you may succeed.
Muhammad Asad	62:10 And when the prayer is ended, disperse freely on earth ¹¹ and seek to obtain [something] of God's bounty; but remember God often, so that you might attain to a happy state!
Rashad Khalifa	62:10 Once the prayer is completed, you may spread through the land to seek GOD's bounties, and continue to remember GOD frequently, that you may succeed.
Shabbir Ahmed	62:10 And when the prayer is ended, disperse freely in the land and seek of God's bounty. And remember God often so that you may prosper.
Transliteration	62:10 Fa- ith a qudiyati alssalatufaintashiroo fee al- ard i waibtaghoo min fa dl iAll ah i wa oth kuroo All ah a katheeranlaAAallakum tufli ho ona
A	62:10 فاذا قضيت الصلاة فانتشروا فى الارض وابتغوا من فضل الله واذكروا الله كثيرا لعلكم تفلحون
Edip-Layth	62:11 If they come across any trade, or some entertainment, they rush to it and leave you standing, say, "What God possesses is far better than entertainment or trade. God is the best Provider."
The Monotheist Group	62:11 And if they come across any trade, or some entertainment, they rush to it and leave you standing! Say: "What God possesses is far better than entertainment or trade. And God is the best Provider."
Muhammad Asad	62:11 Yet [it does happen that] when people ¹² become aware of [an occasion for] worldly gain ¹³ or a passing delight, they rush headlong towards it, and leave thee standing [and preaching]. ¹⁴ Say: "That which is with God is far better than all passing delight and all gain! And God is the best of providers!"

Rashad Khalifa	62:11 When some of them come across a business deal, or some entertainment, they rush to it and leave you standing! Say, "What GOD possesses is far better than the entertainment or the business. GOD is the best Provider."
Shabbir Ahmed	62:11 Yet when they see some bargain or entertainment, they rush to it, and leave you standing. Say, "What is with God is better than all entertainment and all bargain. God is the Best of providers."
Transliteration	62:11 Wa-i th a raaw tijaratan awlahwan infa ddoo ilayha watarakooka q a-imanqul ma AAinda All ahi khayrun mina allahwi wamina a IttijaratiwaAllahu khayru alrraziqeena
A	62:11 وإذا راوا تجرة أو لهما انفضوا اليها وتركوك قائما قل ما عند الله خير من اللهو ومن التجارة والله خير الرزقين

<< Prev 62:1-11 Next >>

Return to top

End Notes

Muhammad Asad - The Message Of Quran

Muhammad Asad - End Note 1 (62:2)

The term "unlettered people" (ummiyun) denotes a nation or community who had not previously had a revealed scripture of their own (Razi). The designation of the Prophet as a man "from among themselves" is meant, in this context, to stress the fact that he, too, was unlettered (ummi) in the primary sense of this word (cf. 7:157 and 158), and could not, therefore, have "invented" the message of the Qur'an or "derived" its ideas from earlier scriptures.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 2 (62:3)

I.e., to cause the message of the Qur'an to reach people of other environments and of future times through the medium of the Arabs and their language: thus stressing the universality and timeless validity of all that has been revealed to Muhammad.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 3 (62:4)

Or: "He grants it unto whomever He wills". Both these formulations are syntactically correct; but since the bounty of God referred to in this passage relates to the divine guidance granted to man through the medium of the revelation bestowed upon God's Apostle, the construction chosen by me seems to be more appropriate, expressing as it does the idea that the bounty of God's guidance is always available to one who sincerely desires it.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 4 (62:5)

Connecting with the idea - implied in the preceding passage - that God's revelation is a sacred trust as well as a bounty, the discourse turns now to the problem of man's betrayal of this trust, exemplified by the Jews of post-Biblical times. They had been entrusted by God with the task of carrying the message of His oneness and uniqueness to all the world: but they failed in this task inasmuch as they came to believe that they were "God's chosen people" because of their descent from Abraham, Isaac and Jacob, and that, therefore, the divine message was meant for them alone and not for people of other nations. Hence, too, they came to deny the possibility of prophethood being bestowed on anyone who did not belong to the children of Israel (cf. 2:90 and 94, and the corresponding notes 75 and 79), and so they summarily rejected the idea of Muhammad's prophethood despite the clear predictions of his advent in the Torah itself (see note 33 on 2:42). By thus corrupting the innermost purport of the divine writ bestowed on Moses, they themselves became unable to derive any real spiritual benefit from it, and to live up to its teachings.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 5 (62:6)

I.e., in its present form, estranged from the original purport of the Torah.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 6 (62:6)

For this and the next verse, cf. 2:94-95.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 7 (62:7)

Lit., "of what their hands have sent ahead".

Muhammad Asad - End Note 8 (62:8)

An allusion to what is said in 2:96.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 9 (62:8)

See surah 6, note 65.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 10 (62:9)

I.e., on Friday, when the congregational prayer at noon is obligatory. Nevertheless, as the sequence shows, Friday is not a day of compulsory rest in Islamic Law.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 11 (62:10)

I.e., "you may devote yourselves to worldly pursuits".

Muhammad Asad - End Note 12 (62:11)

Lit., "they"

Muhammad Asad - End Note 13 (62:11)

Lit., "trade" or "a bargain".

Muhammad Asad - End Note 14 (62:11)

Sc., "O Prophet" - thus alluding to an historical incident, when most of the congregation, on hearing that a long-expected trade caravan had come from Syria, rushed out of the mosque in the midst of the Prophet's Friday-sermon. In a wider, timeless sense, the above verse contains an allusion to an all-too-human weakness against which even true believers are not always immune: namely, the tendency to overlook religious obligations for the sake of a transitory, worldly advantage.

Shabbir Ahmed -

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 1 (62:2)

Ummi = Gentile = Non-Israelite = Unlettered = A people (the Arabs) that had never received a scripture before. Zaku, Tazkiah = Growth = Purity from vice = Development of the 'self' = Self-actualization. Hikmah = Wisdom = Judgment = Governance = Political Rule

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 3 (62:7)

2:94-96. See Zulm, 62:5

Edip-Layth - Quran: A Reformist Translation

Edip-Layth - End Note 1 (62:9)

See 16:97.

Best viewed using your own brain

Tested on 1024x768 resolution with  FIREFOX 2

Kitabun Marqum v0.6.7 - Kitabun Marqum - Quran Research Platform by QuraniX Team Copyright © 2002-2011 All rights reserved.
Copyrights of all translations belong to their respective authors.

49:6 O you who believe, if a wicked person brings any news to you, you shall first investigate, lest you commit injustice towards some people, out of ignorance, then become sorry and remorseful for what you have done.

Rashad Khalifa (The Final Testament)

 Translations ▼

 Chapter/Verse ▼

 Refresh

 Search

<< Prev 63:1-11 Next >>

Edip-Layth	In the name of God, the Gracious, the Compassionate. 63:1 When the hypocrites come to you they say, "We bear witness that you are the messenger of God." God knows that you are His messenger, and God bears witness that the hypocrites are liars.¹
The Monotheist Group	In the name of God, the Almighty, the Merciful. 63:1 When the hypocrites come to you they say: "We bear witness that you are the messenger of God." And God knows that you are His messenger, and God bears witness that the hypocrites are liars.
Muhammad Asad	In the name of God, The Most Gracious, The Dispenser of Grace: 63:1 WHEN THE HYPOCRITES come unto thee, they say, "We bear witness that thou art indeed God's Apostle!" But God knows that thou art truly His Apostle; and He bears witness that the hypocrites are indeed false [in their declaration of faith].
Rashad Khalifa	In the name of GOD, Most Gracious, Most Merciful. 63:1 When the hypocrites come to you they say, "We bear witness that you are the messenger of GOD." GOD knows that you are His messenger, and GOD bears witness that the hypocrites are liars.
Shabbir Ahmed	BISMILLAH-IR-RAHMAN-IR-RAHEEM With the Glorious Name of God, the Ultimate Source of Instant Beneficence and Eternal mercy Who encompasses the entire Universe, nourishing and taking care of all things for what they are meant to be; just as a mother's womb nourishes the embryo to completion without any returns. 63:1 When the hypocrites come to you (O Prophet!), they say, "We bear witness that you are God's messenger." Yes, God knows that you are truly His messenger, and God bears witness that the hypocrites are in fact liars.
Transliteration	Bismi Allahi alrrahmani alrraheemi 63:1 Itha j aaka almun afiquonaqaloo nashhadu innaka larasoolu All ahi waAllahuyaAAalamu innaka larasooluhu wa Allahu yashhadu innaalmun afiqueena

	lakathiboona
A	بسم الله الرحمن الرحيم 63:1 اذا جاءك المنفقون قالوا نشهد انك لرسول الله والله يعلم انك لرسوله والله يشهد ان المنفقين لكذبون
Edip-Layth	63:2 They have chosen their oath as a deceit, thus they repel from the path of God. Miserable indeed is what they do.
The Monotheist Group	63:2 They have chosen their oath as a deceit, thus they repel from the path of God. Miserable indeed is what they do.
Muhammad Asad	63:2 They have made their oaths a cover [for their falseness], and thus they turn others away from the Path of God. ¹ Evil indeed is all that they are wont to do:
Rashad Khalifa	63:2 Under the guise of their apparent faith, they repel the people from the path of GOD. Miserable indeed is what they do.
Shabbir Ahmed	63:2 They make their oaths and proclamation of faith a cover so that they may bar others from the path of God. Their deeds are disruptive to the society. ¹
Transliteration	63:2 Ittakhat ^h oo aym ^a anahum junnatanfa ^s addoo AAan sabeeli All ^a hi innahum saa ma ^k anoo yaAAamaloona
A	63:2 اتخذوا ايمنهم جنة فصدوا عن سبيل الله انهم ساء ما كانوا يعملون
Edip-Layth	63:3 That is because they acknowledged, then rejected. Hence, their hearts are sealed; they do not understand.
The Monotheist Group	63:3 That is because they believed, then disbelieved. Hence, their hearts are sealed; they do not understand.
Muhammad Asad	63:3 this, because [they profess that] they have attained to faith, whereas [inwardly] they deny the truth - and so, a seal has been set on their hearts so that they can no longer understand [what is true and what false]. ³ ²
Rashad Khalifa	63:3 This is because they believed, then disbelieved. Hence, their minds are blocked; they do not understand.
Shabbir Ahmed	63:3 This, because they profess (before you) that they have believed whereas afterward they reject the truth. And so a seal has been set upon their hearts, thus they understand not. ²
Transliteration	63:3 Tha ^l ika bi-annahum a ^a manoothumma kafaroo fa tubiAAa AAa ^l a quloobihim fahum la ^y afqahoona
A	63:3 ذلك بانهم ءامنوا ثم كفروا فطبع على قلوبهم فهم لا يفقهون
Edip-Layth	Paranoid Show-offs 63:4 When you see them, you are impressed by their physical stature; and when they speak, you listen to their eloquence. They are like blocks of wood propped up. They think that every call is intended for them. These are the enemies, so beware of them. May God condemn them; they have deviated.
The Monotheist Group	63:4 And when you see them, you are impressed by their physical stature; and when they speak, you listen to their eloquence. They are like blocks of wood propped-up. They think that every call is intended for them. These are the enemies, so beware of them. May God condemn them; they have deviated.

Muhammad Asad	63:4 Now when thou seest them, their outward appearance may please thee; and when they speak, thou art inclined to lend ear to what they say. ⁴ [But though they may seem as sure of themselves] as if they were timbers [firmly] propped up, they think that every shout is [directed] against them. They are the [real] enemies [of all faith], so beware of them. [They deserve the imprecation,] "May God destroy them!" ⁵ How perverted are their minds! ⁶
Rashad Khalifa	A Chip On Their Shoulders 63:4 When you see them, you may be impressed by their looks. And when they speak, you may listen to their eloquence. They are like standing logs. They think that every call is intended against them. These are the real enemies; beware of them. GOD condemns them; they have deviated.
Shabbir Ahmed	63:4 When you see them, their looks may impress you. And if they speak, you are inclined to listen to their speech. But they are like wooden logs propped up. They think that every call is directed against them. These are the real enemies, so beware of them. God condemns them. How are they deluded! ³
Transliteration	63:4 Wa-i tha raaytahum tuAAajibuka ajs a muhumwa-in yaqooloo tasmaAA liqawlihim kaannahum khushubunmusannadatun ya h saboona kulla say h atinAAalayhim humu alAAaduwwu fa i h th arhum q a talahumuAll ah u ann a yu/fakoona
A	63:4 واذا رايتهم تعجبك اجسامهم وان يقولوا تسمع لقولهم كأنهم خشب مسندة يحسبون كل صيحة عليهم هم العدو فاحذرهم قتلهم الله انى يوفكون
Edip-Layth	63:5 If they are told: "Come and let the messenger of God ask for your forgiveness," they turn aside their heads, and you see them walking away in pride.
The Monotheist Group	63:5 And if they are told: "Come and let the messenger of God ask for your forgiveness," they turn aside their heads, and you see them walking away in pride.
Muhammad Asad	63:5 for, when they are told, "Come, the Apostle of God will pray [unto God] that you be forgiven", they turn their heads away, and thou canst see how they draw back in their false pride.
Rashad Khalifa	63:5 When they are told, "Come let the messenger of GOD pray for your forgiveness," they mockingly turn their heads, and you see them repel others and act arrogantly.
Shabbir Ahmed	63:5 And when it is said to them, "Come! God's messenger will ask for your forgiveness", they shake their heads, and you see them pause, and then draw back in false pride. ⁴
Transliteration	63:5 Wa-i tha qeela lahum taAA a lawyastaghfir lakum rasoolu All a hi lawwwa ruosahumwaraaytahum ya s uddoona wahum mustakbiroona
A	63:5 واذا قيل لهم تعالوا يستغفر لكم رسول الله لووا رؤوسهم ورايتهم يصدون وهم مستكبرون
Edip-Layth	63:6 It is the same for them, whether you ask for their forgiveness, or do not ask for their forgiveness; God will not forgive them. For God does not guide the wicked people. ²
	63:6 It is the same for them, whether you ask for their forgiveness, or do not

The Monotheist Group	ask for their forgiveness; God will not forgive them. For God does not guide the wicked people.
Muhammad Asad	63:6 As for them it is all the same whether thou dost pray that they be forgiven or dost not pray for them: God will nor forgive them - for, behold, God does not bestow His guidance upon such iniquitous folk. ⁷
Rashad Khalifa	The Myth of Intercession Shattered 63:6 It is the same for them, whether you pray for their forgiveness, or not pray for their forgiveness; GOD will not forgive them. For GOD does not guide the wicked people. ²
Shabbir Ahmed	63:6 It is the same for them whether you pray for their forgiveness, or not pray for their forgiveness. God will not forgive them. God does not guide people who keep drifting away. ⁵
Transliteration	63:6 Sawāon AAalayhim astaghfarta lahum amlam tastaghfir lahum lan yaghfira Allāhu lahum inna Allāhala yahdee alqawma alfasiqeena
A	63:6 سواء عليهم استغفرت لهم ام لم تستغفر لهم لن يغفر الله لهم ان الله لا يهدي القوم الفسقين
Edip-Layth	63:7 They are the ones who say, "Do not spend on those who are with the messenger of God, unless they abandon him!" To God belongs the treasures of the heavens and the earth, but the hypocrites do not reason.
The Monotheist Group	63:7 They are the ones who say: "Do not spend on those who are with the messenger of God, unless they abandon him!" And to God belongs the treasures of the heavens and the Earth, but the hypocrites do not comprehend.
Muhammad Asad	63:7 It is they who say [to their compatriots ⁸], "Do not spend anything on those who are with God's Apostle, so that they [may be forced to] leave." ⁹ However, unto God belong the treasures of the heavens and the earth: but this truth the hypocrites cannot grasp.
Rashad Khalifa	63:7 They are the ones who say, "Do not give any money to those who followed the messenger of GOD, perhaps they abandon him!" However, GOD possesses the treasures of the heavens and the earth, but the hypocrites do not comprehend.
Shabbir Ahmed	63:7 They are the ones who say, "Do not spend anything on those who are with God's messenger, so that they leave." However, to God belongs the treasures of the heavens and earth, but the hypocrites cannot grasp this truth. ⁶
Transliteration	63:7 Humu alla theena yaqooloona l atunfiqoo AAal a man AAinda rasooli All ahi hattayanfaddoo walill ahi khaz a-inu a Issamawatiwaal-ardi wal akinna almunafiqeena layafqahoona
A	63:7 هم الذين يقولون لا تتفقوا على من عند رسول الله حتى ينفضوا والله خزان السموت والارض ولكن المنافقين لا يفقهون
Edip-Layth	63:8 They say, "When we go back to the city, the noble therein will evict the lowly." But all nobility belongs to God and His messenger, and those who acknowledge. However, the hypocrites do not know.
The Monotheist Group	63:8 They say: "When we go back to the city, the noble therein will evict the lowly." But all nobility belongs to God and His messenger, and the believers. However, the hypocrites do not know.

Muhammad Asad	63:8 [And] they say, "Indeed, when we return to the City ¹⁰ [we,] the ones most worthy of honour will surely drive out therefrom those most contemptible ones!" However, all honour belongs to God, and [thus] to His Apostle and those who believe [in God]: but of this the hypocrites are not aware. ¹¹
Rashad Khalifa	63:8 They say, "If we go back to the city, the powerful therein will evict the weak (and we will be victimized)." (They should know that) all dignity belongs to GOD and His messenger, and the believers. However, the hypocrites do not know.
Shabbir Ahmed	63:8 And they say, "When we return to Madinah, the honored ones will expel from there the contemptible ones." However, all honor belongs to God, to His messenger and to the believers. But the hypocrites do not realize this. ⁷
Transliteration	63:8 Yaqooloona la-in rajaAAan a ilaalmadeenati layukhrijanna al-aAAazzu minh a al-athallawalillahi alAAizzatu walirasoolihi walilmu/mineena walakinnaalmunafiqeena la yaAAlamoona
A	63:8 يقولون لن رجعا الى المدينة ليخرجن الاعز منها الاذل والله العزة ولرسوله وللمؤمنين ولكن المنافقين لا يعلمون
Edip-Layth	63:9 O you who acknowledge, do not be distracted by your money and your children from the remembrance of God. Those who do this, will be the losers.
The Monotheist Group	63:9 O you who believe, do not be distracted by your money and your children from the remembrance of God. And those who do this, then they are the losers.
Muhammad Asad	63:9 O YOU who have attained to faith! Let not your worldly goods or your children make you oblivious of the remembrance of God: for If any behave thus - it is they, they who are the losers!
Rashad Khalifa	63:9 O you who believe, do not be distracted by your money and your children from remembering GOD. Those who do this are the losers.
Shabbir Ahmed	63:9 O You who have chosen to be graced with belief! Let not your wealth or your children distract you from the remembrance of God. Those who do this are the losers.
Transliteration	63:9 Ya ayyuh a alla theena amanoola tulhikum amw alukum wal a awladukumAAan thikri Allahi waman yafAAal thalikafaola-ika humu alkhasiroona
A	63:9 ياايها الذين ءامنوا لا تلهكم اموالكم ولا اولدكم عن ذكر الله ومن يفعل ذلك فاولئك هم الخسرون
Edip-Layth	63:10 Give from what We have provided to you, before death comes to one of you, then he says: "My Lord, if only You could delay this for a short while, I would then be charitable and join the righteous!"
The Monotheist Group	63:10 And give from that which We have provided to you, before death comes to one of you, then he says: "My Lord, if only You could delay this for a short while, I would then be charitable and join the righteous!"
Muhammad Asad	63:10 And spend on others out of what We have provided for you as sustenance, ¹² ere there come a time when death approaches any of you, and he then says, "O my Sustainer! If only Thou wouldst grant me a delay for a short while, ¹³ so that I could give in charity and be among the righteous!"
Rashad Khalifa	63:10 You shall give from our provisions to you before death comes to you, then you say, "My Lord, if only You could delay this for a short while! I would then be charitable and join the righteous!"

Shabbir Ahmed	63:10 And spend on others of what We have provided you with, before death comes to one of you. And he then says, "My Lord! If only You would delay this for a short while, so that I could give in charity and be among the righteous."
Transliteration	63:10 Waanfiqoo min m a razaqn a kummin qabli an ya/tiya a h adakumu almawtu fayaqoola rabbilawl a akhkhartanee il a ajalin qareebin faa ss addaqaawaakun mina al ss ali h ee n a
A	63:10 وانفقوا من ما رزقنكم من قبل ان ياتي احدكم الموت فيقول رب لولا اخرتني الى اجل قريب فاصدق واكن من الصالحين
Edip-Layth	63:11 God will not delay any person if its time has come. God is Ever-aware of all that you do.
The Monotheist Group	63:11 And God will not delay any soul if its time has come. And God is Expert to all that you do.
Muhammad Asad	63:11 But never does God grant a delay to a human being when his term has come; and God is fully aware of all that you do.
Rashad Khalifa	63:11 GOD never delays the appointed time of death for any soul. GOD is fully Cognizant of everything you do.
Shabbir Ahmed	63:11 But never does God grant delay to a person when the time appointed has arrived. God is well Aware of all you do.
Transliteration	63:11 Walan yu-akhkhira All a hu nafs a n i th ajaa ajaluh a wa All ah u khabeerun bim a taA a maloo n a
A	63:11 ولن يؤخر الله نفسا اذا جاء اجلها والله خبير بما تعملون

<< Prev 63:1-11 Next >>

Return to top

End Notes

Edip-Layth - Quran: A Reformist Translation

Edip-Layth - End Note 1 (63:1)

Islam, which is submission or peacefully surrendering to God in peace, is the system followed by all righteous monotheists since Adam, and its basic principle is testimony to the absolute and sole authority of God. This testimony is mentioned and advocated in 3:18. As if God forgot a crucial part of the testimony, Sunnis have the audacity to add in the statement Muhammadun Rasulullah (Muhammad is God's Messenger). The Shiite faction went even a step further and added Ali Hujjatullah (Ali is God's Argument). This mentality of adding the names of idolized creatures next to God has been exposed by 39:45. Verse 63:1, is the only verse in the Quran that contains the second part of the shahada (testimony). As with the word hadith, sunna, ijma, and sharia (33:38; 35:43; 42:21; 45:6), God knew in advance that the polytheists would add the name of their idols next to His name. Thus, God mentioned the second part as the utterance of hypocrites. Modern hypocrites do not really believe that Muhammad was merely a messenger since they claim that he was a partner with God in authoring God's religion. They think that Muhammad completed where God had forgotten and that he even abrogated some of the Quranic verses. A messenger of God would never do such a thing, since their only mission is to deliver God's message. Thus, those who add a testimony about Muhammad's messengership in the shahada in fact are lying in that testimony; the Muhammad in their mind is no messenger, but rather their imaginary god besides God.

Edip-Layth - End Note 2 (63:6)

So much for the power of intercession! See 2:48.

Muhammad Asad - The Message Of Quran

Muhammad Asad - End Note 1 (63:2)

See note 26 on the identical sentence in 58:16.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 2 (63:3)

The particle thumma ("and then") has often the same function as the simple conjunctive wa ("and"), which in this case may be properly rendered as "whereas".

Muhammad Asad - End Note 3 (63:3)

See surah 2, note 7.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 4 (63:4)

Lit., "thou dost give ear to them": i.e., hypocrisy has usually a plausible outward aspect inasmuch as it is meant to deceive.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 5 (63:4)

Regarding my interpolation of the phrase "They deserve the imprecation", see note 45 on the identical sentence at the end of 9:30.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 6 (63:4)

See surah 5. note 90.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 7 (63:6)

Cf 9:80 and the corresponding note 111.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 8 (63:7)

I.e., to the people of Medina in general, and to the ansar in particular (see next note).

Muhammad Asad - End Note 9 (63:7)

The leader of the hypocrites of Medina, Abd Allah ibn Ubayy, never forgave the Prophet for having overshadowed him who previously had been unquestioningly recognized by the people of Medina as their most outstanding leader. Since the Prophet's political strength depended mainly on the Meccan Muslims who followed him in his hijrah to Medina, Ibn Ubayy tried to persuade his compatriots - many of whom were supporting the newcomers with all the means at their disposal - to withdraw this material support and thereby force the muhajirun, most of whom were very poor, to leave Medina: a stratagem which, if successful would have greatly weakened the Prophet's position. This suggestion of the leader of the hypocrites was, of course, rejected by the ansar.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 10 (63:8)

I.e., Medina, the "City of the Prophet" (Madinat an-Nabi), as the town previously called Yathrib began to be known after the hijrah. Since - as is established through several ahadith - the subsequent saying was uttered by Abd Allah ibn Ubayy during the campaign against the tribe of Banu Mustaliq in 5 H., it is obvious that verses 7 and 8 were revealed at the same date or a little later.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 11 (63:8)

It is in these two Qur'anic statements - "unto God belong the treasures. . .", etc., and "all honour belongs to God .. .", etc. - that the real, lasting purport of the above historical allusions is to be found.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 12 (63:10)

See surah 2, note 4.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 13 (63:10)

Lit., "for (ila) a term close-by".

Shabbir Ahmed -

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 1 (63:2)

Saa, Su = Disruptive behavior

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 2 (63:3)

Variation between utterance and action hampers the power of reasoning within human psyche 61:2-5

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 3 (63:4)

Wooden logs = Empty of inner strength, unable to stand at their own feet

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 4 (63:5)

Istighfar = Protection of forgiveness = Absolving the faults through good deed = Guarding of the 'self' = Guarding against detriment

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 5 (63:6)

Fisq = Drifting away = Slip out of sense = Move away from reason = = Drift away from discipline = Defy Divine Commands

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 6 (63:7)

Ansar, the helping hosts, Muslim residents of Madinah, were supporting the needy Mahaajireen or immigrants from Makkah

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 7 (63:8)

The hypocrites, holding the believers in contempt, said that upon returning from Banu Musta'liq in 5 AH

Rashad Khalifa - The Final Testament

Rashad Khalifa - End Note 2 (63:6)

Millions of people idolize their prophets because of this myth (Appendix8).

Best viewed using your own brain

Tested on 1024x768 resolution with  FIREFOX 2

Kitabun Marqum v0.6.7 - Kitabun Marqum - Quran Research Platform by QuraniX Team Copyright © 2002-2011 All rights reserved.
Copyrights of all translations belong to their respective authors.

49:6 O you who believe, if a wicked person brings any news to you, you shall first investigate, lest you commit injustice towards some people, out of ignorance, then become sorry and remorseful for what you have done.

Rashad Khalifa (The Final Testament)

Translations ▼

Chapter/Verse ▼

Refresh

Search

<< Prev 64:1-18 Next >>

Edip-Layth	In the name of God, the Gracious, the Compassionate. 64:1 Glorifying God is everything in the heavens and everything on the earth. To Him is all kingships, and to Him is all praise, and He is capable of all things.
The Monotheist Group	In the name of God, the Almighty, the Merciful. 64:1 Glorifying God is everything in the heavens and everything on the Earth. To Him is all kingship, and to Him is all praise, and He is capable of all things.
Muhammad Asad	In the name of God, The Most Gracious, The Dispenser of Grace: 64:1 ALL THAT IS in the heavens and all that is on earth extols God's limitless glory: His is all dominion, and to Him all praise is due; and He has the power to will anything.
Rashad Khalifa	In the name of GOD, Most Gracious, Most Merciful. 64:1 Glorifying GOD is everything in the heavens and everything on earth. To Him belongs all kingship, and to Him belongs all praise, and He is Omnipotent.
Shabbir Ahmed	BISMILLAH-IR-RAHMAN-IR-RAHEEM With the Glorious Name of God, the Ultimate Source of Instant Beneficence and Eternal mercy Who encompasses the entire Universe, nourishing and taking care of all things for what they are meant to be; just as a mother's womb nourishes the embryo to completion without any returns. 64:1 Whatever is in the heavens and whatever is on earth relentlessly strive to fulfill God's plan, and manifest His glory. To Him belongs the Supreme Kingdom, and all Universe is a living witness of His praise. And He is Able to do all things. ¹
Transliteration	Bismi Allāhi alRrahmāni alRrahēemi 64:1 Yusabbihu lillāhi m_a feealssamawati wam_a fee al-ar_dilahu almulku walahu al_hamdu wahuwa AAala_kullishay-in qadeer un
A	بسم الله الرحمن الرحيم 64:1 يسبح لله ما في السموت وما في الارض له الملك وله الحمد وهو على كل شىء قدير
Edip-Layth	64:2 He is the One who created you, then among you there is the ingrate, and among you is the acknowledger. God is Seer over what you do.
The Monotheist Group	64:2 He is the One who created you, then among you there is the rejecter, and among you is the believer. And God is Seer over what you do.

Muhammad Asad	64:2 He it is who has created you: and among you are such as deny this truth, and among you are such as believe [in it]. ¹ And God sees all that you do.
Rashad Khalifa	64:2 He is the One who created you, then among you there is the disbeliever, and the believer. GOD is fully Seer of everything you do.
Shabbir Ahmed	64:2 He is the One Who created you (and endowed you with free will). So, one of you is a denier of the truth and one of you chooses to be graced with belief. God is Seer of all you do.
Transliteration	64:2 Huwa alla ^{thee} khalaqakum faminkum k ^a firunwaminkum mu/minun wa Allahu bim ^a taAAaalonaba ^{seer} un
A	64:2 هو الذى خلقكم فمنكم كافر ومنكم مومن والله بما تعملون بصير
Edip-Layth	64:3 He created the heavens and the earth with truth. He designed you and made your design the best, and to Him is the final destiny.
The Monotheist Group	64:3 He created the heavens and the Earth with truth, and He designed you and perfected your design, and to Him is the final destiny.
Muhammad Asad	64:3 He has created the heavens and the earth in accordance with [an inner] truth, ² and has formed you - and formed you so well; ³ and with Him is your journey's end.
Rashad Khalifa	64:3 He created the heavens and the earth for a specific purpose, designed you and perfected your design, then to Him is the final destiny.
Shabbir Ahmed	64:3 He created the heavens and earth in truth and with a Sublime purpose. And He formed you and formed you so well with beautiful potentials. And to Him is the Final destination.
Transliteration	64:3 Khalaqa a Issam ^a wati wa al-ard ^a bi al ^{ha} qqi wa sawwarakum faa ^h sana ^s uwarakumwa- ilayhi al ^{maseer} u
A	64:3 خلق السموت والارض بالحق وصوركم فاحسن صوركم واليه المصير
Edip-Layth	64:4 He knows what is in the heavens and the earth, and He knows what you conceal and what you declare. God is aware of what is inside the chests.
The Monotheist Group	64:4 He knows what is in the heavens and the Earth, and He knows what you conceal and what you declare. And God is aware of what is inside the chests.
Muhammad Asad	64:4 He knows all that is in the heavens and on earth; and He knows all that you keep secret as well as all that you bring into the open: for God has full knowledge of what is in the hearts [of men].
Rashad Khalifa	64:4 He knows everything in the heavens and the earth, and He knows everything you conceal and everything you declare. GOD is fully aware of the innermost thoughts.
Shabbir Ahmed	64:4 He knows every detail in the highs and the lows and He knows what you conceal and what you reveal. God is Knower of what is in the hearts.
Transliteration	64:4 YaAAalamu m ^a fee a Issam ^a watiwaal-ard ⁱ wayaAAalamu m ^a tusirroona wam ^a tuAAlinoona waAllahu AAaleemun bi th ati al ^{sudoori}
A	64:4 يعلم ما فى السموت والارض ويعلم ما تسرون وما تعلنون والله عليم بذات الصدور
Edip-Layth	64:5 Did the news not come to you of those who had rejected before? They had tasted the consequences of their decision and they incurred a painful retribution.
The Monotheist Group	64:5 Did the news not come to you of those who had rejected before? They had tasted the consequences of their decision and they incurred a painful retribution.
Muhammad Asad	64:5 HAVE THE STORIES of those who, in earlier times, refused to acknowledge the truth never yet come within your ken? [They denied it -] and so they had to taste the evil outcome of their own doings, with [more] grievous suffering awaiting them [in the life to come]:

Rashad Khalifa	64:5 Have you noted those who disbelieved in the past, then suffered the consequences of their decision? They incurred a painful retribution.
Shabbir Ahmed	64:5 Has not the news reached you of those who denied the truth in the earlier times, and so they did taste the calamity for their (wrong) decisions? And for them was a painful chastisement.
Transliteration	64:5 Alam ya/tikum nabao alla the ena kafaroomin qablu fa tha qoo wa ba la amrihim walahum AAa tha bunaleem un
A	64:5 ألم ياتكم نبوا الذين كفروا من قبل فذاقوا وبال امرهم ولهم عذاب اليم
Edip-Layth	64:6 That was because their messengers came to them with clear proofs, but they said, "Shall humans guide us?" So they rejected and turned away. Yet, God had no need. God is Rich, Praiseworthy.
The Monotheist Group	64:6 That was because their messengers came to them with clear proofs, but they said: "Shall mere human beings guide us?" So they rejected and turned away, and God had no need. And God is Rich, Praiseworthy.
Muhammad Asad	64:6 this, because time and again there came unto them their apostles ⁶ with all evidence of the truth, but they [always] replied, "Shall mere mortal men be our guides?" And so they. denied the truth and turned away. But God was not in need [of them]: for God is self-sufficient, ever to be praised.
Rashad Khalifa	64:6 This is because their messengers went to them with clear proofs, but they said, "Shall we follow humans like us?" They disbelieved and turned away. GOD does not need them; GOD is in no need, Praiseworthy.
Shabbir Ahmed	64:6 This, because their messengers kept coming to them with self-evident truth, but they said, "Shall mere human beings guide us?" And so they rejected and turned away. But God is Absolutely Independent. God is Absolutely Independent, Owner of praise.
Transliteration	64:6 Th alika bi-annahu k a natta/teehim rusuluhum bi a lbayyinati faq a looabasharun yahdoonana fakafaroo watawallaw waistaghna Alla hu wa Alla hu ghaniyyun h ameed un
A	64:6 ذلك بانه كانت تاتيهم رسلهم بالبينت فقالوا ابشر يهدوننا فكفروا وتولوا واستغنى الله والله غنى حميد
Edip-Layth	64:7 Those who reject claim that they will not be resurrected. Say, "Yes, by my Lord, you will be resurrected, then you will be informed of everything you have done, and this is easy for God to do."
The Monotheist Group	64:7 Those who rejected claim that they will not be resurrected. Say: "Yes, by my Lord, you will be resurrected, then you will be informed of everything you have done, and this is easy for God to do."
Muhammad Asad	64:7 They who are bent on denying the truth claim that they will never be raised from the dead! ⁷ Say: "Yea, by my Sustainer! Most surely will you be raised from the dead, and then, most surely, will you be made to understand what you did [in life]! For, easy is this for God!"
Rashad Khalifa	64:7 Those who disbelieved claim that they will not be resurrected! Yes indeed, by my Lord, you will be resurrected, and you will be held accountable for everything you have done. This is easy for GOD to do.
Shabbir Ahmed	64:7 Those who reject the truth think that they will never be raised again. Say, "By my Lord! You will be raised again. And then you will be informed of what you really accomplished. For, this is easy for God."
Transliteration	64:7 ZaAAama alla the ena kafaroo an lanyubAAathoo qul bal a warabee latubAAathunna thummalatunabbaonna bima AAamiltum wa tha lika AAala Alla hi yaseer un
A	64:7 زعم الذين كفروا ان لن يبعثوا قل بلى وربي لتبعثن ثم لتنبون بما عملتم وذلك على الله يسير

Edip-Layth	64:8 Therefore, you shall acknowledge God and His messenger, and the light that We have sent down. God is Ever-aware of all that you do.
The Monotheist Group	64:8 Therefore, you shall believe in God and His messenger, and the light that We have sent down. And God is Expert over all that you do.
Muhammad Asad	64:8 Believe then, [O men,] in God and His Apostle, and in the light [of revelation] which We have bestowed [on you] from on high! And God is fully aware of all that you do.
Rashad Khalifa	64:8 Therefore, you shall believe in GOD and His messenger, and the light that we have revealed herein. GOD is fully Cognizant of everything you do.
Shabbir Ahmed	64:8 So believe in God, His messenger and the light which We have revealed. God is fully Aware of what you do. 2
Transliteration	64:8 Faaminoo biAlla ^h iwarasoolihi waalInnoori allat ^h ee anza ^l na waAlla ^h hubima taAAamaloona khabeerun
A	64:8 فامنوا بالله ورسوله والنور الذي انزلنا والله بما تعملون خبير
Edip-Layth	64:9 The day when He will gather you, the day of Gathering. That is the day of mutual blaming. Whosoever acknowledges God and does good works, He will remit his sins, and will admit him into paradises with rivers flowing beneath to abide therein forever. Such is the greatest triumph.
The Monotheist Group	64:9 The Day when He will gather you, the Day of Gathering. That is the Day of mutual blaming. And whosoever believes in God and does good works, He will remit his sins, and will admit him into paradises with rivers flowing beneath to abide therein forever. Such is the greatest triumph.
Muhammad Asad	64:9 [Think of 8] the time when He shall gather you all together unto the Day of the [Last] Gathering - that Day of Loss and Gain! For, as for him who shall have believed in God and done what is just and right, He will [on that Day] efface his bad deeds, and will admit him into gardens through which running waters flow, therein to abide beyond the count of time: that will be a triumph supreme!
Rashad Khalifa	64:9 The day will come when He summons you to the Day of Summoning. That is the Day of Mutual Blaming. Anyone who believes in GOD and leads a righteous life, He will remit his sins, and will admit him into gardens with flowing streams. They abide therein forever. This is the greatest triumph.
Shabbir Ahmed	64:9 The Day when He shall gather you all on the Day of Gathering, that will be the Day of loss and gain. And whoever chooses to be graced with belief, and helps others, God will blot out the imprints of his faults and admit him into Gardens beneath which rivers flow, therein to abide forever. That is the Supreme Triumph.
Transliteration	64:9 Yawma yajmaAAukum liyawmi aljamAAi thalikayawmu a lIttaghabuni waman yu/min biAlla ^h hiwayaAAamal salihan yukaffir AAanhu sayyi- atihwayudkhillhu jann atin tajree min tahtih ^{al} -anharu khalideena fee ^h a abadan thalikaalfawzu alAAa th ee ^{mu}
A	64:9 يوم يجمعكم ليوم الجمع ذلك يوم التغابن ومن يؤمن بالله ويعمل صالحا يكفر عنه سيئاته ويدخله جنت تجري من تحتها الأنهر خالدين فيها ابدًا ذلك الفوز العظيم
Edip-Layth	64:10 As for those who reject and deny Our signs, they are the dwellers of the fire; they will abide therein. What a miserable destiny!
The Monotheist Group	64:10 As for those who reject and deny Our revelations, they are the dwellers of the Fire; they will abide therein. What a miserable destiny!
Muhammad Asad	64:10 But as for those who are bent on denying the truth and on giving the lie to Our messages - they are destined for the fire, therein to abide: and how vile a journey's end!
Rashad Khalifa	64:10 As for those who disbelieve and reject our revelations, they are the dwellers of the Hellfire; they abide therein forever. What a miserable destiny!

Shabbir Ahmed	64:10 But those who oppose and deny Our messages, such are companions of the fire. They will abide therein - what a miserable destination!
Transliteration	64:10 Wa ^a lla ^{the} ena kafaroo waka th thaboobi- ay atina ol a-ika a s- hab ualnnari kh al ideena feeha wabi/sa alma ^{seer} u
A	64:10 والذين كفروا وكذبوا بآياتنا أولئك أصحاب النار خلدین فیها وبئس المصیر
Edip-Layth	64:11 No misfortune strikes except with God's leave. Whosoever acknowledges God, He will guide his heart. God is fully aware of all things.
The Monotheist Group	64:11 No misfortune strikes except with God's leave. And whosoever believes in God, He will guide his heart. And God is fully aware of all things.
Muhammad Asad	64:11 NO CALAMITY can ever befall [man] unless it be by God's leave: hence, whoever believes in God guides his [own] heart [towards this truth]; ⁹ and God has full knowledge of everything.
Rashad Khalifa	Divine Law 64:11 Nothing happens to you except in accordance with GOD's will. Anyone who believes in GOD, He will guide his heart. GOD is fully aware of all things.
Shabbir Ahmed	64:11 (Nothing happens haphazardly in the Universe.) No calamity befalls but according to the laws of God. Whoever (understands this and) believes in God guides himself deep down in his heart. God is the Knower of all things (and events). ³
Transliteration	64:11 Ma a ^s aba min mu ^{seeb} atinilla bi-i th ni All ^a hi waman yu/min bi All ^a hiyahdi qalbahu waAll ^a hu bikulli shay-in AAaleem ^{un}
A	64:11 ما اصاب من مصیبة الا باذن الله ومن یؤمن بالله یهد قلبه والله بكل شیء علیم
Edip-Layth	64:12 Obey God and obey the messenger. If you turn away, then it is only required of Our messenger to deliver clearly.
The Monotheist Group	64:12 Obey God and obey the messenger. And if you turn away, then it is only required of Our messenger to deliver clearly.
Muhammad Asad	64:12 Pay heed, then, unto God, and pay heed unto the Apostle; and if you turn away, [know that] Our Apostle's only duty is a clear delivery of this message:
Rashad Khalifa	64:12 You shall obey GOD and you shall obey the messenger. If you turn away, then the sole mission of our messenger is to deliver the message.
Shabbir Ahmed	64:12 Obey God and obey the messenger. But if you turn away, the duty of Our messenger is only to convey the message clearly. ⁴
Transliteration	64:12 Waa ^{tee} AAoo All ^a ha waa ^{tee} AAooalrrasoola fa-in tawallaytum fa-innam ^a AAa ^{lar} asoolina alba ^l aghu almubeenu
A	64:12 واطیعوا الله واطیعوا الرسول فان تولیتم فانما علی رسولنا البلغ المبین
Edip-Layth	In God You Shall Trust 64:13 God, there is no god besides Him. In God those who acknowledge shall put their trust.
The Monotheist Group	64:13 God, there is no god besides Him. In God the believers shall put their trust.
Muhammad Asad	64:13 God - there is no deity save Him! ¹⁰ In God then let the believers place their trust.
Rashad Khalifa	64:13 GOD: there is no other god besides Him. In GOD the believers shall trust.
Shabbir Ahmed	64:13 God! There is no deity but Him. On God, then, let the believers put their trust. ⁵
Transliteration	64:13 All ^a hu la ilaha illa ^{hu} wa waAAa ^{la} All ^a hi falyatawakkali almu/minoon a
A

Edip-Layth	64:14 O you who acknowledge, from among your spouses and your children are enemies to you; so beware of them. If you pardon, and overlook, and forgive, then God is Forgiver, Compassionate.
The Monotheist Group	64:14 O you who believe, from among your spouses and your children are enemies to you; so beware of them. And if you pardon, and overlook, and forgive, then God is Forgiver, Merciful.
Muhammad Asad	64:14 O YOU who have attained to faith! Behold, some of your spouses ¹¹ and your children are enemies unto you: so beware of them! ¹² But if you pardon [their faults] and forbear, and forgive-then, behold, God will be much-forgiving, a dispenser of grace.
Rashad Khalifa	64:14 O you who believe, your spouses and your children can be your enemies; beware. If you pardon, forget, and forgive, then GOD is Forgiver, Most Merciful.
Shabbir Ahmed	64:14 O You who have chosen to be graced with belief! Among your spouses and your children may be those who distance you from your higher objectives. So be careful on that account! But if you forgo their attitude, overlook the obstacles and protect them and yourself from the detrimental effects of disharmony, you will be taking the Hue of God. Certainly, God is Protecting, Nurturing. ⁶
Transliteration	64:14 Ya ayyuha allatheena amanooinna min azwajikum waawladikum AAaduwwan lakum faihtatharoomwa-in taAAfoo watafahoo wataghfiroo fa-inna Allaghaghafoorun raheemun
A	64:14 يايها الذين ءامنوا ان من ازوجكم واولدكم عنوا لكم فاحذروهم وان تعفوا وتصفحوا وتغفروا فان الله غفور رحيم
Edip-Layth	64:15 Your money and children are a test, and with God is a great recompense.
The Monotheist Group	64:15 Your money and children are a test, and with God is a great recompense.
Muhammad Asad	64:15 Your worldly goods and your children are but a trial and a temptation, ¹³ whereas with God there is a tremendous reward.
Rashad Khalifa	64:15 Your money and children are a test, and GOD possesses a great recompense.
Shabbir Ahmed	64:15 Your wealth and children provide you with a test. (If you keep balance), with God is a tremendous reward. ⁷
Transliteration	64:15 Innama amwalukum waawladukumfitnatun waAllahu AAindahu ajrun AAattheemun
A	64:15 انما امولكم واولدكم فتنة والله عنده اجر عظيم
Edip-Layth	64:16 Therefore, be aware of God as much as you can, and listen, and obey, and give for charity for your own good. Whosoever is protected from his own hedonistic desires, then these are the successful ones.
The Monotheist Group	64:16 Therefore, be aware of God as much as you can, and listen, and obey, and give for your own good. And whosoever is protected from his own stinginess, then these are the successful ones.
Muhammad Asad	64:16 Remain, then, conscious of God as best you can, and listen [to Him], and pay heed. And spend in charity for the good of your own selves: for, such as from their own covetousness are saved it is they, they that shall attain to a happy state! ¹⁴
Rashad Khalifa	64:16 Therefore, you shall reverence GOD as much as you can, and listen, and obey, and give (to charity) for your own good. Anyone who is protected from his own stinginess, these are the successful ones.
Shabbir Ahmed	64:16 So be mindful of God as best as you can. Listen, and obey, and keep your resources open for others. That is good for your own 'self'. Those who are saved from their own greediness are truly successful.

Transliteration	64:16 Faittaaqoo All aha m aistaAAtum wa ismaAAoo waa teeAAoo waanfiqookhayran li-anfusikum waman yooqa shuhha nafsichi faola-ikahumu almuflighoon
A	64:16 فاتقوا الله ما استطعتم واسمعوا واطيعوا وانفقوا خيرا لانفسكم ومن يوق شح نفسه فاولئك هم المفلحون
Edip-Layth	64:17 If you lend God a loan of righteousness, He will multiply it for you many fold, and forgive you. God is Appreciative, Compassionate.
The Monotheist Group	64:17 If you lend God a loan of righteousness, He will multiply it for you many fold, and forgive you. God is Appreciative, Compassionate.
Muhammad Asad	64:17 If you offer up to God a goodly loan, He will amply repay you for it, and will forgive you your sins: for God is ever responsive to gratitude, forbearing,
Rashad Khalifa	64:17 If you lend GOD a loan of righteousness, He will multiply the reward for you manifold, and forgive you. GOD is Appreciative, Clement.
Shabbir Ahmed	64:17 If you lend to God a goodly loan, He will multiply it for you and will grant you the protection of forgiveness. God is Appreciative, Clement.
Transliteration	64:17 In tuqri doo All aha qar danhasanan yu daAAifhu lakum wayaghfir lakum waAlahushakoorun haleemun
A	64:17 ان تقرضوا الله قرضا حسنا يضاعفه لكم ويغفر لكم والله شكور حلیم
Edip-Layth	64:18 The Knower of all secrets and declarations; the Noble, the Wise.
The Monotheist Group	64:18 The Knower of all secrets and declarations; the Noble, the Wise.
Muhammad Asad	64:18 knowing all that is beyond the reach of a created being's perception as well as all that can be witnessed by a creature's senses or mind ¹⁵ - the Almighty, the Wise!
Rashad Khalifa	64:18 The Knower of all secrets and declarations; the Almighty, Most Wise.
Shabbir Ahmed	64:18 Knower of the Invisible and the Visible, the Mighty, the Wise.
Transliteration	64:18 AAalimu alghaybi waalshshahadatialAAazeezu alhakeemu
A	64:18 علم الغيب والشهادة العزيز الحكيم

<< Prev 64:1-18 Next >>

Return to top

End Notes

Shabbir Ahmed -

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 1 (64:1)

God has appointed due measure for all things and events

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 2 (64:8)

And how actions affect the 'self' according to the Law of Cause and Effect

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 3 (64:11)

Nations that understand the laws in nature are better equipped to take preventive measures against natural disasters. Izn = Leave = Permission = Laws

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 4 (64:12)

Obeying God and His messenger would mean obeying the Central authority. 3:32

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 5 (64:13)

They know that His laws never change

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 6 (64:14)

Then the whole family will strive for the noble Mission. Much Tasreef-il-Aayaat (looking at other verses) has gone into the rendition of this verse. 2:85, 2:98, 60:2. 'Idia, 'Udwaan, 'Adu = Wedge = Creating distance between hearts = Discord = Opposition = Enmity = Schism = Division = Remoteness. Ghafarah = Protection. Hue of God, here meaning protecting and nurturing 2:138. Safh = Overlook = Create room in the heart = 'Afw = Forgo = Absolve = Forgive. Raheem = Merciful = From Rahm meaning womb, Nurturing, as the womb nurtures the fetus without returns. Nourisher of the entire Universe

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 7 (64:15)

64:14, 2:221

Muhammad Asad - The Message Of Quran

Muhammad Asad - End Note 1 (64:2)

The above construction, pointing to man's acceptance or denial of the truth of God's creative activity, is in accord with Tabari's interpretation of this passage, as well as with that of Az-Zajjaj (quoted by Razi). According to Zamakhshari, those who deny this truth are mentioned first because they are more numerous and possess greater influence than those who consciously believe in God. A further implication appears to be this: Since all human beings are endowed with the instinctive ability to perceive the existence of the Creator (cf. 7:172 and the corresponding note 139), one man's denial of this truth and another's belief in it is, in the last resort, an outcome of free choice.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 2 (64:3)

See surah 10, note 11.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 3 (64:3)

I.e., in accordance with the exigencies of human life. See also note 9 on 7:11.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 4 (64:5)

This is an allusion to the disasters and the suffering which, as history shows, inevitably befall a community or nation bent on rejecting the basic ethical truths and, thus, all standards of morality.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 6 (64:6)

Lit., "guide us". This negative response is characteristic of people who, in result of their own estrangement from all moral standards, are instinctively, and deeply, distrustful of all things human and cannot, therefore, accept the idea that a divine message could manifest itself through mere human beings that have nothing "supernatural" about them.

Muhammad Asad - End Note (64:6)

Muhammad Asad - End Note 7 (64:7)

Their refusal to believe in resurrection and a life to come implies a conviction that no one will be called upon, after death, to answer for what he did in life.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 8 (64:9)

This or a similar interpolation is necessary in view of the mansub form of the subsequent noun, yawma (lit., "day"), which I am rendering in this context as "the time".

Muhammad Asad - End Note 9 (64:11)

I.e., in the words of Razi, "towards self-surrender to God's will. . . , [and so] towards gratitude in times of ease, and patience in times of misfortune". It is also possible - as some of the commentators do - to understand the phrase in another sense, namely, "if anyone believes in God, He [i.e., God] guides his heart". However, the rendering adopted by me seems to be preferable inasmuch as it stresses the idea that conscious belief in God impels a man's reason to control and direct his emotions and inclinations in accordance with all that this belief implies.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 10 (64:13)

The above construction of this passage makes it clear, firstly, that a realization of God's existence, oneness and almightiness is the innermost purport - and, thus, the beginning and the end - of God's message to man; and, secondly, that His prophets can do no more than deliver and expound this message, leaving it to man's reason and free choice to accept or reject it.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 11 (64:14)

I.e., "sometimes, your spouses.. .", etc. Since, in the teachings of the Qur'an, all moral duties are binding on women as well as on men, it is obvious that the term azwajikum must not be rendered as "your wives", but is to be understood - according to classical Arabic usage - as applying equally to both the male and the female partners in a marriage.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 12 (64:14)

Love of his or her family may sometimes tempt a believer to act contrary to the demands of conscience and faith; and, occasionally, one or another of the loved ones - whether wife or husband or child - may consciously try to induce the person concerned to abandon some of his or her moral commitments in order to satisfy some real or imaginary "family interest", and thus becomes the other's spiritual "enemy". It is to this latter eventuality that the next sentence alludes.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 13 (64:15)

For an explanation, see note 28 on 8:28, which is almost identical with the present passage.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 14 (64:16)

Cf. last sentence of 59:9 and the corresponding note 14.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 15 (64:18)

See surah 6, note 65.

Best viewed using your own brain

Tested on 1024x768 resolution with  FIREFOX 2

Kitabun Marqum v0.6.7 - Kitabun Marqum - Quran Research Platform by QuraniX Team Copyright © 2002-2011 All rights reserved.
Copyrights of all translations belong to their respective authors.

49:6 O you who believe, if a wicked person brings any news to you, you shall first investigate, lest you commit injustice towards some people, out of ignorance, then become sorry and remorseful for what you have done.

Rashad Khalifa (The Final Testament)

 Translations ▼

 Chapter/Verse ▼

 Refresh

 Search

<< Prev 65:1-12 Next >>

Edip-Layth	In the name of God, the Gracious, the Compassionate. 65:1 O you prophet, if any of you have divorced the women, then they should be divorced while ensuring that their required interim is fulfilled, and keep count of the interim. You shall reverence God your Lord, and do not evict the women from their homes, nor should they leave, unless they have committed a proven adultery. These are God's limits. Anyone who transgresses God's limits has wronged his person. You never know; perhaps God will make something come out of this.¹
The Monotheist Group	In the name of God, the Almighty, the Merciful. 65:1 O you prophet, if any of you have divorced the women, then they should be divorced while ensuring that their required interim is fulfilled, and keep count of the interim. You shall reverence God your Lord, and do not evict the women from their homes, nor should they leave, unless they have committed a proven adultery. And these are God's limits. And anyone who transgresses God's limits has wronged his soul. You never know; perhaps God will make something come out of this.
Muhammad Asad	In the name of God, The Most Gracious, The Dispenser of Grace: 65:1 O PROPHET! When you ¹ [intend to divorce women, divorce them with a view to the waiting period appointed for them, ² and reckon the period [carefully], and be conscious of God, your Sustainer. Do not expel them from their homes; ³ and neither shall they [be made to] leave ⁴ unless they become openly guilty of immoral conduct. ⁵ These, then, are the bounds set by God - and he who transgresses the bounds set by God does indeed sin against himself: [for, O man, although] thou knowest it not, after that [first breach] God may well cause something new to come about. ⁶
Rashad Khalifa	In the name of GOD, Most Gracious, Most Merciful. 65:1 O you prophet, when you people divorce the women, you shall ensure that a divorce interim is fulfilled. You shall measure such an interim precisely. You shall reverence GOD your Lord. Do not evict them from their homes, nor shall you make life miserable for them, to force them to leave on their own, unless they commit a proven adultery. These are GOD's laws. Anyone who transgresses GOD's laws commits an injustice against himself. You never know; maybe GOD wills something good to come out of this.
	BISMILLAH-IR-RAHMAN-IR-RAHEEM With the Glorious Name of God, the Ultimate Source of Instant Beneficence and Eternal mercy Who encompasses the entire Universe, nourishing and taking care of all things for what they are meant to be; just as a mother's womb nourishes the embryo to completion without any returns.

Shabbir Ahmed	65:1 O Prophet! When you men intend to divorce women, make sure that the waiting period is observed. Keep precise account of this interim. Be mindful of God, your Lord. Never expel them from THEIR homes, nor shall they themselves leave their homes unless they commit open immorality. These are, then, the limits imposed by God. And whoever crosses God's limits, certainly, hurts one's own 'self'. You do not know that God may bring about thereafter a new situation (help create reconciliation). ¹
Transliteration	Bismi Allāhi alrrahmāni alrraḥeemi 65:1 Ya ayyuh a Innabiyyu i thatalaqtumu a Innisaa fa talliqoohunnaliAAiddatihinna waahsoo alAAiddata wa ittaqoo All aharabbakum l a tukhrijoohunna min buyootihinna walayakhrujna ill a an ya/teena bif ahishatinmubayyinatin watilka hudoodu All ahi wamanyataAAadda hudooda All ahi faqad thalamanafsahu l a tadree laAAalla All aha yuhdithubaAAada thalika amran
A	بسم الله الرحمن الرحيم 65:1 يَا أَيُّهَا النَّبِيُّ إِذَا طَلَقْتُمُ النِّسَاءَ فَطَلِّقُوهُنَّ لِعَدَّتِهِنَّ وَأَحْصُوا الْعِدَّةَ وَاتَّقُوا اللَّهَ رَبَّكُمْ لَا تَخْرُجُوهُنَّ مِنْ بُيُوتِهِنَّ وَلَا يَخْرُجْنَ إِلَّا أَنْ يَأْتِيَنَّ بِفَحْشَةٍ مُبَيَّنَةٍ وَتِلْكَ حُدُودُ اللَّهِ وَمَنْ يَتَعَدَّ حُدُودَ اللَّهِ فَقَدْ ظَلَمَ نَفْسَهُ لَا تَدْرِي لَعَلَّ اللَّهَ يُحْدِثُ بَعْدَ ذَلِكَ أَمْرًا
Edip-Layth	65:2 Then, once the interim is fulfilled, either you remain together equitably, or part ways equitably and have it witnessed by two just people from among you; and give the testimony for God. This is to enlighten those who acknowledge God and the Last day. Whosoever reverences God, He will create a solution for him.
The Monotheist Group	65:2 Then, once the interim is fulfilled, either you remain together equitably, or part ways equitably and have it witnessed by two just people from among you; and give the testimony for God. This is to enlighten those who believe in God and the Last Day. And whosoever reverences God, He will create a solution for him.
Muhammad Asad	65:2 And so, when they are about to reach the end of their waiting-term, either retain them in a fair manner or part with them in a fair manner. And let two persons of [known] probity from among your own community ⁷ witness [what you have decided]; and do yourselves bear true witness before God: ⁸ thus are admonished all who believe in God and the Last Day. And unto everyone who is conscious of God, He [always] grants a way out [of unhappiness].
Rashad Khalifa	65:2 Once the interim is fulfilled, you may reconcile with them equitably, or go through with the separation equitably. You shall have two equitable witnesses witness the divorce before GOD. This is to enlighten those who believe in GOD and the Last Day. Anyone who reverences GOD, He will create an exit for him.
Shabbir Ahmed	65:2 And so when they have reached their waiting term, either retain them in kindness or part with them in kindness. And let there be two just persons among you to witness, and establish the evidence straight for God. This exhortation is for him who believes in God and the Last Day. And anyone who is mindful of God, He will grant a way out for him (from difficult situations).
Transliteration	65:2 Fa-itha balaghna ajalahunnafaamsikoohunna bimaAAaroofin aw f ariqoohunna bimaAAaroofinwaashhidoo thaway AAadlin minkum waaqeemoo a Ishshahadatalillahithalikum yooAAa thu bihi man k anayu/minu bi Allāhi wa alyawmi al- akhiriwaman yattaqi Allāha yajAAal lahu makhrajan
A	65:2 فَإِذَا بَلَغْنَ أَجَلَهُنَّ فَامْسُكُوهُنَّ بِمَعْرُوفٍ أَوْ فَارِقُوهُنَّ بِمَعْرُوفٍ وَأَشْهِدُوا ذَوَى عَدْلٍ مِنْكُمْ وَأَقِيمُوا الشَّهَادَةَ لِلَّهِ ذَلِكَ يُوَظُّ بِهِ مَنْ كَانَ يُؤْمِنُ بِاللَّهِ وَالْيَوْمِ الْآخِرِ وَمَنْ يَتَّقِ اللَّهَ يَجْعَلْ لَهُ مَخْرَجًا
Edip-Layth	65:3 He will provide for him whence he never expected. Anyone who puts his trust in God, then He suffices him. God's commands will be done. God has decreed for everything its fate.
The Monotheist Group	65:3 And He will provide for him whence he never expected. Anyone who puts his trust in God, then He suffices him. God's commands will be done. God has decreed for everything its fate.

Muhammad Asad	65:3 and provides for him in a manner beyond all expectation; ⁹ and for everyone who places his trust in God He [alone] is enough. Verily, God always attains to His purpose: [and] indeed, unto everything has God appointed its [term and] measure.
Rashad Khalifa	65:3 And will provide for him whence he never expected. Anyone who trusts in GOD, He suffices him. GOD's commands are done. GOD has decreed for everything its fate.
Shabbir Ahmed	65:3 And will provide for him in a manner he never expected. And whoever places his trust in God, He will suffice him. God always brings His command to pass. For all things God has appointed a due proportion.
Transliteration	65:3 Wayarzuqhu min haythu l a ya htasibuwaman yatawakkal AAal a All ahi fahuwa hasbuhuinna Allaha balighu amrihi qad jaAAala Allahulikulli shay-in qadran
A	65:3 ويرزقه من حيث لا يحتسب ومن يتوكل على الله فهو حسبه ان الله بلغ امره قد جعل الله لكل شىء قدرا
Edip-Layth	65:4 As for the women who have reached menopause, if you have any doubts, their interim shall be three months. As for those whose menstruation has ceased, and those who are already pregnant, their interim is until they give birth. Anyone who reverences God, He makes his matters easy for him.
The Monotheist Group	65:4 As for the women who have reached menopause, if you have any doubts, their interim shall be three months. And as for those whose menstruation has ceased, and those who are already pregnant, their interim is until they give birth. And anyone who reverences God, He makes his matters easy for him.
Muhammad Asad	65:4 Now as for such of your women as are beyond, the age of monthly courses, as well as for such as do not have any courses, ¹⁰ their waiting-period - if you have any doubt [about it] - shall be three [calendar] months; and as for those who are with child, the end of their waiting-term shall come when they deliver their burden. And for everyone who is conscious of God, He makes it easy to obey His commandment: ¹¹
Rashad Khalifa	65:4 As for the women who have reached menopause, if you have any doubts, their interim shall be three months. As for those who do not menstruate, and discover that they are pregnant, their interim ends upon giving birth. Anyone who reverences GOD, He makes everything easy for him.
Shabbir Ahmed	65:4 And those of your women who no longer expect menstruation, as well as those women who do not habitually menstruate (for any reason), to resolve your doubts, their waiting period is ordained to be three months. For those who are pregnant, the waiting period ends when they deliver their burden. Anyone who is mindful of God, He will make his condition easy for him. ²
Transliteration	65:4 Waalla-ee ya-isna mina alma heedimin nis a-ikum ini irtabtum faAAiddatuhunna thalathatuashhurin wa alla-ee lam ya hidna waol atual-ahmali ajaluhunna an ya daAAna hamlahunnawaman yattaqi Allaha yajAAal lahu min amrihi yusran
A	65:4 والى يؤسن من الحيض من نسائكم ان ارتبتم فعدتهن ثلاثة اشهر والى لم يحضن واولت الاحمال اجلهن ان يضعن حملهن ومن يتق الله يجعل له من امره يسرا
Edip-Layth	65:5 This is God's command that He sends down to you. Anyone who is aware of God, He will remit his sins, and will improve his reward.
The Monotheist Group	65:5 This is God's command that He sends down to you. And anyone who is aware of God, He will remit his sins, and will improve his reward.
Muhammad Asad	65:5 [for] all this is God's commandment, which He has bestowed upon you from on high. And unto everyone who is conscious of God will He pardon [some of] his bad deeds, and will grant him a vast reward.
Rashad Khalifa	65:5 This is GOD's command that He sends down to you. Anyone who reverences GOD, He remits his sins, and rewards him generously.

Shabbir Ahmed	65:5 That is the commandment of God that He reveals to you. Anyone who is mindful of God, He will absolve his faults and increase his reward.
Transliteration	65:5 Th alika amru All a hi anzalahu ilaykum waman yattaqi All a ha yukaffir AAanhu sayyi- a tihawayuAA th im lahu ajr a n
A	65:5 ذلك امر الله انزله اليكم ومن يتق الله يكفر عنه سيئاته ويعظم له اجرا
	Duties Towards Divorced Women
Edip-Layth	65:6 You shall let them reside in the home you were in when you were together, and do not coerce them to make them leave. If they are pregnant, you shall spend on them until they give birth. Then, if they nurse the infant for you, you shall pay them their due for such. You shall maintain the amicable relations between you. If you disagree, then another woman may nurse the child.
The Monotheist Group	65:6 You shall let them reside in the home you were in when you were together, and do not coerce them to make them leave. And if they are pregnant, you shall spend on them until they give birth. Then, if they nurse the infant, you shall give them their due payment. And you shall maintain the amicable relations between you. If you disagree, then another woman may nurse the child.
Muhammad Asad	65:6 [Hence,] let the women [who are undergoing a waiting-period] live in the same manner as you live yourselves, ¹² In accordance with your means; and do not harass them with a view to making their lives a misery. And if they happen to be with child, spend freely on them until they deliver their burden; and if they nurse your offspring [after the divorce has become final], give them their [due] recompense; and take counsel with one another in a fair manner [about the child's future]. And if both of you find it difficult [that the mother should nurse the child], ¹³ let another woman nurse it on behalf of him [who has begotten it]. ¹⁴
Rashad Khalifa	65:6 You shall allow them to live in the same home in which they lived with you, and do not make life so miserable for them that they leave on their own. If they are pregnant, you shall spend on them until they give birth. If they nurse the infant, you shall pay them for this service. You shall maintain the amicable relations among you. If you disagree, you may hire another woman to nurse the child.
Shabbir Ahmed	65:6 Let them (the divorced women) live where you live with the same standard of living that you have, and according to your best means. Harass them not to make life difficult for them. And if they are pregnant, spend on them freely until they deliver their burden. Then, if they nurse your baby, give them their due recompense. And frequently consult together amicably. And if both of you find it difficult, let another woman suckle the baby on his behalf. ³
Transliteration	65:6 Askinoohunna min h aythu sakantum minwujdikum wal a tu d arroohunna litudayyiqooAAalayhinna wa-in kunna ol a ti h amlin faanfiqooAAalayhinna h atta ya d aAAna h amlahunnafa-in ar d aAAna lakum fa a toohunna ojoorahunnawa/tamiroo baynakum bimaAAaroofin wa-in taAAasartum fasatur d iAAulahu okhr a
A	65:6 اسكنوهن من حيث سكنتم من وجدكم ولا تضاروهن لتضييقوا عليهن وان كن اولت حمل فانفقوا عليهن حتى يرضعن حملهن فان ارضعن لكم فاتوهن اجورهن واتمروا بينكم بمعروف وان تعاسرتم فسترضع له اخرى
Edip-Layth	65:7 The rich shall provide support in accordance with his means, and the poor shall provide according to the means that God bestowed upon him. God does not burden any person more than He has given it. God will provide ease after difficulty.
The Monotheist Group	65:7 The rich shall provide support in accordance with his means, and the poor shall provide according to the means that God bestowed upon him. God does not burden any soul more than He has given it. God will provide ease after difficulty.
	65:7 [In all these respects,] let him who has ample means spend in accordance with ¹⁵ his amplitude; and let him whose means of subsistence are scanty spend in accordance with

Muhammad Asad	what God has given him: God does not burden any human being with more than He has given him - [and it may well be that] God will grant, after hardship, ease.
Rashad Khalifa	65:7 The rich husband shall provide support in accordance with his means, and the poor shall provide according to the means that GOD bestowed upon him. GOD does not impose on any soul more than He has given it. GOD will provide ease after difficulty.
Shabbir Ahmed	65:7 Let the affluent man give according to his affluence, and the poor man give according to what God has given him. God does not burden any human being with more than what He has given him. God will soon bestow relief after hardship.
Transliteration	65:7 Liyunfiq thoo saAAatin min saAAatihiwaman qudira AAalayhi rizquhu falyunfiq mimm a atahuAllahu l a yukallifu All ahu nafsani ill ama ataha sayajAAalu All ahubaAAada AAusrin yusran
A	65:7 لينفق ذو سعة من سعته ومن قدر عليه رزقه فلينفق مما آتاه الله لا يكلف الله نفسا الا ما آتاهها سيجعل الله بعد عسر يسرا
Edip-Layth	The Protected Message, a Messenger 65:8 Many a community rebelled against the commands of its Lord and His messengers. Thus, We called them to account, and requited them a terrible requital.
The Monotheist Group	65:8 Many a community rebelled against the commands of its Lord and His messengers. Thus, We called them to account, and requited them a terrible requital.
Muhammad Asad	65:8 AND HOW MANY a community has turned with disdain from the commandment of its Sustainer and His apostles! 16 -whereupon We called them all to account with an accounting severe, and caused them to suffer with a suffering unnameable:
Rashad Khalifa	65:8 Many a community rebelled against the commands of its Lord and against His messengers. Consequently, we held them strictly accountable, and requited them a terrible requital.
Shabbir Ahmed	65:8 And how many a community revolted against the command of its Lord and (denied) His messengers! We called each of them to a stern account and requited it with a dire requital.
Transliteration	65:8 Wakaayyin min qaryatin AAatat AAan amrirabbih a warusulihi fa hasabnaha hisabanshadeedan waAAaathhabnaha AAathabannukran
A	65:8 وكاين من قرية عتت عن امر ربها ورسله فحاسبناها حسابا شديدا وعذبناها عذابا نكرا
Edip-Layth	65:9 They tasted the result of their actions, and the consequence of their actions was a total loss.
The Monotheist Group	65:9 They tasted the result of their actions, and the consequence of their actions was a total loss.
Muhammad Asad	65:9 and thus they had to taste the evil outcome of their own doing: 17 for, [in this world,] the end of their doings was ruin,
Rashad Khalifa	65:9 They suffered the consequences of their decisions; a profound loss.
Shabbir Ahmed	65:9 And thus it tasted the calamitous end of its own doing. For, the consequence of their deeds was an utter loss.
Transliteration	65:9 Fathaqt wabala amrihawakana AAaqibatu amriha khusran
A	65:9 فذاقت وبال امرها وكان عقبة امرها خسرا
Edip-Layth	65:10 God has prepared for them a severe retribution. Therefore, O the intelligent people who have acknowledged, you shall be aware of God. God has sent down to you a remembrance. ²
	65:10 God has prepared for them a severe retribution. Therefore, you shall be aware of

The Monotheist Group	God, O you who possess intelligence and believed. God has sent down to you a remembrance.
Muhammad Asad	65:10 [the while] God has readied for them [yet more] suffering severe [in the life to come] Hence, remain conscious of God, O you who are endowed with insight - [you] who have attained to faith! God has indeed bestowed on you a reminder from on high:
Rashad Khalifa	65:10 GOD has prepared for them severe retribution. Therefore, you shall reverence GOD, O you who possess intelligence and believed. GOD has sent down to you a message -
Shabbir Ahmed	65:10 God has readied for them awful suffering (in the Hereafter as well). So always be mindful of God, O People of understanding - who have chosen to be graced with belief! Certainly, God has sent down to you a (glorious) reminder,
Transliteration	65:10 aAAadda All ahu lahum AAa thabanshadeedan fa ittaqoo All aha y a ole al-albabialla ^{the} ena amanoo qad anzala Allahu ilaykum thikran
A	65:10 اعد الله لهم عذابا شديدا فاتقوا الله ياولى الالب الذين ءامنوا قد انزل الله اليكم ذكرا
Edip-Layth	65:11 A messenger who recites to you God's signs, which are clear, to lead those who acknowledge and work righteousness out of the darkness into the light. Anyone who acknowledges God and does good works, He will admit him into paradises with rivers flowing beneath; they abide therein forever. God has granted for him and excellent reward.
The Monotheist Group	65:11 A messenger who recites to you God's revelations, which are clear, to lead those who believe and work righteousness out of the darkness into the light. Anyone who believes in God and does good works, He will admit him into paradises with rivers flowing beneath; they abide therein forever. God has granted for him an excellent reward.
Muhammad Asad	65:11 [He has sent] an apostle who conveys unto you God's clear messages, so that He might those who have attained to faith and do righteous deeds out of the depths of darkness into the light. And whoever believes in God and does what is right and just, him will He admit into gardens through which running waters flow, therein to abide beyond the count of time: indeed, a most goodly provision will God have granted him!
Rashad Khalifa	65:11 a messenger who recites to you GOD's revelations, clearly, to lead those who believe and work righteousness out of the darkness into the light. Anyone who believes in GOD and leads a righteous life, He will admit him into gardens with flowing streams; they abide therein forever. GOD will generously reward him.
Shabbir Ahmed	65:11 (Reminder through) A messenger who conveys to you clear messages of God so that he may lead those who believe and set things right, from the depths of darkness into the light. And those who believe in God and work for the good of others, He will admit them into Gardens beneath which rivers flow, therein to abide forever. God has readied for them a most excellent provision. ⁴
Transliteration	65:11 Rasoolan yatloo AAalaykum ayatiAllahi mubayyin atin liyukhrija alla theena amanoo ^{wa} AAamiloo a Issalihati mina a lththulumatiila a Innoori waman yu/min biAllahiwayaAAamal salihan yudkhilhu jann atin tajreemin ta htiha al-anh aru kh alideena feehaabadan qad ahsana Allahu lahu rizqan
A	65:11 رسولاً يتلوا عليكم آيات الله مبينات ليخرج الذين ءامنوا وعملوا الصلحت من الظلمت الى النور ومن يومن بالله ويعمل صلحا يدخله جنت تجرى من تحتها الانهر خلدين فيها ابدآ قد احسن الله له رزقا
Edip-Layth	65:12 God who created seven heavens and the same number of earths. His command descends between them, that you may know that God is capable of all things, and that God has encompassed all things with His knowledge. ³
The Monotheist Group	65:12 God who created seven heavens and the same number of Earths. His command descends between them, that you may know that God is capable of all things, and that God has encompassed all things with His knowledge.
Muhammad Asad	65:12 GOD is He who has created seven heavens, ¹⁸ and, like them, [the many aspects] of the earth. Through all of them flows down from on high, unceasingly, His [creative] will, ¹⁹ so that you might come to know that God has the power to will anything, and that God encompasses all things with His knowledge.

Rashad Khalifa	Seven Universes And Seven Earths 65:12 GOD created seven universes and the same number of earths. The commands flow among them. This is to let you know that GOD is Omnipotent, and that GOD is fully aware of all things.³
Shabbir Ahmed	65:12 God is He who has created seven cosmic systems, and like them, of the lows. Through all of them descends His command that you may know that God has power over all things. And that God encompasses all things in His knowledge.⁵
Transliteration	65:12 Allahu alla^{thee} khalafa sabAAasam awatin wamina al-ar^{di} mithlahunnayatanazzalu al-amru baynahunna litaAAalamoo anna All^{aha}AAala^q kulli shay-in qadeerun waanna All^{aha} qad ahatabikulli shay-in AAilm^{an}
A	65:12 الله الذى خلق سبع سموت ومن الارض مثلهن ياتنزل الامر بينهن لتعلموا ان الله على كل شىء قدير وان الله قد احاط بكل شىء علما

<< Prev 65:1-12 Next >>

Return to top

End Notes

Edip-Layth - Quran: A Reformist Translation

Edip-Layth - End Note 1 (65:1)

The divorced women cannot be evicted from their homes. This is one of the many verses that protects women from unjust traditions of a misogynistic society. A divorced woman must wait three menstruation periods until she can marry again (2:228). See 2:226-230. Compare this verse to the Old Testament, Deuteronomy 24:1-3.

Edip-Layth - End Note 2 (65:10)

The Quran is a universal messenger; it is good news and a warner. See 41:4

Edip-Layth - End Note 3 (65:12)

What it is the implication of this verse? Seven planets like earth or the atomic structure of earthly materials? The word ard means both planet earth and ground. According to modern chemistry, atoms have a maximum of seven main energy levels. According to our current atomic model, theoretically the maximum number of protons in a stable atom is 114. In other words, the number of natural and artificially created stable elements equals the number of Chapters of the Quran. See 4:82.

Muhammad Asad - The Message Of Quran

Muhammad Asad - End Note 1 (65:1)

The plural "you" indicates that the whole community is thus addressed.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 2 (65:1)

See 2:228 and the corresponding notes, especially note 215. - Most of the great jurists hold the view that the required three pronouncements of divorce, which make it final and irrevocable (cf. first paragraph of 2:229), must be made singly, i.e., spaced over the waiting-period of three months, so as to give the husband time to reconsider his intention, and thus to prevent a hasty act which might be subsequently regretted. This provision is in line with the well-authenticated saying of the Prophet, "In the sight of God; the most hateful of all things allowed (abghad al-halali) is divorce" (Abu Da'ud, on the authority of Abd Allah ibn Umar). In other words, divorce is just barely permissible, and must not be resorted to unless it is absolutely evident that nothing can save the marriage from utter hopelessness.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 3 (65:1)

I.e., during the waiting-period. As shown in verse 6 below, during that period the husband is fully responsible for the maintenance of the wife whom he is divorcing in accordance with the standard of living observed during their married life.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 4 (65:1)

E.g., by their husbands' failure to provide for their maintenance. (This particular injunction does not imply a prohibition of a divorced woman's leaving her home of her own free will.)

Muhammad Asad - End Note 5 (65:1)

Implying that in such a case she may be lawfully turned out of her marital home. Regarding the term fahishah ("immoral conduct"), see surah 4, note 14.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 6 (65:1)

According to Ibn Abbas (as quoted by Razi) and several other authorities (see Ibn Kathir), this is an allusion to the possibility of reconciliation and, hence, a resumption of marital relations before the divorce becomes final (see surah 2, second part of verse 228 and first paragraph of 229).

Muhammad Asad - End Note 7 (65:2)

Lit., "from yourselves": i.e. persons who are sufficiently acquainted with the circumstances of the case.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 8 (65:2)

Sc., that the relevant decision has not been made in a frivolous spirit.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 9 (65:3)

Lit., "whence he does not expect". It is to be noted that the relative pronoun man ("whoever" or "everyone who") - although grammatically requiring the use of the masculine gender in the verbs or pronouns to which it relates - applies to persons of either sex, as is evidenced by innumerable passages in the Qur'an: hence, the present passage, too, including the sentence that follows, must be understood as relating to the women as well as to the men in question; and the same holds good of verses 5 and 11 below.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 10 (65:4)

I.e., for any physiological reason whatever.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 11 (65:4)

Lit., "He grants ease out of his condition" - i.e., makes his condition easy: the implication being that God-consciousness makes it easy for the believer to submit gladly to whatever God may decree.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 12 (65:6)

Lit., "let them dwell wherever you dwell" - i.e., tropically, "let them share fully your standard of living".

Muhammad Asad - End Note 13 (65:6)

E.g., for reasons of her health, or because she intends to remarry, etc.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 14 (65:6)

I.e., at the father's expense: see 2:233 and the corresponding notes 219 and 220.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 15 (65:7)

Lit., "out of".

Muhammad Asad - End Note 16 (65:8)

This connects with, and stresses, the fact that all the preceding injunctions are divine ordained.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 17 (65:9)

See note 4 on 64:5.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 18 (65:12)

See surah 2, note 20.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 19 (65:12)

Lit., "the command". The verbal form yatanazzalu implies recurrence and continuity its combination with the noun al-amr reflects the concept of God's unceasing creative activity.

Shabbir Ahmed -

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 1 (65:1)

Note that homes belong to women. The waiting period before a divorced woman or a widow can remarry, has been explained before and reiterated now. (65:4, 2:228, 2:234). There is no waiting period for women with whom husbands have had no intimate relations. 33:49

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 2 (65:4)

Note the word Hamlahunna = Their burden = What they carry, - instead of 'their baby or child'. So, the term includes abortion, conditions such as moles, and all kinds of abnormal pregnancies and outcomes

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 3 (65:6)

The husband will pay for the services of a foster mother

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 4 (65:11)

5:15-16, 7:157, 76:4

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 5 (65:12)

Sab'a = Seven = Several. Every high has its low, hence every heaven or sky has its 'earth'

Rashad Khalifa - The Final Testament

Rashad Khalifa - End Note 3 (65:12)

Although God created six other planets that are identical to our Earth, there is life only on our planet. Thus, the evolutionists will be shown on the Day of Judgment that life did not just "evolve" on the planet because of its particular circumstances.

Best viewed using your own brain

Tested on 1024x768 resolution with  FIREFOX 2

Kitabun Marqum v0.6.7 - Kitabun Marqum - Quran Research Platform by QuraniX Team Copyright © 2002-2011 All rights reserved.
Copyrights of all translations belong to their respective authors.

2:2 This is the book in which there is no doubt, a guide for the conscientious.
 Edip-Layth (Quran: A Reformist Translation)

Translations ▼

Chapter/Verse ▼

Refresh

Search

Search

<< Prev 66:1-12 Next >>

Edip-Layth	In the name of God, the Gracious, the Compassionate. 66:1 O you prophet, why do you prohibit what God has made lawful for you, seeking to please your wives? God is Forgiver, Compassionate.
The Monotheist Group	In the name of God, the Almighty, the Merciful. 66:1 O you prophet, why do you prohibit what God has made lawful for you, seeking to please your wives? God is Forgiver, Merciful.
Muhammad Asad	In the name of God, The Most Gracious, The Dispenser of Grace: 66:1 O PROPHET! Why dost thou, out of a desire to please [one or another of] thy wives, impose [on thyself] a prohibition of something that God has made lawful to thee?¹ But God is much-forgiving, a dispenser of grace:
Rashad Khalifa	In the name of GOD, Most Gracious, Most Merciful. 66:1 O you prophet, why do you prohibit what GOD has made lawful for you, just to please your wives? GOD is Forgiver, Merciful.
Shabbir Ahmed	BISMILLAH-IR-RAHMAN-IR-RAHEEM With the Glorious Name of God, the Ultimate Source of Instant Beneficence and Eternal mercy Who encompasses the entire Universe, nourishing and taking care of all things for what they are meant to be; just as a mother's womb nourishes the embryo to completion without any returns. 66:1 O Prophet! Would you prohibit something that God has made lawful for you, even to please your wives? God is Absolver of (their) imperfections, Merciful. ¹
Transliteration	Bismi Allāhi alRrahmāni alRrahēemi 66:1 Ya ayyuh a Innabiyyulima tu harrimu m a a halla All ahu lakatabtaghee mardata azwajika waAllahughafoorun raheemun
A	بسم الله الرحمن الرحيم 66:1 يايها النبي لم تحرم ما احل الله لك تبتغى مرضات ازوجك والله غفور رحيم

Edip-Layth	66:2 God has already given the law, regarding the cancellation of oaths. God is your Lord, and He is the Knowledgeable, the Wise. ¹
The Monotheist Group	66:2 God has already given the law, regarding the cancellation of oaths. And God is your Lord, and He is the Knowledgeable, the Wise.
Muhammad Asad	66:2 God has already enjoined upon you [O believers] the breaking and expiation of [such of] your oaths [as may run counter to what is right and just]: ² for, God is your Lord Supreme, and He alone is all-knowing, truly wise.
Rashad Khalifa	66:2 GOD has decreed for you the laws dealing with your oaths. GOD is your Lord, and He is the Omniscient, Most Wise.
Shabbir Ahmed	66:2 God has already decreed for you believers the procedure for dealing with your oaths. God is your Master, and He is the Knower, the Wise. ²
Transliteration	66:2 Qad fara da All ahu lakum ta hillataaymanikum wa Allahu mawl akum wahuwaalAAaleemu alhakeemu
A	66:2 قد فرض الله لكم تحلة ايمنكم والله مولكم وهو العليم الحكيم
Edip-Layth	Spreading the Words of the Prophet 66:3 When the prophet disclosed a hadith to some of his wives, then one of them spread it, and God revealed it to him, he recognized part of it and denied part. So when he informed her, she said, "Who informed you of this?" He said, "I was informed by the Knowledgeable, the Ever-aware." ²
The Monotheist Group	66:3 And when the prophet disclosed a matter in confidence to some of his wives, then one of them spread it, and God revealed it to him, he recognized part of it and denied part. So when he informed her, she said: "Who informed you of this?" He said: "I was informed by the Knowledgeable, the Expert."
Muhammad Asad	66:3 And lo! ³ [It so happened that] the Prophet told something in confidence to one of his wives; and when she thereupon divulged it, and God made this known to him, he acquainted [others] with some of it and passed over some of it. ⁴ And as soon as he let her know it, she asked, "Who has told thee this?" ⁵ - [to which] he replied, "The All-Knowing, the All-Aware has told me."
Rashad Khalifa	66:3 The prophet had trusted some of his wives with a certain statement, then one of them spread it, and GOD let him know about it. He then informed his wife of part of the issue, and disregarded part. She asked him, "Who informed you of this?" He said, "I was informed by the Omniscient, Most Cognizant."
Shabbir Ahmed	66:3 * The prophet confided a certain statement to one of his wives but then she divulged it. And God made this known to him. He then informed his wife of part of the issue and disregarded part. She asked him, "Who informed you of this?" He said, "The Knower, the Aware has informed me."
Transliteration	66:3 Wa-ith asarra a Innabiyyu il abaAAadi azw ajihi hadeethan falam anabbaat bihi waa thharahu All ahu AAalayhiAAarrafa baAA dahu waaAAara da AAan baAAaifalamma nabbaah a bihi q alat man anbaaka h athaqa nabbaaniya alAAaleemu alkhabeeru
A	66:3 واذا اسر النبي الى بعض ازوجه حديثا فلما نbat به واظهره الله عليه عرف بعضه واعرض عن بعض فلما نباها به قالت من انباك هذا قال نباني العليم الخبير
Edip-Layth	66:4 If the two of you repent to God, then your hearts have listened. But if you band together against him, then God is his master. Gabriel, the righteous of ³

	those who acknowledge, and the angels are his supporters.
The Monotheist Group	66:4 If the two of you repent to God, then your hearts have listened. But if you band together against him, then God is his ally, and so are Gabriel and the righteous believers. Also, the angels are his helpers.
Muhammad Asad	66:4 [Say, O Prophet: 6] "Would that you two turn unto God in repentance, for the hearts of both of you have swerved [from what is right]! 7 And if you uphold each other against him [who is God's message-bearer, know that] God Himself is his Protector, and [that,] therefore, 8 Gabriel, and all the righteous among the believers and all the [other] angels will come to his aid."
Rashad Khalifa	66:4 If the two of you repent to GOD, then your hearts have listened. But if you band together against him, then GOD is his ally, and so is Gabriel and the righteous believers. Also, the angels are his helpers.
Shabbir Ahmed	66:4 You two should turn in repentance to God, since your hearts had deviated. But if you back up each other against him (in divulging family matters), then, remember, God is with him, and so is Gabriel (who brings the revelation in truth), and the righteous believers. Also angels are his helpers. 4
Transliteration	66:4 In tatooba ila Allaha ifaqad saghat quloobukum a wa-in ta thaharaAAalayhi fa-inna Allaha huwa mawl alahu wajibreelu wa salihualmu/mineena wa almalai-ikatu baAAda thalika thaheerun
A	66:4 ان تتوبا الى الله فقد صغت قلوبكما وان تظهرا عليه فان الله هو موله وجبريل وصلاح المومنين والملكه بعد ذلك ظهير
Edip-Layth	66:5 It may be that he would divorce you, then his Lord will substitute other wives in your place who are better than you; peacefully surrendering, acknowledging, devout, repentant, serving, active in their societies, responsive, and foremost ones. 4
The Monotheist Group	66:5 It may be that he would divorce you, then his Lord will substitute other wives in your place who are better than you; submitting, believing, dutiful, repentant, worshipping, devout, mature and youthful.
Muhammad Asad	66:5 [O wives of the Prophet!] Were he to divorce [any of] you, God might well give him in your stead spouses better than you - women who surrender themselves unto God, who truly believe, devoutly obey His will, turn [unto Him] in repentance [whenever they have sinned] worship [Him alone] and go on and on [seeking His goodly acceptance] 9 - be they women previously married or virgins. 10
Rashad Khalifa	66:5 If he divorces you, his Lord will substitute other wives in your place who are better than you; submitters (Muslims), believers (Mu'mins), obedient, repentant, worshipers, pious, either previously married, or virgins.
Shabbir Ahmed	66:5 If he divorces any of you, his Lord may substitute other wives in your stead who are better than you, completely submissive to God, staunch in faith, strongly devoted to Divine Ideology, quick to turn toward making amends, serving God by helping His creation, picking up lessons from history when they travel, whether widows or maidens.
Transliteration	66:5 AAasa rabbuhu in tallaqakunnaan yubdilahu azw ajan khayran minkunna muslimatinmu/minatin q anitatin t a-ibatinAAabidatin s a-ihat in thayyibatinwaabkaran
	66:5 عسى ربه ان يبدله ازوجا خيرا منكن مسلمات مومنات قننت تئبت عبت

A
Eidip-Layth	66:6 O you who acknowledge, protect yourselves and your families from a fire whose fuel is people and rocks. Guarding it are stern and powerful angels who do not disobey God in what He commanded them; and they carry out what they are commanded to.
The Monotheist Group	66:6 O you who believe, protect yourselves and your families from a Fire whose fuel is people and rocks. Guarding it are stern and powerful angels who do not disobey God in what He commanded them; and they carry out what they are commanded to.
Muhammad Asad	66:6 O YOU who have attained to faith! Ward off from yourselves and those who are close to you ¹¹ that fire [of the hereafter] whose fuel is human beings and stones: ¹² [lording] over it are angelic powers awesome [and] severe, ¹³ who do not disobey God in whatever He has commanded them, but [always] do what they are bidden to do. ¹⁴
Rashad Khalifa	66:6 O you who believe, protect yourselves and your families from the Hellfire whose fuel is people and rocks. Guarding it are stern and powerful angels who never disobey GOD; they do whatever they are commanded to do.
Shabbir Ahmed	66:6 O You who have chosen to be graced with belief! (Family life must be a matter of trust and confidence.) Guard yourselves and your families against a fire whose fuel is people and their stone hearted leaders. The guardians of this fire are the invincible, changeless Divine laws that never fail to execute God's ordinance, and carry it out without exception.
Transliteration	66:6 Ya ayyuh a alla theena amanooqoo anfusakum waahleekum n aran waqooduha a Innasuwaalhiyaratu AAalayh a mal a-ikatunghilathun shid adun l a yaAAsoonaAllaha ma amarahum wayafAAaloona mayu/maroonaa
A	66:6 يَٰٓأَيُّهَا الَّذِينَ ءَامَنُوا قُوا أَنفُسَكُمْ وَأَهْلِيكُمْ نَارًا وَقُودُهَا النَّاسُ وَالْحِجَارَةُ عَلَيْهَا مَلَائِكَةٌ غِلَظٌ شِدَادٌ لَا يَعْصُونَ اللَّهَ مَا أَمَرَهُمْ وَيَفْعَلُونَ مَا يُؤْمَرُونَ
Eidip-Layth	66:7 O you who have rejected, do not apologize today. You are being requited only for what you did.
The Monotheist Group	66:7 O you who have rejected, do not apologize today. You are being requited only for what you did.
Muhammad Asad	66:7 [Hence,] O you who are bent on denying the truth, make no [empty] excuses today: ¹⁵ [in the life to come] you shall be but recompensed for what you were doing [in this world].
Rashad Khalifa	66:7 O you who disbelieved, do not apologize today. You are being requited only for what you did.
Shabbir Ahmed	66:7 O You rejecters of the truth! Make no excuses for yourselves this Day. You are only being paid for what you used to do.
Transliteration	66:7 Ya ayyuh a alla theenakafaroo l a taAAatahiroo alyawma innam atujzawna ma kuntum taAAamaloona
A	66:7 يَٰٓأَيُّهَا الَّذِينَ كَفَرُوا لَا تَعْتَذِرُوا الْيَوْمَ إِنَّمَا تَجْزُونَ مَا كُنْتُمْ تَعْمَلُونَ
	66:8 O you who acknowledge, you shall repent to God a sincere repentance. It may be that your Lord will remit your sins and admit you into paradises with rivers flowing beneath. On that day, God will not disappoint the prophet and

Edip-Layth	those who acknowledged with him. Their light will radiate around them and to their right. They will say, "Our Lord, keep perfect our light for us, and forgive us; You are able to do all things."
The Monotheist Group	66:8 O you who believe, you shall repent to God a sincere repentance. It may be that your Lord will remit your sins and admit you into paradises with rivers flowing beneath. On that Day, God will not disappoint the prophet and those who believed with him. Their light will radiate around them and to their right. They will say: "Our Lord, keep perfect our light for us, and forgive us; You are able to do all things."
Muhammad Asad	66:8 O you who have attained to faith! Turn unto God in sincere repentance: ¹⁶ it may well be .that your Sustainer will efface from you your bad deeds, and will admit you into gardens through which running waters flow, on a Day on which God will not shame the Prophet and those who share his faith: ¹⁷ their light will spread rapidly before them, and on their right; ¹⁸ [and] they will pray: "O our Sustainer! Cause this our light to shine for us forever, ¹⁹ and forgive us our sins: for, verily, Thou hast the power to will anything!"
Rashad Khalifa	The Believers Repent 66:8 O you who believe, you shall repent to GOD a firm repentance. Your Lord will then remit your sins and admit you into gardens with flowing streams. On that day, GOD will not disappoint the prophet and those who believed with him. Their light will radiate in front of them and to their right. They will say, "Our Lord, perfect our light for us, and forgive us; You are Omnipotent."
Shabbir Ahmed	66:8 O You who have chosen to be graced with belief! Turn to God in sincere repentance. Your Lord will then remit from you your misdeeds, and admit you into the Gardens underneath which rivers flow. That will be a Day when God will not let His prophet and those who are with him in belief be degraded. Their light will radiate in front of them and to their right. They will say, "Our Lord! Perfect our light for us, and absolve our imperfections. Surely, You have power over all things and events." ⁵
Transliteration	66:8 Ya ayyuh a alla theena amanootoo boo ila All ahi tawbatan na soohanAAasa rabbukum an yukaffira AAankum sayyi-atikumwayudkhillakum jannatin tajree min tahtihaal-anharu yawma l a yukhzee All ahu a Innabiyyawaallatheena amanoo maAAahu nooruhum yasAA abayna aydeehim wabi-aym anihim yaqooloona rabbanaatmim lana noorana waighfir lanainnaka AAala kulli shay-in qadeer un
A	66:8 يايها الذين ءامنوا ءامنوا ءامنوا الى الله توبة نصوحا عسى ربكم ان يكفر عنكم سيئاتكم ويدخلكم جنت تجري من تحتها الانهر يوم لا يخزى الله النبي والذين ءامنوا معه نورهم يسعى بين ايديهم وبأيمانهم يقولون ربنا اتمم لنا نورنا واغفر لنا انك على كل شىء قدير
Edip-Layth	66:9 O prophet, strive against the ingrates and the hypocrites and be stern with them. Their abode is hell, and a miserable destiny.
The Monotheist Group	66:9 O prophet, strive against the rejecters and the hypocrites and be stern with them. Their abode is Hell, and a miserable destiny.
Muhammad Asad	66:9 O PROPHET! Strive hard against the deniers of the truth and the hypocrites, and be adamant with them. ²⁰ And [if they do not repent,] their goal shall be hell - and how vile a journey's end!
Rashad Khalifa	66:9 O prophet, struggle against the disbelievers and the hypocrites and be stern with them. Their abode is Gehenna, and a miserable destiny.
Shabbir Ahmed	66:9 O Prophet! Strive against the rejecters of the truth and the hypocrites, and be stern with them. Hell will be their home - how pathetic a journey's end!

Transliteration	66:9 Ya ayyuh a a Innabiyyu j ahidialkuffara wa almunafiqeena waoghlu th AAalayhim wama/wahum jahannamu wabi/sa almaseeru
A	66:9 يايها النبي جهد الكفار والمنفقين واغلظ عليهم وماولهم جهنم وبئس المصير
Edip-Layth	Bad and Good Examples of Women 66:10 God cites as examples of those who have rejected, the wife of Noah and the wife of Lot. They were married to two of Our righteous servants, but they betrayed them and, consequently, they could not help them at all against God. It was said, "Enter the fire, both of you, with those who will enter it."⁵
The Monotheist Group	66:10 God puts forth as examples of those who have rejected, the wife of Noah and the wife of Lot. They were married to two of Our righteous servants, but they betrayed them and, consequently, they could not help them at all against God. And it was said: "Enter the Fire, both of you, with those who will enter it."
Muhammad Asad	66:10 For those who are bent on denying the truth God has propounded a parable in [the stories of] Noah's wife and Lot's wife: they were wedded to two of Our righteous servants, and each one betrayed her husband; ²¹ and neither of the two [husbands] will be of any avail to these two women when they are told [on Judgment Day], "Enter the fire with all those [other sinners] who enter it!" ²²
Rashad Khalifa	The Myth of Intercession Shattered 66:10 GOD cites as examples of those who disbelieved the wife of Noah and the wife of Lot. They were married to two of our righteous servants, but they betrayed them and, consequently, they could not help them at all against GOD. The two of them were told, "Enter the Hell-fire with those who deserved it."
Shabbir Ahmed	66:10 God cites an example for those who deny the truth. The wife of Noah and the wife of Lot, they were wedded to two of Our righteous servants yet each one betrayed her husband so that neither of them (their husbands) could avail them at all against God. And it was said, "Enter the fire along with others who enter it."
Transliteration	66:10 Daraba All ahu mathalan lilla theenakafaroo imraata noo hin wa imraata lootin k anata th ta AAabdayni min AAib adina salihaynifakhanata th huma falam yughniya AAanhum amina All ahi shay-an waqeela odkhul a a InnaramaAAa alddakhileena
A	66:10 ضرب الله مثلا للذين كفروا امرات نوح وامرات لوط كانتا تحت عبدين من عبادنا صالحين فخانتاهما فلم يغنيا عنهما من الله شيئا وقيل ادخلا النار مع الداخلين
Edip-Layth	66:11 God cites as an example of those who acknowledged, the wife of Pharaoh. She said, "My Lord, build a home for me near You in Paradise, and save me from Pharaoh and his works; and save me from the transgressing people."
The Monotheist Group	66:11 And God puts forth as an example of those who believed the wife of Pharaoh. She said: "My Lord, build a home for me near You in Paradise, and save me from Pharaoh and his works; and save me from the transgressing people."
Muhammad Asad	66:11 And for those who have attained to faith God has propounded a parable in [the story of] Pharaoh's wife ²³ as she prayed "O my Sustainer! Build Thou for me a mansion in the paradise [that is] with Thee, and save me from Pharaoh and his doings, and save me, from all evildoing folk!
Rashad Khalifa	Examples of the Believers Pharaoh's Wife 66:11 And GOD cites as an example of those who believed the wife of Pharaoh. She said, "My Lord, build a home for me at You in Paradise, and save me from Pharaoh and his works; save me from the transgressing people."

Shabbir Ahmed	66:11 And God gives an example for those who have chosen to be graced with belief: The wife of Pharaoh when she said, "My Lord! Build for me a mansion in the Paradise, and save me from Pharaoh and his doings, and save me from the oppressors."
Transliteration	66:11 Waḍaraba Allāhu mathalan lillaṭṭheenaḡamanoo imraata firAAawna i ṭh qalat rabbiibni lee AAindaka baytan fee aljannati wanajjinee min firAAawnawaAAamalihi wanajjinee mina alqawmi alṭṭhalimeena
A	66:11 وضرب الله مثلا للذين ءامنوا امرات فرعون اذ قالت رب ابن لى عندك بيتا فى الجنة ونجنى من فرعون وعمله ونجنى من القوم الظلمين
Edip-Layth	66:12 Also Mary, the daughter of Imran, who maintained her chastity. So We blew into her from Our Spirit, and she acknowledged the words of her Lord and His books; and she was of those who were obedient.
The Monotheist Group	66:12 Also Mary, the daughter of Imran, who maintained her chastity. So We blew into her from Our Spirit, and she believed in the words of her Lord and His Scripture; and she was of those who were dutiful.
Muhammad Asad	66:12 And [We have propounded yet another parable of God-consciousness in the story of] Mary, the daughter of Imran, ²⁴ who guarded her chastity, whereupon We breathed of Our spirit into that [which was in her womb], ²⁵ and who accepted the truth of her Sustainer's words - and [thus,] of His revelations ²⁶ - and was one of the truly devout.
Rashad Khalifa	Mary 66:12 Also Mary, the Amramite. She maintained her chastity, then we blew into her from our spirit. She believed in the words of her Lord and His scriptures; she was obedient.
Shabbir Ahmed	66:12 And Mary, daughter of Imran, who guarded her chastity, and We breathed into her (baby) from Our Energy. And she put faith in the Words of her Lord and His revelations, and was of the devoted servants. ⁶
Transliteration	66:12 Wamaryama ibnata AAimr ana allatee aḡsanatfarjahā fanafakhna feehi min roohinawaṣṣaddaqat bikalimatī rabbiḡa wakutubihi wakanatmina alqaniteena
A	66:12 ومريم ابنت عمران التى احصنت فرجها فنفخنا فيه من روحنا وصدقت بكلمت ربها وكتبه وكانت من القنتين

<< Prev 66:1-12 Next >>

Return to top

End Notes

Muhammad Asad - The Message Of Quran

Muhammad Asad - End Note 1 (66:1)

There are several essentially conflicting - and, therefore, in their aggregate, not very trustworthy - reports as to the exact reason or reasons why, at some time during the second half of the Medina period, the Prophet declared on oath that for one month he would have no intercourse with any of his wives. Still, while the exact reason cannot be established with certainty, it is sufficiently clear from the above-mentioned ahadith that this emotional, temporary renunciation of marital life was caused by a display of mutual jealousy among some of the Prophet's wives. In any case, the purport of the above Qur'anic allusion to this incident is not biographical but, rather, intended to bring out a moral lesson applicable to all human situations: namely, the inadmissibility of regarding as forbidden (haram) anything that God has made lawful (halal), even if such an attitude happens to be motivated by the desire to please another person or other persons. Apart from this, it serves to illustrate the fact - repeatedly stressed in the Qur'an - that the Prophet was but a human being, and therefore subject to human emotions and even liable to commit an occasional mistake (which in his case, however, was invariably pointed out to him, and thus rectified, through divine revelation).

Muhammad Asad - End Note 2 (66:2)

See 2:224 and the corresponding note 212, which shows that in certain circumstances an oath should be broken and then atoned for: hence the above phrase, "God has enjoined upon you the breaking and expiation" (with the term tahillah comprising both these concepts).

Muhammad Asad - End Note 3 (66:3)

See surah 2, note 21.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 4 (66:3)

Lit., "he turned aside from [or "avoided"] some of it". There is no reliable Tradition as to the subject of that confidential information. Some of the early commentators, however, connect it with the Prophet's veiled prediction that Abu Bakr and Umar ibn al-Khattab would succeed him as leaders of the Muslim community; the recipient of the information is said to have been Hafsah, the daughter of Umar, and the one to whom she disclosed it, A'ishah, the daughter of Abu Bakr (Baghawi, on the authority of Ibn Abbas and Al-Kalbi; also Zamakhshari). If this interpretation is correct, it would explain why the Prophet "acquainted [others] with some of it and passed over some of it": for, once his confidential prediction had been divulged, he saw no point in withholding it any longer from the community; nevertheless, he alluded to it in deliberately vague terms- possibly in order not to give to the succession of Abu Bakr and Umar the appearance of all "apostolic sanction" but to leave it, rather to a free decision of the community in pursuance of the Qur'anic principle amruhum shura baynahum (see 42:38).

Muhammad Asad - End Note 5 (66:3)

I.e., that she had broken the Prophet's confidence.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 6 (66:4)

Although in the sequence the Prophet is referred to in the third person, it is obvious that it is he who is commanded through revelation to speak thus to his wives Hafsah and A'ishah (see note 4); hence my above interpolation.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 7 (66:4)

Referring to Hafsah, who betrayed the Prophet's confidence, and to A'ishah, who by listening contributed to this betrayal (see note 4 above).

Muhammad Asad - End Note 8 (66:4)

Lit., "after that", i.e., in consequence of the fact that God Himself protects him.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 9 (66:5)

For this rendering of the expression sa'ihat, see note 147 on 9:112, where the same expression occurs in the masculine gender relating to both men and women.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 10 (66:5)

I.e., like the actual wives of the Prophet, one of whom ("A'ishah) was a virgin when she married him, one (Zaynab bint Jahsh) had been divorced, while the others were widows. This allusion, together with the fact that the Prophet did not divorce any of his wives, as well as the purely hypothetical formulation of this passage, shows that it is meant to be an indirect admonition to the Prophet's wives, who, despite their occasional shortcomings - unavoidable in human beings - did possess the virtues referred to above. On a wider plane, it seems to be an admonition to all believers, men and women alike: and this explains the subsequent change in the discourse.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 11 (66:6)

Lit., "your families" or "your people"; however, the term ahl denotes also people who share one's race, religion, occupation, etc., as well as "dependants" in the most comprehensive sense of this word (Jawhari, Raghib; also Mughni).

Muhammad Asad - End Note 12 (66:6)

See surah 2, note 16.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 13 (66:6)

See 74:27 ff. and the corresponding notes, particularly notes 15 and 16, in which I have tried to explain the allegorical meaning of that passage.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 14 (66:6)

I.e., these angelic powers are subject to the God-willed law of cause and effect which dominates the realm of the spirit no less than the world of matter.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 15 (66:7)

I.e., "do not try to rationalize your deliberate denial of the truth" - the element of conscious intent being implied in the past-tense phrase alladhina kafaru (see note 6 on 2:6).

Muhammad Asad - End Note 16 (66:8)

Sc., "since no human being, however imbued with faith, can ever remain entirely free from faults and temptations".

Muhammad Asad - End Note 17 (66:8)

The implication is that He will not only "not shame" the Prophet and his followers but will, on the contrary, exalt them: an idiomatic turn of phrase similar to sayings like "I shall let you know something that will not be to your detriment" - i.e., "something that will benefit you".

Muhammad Asad - End Note 18 (66:8)

Cf. 57:12 and the corresponding note 12.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 19 (66:8)

Lit., "Complete for us our light", i.e., by making it permanent.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 20 (66:9)

See note 101 on 9:73, which is identical with the above verse.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 21 (66:10)

Lit., "and both betrayed them", i.e., their respective husbands. The story of Lot's wife and her spiritual betrayal of her husband is mentioned in the Qur'an in several places; see, in particular, note 66 on 7:83 and note 113 on 11:81. As regards Noah's wife, the above is the only explicit reference to her having betrayed her husband; it would seem, however, that the qualification of "those on whom [God's] sentence has already been passed" in 11:40 applies to her no less than to her son (whose story appears in 11:42-47).

Muhammad Asad - End Note 22 (66:10)

The "parable" (mathal) of these two women implies, firstly, that even the most intimate relationship with a truly righteous person - even though he be a prophet - cannot save an unrepentant sinner from the consequences of his sin; and, secondly, that a true believer must cut himself off from any association with "those who are bent on denying the truth" even if they happen to be those nearest and dearest to him (cf. 11:46).

Muhammad Asad - End Note 23 (66:11)

Cf. 28:8-9.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 24 (66:12)

I.e., a descendant of the House of 'Imran (cf. the last third of note 22 on 3:33).

Muhammad Asad - End Note 25 (66:12)

I.e., into the as yet unborn child (Razi, thus explaining the pronoun in fihi). For an explanation of the much-misunderstood allegorical phrase, "We breathed of Our spirit into it", see note 87 on 21:91.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 26 (66:12)

For the meaning of God's "words" (kalimat), see note 28 on 3:39.

Shabbir Ahmed -

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 1 (66:1)

The big question: What would the exalted prophet ban on himself that is lawful and that would please his wives? My humble understanding: In his compassion, the prophet wished to promise his wives that he would not divorce any of them under any circumstances. (He never did anyhow.) Divorce, although a very unpleasant last resort, is not prohibited by God. To my knowledge no exponent of the Qur'an has answered the big question as stated above, however, it sounds reasonable keeping in view the context and the flow of the verses. The conjecture of Shaan-e-Nuzool (circumstances of a revelation) leads people into thinking of weird situations such as: One night, the prophet (S) stayed a bit too long with a wife since she offered him honey. Then Hazrat Ayesha and Hazrat Hafsa became jealous and told him that his mouth had an odor. The prophet (S) then declared honey Haraam for himself. What an insult!

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 2 (66:2)

2:225, 5:89

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 4 (66:4)

Here is the absolute refutation of the Hadith collectors who obnoxiously try to spy into fabricated accounts of the prophet's private life

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 5 (66:8)

'To their right' is a metaphor of Divine grace

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 6 (66:12)

In very adverse circumstances, Mary guarded her chastity and revolted against the non-Divine institution of monasticism, and got married adopting the natural family life. 'from Our Energy' = Free will, as all human beings are granted. 2:30

Edip-Layth - Quran: A Reformist Translation

Edip-Layth - End Note 1 (66:2)

God is the only mawla (lord and master) of people. See 2:286.

Edip-Layth - End Note 2 (66:3)

The word hadith (word, utterance) occurs twice in the Quran in connection with Muhammad. One is here; the other is at 33:53. Here the sharing or reporting of the hadith heard from Muhammad is criticized and in verse 33:53, listening to the hadith of Muhammad is criticized. Knowing that polytheists would create other authorities besides His word and call them hadith, sunna and ijma, God convicted those words. See 33:38; 45:6.

Edip-Layth - End Note 3 (66:4)

This verse has been generally mistranslated in traditional translations, since they include angels and believers to be Muhammad's mawla (lord/patron/master). There is only one mawla, and it is none other than God. See 2:286.

Edip-Layth - End Note 4 (66:5)

Traditional translations mistranslate the last three adjectives used here to describe Muslim women. They distort their meaning as fasters, widows and virgins." When the issue is about women, somehow, the meaning of the Quranic words passes through rapid mutations. For instance, we know that the Sunni and Shiite scholars who could not beat cows and examples found it convenient and fair to beat women (see 4:34). Those of us who have rejected other religious sources besides the Quran are still struggling to clean our minds from these innovations that even have sneaked into the Arabic language long after the revelation of the Quran. There is, in fact, nothing whatsoever about fasting, widows and virgins in this verse. We are rediscovering and relearning the Quran. The third word from the end of the verse, SaYiHat, which we have translated as "active in their societies" simply means to travel or move around for a cause. About two century after the revelation of the Quran, when the rights of women were one by one were taken through all-male enterprises called hadith, ijtiḥad and tafseer, Muslim communities found themselves thinking and living like the enemies of Islam in the Days of Ignorance. The misogynistic mind of orthodox commentators and translators simply could not fathom the notion of a Muslim woman traveling around alone to do anything and so they pretended that the word in question was not SaYaHa, but SsaWM fasting! Socially active women were indeed more difficult to control than the women who would fast in their homes; they were even less costly, since they would eat less. For the usage of the verb form of the root, see 9:2. The word SaYaHa has nothing to do with fasting; the Quran consistently uses the word SaWaMa for fasting (2:183-196; 4:92; 5:89,90; 19:26; 33:35; 58:4). The second word from the end is THaYiBat, which means those who return, or those who are responsive". Various derivatives of the same root are used to mean reward" or refuge" or cloths". For instance, see 2:125; 3:195. The Arabic words for widow are ARMiLa or AYaMa. The Quran uses AYaMa for widow or single; see: 24:32. The last word of this verse, aBKaR, which means those who are "young," "early risers" or "foremost," has traditionally, and implausibly, been interpreted as "virgins" in this passage. The resulting distorted meaning of the verse supports a sectarian teaching that justifies a man marrying more than one virgin. The Arabic word for virgin is BaTuL or ADRa. This false interpretation has become so popular that it is apparently now considered beyond any challenge. Excluding Edip Yuksel's Turkish translation, Mesaj; published in 1999, we have not seen any published translation that does not duplicate this centuries-old error. For a comparative discussion of this verse, see the Sample Comparisons section in the Introduction.

Edip-Layth - End Note 5 (66:10)

See 2:48.

Best viewed using your own brain

Tested on 1024x768 resolution with  FIREFOX 2

Kitabun Marqum v0.6.7 - Kitabun Marqum - Quran Research Platform by QuraniX Team Copyright © 2002-2012 All rights reserved.
Copyrights of all translations belong to their respective authors.

49:6 O you who believe, if a wicked person brings any news to you, you shall first investigate, lest you commit injustice towards some people, out of ignorance, then become sorry and remorseful for what you have done.

Rashad Khalifa (The Final Testament)

 Translations ▼

 Chapter/Verse ▼

 Refresh

 Search

<< Prev 67:1-30 Next >>

Edip-Layth	In the name of God, the Gracious, the Compassionate. 67:1 Most exalted is the One in whose hands is all sovereignty, and He is capable of all things.
The Monotheist Group	In the name of God, the Almighty, the Merciful. 67:1 Most exalted is the One in whose hands is all sovereignty, and He is capable of all things.
Muhammad Asad	In the name of God, The Most Gracious, The Dispenser of Grace: 67:1 HALLOWED be He in whose hand all dominion rests, since He has the power to will anything:
Rashad Khalifa	In the name of GOD, Most Gracious, Most Merciful. 67:1 Most exalted is the One in whose hands is all kingship, and He is Omnipotent.
Shabbir Ahmed	BISMILLAH-IR-RAHMAN-IR-RAHEEM With the Glorious Name of God, the Ultimate Source of Instant Beneficence and Eternal mercy Who encompasses the entire Universe, nourishing and taking care of all things for what they are meant to be; just as a mother's womb nourishes the embryo to completion without any returns. 67:1 Eternally Blessed is He in Whose hand is the Supreme Kingdom of the Universe, and He is the Powerful Designer of His laws for everything.
Transliteration	Bismi Allāhi alRrahmāni alRrahēemi 67:1 Tab araka allathee biyadihialmulku wahuwa AAala kulli shay-in qadeer un
A	بسم الله الرحمن الرحيم 67:1 تبارك الذي بيده الملك وهو على كل شيء قدير
Edip-Layth	67:2 The One who created death and life, that He may test you, which of you will do better works? He is the Noble, the Forgiving.

The Monotheist Group	67:2 The One who created death and life, that He may test you, which of you will do better works? He is the Noble, the Forgiving.
Muhammad Asad	67:2 He who has created death as well as life, ¹ so that He might put you to a test [and thus show] which of you is best in conduct, and [make you realize that] He alone is almighty, truly forgiving.
Rashad Khalifa	The Purpose of Our Life 67:2 The One who created death and life for the purpose of distinguishing those among you who would do better. He is the Almighty, the Forgiving. ¹
Shabbir Ahmed	67:2 He has created death and life to let you go through diverse circumstances and, thus, distinguish for yourselves who would do better. ¹ The Almighty, the Absolver of imperfections, has designed this System in His Infinite wisdom.
Transliteration	67:2 Allat ^h ee khalaqa almawta wa al ^h ayat ^h aliyabluwakum ayyukum a ^h sanu AAamalan wahuwa alAAazeezualghafooru
A	67:2 الذى خلق الموت والحياة ليبلوكم ايكم احسن عملا وهو العزيز الغفور
Edip-Layth	67:3 He created seven heavens in harmony. You do not see any disorder in the creation by the Gracious. Keep looking; do you see any flaw?
The Monotheist Group	67:3 He created seven skies in layers. You do not see any imperfection in the creation by the Almighty. Keep looking; do you see any flaw?
Muhammad Asad	67:3 [Hallowed be] He who has created seven heavens in full harmony with one another: ² no fault will thou see in the creation of the Most Gracious. And turn thy vision [upon it] once more: canst thou see any flaw?
Rashad Khalifa	67:3 He created seven universes in layers. You do not see any imperfection in the creation by the Most Gracious. Keep looking; do you see any flaw?
Shabbir Ahmed	67:3 He has created seven Cosmic Systems in great harmony. Look! No fault will you see in the creation of the Beneficent. Turn your vision upon it once more. Can you see any flaw?
Transliteration	67:3 Allat ^h ee khalaqa sabAAa sam awatintibaqan m a tar a fee khalqi al ^h rahmanimin tafawutin fairjiAAi alba ^s ara hal tar ^a min fu ^t oorin
A	67:3 الذى خلق سبع سموات طباقا ما ترى فى خلق الرحمن من تفوت فارجع البصر هل ترى من فطور
Edip-Layth	67:4 Then look again twice; your eyes will come back humiliated and tired.
The Monotheist Group	67:4 Then look again twice; your eyes will come back humiliated and tired.
Muhammad Asad	67:4 Yea, turn thy vision [upon it] again and yet again: [and every time] thy vision will fall back upon thee, dazzled and truly defeated. ³
Rashad Khalifa	67:4 Look again and again; your eyes will come back stumped and conquered.
Shabbir Ahmed	67:4 Then look again and yet again, and every time your vision will fall back upon you, dazzled and defeated.
Transliteration	67:4 Thumma irjiAAi alba ^s ara karratayniyanqalib ilayka alba ^s aru kh ^a si-an wahuwa ^h aseerun

A	67:4 ثم ارجع البصر كرتين ينقلب اليك البصر خاسئا وهو حسير
Edip-Layth	67:5 We have adorned the lower heaven with lamps, and We made it with projectiles against the devils; and We prepared for them the retribution of the blazing fire.
The Monotheist Group	67:5 And We have adorned this universe with lamps, and We made it with projectiles against the devils; and We prepared for them the retribution of the blazing Fire.
Muhammad Asad	67:5 And, indeed, We have adorned the skies nearest to the earth with lights, and have made them the object of futile guesses for the evil ones [from among men]: ⁵ and for them have We readied suffering through a blazing flame ⁴
Rashad Khalifa	67:5 We adorned the lowest universe with lamps, and guarded its borders with projectiles against the devils; we prepared for them a retribution in Hell.
Shabbir Ahmed	67:5 And surely, We have beautified the sky of the world with shining lamps. And made them objects of futile guesses for the Satans. And for them We have prepared the doom of blazing flames. ²
Transliteration	67:5 Walaqad zayyanna alssamaalddunya bimasabeeha wajaAAalnaharujooman lilshshaya ^{teeni} waaAAatadna lahumAAathaba alssaAAeeri
A	67:5 ولقد زيننا السماء الدنيا بمصبيح وجعلناها رجوما للشيطيين واعتدنا لهم عذاب السعير
Edip-Layth	67:6 For those who rejected their Lord will be the retribution of hell. What a miserable destiny.
The Monotheist Group	67:6 And for those who rejected their Lord will be the retribution of Hell. What a miserable destiny.
Muhammad Asad	67:6 for, suffering in hell awaits all who are [thus] bent on blaspheming against their Sustainer: ⁶ and how vile a journey's end!
Rashad Khalifa	67:6 For those who disbelieved in their Lord, the retribution of Gehenna. What a miserable destiny.
Shabbir Ahmed	67:6 Suffering in Hell awaits all who thus blaspheme against their Sustainer. What a miserable destination!
Transliteration	67:6 Walillat ^{heena} kafaroo birabbihim AAathabujahannama wabi/sa almaseeru
A	67:6 وللذين كفروا بربهم عذاب جهنم وبئس المصير
Edip-Layth	67:7 When they are thrown therein, they hear its furor as it boils. ¹
The Monotheist Group	67:7 When they are thrown therein, they hear its furor as it boils.
Muhammad Asad	67:7 When they are cast into that [hell], they will hear its breath indrawing as it boils up,
Rashad Khalifa	67:7 When they get thrown therein, they hear its furor as it fumes.
Shabbir Ahmed	67:7 When they are flung into Hell, they will hear and feel its fury as it fumes.
Transliteration	67:7 Itha olqoo fee ^{ha} samiAAoo lah ^{asha} hee ^{qan} wahiya tafoor u
A	67:7 اذا القوا فيها سمعوا لها شهيقا وهى تفور

Edip-Layth	67:8 It almost explodes from rage. Whenever a group is thrown therein, its keepers would ask them: "Did you not receive a warner?"
The Monotheist Group	67:8 It almost explodes from rage. Whenever a group is thrown therein, its keepers would ask them: "Did you not receive a warner?"
Muhammad Asad	67:8 well-nigh bursting with fury; [and] every time a host [of such sinners] is flung into it, its keepers will ask them, "Has no warner ever come to you?"
Rashad Khalifa	67:8 It almost explodes from rage. Whenever a group is thrown therein, its guards would ask them, "Did you not receive a warner?"
Shabbir Ahmed	67:8 As if it would burst with rage. Whenever a group is cast in it, the guardians of Hell will ask them, "Did you not receive a warner?"
Transliteration	67:8 Tak a du tamayyazu mina alghay th ikullama olqiya feeh a fawjun saalahum khazanatu h aalam ya/tikum na th eerun
A	67:8 تكاد تميز من الغيظ كلما القى فيها فوج سالم خزننها الم ياتكم نذير
Edip-Layth	67:9 They said, "Yes indeed; a warner did come to us, but we rejected and said, God did not reveal anything, you are being led astray."
The Monotheist Group	67:9 They said: "Yes indeed; a warner did come to us, but we disbelieved and said: God did not reveal anything, you are being led astray."
Muhammad Asad	67:9 They will reply: "Yea, a warner did indeed come unto us, but we gave him the lie and said, 'Never has God sent down anything [by way of revelation]! You [self-styled warners] are but lost in a great delusion!'" ⁷
Rashad Khalifa	67:9 They would answer, "Yes indeed; a warner did come to us, but we disbelieved and said, 'GOD did not reveal anything. You are totally astray.' "
Shabbir Ahmed	67:9 They will say, "Yes, certainly, a warner did come to us but we denied him saying that God has not revealed anything! You are but lost in a great error."
Transliteration	67:9 Qaloo bal a qad j a anana th eerun faka th thabna waquln a m a nazzala All a hu min shay-in in antum illa fee dal alinkabeerin
A	67:9 قالوا بلى قد جاءنا نذير فكذبنا وقلنا ما نزل الله من شيء ان انتم الا فى ضلال كبير
Edip-Layth	67:10 They said, "If we had listened or understood, we would not be among the dwellers of the blazing fire!"
The Monotheist Group	67:10 And they said: "If we had listened or understood, we would not be among the dwellers of the blazing Fire!"
Muhammad Asad	67:10 And they will add: "Had we but listened [to those warnings], or [at least] used our own reason, we would not [now] be among those who are destined for the blazing flame!" ⁸
Rashad Khalifa	67:10 They also say, "If we heard or understood, we would not be among the dwellers of Hell!"
Shabbir Ahmed	67:10 And they will say, "If we really listened and used our sense, we would not be among the dwellers of the Flames." ³
Transliteration	67:10 Waq a loo law kunn a nasmaAAu awnaAAqilu m a kunn a fee a s- h abi alssaAAeeri
A	67:10 وقالوا لو كنا نسمع او نعقل ما كنا فى اصحاب السعير

Edip-Layth	67:11 Thus, they confessed their sins. So away with the dwellers of the blazing fire.
The Monotheist Group	67:11 Thus, they confessed their sins. So away with the dwellers of the blazing Fire.
Muhammad Asad	67:11 Thus will they come to realize their sins: but [by that time,] remote will have become all good from those who are destined for the blazing flame.
Rashad Khalifa	67:11 Thus, they confessed their sins. Woe to the dwellers of Hell.
Shabbir Ahmed	67:11 They will acknowledge that they did trail behind in humanity. Thus, far removed are the dwellers of the Flames from Divine grace.
Transliteration	67:11 FaiAAatafoo bi th anbihim fasu ^h qanli-as- ^h abi alssaAAeeri
A	67:11 فاعترفوا بذنبهم فسحقا لأصحاب السعير
Edip-Layth	67:12 As for those who reverence their Lord unseen, they have attained forgiveness and a great reward.
The Monotheist Group	67:12 As for those who reverence their Lord unseen, they have attained forgiveness and a great reward.
Muhammad Asad	67:12 [As against this,] behold, for those who stand in awe of God although He is beyond the reach of their perception, ⁹ there is forgiveness in store and a great reward.
Rashad Khalifa	67:12 As for those who reverence their Lord, when alone in their privacy, they have attained forgiveness and a great recompense.
Shabbir Ahmed	67:12 Those who fear (violating the laws of) their Lord even in privacy, for them is the protection of forgiveness and a great Reward. ⁴
Transliteration	67:12 Inna alla th eena yakhshawna rabbahumbi alghaybi lahum maghfiratun waajrun kabeerun
A	67:12 ان الذين يخشون ربهم بالغيب لهم مغفرة واجر كبير
Edip-Layth	67:13 Whether you keep your utterances secret, or declare them, He is fully aware of what is inside the chests.
The Monotheist Group	67:13 And whether you keep your utterances secret, or declare them, He is fully aware of what is inside the chests.
Muhammad Asad	67:13 AND [know, O men, that] whether you keep your beliefs ¹⁰ secret or state them openly, He has full knowledge indeed of all that is in [your] hearts. ¹¹
Rashad Khalifa	67:13 Whether you keep your utterances secret, or declare them, He is fully aware of the innermost thoughts.
Shabbir Ahmed	67:13 Whether you hide your word and thought or make it known, He is the Knower of what is in the hearts. ⁵
Transliteration	67:13 Waasirroo qawlakum awi ijharoo bihi innahuAAaleemun bi th ati al ^{ss} udoori
A	67:13 واسرروا قولكم او اجهروا به انه عليم بذات الصدور
Edip-Layth	67:14 Should He not know what He created? He is the Sublime, the Ever-aware. ²

The Monotheist Group	67:14 Should He not know what He created? And He is the Sublime, the Expert.
Muhammad Asad	67:14 How could it be that He who has created [all] should not know [all]? ¹² Yea, He alone is unfathomable [in His wisdom], aware! ¹³
Rashad Khalifa	67:14 Should He not know what He created? He is the Sublime, Most Cognizant.
Shabbir Ahmed	67:14 How could it be that He Who has created all should not know all things and events? For, He is the Unfathomable, the Aware.
Transliteration	67:14 Alā yaAAalamu man khalaqa wahuwa alla tēefualkhabeeru
A	67:14 ألا يعلم من خلق وهو اللطيف الخبير
Edip-Layth	67:15 He is the One who made the earth subservient to you. So roam its paths, and eat from His provisions; and to Him is the final summoning.
The Monotheist Group	67:15 He is the One who made the Earth subservient for you. So roam its paths, and eat from His provisions; and to Him is the final summoning.
Muhammad Asad	67:15 He it is who has made the earth easy to live upon: ¹⁴ go about, then, in all its regions, and partake the sustenance which He provides: but [always bear in mind that] unto Him you shall be resurrected.
Rashad Khalifa	67:15 He is the One who put the Earth at your service. Roam its corners, and eat from His provisions. To Him is the final summoning.
Shabbir Ahmed	67:15 He is the One Who has made the earth humble at your service. So move through its tracts and enjoy His provisions. Bear in mind that the revival to New Life will again be in His Dominion.
Transliteration	67:15 Huwa alla thee jaAAala lakumu al-ar dathaloolan fa imshoo fee manakibihawakuloo min rizqihi wa-ilayhi aInnushooru
A	67:15 هو الذى جعل لكم الارض ذلولا فامشوا فى مناكبها وكلوا من رزقه واليه النشور
Edip-Layth	67:16 Are you secure that the One in heaven will not cause the earth to rupture, thus causing it to shake?
The Monotheist Group	67:16 Are you secure that the One in heaven will not cause the Earth to rupture, thus causing it to shake?
Muhammad Asad	67:16 Can you ever feel secure that He who is in heaven ¹⁵ will not cause the earth to swallow you up when, lo and behold, it begins to quake?
Rashad Khalifa	67:16 Have you guaranteed that the One in heaven will not strike the earth and cause it to tumble?
Shabbir Ahmed	67:16 Can you ever feel secure that the High Sovereign will not cause the earth to swallow you up when it begins to quake? ⁶
Transliteration	67:16 Aamintum man fee a Issama-i anyakhsifa bikumu al-ar da fa-i tha hiya tamooru
A	67:16 ءامنتم من فى السماء ان يخسف بكم الارض فاذا هى تمور
Edip-Layth	67:17 Or are you secure that the One in heaven will not send upon you a violent storm? Then you will know the value of the warning.
The Monotheist Group	67:17 Or are you secure that the One in heaven will not send upon you a violent storm? Then you will know the value of the warning.

Muhammad Asad	67:17 Or can you ever feel secure that He who is in heaven will not let loose against you a deadly stormwind, ¹⁶ whereupon you would come to know how [true] My warning was?
Rashad Khalifa	67:17 Have you guaranteed that the One in heaven will not send upon you a violent storm? Will you then appreciate the value of My warning?
Shabbir Ahmed	67:17 Or can you ever feel secure that the High Sovereign will not let loose on you a deadly hurricane? But you shall know how strict My Warning was.
Transliteration	67:17 Am amintum man fee a Issama-ian yursila AAalaykum hasiban fasataAAalamoona kayfa natheeri
A	67:17 ام امتم من فى السماء ان يرسل عليكم حاصبا فستعلمون كيف نذير
Edip-Layth	67:18 Those before them have rejected; so how terrible was My requital!
The Monotheist Group	67:18 And those before them have disbelieved; so how terrible was My requital!
Muhammad Asad	67:18 And, indeed, [many of] those who lived aforetime ¹⁷ did give the lie [to My warnings]: and how awesome was My rejection [of them]!
Rashad Khalifa	67:18 Others before them have disbelieved; how terrible was My requital!
Shabbir Ahmed	67:18 And certainly peoples before them rejected, then, how awesome was My rejection of them!
Transliteration	67:18 Walaqad katthaba allatheenamin qablihim fakayfa kana nakeeri
A	67:18 ولقد كذب الذين من قبلهم فكيف كان نكير
Edip-Layth	67:19 Have they not looked to the birds lined up together above them, and they launch? The Gracious is the One who holds them in the air. He is Seer of all things.
The Monotheist Group	67:19 Have they not looked to the birds lined-up together above them, and they launch? The Almighty is the One who holds them in the air. He is Seer of all things.
Muhammad Asad	67:19 Have they, then, never beheld the birds above them, spreading their wings and drawing them in? None but the Most Gracious upholds them: for, verily, He keeps all things in His sight.
Rashad Khalifa	67:19 Have they not seen the birds above them lined up in columns and spreading their wings? The Most Gracious is the One who holds them in the air. He is Seer of all things.
Shabbir Ahmed	67:19 Have they, then, never seen the birds above them spreading their wings and drawing them in? Nothing holds them but the Beneficent - for, certainly, He is ever Seer of all things.
Transliteration	67:19 Awa lam yaraw il a a Ittayrifawqahum saffatin wayaqbi dna mayumsikuhunna illa alrrahmanu innahubikulli shay-in baseerun
A	67:19 اولم يروا الى الطير فوقهم صفت ويقبضن ما يمسكهن الا الرحمن انه بكل شىء بصير
Edip-Layth	67:20 Where is this army of yours to grant you victory without the Gracious? Indeed, those who do not appreciate are deceived.

The Monotheist Group	67:20 Where is this army of yours to grant you victory without the Almighty? Indeed, the disbelievers are deceived.
Muhammad Asad	67:20 [And] is there any, besides the Most Gracious, that could be a shield ¹⁸ for you, and could succour you [against danger]? They who deny this truth are but lost in self- delusion!
Rashad Khalifa	67:20 Where are those soldiers who can help you against the Most Gracious? Indeed, the disbelievers are deceived.
Shabbir Ahmed	67:20 Nay, who is there to help you besides the Beneficent, even if it were a formidable army? The unbelievers are but lost in delusion.
Transliteration	67:20 Amman h atha alla thee huwajundun lakum yan surukum min dooni alRrah ma niini al ka firoona illa fee ghuroor in
A	67:20 امن هذا الذى هو جند لكم ينصرکم من دون الرحمن ان الكفرون الا فى غرور
Edip-Layth	67:21 Where is this who can give you provisions if He holds back His provisions? Indeed, they have plunged deep into transgression and aversion.
The Monotheist Group	67:21 Where is this who can give you provisions if He holds back His provisions? Indeed, they have plunged deep into transgression and aversion.
Muhammad Asad	67:21 Or is there any that could provide you with sustenance if He should withhold His provision [from you]? Nay, but they [who are bent on denying the truth] stubbornly persist in their disdain [of God's messages] and in their headlong flight [from Him]!
Rashad Khalifa	67:21 Who is there to provide for you, if He withholds His provisions? Indeed, they have plunged deep into transgression and aversion.
Shabbir Ahmed	67:21 Who is there to provide for you if He should withhold His providence? Nay, they are victims of their own pride and hatred (for the poor).
Transliteration	67:21 Amman h atha alla thee yarzuqukum in amsaka rizqahu bal lajjoo fee AA u tuwwin wanufoor in
A	67:21 امن هذا الذى يرزقکم ان امسک رزقه بل لجوا فى عتو ونفور
Edip-Layth	67:22 Is one who walks with his face groveling better guided, or one who walks straight on the right path?
The Monotheist Group	67:22 Is one who walks while his face is slumped better guided, or one who walks straight on the right path?
Muhammad Asad	67:22 But then, is he that goes along with his face close to the ground ¹⁹ better guided than he that walks upright on a straight way?
Rashad Khalifa	67:22 Is one who walks while slumped over on his face better guided, or one who walks straight on the right path?
Shabbir Ahmed	67:22 But then, is he who goes upon his face better guided or he who walks upright on a straight path? ⁷
Transliteration	67:22 Afaman yamshee mukibban AA a l a wajhihia h da amman yamshee sawiyyan AA a la sira tinmustaqeem in
A	67:22 افمن يمشى مكبا على وجهه اهدى امن يمشى سويا على صراط مستقيم

Edip-Layth	67:23 Say, "He is the One who initiated you, and made for you the hearing, the eyes, and the hearts. Little do you give thanks."
The Monotheist Group	67:23 Say: "He is the One who initiated you, and made for you the hearing, the eyes, and the hearts. Little do you give thanks."
Muhammad Asad	67:23 SAY: "[God is] He who has brought you [all] into being, and has endowed you with hearing, and sight, and hearts: ²⁰ [yet] how seldom are you grateful!"
Rashad Khalifa	67:23 Say, "He is the One who initiated you, and granted you the hearing, the eyes, and the brains. Rarely are you appreciative."
Shabbir Ahmed	67:23 Say, "He is the One Who brought you into being and gave you hearing, sight and the faculty of understanding. But how seldom are you grateful!" (By using them to full potential.)
Transliteration	67:23 Qul huwa alla thee anshaakum wajaAAalalakumu a IssamAAa wa al-absaara waal-af-idaataqaleelan ma tashkuroona
A	67:23 قل هو الذى انشاكم وجعل لكم السمع والابصر والافدة قليلا ما تشكرون
Edip-Layth	67:24 Say, "He is the One who placed you on earth, and to Him you will be gathered."
The Monotheist Group	67:24 Say: "He is the One who placed you on Earth, and to Him you will be gathered."
Muhammad Asad	67:24 Say: "It is He who has multiplied you on earth; and it is unto Him that you shall be gathered [on resurrection]."
Rashad Khalifa	67:24 Say, "He is the One who placed you on earth, and before Him you will be summoned."
Shabbir Ahmed	67:24 Say, "He is the One Who has multiplied you throughout the earth, and to Him shall you be gathered." ⁸
Transliteration	67:24 Qul huwa alla thee thara akumfee al-ardi wa-ilayhi tu h sharoona
A	67:24 قل هو الذى ذراكم فى الارض واليه تحشرون
Edip-Layth	67:25 They say, "When will this promise come to pass, if you are being truthful?"
The Monotheist Group	67:25 And they say: "When will this promise come to pass, if you are being truthful?"
Muhammad Asad	67:25 But they [only] ask, "When is this promise to be fulfilled? [Answer this, O you who believe in it,] if you are men of truth!"
Rashad Khalifa	67:25 They challenge: "When will that prophecy come to pass, if you are truthful?"
Shabbir Ahmed	67:25 But they say, "When will this promise be fulfilled if you are men of truth?"
Transliteration	67:25 Wayaqooloona mata a hatha alwaAAadu in kuntum sadi qeena
A	67:25 ويقولون متى هذا الوعد ان كنتم صدقين
Edip-Layth	67:26 Say, "The knowledge is only with God, and I am but a clear warner."
The Monotheist Group	67:26 Say: "The knowledge is only with God, and I am but a clear warner."
	67:26 Say thou, [O Prophet:] "Knowledge thereof rests with God alone; and I am

Muhammad Asad	only a plain warner."
Rashad Khalifa	67:26 Say, "Such knowledge is with GOD; I am no more than a manifest warner."
Shabbir Ahmed	67:26 Say, "This knowledge rests with God alone and I am only a plain warner."
Transliteration	67:26 Qul inna ^{ma} alAAilmu AAinda All ^{ah} iwa-inna ^{ma} ana ^{na} nat ^{heer} un mubeen ^{un}
A	67:26 قل انما العلم عند الله وانما انا نذير مبين
Edip-Layth	67:27 So when they see it near, the faces of those who rejected will turn miserable, and it will be proclaimed: "This is what you had called for!"
The Monotheist Group	67:27 So when they see it near, the faces of those who rejected will turn miserable, and it will be proclaimed: "This is what you had called for!"
Muhammad Asad	67:27 Yet in the end, when they shall see that [fulfilment] close at hand, the faces of those who were bent on denying the truth will be stricken with grief; and they will be told, "This it is that you were [so derisively] calling for!"
Rashad Khalifa	67:27 When they see it happening, the faces of those who disbelieved will turn miserable, and it will be proclaimed: "This is what you used to mock."
Shabbir Ahmed	67:27 But when they see it close at hand, grieved will be the faces of the rejecters, and they will be told, "This is what you were calling for."
Transliteration	67:27 Falam ^{ma} raawhu zulfatan see-atwujoo ^{hu} alla ^{la} ^{the} ena kafaroo waqeela ^{la} ^{hatha} alla ^{thee} kuntum bihi taddaAAoon ^a
A	67:27 فلما راوه زلفة سبت وجوه الذين كفروا وقيل هذا الذى كنتم به تدعون
Edip-Layth	67:28 Say, "Do you see? If God annihilates me and those with me, or He bestows mercy upon us, who is there to protect those who do not appreciate from a painful retribution?"
The Monotheist Group	67:28 Say: "Do you see? If God annihilates me and those with me, or He bestows mercy upon us, who is there to protect the disbelievers from a painful retribution?"
Muhammad Asad	67:28 SAY [O Prophet]: "What do you think? Whether God destroys me and those who follow me, or graces us with His mercy ²¹ - is there anyone that could protect [you] deniers of the truth from grievous suffering [in the life to come]?"
Rashad Khalifa	67:28 Say, "Whether GOD decides to annihilate me and those with me, or to shower us with His mercy, who is there to protect the disbelievers from a painful retribution?"
Shabbir Ahmed	67:28 Say (O Messenger!), "Whether God destroys me and those with me, or whether He bestows His grace on us, who is there to protect the rejecters from a painful retribution?"
Transliteration	67:28 Qul araaytum in ahlakaniya All ^{ah} ^{ahu} waman maAAiya aw ra ^{hi} mana ^{na} faman yujeeru alka ^{fire} enamin AAa ^{the} abin aleem ⁱⁿ
A	67:28 قل ارءيتم ان اهلكنى الله ومن معى او رحمتنا فمن يجير الكافرين من عذاب اليم
Edip-Layth	67:29 Say, "He is the Gracious; we acknowledge Him, and we put our trust in Him. You will come to find out who is clearly astray."
The Monotheist Group	67:29 Say: "He is the Almighty; we believe in Him, and we put our trust in Him. You will come to find out who is clearly astray."

Muhammad Asad	67:29 Say: "He is the Most Gracious: we have attained to faith in Him, and in Him have we placed our trust; and in time you will come to know which of us was lost in manifest error."
Rashad Khalifa	67:29 Say, "He is the Most Gracious; we believe in Him, and we trust in Him. You will surely find out who is really far astray."
Shabbir Ahmed	67:29 Say, "He is the Beneficent. In Him we believe and in Him we place our trust, (so our Mission will succeed). And soon you will come to know who it is that is in obvious error."
Transliteration	67:29 Qul huwa a Irrahmanu amannabihi waAAalayhi tawakkaln a fasataAAalamoona man huwa fee dalalinmubeenin
A	67:29 قل هو الرحمن ءامنا به وعليه توكلنا فستعلمون من هو فى ضلل مبين
Edip-Layth	67:30 Say, "What if your water becomes deep underground, who then can provide you with pure water?"
The Monotheist Group	67:30 Say: "What if your water becomes deep underground, who then can provide you with pure water?"
Muhammad Asad	67:30 Say [unto those who deny the truth]: "What do you think? If of a sudden all your water were to vanish underground, who [but God] could provide you with water from [new] unsullied springs?" ²²
Rashad Khalifa	67:30 Say, "What if your water sinks away, who will provide you with pure water?"
Shabbir Ahmed	67:30 Say, "Have you thought? What if all your water sinks away, who will, then, give you fresh water?" ⁹
Transliteration	67:30 Qul araaytum in a sbaha m aokumghawran faman ya/teekum bim a-in maAAeenin
A	67:30 قل ارءيتم ان اصبح ملاوكم غورا فمن ياتيكم بماء معين

<< Prev 67:1-30 Next >>

Return to top

End Notes

Muhammad Asad - The Message Of Quran

Muhammad Asad - End Note 1 (67:2)

Since what is termed "death" is stated here to have been created, it cannot be identical with "non-existence", but obviously must have a positive reality of its own. To my mind, it connotes, firstly, the inanimate state of existence preceding the emergence of life in plants or animated beings; and, secondly, the state of transition from life as we know it in this world to the - as yet to us unimaginable - condition of existence referred to in the Qur'an as "the hereafter" or "the life to come" (al-akhirah).

Muhammad Asad - End Note 2 (67:3)

Or: "conforming [with one another]", this being the primary significance of tibaq (sing. tabaq). For the meaning of the "seven heavens", see surah 2, note 20.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 3 (67:4)

Sc., in its endeavour to encompass the mysteries of the universe.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 4 (67:5)

Lit., "lamps" - i.e., stars: cf. 37:6, "We have adorned the skies nearest to the earth with the beauty of stars".

Muhammad Asad - End Note 5 (67:5)

For the wider meaning of shayatin - a term which in this context points specifically to "the satans from among mankind, that is, the astrologers" (Baydawi) - see surah 15, note 16. As regards the term rajm (pl. rujum), which literally denotes the "throwing [of something] like a stone" - i.e., at random - it is often used metaphorically in the sense of "speaking conjecturally" or "making [something] the object of guesswork" (Jawhari, Raghīb - the latter connecting this metaphor explicitly with the above verse -, Lisan al-'Arab, Qamus, Taj al-'Arus, etc.). Cf. also 37:6-10.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 6 (67:6)

I.e., by presuming to know what will happen in the future - a knowledge which rests with God alone. This connects with the statement in verse 4 that man can never truly unravel the mysteries of cosmic space ("the heavens"), which in its turn implies that he should not presume to foretell terrestrial events from the position and the aspects of the stars. Since only God knows "that which is beyond the reach of a created being's perception" (al-ghayb), any such attempt is a blasphemy (kufr).

Muhammad Asad - End Note 7 (67:9)

Lit., "You are in nothing but a great error (dalal)" - thus denying the reality of divine revelation as such.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 8 (67:10)

Reason, properly used, must lead man to a cognition of God's existence and, thus, of the fact that a definite plan underlies all His creation. A logical concomitant of that cognition is the realization that certain aspects of the divine plan touching upon human life - in particular, the distinction between right and wrong - are being continuously disclosed to man through the medium of the revelation which God bestows on His chosen message-bearers, the prophets. This innate "bond with God" (referred to in 2:27 and explained in the corresponding note 19) may be broken only at the expense of man's spiritual future, with suffering in the life to come as the inevitable alternative.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 9 (67:12)

For this rendering of the expression bi'l-ghayb, see surah 2, note 3.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 10 (67:13)

While the primary significance of the noun qawl is "a saying" or "an utterance", it is often used tropically in the sense of "a statement". i.e., of a belief, an opinion, a teaching, a doctrine, etc. In the present context it evidently relates to man's beliefs in general, be they affirmative or negative: hence the plural form in my rendering of this term.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 11 (67:13)

I.e., He knows why one person believes in Him and another rejects this belief; hence, He takes man's innermost motivations, abilities and inabilities fully into account.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 12 (67:14)

Lit., "Does He not know, [He] who has created?"

Muhammad Asad - End Note 13 (67:14)

See surah 6, note 89.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 14 (67:15)

Lit., "who has made the earth submissive (dhalulan) to you": i.e., yielding to the intelligence with which He has endowed man.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 15 (67:16)

This expression is, of course, purely metaphorical since God is limitless in space as well as in time. Its use here is apparently meant to stress the unfathomable quality of His existence and power, which penetrates, and reveals itself in, every aspect of His cosmic creativeness, symbolized in the term "heaven".

Muhammad Asad - End Note 16 (67:17)

Lit., "a stormwind that raises stones".

Muhammad Asad - End Note 17 (67:18)

Lit., "before them" (min qablihim). This personal pronoun relates - as does the whole of the passage beginning with verse 13 - to people of all times, who are herewith reminded of what happened to deniers of the truth in earlier times; hence my rendering of min qablihim as "aforetime".

Muhammad Asad - End Note 18 (67:20)

Lit., "an army".

Muhammad Asad - End Note 19 (67:22)

Lit., "prone upon his face" - i.e., seeing only what is immediately beneath his feet, and utterly unaware of the direction into which his path is taking him: a metaphor of the spiritual obtuseness which prevents a person from caring for anything beyond his immediate, worldly concerns, and thus makes him resemble an earthworm that "goes along prone upon its face".

Muhammad Asad - End Note 20 (67:23)

I.e., with the faculty of feeling as well as of rational thinking.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 21 (67:28)

I.e., "Whether we succeed in spreading God's message or not, what have you unbelievers to gain?"

Muhammad Asad - End Note 22 (67:30)

Apart from a further reminder of God's providential power (thus continuing the argument touched upon in verses 19-21), the above verse has a parabolic significance as well. Just as water is an indispensable element of all organic life, so is a constant flow of moral consciousness an indispensable prerequisite of all spiritual life and stability: and who but God could enable man to regain that consciousness after all the older ethical stimuli have dried up and "vanished underground"?

Rashad Khalifa - The Final Testament

Rashad Khalifa - End Note 1 (67:2)

See the Introduction and Appendix 7 for details of the purpose behind this world.

Shabbir Ahmed -

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 1 (67:2)

The real existence on earth is of the one who benefits humankind 13:17. Men and women who create balance in the society, help the needy, and strive for the betterment of humanity with their God-given resources of wealth and person, advance their own 'self'. Such men and women have made themselves eligible for the higher form of life in Paradise, attaining immortality. Men and women who fail to develop their own 'self', find the Insurmountable Barrier in front of their own 'self'. This lack of progression makes them eligible only for mere survival in Hellfire. Life without progress is a Hell in itself 11:7, 18:7. The Almighty, the Absolver of imperfections, has designed this System in His Infinite wisdom.

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 2 (67:5)

15:17, 37:6-9, 72:8. Astrologers, fortune-tellers, clairvoyants, mystics, and Sufis who, for selfish gains, claim knowledge of the Unseen and the future, are either themselves deceived or deceive others. Rajm also denotes speaking out of conjecture like throwing stones randomly, or shooting in the dark

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 3 (67:10)

7:179

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 4 (67:12)

They keep in mind that every action has a consequence, even though it may not be immediately apparent

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 5 (67:13)

Qaul = Word = Saying = Utterance. It also signifies thought, opinion, belief and idea

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 6 (67:16)

Life of the world is too brief and unpredictable to postpone the good until tomorrow 67:21, 67:30, 80:25. Mun fis Sama = He Who is in the heaven = Since God is Omnipresent, the correct understanding is 'The High Sovereign' = Lord Supreme

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 7 (67:22)

Going upon one's face draws our attention to the earthworm; a lowly inhuman existence. It also alludes to preoccupation with immediate, worldly concerns only, without rising to higher objectives of life

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 8 (67:24)

You will always remain within His Supreme Kingdom 23:79

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 9 (67:30)

56:63-74, 67:21

Edip-Layth - Quran: A Reformist Translation

Edip-Layth - End Note 1 (67:7)

Many future events are told in past tense, indicating the certainty of their coming into being.

Edip-Layth - End Note 2 (67:14)

It could also be translated as "Doesn't the One who created know?"

Best viewed using your own brain

Tested on 1024x768 resolution with  FIREFOX 2

Kitabun Marqum v0.6.7 - Kitabun Marqum - Quran Research Platform by QuraniX Team Copyright © 2002-2011 All rights reserved.

Copyrights of all translations belong to their respective authors.

49:6 O you who believe, if a wicked person brings any news to you, you shall first investigate, lest you commit injustice towards some people, out of ignorance, then become sorry and remorseful for what you have done.

Rashad Khalifa (The Final Testament)

 Translations ▼

 Chapter/Verse ▼

 Refresh

 Search

<< Prev 68:1-52 Next >>

Edip-Layth	In the name of God, the Gracious, the Compassionate. 68:1 N50, the pen, and what they write. ¹
The Monotheist Group	In the name of God, the Almighty, the Merciful. 68:1 N, the pen, and what they write.
Muhammad Asad	In the name of God, The Most Gracious, The Dispenser of Grace: 68:1 Nun. ¹ CONSIDER the pen, and all that they write [therewith]! ²
Rashad Khalifa	In the name of GOD, Most Gracious, Most Merciful. 68:1 NuN ¹ , the pen, and what they (the people) write.
Shabbir Ahmed	BISMILLAH-IR-RAHMAN-IR-RAHEEM With the Glorious Name of God, the Ultimate Source of Instant Beneficence and Eternal mercy Who encompasses the entire Universe, nourishing and taking care of all things for what they are meant to be; just as a mother's womb nourishes the embryo to completion without any returns. 68:1 N. Noon. (The Inkpot. And the Pen, and all that they write, stand witness. The high domain of knowledge will bear out that),
Transliteration	Bismi Allāhi alRrahmāni alRrahēemi 68:1 Noon waalqalami wama yasturoona
A	بسم الله الرحمن الرحيم 68:1 نون والقلم وما يسطرون
Edip-Layth	68:2 You are not, by the blessing of your Lord, crazy.
The Monotheist Group	68:2 You are not, by the blessing of your Lord, a madman.

Muhammad Asad	68:2 Thou art not, by thy Sustainer's grace, a madman! ³
Rashad Khalifa	68:2 You have attained a great blessing from your Lord; you are not crazy.
Shabbir Ahmed	68:2 You (O Messenger!) By the grace of your Lord, you are not a madman.
Transliteration	68:2 Ma anta biniAAmati rabbika bimajnoon in
A	68:2 ما انت بنعمة ربك بمجنون
Edip-Layth	68:3 You will have a reward that is well deserved.
The Monotheist Group	68:3 And you will have a reward that is well deserved.
Muhammad Asad	68:3 And, verily, thine shall be a reward neverending
Rashad Khalifa	68:3 You have attained a recompense that is well deserved.
Shabbir Ahmed	68:3 And yours will be an everlasting reward.
Transliteration	68:3 Wa-inna laka laajran ghayra mamnoon in
A	68:3 وان لك لاجرا غير ممنون
Edip-Layth	68:4 You are on a high moral standard.
The Monotheist Group	68:4 And you are of a high moral character.
Muhammad Asad	68:4 for, behold, thou keepest indeed to a sublime way of life; ⁴
Rashad Khalifa	68:4 You are blessed with a great moral character.
Shabbir Ahmed	68:4 For, you have sublime morals.
Transliteration	68:4 Wa-innaka laAAala khuluqin AAa ^{the} emin
A	68:4 وانك لعلی خلق عظیم
Edip-Layth	68:5 So you will see, and they will see.
The Monotheist Group	68:5 So you will see, and they will see.
Muhammad Asad	68:5 and [one day] thou shalt see, and they [who now deride thee] shall see,
Rashad Khalifa	68:5 You will see, and they will see.
Shabbir Ahmed	68:5 And soon you will see and they will see.
Transliteration	68:5 Fasatub s iru wayub s iroona
A	68:5 فستبصر ویبصرون
Edip-Layth	68:6 Which of you are tormented.
The Monotheist Group	68:6 Which of you are condemned.
Muhammad Asad	68:6 which of you was bereft of reason.
Rashad Khalifa	68:6 Which of you are condemned.
Shabbir Ahmed	68:6 Which of you is the demented. ¹

Transliteration	68:6 Bi-ayyikumu almaftoonu
A	68:6 باييكم المقتون
Edip-Layth	68:7 Your Lord is fully aware of those who strayed off His path, and He is fully aware of those who are guided.
The Monotheist Group	68:7 Your Lord is fully aware of those who strayed off His path, and He is fully aware of those who are guided.
Muhammad Asad	68:7 Verily, thy Sustainer alone is fully aware as to who has strayed from His path, Just as He alone is fully aware of those who have found the right way.
Rashad Khalifa	68:7 Your Lord is fully aware of those who strayed off His path, and He is fully aware of those who are guided.
Shabbir Ahmed	68:7 Surely, your Lord knows best him who strays from His way, and He knows best those who are rightly guided.
Transliteration	68:7 Inna rabbaka huwa aAAalamu biman dallasAAan sabeelihi wahuwa aAAalamu bialmuhtadeena
A	68:7 ان ربك هو اعلم بمن ضل عن سبيله وهو اعلم بالمهتدين
Edip-Layth	68:8 So do not obey those who deny.
The Monotheist Group	68:8 So do not obey those who deny.
Muhammad Asad	68:8 Hence, defer not to [the likes and dislikes of] those who give the lie to the truth:
Rashad Khalifa	68:8 Do not obey the rejecters.
Shabbir Ahmed	68:8 So, pay no heed to the rejecters.
Transliteration	68:8 FalatutijAAi almukaththibeena
A	68:8 فلا تطع المكذبين
Edip-Layth	68:9 They wish that you compromise, so they too can compromise.
The Monotheist Group	68:9 They wish that you compromise, so they too can compromise.
Muhammad Asad	68:9 they would like thee to be soft [with them], so that they might be soft [with thee]. ⁵
Rashad Khalifa	68:9 They wish that you compromise, so they too can compromise.
Shabbir Ahmed	68:9 They wish that you strike a deal with them so that they can strike a deal. ²
Transliteration	68:9 Waddoo law tudhinu fayudhinoona
A	68:9 ودوا لو تدهن فيدهنون
Edip-Layth	Bad Character 68:10 Do not obey every lowly swearer.
The Monotheist Group	68:10 And do not obey every lowly swearer.
Muhammad Asad	68:10 Furthermore, ⁶ defer not to the contemptible swearer of oaths,

Rashad Khalifa	68:10 Do not obey every lowly swearer.
Shabbir Ahmed	68:10 Do not yield to any feeble oath-monger. ³
Transliteration	68:10 Walā tuṭīAA kulla ḥallaḥfinmaheenin
A	68:10 ولا تطع كل حلاف مهين
Edip-Layth	68:11 A slanderer, a backbiter.
The Monotheist Group	68:11 A slanderer, a backbiter.
Muhammad Asad	68:11 [or to] the slanderer that goes about with defaming tales,
Rashad Khalifa	68:11 A slanderer, a backbiter.
Shabbir Ahmed	68:11 Or to a defamer that goes about spreading slander.
Transliteration	68:11 Hammāzin mashshā-in binameemin
A	68:11 هماز مشاء بنميم
Edip-Layth	68:12 Forbidder of charity, a transgressor, a sinner.
The Monotheist Group	68:12 Forbidder of charity, a transgressor, a sinner.
Muhammad Asad	68:12 [or] the withholder of good, [or] the sinful aggressor,
Rashad Khalifa	68:12 Forbidder of charity, a transgressor, a sinner.
Shabbir Ahmed	68:12 Hinderer of the good, transgressing beyond limits, harming the community.
Transliteration	68:12 MannaAAin lilkhayri muAAatin atheemin
A	68:12 مناع للخير معتد اثيم
Edip-Layth	68:13 Ignoble, and additionally, mischievous.
The Monotheist Group	68:13 Unappreciative, and greedy.
Muhammad Asad	68:13 [or] one who is cruel, by greed possessed, ⁷ and, in addition to all this, utterly useless [to his fellow-men]. ⁸
Rashad Khalifa	68:13 Unappreciative, and greedy.
Shabbir Ahmed	68:13 Or to one greedy to the extent of insensitivity, and, in addition, has made himself worthless to the society. ⁴
Transliteration	68:13 AAutullin baAAda ṭhalika zaneemin
A	68:13 عتل بعد ذلك زنيم
Edip-Layth	68:14 Because he possessed money and children.
The Monotheist Group	68:14 Because he possessed money and children.
Muhammad Asad	68:14 Is it because he is possessed of worldly goods and children
Rashad Khalifa	68:14 Even though he possessed enough money and children.
Shabbir Ahmed	68:14 Or he who, because of his riches and party,

Transliteration	68:14 An kana tha malinwabaneena
A	68:14 ان كان ذا مال وبنين
Edip-Layth	68:15 When Our signs are recited to him, he says: "Tales from the past!"
The Monotheist Group	68:15 When Our revelations are recited to him, he says: "Tales from the past!"
Muhammad Asad	68:15 that, whenever Our messages are conveyed to him, such a one says, "Fables of ancient times"? ⁹
Rashad Khalifa	68:15 When our revelations are recited to him, he says, "Tales from the past!"
Shabbir Ahmed	68:15 Says, "Fables of ancient times", whenever Our messages are conveyed to him.
Transliteration	68:15 I tha tut la AAalayhi aya tuna q ala asateeru al-awwaleena
A	68:15 اذا تتلى عليه ءايتنا قال اسطير الاولين
Edip-Layth	68:16 We will mark him on the path.
The Monotheist Group	68:16 We will mark him on the path.
Muhammad Asad	68:16 [For this] We shall brand him with indelible disgrace! ¹⁰
Rashad Khalifa	68:16 We will mark his face.
Shabbir Ahmed	68:16 We shall brand such a person with manifest disgrace! ⁵
Transliteration	68:16 Sanasimuhu AAala alkhur t oomi
A	68:16 سنسمه على الخرطوم
Edip-Layth	68:17 We have tested them like We tested those who owned the farms, when they swore that they will harvest it in the morning.
The Monotheist Group	68:17 We have tested them like We tested those who owned the farms, when they swore that they will harvest it in the morning.
Muhammad Asad	68:17 [As for such sinners,] behold, We [but] try them ¹¹ as We tried the owners of a certain garden who vowed that they would surely harvest its fruit on the morrow,
Rashad Khalifa	68:17 We have tested them like we tested the owners of the garden who swore that they will harvest it in the morning.
Shabbir Ahmed	68:17 We have tried such people as We tried the owners of the garden who swore that they would pluck its fruit in the morning. ⁶
Transliteration	68:17 Inna balawn a hum kam a balawn a a s- h aba aljannati i th aqsamoolaya s rimunnah a mu s bi h een a
A	68:17 انا بلونهم كما بلونا اصحب الجنة اذ اقسما ليصرمنها مصبحين
Edip-Layth	68:18 They were without doubt.
The Monotheist Group	68:18 They were without doubt.
Muhammad Asad	12

	68:18 and made no allowance [for the will of God]:
Rashad Khalifa	68:18 They were so absolutely sure.
Shabbir Ahmed	68:18 And made no exception (for the needy poor).
Transliteration	68:18 Walā yastathnoonā
A	68:18 ولا يستثنون
Edip-Layth	68:19 So a passing sent from your Lord came to it while they all were asleep.
The Monotheist Group	68:19 So a passing sent from your Lord came to it while they all were asleep.
Muhammad Asad	68:19 whereupon a visitation for thy Sustainer came upon that [garden] while they were asleep,
Rashad Khalifa	68:19 A passing (storm) from your Lord passed by it while they were asleep.
Shabbir Ahmed	68:19 Then a tornado from your Lord struck it while they slept.
Transliteration	68:19 Fatafa AAalayha ta-ifunmin rabbika wahum na-imoona
A	68:19 فطاف عليها طائف من ربك وهم نائمون
Edip-Layth	68:20 Thus, it became barren.
The Monotheist Group	68:20 Thus, it became barren.
Muhammad Asad	68:20 so that by the morrow it became barren and bleak.
Rashad Khalifa	68:20 By morning, it was barren.
Shabbir Ahmed	68:20 So that by the morning it was barren, bleak.
Transliteration	68:20 Faasbahat kaalssareemi
A	68:20 فاصبحت كالصريم
Edip-Layth	68:21 They called on one another when they awoke.
The Monotheist Group	68:21 They called on one another when they awoke.
Muhammad Asad	68:21 Now when they rose at early morn, they called unto one another,
Rashad Khalifa	68:21 They called on each other in the morning.
Shabbir Ahmed	68:21 In the morning, they called out one another.
Transliteration	68:21 Fatanadaw musbiheena
A	68:21 فتنادوا مصبحين
Edip-Layth	68:22 "Let us go this morning to harvest the crop."
The Monotheist Group	68:22 "Let us go this morning to harvest the crop."
Muhammad Asad	68:22 "Go early to your tilth if you want to harvest the fruit!"
Rashad Khalifa	68:22 "Let us harvest the crop."
Shabbir Ahmed	68:22 "Go early to your field if you want to pick the fruit."

Transliteration	68:22 Ani ighdoo AAala h arthikum inkuntum s arimeena
A	68:22 ان اغدوا على حرثكم ان كنتم صرمين
Edip-Layth	68:23 So they went, while conversing.
The Monotheist Group	68:23 So they went, while conversing.
Muhammad Asad	68:23 Thus they launched forth, whispering unto one another,
Rashad Khalifa	68:23 On their way, they confided to each other.
Shabbir Ahmed	68:23 So they went off whispering to one another.
Transliteration	68:23 Fain ¹³ alaqoo wahum yatakh a fatoona
A	68:23 فانطلقوا وهم يتخفتون
Edip-Layth	68:24 "Let not a poor person come to your presence today."
The Monotheist Group	68:24 That from today, none of them would ever be poor.
Muhammad Asad	68:24 "Indeed, no needy person shall enter it today [and come] upon you [unawares]," ¹³
Rashad Khalifa	68:24 That from then on, none of them would be poor.
Shabbir Ahmed	68:24 "Let not a single poor come near you today."
Transliteration	68:24 An la yadkhulannah a alyawmaAAalaykum miskeen un
A	68:24 ان لا يدخلنها اليوم عليكم مسكين
Edip-Layth	68:25 They went, ready to harvest.
The Monotheist Group	68:25 And they went, ready to harvest.
Muhammad Asad	68:25 and early they went, strongly bent upon their purpose.
Rashad Khalifa	68:25 They were so absolutely sure of their harvest.
Shabbir Ahmed	68:25 And early they went strong in their resolve (to keep the poor away).
Transliteration	68:25 Waghada w AAala h ardin q a direena
A	68:25 وغدوا على حرد قدرين
Edip-Layth	68:26 But when they saw it, they said, "We have gone astray!"
The Monotheist Group	68:26 But when they saw it, they said: "We have gone astray!"
Muhammad Asad	68:26 But as soon as they beheld [the garden and could not recognize] it, they exclaimed, "Surely we have lost our way!"
Rashad Khalifa	68:26 But when they saw it, they said, "We were so wrong!"
Shabbir Ahmed	68:26 But when they saw it, they said, "Oh, we have lost our way."
Transliteration	68:26 Falamma a raawha qalooinna la d alloona
A	68:26 فلما راوها قالوا انا لضالون

Edip-Layth	68:27 "Now, we have nothing!"
The Monotheist Group	68:27 "Now, we have nothing!"
Muhammad Asad	68:27 - [and then,] "Nay, but we have been rendered destitute!"
Rashad Khalifa	68:27 "Now, we have nothing!"
Shabbir Ahmed	68:27 (Then they realized), "Ah! Now we are destitute."
Transliteration	68:27 Bal naḥnu maḥroomoona
A	68:27 بل نحن محرومون
Edip-Layth	68:28 The best among them said, "If only you had glorified!"
The Monotheist Group	68:28 The best among them said: "If only you had glorified!"
Muhammad Asad	68:28 Said the most right-minded among them: "Did I not tell you, 'Will you not extol God's limitless glory?'" ¹⁴
Rashad Khalifa	They Should Have Said: "God Willing." 68:28 The righteous among them said, "If only you had glorified (God)!"
Shabbir Ahmed	68:28 The most balanced among them said, "Did I not tell you? Why did you not strive (for the poor)?" ⁷
Transliteration	68:28 Qala awsaṭuhum alam aqul lakumlawla tusabbiḥoona
A	68:28 قال اوسطهم الم اقل لكم لولا تسبحون
Edip-Layth	68:29 They said, "Glory be to our Lord. We have transgressed."
The Monotheist Group	68:29 They said: "Glory be to our Lord. We have transgressed."
Muhammad Asad	68:29 They answered: "Limitless in His glory is our Sustainer! Verily, we were doing wrong!"
Rashad Khalifa	68:29 They said, "Glory be to our Lord. We have transgressed."
Shabbir Ahmed	68:29 They said, "Glorified is our Lord! Surely, it is we who have been offenders." ⁸
Transliteration	68:29 Qaloo subḥana rabbinainna kunna ṭhalimeena
A	68:29 قالوا سبحن ربنا انا كنا ظلمين
Edip-Layth	68:30 Then they started to blame each other.
The Monotheist Group	68:30 Then they started to blame each other.
Muhammad Asad	68:30 - and then they turned upon one another with mutual reproaches.
Rashad Khalifa	68:30 They started to blame each other.
Shabbir Ahmed	68:30 And then they confronted one another, blaming.
Transliteration	68:30 Faaqbala baAAaḍuhum AAala baAAaḍinyatalawamoona
A	68:30 فاقبل بعضهم على بعض يتلومون
Edip-Layth	68:31 They said, "Woe to us. We sinned."

The Monotheist Group	68:31 They said: "Woe to us. We sinned."
Muhammad Asad	68:31 [In the end] they said: "Oh, woe unto us! Verily, we did behave outrageously!"
Rashad Khalifa	68:31 They said, "Woe to us. We sinned."
Shabbir Ahmed	68:31 They said, "Alas for us! We have rebelled (against our own 'self')."
Transliteration	68:31 Qaloo ya waylana innakunna tagheena
A	68:31 قالوا يويلنا انا كنا طغين
Edip-Layth	68:32 "Perhaps our Lord will grant us better than it. We repent to our Lord."
The Monotheist Group	68:32 "Perhaps our Lord will grant us better than it. We repent to our Lord."
Muhammad Asad	68:32 [But] it may be that our Sustainer will grant us something better instead: ¹⁵ for, verily, unto our Sustainer do we turn with hope!"
Rashad Khalifa	68:32 "May our Lord grant us a better one. We repent to our Lord."
Shabbir Ahmed	68:32 It may be that our Lord grants us something better than this. We turn to our Lord with hope. ⁹
Transliteration	68:32 AAasa rabbuna an yubdilanakhayran minha inna ila rabbina raghiboona
A	68:32 عسى ربنا ان يبدلنا خيرا منها انا الى ربنا رغبون
Edip-Layth	68:33 Such was the punishment. But the retribution of the Hereafter is far worse, if they only knew.
The Monotheist Group	68:33 Such was the punishment. But the retribution of the Hereafter is far worse, if they only knew.
Muhammad Asad	68:33 SUCH is the suffering [with which We try some people in this world]; ¹⁶ but greater by far will be the suffering [which sinners shall have to bear] in the life to come - if they but knew it!
Rashad Khalifa	68:33 Such was the requital. But the retribution of the Hereafter is far worse, if they only knew.
Shabbir Ahmed	68:33 Such is the suffering! But far greater is the suffering of the Hereafter - if they knew it.
Transliteration	68:33 Kathalika alAAa thabu walaAAa thabual-akhirati akbaru law k anoo yaAAlamoona
A	68:33 كذلك العذاب ولعذاب الءاخرة اكبر لو كانوا يعلمون
Edip-Layth	68:34 The righteous have deserved, at their Lord, paradises of bliss.
The Monotheist Group	68:34 The righteous have deserved, at their Lord, paradises of bliss.
Muhammad Asad	68:34 For, behold, it is the God-conscious [alone] whom gardens of bliss await with their Sustainer:
Rashad Khalifa	68:34 The righteous have deserved, at their Lord, gardens of bliss.
Shabbir Ahmed	68:34 For the righteous are Gardens of bliss with their Lord.

Transliteration	68:34 Inna lilmuttaqeena AAinda rabbi h im jannat ia InnaAAeemi
A	68:34 ان للمتقين عند ربهم جنت النعيم
Edip-Layth	A Prophetic Description of the Followers of Hadith 68:35 Should We treat the ones who peacefully surrendered the same as those who are criminals?
The Monotheist Group	68:35 Should We treat those who submitted the same as those who are criminals?
Muhammad Asad	68:35 or should We, perchance, treat those who surrender themselves unto Us ¹⁷ as [We would treat] those who remain lost in sin?
Rashad Khalifa	68:35 Shall we treat the Submitters like the criminals?
Shabbir Ahmed	68:35 Shall We, then, treat those who submit (to Our laws) like the guilty?
Transliteration	68:35 AfanajAAalu almuslimeena kaalmujrimeena
A	68:35 افنجل المسلمين كالمجرمين
Edip-Layth	68:36 What is wrong with you, how do you judge?
The Monotheist Group	68:36 What is wrong with you, how do you judge?
Muhammad Asad	68:36 What is amiss with you? ¹⁸ On what do you base your judgment [of right and wrong]?
Rashad Khalifa	68:36 What is wrong with your logic?
Shabbir Ahmed	68:36 What is the matter with you? How do you judge (the right and wrong and their logical consequences)?
Transliteration	68:36 Ma lakum kayfa ta h kumoon a
A	68:36 ما لكم كيف تحكمون
Edip-Layth	68:37 Or do you have another book which you study?
The Monotheist Group	68:37 Or do you have another book which you study?
Muhammad Asad	68:37 Or have you, perchance, a [special] divine writ which you study,
Rashad Khalifa	68:37 Do you have another book to uphold?
Shabbir Ahmed	68:37 Or do you have a scripture wherein you learn -
Transliteration	68:37 Am lakum kit ab un feehi tadrusoon a
A	68:37 ام لكم كتب فيه تدرسون
Edip-Layth	68:38 In it, you can find what you wish?
The Monotheist Group	68:38 In it, you can find what you wish?
Muhammad Asad	68:38 and in which you find all that you may wish to find? ¹⁹
Rashad Khalifa	68:38 In it, do you find anything you want?
Shabbir Ahmed	68:38 That you shall have through it whatever you choose?

Transliteration	68:38 Inna lakum feehee lam a takhayyaroon a
A	68:38 ان لكم فيه لما تخيرون
Edip-Layth	68:39 Or do you have an oath from Us, extending until the day of resurrection, that you can judge as you please?
The Monotheist Group	68:39 Or do you have an oath from Us, extending until the Day of Resurrection, that you can judge as you please?
Muhammad Asad	68:39 Or have you received a solemn promise, binding on Us till Resurrection Day, that yours will assuredly be whatever you judge [to be your rightful due]?
Rashad Khalifa	68:39 Or, have you received solemn assurances from us that grant you whatever you wish on the Day of Resurrection?
Shabbir Ahmed	68:39 Or do you have a solemn oath, binding on Us till Resurrection Day, that you shall have all that you demand?
Transliteration	68:39 Am lakum aym a nun AAalayn a balighatunil a yawmi alqiy a mati inna lakum lam a tahkumoon a
A	68:39 ام لكم ايمن علينا بلغة الى يوم القيمة ان لكم لما تحكمون
Edip-Layth	68:40 Ask them: "Who of them will make such a claim?"
The Monotheist Group	68:40 Ask them: "Who of them will make such a claim?"
Muhammad Asad	68:40 Ask them which of them is able to vouch for this!
Rashad Khalifa	68:40 Ask them, "Who guarantees this for you?"
Shabbir Ahmed	68:40 Ask them which of them guarantees it.
Transliteration	68:40 Salhum ayyuhum bi th alika zaAAeem un
A	68:40 سلهم ايهم بذلك زعيم
Edip-Layth	68:41 Or do they have partners? Then let them bring their partners, if they are truthful. ²
The Monotheist Group	68:41 Or do they have partners? Then let them bring their partners, if they are truthful.
Muhammad Asad	68:41 Or have they, perchance, anys ages to support their views? ²⁰ Well, then, if they are sincere in this their claim, let them produce those supporters of theirs
Rashad Khalifa	68:41 Do they have idols? Let their idols help them, if they are truthful.
Shabbir Ahmed	68:41 Do they have 'partners'? Then let them bring their 'partners' if they are truthful.
Transliteration	68:41 Am lahum shurak ao falya/too bishurak a -ihimin k anoo s adiqeena
A	68:41 ام لهم شركاء فليأتوا بشركائهم ان كانوا صدقين
Edip-Layth	68:42 The day will come when they will be exposed, and they will be required to prostrate, but they will be unable to. ³
The Monotheist Group	68:42 The Day will come when they will be exposed, and they will be required to prostrate, but they will be unable to.

Muhammad Asad	68:42 on the Day when man's very being shall be bared to the bone, ²¹ and when they [who now deny the truth] shall be called upon to prostrate themselves [before God], ²² and shall be unable to do so:
Rashad Khalifa	68:42 The day will come when they will be exposed, and they will be required to fall prostrate, but they will be unable to.
Shabbir Ahmed	68:42 On the Day when they are confronted with the stark reality and are summoned to submit, they shall not be able to show sincere submission. ¹⁰
Transliteration	68:42 Yawma yukshafu AAan s aqin wayudAAawnail a a Issujoodi fal a yastaeeAAoona
A	68:42 يوم يكشف عن ساق ويدعون الى السجود فلا يستطيعون
Edip-Layth	68:43 With their eyes subdued, humiliation will cover them. They were invited to prostrate when they were whole and able.
The Monotheist Group	68:43 With their eyes subdued, humiliation will cover them. They were invited to prostrate when they were whole and able.
Muhammad Asad	68:43 downcast will be their eyes, with ignominy overwhelming them - seeing that they had been called upon [in vain] to prostrate themselves [before Him] while they were yet sound [and alive].
Rashad Khalifa	68:43 With their eyes subdued, humiliation will cover them. They were invited to fall prostrate when they were whole and able.
Shabbir Ahmed	68:43 Their eyes drooping, humiliation will overwhelm them. And they had been repeatedly invited to submit when they were able.
Transliteration	68:43 KhashiAAatan absaruhumtarhaquhum thillatun waqad k anoo yudAAawna ilaIssujoodi wahum salimoona
A	68:43 خشعة ابصرهم ترهقهم ذلة وقد كانوا يدعون الى السجود وهم سلمون
Edip-Layth	68:44 Therefore, let Me deal with those who reject this hadith; We will entice them from where they do not perceive.
The Monotheist Group	68:44 Therefore, let Me deal with those who reject this narration; We will entice them from where they do not perceive.
Muhammad Asad	68:44 Hence, leave Me alone with such as give the lie to this tiding. ²³ We shall bring them low, step by step, without their perceiving how it has come about: ²⁴
Rashad Khalifa	68:44 Therefore, let Me deal with those who reject this Hadith; we will lead them on whence they never perceive.
Shabbir Ahmed	68:44 So leave his affair to Me, him who denied this message. We shall lead them step by step to a reprisal from directions they had never conceived. ¹¹
Transliteration	68:44 Fatharnee waman yuka ththibubihatha al hadeethi sanastadrijuhum min haythula yaAAlamoona
A	68:44 فذرني ومن يكذب بهذا الحديث سنستدرجهم من حيث لا يعلمون
Edip-Layth	68:45 I will lead them on; for My scheming is formidable.
The Monotheist Group	68:45 And I will lead them on; for My scheming is formidable.

Muhammad Asad	68:45 for, behold, though I may give them rein for a while, My subtle scheme is exceedingly firm! ²⁵
Rashad Khalifa	68:45 I will give them enough rope; My scheming is formidable.
Shabbir Ahmed	68:45 Though I give them respite, My Plan is unwavering.
Transliteration	68:45 Waomlee lahum inna kaydee mateen un
A	68:45 واملى لهم ان كيدى متين
Edip-Layth	68:46 Or did you ask them for a wage, so they are burdened by the fine?
The Monotheist Group	68:46 Or did you ask them for a wage, so they are burdened by the fine?
Muhammad Asad	68:46 Or is it that [they fear lest] thou ask them for a reward, [O Prophet,] so that they would be burdened with debt [if they listened to thee]?
Rashad Khalifa	68:46 Are you asking them for money, so they are burdened by the fine?
Shabbir Ahmed	68:46 Or is it that you ask them any reward so that they are burdened?
Transliteration	68:46 Am tas-aluhum ajran fahum min maghraminmuthqaloon a
A	68:46 ام تسلمهم اجرا فهم من مغرم مثقلون
Edip-Layth	68:47 Or do they know the future? So they have it recorded?
The Monotheist Group	68:47 Or do they know the future? So they have it recorded?
Muhammad Asad	68:47 Or [do they think] that the hidden reality [of all that exists] is within their grasp, so that [in time] they can write it down? ²⁶
Rashad Khalifa	68:47 Do they know the future? Do they have it recorded?
Shabbir Ahmed	68:47 Or is it that theirs is the future that they have written down?
Transliteration	68:47 Am AAindahumu alghaybu fahum yaktuboon a
A	68:47 ام عندهم الغيب فهم يكتبون
Edip-Layth	The Companion of the Fish 68:48 You shall be patient for the judgment of your Lord. Do not be like the companion of the fish who called out while he was in sorrow. ⁴
The Monotheist Group	68:48 You shall be patient for the judgment of your Lord. And do not be like the companion of the whale who called out while he was in sorrow.
Muhammad Asad	68:48 BEAR THEN with patience thy Sustainer's will and be not like him of the great fish, who cried out [in distress] after having given in to anger. ²⁷
Rashad Khalifa	68:48 You shall steadfastly persevere in carrying out the commands of your Lord. Do not be like (Jonah) who called from inside the fish.
Shabbir Ahmed	68:48 (O Prophet!) Go ahead steadfastly in establishing your Lord's command. And be not like him (Jonah) of the fish who cried out in distress. ¹²
Transliteration	68:48 Faisbir li hukmi rabbikawal a takun ka sahibi al hooti i th n adawahuwa makthoom un
A	68:48 فاصبر لحكم ربك ولا تكن كصاحب الحوت اذ نادى وهو مكظوم

Edip-Layth	68:49 Had it not been for his Lord's grace, he would be ejected to the shore, in disgrace.
The Monotheist Group	68:49 Had it not been for his Lord's grace, he would have remained trapped, while he was to be blamed.
Muhammad Asad	68:49 [And remember:] had not grace from his Sustainer reached him, ²⁸ he would indeed have been cast forth upon that barren shore in a state of disgrace: ²⁹
Rashad Khalifa	68:49 If it were not for his Lord's grace, he would have been ejected into the desert as a sinner.
Shabbir Ahmed	68:49 If it were not for the bliss of his Lord, he would have been cast into the wilderness and in the wilderness of thought. ¹³
Transliteration	68:49 Lawla an tadarakahu niAAamatunmin rabbihi lanubi tha bi alAAaqa-i wahuwa mathmoomun
A	68:49 لولا ان تدرکه نعمة من ربه لنبذ بالعراء وهو مذموم
Edip-Layth	68:50 But his Lord blessed him, and made him righteous.
The Monotheist Group	68:50 But his Lord blessed him, and made him righteous.
Muhammad Asad	68:50 but [as it was,] his Sustainer had elected him and placed him among the righteous.
Rashad Khalifa	68:50 But his Lord blessed him, and made him righteous.
Shabbir Ahmed	68:50 But his Lord elected him and included him among those who worked for reform, and thus, actualized their own 'self'.
Transliteration	68:50 Faijtabahu rabbuhu fajaAAalahumina alssaliheena
A	68:50 فاجتبه ربه فجعله من الصالحين
Edip-Layth	68:51 Those who have rejected almost attack you with their eyes when they hear the reminder, and they say, "He is crazy!"
The Monotheist Group	68:51 And those who have rejected almost attack you with their eyes when they hear the reminder, and they say: "He is crazy!"
Muhammad Asad	68:51 Hence, [be patient,] even though they who are bent on denying the truth would all but kill thee with their eyes whenever they hear this reminder, and [though] they say, "[As for Mubammad,] behold, most surely he is a madman!"
Rashad Khalifa	68:51 Those who disbelieved show their ridicule in their eyes when they hear the message and say, "He is crazy!"
Shabbir Ahmed	68:51 Those who deny the truth, attack you (O Prophet!) with their eyes when they hear the reminder. And they say, "He is a madman."
Transliteration	68:51 Wa-in yak adu alla theenakafaroo layuzliqoonaka bi-ab sarihim lamm a samiAAooalththikra wayaqooloona innahu lamajnoon un
A	68:51 وان يكاد الذين كفروا ليزلقونك بابصرهم لما سمعوا الذكر ويقولون انه لمجنون
Edip-Layth	68:52 It is but a reminder for the worlds.
The Monotheist Group

	68:52 And it is but a reminder for the worlds.
Muhammad Asad	68:52 [Be patient:] for this is nought else but a reminder [from God] to all mankind.
Rashad Khalifa	68:52 It is in fact a message to the world.
Shabbir Ahmed	68:52 Nay, this is no less than a reminder for all peoples (and a giver of eminence to them). 14
Transliteration	68:52 Wama huwa illa thikrun lilAAalameena
A	68:52 وما هو الا ذكر للعلمين

<< Prev 68:1-52 Next >>

Return to top

End Notes

Edip-Layth - Quran: A Reformist Translation

Edip-Layth - End Note 1 (68:1)

N50. This letter/number plays an important role in the mathematical system of the Quran based on code 19. For the meaning of this letter, see 74:1- 56; 1:1; 2:1; 13:38; 27:82; 38:1-8; 40:28-38; 46:10; 72:28. Ibn Kathir is a popular commentary of the Quran, which is respected because of its reliance on hadith to "explain" verses of the Quran. Ibn Kathir (d. 1372), in the classic commentary carrying his name, makes the following remarks on verses 2:29 and 68:1. For this commentary, he relies mainly on a hadith from Abu Dawud (d. 888), one of the so-called authentic Sunni holy hadith books: Ibn Abbas told all of you by Wasil b. Abd al-Ala al- Asadi- Muhammad b. Fudayl- al-Amash- abu Zabyan- ibn Abbas: the first thing God created is the pen. God then said to it: write!, Whereupon the pen asked: what shall I write, my lord! God replied: write what is predestined! He continued: and the pen proceeded to (write) whatever is predestined and gong to be to the coming of the hour. God then lifted up the water vapor and split the heavens off from it. Then God created the fish (nun), and the earth was spread out upon its back. The fish became agitated, with the result that the earth was shaken up. It was steadied by means of the mountains, for they indeed proudly (tower) over the earth. After learning the intellectual level of the "believers," collectors, narrators, and commentators of the above hadith, such as Abu Dawud (d. 888), al-Tabari (d. 1516), and Ibn al-Baz (1995), it becomes clear why Muhammad would utter the words in 25:30. See 21:33; 27:88; 36:40; 39:5; 79:30.

Edip-Layth - End Note 2 (68:41)

See 42:21; 9:31; 6:112-116,145-150.

Edip-Layth - End Note 3 (68:42)

Commentaries relying heavily on hadith have distorted the meaning of this verse. According to a hadith reported by Bukhari thrice, in order to prove His identity, God will uncover his leg showing it to the prophets!

Edip-Layth - End Note 4 (68:48)

Instead of using the proper name of the prophet, Jonah (Yunus), this verse uses sahib ul-hut, that is, the Companion of the Fish. Thus, our attention is pulled to the letter N. For other examples, see 21:87; 50:13; 3:96; 7:69.

Muhammad Asad - The Message Of Quran

Muhammad Asad - End Note 1 (68:1)

Chronologically, this is the first appearance of any of the "disjointed" [i.e., single] letters (al-muqatta'at) which precede a number of the surahs of the Qur'an: for the various theories relating to these letters, see Appendix II. The supposition of some of the early commentators (extensively quoted by Tabari) that the letter n, pronounced nun, represents here an abbreviation of the identically-pronounced noun which signifies both "great fish" and "inkwell" has been convincingly rejected by some of the most outstanding authorities (e.g., Zamakhshari and Razi) on grammatical grounds.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 2 (68:1)

For the meaning of the adjectival particle wa at the beginning of this sentence, see first half of note 23 on 74:32. The mention of "the pen" is meant to recall the earliest Qur'anic revelation, namely, the first five verses of surah 96 ("The Germ-Cell"), and thus to stress the fact of Muhammad's prophethood. As regards the symbolic significance of the concept of "the pen", see 96:3-5 and the corresponding note 3.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 3 (68:2)

This is an allusion to the taunt with which most of Muhammad's contemporaries greeted the beginning of his preaching, and with which they continued to deride him for many years. In its wider sense, the above passage relates - as is so often the case in the Qur'an - not merely to the Prophet but also to all who followed or will follow him: in this particular instance, to all who base their moral valuations on their belief in God and in life after death.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 4 (68:4)

The term khuluq, rendered by me as "way of life", describes a person's "character", "innate disposition" or "nature" in the widest sense of these concepts, as well as "habitual behaviour" which becomes, as it were, one's "second nature" (Taj al-'Arus). My identification of khuluq with "way of life" is based on the explanation of the above verse by Abd Allah ibn Abbas (as quoted by Tabari), stating that this term is here synonymous with din: and we must remember that one of the primary significances of the latter term is "a way [or "manner"] of behaviour" or "of acting" (Qamus). More over, we have several well-authenticated Traditions according to which Muhammad's widow A'ishah, speaking of the Prophet many years after his death, repeatedly stressed that "his way of life (khuluq) was the Qur'an." (Muslim, Tabari and Hakim, on the authority of Sa'id Ibn Hisham; Ibn Hanbal, Abu Da'ud and Nasa'i, on the authority of Al-Hasan al-Basri; Tabari, on the authority of Qatadah and Jubayr ibn Nufayl; and several other compilations).

Muhammad Asad - End Note 5 (68:9)

I.e., "they would like thee to be conciliatory in the matter of ethical principles and moral valuations, whereupon they would reciprocate and desist from actively opposing thee"

Muhammad Asad - End Note 6 (68:10)

Lit., "And". The subsequently enumerated types of moral deficiency are, of course, mentioned only as examples of the type of man to whose likes or dislikes no consideration whatever should be shown.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 7 (68:13)

The term utul - derived from the verb atala, "he dragged [someone or something] in a rough and cruel manner" - is used to describe a person combining within himself the attributes of cruelty and greed; hence the composite rendering adopted by me.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 8 (68:13)

The commentators give the most divergent interpretations to the term zanim, which is evidently derived from the noun zanamah, denoting either of the two wattles, or fleshy skin protuberances, hanging below the ears of a goat. Since these wattles do not seem to have any physiological function, the term zanim has come to signify "someone [or "something"] not needed" (Taj al-'Arus): in other words, redundant or useless. It is, therefore, logical to assume that in the above context this term describes a person who is entirely useless in the social sense.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 9 (68:15)

The term banun (lit., "children" or "sons") is often used in the Qur'an metonymically, denoting "popular support" or "many adherents"; in conjunction with the term mal ("worldly goods") it is meant to illustrate a certain mentality which attributes a pseudo-religious significance to wealth and influence, and regards these visible signs of worldly success as a post-factum evidence of the "righteousness" of the person concerned and, hence, of his not being in need of further guidance.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 10 (68:16)

Lit., "We shall brand him on the snout" (khurtum). All commentators point out that this, idiomatic phrase has a strictly metaphorical meaning, namely, "We shall stigmatize him with indelible disgrace" (cf. Lane II, 724, quoting both Raghīb and Taj al-'Arus).

Muhammad Asad - End Note 11 (68:17)

I.e., by bestowing on them affluence out of all proportion to their moral deserts.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 12 (68:18)

I.e., they resolved upon their objective without the reservation, "if God so will"; which points to the first lesson to be derived from this parable, as well as to its connection with the rhetorical question in verses 14-15 above.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 13 (68:24)

Ever since Biblical times it has been understood that the poor have a right to a share in the harvest of the fields and gardens owned by their more fortunate fellow-men (cf. 6:141 - "give [unto the poor] their due on harvest-day"). The determination of the "owners of the garden" to deprive the poor of this right is the second type of sin to which the above parable points: and inasmuch as it is a social sin, it connects with verses 10-13.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 14 (68:28)

This is obviously a reference to their failure to realize that nothing can come about unless the Almighty so wills (verse 18).

Muhammad Asad - End Note 15 (68:32)

Namely, His forgiveness.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 16 (68:33)

This connects with the first clause of verse 17 above, which, in its turn, contains an allusion to the mentality spoken of in verses 14-15.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 17 (68:35)

This is the earliest occurrence of the term muslimun (sing. muslim) in the history of Qur'anic revelation. Throughout this work, I have translated the terms muslim and islam in accordance with their original connotations, namely, "one who surrenders [or "has surrendered"] himself to God", and "man's self-surrender to God"; the same holds good of all forms of the verb aslama occurring in the Qur'an. It should be borne in mind that the "institutionalized" use of these terms - that is, their exclusive application to the followers of the Prophet Muhammad - represents a definitely post-Qur'anic development and, hence, must be avoided in a translation of the Qur'an.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 18 (68:36)

Sc., "O you sinners".

Muhammad Asad - End Note 19 (68:38)

Lit., "so that in it you [may] have all that you choose [to have]" - i.e., a moral justification of the claim that whatever is considered "expedient" is eo ipso right.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 20 (68:41)

Lit., "Or have they any associates?" - i.e., wise people ('uqala) who would share their views and their way of life (Zamakhshari and Razi). Accordingly, the expression shuraka'uhum in the next sentence has been rendered as "those supporters of theirs".

Muhammad Asad - End Note 21 (68:42)

Lit., "when the shin[-bone] shall be bared": i.e., when man's innermost thoughts, feelings and motivations will be laid bare. The implication is that their erstwhile claim that whatever is "expedient" is morally justifiable (see note 19 above), shall be revealed in all its nakedness - namely, as something indefensible and spiritually destructive.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 22 (68:42)

I.e., willingly, gladly humbling themselves before Him.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 23 (68:44)

I.e., to divine revelation in general, and to the tiding of resurrection and judgment, in particular - the implication being that God alone has the right to decide whether or how to chastise them.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 24 (68:44)

Lit., "without their knowing whence [it comes]". The above sentence, as well as the next, (verse 45), are found in exactly the same formulation in 7:182-183

Muhammad Asad - End Note 25 (68:45)

The term "subtle scheme" (kayd) evidently circumscribes here God's unfathomable plan of creation of which man can glimpse only isolated fragments and never the totality: a plan in which every thing and happening has a definite function, and nothing is accidental. (See in this connection note 11 on 10:5 - "None of this has God created without [an inner] truth".) Indirectly, the above passage alludes to the question as to the reason why God allows so many evil persons to enjoy their lives to the full, while so many of the righteous are allowed to suffer: the answer being that during his life in this world man cannot really understand where apparent happiness and unhappiness ultimately lead to, and what role they play in God's "subtle scheme" of creation.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 26 (68:47)

Sc., "and that, therefore, they need not listen to divine revelation." For the real significance of the term al-ghayb - of which the above is undoubtedly the earliest instance in the chronology of Qur'anic revelation - see surah 2, note 3. Its use in the above context is meant to elucidate and further develop the idea already touched upon in 96:6 - "man becomes grossly overweening whenever he believes himself to be self-sufficient". More particularly, the present passage points to the fallacy of the arrogant belief that the solution of all the mysteries of the universe is "just around the corner" and that man-centred science - epitomized in the reference to its being "written down" - can and will teach its adepts how to "conquer nature" and to attain to what they regard as the good life.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 27 (68:48)

This is a reference to the Prophet Jonah - see 21:87 and the corresponding notes 82 and 83. As mentioned in 37:140, "he fled like a runaway slave" from the task with which he had been entrusted by God, because his people did not all at once accept his preaching as valid: and so Muhammad is exhorted not to give in to despair or anger at the opposition shown to him by most of his contemporaries in Mecca, but to persevere in his prophetic mission.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 28 (68:49)

Cf. 37:143 - "had he not been of those who [even in the deep darkness of their distress are able to] extol God's limitless glory": i.e., who always remember God and pray for His forgiveness.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 29 (68:49)

Lit., "while he was still blameworthy", i.e., burdened with sin and unredeemed by repentance: implying that but for God's grace he would have died as a sinner.

Rashad Khalifa - The Final Testament

Rashad Khalifa - End Note 1 (68:1)

` `NuN" is unique among the Quran's miraculous initials. See Appendix 1.

Shabbir Ahmed -

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 1 (68:6)

Superb knowledge and sublime character can only indicate a great man

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 2 (68:9)

and compromise on a middle grounds between truth and falsehood. 10:15, 11:113, 17:74

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 3 (68:10)

Repeated swearing hurts the credibility of a person

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 4 (68:13)

Zanama = Folds of skin beneath the ears of a goat that serve no known practical purpose. Zaneem = A man who makes himself worthless to the society

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 5 (68:16)

'Branding the snout' alludes to bringing to visible disgrace to a person who chooses to live at the subhuman level

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 6 (68:17)

18:32-44

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 7 (68:28)

Sabh = Swim in strides = Work hard = Labor for a noble cause

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 8 (68:29)

Refusing the Divinely ordained right of the needy

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 9 (68:32)

This was an example that only the System of Life based on collective good shall endure. God does not punish people out of rage, and reward and punishment are built-in our own actions

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 10 (68:42)

It will be too late

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 11 (68:44)

39:23

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 12 (68:48)

21:87, 37:139

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 13 (68:49)

37:146

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 14 (68:52)

Zikr = Remembrance = Reminder = Giver of eminence

Best viewed using your own brain

Tested on 1024x768 resolution with  FIREFOX 2

Kitabun Marqum v0.6.7 - Kitabun Marqum - Quran Research Platform by QuraniX Team Copyright © 2002-2011 All rights reserved.
Copyrights of all translations belong to their respective authors.

49:6 O you who believe, if a wicked person brings any news to you, you shall first investigate, lest you commit injustice towards some people, out of ignorance, then become sorry and remorseful for what you have done.

Rashad Khalifa (The Final Testament)

 Translations ▼

 Chapter/Verse ▼

 Refresh

 Search

<< Prev 69:1-52 Next >>

Edip-Layth	In the name of God, the Gracious, the Compassionate. 69:1 Reality!
The Monotheist Group	In the name of God, the Almighty, the Merciful. 69:1 The reality.
Muhammad Asad	In the name of God, The Most Gracious, The Dispenser of Grace: 69:1 OH, THE LAYING-BARE of the truth! ¹
Rashad Khalifa	In the name of GOD, Most Gracious, Most Merciful. 69:1 The incontestable (event).
Shabbir Ahmed	BISMILLAH-IR-RAHMAN-IR-RAHEEM With the Glorious Name of God, the Ultimate Source of Instant Beneficence and Eternal mercy Who encompasses the entire Universe, nourishing and taking care of all things for what they are meant to be; just as a mother's womb nourishes the embryo to completion without any returns. 69:1 The Inevitable Reality.
Transliteration	Bismi All a hi al r rah m ani al r rah e emi 69:1 Al h aq q at u
A	بسم الله الرحمن الرحيم 69:1 الحاقة
Edip-Layth	69:2 What is the reality?
The Monotheist Group	69:2 What is the reality?
Muhammad Asad	69:2 How awesome that laying-bare of the truth!

Rashad Khalifa	69:2 What an incontestable (event)!
Shabbir Ahmed	69:2 How awesome is the Inevitable Reality?
Transliteration	69:2 Ma al h aqqu t u
A	69:2 ما الحاقة
Edip-Layth	69:3 Do you know what the reality is?
The Monotheist Group	69:3 Absolutely, do you know what is the reality?
Muhammad Asad	69:3 And what could make thee conceive what that laying-bare of the truth will be? ²
Rashad Khalifa	69:3 It is truly incontestable.
Shabbir Ahmed	69:3 Ah, what can give you an idea what the Inevitable Reality is!
Transliteration	69:3 Wama adra k a m a al h aqqu t u
A	69:3 وما ادرك ما الحاقة
Edip-Layth	69:4 Thamud and Aad rejected the Shocker.
The Monotheist Group	69:4 Thamud and 'Aad disbelieved in the Shocker.
Muhammad Asad	69:4 THE LIE gave [the tribes of] Thamud and 'Ad to [all tidings of] that sudden calamity! ³
Rashad Khalifa	69:4 Thamoud and `Aad disbelieved in the Shocker.
Shabbir Ahmed	69:4 Thamud and 'Aad denied the day of Catastrophe (Resurrection, 101:1).
Transliteration	69:4 Kath h abat thamoodu waAA a dun bi al qariAA a ti
A	69:4 كذبت ثمود وعاد بالقارعة
Edip-Layth	69:5 As for Thamud, they were annihilated by the devastation.
The Monotheist Group	69:5 As for Thamud, they were annihilated by the devastation.
Muhammad Asad	69:5 Now as for the Thamud - they were destroyed by a violent upheaval [of the earth]; ⁴
Rashad Khalifa	69:5 As for Thamoud, they were annihilated by the devastating (quake).
Shabbir Ahmed	69:5 As for Thamud, they were destroyed by a thunderous blast.
Transliteration	69:5 Faamma m a thamoodu faohlikoo bi al tt a ghiyati
A	69:5 فاما ثمود فاهلكوا بالطاغية
Edip-Layth	69:6 As for Aad, they were annihilated by a furious violent wind.
The Monotheist Group	69:6 And as for 'Aad, they were annihilated by a furious violent wind.
Muhammad Asad	69:6 and as for the 'Ad - they were destroyed by a storm wind furiously raging,
Rashad Khalifa	69:6 As for `Aad, they were annihilated by a persistent, violent storm.
Shabbir Ahmed	69:6 And as for 'Aad, they were annihilated with raging hurricane winds.

Transliteration	69:6 Waamma AAadun faohlikoo biree hīnsarsarin AAatīyatīn
A	69:6 واما عاد فاهلكوا بریح صرصر عاتية
Edip-Layth	69:7 He unleashed it upon them for seven nights and eight days, in succession. You could see the people destroyed in it, as if they were decayed palm trunks. ¹
The Monotheist Group	69:7 He unleashed it upon them for seven nights and eight days, in succession. You could see the people destroyed in it, as if they are decayed palm trunks.
Muhammad Asad	69:7 which He willed against them for seven nights and eight days without cease, so that in the end thou couldst see those people laid low [in death], as though they were so many [uprooted] trunks of hollow palm trees:
Rashad Khalifa	69:7 He unleashed it upon them for seven nights and eight days, violently. You could see the people tossed around like decayed palm trunks.
Shabbir Ahmed	69:7 Which He made it rage upon them for seven long nights and eight long days. Such that you could imagine those people as uprooted hollow palm-trunks. ¹
Transliteration	69:7 Sakhkharahā AAalayhim sabAAa lay alīnwathamanīyata ayyāmin husooman fatarāalqawma feeḥa sarAAa kaannahum aAAajazunakhlin khawīyatūn
A	69:7 سخرها عليهم سبع ليال وثمانية ايام حسوما فترى القوم فيها صرعى كأنهم اعجاز نخل خاوية
Edip-Layth	69:8 Do you see any legacy for them?
The Monotheist Group	69:8 Do you see any legacy for them?
Muhammad Asad	69:8 and dost thou now see any remnant of them?
Rashad Khalifa	69:8 Can you find any trace of them?
Shabbir Ahmed	69:8 Can you see any remnants of them?
Transliteration	69:8 Fahal tarā lahum min baqīyatīn
A	69:8 فهل ترى لهم من باقية
Edip-Layth	69:9 And Pharaoh, and those before him, and the sinners, came with wickedness.
The Monotheist Group	69:9 And Pharaoh, and those before him, and the sinners, came with wickedness.
Muhammad Asad	69:9 And there was Pharaoh, too, and [many of] those who lived before him, and the cities that were overthrown ⁵ - [all of them] indulged in sin upon sin
Rashad Khalifa	69:9 Pharaoh, others before him, and the sinners (of Sodom) were wicked.
Shabbir Ahmed	69:9 And there came Pharaoh, and many others before him, and the townships that were overthrown. All of them committed fault upon fault.
Transliteration	69:9 Wajāa firAAawnu waman qablahu wa almu/tafikātubīalkhatī-ati
A	69:9 وجاء فرعون ومن قبله والموتفكت بالخاطئة
Edip-Layth	69:10 They disobeyed the messenger of their Lord. So He took them with a devastating requital.

The Monotheist Group	69:10 They disobeyed the messenger of their Lord. So He took them with a devastating requital.
Muhammad Asad	69:10 and rebelled against their Sustainer's apostles: and so He took them to task with a punishing grasp exceedingly severe!
Rashad Khalifa	69:10 They disobeyed the messenger of their Lord. Consequently, He requited them a devastating requital.
Shabbir Ahmed	69:10 For, they disobeyed the respective messenger of their Lord. Consequently, He grasped them with a firm grasp.
Transliteration	69:10 FaAAaṣaw rasoola rabbihim faakhathahumakhṭathan rabīyatan
A	69:10 فعصوا رسول ربهم فآخذهم اخذة رابية
Edip-Layth	69:11 When the water flooded, We carried you on the vessel.
The Monotheist Group	69:11 And when the water flooded, We carried you on the vessel.
Muhammad Asad	69:11 [And] behold: when the waters [of Noah's flood] burst beyond all limits, it was We who caused you ⁶ to be borne [to safety] in that floating ark,
Rashad Khalifa	69:11 The flood was devastating, so we carried you on the floating (ark).
Shabbir Ahmed	69:11 Behold! When waters topped the levels, We carried you upon the watercraft. ²
Transliteration	69:11 Inna lamma taghaalmao hamalnaḡum fee aljariyati
A	69:11 انا لما طغا الماء حملنكم فى الجارية
Edip-Layth	69:12 That We would make it as a reminder for you, and so that any listening ear may understand.
The Monotheist Group	69:12 That We would make it as a reminder for you, and so that any listening ear may understand.
Muhammad Asad	69:12 so that We might make all this ⁷ a [lasting] reminder to you all, and that every wide-awake ear might consciously take it in.
Rashad Khalifa	69:12 We rendered it a lesson for you, that any listening ear may understand.
Shabbir Ahmed	69:12 (These events are conveyed to you) so that We might make it a lesson for you, and that any attentive ear might take it to memory.
Transliteration	69:12 LinajAAalaha lakum tathkiratanwataAAiyaha oḥunun waAAiyatun
A	69:12 لنجعلها لكم تذكرة وتعيها اذن وعية
Edip-Layth	The End 69:13 When the horn is blown once.
The Monotheist Group	69:13 And when the horn is blown once.
Muhammad Asad	69:13 Hence, [bethink yourselves of the Last Hour,] when the trumpet [of judgment] shall be sounded with a single blast,
Rashad Khalifa	69:13 When the horn is blown once.
Shabbir Ahmed	69:13 So, think when the Trumpet is sounded with a single blast.

Transliteration	69:13 Fa-i tha nufikha fee al ssoorina fkhatur wa hida tun
A	69:13 فاذا نفخ فى الصور نفخة وحدة
Edip-Layth	69:14 The earth and the mountains will be removed from their place and crushed with a single crush.
The Monotheist Group	69:14 And the Earth and the mountains will be removed from their place and crushed with a single crush.
Muhammad Asad	69:14 and the earth and the mountains shall be lifted up and crushed with a single stroke!
Rashad Khalifa	69:14 The earth and the mountains will be carried off and crushed; utterly crushed.
Shabbir Ahmed	69:14 And the earth is moved and the mountains struck with a stroke.
Transliteration	69:14 Wa hu milati al-ar du waal jiba lufadukkata dakkatan wa hida tan
A	69:14 وحملت الارض والجبال فدكتا دكة وحدة
Edip-Layth	69:15 On that day the unavoidable event will come to pass.
The Monotheist Group	69:15 On that Day the unavoidable event will come to pass.
Muhammad Asad	69:15 And so, that which must come to pass ⁸ will on that day have come to pass;
Rashad Khalifa	69:15 That is the day when the inevitable event will come to pass.
Shabbir Ahmed	69:15 Then, on that Day when the Episode will come to pass.
Transliteration	69:15 Fayawma-i thin waqaAAati alwa qi AAatu
A	69:15 فيومئذ وقعت الواقعة
Edip-Layth	69:16 The heavens will be torn, and on that day it will be flimsy.
The Monotheist Group	69:16 And the heavens will be torn, and on that Day it will be flimsy.
Muhammad Asad	69:16 and the sky will be rent asunder ⁹ - for, frail will it have become on that Day - ;
Rashad Khalifa	69:16 The heaven will crack, and fall apart.
Shabbir Ahmed	69:16 And when the sky will be rent asunder, so frail will it be that Day.
Transliteration	69:16 Wainshaqqati alssam a ofahiya yawma-i thin wa hiya tun
A	69:16 وانشقت السماء فهى يومئذ واهية
Edip-Layth	69:17 The angels will be on its borders, and the throne of your Lord will be carried above them by eight. ²
The Monotheist Group	69:17 And the angels will be on its borders, and the throne of your Lord will be carried above them by eight.
Muhammad Asad	69:17 and the angels [will appear] at its ends, ¹⁰ and, above them, eight will bear aloft on that Day the throne of thy Sustainer's almightiness ¹¹

Rashad Khalifa	69:17 The angels will be all around, and Your Lord's dominion will then encompass eight (universes).
Shabbir Ahmed	69:17 And the Divine laws in nature will rally around and your Lord's Supreme Control will reign over eight Universes that Day. ³
Transliteration	69:17 Waal ^a malaku AAa ^a ar ^j a-ih ^a wayah ^m ilu AAarsha rabbika fawqahum yawma-ith ⁱ n tham ^a niyatun
A	69:17 والملك على أرجائها ويحمل عرش ربك فوقهم يومئذ ثمانية
Edip-Layth	69:18 On that day, you will be exposed, nothing from you can be hidden.
The Monotheist Group	69:18 On that Day, you will be exposed, nothing from you can be hidden.
Muhammad Asad	69:18 On that Day you shall be brought to judgment: not [even] the most hidden of your deeds will remain hidden.
Rashad Khalifa	69:18 On that day, you will be exposed, nothing of you can be hidden.
Shabbir Ahmed	69:18 On that Day you will be exposed; not a secret of you will remain hidden.
Transliteration	69:18 Yawma-ith ⁱ n tuAAar ^a doona la ^a takhf ^a minkum kh ^a fiyatun
A	69:18 يومئذ تعرضون لا تخفى منكم خافية
Edip-Layth	69:19 As for the one who is given his record in his right, he will say, "Here, come and read my record!"
The Monotheist Group	69:19 As for the one who is given his record in his right, he will say: "Here, come and read my record!"
Muhammad Asad	69:19 Now as for him whose record shall be placed in his right hand, ¹² he will exclaim: "Come you all!" Read this my record!
Rashad Khalifa	The Believers 69:19 As for the one who receives his record with his right hand, he will say, "Come read my record."
Shabbir Ahmed	69:19 Then he who is given his record in his right hand, will say, "Come all of you around! Read this my record."
Transliteration	69:19 Faamma ^a man ootiya kit ^a abahubiyameenihi fayaqoolu h ^a omu iqraoo kit ^a biyah
A	69:19 فاما من اوتى كتبه بيمينه فيقول هاوم اقرعوا كتبهم
Edip-Layth	69:20 "I knew that I was going to be held accountable."
The Monotheist Group	69:20 "I knew that I was going to be held accountable."
Muhammad Asad	69:20 Behold, I did know that [one day] I would have to face my account! ¹³
Rashad Khalifa	69:20 "I did believe that I was going to be held accountable."
Shabbir Ahmed	69:20 I did really think that my account would eventually reach me."
Transliteration	69:20 Innee th anantu annee mula ^a qin ^h is ^a biyah
A	69:20 انى ظننت انى ملق حسابيه

Edip-Layth	69:21 So he shall be in a life, well-pleasing.
The Monotheist Group	69:21 So he shall be in a life, well-pleasing.
Muhammad Asad	69:21 And so he will find himself in a happy state of life,
Rashad Khalifa	69:21 He has deserved a happy life.
Shabbir Ahmed	69:21 Then he will be in a state of bliss.
Transliteration	69:21 Fahuwa fee AAeeshatin r a diyatin
A	69:21 فهو فى عيشة راضية
Edip-Layth	69:22 In a lofty Paradise.
The Monotheist Group	69:22 In a lofty Paradise.
Muhammad Asad	69:22 in a lofty paradise,
Rashad Khalifa	69:22 In an exalted Paradise.
Shabbir Ahmed	69:22 In a lofty Garden.
Transliteration	69:22 Fee jannatin AA a liyatin
A	69:22 فى جنة عالية
Edip-Layth	69:23 Its fruits are within reach.
The Monotheist Group	69:23 Its fruits are within reach.
Muhammad Asad	69:23 with its fruits within easy reach.
Rashad Khalifa	69:23 Its fruits are within reach.
Shabbir Ahmed	69:23 With its fruit at hand.
Transliteration	69:23 Quoofu h a d a niyatun
A	69:23 قطوفها دانية
Edip-Layth	69:24 "Eat and drink merrily in return for your works in days past."
The Monotheist Group	69:24 "Eat and drink merrily in return for your works in days past."
Muhammad Asad	69:24 [And all who are thus blest will be told:] "Eat and drink with good cheer in return for all [the good deeds] that you have sent ahead in days gone by!"
Rashad Khalifa	69:24 Eat and drink happily in return for your works in days past.
Shabbir Ahmed	69:24 Eat and drink happily for what you did in the days past.
Transliteration	69:24 Kuloo waishraboo hanee-an bim a slaftum fee al-ayy a mi alk h aliyati
A	69:24 كلوا واشربوا هنيا بما اسلفتم فى الايام الخالية
Edip-Layth	69:25 As for he who is given his record in his left, he will say, "Oh, I wish I never received my record,"
The Monotheist Group	69:25 As for him who is given his record in his left, he will say: "Oh, I wish I never received my record,"

Muhammad Asad	69:25 But as for him whose record shall be placed in his left hand, ¹⁴ he will exclaim: "Oh, would that I had never been shown this my record,
Rashad Khalifa	The Disbelievers 69:25 As for him who is given his record in his left hand, he will say, "Oh, I wish I never received my record.
Shabbir Ahmed	69:25 But as for him who is given his record in his left hand, He will say, "Oh, I wish I was never given my record.
Transliteration	69:25 Waamma man ootiya kit abahubishimalihi fayaqoolu y a laytanee lam oota kitabiyah
A	69:25 واما من اوتى كتبه بشماله فيقول يليتني لم اوت كتبه
Edip-Layth	69:26 "That I never knew my account,"
The Monotheist Group	69:26 "And that I never knew my account,"
Muhammad Asad	69:26 and neither known this my account!
Rashad Khalifa	69:26 "I wish I never knew my account.
Shabbir Ahmed	69:26 And knew not my account.
Transliteration	69:26 Walam adri m a hisabiyah
A	69:26 ولم ادر ما حسابيه
Edip-Layth	69:27 "I wish the end had been final,"
The Monotheist Group	69:27 "I wish the end had been final,"
Muhammad Asad	69:27 Oh, would that this [death of mine] had been the end of me!
Rashad Khalifa	69:27 "I wish my death was eternal.
Shabbir Ahmed	69:27 Oh, could this be the end of me!
Transliteration	69:27 Ya laytaha kanati alqadiyat
A	69:27 يليتها كانت القاضية
Edip-Layth	69:28 "My money cannot help me,"
The Monotheist Group	69:28 "My money cannot help me,"
Muhammad Asad	69:28 Of no avail to me is all that I have [ever] possessed,
Rashad Khalifa	69:28 "My money cannot help me.
Shabbir Ahmed	69:28 Of no help is my wealth.
Transliteration	69:28 Ma aghna AAanee m aliyah
A	69:28 ما اغنى عنى ماله
Edip-Layth	69:29 "All my power is gone."
The Monotheist Group	69:29 "All my power is gone."
Muhammad Asad	69:29 [and] all my power of argument has died away from me!" ¹⁵

Rashad Khalifa	69:29 "All my power is gone."
Shabbir Ahmed	69:29 Vanquished is all my control."
Transliteration	69:29 Halaka AAannee sulṭaniyah
A	69:29 هلك عني سلطانيه
Edip-Layth	69:30 Take him and shackle him.
The Monotheist Group	69:30 Take him and shackle him.
Muhammad Asad	69:30 Thereupon the command will go forth:] "Lay hold of him, and shackle him, ¹⁶
Rashad Khalifa	69:30 Take him and shackle him.
Shabbir Ahmed	69:30 Take him and shackle him! ⁴
Transliteration	69:30 Khuthoohu faghulloohu
A	69:30 خذوه فغلوه
Edip-Layth	69:31 Then to hell cast him.
The Monotheist Group	69:31 Then to Hell cast him.
Muhammad Asad	69:31 and then let him enter hell,
Rashad Khalifa	69:31 Burn him in Hell.
Shabbir Ahmed	69:31 And then hurl him in the blazing flame of his deeds.
Transliteration	69:31 Thumma aljaheema ṣalloohu
A	69:31 ثم الجحيم صلوه
Edip-Layth	69:32 Then, in a chain that is the length of seventy hands, tie him up.
The Monotheist Group	69:32 Then, in a chain that is the length of seventy arms, tie him up.
Muhammad Asad	69:32 and then thrust him into a chain [of other sinners like him ¹⁷ - a chain] the length whereof is seventy cubits: ¹⁸
Rashad Khalifa	69:32 In a chain that is seventy arms long, tie him up.
Shabbir Ahmed	69:32 And then make him a link in the very long chain of people like him. ⁵
Transliteration	69:32 Thumma fee silsilatin tharAAuhasabAAoona thiraAAan faoslukoohu
A	69:32 ثم في سلسلة ذرعا سبعون ذراعا فاسلكوه
Edip-Layth	69:33 For he did not acknowledge God, the Great.
The Monotheist Group	69:33 For he did not believe in God, the Great.
Muhammad Asad	69:33 for, behold, he did not believe in God, the Tremendous,
Rashad Khalifa	69:33 For he did not believe in GOD, Most Great.
Shabbir Ahmed	69:33 This was one who did not believe in God, the Tremendous.

Transliteration	69:33 Innahu kana la yu/minu biAlla h ialAAa th eeemi
A	69:33 انه كان لا يؤمن بالله العظيم
Edip-Layth	69:34 Nor did he advocate the feeding of the poor.
The Monotheist Group	69:34 Nor did he advocate the feeding of the poor.
Muhammad Asad	69:34 and did not feel any urge ¹⁹ to feed the needy:
Rashad Khalifa	69:34 Nor did he advocate the feeding of the poor.
Shabbir Ahmed	69:34 And arranged not to feed the needy.
Transliteration	69:34 Wala ya h uddu AAa l ataAAa mi almiskeeni
A	69:34 ولا يحض على طعام المسكين
Edip-Layth	69:35 Consequently, he has no friend here today.
The Monotheist Group	69:35 Consequently, he has no friend here today.
Muhammad Asad	69:35 and so, no friend has here today,
Rashad Khalifa	69:35 Consequently, he has no friend here.
Shabbir Ahmed	69:35 And so, he has no friend here today.
Transliteration	69:35 Falaysa lahu alyawma h a huna hameemu n
A	69:35 فليس له اليوم ههنا حميم
Edip-Layth	69:36 Nor any food, except for pollutants.
The Monotheist Group	69:36 Nor any food, except from pollutants.
Muhammad Asad	69:36 nor any food save the filth
Rashad Khalifa	69:36 Nor any food, except the bitter variety.
Shabbir Ahmed	69:36 Nor any food but the discarded shreds he gave to others.
Transliteration	69:36 Wala taAAa m un illa m in ghisleeni n
A	69:36 ولا طعام الا من غسلين
Edip-Layth	69:37 Food for the sinners.
The Monotheist Group	69:37 Food for the sinners.
Muhammad Asad	69:37 which none but the sinners eat!" ²⁰
Rashad Khalifa	69:37 Food for the sinners.
Shabbir Ahmed	69:37 Which none eat but those who faulted through life.
Transliteration	69:37 La ya/kuluhu illa alkh a ti-oona
A	69:37 لا يأكله الا الخطون
Edip-Layth	69:38 I swear by what you see. ³

The Monotheist Group	69:38 So I do swear by what you see.
Muhammad Asad	69:38 BUT NAY! I call to witness an that you can see,
Rashad Khalifa	69:38 I swear by what you see.
Shabbir Ahmed	69:38 But nay, I call to witness all that you see 6
Transliteration	69:38 Fala qsimu bima tubsiroona
A	69:38 فلا أقسم بما تبصرون
Edip-Layth	69:39 What you do not see.
The Monotheist Group	69:39 And what you do not see.
Muhammad Asad	69:39 as well as all that you cannot see! 21
Rashad Khalifa	69:39 And what you do not see.
Shabbir Ahmed	69:39 And all that you see not 7
Transliteration	69:39 Wama la tubsiroona
A	69:39 وما لا تبصرون
Edip-Layth	69:40 This is the utterance of an honorable messenger.
The Monotheist Group	69:40 This is the utterance of an honorable messenger.
Muhammad Asad	69:40 Behold, this [Qur'an] is indeed the [inspired] word of a noble apostle,
Rashad Khalifa	69:40 This is the utterance of an honorable messenger.
Shabbir Ahmed	69:40 Certainly, this is the utterance of a noble messenger. 8
Transliteration	69:40 Innahu laqawlu rasoolin kareem in
A	69:40 انه لقول رسول كريم
Edip-Layth	69:41 It is not the utterance of a poet; rarely do you acknowledge.
The Monotheist Group	69:41 It is not the utterance of a poet; rarely do you believe.
Muhammad Asad	69:41 and is not however little you may [be prepared to] believe it - the word of a poet;
Rashad Khalifa	69:41 Not the utterance of a poet; rarely do you believe.
Shabbir Ahmed	69:41 This is not the utterance of a poet. Seldom do you choose to believe.
Transliteration	69:41 Wama huwa biqawli shaAAairinqaleelan ma tu/minoona
A	69:41 وما هو بقول شاعر قليلا ما تؤمنون
Edip-Layth	69:42 Nor the utterance of a soothsayer; rarely do you take heed.
The Monotheist Group	69:42 Nor the utterance of a soothsayer; rarely do you take heed.
Muhammad Asad	69:42 and neither is it - however little you may [be prepared to] take it to heart - the word of a soothsayer:

Rashad Khalifa	69:42 Nor the utterance of a soothsayer; rarely do you take heed.
Shabbir Ahmed	69:42 Nor is it the word of a soothsayer. Little of your intellect do you bring to use.
Transliteration	69:42 Walā biqawli kaḥinin qaleelanma tathakkaroona
A	69:42 ولا بقول كاهن قليلا ما تذكرون
Edip-Layth	69:43 A revelation from the Lord of the worlds.
The Monotheist Group	69:43 A revelation from the Lord of the worlds.
Muhammad Asad	69:43 [it is] a revelation from the Sustainer of all the worlds.
Rashad Khalifa	69:43 A revelation from the Lord of the universe.
Shabbir Ahmed	69:43 It is a revelation from the Lord of the worlds.
Transliteration	69:43 Tanzeelun min rabbi alAAalameena
A	69:43 تنزيل من رب العلمين
Edip-Layth	A Reminder 69:44 Had he attributed anything falsely to Us.
The Monotheist Group	69:44 And had he attributed anything falsely to Us.
Muhammad Asad	69:44 Now if he [whom We have entrusted with it] had dared to attribute some [of his own] sayings unto Us,
Rashad Khalifa	Muhammad Forbidden from Issuing Any Religious Teachings 69:44 Had he uttered any other teachings.
Shabbir Ahmed	69:44 And if he had ascribed his sayings to Us,
Transliteration	69:44 Walaw taqawwala AAalaynā baAAdaal-aqaweeli
A	69:44 ولو تقول علينا بعض الاقاويل
Edip-Layth	69:45 We would have seized him by the right.
The Monotheist Group	69:45 We would have seized him by the right.
Muhammad Asad	69:45 We would indeed have seized him by his right hand, 22
Rashad Khalifa	69:45 We would have punished him.
Shabbir Ahmed	69:45 We would have taken him by the right hand,
Transliteration	69:45 Laakhatḥna minhu bialyameeni
A	69:45 لاخذنا منه باليمين
Edip-Layth	69:46 Then, We would have severed his life-line.
The Monotheist Group	69:46 Then, We would have severed his life-line.
Muhammad Asad	69:46 and would indeed have cut his life-vein.
Rashad Khalifa	69:46 We would have stopped the revelations to him.

Shabbir Ahmed	69:46 And would have cut off his Aorta. 9
Transliteration	69:46 Thumma laqaṭaAAna minhualwateena
A	69:46 ثم لقطعنا منه الوتين
Edip-Layth	69:47 None of you would be able to prevent it.
The Monotheist Group	69:47 None of you would be able to prevent it.
Muhammad Asad	69:47 and none of you could have saved him!
Rashad Khalifa	69:47 None of you could have helped him.
Shabbir Ahmed	69:47 And none of you could stop Us from doing that.
Transliteration	69:47 Famā minkum min aḥadin AAanhu ḥajizeena
A	69:47 فما منكم من احد عنه حزين
Edip-Layth	69:48 This is a reminder for the righteous.
The Monotheist Group	69:48 And this is a reminder for the righteous.
Muhammad Asad	69:48 And, verily, this [Qur'an] is a reminder to all the God-conscious! 23
Rashad Khalifa	69:48 This is a reminder for the righteous.
Shabbir Ahmed	69:48 But, certainly, it is a reminder and a giver of eminence to those who wish to live upright.
Transliteration	69:48 Wa-innahu lataṭḥkiratun lilmuttaqeena
A	69:48 وانه لتذكرة للمتقين
Edip-Layth	69:49 We know that some of you are deniers.
The Monotheist Group	69:49 And We know that some of you are deniers.
Muhammad Asad	69:49 And, behold, well do We know that among you are such as will give the lie to it:
Rashad Khalifa	69:49 We know; some of you are rejectors.
Shabbir Ahmed	69:49 We know well that among you will be deniers.
Transliteration	69:49 Wa-inna lanaAAlamu anna minkum mukathḥhibeena
A	69:49 وانا لنعلم ان منكم مكذبين
Edip-Layth	69:50 That it is a distress for the ingrates.
The Monotheist Group	69:50 And that it is a distress for the rejecters.
Muhammad Asad	69:50 yet, behold, this [rejection] will indeed become a source of bitter regret for all who deny the truth [of God's revelation]
Rashad Khalifa	69:50 It is but sorrow for the disbelievers.
Shabbir Ahmed	69:50 And this denial will become a source of regret for the rejecters.
Transliteration	69:50 Wa-innahu laḥasratun AAala alkaḥfireena

A	69:50 وانه لحسرة على الكافرين
Edip-Layth	69:51 It is the absolute truth.
The Monotheist Group	69:51 And it is the absolute truth.
Muhammad Asad	69:51 for, verily, it is truth absolute!
Rashad Khalifa	69:51 It is the absolute truth.
Shabbir Ahmed	69:51 Certainly, it is the absolute truth.
Transliteration	69:51 Wa-innahu laḥaqqu alyaqeenī
A	69:51 وانه لحق اليقين
Edip-Layth	69:52 Therefore, you shall glorify the name of your Lord, the Great. ⁴
The Monotheist Group	69:52 Therefore, you shall glorify the name of your Lord, the Great.
Muhammad Asad	69:52 Extol, then the limitless glory of thy Sustainer's mighty name!
Rashad Khalifa	69:52 Therefore, you shall glorify the name of your Lord, Most Great.
Shabbir Ahmed	69:52 Strive to manifest the glory of your Lord's Tremendous Name.
Transliteration	69:52 Fasabbiḥ biismi rabbika alAAaṭḥeemi
A	69:52 فسبح باسم ربك العظيم

<< Prev 69:1-52 Next >>

Return to top

End Notes

Muhammad Asad - The Message Of Quran

Muhammad Asad - End Note 1 (69:1)

I.e., the Day of Resurrection and Judgment, on which man will become fully aware of the quality of his past life and, freed from all self-deception, will see himself as he really was, with the innermost meaning of all his past doings - and thus of his destiny in the hereafter - blindingly revealed. (Cf. 37:19, the last sentence of 39:68, and 50:21-22.)

Muhammad Asad - End Note 2 (69:3)

Implying that this sudden perception of the ultimate reality will be beyond anything that man can anticipate or imagine: hence, no answer is given to the above rhetorical question.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 3 (69:4)

I.e., the Last Hour (see note 1 on 101:1). For particulars of the pre-Islamic tribes of 'Ad and Thamud, see 7:65-79 and the corresponding notes.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 4 (69:5)

Cf. 7:78.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 5 (69:9)

I.e., Sodom and Gomorrah, the cities of Lot's people (see 11:69-83).

Muhammad Asad - End Note 6 (69:11)

I.e., metonymically (in the consensus of all classical commentators), "your ancestors".

Muhammad Asad - End Note 7 (69:12)

Alluding to the punishment of evildoers and the saving grace bestowed upon the righteous.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 8 (69:15)

I.e., the end of the world as we know it, followed by resurrection and the Last Judgment.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 9 (69:16)

The term as-sama' may denote here "the sky" or "skies", i.e., the visible firmament, or "heaven" in its allegorical sense, or the aggregate of cosmic systems comprised in the concept of "the universe" (cf. surah 2, note 20). Its being "rent asunder" is perhaps a metaphor for a total breakdown of the cosmic order.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 10 (69:17)

Or: "at its sides".

Muhammad Asad - End Note 11 (69:17)

Since God is infinite in space as well as in time. it is obvious that His "throne" (arsh) has a purely metaphorical connotation, circumscribing His absolute, unfathomable sway over all that exists or possibly could exist (cf. note 43 on 7:54). Hence, too, the "bearing aloft" of the throne of His almightiness cannot be anything but a metaphor - namely, an allusion to the full manifestation of that almightiness on the Day of Judgment. The Qur'an is silent as to who or what the "eight" are on whom this manifestation rests. Some of the earliest commentators assume that they are eight angels; others, that they are eight ranks of angels; while still others frankly admit that it is impossible to say whether "eight" or "eight thousand" are meant (Al-Hasan al-Basri, as quoted by Zamakhshari). Possibly, we have here an allusion to eight (unspecified) attributes of God or aspects of His creation; but, as the Qur'an states elsewhere, "none save God knows its final meaning" (see 3:7 and the corresponding note 8).

Muhammad Asad - End Note 12 (69:19)

I.e., ",-hose record shows that he was righteous in his life on earth: cf. 17:71, as well as the symbolic expression "those on the right hand" in 74:39. The linguistic origin of the symbolism of "right" and "left" as "righteous" and "unrighteous" is explained in note 3 on 56:8-9.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 13 (69:20)

Implying that he had always been conscious of resurrection and judgment, and had tried to behave accordingly.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 14 (69:25)

Thus signifying that he had been unrighteous in his earthly life, in contrast with those "whose record will be placed in their right hand" (see verse 19 and note 12 above).

Muhammad Asad - End Note 15 (69:29)

The term sultan, which primarily signifies "power" or "authority", has here - as in many other places in the Qur'an - evidently the meaning of "argument", synonymous with hujjah (Ibn Abbas, Ikrimah, Mujahid, Ad-Dahhak, all of them quoted by Tabari): in this case, an argument or arguments against the idea of life after death and, hence, of divine judgment.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 16 (69:30)

For an explanation of the allegory of "shackles", see note 13 on 13:5, note 44 on the last but one sentence of 34:33, and notes 6 and 7 on 36:8.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 17 (69:32)

See 14:49 - "on that Day thou wilt see all who were lost in sin (al-mujrimin) linked together in fetters" - and the corresponding note 64, which explains my above interpolation of the phrase, "of other sinners like him".

Muhammad Asad - End Note 18 (69:32)

I.e., a chain exceedingly long - the number "seventy" being used here metonymically, as often done in classical Arabic, in the sense of "very many" (Zamakhshari); hence "of a measure the length whereof is known only to God" (Tabari; also Al-Hasan, as quoted by Razi).

Muhammad Asad - End Note 19 (69:34)

Lit., "did not urge", i.e., himself.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 20 (69:37)

The noun ghislin, which appears in the Qur'an only in this one instance, has been variously - and very contradictorily - explained by the early commentators. Ibn Abbas, when asked about it, frankly answered, "I do not know what ghislin denotes" (Razi). The term "filth" used by me contains an allusion to the "devouring" of all that is abominable in the spiritual sense: cf. its characterization in the next verse as "[that] which none but the sinners eat" - i.e. (metaphorically) in this world, and, consequently, in the hereafter as well.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 21 (69:39)

The phrase "all that you can see" comprises all the observable phenomena of nature - including man himself and the organic conditions of his own existence - as well as the configuration of human society and the perceptible rules of its growth and decay in the historical sense; whereas "that which you cannot see" relates to the intangible spiritual verities accessible to man's intuition and instinct, including the voice of his own conscience: all of which "bears witness", as it were, to the fact that the light which the divine writ (spoken of in the sequence) casts on innermost realities and interrelations of all that exists objectively - or, as the case may be, manifests itself subjectively in man's own psyche - must be an outcome of genuine revelation, inasmuch as it goes far beyond anything that unaided human intellect could ever achieve.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 22 (69:45)

I.e., deprived him of all ability to act - the "right hand" symbolizing power.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 23 (69:48)

Sc., "who believe in [the existence of] that which is beyond the reach of human perception: cf. 2:2-3.

Edip-Layth - Quran: A Reformist Translation

Edip-Layth - End Note 1 (69:7)

The expression "seven nights and eight days" denotes a continuous period. From this expression, we might infer that the Quranic day starts from daylight rather than night, as is the case in Jewish tradition. Those who contend otherwise rely on the common Quranic usage of the word night before the word day, but they must also account for 91:3-4, where the day is mentioned before the night. The statement in verse 36:40, that night cannot pass the day, might implicitly support our position. Verse 2:187 describes the starting points of day and night. Verses 3:27 and 17:12, talk about the dawn and evening, the two overlapping periods between night and day. According to these verses, the night starts with the sunset and day ends with the disappearance of sun light from the horizon. Similarly, day starts at dawn and night ends with the sunset. Also, see 10:67; 25:62; 36:37.

Edip-Layth - End Note 2 (69:17)

See 7:143; 89:23.

Edip-Layth - End Note 3 (69:38)

Perhaps, the vast portion of our universe is made of invisible matter. For the function of oaths, see 89:5.

Edip-Layth - End Note 4 (69:52)

Or, "Then praise your Lord by His greatest attribute/name" 070:004 Time is relative. See 22:47; 32:5. 070:030 See 4:25 and 23:6.

Shabbir Ahmed -

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 1 (69:7)

54:20

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 2 (69:11)

'You' denotes the remote ancestors of the Israelites and the Arabs. It also indicates 'Your brethren in faith' among Noah's people

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 3 (69:17)

Instead of the currently conceived seven

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 4 (69:30)

Halt from further development

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 5 (69:32)

Seventy cubits = 70 arm-lengths = Very long

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 6 (69:38)

that actions have consequences of their like

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 7 (69:39)

the subtle progression of the Law of Requit

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 8 (69:40)

The revelation is uttered through his tongue

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 9 (69:46)

'Wateen' = Artery of the heart = Life line = Life-artery = Strength = Revelation to the prophet. This implies that no true prophet could possibly propagate falsehood

Tested on 1024x768 resolution with  FIREFOX 2

Kitabun Marqum v0.6.7 - Kitabun Marqum - Quran Research Platform by QuraniX Team Copyright © 2002-2011 All rights reserved.
Copyrights of all translations belong to their respective authors.

49:6 O you who believe, if a wicked person brings any news to you, you shall first investigate, lest you commit injustice towards some people, out of ignorance, then become sorry and remorseful for what you have done.

Rashad Khalifa (The Final Testament)

 Translations ▼

 Chapter/Verse ▼

 Refresh

 Search

<< Prev 70:1-44 Next >>

Edip-Layth	In the name of God, the Gracious, the Compassionate. 70:1 Someone asked about the inevitable retribution.
The Monotheist Group	In the name of God, the Almighty, the Merciful. 70:1 Someone asked about the inevitable retribution.
Muhammad Asad	In the name of God, The Most Gracious, The Dispenser of Grace: 70:1 ONE who is minded to ask might ask ¹ about the suffering which [in the hereafter] is bound to befall
Rashad Khalifa	In the name of GOD, Most Gracious, Most Merciful. 70:1 A questioner may question the inevitable retribution.
Shabbir Ahmed	BISMILLAH-IR-RAHMAN-IR-RAHEEM With the Glorious Name of God, the Ultimate Source of Instant Beneficence and Eternal mercy Who encompasses the entire Universe, nourishing and taking care of all things for what they are meant to be; just as a mother's womb nourishes the embryo to completion without any returns. 70:1 A questioner might ask about the catastrophe that is bound to fall.
Transliteration	Bismi Allahi alrrahmani alrraheemi 70:1 Saala sa-ilun biAAathabin waqiAAin
A	بِسْمِ اللَّهِ الرَّحْمَنِ الرَّحِيمِ 70:1 سأل سائل بعذاب واقع
Edip-Layth	70:2 For the ingrates, there is nothing that will stop it.
The Monotheist Group	70:2 For the rejecters, there is nothing that will stop it.
Muhammad Asad	70:2 those who deny the truth. ² [Know, then, that] nothing can ward it off,

Rashad Khalifa	70:2 For the disbelievers, none can stop it.
Shabbir Ahmed	70:2 Upon those who oppose the truth. None can repel it.
Transliteration	70:2 Lilka _{fi} reena laysa lahu dafiAAun
A	70:2 للكفرين ليس له دافع
Edip-Layth	70:3 From God, Possessor of the ascending portals.
The Monotheist Group	70:3 From God, Possessor of the ascending portals.
Muhammad Asad	70:3 [since it will come] from God, unto whom there are many ways of ascent: ³
Rashad Khalifa	70:3 From GOD; Possessor of the highest Height.
Shabbir Ahmed	70:3 From God, Lord of the stairways of Ascent. ¹
Transliteration	70:3 Mina All _{ah} i thee almaAAariji
A	70:3 من الله ذى المعارج
Edip-Layth	70:4 The angels and the Spirit ascend to Him in a day which is equivalent to fifty thousand years.
The Monotheist Group	70:4 The angels and the Spirit ascend to Him in a day which is equivalent to fifty thousand years.
Muhammad Asad	70:4 all the angels and all the inspiration [ever granted to man] ascend unto Him ⁴ [daily,] in a day the length whereof is [like] fifty thousand years ⁵
Rashad Khalifa	70:4 The angels, with their reports, climb to Him in a day that equals fifty thousand years.
Shabbir Ahmed	70:4 The Universal forces and the Divine Energy ascend to Him in a Day the measure of which is fifty thousand years. ²
Transliteration	70:4 TaAAaruju almal a -ikatu wa alrroo h uilayhi fee yawmin k ana miqd aru hu khamseena alfasanatin
A	70:4 تعرج الملائكة والروح اليه فى يوم كان مقداره خمسين الف سنة
Edip-Layth	70:5 So be patient with a good patience.
The Monotheist Group	70:5 So be patient with a good patience.
Muhammad Asad	70:5 Therefore, [O believer,] endure all adversity with goodly patience:
Rashad Khalifa	70:5 Therefore, you shall resort to a gracious patience.
Shabbir Ahmed	70:5 Therefore, persevere with a gracious patience.
Transliteration	70:5 Fai s bir s abran jameelan
A	70:5 فاصبر صبرا جميلا
Edip-Layth	70:6 They see it as far away.
The Monotheist Group	70:6 They see it as far away.

Muhammad Asad	70:6 behold, men ⁶ look upon that [reckoning] as something far away
Rashad Khalifa	70:6 For they see it far away.
Shabbir Ahmed	70:6 They see it far away.
Transliteration	70:6 Innahum yarawnahu baAAeedan
A	70:6 انهم يرونه بعيدا
Edip-Layth	70:7 We see it as near.
The Monotheist Group	70:7 And We see it as near.
Muhammad Asad	70:7 but, We see it as near!
Rashad Khalifa	70:7 While we see it very close.
Shabbir Ahmed	70:7 But We see it near.
Transliteration	70:7 Wanarahu qareeban
A	70:7 ونره قريبا
Edip-Layth	70:8 On the day the sky is like molten copper.
The Monotheist Group	70:8 On the Day the sky is like molten copper.
Muhammad Asad	70:8 [It will take place] on a Day when the sky will be like molten lead,
Rashad Khalifa	70:8 The day will come when the sky will be like molten rocks.
Shabbir Ahmed	70:8 The Day when the sky will melt away.
Transliteration	70:8 Yawma takoonu a lssamao kaalmuhli
A	70:8 يوم تكون السماء كالمهل
Edip-Layth	70:9 The mountains are like wool.
The Monotheist Group	70:9 And the mountains are like wool.
Muhammad Asad	70:9 and the mountains will be like tufts of wool,
Rashad Khalifa	70:9 The mountains will be like fluffy wool.
Shabbir Ahmed	70:9 And the mountains will become as flakes of wool.
Transliteration	70:9 Watakoonu aljibalu kaalAAihni
A	70:9 وتكون الجبال كالعين
Edip-Layth	70:10 No friend will ask about his friend.
The Monotheist Group	70:10 And no friend will ask about his friend.
Muhammad Asad	70:10 and [when] no friend will ask about his friend,
Rashad Khalifa	70:10 No friend will care about his close friend.
Shabbir Ahmed	70:10 And a friend will not ask about his friend.
Transliteration	70:10 Wala yas-alu hameemun hameeman

A	70:10 ولا يسل حميم حميما
Edip-Layth	70:11 When they see it, the criminal will wish he can ransom his children against the retribution.
The Monotheist Group	70:11 When they see it, the criminal will wish he can ransom his children against the retribution.
Muhammad Asad	70:11 though they may be in one another's sight: [for,] everyone who was lost in sin will on that Day but desire to ransom himself from suffering at the price of his own children,
Rashad Khalifa	70:11 When they see them, the guilty will wish he could give his own children as ransom, to spare him the retribution of that day.
Shabbir Ahmed	70:11 Even though they will be within sight of one another. The guilty will desire to give his own children to ransom himself from suffering of the Day.
Transliteration	70:11 Yubassaroona ^h um yawaddu almu ^j rimu lawyaftadee min AAa thabi yawmi- ithin bibaneehi
A	70:11 يبصرونهم يود المجرم لو يفتدى من عذاب يومئذ بينيه
Edip-Layth	70:12 As well as his mate and his brother.
The Monotheist Group	70:12 As well as his mate and his brother.
Muhammad Asad	70:12 and of his spouse, and of his brother,
Rashad Khalifa	70:12 Also his spouse, and his brother.
Shabbir Ahmed	70:12 And his wife and his brother.
Transliteration	70:12 Wasa ^h ibatihi waakheehi
A	70:12 وصحبته واخيه
Edip-Layth	70:13 As well as his whole clan that protected him.
The Monotheist Group	70:13 As well as his whole clan that protected him.
Muhammad Asad	70:13 and of all the kinsfolk who ever sheltered him,
Rashad Khalifa	70:13 Even his whole tribe that raised him.
Shabbir Ahmed	70:13 And his whole family and the tribe that raised and sheltered him.
Transliteration	70:13 Wafa ^s eelatihi allatee tu/weehi
A	70:13 وفصيلته التي تويه
Edip-Layth	70:14 All who are on earth, so that he can be saved!
The Monotheist Group	70:14 And all who are on Earth, so that he can be saved!
Muhammad Asad	70:14 and of whoever [else] lives on earth, all of them - so that he could but save himself.
Rashad Khalifa	70:14 Even all the people on earth, if it would save him.
Shabbir Ahmed	70:14 And all who lived on earth - all of them if then it might save him.

Transliteration	70:14 Waman fee al-arḍi jameeAAan thummayunjeehi
A	70:14 ومن في الارض جميعا ثم ينجيه
Edip-Layth	70:15 No, it is a flame.
The Monotheist Group	70:15 No, it is a flame.
Muhammad Asad	70:15 But nay! Verily, all [that awaits him] is a raging flame,
Rashad Khalifa	70:15 No; it is aflame.
Shabbir Ahmed	70:15 Nay, it is a raging flame.
Transliteration	70:15 Kalla innaha laṭha
A	70:15 كلا انها لظى
Edip-Layth	70:16 Eager to roast.
The Monotheist Group	70:16 Eager to roast.
Muhammad Asad	70:16 tearing away his skin!
Rashad Khalifa	70:16 Eager to burn.
Shabbir Ahmed	70:16 That burns all coverings and defenses.
Transliteration	70:16 NazzaAAatan liIshshawā
A	70:16 نزاعة للشوى
Edip-Layth	70:17 It calls on those who turned away.
The Monotheist Group	70:17 It calls on those who turned away.
Muhammad Asad	70:17 It will claim all such as turn their backs [on what is right], and turn away [from the truth],
Rashad Khalifa	70:17 It calls on those who turned away.
Shabbir Ahmed	70:17 It calls him who turned and fled from truth.
Transliteration	70:17 TadAAoo man adbara watawalla
A	70:17 تدعوا من ادبر وتولى
Edip-Layth	70:18 Who hoarded and counted.
The Monotheist Group	70:18 And who hoarded and counted.
Muhammad Asad	70:18 and amass [wealth] and thereupon withhold [it from their fellow-men].
Rashad Khalifa	70:18 Those who hoarded and counted.
Shabbir Ahmed	70:18 And hoarded wealth, and withheld it.
Transliteration	70:18 WajamaAAa faawAAa
A	70:18 وجمع فلوعى
Edip-Layth	70:19 Indeed, human being is created anxious.

The Monotheist Group	70:19 Indeed, mankind was created anxious.
Muhammad Asad	70:19 VERILY, man is born with a restless disposition. ⁷
Rashad Khalifa	70:19 Indeed, the human being is anxious.
Shabbir Ahmed	70:19 Surely, man is created with an anxious disposition.
Transliteration	70:19 Inna al-insana khuliqa halooAAan
A	70:19 ان الانسن خلق هلوعا
Edip-Layth	70:20 When adversity touches him he is miserable.
The Monotheist Group	70:20 When adversity touches him he is miserable.
Muhammad Asad	70:20 [As a rule,] whenever misfortune touches him, he is filled with self-pity; ⁸
Rashad Khalifa	70:20 If touched by adversity, despondent.
Shabbir Ahmed	70:20 Despondent when harm touches him.
Transliteration	70:20 Itha massahu alshsharrujazooAAan
A	70:20 اذا مسه الشر جزوعا
Edip-Layth	70:21 When good touches him he is stingy.
The Monotheist Group	70:21 And when good touches him he is stingy.
Muhammad Asad	70:21 and whenever good fortune comes to him, he selfishly withholds it [from others].
Rashad Khalifa	70:21 If blessed by wealth, stingy.
Shabbir Ahmed	70:21 And stingy when good reaches him.
Transliteration	70:21 Wa-itha massahu alkhayru manooAAan
A	70:21 واذا مسه الخير منوعا
Edip-Layth	Attributes of Muslims 70:22 Except for those who are supportive.
The Monotheist Group	70:22 Except for those who commune.
Muhammad Asad	70:22 Not so, however, those who consciously turn towards God in prayer. ⁹
Rashad Khalifa	70:22 Except for the worshipers.
Shabbir Ahmed	70:22 Except the Musalleen (from Salaat - are not the so called ritualistic praying ones, but)
Transliteration	70:22 Illa almuṣalleena
A	70:22 الا المصلين
Edip-Layth	70:23 Who are always maintaining their support/contact prayers.
The Monotheist Group	70:23 Who are steadfast to their communion.
Muhammad Asad	70:23 [and] who incessantly persevere in their prayer

Rashad Khalifa	70:23 Who always observe their contact prayers (Salat).
Shabbir Ahmed	70:23 Those who always follow the Divine System.
Transliteration	70:23 Alla the ena hum AAa la sa la ti hi mda -i moona
A	70:23 الذين هم على صلاتهم دائمون
Edip-Layth	70:24 Those who set aside part of their wealth.
The Monotheist Group	70:24 And those who set aside part of their wealth.
Muhammad Asad	70:24 and in whose possessions there is a due share, acknowledged [by them],
Rashad Khalifa	70:24 Part of their money is set aside.
Shabbir Ahmed	70:24 Those in whose wealth and possessions is a known right.
Transliteration	70:24 Wa alla the ena fee am wa li hi m ha q qun maAA loo m un
A	70:24 والذين في اموالهم حق معلوم
Edip-Layth	70:25 For the seeker and the deprived.
The Monotheist Group	70:25 For the seeker and the denied.
Muhammad Asad	70:25 for such as ask [for help] and such as are deprived [of what is good in life]; ¹⁰
Rashad Khalifa	70:25 For the poor and the needy.
Shabbir Ahmed	70:25 For him who asks for help, and for him who is deprived.
Transliteration	70:25 Li l ssa-ili wa al ma h ro omi
A	70:25 للسائل والمحروم
Edip-Layth	70:26 Those who acknowledge the day of Judgment.
The Monotheist Group	70:26 And those who believe in the Day of Judgment.
Muhammad Asad	70:26 and who accept as true the [coming of the] Day of Judgment;
Rashad Khalifa	70:26 They believe in the Day of Judgment.
Shabbir Ahmed	70:26 Those who have conviction in the Day of Judgment. ³
Transliteration	70:26 Wa alla the ena yu s addi qoo nabi yaw mi a l d deeni
A	70:26 والذين يصدقون بيوم الدين
Edip-Layth	70:27 Those who are fearful of their Lord's retribution.
The Monotheist Group	70:27 And those who are fearful of their Lord's retribution.
Muhammad Asad	70:27 and who stand in dread of their Sustainer's chastisement
Rashad Khalifa	70:27 They reverence their Lord's requital.
Shabbir Ahmed	70:27 Those who are fearful of their Lord's requital.
Transliteration	70:27 Wa alla the ena hum min AA a th abi r ab bi hi m mu sh f iqoo na

A	70:27 والذين هم من عذاب ربهم مشفقون
Edip-Layth	70:28 The retribution of their Lord is not to be taken for granted.
The Monotheist Group	70:28 The retribution of their Lord is not to be taken for granted.
Muhammad Asad	70:28 for, behold, of their Sustainer's chastisement none may ever feel [wholly] secure; ¹¹
Rashad Khalifa	70:28 Their Lord's requital is not taken for granted.
Shabbir Ahmed	70:28 (They know that) none can feel secure against their Lord's requital.
Transliteration	70:28 Inna AAath aba rabbi hi m ghayru ma/moon in
A	70:28 ان عذاب ربهم غير مامون
Edip-Layth	70:29 Those who conceal their private parts.
The Monotheist Group	70:29 And those who conceal their private parts.
Muhammad Asad	70:29 and who are mindful of their chastity, ¹²
Rashad Khalifa	70:29 They keep their chastity.
Shabbir Ahmed	70:29 (Still Musalleen are also) Those men and women who maintain their chastity.
Transliteration	70:29 Wa alla theena hum lifurooj hi m hafith oona
A	70:29 والذين هم لفروجهم حفظون
Edip-Layth	70:30 Except around their spouses or those committed to by oath, there is no blame.
The Monotheist Group	70:30 Except around their spouses or those committed to by oath, there is no blame.
Muhammad Asad	70:30 [not giving way to their desires] with any but their spouses - that is, those whom they rightfully possess [through wedlock] - : ¹³ for then, behold, they are free of all blame,
Rashad Khalifa	70:30 (They have relations) only with their spouses, or what is legally theirs -
Shabbir Ahmed	70:30 They have intimate relations only with their spouses - that is, those who are rightfully theirs through wedlock. For such relationship they are free of blame. ⁴
Transliteration	70:30 Illa AAal a azw a j hi m awm a malakat aym a nuhum fa-innahum ghayru malooomeena
A	70:30 الا على ازوجهم او ما ملكت ايمنهم فانهم غير ملومين
Edip-Layth	70:31 Then, whoever seeks anything beyond this, they are the transgressors.
The Monotheist Group	70:31 Then, whoever seeks anything beyond this, they are the transgressors.
Muhammad Asad	70:31 whereas such as seek to go beyond that [limit] are truly transgressors;
Rashad Khalifa	70:31 anyone who transgresses these limits is a sinner.

Shabbir Ahmed	70:31 But anyone who seeks beyond this, those are the transgressors.
Transliteration	70:31 Famani ibtagħa warāa thalikafaola-ika humu alAAadoona
A	70:31 فمن ابتغى وراء ذلك فأولئك هم العادون
Edip-Layth	70:32 Those who are trustworthy and keep their pledges.
The Monotheist Group	70:32 And those who are trustworthy and keep their pledges.
Muhammad Asad	70:32 and who are faithful to their trusts and to their pledges:
Rashad Khalifa	70:32 And the believers keep their word; they are trustworthy.
Shabbir Ahmed	70:32 (And Musalleen are) Those who guard their trusts and duties assigned to them, and their pledges, as a shepherd guards his flock.
Transliteration	70:32 Waallatheena hum li-amanatihimwaAAahdihim raAAoona
A	70:32 والذين هم لآمنتهم وعهدهم رعون
Edip-Layth	70:33 Those who uphold their testimonies.
The Monotheist Group	70:33 And those who uphold their testimonies.
Muhammad Asad	70:33 and who stand firm whenever they bear witness;
Rashad Khalifa	70:33 Their testimony is truthful.
Shabbir Ahmed	70:33 Those who are truthful as witness and stand by their testimony.
Transliteration	70:33 Waallatheena hum bishahadatihimqā-imoona
A	70:33 والذين هم بشهادتهم قائمون
Edip-Layth	70:34 Those who are dedicated to their support/contact prayer.
The Monotheist Group	70:34 And those who are constant to their communion.
Muhammad Asad	70:34 and who guard their prayers [from all worldly intent].
Rashad Khalifa	70:34 They consistently observe their contact prayers (Salat) on time.
Shabbir Ahmed	70:34 Those who consolidate and protect the Divine System.
Transliteration	70:34 Waallatheena hum AAala salatihimyuḥafithoona
A	70:34 والذين هم على صلاتهم يحافظون
Edip-Layth	70:35 They will be honored in paradises.
The Monotheist Group	70:35 They will be honored in paradises.
Muhammad Asad	70:35 These it is who in the gardens [of paradise] shall be honoured!
Rashad Khalifa	70:35 They have deserved a position of honor in Paradise.
Shabbir Ahmed	70:35 (Musalleen are the ones who collectively build Paradise on earth and inherit that in the Hereafter.) They will be the honored ones dwelling in the Gardens of bliss.
Transliteration	70:35 Ola-ika fee jannatin mukramoona

A	70:35 اولئك فى جنت مكرمون
Edip-Layth	The Ingrates 70:36 So what is wrong with the ingrates staring at you?
The Monotheist Group	70:36 So what is wrong with the rejecters staring at you?
Muhammad Asad	70:36 WHAT, THEN, is amiss with such as are bent on denying the truth, that they run about confusedly to and fro before thee,
Rashad Khalifa	70:36 What is keeping those who disbelieved from joining you?
Shabbir Ahmed	70:36 What, then, is the matter with the rejecters that they rush to and fro before you, confused? ⁵
Transliteration	70:36 Famāli allat̤heena kafarooqibalaka muḥṭiAAeena
A	70:36 فمال الذين كفروا قبلك مهطعين
Edip-Layth	70:37 From the right and the left, in crowds?
The Monotheist Group	70:37 From the right and the left, in crowds?
Muhammad Asad	70:37 [coming upon thee] from the right and from the left, in crowds? ¹⁴
Rashad Khalifa	70:37 To the right, and to the left, they flee.
Shabbir Ahmed	70:37 On the right and on the left, in groups.
Transliteration	70:37 AAani alyameeni waAAani alshshimaliAAizeena
A	70:37 عن اليمين وعن الشمال عزين
Edip-Layth	70:38 Does every one of them hope to enter a paradise of bliss?
The Monotheist Group	70:38 Does every one of them hope to enter a paradise of bliss?
Muhammad Asad	70:38 Does every one of them hope to enter [by this means] a garden of bliss? ¹⁵
Rashad Khalifa	70:38 How can any of them expect to enter the blissful Paradise?
Shabbir Ahmed	70:38 Does everyone of them hope to enter the Garden of bliss with this attitude?
Transliteration	70:38 AyaṭmaAAu kullu imri-in minhum anyudkhala jannata naAAeem in
A	70:38 ايطمع كل امرئ منهم ان يدخل جنة نعيم
Edip-Layth	70:39 No, We have created them from what they know.
The Monotheist Group	70:39 No, We have created them from what they know.
Muhammad Asad	70:39 Never! For, behold, We have created them out of something that they know [only too well]! ¹⁶
Rashad Khalifa	70:39 Never; we created them, and they know from what.
Shabbir Ahmed	70:39 Nay! They know with what We created them. ⁶
Transliteration	70:39 Kalla inna khalaqnaḥummimma yaAAlamoona
A	70:39

Edip-Layth	70:40 So I swear by the Lord of the east and the west that We are able.
The Monotheist Group	70:40 So I do swear by the Lord of the east and the west that We are able.
Muhammad Asad	70:40 But nay! I call to witness [Our being] the Sustainer of all the points of sunrise and sunset: ¹⁷ verily, well able are We
Rashad Khalifa	70:40 I solemnly swear by the Lord of the easts and the wests; we are able -
Shabbir Ahmed	70:40 But nay! I call to Witness the Lord of all points in the East and all points in the West, We are Able
Transliteration	70:40 Fa l a oqsimu birabbi almash a riqiwa a lmagh a ribi inna laq a diroona
A	70:40 فلا اقسم برب المشرق والمغرب انا لقرون
Edip-Layth	70:41 To replace them with better people, We can never be defeated.
The Monotheist Group	70:41 To replace them with better people, We can never be defeated.
Muhammad Asad	70:41 to replace them with [people] better than they are; for there is nothing to prevent Us [from doing what We will]. ¹⁸
Rashad Khalifa	70:41 to substitute better people in your place; we can never be defeated.
Shabbir Ahmed	70:41 To replace them by others better than they are. There is nothing to prevent Us.
Transliteration	70:41 AA a la an nubaddila khayran minhum wam a na h nu bimasbooqeena
A	70:41 على ان نبدل خيرا منهم وما نحن بمسبوقين
Edip-Layth	70:42 So let them talk in vain and play, until they meet their day which they are promised.
The Monotheist Group	70:42 So let them talk in vain and play, until they meet their Day which they are promised.
Muhammad Asad	70:42 Hence, leave them to indulge in idle talk and play [with words] ¹⁹ until they face that [Judgment] Day of theirs which they have been promised
Rashad Khalifa	70:42 Therefore, let them blunder and play, until they meet the day that is awaiting them.
Shabbir Ahmed	70:42 Let them chat and play until they meet their Day which they are promised.
Transliteration	70:42 Fa t harhum yakhoo d oowaya l AAaboo h atta yul a qoo yawmahumu alla t heeyooAAadoona
A	70:42 فذرهم يخوضوا ويلعبوا حتى يلقوا اليومهم الذى يوعدون
Edip-Layth	70:43 When they will come out of the graves in a rush, as if they are racing towards a goal.
The Monotheist Group	70:43 When they will come out of the graves in a rush, as if they are racing towards a goal.
Muhammad Asad	70:43 the Day when they shall come forth in haste from their graves, as if racing towards a goal-post,

Rashad Khalifa	70:43 That is the day they come out of the graves in a hurry, as if herded to the (sacrificial) altars.
Shabbir Ahmed	70:43 The Day that they shall come forth in haste from their disintegrated states, as if racing toward a goal post.
Transliteration	70:43 Yawma yakhrujoona mina al-ajd athi sir aAAankaannahum il a nu subin yoofidoona
A	70:43 يوم يخرجون من الاجداث سراعا كأنهم الى نصب يوفضون
Edip-Layth	70:44 Their eyes are cast down, with shame covering them. This is the day which they were promised.
The Monotheist Group	70:44 Their eyes are cast down, with shame covering them. This is the Day which they were promised.
Muhammad Asad	70:44 with downcast eyes, with ignominy overwhelming them: that Day which they were promised again and ²⁰
Rashad Khalifa	70:44 With their eyes subdued, shame will cover them. That is the day that is awaiting them.
Shabbir Ahmed	70:44 With their eyes subdued in shame, humiliation overwhelming them. Such is the Day which they were promised again and again.
Transliteration	70:44 KhashiAAatan ab saruhumtarhaquhum thillatun thalika alyawmu allatheekanoo yooAAadoona
A	70:44 خشعة ابصرهم ترهقهم ذلة ذلك اليوم الذي كانوا يوعدون

<< Prev 70:1-44 Next >>

Return to top

End Notes

Muhammad Asad - The Message Of Quran

Muhammad Asad - End Note 1 (70:1)

Lit., "An inquirer inquired" or "might inquire".

Muhammad Asad - End Note 2 (70:2)

In view of the fact that many of "those who deny the truth" - and, by implication, do evil in consequence of that deliberate denial - prosper in this world, a doubter might well ask whether or when this state of affairs will really be reversed and the values adjusted in accord with divine justice. An answer to the "whether" is given in the second paragraph of verse 2; and to the "when", elliptically, at the end of verse 4.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 3 (70:3)

Lit., "He of the [many] ascents": a metonymical phrase implying that there are many ways by which man can "ascend" to a comprehension of God's existence, 'and thus to spiritual "nearness" to Him - and that, therefore, it is up to each human being to avail himself of any of the ways leading towards Him (cf. 76:3).

Muhammad Asad - End Note 4 (70:4)

For my rendering of ruh as "inspiration", see surah 16, note 2. The "ascent" of the angels and of all inspiration may be understood in the same sense as the frequently-occurring phrase "all things go back to God [as their source]" (Razi).

Muhammad Asad - End Note 5 (70:4)

The very concept of "time" is meaningless in relation to God, who is timeless and infinite: cf. note 63 on the last sentence of 22:47 - "in thy Sustainer's sight a day is like a thousand years of your reckoning": in other words, a day, or an aeon, or a thousand years, or fifty thousand years are alike to Him, having an apparent reality only within the created world and none with the Creator. And since in the hereafter time will cease to have a meaning for man as well, it is irrelevant to ask as to "when" the evildoers will be chastised and the righteous given their due.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 6 (70:6)

Lit., "they".

Muhammad Asad - End Note 7 (70:19)

Lit., "man has been created restless (halu'an)" -that is, endowed with an inner restlessness which may equally well drive him to fruitful achievement or to chronic discontent and frustration. In other words, it is the manner in which man utilizes this God-will endowment that determines whether it shall have a positive or a negative character. The subsequent two verses (20 and 21) allude to the latter, while verses 22-25 show that only true spiritual and moral consciousness can mould that inborn restlessness into a positive force, and thus bring about inner stability and abiding contentment.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 8 (70:20)

The participle jazū - derived from the verb jazī'a - combines the concepts of "lacking patience" and "lamenting over one's misfortune", and is therefore the contrary of sabr (Jawhari).

Muhammad Asad - End Note 9 (70:22)

This, I believe, is the meaning of the expression al-musallin (lit., "the praying ones"), which evidently does not relate here to the mere ritual of prayer but, rather, as the next verse shows, to the attitude of mind and the spiritual need underlying it. In this sense it connects with the statement in verse 19 that "man is born with a restless disposition" which, when rightly used, leads him towards conscious spiritual growth, as well as to freedom from all self-pity and selfishness.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 10 (70:25)

Sc., "but do not or cannot beg": see Razi's comments on a similar phrase in 51:19, quoted in my corresponding note 12.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 11 (70:28)

This warning against pharisaic self-righteousness implies that however "good" a person may be, there is always a possibility of his or her having done a moral wrong (e.g., an injury to a fellow-being) and then conveniently "forgotten" this sin. Elliptically, this warning contains a call to increasing consciousness in all one's doings - for, "temptation to evil (fitnah) does not befall only those who are bent on denying the truth" (8:25), but may also befall people who are otherwise righteous.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 12 (70:29)

Lit., "who guard their private parts".

Muhammad Asad - End Note 13 (70:30)

See the identical passage in 23:5-7, as well as the corresponding note 3, in which I have fully explained the reasons for my rendering of the phrase aw ma malakat aymanuhum as "that is, those whom they rightfully possess [through wedlock]". As regards this interpretation, see al Razi's comments on 4:24, as well as one of the alternative interpretations of that verse advanced by Tabari on the authority of Ibn Abbas and Mujahid.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 14 (70:37)

This, again, connects with the statement in verse 19, "man is born with a restless disposition (see note 7 above). People who do not want to see the truth of God's existence and have, therefore, no solid basis on which to build their world-view, are, by the same token, unable to conceive any definite standards of personal and social ethics. Hence, whenever they are confronted with anyone's positive assertion of faith, they "run about to and fro" in spiritual confusion, trying, in order to justify themselves intellectually, to demolish the premises of that faith by means of many-sided, contradictory arguments - an endeavour depicted in the metaphor, "coming upon thee from the right and from the left"; and since they derive all their strength from a conformity with shallow mass-opinions, they can do this only "in crowds".

Muhammad Asad - End Note 15 (70:38)

I.e., "Do they hope to achieve inner peace and fulfilment by 'disproving' another person's faith?"

Muhammad Asad - End Note 16 (70:39)

Namely, out of "dust" - i.e., out of the same primitive organic and inorganic substances as are found in and on the earth: the implication being that only spiritual consciousness and endeavour can raise man above the mere material form of his existence, and thus enable him achieve the inner fulfilment metaphorically described here as "a garden of bliss".

Muhammad Asad - End Note 17 (70:40)

I.e., of all the variation, throughout the solar year, of the points at which the sun "rises" and "sets": thus stressing the fact that He is the Ultimate Cause of all orbital movement in the universe and, hence, its Creator (cf. 37:5 and 55:17).

Muhammad Asad - End Note 18 (70:41)

The implication is that it is not His will to replace "those who are bent on denying the truth", in this world, by believers, inasmuch as such a "replacement" would not be in accord with His design of multiform human existence, in which faith is always challenged and tested by unbelief, and vice versa.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 19 (70:42)

I.e., their philosophizing about a supposedly "uncreated" world and a hypothetical "self-generation" of life, as well as their blatant "denial", unsupported by any factual evidence, of a life after death or even of the existence of God.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 20 (70:44)

The concept of "again and again" - i.e., by a succession, through the ages, of prophetic revelations - is implied in the auxiliary verb kanu, which usually connotes repetition and/or duration.

Shabbir Ahmed -

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 1 (70:3)

He enables all things to ascend, evolve and become what they are destined to be

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 2 (70:4)

All things in the Universe evolve in stages to fulfill the Divine Plan. Some of these stages take one thousand years each, and others fifty thousand years by the human calendar. The Big Picture of the Qur'an does allude to the Divine Plan. As I understand, it is the origination of a brand new Cosmos in which all things including the humans will be brought into being in incredibly higher forms, and the evolution will go on indefinitely. God stresses upon us again and again to prime our 'self' for further development in the life to come and achieve true Immortality, the Paradise, the Eternal bliss. That contrasts with mere survival where there is no progress. An existence without progress is worse than death, and the Qur'an terms it Hell. The only way to prime our 'self' is to be of benefit to God's creation. 22:47, 32:5, 35:10, 78:38, 97:4. References too many to enumerate, but any student of the Qur'an who bears in mind the development or actualization of the 'self' will find this point highlighted very frequently in the Mighty Book. No amount and no kind of ritualism can help that 'priming' of the 'self'. According to the Qur'an, no community ever faced decline or annihilation for a deficiency or lack of rituals

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 3 (70:26)

and therefore, in the law of Recompense

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 4 (70:30)

'Aw' = Or = That is = And. 23:5-7

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 5 (70:36)

Instead of joining hands

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 6 (70:39)

They know that humans have been created like other members of the animal kingdom. Intellect and free will make humans different. Thus they can strive for the Garden of bliss

Edip-Layth - Quran: A Reformist Translation

Edip-Layth - End Note (70:4)

Edip-Layth - End Note (70:30)

Best viewed using your own brain

Tested on 1024x768 resolution with  FIREFOX 2

Kitabun Marqum v0.6.7 - Kitabun Marqum - Quran Research Platform by QuraniX Team Copyright © 2002-2011 All rights reserved.
Copyrights of all translations belong to their respective authors.

49:6 O you who believe, if a wicked person brings any news to you, you shall first investigate, lest you commit injustice towards some people, out of ignorance, then become sorry and remorseful for what you have done.

Rashad Khalifa (The Final Testament)

 Translations ▼

 Chapter/Verse ▼

 Refresh

 Search

<< Prev 71:1-28 Next >>

Edip-Layth	In the name of God, the Gracious, the Compassionate. 71:1 We have sent Noah to his people: "Warn your people before a painful retribution comes to them."
The Monotheist Group	In the name of God, the Almighty, the Merciful. 71:1 We have sent Noah to his people: "Warn your people before a painful retribution comes to them."
Muhammad Asad	In the name of God, The Most Gracious, The Dispenser of Grace: 71:1 BEHOLD. We sent Noah unto his people. [saying:] "Warn thy people ere grievous suffering befall them!"
Rashad Khalifa	In the name of GOD, Most Gracious, Most Merciful. 71:1 We sent Noah to his people: "You shall warn your people before a painful retribution afflicts them."
Shabbir Ahmed	BISMILLAH-IR-RAHMAN-IR-RAHEEM With the Glorious Name of God, the Ultimate Source of Instant Beneficence and Eternal mercy Who encompasses the entire Universe, nourishing and taking care of all things for what they are meant to be; just as a mother's womb nourishes the embryo to completion without any returns. 71:1 We sent Noah to his people, "Warn your people before an awful doom comes to them."
Transliteration	Bismi Allāhi alRrahmāni alRrahēemi 71:1 Inna arsaln a noo han il aqawmihi an an thir qawmaka min qabli an ya/tyahum AAathabunaleemun
A	بسم الله الرحمن الرحيم 71:1 انا ارسلنا نوحا الى قومه ان انذر قومك من قبل ان ياتيهم عذاب اليم

Edip-Layth	71:2 He said, "My people, I am to you a clear warner."
The Monotheist Group	71:2 He said: "My people, I am to you a clear warner."
Muhammad Asad	71:2 [And Noah] said: "O my people! I am but a plain warner to you, [sent to tell you]
Rashad Khalifa	71:2 He said, "O my people, I am a manifest warner to you.
Shabbir Ahmed	71:2 He said, "O My people! I am a plain warner to you,
Transliteration	71:2 Qala ya qawmi innee lakum na ^{theerun} mubeenun
A	71:2 قال يقوم انى لكم نذير مبين
Edip-Layth	71:3 "That you shall serve God and be aware of Him and obey."
The Monotheist Group	71:3 "That you shall serve God and be aware of Him and obey."
Muhammad Asad	71:3 that you should worship God [alone] and be conscious of Him. "Now do pay heed unto me,
Rashad Khalifa	71:3 "To alert you that you shall worship GOD, reverence Him, and obey me.
Shabbir Ahmed	71:3 That you serve God and be mindful of Him. Now, do pay heed to me.
Transliteration	71:3 Ani oAAbudoo Allaha waittaqoohuwaateAAooni
A	71:3 ان اعبدوا الله واتقوه واطيعون
Edip-Layth	71:4 "He shall forgive your sins and delay you to a predetermined time. When God's time comes, then it cannot be delayed, if you know."
The Monotheist Group	71:4 "He shall forgive your sins and delay you to a predetermined time. When God's time comes, then it cannot be delayed, if you know."
Muhammad Asad	71:4 so that He may forgive you some of your sins, and grant you respite until a term known [to Him alone]: ¹ but, behold, when the term appointed by God does come, it can never be put back - if you but knew it!"
Rashad Khalifa	71:4 "He will then forgive you your sins and respite you for a predetermined period. Most assuredly, GOD's appointment can never be delayed, once it is due, if you only knew."
Shabbir Ahmed	71:4 He will then protect you from the detriment of trailing behind in humanity and respite you until a term appointed. When the term appointed by God comes, it cannot be delayed, if you but knew this."
Transliteration	71:4 Yaghfir lakum min ^{thunoobikum} wayu-akhkhirkum ila ajalin musamman inna ajala Allahiitha jaa la yu-akhkharu law kuntumtaAAalamoon a
A	71:4 يغفر لكم من ذنوبكم ويؤخركم الى اجل مسمى ان اجل الله اذا جاء لا يؤخر لو كنتم تعلمون
Edip-Layth	71:5 He said, "My Lord, I have called on my people night and day."
The Monotheist Group	71:5 He said: "My Lord, I have called on my people night and day."
Muhammad Asad	71:5 [And after a time, Noah] said: "O my Sustainer! Verily, I have been calling unto my people night and day
Rashad Khalifa	71:5 He said, "My Lord, I have invited my people night and day.

Shabbir Ahmed	71:5 He said, "My Lord! Surely, I have been calling unto my people night and day.
Transliteration	71:5 Qala rabbi innee daAAawtu qawmeelaylan wanah a ran
A	71:5 قال رب انى دعوت قومى ليلا ونهارا
Edip-Layth	71:6 "But my calling only drove them away!"
The Monotheist Group	71:6 "But my calling only drove them away!"
Muhammad Asad	71:6 but my call has only caused them to flee farther and farther away [from Thee]. ²
Rashad Khalifa	71:6 "But my invitation only increased their aversion.
Shabbir Ahmed	71:6 But my call only increases their fleeing.
Transliteration	71:6 Falam yazidhum duAAa-ee illa fira ran
A	71:6 فلم يزدهم دعائى الا فرارا
Edip-Layth	71:7 "Every time I called on them so that You may forgive them, they put their fingers in their ears and they covered their heads with their outer garments and they insisted, and they became greatly arrogant."
The Monotheist Group	71:7 "And every time I called on them so that You may forgive them, they put their fingers in their ears and they covered their heads with their outer garments and they insisted, and they became greatly arrogant."
Muhammad Asad	71:7 And behold, whenever I called unto them with a view to Thy granting them forgiveness, they put their fingers into their ears, and wrapped themselves up in their garments [of sin]; ³ and grew obstinate, and became [yet more] arrogant in their false pride.
Rashad Khalifa	71:7 "Whenever I invited them to be forgiven by You, they placed their fingers in their ears, covered themselves with their clothes, insisted, and turned arrogant.
Shabbir Ahmed	71:7 Whenever I call to them to be forgiven by You, they thrust their fingers in their ears - and veil themselves in their garments. And they persist in this behavior glorifying themselves in pride. ¹
Transliteration	71:7 Wa-innee kullam a daAAawtuhum litaghfira lahum jaAAaloo a sabiAAahum fee athani him wa istaghshaw thiy a bahum wa a sarroo wa istakbaroo istik b aran
A	71:7 وانى كلما دعوتهم لتغفر لهم جعلوا اصبعهم فى اذانهم واستغشوا ثيابهم واصرروا واستكبروا استكبارا
Edip-Layth	71:8 "Then I called to them openly."
The Monotheist Group	71:8 "Then I called to them openly."
Muhammad Asad	71:8 "And behold I called unto them openly;
Rashad Khalifa	71:8 "Then I invited them publicly.
Shabbir Ahmed	71:8 Then I called unto them aloud.
Transliteration	71:8 Thumma innee daAAawtuhum jih a ran

A	71:8 ثم انى دعوتهم جهارا
Edip-Layth	71:9 "Then I announced to them, and I spoke to them in secret."
The Monotheist Group	71:9 "Then I announced to them, and I spoke to them in secret."
Muhammad Asad	71:9 and, behold I preached to them in public; and I spoke to them secretly, in private;
Rashad Khalifa	71:9 "Then I proclaimed to them loudly, and I spoke to them privately.
Shabbir Ahmed	71:9 I addressed them in gatherings and spoke to them individually in private."
Transliteration	71:9 Thumma innee aAalantu lahum waasrartu lahumisr ar an
A	71:9 ثم انى اعلنت لهم واسررت لهم اسرارا
Edip-Layth	71:10 "I said, Seek forgiveness from your Lord, for He was forgiving."
The Monotheist Group	71:10 "And I said: Seek forgiveness from your Lord, for He was forgiving."
Muhammad Asad	71:10 and I said: "Ask your Sustainer to forgive you your sins - for, verily, He is all-forgiving!
Rashad Khalifa	71:10 "I said, `Implore your Lord for forgiveness; He is Forgiving.
Shabbir Ahmed	71:10 And I have said, "Seek forgiveness of your Lord. He is ever Forgiving.
Transliteration	71:10 Faqultu istaghfiroo rabbakum innahu k an aghaff ar an
A	71:10 فقلت استغفروا ربكم انه كان غفارا
Edip-Layth	71:11 "He sends the clouds upon you constantly." ¹
The Monotheist Group	71:11 "He sends the clouds upon you constantly."
Muhammad Asad	71:11 He will shower upon you heavenly blessings abundant, ⁴
Rashad Khalifa	71:11 " `He will then shower you generously with rain.
Shabbir Ahmed	71:11 He will shower upon you heavenly blessings.
Transliteration	71:11 Yursili aIssamaa AAalaykummidr ar an
A	71:11 يرسل السماء عليكم مدرارا
Edip-Layth	71:12 "He provides you with money and children, and He makes for you gardens, and He makes for you rivers."
The Monotheist Group	71:12 "And He provides you with money and children, and He makes for you gardens, and He makes for you rivers."
Muhammad Asad	71:12 and will aid you with worldly goods and children, and will bestow upon you gardens, and bestow upon you running waters. ⁵
Rashad Khalifa	71:12 " `And provide you with money and children, and orchards, and streams.' "
Shabbir Ahmed	71:12 And will help you with goods and riches and flourishing families, and will grant you gardens and will bestow upon you flowing streams." ²
Transliteration	71:12 Wayumdidkum bi-amw al in wabaneenawayajAAal lakum jann at in wayajAAal

	lakum anharan
A	71:12 ويمددكم بامول وبنين ويجعل لكم جنت ويجعل لكم انهارا
Edip-Layth	Our Evolution 71:13 "Why do you not seek God humbly."
The Monotheist Group	71:13 "Why do you not seek God humbly."
Muhammad Asad	71:13 ""What is amiss with you that you cannot look forward to God's majesty, 6
Rashad Khalifa	71:13 Why should you not strive to reverence GOD?
Shabbir Ahmed	71:13 What is the matter with you that you fail to acknowledge the majesty of God? 3
Transliteration	71:13 Ma lakum la tarjoona lillahiwaqaran
A	71:13 ما لكم لا ترجون لله وقارا
Edip-Layth	71:14 "While He created you in stages?" 2
The Monotheist Group	71:14 "While He created you in stages?"
Muhammad Asad	71:14 seeing that He has created [every one of] you in successive stages? 7
Rashad Khalifa	71:14 He is the One who created you in stages.
Shabbir Ahmed	71:14 (Know that) He is the One Who has created you in successive stages.
Transliteration	71:14 Waqad khalaqakum aṭwara
A	71:14 وقد خلقكم اطوارا
Edip-Layth	71:15 "Did you not see how God created seven heavens in harmony?"
The Monotheist Group	71:15 "Did you not see how God created seven skies in layers?"
Muhammad Asad	71:15 ""Do you not see how God has created seven heavens in full harmony with one another, 8
Rashad Khalifa	71:15 Do you not realize that GOD created seven universes in layers?
Shabbir Ahmed	71:15 Do you not realize (not willing to reflect and research) how God has created the seven heavens in great harmony?
Transliteration	71:15 Alam taraw kayfa khalaqa AllahuṣabAAa samawatin ṭibaaan
A	71:15 ألم تروا كيف خلق الله سبع سموات طباقا
Edip-Layth	71:16 "He made the moon to illuminate in them, and He made the sun to be a lit flame?"
The Monotheist Group	71:16 "And He made the moon to illuminate in them, and He made the sun to be a lit flame?"
Muhammad Asad	71:16 and has set up within them the moon as a light [reflected] and set up the sun as a [radiant] lamp? 9
Rashad Khalifa	71:16 He designed the moon therein to be a light, and placed the sun to be a lamp.

Shabbir Ahmed	71:16 And made the moon a light therein, and made the sun a radiant lamp.
Transliteration	71:16 WajaAAala alqamara feehinna nooran wajaAAalaa Ishshamsa sirajan
A	71:16 وجعل القمر فيهن نورا وجعل الشمس سراجا
Edip-Layth	71:17 "God made you grow from the earth as plants."
The Monotheist Group	71:17 "And God made you grow from the Earth as plants."
Muhammad Asad	71:17 "'And God has caused you to grow out of the earth in [gradual] growth; and thereafter He will return you to it [in death]:" 10
Rashad Khalifa	71:17 And GOD germinated you from the earth like plants.
Shabbir Ahmed	71:17 And God has caused you to grow as a growth from the earth. 4
Transliteration	71:17 WaAllahu anbatakum mina al-ardinabatan
A	71:17 والله انبتكم من الارض نباتا
Edip-Layth	71:18 "Then He returns you to it, and He brings you out totally?"
The Monotheist Group	71:18 "Then He returns you to it, and He brings you out totally?"
Muhammad Asad	71:18 and [then] He will bring you forth [from It] in resurrection. 11
Rashad Khalifa	71:18 Then He returns you into it, and He will surely bring you out.
Shabbir Ahmed	71:18 Then He returns you into the earth and He will bring you forth again, a new bringing.
Transliteration	71:18 Thumma yuAAeedukum feehawayukhrijukum ikhrajān
A	71:18 ثم يعيدكم فيها ويخرجكم اخراجا
Edip-Layth	71:19 "God made the land for you as a plain."
The Monotheist Group	71:19 "And God made the land for you as a plain."
Muhammad Asad	71:19 "'And God has made the earth a wide expanse for you,
Rashad Khalifa	71:19 GOD made the earth habitable for you.
Shabbir Ahmed	71:19 And God has made the earth a wide expanse for you.
Transliteration	71:19 WaAllahu jaAAala lakumu al-ardabisatan
A	71:19 والله جعل لكم الارض بساطا
Edip-Layth	71:20 "So that you may seek in it ways and paths?"
The Monotheist Group	71:20 "So that you may seek in it ways and paths?"
Muhammad Asad	71:20 so that you might walk thereon on spacious paths." 12
Rashad Khalifa	71:20 That you may build roads therein.
Shabbir Ahmed	71:20 That you may travel thereon on spacious valley-ways.

Transliteration	71:20 Litaslukoo minha subulan fijajan
A	71:20 لتسلکوا منها سبلا فجاجا
Edip-Layth	71:21 Noah said, "My Lord, they have disobeyed me and have followed one whose money and children only increased him in loss."
The Monotheist Group	71:21 Noah said: "My Lord, they have disobeyed me and have followed whose money and children only increased him in loss."
Muhammad Asad	71:21 [And] Noah continued: "O my Sustainer! Behold, they have opposed me [throughout], for they follow people whose wealth and children lead them increasingly into ruin, ¹³
Rashad Khalifa	71:21 Noah said, "My Lord, they disobeyed me, and followed those who were even more corrupted when blessed with money and children.
Shabbir Ahmed	71:21 Then Noah said, "My Lord! They have opposed me throughout, for they follow him whose wealth and children have led him increasingly into ruin.
Transliteration	71:21 Qala noo hun rabbi inna hum AAa sawneewaittabaAAoo man lam yazidhu maluhu wawaladuhu illakhasaran
A	71:21 قال نوح رب انهم عصوني واتبعوا من لم يزد له ماله وولده الا خسارا
Edip-Layth	71:22 They plotted a great plotting.
The Monotheist Group	71:22 And they plotted a great plotting.
Muhammad Asad	71:22 and who have devised a most awesome blasphemy [against Thee],
Rashad Khalifa	71:22 "They schemed terrible schemes.
Shabbir Ahmed	71:22 And they plot tremendous schemes,
Transliteration	71:22 Wamakaroo makran kubbaran
A	71:22 ومكروا مكرا كبيرا
Edip-Layth	71:23 They said, "Do not abandon your gods. Do not abandon Destroyer, neither Night Group, Helper, Deterrer, nor Eagle."
The Monotheist Group	71:23 And they said: "Do not abandon your gods. Do not abandon Destroyer, nor Night Group, nor Helper and Deterrer and Eagle."
Muhammad Asad	71:23 inasmuch as they said [to their followers], 'Do not ever abandon your gods: abandon neither Wadd nor Suwa', and neither Yaghuth nor Ya'uq nor Nasr!' ¹⁴
Rashad Khalifa	71:23 "They said, `Do not abandon your gods. Do not abandon Wadd, Suwaa`, Yaghouth, Ya`ooq, and Nasr.'
Shabbir Ahmed	71:23 And keep telling one another, "Do not abandon your gods! And forsake not Wadd, nor Suw'a, nor Yaghuth and Ya'uq and Nasr." 5
Transliteration	71:23 Waqaloo l a ta tharunna alihatakumwala ta tharunna waddan wal a suwaAAanwala yaghootha wayaAAooqa wanasran
A	71:23 وقالوا لا تدرن ءالهمكم ولا تدرن ودا ولا سواعا ولا يغوث ويعوق ونسرا
	71:24 They have misguided many, but We only increase the wicked in

Edip-Layth	misguidance.
The Monotheist Group	71:24 And they have misguided many, but We only increase the wicked in misguidance.
Muhammad Asad	71:24 "And so they have led many a one astray: hence, ordain Thou that these evildoers stray but farther and farther away [from all that they may desire]!" ¹⁵
Rashad Khalifa	71:24 "They misled many. Therefore, let the wicked plunge deeper into loss."
Shabbir Ahmed	71:24 They have already misled a great many, therefore, let the wrongdoers increase in straying."
Transliteration	71:24 Waqad aḍalloo katheeran walatazidi al l ththalimeena illa ḍalalan
A	71:24 وقد اضلوا كثيرا ولا تزد الظلمين الا ضللا
Edip-Layth	71:25 Because of their sins they were drowned, then they were admitted to the fire, and they could not find beside God any victor.
The Monotheist Group	71:25 Because of their sins they were drowned, then they were admitted to the Fire, and they could not find beside God any victor.
Muhammad Asad	71:25 And so, because of their sins, they were drowned [in the great flood], and were doomed to suffer the fire [of the hereafter]; ¹⁶ and they found none who could succour them against God.
Rashad Khalifa	71:25 Because of their sins they were drowned and assigned to the hellfire. They found no helpers to protect them from GOD.
Shabbir Ahmed	71:25 And so, because of faults upon faults, they were drowned, and then destined to enter the fire. They found out that they had no helpers besides God.
Transliteration	71:25 Mimma khaṭee-atihimoghriqoo faodkhiloo naran falam yajidoo lahum min dooniAllahi anṣaran
A	71:25 مما خطيبتهم اغرقوا فادخلوا نارا فلم يجدوا لهم من دون الله انصارا
Edip-Layth	71:26 Noah said, "My Lord, do not leave on the earth any of the ingrates at all."
The Monotheist Group	71:26 And Noah said: "My Lord, do not leave on the Earth any of the rejecters at all."
Muhammad Asad	71:26 And Noah prayed: "O my Sustainer! Leave not on earth any of those who deny the truth:
Rashad Khalifa	71:26 Noah also said, "My Lord, do not leave a single disbeliever on earth.
Shabbir Ahmed	71:26 And Noah said, "My Lord! Leave not any of these rejecters to dwell in this valley,
Transliteration	71:26 Waqala noohun rabbi latathar AAala al-ardi mina alkafireenadayyan
A	71:26 وقال نوح رب لا تذر على الارض من الكافرين ديارا
Edip-Layth	71:27 "If you are to leave them, then they will misguide Your servants and they will only give birth to a wicked ingrate."
The Monotheist Group	71:27 "If you are to leave them, then they will misguide Your servants and they will only give birth to a wicked rejecter."

Muhammad Asad	71:27 for, behold, If Thou dost leave them, they will [always try to] lead astray those who worship Thee, and will give birth to nothing but wickedness and stubborn ingratitude. ¹⁷
Rashad Khalifa	71:27 "For if you let them, they will only mislead your servants and give birth to nothing but wicked disbelievers.
Shabbir Ahmed	71:27 If you should leave them, they will mislead Your servants and they will only beget division and ingratitude.
Transliteration	71:27 Innaka in tatharhum yudillooAAibadaka wala yalidoo illa fajirankaffaran
A	71:27 انك ان تنرهم يضلوا عبادك ولا يلدوا الا فاجرا كفارا
Edip-Layth	71:28 "My Lord, forgive me and my parents and whoever enters my home as an acknowledger, and the acknowledging men and the acknowledging women; and do not increase the wicked except in destruction."
The Monotheist Group	71:28 "My Lord, forgive me, and my parents, and whoever enters my home as a believer, and to the believing men and believing women; and do not increase the wicked except in destruction."
Muhammad Asad	71:28 "O my Sustainer! Grant Thy forgiveness unto me and unto my parents, and unto everyone who enters my house as a believer, and unto all believing men and believing women [of later times]; and grant Thou that the doers of evil shall increasingly meet with destruction!" ¹⁸
Rashad Khalifa	71:28 "My Lord, forgive me and my parents, and anyone who enters my home as a believer, and all the believing men and women. But do not give the disbelievers anything but annihilation."
Shabbir Ahmed	71:28 My Lord! Grant me the protection of forgiveness and to my parents and whoever enters my house (ideology of submission to one God) in faith, and to all the believing men and the believing women (of all times). And increase the oppressors in ruin for their violation of human rights." ⁶
Transliteration	71:28 Rabbi ighfir lee waliw alidayyawaliman dakhala baytiya mu/minan walilmu/mineena waalmu/minatiwala tazidi alththalimeena illatabaran
A	71:28 رب اغفر لى ولولدى وللمن دخل بيتى مومنا وللمومنين والمومنت ولا تزد الظلمين الا تبارا

<< Prev 71:1-28 Next >>

Return to top

End Notes

Muhammad Asad - The Message Of Quran

Muhammad Asad - End Note 1 (71:4)

Namely, until the end of each person's life - implying that although they might be forgiven all sins committed before their postulated change of heart, they would henceforth, until their death, be held fully accountable for their behaviour in the light of that new-found faith. Cf. 4:18 - "repentance shall not be accepted from those who do evil deeds until their dying hour and then say, Behold, I now repent".

Muhammad Asad - End Note 2 (71:6)

Lit., "has not increased them in anything but flight".

Muhammad Asad - End Note 3 (71:7)

For the reason of the above interpolation - which endows the concept of "garments" with a metaphorical meaning - see note 2 on 74:4; cf. also the expression "garment of God-consciousness" (libas at-taqwa) in 7:26.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 4 (71:11)

Lit., "He will let loose the sky over you with abundance" (but see also note 76 on 11:52).

Muhammad Asad - End Note 5 (71:12)

The two last-mentioned blessings are an allusion to the state of happiness in the hereafter, symbolized in the Qur'an as "gardens through which running waters flow".

Muhammad Asad - End Note 6 (71:13)

I.e., "that you refuse to believe in God" (Zamakhshari). Some authorities (e.g., Jawhari) give to the above phrase the meaning, "that you will not fear God's majesty", which, too, implies lack of belief in Him.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 7 (71:14)

I.e., by a process of gradual evolution, in the mother's womb, from a drop of sperm and a fertilized germ-cell (the female ovum), up to the point where the embryo becomes a new, self-contained human entity (cf. 22:5): all of which points to the existence of a plan and a purpose and, hence, to the existence of a conscious Creator.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 8 (71:15)

Cf. 67:3 and the corresponding note 2.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 9 (71:16)

See 10:5, where the sun is described as "a [source of] radiant light" (diya') and the moon as "light [reflected]" (nur); both these interpolations are explained in note 10 on 10:5.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 10 (71:17)

This phrase has a twofold meaning. In the first instance, it alludes to the evolution of the individual human body out of the same substances - both organic and inorganic - as are found in and on the earth as well: and in this sense it enlarges upon the creation of the human individual "in successive stages" referred to in verse 14 above. Secondly, it alludes to the evolution of the human species, which, starting from the most primitive organisms living on earth, has gradually ascended to ever higher stages of development until it has finally reached that complexity of body, mind and soul evident in the human being.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 11 (71:18)

Lit., "with a [final] bringing-forth".

Muhammad Asad - End Note 12 (71:20)

I.e., "He has provided you with all facilities for a good life on earth" - the unspoken implication being, "Will you not, then, acknowledge Him and be grateful to Him?"

Muhammad Asad - End Note 13 (71:21)

Lit., "and have followed him whose wealth and children do not increase him in aught but loss": i.e., people whose propensity and power only enhance their false pride and arrogance, and thus lead them to spiritual ruin. Beyond this, we have here a subtle allusion to the fact that an exclusive devotion to material prosperity must of necessity, in the long run, destroy all moral values and, thus, the very fabric of society.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 14 (71:23)

As is evident from early sources, these five gods were among the many worshipped by the pre-Islamic Arabs as well (see the small but extremely valuable work by Hisham ibn Muhammad al-Kalbi, KitAb al-Asnam, ed. Ahmad Zaki, Cairo 1914). Their cult had probably been introduced into Arabia from Syria and Babylonia, where it seems to have existed in earliest antiquity.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 15 (71:24)

Lit., "increase Thou not the evildoers in aught but in straying-away", i.e., from an achievement of their worldly goals (Razi).

Muhammad Asad - End Note 16 (71:25)

Lit., "and were made to enter the fire" - the past tense indicating the inevitability of the suffering yet to come (Zamakhshari).

Muhammad Asad - End Note 17 (71:27)

Lit., "to such as are wicked (fajir), stubbornly ingrate (kaffar)": but since no one - and particularly not a prophet - is ever justified in assuming that the progeny of evildoers must of necessity be evil, it is obvious that the terms fajir and kaffar are used here metonymically denoting qualities or attitudes, and not persons.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 18 (71:28)

Lit., "increase Thou not the evildoers in aught but destruction" - i.e., destruction of their aims and, thus, of evil as such.

Shabbir Ahmed -

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 1 (71:7)

11:5

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 2 (71:12)

Baneen = Sons = Children = Tribal unity and strength = Party = Flourishing families. Forgiveness in the context indicates halting the behavior that is detrimental to the society, and turning to Divine guidance in order to protect themselves from the logical harmful consequences

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 3 (71:13)

And that His Book can give you eminence. 21:10

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 4 (71:17)

Recall the beginning of life out of water and organic matter, and the stages of evolution. 22:5

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 5 (71:23)

They had set up idols: Wadd, the god of masculinity. Suw'a, the goddess of femininity. Yaghuth, the lion god of power. Ya'uq, the horse god for travel and battle. Nasr, the eagle god for flying in to 'steal' the news of the Unseen

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 6 (71:28)

Zaalimeen = Oppressors = Violators of human rights = Wrongdoers

Edip-Layth - Quran: A Reformist Translation

Edip-Layth - End Note 1 (71:11)

See 11:40-44.

Edip-Layth - End Note 2 (71:14)

Evolution is a marvelous assembly line of creation designed by God. See 29:18-20; 41:9-10; 7:69; 15:26; 24:45; 32:7-9. Evolution of species through mutation and cumulative selection, as subscribed by the modern scientific community, provides sufficient evidence for the existence of imminent intelligent design in nature. The theory of evolution provides more evidence for an intelligent designer than a fingerprint on a canvas could provide clues about the identity of its human painter. Inferring the existence and some attributes of an intelligent designer from nature is as equally scientific as inferring the existence and some attributes of an unknown creature from its footprints left in the sand. For a debate on Evolution versus Intelligent Design, see the Appendix titled "The Blind Watch-Watchers or Smell the Cheese: An Intelligent and Delicious Argument for Intelligent Design in Evolution" by Edip Yuksel.

Best viewed using your own brain

Tested on 1024x768 resolution with  FIREFOX 2

Kitabun Marqum v0.6.7 - Kitabun Marqum - Quran Research Platform by QuraniX Team Copyright © 2002-2011 All rights reserved.
Copyrights of all translations belong to their respective authors.

49:6 O you who believe, if a wicked person brings any news to you, you shall first investigate, lest you commit injustice towards some people, out of ignorance, then become sorry and remorseful for what you have done.

Rashad Khalifa (The Final Testament)

 Translations ▼

 Chapter/Verse ▼

 Refresh

 Search

<< Prev 72:1-28 Next >>

Edip-Layth	In the name of God, the Gracious, the Compassionate. 72:1 Say, "It has been inspired to me that a group of Jinn were listening." They said, "We have heard an interesting recitation/quran!"¹
The Monotheist Group	In the name of God, the Almighty, the Merciful. 72:1 Say: "It has been inspired to me that a group of Jinn were listening." They said: "We have heard a magnificent compilation!"
Muhammad Asad	In the name of God, The Most Gracious, The Dispenser of Grace: 72:1 SAY: "It has been revealed to me that some of the unseen beings gave ear [to this divine writ],¹ and thereupon said [unto their fellow-beings]: "'Verily, we have heard a wondrous discourse,
Rashad Khalifa	In the name of GOD, Most Gracious, Most Merciful. 72:1 Say, "I was inspired that a group of jinns listened, then said, `We have heard a wonderful Quran.
Shabbir Ahmed	BISMILLAH-IR-RAHMAN-IR-RAHEEM With the Glorious Name of God, the Ultimate Source of Instant Beneficence and Eternal mercy Who encompasses the entire Universe, nourishing and taking care of all things for what they are meant to be; just as a mother's womb nourishes the embryo to completion without any returns. 72:1 Say (O Prophet!) It has been revealed to me that a tribe of nomads listened, and then they said, "We have heard a marvelous recital."¹
Transliteration	Bismi Allāhi alRrahmani alRrahēemi 72:1 Qul oo hīya ilayya annahu istamaAAanafarun mina aljinni faq aloo inn a samiAAanaqur-ānan AAajaban
A	بسم الله الرحمن الرحيم

72:1 قل اوحى الى انه استمع نفر من الجن فقالوا انا سمعنا قراءنا عجا

Edip-Layth	72:2 "It guides to what is correct, so we acknowledged it, and we will not set up anyone with our Lord."
The Monotheist Group	72:2 "It guides to what is correct, so we believed in it, and we will not set up anyone with our Lord."
Muhammad Asad	72:2 guiding towards consciousness of what is right; and so We have come to believe in it. And we shall never ascribe divinity to anyone beside our Sustainer,
Rashad Khalifa	72:2 " ` It guides to righteousness, and we have believed in it; we will never set up any idols beside our Lord.
Shabbir Ahmed	72:2 It shows the way to Enlightenment, so we have come to believe in it. And we shall never again ascribe a partner to our Lord.
Transliteration	72:2 Yahdee ila alrrushdi faamanna ¹ bihi walan nushrika birabbina ahada ⁿ
A	72:2 يهـدى الى الرشـد فامنا به ولن نشرك بربنا احدا
Edip-Layth	72:3 "Exalted is the majesty of our Lord, He has not taken a wife nor a son."
The Monotheist Group	72:3 "And exalted is the majesty of our Lord, He has not taken a wife nor a son."
Muhammad Asad	72:3 for [we know] that sublimely exalted is our Sustainer's majesty: no consort has He ever taken unto Himself, nor a son!
Rashad Khalifa	72:3 " ` The Most High is our only Lord. He never had a mate, nor a son.
Shabbir Ahmed	72:3 And Exalted is the Majesty of our Lord. He has taken neither a wife, nor a son.
Transliteration	72:3 Waannahu taAAala jaddu rabbinama ittakhatha sahibatan wala walada ⁿ
A	72:3 وانه تعالى جد ربنا ما اتخذ صحبة ولا ولدا
Edip-Layth	72:4 "It was the foolish one amongst us who used to say lies about God."
The Monotheist Group	72:4 "And it was the foolish one amongst us who used to say lies about God."
Muhammad Asad	72:4 ""And [now we know] that the foolish among us were wont to say outrageous things about God, ²
Rashad Khalifa	72:4 " ` It is the foolish among us who used to utter such nonsense about GOD.
Shabbir Ahmed	72:4 The foolish among us uttered such outrageous lies about God.
Transliteration	72:4 Waannahu kana yaqoolu safeehunaAAala Allahi shata ² tan
A	72:4 وانه كان يقول سفيها على الله شططا
Edip-Layth	72:5 "We had thought that neither people nor the Jinn would ever utter a lie against God."
The Monotheist Group	72:5 "And we had thought that neither mankind nor the Jinn would ever utter a lie against God."
Muhammad Asad	72:5 and that [we were mistaken when] we thought that neither man nor [any of] the invisible forces would ever tell a lie about God. ³

Rashad Khalifa	72:5 " `We thought that neither the humans, nor the jinns, could possibly utter lies about GOD.
Shabbir Ahmed	72:5 We used to think that people, whether civilized or uncivilized, would never utter a lie about God.
Transliteration	72:5 Waanna th anannaan lan taqoola al-insu wa aljinnu AAala All ah ika th iba n
A	72:5 وانا ظننا ان لن تقول الانس والجن على الله كذبا
Edip-Layth	72:6 "There were men from among people who used to seek help from the men among the Jinn, but they only helped increase them in sin."
The Monotheist Group	72:6 "And there were men from among mankind who used to seek help from the men among the Jinn, but they only helped increase them in sin."
Muhammad Asad	72:6 Yet [it has always happened] that certain kinds of humans would seek refuge with certain kinds of [such] invisible forces: ⁴ but these only increased their confusion
Rashad Khalifa	72:6 " `Human beings used to seek power through jinn beings, but they only afflicted them with a lot of adversity.
Shabbir Ahmed	72:6 Some people of towns used to seek shelter with some of the nomads and increased them in confusion.
Transliteration	72:6 Waannahu k a na rij a lun mina al-insi yaAAoo th oona birij a lin mina aljinni faza do ohumraha q a n
A	72:6 وانه كان رجال من الانس يعونون برجال من الجن فزادوهم رهقا
Edip-Layth	72:7 "They thought as you thought, that God would not send anyone."
The Monotheist Group	72:7 "And they thought as you thought, that God would not send anyone."
Muhammad Asad	72:7 so much so that they came to think, as you [once] thought, that God would never [again] send forth anyone [as His apostle]. ⁵
Rashad Khalifa	72:7 " `They thought, just like you thought, that GOD would not send another (messenger).
Shabbir Ahmed	72:7 And they thought as you nomads thought that God would never again send forth anyone. (As His messenger, and so, the claimants of the occult sciences would carry on with their deceptions.)
Transliteration	72:7 Waannahum th annoo kama th anantuman lan yabAAatha All ah u a h ada n
A	72:7 وانهم ظنوا كما ظننتم ان لن يبعث الله احدا
Edip-Layth	72:8 "We touched the heavens, but found it full of powerful guards and projectiles."
The Monotheist Group	72:8 "And we touched the heavens, but found it full of powerful guards and projectiles."
Muhammad Asad	72:8 ""And [so it happened] that we reached out towards heaven: ⁶ but we found it filled with mighty guards and flames, ⁷
Rashad Khalifa	72:8 " `We touched the heaven and found it filled with formidable guards and projectiles.

Shabbir Ahmed	72:8 And we tried to feel the skies but found it well attended by mighty guards and flames." 2
Transliteration	72:8 Waanna lamasn a a Issamaafawajadnaha muli-at harasan shadeedanwashuhuban
A	72:8 وانا لمسنا السماء فوجدناها ملئت حرسا شديدا وشهباً
Edip-Layth	72:9 "We used to sit in it in places of listening, but anyone who sits now finds a projectile seeking him."
The Monotheist Group	72:9 "And we used to sit in it in places of listening, but anyone who sits now finds a projectile seeking him."
Muhammad Asad	72:9 notwithstanding that we were established in positions [which we had thought well-suited] to listening to [whatever secrets might be in] it: 8 and anyone who now [or ever] tries to listen will [likewise] find a flame lying in wait for him! 9
Rashad Khalifa	72:9 " `We used to sit there in order to spy. Anyone who listens is pursued by a powerful projectile.
Shabbir Ahmed	72:9 (The nomads continued), "And we used to sit on places listening to the 'lofty news'. But now whoever listens will find a flame waiting for him. 3
Transliteration	72:9 Waanna kunn a naqAAudu minh amaqAAaida li IssamAAi faman yastamiAAi al-anayajid lahu shihaban rasadan
A	72:9 وانا كنا نقعد منها مقعد للسمع فمن يستمع لى ان يجد له شهابا رصدا
Edip-Layth	72:10 "We do not know, is it bad that is intended for those on earth, or does their Lord want them to be guided?"
The Monotheist Group	72:10 "And we do not know, is it bad that is intended for those on Earth, or does their Lord want them to be guided?"
Muhammad Asad	72:10 "'And [now we have become aware] that we [created beings] may not know whether evil fortune is intended for [any of] those who live on earth, or whether it is their Sustainer's will to endow them with consciousness of what is right: 10
Rashad Khalifa	72:10 " `We have no idea if something bad is intended for the inhabitants of Earth, or if their Lord wills to redeem them.
Shabbir Ahmed	72:10 And we know not whether harm is intended for the inhabitants of the earth, or whether their Lord wills for them Enlightenment." 4
Transliteration	72:10 Waanna l a nadree asharrunoreeda biman fee al-ar di am ar ada bihim rabbuhumrashadan
A	72:10 وانا لا ندرى اشر اريد بمن فى الارض ام اراد بهم ربهم رشدا
Edip-Layth	72:11 "Among us are those who are good doers, and some of us are opposite to that, we are in many paths."
The Monotheist Group	72:11 "And among us are those who are good doers, and some of us are opposite to that, we are in many paths."
Muhammad Asad	72:11 Just as [we do not know how it happens] that some from among us are righteous, while some of us are [far] below that: we have always followed widely divergent paths.

Rashad Khalifa	72:11 " `Some of us are righteous, and some are less than righteous; we follow various paths.
Shabbir Ahmed	72:11 (The nomads continued their conversation), "And some of us are righteous and others are far from that, and we follow varying paths.
Transliteration	72:11 Waanna minna alssalihoonawaminna doona thalika kunna tara-iqaqidadan
A	72:11 وانا منا الصالحون ومنا دون ذلك كنا طرائق قددا
Edip-Layth	72:12 "We acknowledge that we cannot escape God on earth, nor can we escape Him if we run."
The Monotheist Group	72:12 "And we acknowledge that we cannot escape God on Earth, nor can we escape Him if we run."
Muhammad Asad	72:12 "'And, withal, we have come to know that we can never elude God [while we live] on earth, and that we can never elude Him by escaping [from life].
Rashad Khalifa	72:12 " `We knew full well that we can never run away from GOD on Earth; we can never run away and escape.
Shabbir Ahmed	72:12 We know that wherever we are on earth, we cannot defy God, nor can we flee to escape.
Transliteration	72:12 Wanna thanannaan lan nuAAjiza All aha fee al-ar di walan nuAAjizahuharaban
A	72:12 وانا ظننا ان لن نعجز الله في الارض ولن نعجزه هربا
Edip-Layth	72:13 "When we heard the guidance, we acknowledged it. So whoever acknowledges his Lord, then he will not fear a decrease in reward, nor a burdensome punishment."
The Monotheist Group	72:13 "And when we heard the guidance, we believed in it. So whoever believes in his Lord, then he will not fear a decrease in reward, nor a burdensome punishment."
Muhammad Asad	72:13 Hence, as soon as we heard this [call to His] guidance, we came to believe in it: and he who believes in his Sustainer need never have fear of loss or injustice.
Rashad Khalifa	72:13 " `When we heard the guidance, we believed therein. Anyone who believes in his Lord will never fear any injustice, nor any affliction.
Shabbir Ahmed	72:13 And as soon as we heard the Enlightenment, we believed in it. And whoever chooses to be graced with belief in his Lord, need not fear a diminished return, nor unfairness.
Transliteration	72:13 Waanna lamma samiAAnaalhuda amanna bihi faman yu/min birabbihifal a yakhafu bakhsan wala rahaqan
A	72:13 وانا لما سمعنا الهدى ءامنا به فمن يؤمن بربه فلا يخاف بخسا ولا رهقا
Edip-Layth	72:14 "Among us are those who peacefully surrendered, and among us are the compromisers. As for those who have peacefully surrendered, they have sought what is correct."
The Monotheist Group	72:14 "And among us are those who submitted, and among us are the compromisers. As for those who have submitted, they have sought what is correct."

Muhammad Asad	72:14 ""Yet [it is true] that among us are such as have surrendered themselves to God - just as there are among us such as have abandoned themselves to wrongdoing. Now as for those who surrender themselves to Him - it is they that have attained to consciousness of what is right;
Rashad Khalifa	72:14 " `Among us are the submitters, and among us are the compromisers.' " As for those who submitted, they are on the right path.
Shabbir Ahmed	72:14 And some of us have submitted (to God) while there are others who make compromises (between the right and wrong). Those who submit (to God), they have found the path to right guidance.
Transliteration	72:14 Waanna minn almuslimoonawaminn alq asitoona faman aslama faol a-ikataharraw rashadan
A	72:14 وانا منا المسلمون ومنا القسطون فمن اسلم فالولئك تحروا رشدا
Edip-Layth	72:15 As for the compromisers, they are firewood for hell.
The Monotheist Group	72:15 And as for the compromisers, they are firewood for Hell.
Muhammad Asad	72:15 but as for those who abandon themselves to wrongdoing - they are indeed but fuel for [the fires of] hell!" ¹¹
Rashad Khalifa	72:15 As for the compromisers, they will be fuel for Gehenna.
Shabbir Ahmed	72:15 And those who make compromises (between the right and wrong,) they are but fuel for the Hell."
Transliteration	72:15 Waama alqasitoona fakanooolijahannama hataban
A	72:15 واما القسطون فكانوا لجهنم حطباً
Edip-Layth	72:16 Had they walked on the right path, We would have provided them with abundant water.
The Monotheist Group	72:16 And had they walked on the right path, We would have provided them with abundant water.
Muhammad Asad	72:16 [KNOW,] THEN, that if they [who have heard Our call] keep firmly to the [right] path, We shall certainly shower them with blessings abundant, ¹²
Rashad Khalifa	72:16 If they remain on the right path, we will bless them with abundant water.
Shabbir Ahmed	72:16 (Such was their conversation.) If they take an unwavering stand on the Highest Discipline, We will shower them with abundant bounties. ⁵
Transliteration	72:16 Waallawi istaqamoo AAala altareeqatilaasqaynahum maan ghadaqan
A	72:16 والو استقموا على الطريقة لاسقينهم ماء غدقا
Edip-Layth	72:17 To test them with it. Whosoever turns away from the remembrance of his Lord, He will enter him a severe retribution. ²
The Monotheist Group	72:17 To test them with it. And whosoever turns away from the remembrance of his Lord, He will enter him a severe retribution.
Muhammad Asad	72:17 so as to test them by this means: for he who shall turn away from the remembrance of his Sustainer, him will He cause to undergo suffering most grievous. ¹³

Rashad Khalifa	72:17 We will surely test them all. As for him who disregards the message of his Lord, He will direct him to ever increasing retribution.
Shabbir Ahmed	72:17 That We might test them (let them try their own mettle) thereby. And whoever turns away from his Sustainer's reminder, He will cause him to undergo an ever-increasing retribution. ⁶
Transliteration	72:17 Linaftinahum feehee waman yuAAariḍ AAanḥikri rabbihi yasluk-hu AAaḥaban saAAaḍan
A	72:17 لَنَفْتَنَّهُمْ فِيهِ وَمَنْ يُعْرِضْ عَنْ ذِكْرِ رَبِّهِ يَسْلُكْهُ عَذَابًا صَعَدًا
Edip-Layth	72:18 The temples are for God, so do not call on anyone with God.
The Monotheist Group	72:18 And the temples are for God, so do not call on anyone alongside God.
Muhammad Asad	72:18 And [know] that all worship ¹⁴ is due to God [alone]: hence, do not invoke anyone side by side with God!
Rashad Khalifa	72:18 The places of worship belong to GOD; do not call on anyone else beside GOD.
Shabbir Ahmed	72:18 Know that all Masjids (and temples of worship) are for God. ([Adoration, prostration, submission are due to God alone.) So, invoke not anyone along with God. [Masjid = Mosque = Places of worship = Collective acts of submission = Ways of adoration = Obedience of Divine Commands = Centers of administering the Divine System. 9:17)
Transliteration	72:18 Waanna almasajida lillāhi falatadAAoo maAAa Allāhi aḥaḍan
A	72:18 وان المسجد لله فلا تدعوا مع الله احدا
Edip-Layth	Prophecy Regarding the Numerical System 72:19 When God's servant stood up to call on Him, they nearly banded to oppose him. ³
The Monotheist Group	72:19 And when God's servant stood up to call on Him, they nearly banded to oppose him.
Muhammad Asad	72:19 Yet [thus it is] that whenever a servant of God stands up in prayer to Him, they [who are bent on denying the truth] would gladly overwhelm him with their crowds. ¹⁵
Rashad Khalifa	God's Messenger of the Covenant 72:19 When GOD's servant advocated Him alone, almost all of them banded together to oppose him.
Shabbir Ahmed	72:19 Yet whenever a servant of God stands up with invitation to Him, they crowd on him in hostility. ⁷
Transliteration	72:19 Waannahu lamm a q ama AAabdu All aḥiyadAAoohu k adoo yakoonoona AAalayhi libaḍan
A	72:19 وانه لما قام عبد الله يدعوه كادوا يكونون عليه لبدا
Edip-Layth	72:20 Say, "I only call on my Lord, and I do not associate anyone with Him."
The Monotheist Group	72:20 Say: "I only call on my Lord, and I do not associate anyone with Him."

Muhammad Asad	72:20 Say: "I invoke my Sustainer alone, for I do not ascribe divinity to anyone beside Him."
Rashad Khalifa	72:20 Say, "I worship only my Lord; I never set up any idols beside Him."
Shabbir Ahmed	72:20 Say, "I call upon my Lord alone and associate no one with Him" 8
Transliteration	72:20 Qul inna ma adAAoo rabbee wala oshriku bihi aha da n
A	72:20 قل انما ادعوا ربى ولا اشرك به احدا
Edip-Layth	72:21 Say, "I have no power to cause you harm nor to show you what is right."
The Monotheist Group	72:21 Say: "I have no power to cause you harm nor to show you what is right."
Muhammad Asad	72:21 Say: "Verily, it is not in my power to cause you harm or to endow you with consciousness of what is right."
Rashad Khalifa	72:21 Say, "I possess no power to harm you, nor to guide you."
Shabbir Ahmed	72:21 Say, "I do not own the power to harm you or enforce right guidance upon you."
Transliteration	72:21 Qul innee la amliku lakum da rranwala rashada n
A	72:21 قل انى لا املك لكم ضرا ولا رشدا
Edip-Layth	72:22 Say, "No one can protect me from God, and I will not find any refuge except with Him."
The Monotheist Group	72:22 Say: "No one can protect me from God, and I will not find any refuge except with Him."
Muhammad Asad	72:22 Say: "Verily, no one could ever protect me from God, nor could I ever find a place to hide from Him
Rashad Khalifa	72:22 Say, "No one can protect me from GOD, nor can I find any other refuge beside Him.
Shabbir Ahmed	72:22 Say, "No one can shelter me from (the consequences of violating the laws of) God, nor can I find a hide-out from Him,
Transliteration	72:22 Qul innee lan yujeeranee mina All a hia ha dun wala n ajida min doonihi multa ha da n
A	72:22 قل انى لن يجيرنى من الله احد ولن اجد من دونه ملتحدا
Edip-Layth	72:23 It is but an announcement from God, and His messages. Whosoever disobeys God and His messenger, then he will have the fire of hell to dwell eternally therein.
The Monotheist Group	72:23 It is but an announcement from God, and His messages. And whosoever disobeys God and His messenger, then he will have the fire of Hell to dwell eternally therein.
Muhammad Asad	72:23 if I should fail to convey 16 [to the world whatever illumination comes to me] from God and His messages." Now as for him who rebels against God and His Apostle - verily, the fire of hell awaits him, therein to abide beyond the count of time. 17
	72:23 "I deliver GOD's proclamations and messages." Those who disobey GOD

Rashad Khalifa	and His messenger incur the fire of Hell, wherein they abide forever.
Shabbir Ahmed	72:23 If I fail to convey to people what I receive from God and make His messages known." Whoever disobeys God and His messenger; for him is Hellfire, to abide therein forever.
Transliteration	72:23 Illā balāghan mina Allāhi warisālātihi waman yaAAṣi Allāhawarasoolahu fa-inna lahu nāra jahannama khālideenafeeha abadān
A	72:23 الا بلغا من الله ورسلته ومن يعص الله ورسوله فان له نار جهنم خالدين فيها ابدًا
Edip-Layth	72:24 Until they see what they are promised, then they will know who has the weakest ally and is least in number.
The Monotheist Group	72:24 Until they see what they are promised, then they will know who has the weakest ally and is least in number.
Muhammad Asad	72:24 [Let them, then, wait] until the time when they behold that [doom] of which they were forewarned: ¹⁸ for then they will come to understand which [kind of man] is more helpless and counts for less! ¹⁹
Rashad Khalifa	72:24 Once they see what is awaiting them, they will find out who is really weaker in power, and fewer in number.
Shabbir Ahmed	72:24 Until they see what they are promised. And so, soon will they find out who is really helpless and counts for less!
Transliteration	72:24 Hatta i tha raaw m ayooAAadoona fasayaAAlamoona man a dAAafu naṣiranwaaqallu AAadadān
A	72:24 حتى اذا راوا ما يوعدون فسيعلمون من اضعف ناصرا واقل عددا
Edip-Layth	72:25 Say, "I do not know if what you are promised is near, or if my Lord will make it distant."
The Monotheist Group	72:25 Say: "I do not know if what you are promised is near, or if my Lord will make it distant."
Muhammad Asad	72:25 Say: "I do not know whether that [doom] of which you were forewarned is near, or whether my Sustainer has set for it a distant term."
Rashad Khalifa	72:25 Say, "I do not know if what is promised to you will happen soon, or if my Lord will delay it for awhile."
Shabbir Ahmed	72:25 Say, "I do not know whether the promise made to you is near or if my Lord will delay it."
Transliteration	72:25 Qul in adree aqareebun m a tooAAadoonaam yajAAalu lahu rabbee amadān
A	72:25 قل ان ادري اقريب ما توعدون ام يجعل له ربي امدا
Edip-Layth	72:26 The knower of the unseen, He does not reveal His knowledge to anyone.
The Monotheist Group	72:26 The knower of the unseen, He does not reveal His knowledge to anyone.
Muhammad Asad	72:26 He [alone] knows that which is beyond the reach of a created being's perception, and to none does He disclose aught of the mysteries of His Own unfathomable knowledge, ²⁰
Rashad Khalifa	72:26 He is the Knower of the future; He does not reveal the future to anyone.

Shabbir Ahmed	72:26 Knower of the Unseen (and the future), and He makes known to none His secret,
Transliteration	72:26 AAa ^l imu alghaybi fala yu th hiruAAa ^l a ghaybihi a ^h ada ⁿ
A	72:26 علم الغيب فلا يظهر على غيبه احدا
Edip-Layth	72:27 Except to whom He has accepted as a messenger; then he leads way in its present and future as a secret observer.
The Monotheist Group	72:27 Except to whom He has accepted as a messenger, then He reveals from the past and the future.
Muhammad Asad	72:27 unless it be to an apostle whom He has been pleased to elect [there for]: ²¹ and then He sends forth [the forces of heaven] to watch over him in whatever lies open before him and in what is beyond his ken ²²
Rashad Khalifa	72:27 Only to a messenger that He chooses, does He reveal from the past and the future, specific news.
Shabbir Ahmed	72:27 Except as He wills to a messenger whom He has elected, and to him He reveals from the past and the future, and ensures that the revelation is guarded. 9
Transliteration	72:27 Illa mani irta da min rasoolinfa-innahu yasluku min bayni yadayhi wamin khalfihi ra ^s ada ⁿ
A	72:27 الا من ارتضى من رسول فانه يسلك من بين يديه ومن خلفه رصدا
Edip-Layth	72:28 So that He knows that they have delivered the messages of their Lord, and He surrounds all that is with them, and He has counted everything in numbers.
The Monotheist Group	72:28 So that He knows that they have delivered the messages of their Lord, and He surrounds all that is with them, and He has counted the number of all things.
Muhammad Asad	72:28 so as to make manifest that it is indeed [but] their Sustainer's messages that these [apostles] deliver: for it is He who encompasses [with His knowledge] all that they have [to say], ²³ just as He takes count, one by one, of everything [that exists].
Rashad Khalifa	72:28 This is to ascertain that they have delivered their Lord's messages. He is fully aware of what they have. He has counted the numbers of all things.
Shabbir Ahmed	72:28 That He may make manifest that it is but their Lord's messages (and nothing else) that these messengers deliver. For, He is the One Who encompasses all the revelation they have, and takes account of all things.
Transliteration	72:28 LiyaAAlama an qad ablaghoo ris al ^a tirabbihim waa ha ^a ta bim a ladayhim waah ^s a kullashay-in AAadada ⁿ
A	72:28 ليعلم ان قد ابلاغوا رسلت ربهم واحاط بما لديهم واحصى كل شيء عددا

<< Prev 72:1-28 Next >>

Return to top

End Notes

Edip-Layth - Quran: A Reformist Translation

Edip-Layth - End Note 1 (72:1)

Jinns are descendants of Satan (7:27), invisible (6:86; 72:1), made of energy (10:27), swift (27:10, 39), righteous and evildoers (72:11), possess power/ability to exit the atmosphere of Earth (72:8), and have physical powers not common to humans (27:39).

Edip-Layth - End Note 2 (72:17)

For the word ZKR (reminder) see 15:9; 21:2; 21:24,105; 26:5; 29:51; 38:1,8; 41:41; 44:13; 74:31,49,54.

Edip-Layth - End Note 3 (72:19)

The prophecy involving numbers was fulfilled in 1974. The person's name who was chosen to unveil the prophecy in Chapter 74, which is summarized with the number 19, is mentioned in the Quran, together with all its derivatives exactly 19 times and 4 of them occur in this chapter (72:2; 72:10; 72:14; 72:21). Those who notice statistical anomalies and reflect on the relationship of statistical anomalies and their semantic context will have no doubt about this divine revelation. Furthermore, the name of the person with its exact format is mentioned twice in the Quran (40:29 and 40:38) and they sandwich a quote from unappreciative people who rejected a new messenger by arguing, "God will not send any messenger after him." Interestingly, a polytheist terrorist group affiliated with Bin Laden's al-Qaida, al-Fuqra or al-Fuqara, killed that messenger in early 1990, as another prophetic remark in verses 72:19 and 40:28. Considered to be al-Qaida's first terrorist act in the USA, the events following the murder brought the Islamic reformation movement started by the messenger to the attention of the entire world. In this and many other events, there are signs for those who reflect. See 3:81; 40:28-38; 74:1-56.

Edip-Layth - End Note (72:28)

Muhammad Asad - The Message Of Quran

Muhammad Asad - End Note 1 (72:1)

I.e., had heard and accepted it: this being the meaning, in the above context, of the verbal form istama'a. - As regards the various meanings attributable to the plural noun jinn (rendered by me here as "unseen beings"), see Appendix III. As pointed out there, the jinn are referred to in the Qur'an in many connotations. In a few cases - e.g., in the present instance and in 46:29-32 - this expression may possibly signify "hitherto unseen beings", namely, strangers who had never before been seen by the people among and to whom the Qur'an was then being revealed. From 46:30 (which evidently relates to the same occurrence as the present one) it transpires that the jinn in question were followers of the Mosaic faith, inasmuch as they refer to the Qur'an as "a revelation bestowed from on high after [that of] Moses", thus pointedly omitting any mention of the intervening prophet, Jesus, and equally pointedly (in verse 3 of the present surah) stressing their rejection of the Christian concept of the Trinity. All this leads one to the assumption that they may have been Jews from distant parts of what is now the Arab world, perhaps from Syria or even Mesopotamia. (Tabari mentions in several places that the jinn referred to in this surah as well as in 46:29 ff. hailed from Nasibin, a town on the upper reaches of the Euphrates.) I should, however, like to stress that my explanation of this occurrence is purely tentative.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 2 (72:4)

If we accept the supposition that the beings spoken of here were Jewish strangers, the "outrageous things" (shatat) which they mention would appear to be an allusion to the deep-set belief of the Jews that they were "God's chosen people" - a belief which the Qur'an consistently rejects, and of which the new converts now divested themselves.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 3 (72:5)

In this and the next verse, the term jinn (rendered here as "invisible forces") apparently refers to what is described as "occult powers" or, rather to a person's preoccupation with them (see Appendix III). Irrespective of whether these "forces" are real or mere products of human imagination, they "tell lies about God" inasmuch as they induce their devotees to conceive all manner of fantastic, arbitrary notions about the "nature" of His Being and of His alleged relations with the created universe: notions exemplified in all mystery-religions, in the various gnostic and theosophical systems, in cabalistic Judaism, and in the many medieval offshoots of each of them.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 4 (72:6)

Lit., "that men (rijal) from among the humans used to (kana) seek refuge with men from among the jinn". Since the reference to "the humans" (al-ins) applies to men and women, the expression rijal is obviously used here - as so often in the Qur'an - in the sense of "some persons" or "certain kinds" of people. "Seeking refuge" is synonymous with seeking help, protection or the satisfaction of physical or spiritual needs: in the context of the above passage, this is evidently an allusion to the hope of "certain kinds of humans" that the occult powers to which they have turned would successfully guide them through life, and thus make it unnecessary for them to look forward to the coming of a new prophet.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 5 (72:7)

Thus Tabari (on the authority of Al-Kalbi) and Ibn Kathir. The overwhelming majority of the Jews were convinced that no prophet would be raised after those who were explicitly mentioned in the Old Testament: hence their rejection of Jesus and, of course, Muhammad, and their "reaching out towards heaven" (see next verse) in order to obtain a direct insight into God's plan of creation.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 6 (72:8)

The above may be understood as alluding not only, metaphorically, to the arrogant Jewish belief in their being "God's chosen people", but also, more factually, to their old inclination to, and practice of, astrology as a means to foretell the future. Apart from this - and in a more general sense - their "reaching out towards heaven" may be a metaphorical description of a state of mind which causes man to regard himself as "self-sufficient" and to delude himself into thinking that he is bound to achieve mastery over his own fate.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 7 (72:8)

See notes 16 and 17 on 15:17-18.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 8 (72:9)

I.e., "we failed notwithstanding our status as descendants of Abraham, and despite all our ability and learning".

Muhammad Asad - End Note 9 (72:9)

As the sequence shows (and as has been pointed out in note 17 on 15:18), this relates to all attempts at predicting the future by means of astrology or esoteric calculations, or at influencing the course of future events by means of "occult sciences".

Muhammad Asad - End Note 10 (72:10)

Thus, as in verses 2 and 21 of this surah, "consciousness of what is right" (rashad or rushd) is equated with the opposite of evil fortune, i.e., with happiness.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 11 (72:15)

With this assertion ends, according to all classical commentators, the "confession of faith" of the beings described at the beginning of this passage as jinn. Whatever be the real meaning of this term in the present instance - whether it signifies "unseen beings" of a nature unknown to man or, alternatively, a group of humans from distant lands - matters little, for the context makes it abundantly clear that the "speech" of those beings is but a parable of the guidance which the Qur'an offers to a mind intent on attaining to "consciousness of what is right".

Muhammad Asad - End Note 12 (72:16)

Lit., "water abundant": a metaphor of happiness, echoing the allegorical reference, so frequently occurring in the Qur'an, to the "running waters" of paradise (Abu Muslim, quoted by Razi).

Muhammad Asad - End Note 13 (72:17)

I.e., God's bestowal of blessings is not just a "reward" of righteousness but, rather, a test of man's remaining conscious of, and therefore grateful to, Him.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 14 (72:18)

Lit, "the places of worship" (al-masajid): i.e., worship as such.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 15 (72:19)

Lit, "would almost be upon him in crowds (libad, sing. libdah)" - i.e., with a view to "extinguishing God's [guiding] light" (Tabari, evidently alluding to 9:32). Most of the commentators assume that the above verse refers to the Prophet Muhammad and the hostility shown to him by his pagan contemporaries. While this may have been so in the first instance, it is obvious that the passage has a general import as well, alluding to the hostility shown by the majority of people, at all times and in all societies, to a minority or an individual who stands up for a self-evident - but unpopular - moral truth. (In order to be understood fully, the above verse should be read in conjunction with 19:73-74 and the corresponding notes.)

Muhammad Asad - End Note 16 (72:23)

Lit., "except through an announcement" (illa balaghan). In this instance, however, the particle illa is evidently a contraction of in la ("if not"): thus, the above phrase signifies "if I do not [or "if should fail to"] convey. . .", etc. (Tabari, Zamakhshari, Razi).

Muhammad Asad - End Note 17 (72:23)

This obviously relates to "those who are bent on denying the truth"- i.e., consciously - and thus destroy their own spiritual identity. The people alluded to in this particular instance are those who "would gladly overwhelm God's servant with their crowds" (verse 19).

Muhammad Asad - End Note 18 (72:24)

I.e., on the Day of Judgment. Cf. the second paragraph of 19:75, which is similarly phrased.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 19 (72:24)

Lit., "is weaker as to helpers and less in numbers" - i.e., less significant despite its greater numbers.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 20 (72:26)

The possessive pronoun "His" in the phrase ala ghaybihi evidently indicates God exclusive knowledge of "that which is beyond the perception of any created being" (al-ghayb): hence the above, somewhat free, rendering of this truly untranslatable phrase.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 21 (72:27)

Cf. 3:179 - "And it is not God's will to give you insight into that which is beyond the real of human perception: but [to that end] God elects whomsoever He wills from among His apostles".

Muhammad Asad - End Note 22 (72:27)

For an explanation of this rendering of the phrase min bayni yadayhi wa-min khalfihi (lit., "from between his hands and from behind him"), see note 247 on 2:255. In the present context the phrase implies that the very fact of his being graced by divine revelation protects every apostle, spiritually, in all concerns of his life, irrespective of whether these concerns are obvious to him or are beyond his ken.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 23 (72:28)

Lit., "all that is with them", i.e., of knowledge and wisdom.

Shabbir Ahmed -

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 1 (72:1)

46:29

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 2 (72:8)

The shining knowledge in the Qur'an dismisses all conjecture of the astrologers, fortune-tellers, and other claimants of occult sciences

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 3 (72:9)

The brilliant flame of Divine revelation is now ready to torch the conjecture of the astrologers. 37:6-9, 67:5

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 4 (72:10)

It remains to be seen how people will react to this revolutionary message

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 5 (72:16)

Tareeqah = Layer upon layer arranged in great harmony = Discipline = The Way = Course. At-Tareeqah = The Highest Discipline = Divine revelation. Maa = Water, heavenly blessings = Bounties

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 6 (72:17)

20:124

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 7 (72:19)

22:72

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 8 (72:20)

I do not heed religious 'authorities'

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 9 (72:27)

God Himself guards the Perfected Final revelation, hence no more apostles will come. Al-Qur'an is now the messenger for all times.15:9

Rashad Khalifa - The Final Testament

Rashad Khalifa - End Note (72:19)

Best viewed using your own brain

Tested on 1024x768 resolution with  FIREFOX 2

Kitabun Marqum v0.6.7 - Kitabun Marqum - Quran Research Platform by QuraniX Team Copyright © 2002-2011 All rights reserved.
Copyrights of all translations belong to their respective authors.

49:6 O you who believe, if a wicked person brings any news to you, you shall first investigate, lest you commit injustice towards some people, out of ignorance, then become sorry and remorseful for what you have done.

Rashad Khalifa (The Final Testament)

 Translations ▼

 Chapter/Verse ▼

 Refresh

 Search

<< Prev 73:1-20 Next >>

Edip-Layth	In the name of God, the Gracious, the Compassionate. 73:1 O you burdened with heavy responsibility,
The Monotheist Group	In the name of God, the Almighty, the Merciful. 73:1 O you who are covered with your garments.
Muhammad Asad	In the name of God, The Most Gracious, The Dispenser of Grace: 73:1 O THOU enwrapped one! ¹
Rashad Khalifa	In the name of GOD, Most Gracious, Most Merciful. 73:1 O you cloaked one.
Shabbir Ahmed	BISMILLAH-IR-RAHMAN-IR-RAHEEM With the Glorious Name of God, the Ultimate Source of Instant Beneficence and Eternal mercy Who encompasses the entire Universe, nourishing and taking care of all things for what they are meant to be; just as a mother's womb nourishes the embryo to completion without any returns. 73:1 O You (prophet) the great selector of companions, the best caravan leader!
Transliteration	Bismi All a hi al r rah m ani al r rah e emi 73:1 Ya ayyu h a almu z ammil u
A	بسم الله الرحمن الرحيم 73:1 يا ايها المزمّل
Edip-Layth	73:2 Stand the night except for a little.
The Monotheist Group	73:2 Stand the night except for a little.
Muhammad Asad	73:2 Keep awake [in prayer] at night, all but a small part

Rashad Khalifa	73:2 Meditate during the night, except rarely.
Shabbir Ahmed	73:2 Stay vigilant even by night, and never fall short on it - ¹
Transliteration	73:2 Qumi allayla illa qaleelan
A	73:2 قم الليل الا قليلا
Edip-Layth	73:3 Half of it, or a little less than that.
The Monotheist Group	73:3 Half of it, or a little less than that.
Muhammad Asad	73:3 of one-half thereof ² - or make it a little less than that,
Rashad Khalifa	73:3 Half of it, or a little less.
Shabbir Ahmed	73:3 Half of it, or a little less.
Transliteration	73:3 Niṣfahu awi onquṣ minhu qaleelan
A	73:3 نصفه او انقص منه قليلا
Edip-Layth	73:4 Or a little more, and enunciate the Quran thoughtfully and distinctly.
The Monotheist Group	73:4 Or a little more, and arrange the Qur'an in its arrangement.
Muhammad Asad	73:4 or add to it [at will]; and [during that time] recite the Qur'an calmly and distinctly, with thy mind attuned to its meaning. ³
Rashad Khalifa	73:4 Or a little more. And read the Quran from cover to cover.
Shabbir Ahmed	73:4 Or, you shall increase it whenever warranted. And convey the Qur'an in a calm distinctive manner, stage by stage.
Transliteration	73:4 Aw zid AAalayhi warattili alqur- anatardeelān
A	73:4 او زد عليه ورتل القرآن ترتيلا
Edip-Layth	73:5 We will place upon you a saying which is heavy.
The Monotheist Group	73:5 We will place upon you a saying which is heavy.
Muhammad Asad	73:5 Behold, We shall bestow upon thee a weighty message
Rashad Khalifa	73:5 We will give you a heavy message.
Shabbir Ahmed	73:5 We are charging you with a substantial declaration (a lofty mission).
Transliteration	73:5 Inna sanulqee AAalayka qawlan thaqeelan
A	73:5 انا سنلقى عليك قولا ثقيلا
Edip-Layth	73:6 The night-time production is more efficient and better for study.
The Monotheist Group	73:6 The time of the night is more effective and better for study.
Muhammad Asad	73:6 [and,] verily, the hours of night the mind most strongly and speak with the clearest voice, ⁴
Rashad Khalifa	73:6 The meditation at night is more effective, and more righteous.
	73:6 Certainly, the vigil of the night impresses the minds most strongly, and the

Shabbir Ahmed	speech is most upright. ²
Transliteration	73:6 Inna n a shi-ata allayli hiya ashaddu wa t -anwaaqwamu qeel a n
A	73:6 ان ناشئة الليل هي اشد وطا واقوم قايلا
Edip-Layth	73:7 For you have many duties during the day.
The Monotheist Group	73:7 For you have many duties during the day.
Muhammad Asad	73:7 whereas by day a long chain of doings is thy portion.
Rashad Khalifa	73:7 You have a lot of time during the day for other matters.
Shabbir Ahmed	73:7 By day you are engaged in continued strife.
Transliteration	73:7 Inna laka fee a l nnah a ri sab h an a taweel a n
A	73:7 ان لك فى النهار سبعا طويلا
Edip-Layth	73:8 Remember the name of your Lord, and devote to Him completely.
The Monotheist Group	73:8 And remember the name of your Lord, and devote to Him completely.
Muhammad Asad	73:8 But [whether by night or by day,] remember thy Sustainer's name, and devote thyself unto Him with utter devotion.
Rashad Khalifa	73:8 You shall commemorate the name of your Lord, to come ever closer and closer to Him.
Shabbir Ahmed	73:8 Keep eminent the Name of your Lord and detach yourself from needless pursuits for His sake.
Transliteration	73:8 Wa o th k uri isma rabbikawatabattal ilayhi tabteel a n
A	73:8 واذكر اسم ربك وتبتل اليه تبتيلا
Edip-Layth	73:9 The Lord of the east and the west, there is no god but He; so take Him as a protector.
The Monotheist Group	73:9 The Lord of the east and the west, there is no god but He, so take Him as a protector.
Muhammad Asad	73:9 The Sustainer of the east and the west [is He]: there is no deity save Him: hence, ascribe to Him alone the power to determine thy fate, ⁵
Rashad Khalifa	73:9 Lord of the east and the west; there is no other god beside Him. You should choose Him as your advocate.
Shabbir Ahmed	73:9 Lord of the East and the West! There is no god but He. So, hold on to Him as Dispenser of affairs.
Transliteration	73:9 Rabbu almashriqi waalmaghribi lail a ha ill a huwa faittakhith u wakeel a n
A	73:9 رب المشرق والمغرب لا اله الا هو فاتخذہ وكيلا
Edip-Layth	73:10 Be patient over what they say, and depart from them in a good manner.
The Monotheist Group	73:10 And be patient over what they say, and depart from them in a good manner.

Muhammad Asad	73:10 and endure with patience whatever people may say [against thee], and avoid them with a comely avoidance.
Rashad Khalifa	73:10 And remain steadfast in the face of their utterances, and disregard them in a nice manner.
Shabbir Ahmed	73:10 Endure with patience whatever people may say, and leave them graciously.
Transliteration	73:10 Waiṣbir AAalā maṡyaqooloona waohjurhum hajran jameelan
A	73:10 واصبر على ما يقولون واهجرهم هجرا جميلا
Edip-Layth	73:11 Leave Me to deal with the deniers who have been given the good things, and give them time for a while.
The Monotheist Group	73:11 And leave Me to deal with the deniers who have been given the good things, and give them time for a while.
Muhammad Asad	73:11 And leave Me alone [to deal] with those who give the lie to the truth ⁶ - those who enjoy the blessings of life [without any thought of God] - and bear thou with them for a little while:
Rashad Khalifa	73:11 And let Me deal with the rejectors, who have been generously blessed; just give them a little time.
Shabbir Ahmed	73:11 And leave to Me the deniers who enjoy the blessings of life. And bear with them for a little while.
Transliteration	73:11 Watharnee waalmukaththibeenaolee alnnaAAamati wamahhilhum qaleelan
A	73:11 وذرنى والمكذبين اولى النعمة ومهلهم قليلا
Edip-Layth	73:12 We have with Us chains and a raging fire.
The Monotheist Group	73:12 We have with Us chains and a raging fire.
Muhammad Asad	73:12 for, behold, heavy fetters [await them] with Us, and a blazing fire,
Rashad Khalifa	73:12 We have severe punishments, and Hell.
Shabbir Ahmed	73:12 With Us are shackles and a Blazing Fire.
Transliteration	73:12 Inna ladayna ankalan wajaheeman
A	73:12 ان لدينا انكالا وجحima
Edip-Layth	73:13 Food that chokes, and a painful retribution.
The Monotheist Group	73:13 And food that chokes, and a painful retribution.
Muhammad Asad	73:13 and food that chokes, and grievous suffering ⁷
Rashad Khalifa	73:13 Food that can hardly be swallowed, and painful retribution.
Shabbir Ahmed	73:13 And a choking food and an awful doom.
Transliteration	73:13 WataAAaman tha ghussatinwaAAathaban aleeman
A	73:13 وطعاما ذا غصة وعذابا الima
	73:14 The day the earth and the mountains shake, and the mountains become a

Edip-Layth	crumbling pile.
The Monotheist Group	73:14 The Day the Earth and the mountains shake, and the mountains become a crumbling pile.
Muhammad Asad	73:14 on the Day when the earth and the mountains will be convulsed and the mountains will [crumble and] become like a sand-dune on the move! ⁸
Rashad Khalifa	73:14 The day will come when the earth and the mountains will quake, and the mountains will turn into a weightless pile.
Shabbir Ahmed	73:14 The Day is coming when the masses and the wealthy tyrants will shake and the leaders will become heaps of sand.
Transliteration	73:14 Yawma tarjufu al-ar ḍ u waaljab al wak an ati aljib al u katheeban maheel an
A	73:14 يوم ترجف الارض والجبـال وكانت الجبال كثيبا مهيلـا
Edip-Layth	73:15 We have sent to you a messenger as a witness over you, as We have sent to Pharaoh a messenger.
The Monotheist Group	73:15 We have sent to you a messenger as a witness over you, as We have sent to Pharaoh a messenger.
Muhammad Asad	73:15 BEHOLD, [O men,] We have sent unto you an apostle who shall bear witness to the truth before you, even as We sent an apostle unto Pharaoh: ⁹
Rashad Khalifa	73:15 We have sent to you a messenger, just as we sent to Pharaoh a messenger.
Shabbir Ahmed	73:15 We have sent to you a messenger to be a witness concerning you, just as We had sent to Pharaoh a messenger.
Transliteration	73:15 Inna arsaln a ilaykum rasoolansh ah idan AAalaykum kam a arsaln a il afir AAawna rasool an
A	73:15 انا ارسلنا اليكم رسولا شهدا عليكم كما ارسلنا الى فرعون رسولا
Edip-Layth	73:16 But Pharaoh disobeyed the messenger, so We took him in a severe manner.
The Monotheist Group	73:16 But Pharaoh disobeyed the messenger, so We took him in a severe manner.
Muhammad Asad	73:16 and Pharaoh rebelled against the apostle, whereupon We took him to task with a crushing grip.
Rashad Khalifa	73:16 Pharaoh disobeyed the messenger and, consequently, we punished him severely.
Shabbir Ahmed	73:16 But Pharaoh rebelled against the messenger, whereupon We seized him with a calamitous seizing.
Transliteration	73:16 FaAAasa firAAawnu alrrasoolafaakhath nah u akh than wabeel an
A	73:16 فعصى فرعون الرسول فاخذنه اخذا وبيلـا
Edip-Layth	73:17 So how can you be righteous if you have rejected, on a day when the children become gray-haired?
The Monotheist Group	73:17 So how can you be righteous if you have rejected, on a Day when the children become grey haired?

Muhammad Asad	73:17 How, then, if you refuse to acknowledge the truth, will you protect yourselves on that Day which shall turn the hair of children grey, ¹⁰
Rashad Khalifa	73:17 If you disbelieve, how can you evade a day so terrible that it makes the infants gray-haired?
Shabbir Ahmed	73:17 So, how, if you keep rejecting, will you guard yourselves on a Day which will turn children gray. ³
Transliteration	73:17 Fakayfa tattaqoona in kafartum yawmanyajAAalu alwild ana sheeban
A	73:17 فكيف تتقون ان كفرتم يوما يجعل الولدن شيبا
Edip-Layth	73:18 The heavens will shatter with it. His promise is always delivered.
The Monotheist Group	73:18 The heavens will crack with it. His promise is always delivered.
Muhammad Asad	73:18 [the Day] on which the skies shall be rent asunder, [and] His promise [of resurrection] fulfilled?
Rashad Khalifa	73:18 The heaven will shatter therefrom. His promise is true.
Shabbir Ahmed	73:18 The very sky will then be rent asunder. His promise always comes to pass. ⁴
Transliteration	73:18 Alssamao munfatirunbihi kana waAAduhu mafAAoolan
A	73:18 السماء منفطر به كان وعده مفعولا
Edip-Layth	73:19 This is a reminder, so let he who wishes take a path to his Lord.
The Monotheist Group	73:19 This is a reminder, so let he who wishes take a path to his Lord.
Muhammad Asad	73:19 This, verily, is a reminder: let him who wills, then set out on a way to his Sustainer!
Rashad Khalifa	73:19 This is a reminder; whoever wills, let him choose the path to his Lord.
Shabbir Ahmed	73:19 This Qur'an is a reminder, a giver of eminence. So, whoever wills, let him set out on a way to his Lord.
Transliteration	73:19 Inna hathihi tathkiratun famanshaa ittakhatha ila rabbihi sabeelan
A	73:19 ان هذه تنكرة فمن شاء اتخذ الى ربه سبيلا
Edip-Layth	73:20 Your Lord knows that you rise a little less than two thirds of the night, and half of it, and one third of it, as well as a group of those who are with you. God measures the night and the day. He knows that you will not be able to keep up, so He pardons you. So study what is made easy of the Quran. He knows that there will be sick among you, and others that venture out in the land seeking from God's bounty, and others who are fighting in the cause of God, so study what you can of it. Hold the contact prayer and contribute towards betterment and give God a loan of righteousness. Whatever you put forth yourselves, you will find it with God, for it is better and a greater reward. Seek God's forgiveness, for God is Forgiving, Compassionate.
	73:20 Your Lord knows that you rise a little less than two thirds of the night, and half of it, and one third of it, as well as a group of those who are with you. And God measures the night and the day. He knows that you will not be able to keep-

The Monotheist Group	up, so He pardons you. So read what is made easy of the Qur'an. He knows that there will be sick among you, and others that go forth in the land seeking from God's bounty, and others who are fighting in the cause of God, so read what you can of it. And uphold the communion and contribute towards betterment and give God a loan of righteousness. And whatever you put forth yourselves, you will find it with God, for it is better and a greater reward. And seek God's forgiveness, for God is Forgiving, Merciful.
Muhammad Asad	73:20 BEHOLD, [O Prophet,] thy Sustainer knows that thou keepest awake [in prayer] nearly two-thirds of the night, or one-half of it, or a third of it, together with some of those who follow thee. 11 And God who determines the measure of night and day, is aware that you would never grudge it: 12 and therefore He turns towards you in His grace. Recite, then, as much of the Qur'an as you may do with ease. He knows that in time there will be among you sick people, and others who will go about the land in search of God's bounty, and others who will fight in God's cause. 13 Recite, then, [only] as much of it as you may do with ease, and be constant in prayer, and spend in charity, 14 and [thus] lend unto God a goodly loan: for whatever good deed you may offer up in your own behalf, you shall truly find it with God - yea, better, and richer in reward. And [always] seek God's forgiveness: behold, God is much-forgiving, a dispenser of grace!
Rashad Khalifa	73:20 Your Lord knows that you meditate during two-thirds of the night, or half of it, or one-third of it, and so do some of those who believed with you. GOD has designed the night and the day, and He knows that you cannot always do this. He has pardoned you. Instead, you shall read what you can of the Quran. He knows that some of you may be ill, others may be traveling in pursuit of GOD's provisions, and others may be striving in the cause of GOD. You shall read what you can of it, and observe the contact prayers (Salat), give the obligatory charity (Zakat), and lend GOD a loan of righteousness. Whatever good you send ahead on behalf of your souls, you will find it at GOD far better and generously rewarded. And implore GOD for forgiveness. GOD is Forgiver, Most Merciful.
Shabbir Ahmed	73:20 Most certainly, (O Messenger!) Your Lord is fully Aware that you stay up working two thirds of the night, one half of it, or one third of it, together with some of your companions. But God has designed the night and the day, and He knows that you and your companions will not even keep count of your vigil. So He turns to you in kindness. Recite to them as much of the Qur'an that you may do with ease. He knows that in time some of you may be ill, and others have to travel seeking God's bounty. And others who will have to fight in the cause of God. Therefore, recite and convey as much of the Qur'an as may be easy for all. You have to establish the Divine System and set up the Just Economic Order. And lend to God a goodly loan. Whatever good you send forth for your own 'self' you will find with God, better and more excellent in reward. And seek the protection of forgiveness of God for imperfections. Certainly, God is Forgiving, Merciful.
Transliteration	73:20 Inna rabbaka yaAAalamu annaka taqoomu adn amin thuluthayi allayli wanisfahu wathuluthahu wa ta-ifatunmina alla theena maAAaka wa Allahu yuqaddiruallayla wa alInnahara AAalima an lan tu hsoohufataba AAalaykum faiqraoo m a tayassara minaalqur- ani AAalima an sayakoonu minkum mar da waakharonayadriboona fee al-ar di yabtaghoona min fa dliAllahi wa akharoona yuqatiloona fee sabeeliAll ahi faiqraoo m a tayassara minhu waaqeemooa Issalata waatoo a Izzakatawaaqridoo All aha qar dan hasanan wam atuqaddimoo li-anfusikum min khayrin tajidoohu AAinda All ahihuwa khayran waaAA thama ajran waistaghfirooAllaha inna All aha ghafoorun ra heemun Bismi All ahi alRahmanalRahheemi
A	73:20 ان ربك يعلم انك تقوم ادنى من ثلثى الليل ونصفه وثلثه وطائفة من الذين معك والله يقدر الليل والنهار علم ان لن تحصوه فتاب عليكم فاقرءوا ما تيسر من القرآن علم ان سيكون

منكم مرضى وءآخرون يضربون فى الارض يبتغون من فضل الله وءآخرون يقتلون فى سبيل
الله فآقروا ما تيسر منه واقيموا الصلوة وءآتوا الزكوة واقرضوا الله قرضا حسنا وما تقدموا
لآنفسكم من خير تجدوه عند الله هو خيرا واعظم اجرا واستغفروا الله ان الله غفور رحيم

<< Prev 73:1-20 Next >>

Return to top

End Notes

Muhammad Asad - The Message Of Quran

Muhammad Asad - End Note 1 (73:1)

The expression muzzammil has a meaning similar to that of muddaththir, which occurs at the beginning of the next surah: namely, "one who is covered [with anything]", "enwrapped" or "enfolded [in anything]"; and, like that other expression, it may be understood in a concrete, literal sense - i.e., "wrapped up in a cloak" or "blanket" - as well as metaphorically, i.e., "wrapped up in sleep" or even "wrapped up in oneself". Hence, the commentators differ widely in their interpretations of the above apostrophe, some of them preferring the literal connotation, others the metaphorical; but there is no doubt that irrespective of the linguistic sense in which the address "O thou enwrapped one" is understood, it implies a call to heightened consciousness and deeper spiritual awareness on the part of the Prophet.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 2 (73:3)

Thus Zamakhshari, relating the phrase illa qalilan ("all but a small part") to the subsequent word nisfahu ("one-half thereof", i.e., of the night).

Muhammad Asad - End Note 3 (73:4)

This, I believe, is the closest possible rendering of the phrase rattil al-qur'ana tartilan. The term tartil primarily denotes "the putting [of something] together distinctly, in a well-arranged manner, and without any haste" (Jawhari, Baydawi; also Lisan al-Arab, Qamus). When applied to the recitation of a text, it signifies a calm, measured utterance with thoughtful consideration of the meaning to be brought out. A somewhat different significance attaches to a variant of this phrase in 25:32, applying to the manner in which the Qur'an was revealed.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 4 (73:6)

Lit., "are strongest of tread and most upright of speech".

Muhammad Asad - End Note 5 (73:9)

For this rendering of the term wakil, see surah 17, note 4.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 6 (73:11)

Cf. 74:11 and the last sentence of the corresponding note 5.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 7 (73:13)

Explaining this symbolism of torment in the hereafter, Razi says: "These four conditions may well be understood as denoting the spiritual consequences [of one's doings in life]. As regards the 'heavy fetters', they are a symbol of the soul's remaining shackled to its [erstwhile] physical attachments and bodily pleasures: and now that their realization has become impossible, those fetters and shackles prevent the [resurrected] human personality (an-nafs) from attaining to the realm of the spirit and of purity. Subsequently, those spiritual shackles generate spiritual 'fires' inasmuch as one's strong inclination towards bodily concerns, together with the impossibility of attaining to them, give rise, spiritually, to [a sensation of] severe burning...: and this is [the meaning of] 'the blazing fire' (al-jahim). Thereupon [the sinner] tries to swallow the choking agony of deprivation and the pain of separation [from the objects of his desire]: and this is the meaning of the words, 'and food that chokes', And, finally, because of these circumstances, he remains deprived of all illumination by the light of God, and of all communion with the blessed ones: and this is the meaning of the words 'and grievous suffering' . . . But [withal,] know that I do not claim to have exhausted the meaning of these [Qur'an-]verses by what I have stated [above]"

Muhammad Asad - End Note 8 (73:14)

See the first part of 14:48, and the corresponding note 63, as well as note 90 on 20:105-107

Muhammad Asad - End Note 9 (73:15)

This is probably the oldest Qur'anic reference to the earlier prophets, to the historic, continuity in mankind's religious experience, and, by implication, to the fact that the Qur'an does not institute a "new" faith but represents only the final, most comprehensive statement of religious principle as old as mankind itself: namely, that "in the sight of God, the only [true] religion is [man's] self-surrender unto Him" (3:19), and that "if one goes in search of a religion other than self-surrender unto God, it will never be accepted from him" (3:85).

Muhammad Asad - End Note 10 (73:17)

In ancient Arabian usage, a day full of terrifying events was described metaphorically as a day on which the locks of children turn grey"; hence the use of this phrase in the Qur'an. Its purely metaphorical character is obvious since, according to the teachings of the Qur'an, children are considered sinless - i.e., not accountable for their doings - and will, therefore, remain untouched by the ordeals and terrors of the Day of Judgment (Razi).

Muhammad Asad - End Note 11 (73:20)

Lit., "of those who are with thee". With this concluding passage, the discourse returns to the theme of the opening verses, namely, the great spiritual value of praying at night.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 12 (73:20)

Lit., "count it", i.e., the length of your vigil.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 13 (73:20)

This reference to "fighting in God's cause" has induced many commentators to assume that the whole of verse 20 was revealed at Medina; that is, years after the rest of the surah: for, the principle of "fighting in God's cause" (jihad) was introduced only after the Prophet's hijrah from Mecca to Medina. This assumption must, however, be dismissed as unwarranted. Although there is no doubt that jihad was first sanctioned during the Medina period, the sentence in question is clearly expressed in the future tense: "in time there will be" (sayakun) - and must, therefore, as Ibn Kathir points out, be understood as a prediction of future circumstances. With all this, the above passage stresses the necessity of avoiding all exaggeration even in one's devotions.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 14 (73:20)

For an explanation of the term zakah - of which the above is the earliest Qur'anic instance- see surah 2, note 34.

Shabbir Ahmed -

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 1 (73:2)

As Head of the State the prophet is responsible for arranging peace and security for all citizens (17:79, 76:26). 'Illa' here, as in many other verses, represents 'never', and not 'except' (11:107-108, 55:33, 87:6-7) "Al-Manar" vol 1. pg 414

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 2 (73:6)

Mutual consultation with companions is better done in the silence of night

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 3 (73:17)

A horrifying Day

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 4 (73:18)

'Sky getting asunder' may also mean the fall of the arrogant leaders

Best viewed using your own brain

Tested on 1024x768 resolution with  FIREFOX 2

Kitabun Marqum v0.6.7 - Kitabun Marqum - Quran Research Platform by QuraniX Team Copyright © 2002-2011 All rights reserved.
Copyrights of all translations belong to their respective authors.

49:6 O you who believe, if a wicked person brings any news to you, you shall first investigate, lest you commit injustice towards some people, out of ignorance, then become sorry and remorseful for what you have done.

Rashad Khalifa (The Final Testament)

 Translations ▼

 Chapter/Verse ▼

 Refresh

 Search

<< Prev 74:1-56 Next >>

Edip-Layth	In the name of God, the Gracious, the Compassionate. 74:1 O you hidden one. ¹
The Monotheist Group	In the name of God, the Almighty, the Merciful. 74:1 O you who are cloaked.
Muhammad Asad	In the name of God, The Most Gracious, The Dispenser of Grace: 74:1 O THOU [in thy solitude] enfolded! ¹
Rashad Khalifa	In the name of GOD, Most Gracious, Most Merciful. 74:1 O you hidden secret.
Shabbir Ahmed	BISMILLAH-IR-RAHMAN-IR-RAHEEM With the Glorious Name of God, the Ultimate Source of Instant Beneficence and Eternal mercy Who encompasses the entire Universe, nourishing and taking care of all things for what they are meant to be; just as a mother's womb nourishes the embryo to completion without any returns. 74:1 O You founder of the most Benevolent Order!
Transliteration	Bismi Allāhi alrrahmāni alrraḥeemi 74:1 Ya ayyuha almuḏdaththiru
A	بسم الله الرحمن الرحيم 74:1 يا ايها المدثر
Edip-Layth	74:2 Stand and warn.
The Monotheist Group	74:2 Stand and warn.
Muhammad Asad	74:2 Arise and warn!

Rashad Khalifa	74:2 Come out and warn.
Shabbir Ahmed	74:2 Rise up to the occasion and post danger signs on the highway of life.
Transliteration	74:2 Qum faanthir
A	74:2 قم فأنذر
Edip-Layth	74:3 Your Lord glorify.
The Monotheist Group	74:3 And your Lord glorify.
Muhammad Asad	74:3 And thy Sustainer's greatness glorify!
Rashad Khalifa	74:3 Extol your Lord.
Shabbir Ahmed	74:3 Establish the greatness of your Lord on earth!
Transliteration	74:3 Warabbaka fakabbir
A	74:3 وربك فكبر
Edip-Layth	74:4 Your garments purify. ²
The Monotheist Group	74:4 And purify your garments.
Muhammad Asad	74:4 And thine inner self purify! ²
Rashad Khalifa	74:4 Purify your garment.
Shabbir Ahmed	74:4 Keep a meticulous character! ¹
Transliteration	74:4 Wathiyabaka faṭahhir
A	74:4 وثيابك فطهر
Edip-Layth	74:5 Abandon all that is vile.
The Monotheist Group	74:5 And abandon all that is vile.
Muhammad Asad	74:5 And all defilement shun!
Rashad Khalifa	74:5 Forsake what is wrong.
Shabbir Ahmed	74:5 Leave alone the opponents.
Transliteration	74:5 Waalrrujza faohjur
A	74:5 والرجز فاهجر
Edip-Layth	74:6 Do not be greedy.
The Monotheist Group	74:6 And do not give for a return.
Muhammad Asad	74:6 And do not through giving seek thyself to gain, ³
Rashad Khalifa	74:6 Be content with your lot.
Shabbir Ahmed	74:6 And give your wealth and person selflessly. ²
Transliteration	74:6 Wala tamnun tastakthiru

A
Edip-Layth	74:7 To your Lord be patient.
The Monotheist Group	74:7 And to your Lord be patient.
Muhammad Asad	74:7 but unto thy Sustainer turn in patience.
Rashad Khalifa	74:7 Steadfastly commemorate your Lord.
Shabbir Ahmed	74:7 Steadfastly for your Sustainer.
Transliteration	74:7 Walirabbika faisbir
A	74:7 ولربك فاصبر
Edip-Layth	74:8 So when the trumpet is sounded.
The Monotheist Group	74:8 So when the trumpet is sounded.
Muhammad Asad	74:8 And [warn all men that] when the trumpet-call [of resurrection] is sounded,
Rashad Khalifa	74:8 Then, when the horn is blown.
Shabbir Ahmed	74:8 For when the Trumpet is sounded,
Transliteration	74:8 Fa-itha nuqira fee alInnaqoori
A	74:8 فاذا نقر فى الناقور
Edip-Layth	74:9 That will be a very difficult day.
The Monotheist Group	74:9 That will be a very difficult Day.
Muhammad Asad	74:9 that very Day shall be a day of anguish,
Rashad Khalifa	74:9 That will be a difficult day.
Shabbir Ahmed	74:9 That will be the Day - A Day of hardship,
Transliteration	74:9 Fathalika yawma-ithin yawmunAAaseerun
A	74:9 فذلك يومئذ يوم عسير
Edip-Layth	74:10 Upon the ingrates it will not be easy.
The Monotheist Group	74:10 Upon the rejecters it will not be easy.
Muhammad Asad	74:10 not of ease, for all who [now] deny the truth! ⁴
Rashad Khalifa	74:10 For the disbelievers, not easy.
Shabbir Ahmed	74:10 Not of ease, for all who deny the truth.
Transliteration	74:10 AAala alkafireena ghayruyaseerin
A	74:10 على الكافرين غير يسير
Edip-Layth	74:11 So leave Me alone with the one I have created.
The Monotheist Group	74:11 So leave Me alone with the one I have created.

Muhammad Asad	74:11 LEAVE Me alone [to deal] with him whom I have created alone, ⁵
Rashad Khalifa	74:11 Let Me deal with one I created as an individual.
Shabbir Ahmed	74:11 Leave it to Me (My law) alone to decide about him whom I alone have created. ³
Transliteration	74:11 Th arnee waman khalaqtu wa h eed a n
A	74:11 ذرنى ومن خلقت وحيدا
Edip-Layth	74:12 I gave him abundant wealth.
The Monotheist Group	74:12 And I gave him abundant wealth.
Muhammad Asad	74:12 and to whom I have granted resources vast,
Rashad Khalifa	74:12 I provided him with lots of money.
Shabbir Ahmed	74:12 And then granted him abundant wealth and resources. ⁴
Transliteration	74:12 WajaAAaltu lahu m a lan mamdood a n
A	74:12 وجعلت له مالا ممدودا
Edip-Layth	74:13 Children to bear witness.
The Monotheist Group	74:13 And children to bear witness.
Muhammad Asad	74:13 and children as [love's] witnesses,
Rashad Khalifa	74:13 And children to behold.
Shabbir Ahmed	74:13 And children and party abiding in his presence.
Transliteration	74:13 Wabaneena shuhood a n
A	74:13 وبنين شهودا
Edip-Layth	74:14 I made everything comfortable for him.
The Monotheist Group	74:14 And I made everything comfortable for him.
Muhammad Asad	74:14 and to whose life I gave so wide a scope: ⁶
Rashad Khalifa	74:14 I made everything easy for him.
Shabbir Ahmed	74:14 And made life comfortable for him like a cradle.
Transliteration	74:14 Wamahhadtu lahu tamheed a n
A	74:14 ومهدت له تمهيدا
Edip-Layth	74:15 Then he wishes that I give more.
The Monotheist Group	74:15 Then he is greedy wanting that I give more.
Muhammad Asad	74:15 and yet, he greedily desires that I give yet more!
Rashad Khalifa	74:15 Yet, he is greedy for more.
Shabbir Ahmed	74:15 But he keeps increasing in greed, desiring more and more.

Transliteration	74:15 Thumma yaṭmaAAu an azeeda
A	74:15 ثم يطمع ان ازيد
Edip-Layth	74:16 No. He was stubborn to Our signs.
The Monotheist Group	74:16 No. He was stubborn to Our revelations.
Muhammad Asad	74:16 Nay, verily, it is against Our messages that he knowingly, stubbornly sets himself ⁷
Rashad Khalifa	74:16 He stubbornly refused to accept these proofs.
Shabbir Ahmed	74:16 Nay, he has been a stubborn opponent of Our revelations.
Transliteration	74:16 Kalla innahu kana li-ayatinaAAaneeda
A	74:16 كلا انه كان لءايتنا عنيدا
Edip-Layth	74:17 I will exhaust him in climbing.
The Monotheist Group	74:17 I will exhaust him in climbing.
Muhammad Asad	74:17 [and so] I shall constrain him to endure a painful uphill climb! ⁸
Rashad Khalifa	74:17 I will increasingly punish him.
Shabbir Ahmed	74:17 I will cause him to walk an exhausting uphill climb.
Transliteration	74:17 Saorhiquhu ṣaAAooda
A	74:17 سارهقه صعودا
Edip-Layth	74:18 He thought and he analyzed.
The Monotheist Group	74:18 He thought and he analyzed.
Muhammad Asad	74:18 Behold, [when Our messages are conveyed to one who is bent on denying the truth,] he reflects and meditates [as to how to disprove them]
Rashad Khalifa	74:18 For he reflected, then decided.
Shabbir Ahmed	74:18 He thought and he determined.
Transliteration	74:18 Innahu fakkara waqaddar
A	74:18 انه فكر وقدر
Edip-Layth	74:19 So woes to him for how he analyzed.
The Monotheist Group	74:19 So woe to him for how he thought.
Muhammad Asad	74:19 and thus he destroys himself, ⁹ the way he meditates:
Rashad Khalifa	74:19 Miserable is what he decided.
Shabbir Ahmed	74:19 Woe to him! How he determined.
Transliteration	74:19 Faqutila kayfa qaddar
A	74:19 فقتل كيف قدر

Edip-Layth	74:20 Then woe to him for how he analyzed.
The Monotheist Group	74:20 Then woe to him for how he thought.
Muhammad Asad	74:20 yea, he destroys himself, the way he meditates!
Rashad Khalifa	74:20 Miserable indeed is what he decided.
Shabbir Ahmed	74:20 Woe to him again! How he determined.
Transliteration	74:20 Thumma qutila kayfa qaddar a
A	74:20 ثم قتل كيف قدر
Edip-Layth	74:21 Then he looked.
The Monotheist Group	74:21 Then he looked.
Muhammad Asad	74:21 and then he looks [around for new arguments],
Rashad Khalifa	74:21 He looked.
Shabbir Ahmed	74:21 And then he looked around.
Transliteration	74:21 Thumma na <th>h</th> ara	h
A	74:21 ثم نظر
Edip-Layth	74:22 Then he frowned and scowled.
The Monotheist Group	74:22 Then he frowned and became bad tempered.
Muhammad Asad	74:22 and then he frowns and glares, ¹⁰
Rashad Khalifa	74:22 He frowned and whined.
Shabbir Ahmed	74:22 And then he frowned and glared.
Transliteration	74:22 Thumma AAabasa wabasar a
A	74:22 ثم عبس وبسر
Edip-Layth	74:23 Then he turned away in arrogance.
The Monotheist Group	74:23 Then he turned away and was arrogant.
Muhammad Asad	74:23 and in the end he turns his back [on Our message], and glories in his arrogance, ¹¹
Rashad Khalifa	74:23 Then he turned away arrogantly.
Shabbir Ahmed	74:23 And then he turned away in pride.
Transliteration	74:23 Thumma adbara waistakbara
A	74:23 ثم ادبر واستكبر
Edip-Layth	Prophecy Fulfilled 74:24 He said, "This is nothing but an impressive magic."
The Monotheist Group	74:24 So he said: "This is nothing but the magic of old."

Muhammad Asad	74:24 and says, "All this is mere spellbinding eloquence handed down [from olden times]!" ¹²
Rashad Khalifa	74:24 He said, "This is but clever magic!
Shabbir Ahmed	74:24 And said, "All this is a remnant of ancient magic.
Transliteration	74:24 Faqala in hatha illa sihrunyu/tharu
A	74:24 فقال ان هذا الا سحر يوثر
Edip-Layth	74:25 "This is nothing but the words of a human."
The Monotheist Group	74:25 "This is nothing but the words of a human being."
Muhammad Asad	74:25 This is nothing but the word of mortal man!"
Rashad Khalifa	74:25 "This is human made."
Shabbir Ahmed	74:25 This is nothing but the speech of a human."
Transliteration	74:25 In hatha illa qawlu albashari
A	74:25 ان هذا الا قول البشر
Edip-Layth	74:26 I will cast him in the Saqar.
The Monotheist Group	74:26 I will cast him in the Scorching heat.
Muhammad Asad	74:26 [Hence,] I shall cause him to endure hell-fire [in the life to come]!" ¹³
Rashad Khalifa	74:26 I will commit him to retribution.
Shabbir Ahmed	74:26 I shall soon cast him into Saqar.
Transliteration	74:26 Saosleehi saqara
A	74:26 ساصليه سقر
Edip-Layth	74:27 Do you know what Saqar is?
The Monotheist Group	74:27 And do you know what is Scorching heat?
Muhammad Asad	74:27 And what could make thee conceive what hell-fire is?
Rashad Khalifa	74:27 What retribution!
Shabbir Ahmed	74:27 Ah, what will convey to you what Saqar is!
Transliteration	74:27 Wama adraka ma saqaru
A	74:27 وما ادركك ما سقر
Edip-Layth	74:28 It does not spare nor leave anything. ³
The Monotheist Group	74:28 It does not spare nor leave anything.
Muhammad Asad	74:28 It does not allow to live, and neither leaves [to die],
Rashad Khalifa	74:28 Thorough and comprehensive.
Shabbir Ahmed	74:28 A fire that lets not live and lets not die. ⁵

Transliteration	74:28 La tubqee wala tatharu
A	74:28 لا تبقى ولا تذر
Edip-Layth	74:29 Manifest to all the people. ⁴
The Monotheist Group	74:29 A scorcher for humans.
Muhammad Asad	74:29 making [all truth] visible to mortal man. ¹⁴
Rashad Khalifa	74:29 Obvious to all the people.
Shabbir Ahmed	74:29 Visibly written on the tablet of an individual's life.
Transliteration	74:29 Lawwahatun ilbashari
A	74:29 لوحة للبشر
Edip-Layth	74:30 On it is nineteen. ⁵
The Monotheist Group	74:30 Upon it is nineteen.
Muhammad Asad	74:30 Over it are nineteen [powers]. ¹⁵
Rashad Khalifa	The Quran's Common Denominator 74:30 Over it is nineteen.
Shabbir Ahmed	74:30 Over it are nineteen. ⁶
Transliteration	74:30 AAalayha tisAAata AAashara
A	74:30 عليها تسعة عشر
Edip-Layth	74:31 We have made the guardians of the fire to be angels; and We did not make their number except as a test for those who have rejected, to convince those who were given the book, to strengthen the acknowledgment of those who have acknowledged, so that those who have been given the book and those who acknowledge do not have doubt, and so that those who have a sickness in their hearts and the ingrates would say, "What did God mean by this example?" Thus God misguides whoever/whomever He wishes, and He guides whoever/whomever He wishes. None knows your Lord's soldiers except Him. It is but a reminder for people.
The Monotheist Group	74:31 And We have made the guardians of the Fire to be angels; and We did not make their number except as a trial for those who have rejected, so that those who were given the Scripture would understand, and those who have faith would be increased in faith, and so that those who have been given the Scripture and the believers do not have doubt, and so that those who have a sickness in their hearts and the rejecters would say: "What did God mean with an example such as this?" It is such that God misguides whom He wishes, and He guides whom He wishes. And none know your Lord's soldiers except Him; and it is but a reminder for human beings.
	74:31 For We have caused none but angelic powers to lord over the fire [of hell]; ¹⁶ and We have not caused their number to be aught but a trial for those who are bent on denying the truth ¹⁷ - to the end that they who have been granted revelation aforetime might be convinced [of the truth of this divine writ]; ¹⁸ and that they who have attained to faith [in it] might grow yet more firm

Muhammad Asad	in their faith; and that [both] they who have been granted the earlier revelation and they who believe [in this one] might be freed of all doubt; and that they in whose hearts is disease ¹⁹ and the who deny the truth outright might ask, "What does [your] God mean by this parable?" ²⁰ In this way God lets go astray him that wills [to go astray], and guides aright him that wills [to be guided]. ²¹ And none can comprehend thy Sustainers forces save Him alone: and all this ²² is but a reminder to mortal man.
Rashad Khalifa	74:31 We appointed angels to be guardians of Hell, and we assigned their number (19) (1) to disturb the disbelievers, (2) to convince the Christians and Jews (that this is a divine scripture), (3) to strengthen the faith of the faithful, (4) to remove all traces of doubt from the hearts of Christians, Jews, as well as the believers, and (5) to expose those who harbor doubt in their hearts, and the disbelievers; they will say, "What did GOD mean by this allegory?" GOD thus sends astray whomever He wills, and guides whomever He wills. None knows the soldiers of your Lord except He. This is a reminder for the people.
Shabbir Ahmed	74:31 We have appointed none but angelic powers (universal laws) to be the keepers of the fire. And We have made their number a trial for those who are bent upon denying the truth. This admonition should grant certainty to those who received the scripture before while the believers shall increase in faith. The believers and those who have been given the scripture before shall harbor no doubt about this declaration. And the hypocrites and the deniers may say, "What does God mean by this parable?" Thus, God lets go astray him who wills to go astray, and guides him who wills to be guided. And no one knows the forces of your Lord but He. And this is nothing but a reminder to humans. ⁷
Transliteration	74:31 Wama jaAAaln a a s-habaaInnari ill a mal a-ikatan wam ajaAAalna AAiddatahum ill a fitnatan lilla theenakafaroo liyastayqina alla theena ootoo alkitabawayazdada alla theena amanoo eem ananwala yart aba alla theena ootoo alkitabawaalmu/minoona waliyaqoola alla theena feequloobihim mara dun waalkafiroona mathaarada Allahu bihatha mathalan ka thalikayudillu Allahu man yashao wayahdee man yash aowama yaAAalamu junooda rabbika ill a huwa wamaahiya illa thikra lilbashari
A	74:31 وما جعلنا اصحاب النار الا ملئكة وما جعلنا عدتهم الا فتنة للذين كفروا ليستيقن الذين اوتوا الكتب ويزداد الذين ءامنوا ايمنا ولا يرتاب الذين اوتوا الكتب والمؤمنون وليقول الذين فى قلوبهم مرض والكفرون ماذا اراد الله بهذا مثلا كذلك يضل الله من يشاء ويهدى من يشاء وما يعلم جنود ربك الا هو وما هى الا نكرى للبشر
Edip-Layth	74:32 No, by the moon. ⁶
The Monotheist Group	74:32 No, by the moon.
Muhammad Asad	74:32 NAY, but consider the moon! ²³
Rashad Khalifa	74:32 Absolutely, (I swear) by the moon.
Shabbir Ahmed	74:32 Nay! The Moon stands witness.
Transliteration	74:32 Kalla waalqamari
A	74:32 كلا والقمر
Edip-Layth	74:33 By the night when it passes.
The Monotheist Group	74:33 And by the night when it withdraws.

Muhammad Asad	74:33 Consider the night when it departs,
Rashad Khalifa	74:33 And the night as it passes.
Shabbir Ahmed	74:33 And the Night when it departs.
Transliteration	74:33 Waallayli i th adbara
A	74:33 والليل اذا ادبر
Edip-Layth	74:34 By the morning when it shines.
The Monotheist Group	74:34 And by the morning when it brightens.
Muhammad Asad	74:34 and the morn when it dawns!
Rashad Khalifa	74:34 And the morning as it shines.
Shabbir Ahmed	74:34 And the Dawn as it shines forth.
Transliteration	74:34 Waal ss ubhi i th aasfara
A	74:34 والصبح اذا اسفر
Edip-Layth	74:35 It is one of the great ones.
The Monotheist Group	74:35 It is one of the great ones.
Muhammad Asad	74:35 Verily, that [hell-fire) is Indeed one of the great [forewarnings]
Rashad Khalifa	One of the Great Miracles 74:35 This is one of the great miracles.
Shabbir Ahmed	74:35 This (the fore-going) is one of the greatest allegories (that the revolution is coming in all its splendor).
Transliteration	74:35 Innaha la-i h da alkubari
A	74:35 انها لاحدى الكبير
Edip-Layth	74:36 A warning to people.
The Monotheist Group	74:36 A warning to humans.
Muhammad Asad	74:36 a warning to mortal man
Rashad Khalifa	74:36 A warning to the human race.
Shabbir Ahmed	74:36 This is a fore-warning for every human being.
Transliteration	74:36 Nat h eeran lilbashari
A	74:36 نذيرا للبشر
Edip-Layth	74:37 For any among you who wishes to progress or regress.
The Monotheist Group	74:37 For any among you who wishes to advance or regress.
Muhammad Asad	74:37 to everyone of you, whether he chooses to come forward or to hang back! ²⁴
Rashad Khalifa	74:37 For those among you who wish to advance, or regress.

Shabbir Ahmed	74:37 To everyone of you, whether he chooses to advance or to lag behind.
Transliteration	74:37 Liman sha'a minkum an yataqaddama awyataakhkhar a
A	74:37 لمن شاء منكم ان يتقدم او يتاخر
Edip-Layth	74:38 Every person is held by what it earned;
The Monotheist Group	74:38 Every soul is held by what it earned.
Muhammad Asad	74:38 [On the Day of Judgment,] every human being will be held in pledge for whatever [evil] he has wrought
Rashad Khalifa	74:38 Every soul is trapped by its sins.
Shabbir Ahmed	74:38 Every person is held in pledge for all that he has done. 8
Transliteration	74:38 Kullu nafsin bima kasabat raheenatun
A	74:38 كل نفس بما كسبت رهينة
Edip-Layth	74:39 Except for the people of the right.
The Monotheist Group	74:39 Except for the people of the right.
Muhammad Asad	74:39 save those who shall have attained to righteousness: 25
Rashad Khalifa	74:39 Except for those on the right.
Shabbir Ahmed	74:39 But those who will stand on the right hand side. 9
Transliteration	74:39 Illa as-haba alyameeni
A	74:39 الا اصحب اليمين
Edip-Layth	74:40 In paradises, they will be asking
The Monotheist Group	74:40 In paradises, they will inquire.
Muhammad Asad	74:40 [dwelling] In gardens [of paradise], they will inquire
Rashad Khalifa	74:40 While in Paradise, they will ask.
Shabbir Ahmed	74:40 In Gardens they will ask,
Transliteration	74:40 Fee jannatin yatasaloona
A	74:40 فى جنت يتساءلون
Edip-Layth	74:41 About the criminals.
The Monotheist Group	74:41 About the criminals.
Muhammad Asad	74:41 of those who were lost in sin:
Rashad Khalifa	74:41 About the guilty.
Shabbir Ahmed	74:41 Of those who used to steal the fruit of others' toil.
Transliteration	74:41 AAani almujrimeena
A	74:41 عن المجرمين

Edip-Layth	74:42 "What has caused you to be in Saqar?"
The Monotheist Group	74:42 "What has caused you to be in the scorching heat?"
Muhammad Asad	74:42 "What has brought you into hell-fire?"
Rashad Khalifa	74:42 "What brought you to this retribution?"
Shabbir Ahmed	74:42 "What has led you into Saqar?" 10
Transliteration	74:42 Ma salakakum fee saqar a
A	74:42 ما سللكم فى سقر
Edip-Layth	74:43 They said, "We were not of those who offered support (or observed contact prayer)." 7
The Monotheist Group	74:43 They said: "We were not of those who communed."
Muhammad Asad	74:43 They will answer: "We were not among those who prayed; 26
Rashad Khalifa	74:43 They will say, "We did not observe the contact prayers (Salat).
Shabbir Ahmed	74:43 They will reply, "We were not of the Musalleen." 11
Transliteration	74:43 Qaloo lam naku mina almusalleena
A	74:43 قالوا لم نك من المصلين
Edip-Layth	74:44 "We did not feed the poor."
The Monotheist Group	74:44 "And we did not feed the poor person."
Muhammad Asad	74:44 and neither did we feed the needy;
Rashad Khalifa	74:44 "We did not feed the poor.
Shabbir Ahmed	74:44 "Neither did we feed the hungry, nor did we take part in helping those who had lost their jobs, those whose businesses had stalled, and those whose hard-earned income was insufficient to meet their basic needs."
Transliteration	74:44 Walam naku nuAAimu almiskeena
A	74:44 ولم نك نطعم المسكين
Edip-Layth	74:45 "We used to participate with those who spoke falsehood."
The Monotheist Group	74:45 "And we used to participate with those who spoke falsehood."
Muhammad Asad	74:45 and we were wont to indulge in sinning together with all [the others] who indulged in it;
Rashad Khalifa	74:45 "We blundered with the blunderers.
Shabbir Ahmed	74:45 "And we were among those who used to say what they did not do."
Transliteration	74:45 Wakunna nakhoodu maAAa alkhaida
A	74:45 وكنا نخوض مع الخائضين

Edip-Layth	74:46 "We used to deny the day of Judgment." 8
The Monotheist Group	74:46 "And we used to deny the Day of Judgment."
Muhammad Asad	74:46 and the Day of Judgment we were wont to call a lie
Rashad Khalifa	74:46 "We disbelieved in the Day of Judgment.
Shabbir Ahmed	74:46 "And we used to deny the Day of Judgment and that the Divine System will eventually prevail"
Transliteration	74:46 Wakunna nukaththibu biyawmi alddeeni
A	74:46 وكنا نكذب بيوم الدين
Edip-Layth	74:47 "Until the certainty came to us."
The Monotheist Group	74:47 "Until the certainty came to us."
Muhammad Asad	74:47 until certainty came upon us [in death]."
Rashad Khalifa	74:47 "Until certainty came to us now."
Shabbir Ahmed	74:47 "Till the inevitable truth came to us."
Transliteration	74:47 Hatta atanaalyaqeenu
A	74:47 حتى اتنا اليقين
Edip-Layth	74:48 Thus, no intercession of intercessors could help them.
The Monotheist Group	74:48 So no intercession of intercessors could help them.
Muhammad Asad	74:48 And so, of no benefit to them could be the intercession of any that would intercede for them. 27
Rashad Khalifa	74:48 The intercession of the intercessors will never help them.
Shabbir Ahmed	74:48 Then no mediation of any mediator will help.
Transliteration	74:48 Fama tanfaAAuhum shafaAAatu alshshafiAAeena
A	74:48 فما تنفعهم شفعة الشفعين
Edip-Layth	74:49 Why did they turn away from this reminder? 9
The Monotheist Group	74:49 Why did they turned away from being reminded?
Muhammad Asad	74:49 WHAT, THEN, is amiss with them 28 that they turn away from all admonition
Rashad Khalifa	74:49 Why are they so averse to this reminder?
Shabbir Ahmed	74:49 What, then, is the matter with them that they are turning away from a clear Advisory?
Transliteration	74:49 Fama lahum AAani alttathkiratimuAARideena
A	74:49 فما لهم عن التذكرة معرضين
Edip-Layth	74:50 Like fleeing zebras,

The Monotheist Group	74:50 They are like fleeing zebras.
Muhammad Asad	74:50 as though they were terrified asses
Rashad Khalifa	74:50 Running like zebras.
Shabbir Ahmed	74:50 As if they were frightened zebras.
Transliteration	74:50 Kaannahum h umurun mustanfiratun
A	74:50 كانهم مستنفرة
Edip-Layth	74:51 Running from the lion?
The Monotheist Group	74:51 Running from the lion.
Muhammad Asad	74:51 fleeing from a lion?
Rashad Khalifa	74:51 Who are fleeing from the lion!
Shabbir Ahmed	74:51 Fleeing from a lion!
Transliteration	74:51 Farrat min qaswaratin
A	74:51 فرت من قسورة
Edip-Layth	74:52 Alas, every one of them wants to be given separate manuscripts.
The Monotheist Group	74:52 Alas, every one of them wants to be given separate scriptures.
Muhammad Asad	74:52 Yea, everyone of them claims that he [himself] ought to have been given revelations unfolded! ²⁹
Rashad Khalifa	74:52 Does each one of them want to receive the scripture personally?
Shabbir Ahmed	74:52 Nay, each of them wants to be given the scrolls of revelation personally, unfolded.
Transliteration	74:52 Bal yureedu kullu imri-in minhum an yu/tasu h ufan munashsharatan
A	74:52 بل يريد كل امرئ منهم ان يوتى صحفا منشرة
Edip-Layth	74:53 No, they do not fear the Hereafter.
The Monotheist Group	74:53 No, they do not fear the Hereafter.
Muhammad Asad	74:53 Nay, but they do not [believe in and, hence, do not] fear the life to come.
Rashad Khalifa	74:53 Indeed, they do not fear the Hereafter.
Shabbir Ahmed	74:53 They do not fear the Hereafter.
Transliteration	74:53 Kalla bal la yakha fo onaal- a akhirata
A	74:53 كلا بل لا يخافون الءاخرة
Edip-Layth	74:54 No, it is a reminder.
The Monotheist Group	74:54 No, it is a reminder.
Muhammad Asad	74:54 Nay, verily, this is an admonition
Rashad Khalifa	74:54 Indeed, this is a reminder.

Shabbir Ahmed	74:54 Nay, this is an Advisory.
Transliteration	74:54 Kalla innahu ta ^h kiratun
A	74:54 كلا انه تذكره
Edip-Layth	74:55 Whosoever wishes will take heed.
The Monotheist Group	74:55 So whosoever wishes will remember it.
Muhammad Asad	74:55 and whoever wills may take it to heart.
Rashad Khalifa	74:55 For those who wish to take heed.
Shabbir Ahmed	74:55 So whoever wills may take it to heart.
Transliteration	74:55 Faman sha ^a ^h akarahu
A	74:55 فمن شاء ذكره
Edip-Layth	74:56 None will take heed except if God wills. He is the source of righteousness and the source of forgiveness.
The Monotheist Group	74:56 And none will remember except if God wills. He is the source of righteousness and the source of forgiveness.
Muhammad Asad	74:56 But they [who do not believe in the life to come] will not take it to heart unless God so wills: ³⁰ [for] He is the Fount of all God-consciousness, and the Fount of all forgiveness.
Rashad Khalifa	74:56 They cannot take heed against GOD's will. He is the source of righteousness; He is the source of forgiveness.
Shabbir Ahmed	74:56 But they will not take it to heart but according to God's laws (of guidance). He is the Source of righteousness, and the Source of forgiveness. ¹²
Transliteration	74:56 Wama ya ^h kuroona ill ^a an yash ^a a All ^a hu huwa ahlu a Ittaqwawaahlu almaghfirati
A	74:56 وما ينكرون الا ان يشاء الله هو اهل التقوى واهل المغفرة

<< Prev 74:1-56 Next >>

Return to top

End Notes

Edip-Layth - Quran: A Reformist Translation

Edip-Layth - End Note 1 (74:1)

The All-Wise God, though He revealed the Quran to Muhammad about 14 centuries ago, kept its mathematical miracle as a gift to our times. Rashad Khalifa, an Egyptian biochemist living in the USA, did not have any knowledge that his curiosity regarding the meaning of the alphabet letters that initialize 29 chapters of the Quran would end up with the discovery of its mathematical system. His computerized study that started in 1969 gave its fruits in early 1974 by the discovery of the 14-century-old SECRET. The discovery of this code opened a new era that has been changing the paradigm of those who do not turn off the circuits of their brains in matters related to God. This discovery provided very powerful verifiable and falsifiable evidence for God's existence, His communication with us, and the fulfillment of a great prophecy. Besides, it saved monotheists from the contradiction of trusting past generations regarding the Quran, knowing that they have fabricated, narrated and followed volumes of man-made teachings, demonstrated ignorance, distorted the meaning of the Quranic words, and glorified gullibility and sheepish adherence to the fatwas of clerics. If the Code 19 was going to provide strong evidence for the existence of God and for the authenticity of the Quran, then it is reasonable to expect that the identity of the discoverer and the time of the discovery would not be coincidental. Indeed, the events have demonstrated a prophetic design in the timing of this miraculous mathematical design. The number 19 is mentioned only in a chapter known as "The Hidden," the 74th chapter of the Quran. Juxtaposing these two numbers yields 1974, exactly the year in which the code was deciphered. (Calendar based on the birth of Jesus and the solar year are accepted by the Quran as units of calculating time. See, 19:33; 43:61; 18:24. Besides, this is the most commonly used calendar in the world.) If we multiply these two numbers, 19x74, we end up with 1406, the exact number of lunar years between the revelation of the Quran and the discovery of the code. In January 31, 1990, Rashad Khalifa was assassinated in Tucson, Arizona, by a terrorist group affiliated with al-Qaida. Ironically, soon after his departure, ignorant people started idolizing him and created a cult distorting his message of strict monotheism. Also See 27:82-85; 40:28-38; 72:19-28. For further information on this historical discovery, see the Appendix On it Nineteen.

Edip-Layth - End Note 2 (74:4)

What could the metaphorical message of this verse be?

Edip-Layth - End Note 3 (74:28)

The Quran does not want us to rush into defining the meaning of the word saqar, since it introduced it with a question followed up by an explanation. Past generations understood it as another word for Hell. After the discovery of the role of 19 in the Quran and fulfillment of the prophecies in this chapter and in other verses of the Quran, now we know that Saqar refers to an intellectual punishment. The extreme allergy and aversion demonstrated by Sunni and Shiite mushriks against the number 19 is part of the prophetic fulfillment of these verses.

Edip-Layth - End Note 4 (74:29)

This verse, like many of the verses and words in this chapter, before 1974 had multiple meanings (mutashabih) and commentators were aware of them. Though all commentators knew the primary meaning of this verse to be "manifest to all the people," few of them mentioned it in their commentaries, and most of them chose the alternative meaning, "scorching the skin." Some, picked a mixture and preferred "scorching humans." Commentators who lived in pre-1974 had an excuse to use 'scorch' and 'burn,' but after the discovery of the secret, after the prophecy of this chapter was unveiled, translators and commentators have no excuse for repeating the misunderstanding of previous generations. We translate the word bashar as "humans" while many classic commentaries rendered it as "skin." The Quran uses it invariably for humans. For instance, it used for humans just two verses down, at the end of verse 31. The word we render as "manifest" or "succeeding tablets/screens," is lawaha and the Quran never use it to mean "scorching," "burning" or "shriveling." See 7:145,150,154; 54:13; 75:22. After learning the discovery of the mathematical system based on the number 19, it takes a blindness and bigotry in the magnitude of miracle to not see the obvious meaning and implication of this verse. Those who assert that the only response the Lord of the Universe could give to a skeptic who challenged the authenticity of His word is to tell such a skeptic, "I will throw you in fire and scorch you!", do not appreciate God as He should be appreciated. These people can accept a God who can produce the best literary work, but they cannot accept Him as the ultimate mathematician and advocate. They see hell, fire and smoke in verses where an amazing intellectual piece of evidence is prophesied. See 6:91; 22:74; 39:76. For a comparative discussion of this verse, see the Sample Comparisons section in the Introduction.

Edip-Layth - End Note 5 (74:30)

I have presented and discussed the many details of this physical, verifiable and falsifiable miracle in "On it 19," and its English version will be available soon, perhaps under the title: God's Signature in Nature and Scripture. In fact, you do not need to read that book to witness the great miracle for yourself. All you need is to hear that the literal and numeral units of the Quran are designed according to a mathematical system based on code 19. If you do your research objectively, with a critical mind, you will discover many features that already have been discovered and witnessed by many. You should also be informed about two extreme reactions and groups. The majority of the followers of hadith and sunna have a great allergy and aversion against this number. Their blood pressure goes up when they hear the number 19. They are quick in repeating excuses, or false claims made by their scholars. Another group, however, entails the manipulators and innumerates who are too gullible and too eager to discover even more examples. They are somehow impressed by the pattern of 19 in the Quran, but because of their lack of comprehension of the laws of probability and solid base in mathematics, they juggle with numbers in an arbitrary and anecdotal fashion and come up with many so-called miracles. A careful and objective reader will notice that short verses build and prepare the reader to verse 74:30 and the verses afterwards describe the function of the number 19 and the reaction of people to it. Verse 74:30 is the longest verse in the Quran in proportion to the average length of verses in the chapters they belong. The reader, at the start, encounters "the hidden one" and is informed about a typical profile of an arrogant and ignorant antagonist with a fast paced series of short descriptions that lead to a question and an enigmatic answer in 74:30. The enigma is described in cryptic, yet prophetic words of in 74:31. Later, following a powerful emphasis on the importance of the prophecy, verse 74:37 describes those who would witness the prophetic fulfillment of these verses as "progressive" and depicts those who deprive themselves from such a blessing as "regressive" people. The rest of the chapter elaborates on the characteristics of two groups and connects them to their reaction to the prophetic message (ZiKRā). Many verses of the Quran implicitly or explicitly refer to this prophetic event that will be witnessed only by those who are appreciative. For instance, see 1:1; 2:2; 2:118; 6:4-5; 6:25-26; 6:67; 6:104; 6:158; 7:146; 10:1; 10:20; 12:1; 13:1; 13:38-40; 15:1; 15:9; 17:88-96; 20:133-135; 25:4-6; 26:1-6; 27:1; 27:82-85; 27:93; 28:1-2; 29:1-2; 29:50-52; 31:1-2; 38:1-8; 38:29; 38:87-88; 40:44; 40:78-83; 41:53; 46:10; 54:1-5; 59:21; 72:28; 78:27-30; 83:7-21; 98:4. Also, see 4:82 and 13:38. We highly recommend Rashad's book, "Quran: Visual Presentation of the Miracle" available at amazon.com. The details of this extraordinary and intricate mathematical design, together with refutations of major criticism since its discovery, will be discussed by Edip Yuksel in a book, which might be titled "On it 19" or "Nineteen: God's Signature in Nature and Scripture." Also, see 2:1; 2:6-7 and 7:180.

Edip-Layth - End Note 6 (74:32)

For the meaning and function of the Quranic oaths, see 89:5.

Edip-Layth - End Note 7 (74:43)

Statements starting from this verse describe both the religious and nonreligious unappreciative opponents. The word we translated as "we were not of those who offered support (or observe contact prayer)" reflects both meanings within the context. See 2:157; 9:99,103; 33:43,56; 75:31.

Edip-Layth - End Note 8 (74:46)

The majority of Jews, Christians, Sunnis and Shiites do not acknowledge the Day of Judgment. According to the definition of the Quran, the ruler and judge of that day is God alone (1:4) and none can help or harm the other (82:19). Those who believe in intercession, by their very belief, have denied the Day of Judgment as defined by God. Atheists, on the other hand, deny the Day of Judgment explicitly.

Edip-Layth - End Note 9 (74:49)

For the prophetic use of the word ZKR (reminder), see 15:9; 21:2; 21:24,105; 26:5; 29:51; 38:1,8;

Muhammad Asad - The Message Of Quran

Muhammad Asad - End Note 1 (74:1)

The expression muddaththir (an abbreviated form of mutadaththir) signifies "one who is covered [with something]" or "enfolded [in something]"; and all philologists point out that the verb dathara, from which the above participial noun is derived, may equally well have a concrete or abstract connotation. Most of the commentators understand the phrase "O thou enfolded one" in its literal, concrete sense, and assume that it refers to the Prophet's habit of covering himself with a cloak or blanket when he felt that a revelation was about to begin. Razi, however, notes that this apostrophe may well have been used metaphorically, as an allusion to Muhammad's intense desire for solitude before the beginning of his prophetic mission (cf. introductory note to surah 96): and this, according to Razi, would explain his being thus addressed in connection with the subsequent call, "Arise and warn" - i.e., "Give now up thy solitude, and stand up before all the world as a preacher and warner."

Muhammad Asad - End Note 2 (74:4)

Lit., "thy garments (thiyab) purify": but almost all the classical commentators point out that the noun thawb and its plural thiyab is often metonymically applied to that which a garment encloses, i.e., a person's "body" or, in a wider sense, his "self" or his "heart", or even his "spiritual state" or "conduct" (Taj al-'Arus). Thus, commenting on the above verse, Zamakhshari draws the reader's attention to the well-known idiomatic phrases tahir ath-thiyab (lit., "one who is clean in his garments") and danis ath-thiyab ("one who is filthy in his garments"), and stresses their tropical significance of "free from faults and vices" and "vicious and perfidious", respectively. Razi states with approval that "according to most of the [earlier] commentators, the meaning [of this verse] is, 'purify thy heart of all that is blameworthy'".

Muhammad Asad - End Note 3 (74:6)

Lit., "and do not bestow favours to obtain increase".

Muhammad Asad - End Note 4 (74:10)

Since this is the earliest Qur'anic occurrence of the expression kafir (the above surah having been preceded only by the first five verses of surah 96), its use here - and, by implication, in the whole of the Qur'an - is obviously determined by the meaning which it had in the speech of the Arabs before the advent of the Prophet Muhammad: in other words, the term kafir cannot be simply equated, as many Muslim theologians of post-classical times and practically all Western translators of the Qur'an have done, with "unbeliever" or "infidel" in the specific, restricted sense of one who rejects the system of doctrine and law promulgated in the Qur'an and amplified by the teachings of the Prophet - but must have a wider, more general meaning. This meaning is easily grasped when we bear in mind that the root verb of the participial noun kafir (and of the infinitive noun kufr) is kafara, "he [or "it"] covered [a thing]": thus, in 57:20 the tiller of the soil is called (without any pejorative implication) kafir, "one who covers", i.e., the sown seed with earth, just as the night is spoken of as having "covered" (kafara) the earth with darkness. In their abstract sense, both the verb and the nouns derived from it have a connotation of "concealing" something that exists or "denying" something that is true. Hence, in the usage of the Qur'an - with the exception of the one instance ((in 57:20) where this participial noun signifies a "tiller of the soil" - a kafir is "one who denies [or "refuses to acknowledge"] the truth" in the widest, spiritual sense of this latter term: that is, irrespective of whether it relates to a cognition of the supreme truth - namely, the existence of God - or to a doctrine or ordinance enunciated in the divine writ, or to a self-evident moral proposition, or to an acknowledgment of, and therefore gratitude for, favours received. (Regarding the expression alladhinakafaru, implying conscious intent, see surah 2, note 6.)

Muhammad Asad - End Note 5 (74:11)

Or: "whom I alone have created". The above sentence can be understood in either of these two senses, depending on whether one relates the expression "alone" (wahid) to God - thus stressing His uniqueness as Creator - or to this particular object of His creation, man, who begins and ends his life in a state of utter loneliness (cf. 6:94 and 19:80 and 95). In either case, our attention is drawn to the fact of man's inescapable dependence on God. Beyond that, the phrase in question carries a further meaning, namely, "Leave it to Me alone to decide what to do with him who forgets that I am his Creator and Sustainer" - thus forbidding any human punishment of "those who deny the truth".

Muhammad Asad - End Note 6 (74:14)

Lit., "for whom I have spread [all] out in a [wide] spread" - i.e., "whom I have endowed with potentialities far beyond those open to other living beings".

Muhammad Asad - End Note 7 (74:16)

Lit., "he is wont (kana) to set himself". The noun anid, derived from the verb anada, denotes "one who opposes or rejects something that is true, knowing it to be true" (Lisan al-Arab). The element of human contrariness and stubbornness is implied in the use of the auxiliary verb kana, which indicates here a permanently recurring phenomenon despite its past-tense formulation. I am, therefore of the opinion that verses 18-25, although ostensibly formulated in the past tense, must also be rendered in the present tense.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 8 (74:17)

In combination with the verb urhiquhu ("I shall constrain him to endure") the term sa'ud (lit., "ascent" or "climb") has the tropical connotation of something extremely difficult, painful or distressing. In the above context, it is an allusion to the loss of all instinctive innocence - and, hence, to the individual and social suffering - which unavoidably follows upon man's wilful neglect of moral and spiritual truths ("God's messages") in this world, and bars his spiritual development in the life to come.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 9 (74:19)

The expression qutila reads, literally, "he has been killed" or, as an imprecation, "may he be killed". Since a literal rendering of this expression - whether conceived as a statement of fact or an imprecation - would be meaningless here, many commentators (Tabari among them) understand it as signifying "he is rejected from God's grace" (lu'ina), i.e., "killed" spiritually by his own action or attitude; hence my rendering, "he destroys himself".

Muhammad Asad - End Note 10 (74:22)

I.e., he becomes emotionally involved because he suspects in his heart that his arguments are weak (Razi).

Muhammad Asad - End Note 11 (74:23)

See 96:6-7.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 12 (74:24)

The term sihr, which usually denotes "sorcery" or "magic", primarily signifies "the turning of something from its proper [or "natural"] state of being into another state"; hence, it is often applied to the fascination or enchantment caused by exceptional, "spellbinding" eloquence (Taj al-'Arus). In its pejorative sense - as used by deniers of the truth to describe a divine message - it has also the connotation of wilful deception" or "delusion".

Muhammad Asad - End Note 13 (74:26)

This is unquestionably the earliest instance of the term saqar ("hell-fire"), one of the seven metaphorical names given in the Qur'an to the concept of the suffering in the hereafter which man brings upon himself by sinning and deliberately remaining blind and deaf, in this world, to spiritual truths (cf. surah 15, note 33). The allegorical character of this and all other Qur'anic descriptions of man's condition and destiny in the hereafter is clearly alluded to in the subsequent verse as well as in verses 28 ff.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 14 (74:29)

Most of the commentators interpret the above elliptic phrase in the sense of "changing the appearance of man" or "scorching the skin of man". The rendering adopted by me, on the other hand, is based on the primary significance of the verb laha - "it appeared", "it shone forth" or "it became visible". Hence, the primary meaning of the intensive participial noun lawwah is "that which makes [something] visible". In the above context, it relates to the sinner's belated cognition of the truth, as well as to his distressing insight into his own nature, his past failings and deliberate wrongdoings, and the realization of his own responsibility for the suffering that is now in store for him: a state neither of life nor of death (cf. 87:12-13).

Muhammad Asad - End Note 15 (74:30)

Whereas most of the classical commentators are of the opinion that the "nineteen" are the angels that act as keepers or guardians of hell, Razi advances the view that we may have here a reference to the physical, intellectual and emotional powers within man himself: powers which raise man potentially far above any other creature, but which, if used wrongly, bring about a deterioration of his whole personality and, hence, intense suffering in the life to come. According to Razi, the philosophers (arbab al-hikmah) identify these powers or faculties with, firstly, the seven organic functions of the animal - and therefore also human - body (gravitation, cohesion, repulsion of noxious foreign matter, absorption of beneficent external matter, assimilation of nutrients, growth, and reproduction); secondly, the five "external" or physical senses (sight, hearing, touch, smell and taste); thirdly, the five "internal" or intellectual senses, defined by Ibn Sina - on whom Razi apparently relies - as (1) perception of isolated sense-images, (2) conscious apperception of ideas, (3) memory of sense-images, (4) memory of conscious apperceptions, and (5) the ability to correlate sense-images and higher apperceptions; and, lastly, the emotions of desire or aversion (resp. fear or anger), which have their roots in both the "external" and "internal" sense-categories - thus bringing the total of the powers and faculties which preside over man's spiritual fate to nineteen. In their aggregate, it is these powers that confer upon man the ability to think conceptually, and place him, in this respect, even above the angels (cf. 2:30 ff. and the corresponding notes; see also the following note).

Muhammad Asad - End Note 16 (74:31)

Since it is by virtue of his powers of conscious perception and conceptual thinking that man can arrive at a discriminating cognition of good and evil and, thus, rise to great spiritual heights, these powers are described here as "angelic" (lit., "angels" - this being the earliest occurrence of the term malak in the history of Qur'anic revelation). On the other hand, since a neglect or a deliberately wrong use of these angelic powers is at the root of all sinning on the part of man and, therefore, of his suffering in the hereafter, they are spoken of as "the lords (ashab) of the fire [of hell]", which complements the expression "over it" in the preceding verse.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 17 (74:31)

This is apparently an allusion to the allegorical character of this passage, which "those who are bent on denying the truth" are unwilling to recognize as such and, hence, fail to grasp its real purport. By speculating on the reasons which allegedly induced Muhammad - whom they regard as the "author" of the Qur'an - to lay stress on one particular number, they tend to take the allegory in a literal sense, thus missing its point entirely.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 18 (74:31)

Namely, by being enabled, through an understanding of the above allegory, to appreciate the rational approach of the Qur'an to all questions of faith. The reference to "those who have been granted revelation aforetime" is the earliest statement outlining the principle of continuity in mankind's religious experience.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 19 (74:31)

I.e., in this instance, the half-hearted ones who, despite their ability to discern between right and wrong, incline towards unbelief.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 20 (74:31)

Cf. the identical phrase in 2:26, together with the corresponding note 18. My interpolation, in both these passages, of the word "your" between brackets is necessitated by the fact that it is the unbelievers who ask this question.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 21 (74:31)

Or: "God lets go astray whomever He wills, and guides aright whomever He wills" (see surah 14, note 4). The stress on the allegorical nature of the above passage, spoken of as a "parable" (mathal), has here the same purpose as in 2:26 - namely, to prevent the followers of the Qur'an from attaching a literal meaning to its eschatological descriptions - a purpose that is unmistakably expressed in the concluding sentence of this passage: "All this is but a reminder to mortal man". (See also next note.)

Muhammad Asad - End Note 22 (74:31)

Lit., "it" or "these" - depending on whether the personal pronoun hiya is taken to denote a singular - in which case it would refer to the feminine noun saqar, "hell-fire" (Tabari, Zamakhshari, Baghawi, Ibn Kathir) - or a plural, referring to what Razi pinpoints as "those [Qur'anic] verses dealing with these allegories (hadhihi 'l-mutashabihat)": hence my compromise rendering "all this".

Muhammad Asad - End Note 23 (74:32)

This is the earliest Qur'anic instance of the adjurative particle wa used in the sense of a solemn, oathlike assertion - a calling to witness, as it were - meant (as in the expression "by God!") to give weight to a subsequently stated truth or evidence of the truth: hence, I am rendering it here and elsewhere as "consider". In the present case, the truth thus to be stressed is the implied statement that just as the changing phases of the moon and the alternation of night and day are the outcome of God-given, natural laws, so, too, a sinner's suffering in the hereafter is but a natural outcome of his deliberate wrongdoing in this world. (See also note 7 on 2:7.)

Muhammad Asad - End Note 24 (74:37)

Lit., "any of you who chooses. . .", etc. - i.e., irrespective of whether one has chosen to follow or to disregard the divine call: implying that even true believers may stumble into sinning, and hence need to be warned.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 25 (74:39)

Lit., "those [or "the people"] on the right hand" (ashab al-yamin), an expression based on the tropical significance of yamin as "righteous" or "righteousness" and consequently, "blessedness". The above is probably the oldest Qur'anic incidence of this expression, which evidently comprises all those whose conduct in life will have earned them God's forgiveness of whatever sins they may have committed.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 26 (74:43)

In view of the fact that at the time of the revelation of this very early surah the canonical prayer (salah) had not yet been made obligatory on the followers of the Qur'an, it is reasonable to assume that in the above context this term is used in its widest sense, namely, conscious belief in God.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 27 (74:48)

Lit., "the intercession of intercessors" - implying that there would be none to intercede for them with God. As regards the much-misunderstood Islamic concept of "intercession", see 10:3 - "there is none that could intercede with Him unless He grants His leave there for" - and the corresponding note 7.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 28 (74:49)

I.e., with so many people who refuse to listen to the truth.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 29 (74:52)

Lit., "everyone of them wants to be given wide-open scriptures", or "scriptures unfolded" (i.e., open to everyone's understanding): cf. 2:118 - "Why does not God speak unto us, nor is a message conveyed to us?" - i.e., directly, without the intervention of a prophet. The above is the earliest illustration of the "arrogance" or "false pride" to which the Qur'an so often refers.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 30 (74:56)

Namely, unless He bestows His grace on them by making their minds and hearts receptive to the truth, so that they are compelled - from within themselves, as it were - to make the right choice. (See also note 11 on 81:28-29, as well as note 4 on 14:4.)

Shabbir Ahmed -

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 1 (74:4)

Literally, purify your garments

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 2 (74:6)

30:39, 76:9

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 3 (74:11)

This is another verse forbidding worldly punishment for deniers of the truth or 'apostates'

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 4 (74:12)

73:11

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 5 (74:28)

fire of Regret, Remorse, Anguish

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 6 (74:30)

On the tablet of human life are inscribed nineteen patterns of behavior that lead to the fire. They could be the telltale signs written on the tablet of an individual's life. The intelligent reader may reflect on those patterns and reach one's own conclusions. According to my humble understanding, the nineteen patterns of behavior that lead to the Hellfire are these: 1. Shirk = Associating others with God. Accepting human authorities parallel to Divine revelation. Sectarianism. Idol worship in any form. Being content with manmade systems. Worshiping graves, saints, ancestors or one's own desires. Blind following or accepting religious information without discernment. Failing to use the Divine Word as the Criterion. 2. Ithm = Actions that deplete individual and collective potential. Destroying human lives. Lewd behavior. Discouraging productive work. Causing fear or grief by any means. Indulgence in pursuit of pleasure. 3. 'Udwan = Creating wedges of discord between people. Causing dissension. Spreading disorder and corruption. Promoting racial, sectarian and nationalistic hatred. 4. Israaf = Wasting resources or one's own 'self'. Crossing limits. Moving away from moderation. Committing excesses in any aspect of life including Religion. Defying Moral Values given in the Quran. Using intoxicants that waste the human 'self'. 5. M'asiah = Rebelling against God and the rightly guided Central authority. Bloody crimes on earth. Disruptive behavior. Disobedience of the Word of God and the messenger as embodied in the Quran. Gambling and usury. 6. Sayyeh = Destabilizing the lives of others. Failing to fulfill the rights of others. Injustice. Inequity. Deceiving in business or other dealings. Falling short in discharging duties. favoritism. 7. Zulm = Relegating the truth or displacing anything from its rightful place. Oppressing people. Violating human rights. Hurting others or one's own 'self'. Doing wrong to God's creatures and environment. Enslaving bodies and minds. 8. Ifk = Backbiting. Evil scheming. Defaming. Undue criticism. Fault finding. Slander. Presenting the 'heard' as 'seen'. Alarmist behavior. 9. Zann = False assumptions about people. Condemnation without investigation. Slander. Falling for superstitions. Belittling the truth. Following conjecture. Staying out of touch with reality. 10. Jurm = Stealing the fruit of others' labor. Violating human rights. Being guilty of living subhuman life. Witnessing for falsehood. Depriving others from their rights. Devouring others' possessions. Not giving share where it is due. 11. Takabbur = False pride. Arrogance. Self-glorification. Holding others in contempt. Refusing to learn and unlearn. Insisting on blind following. Refusing to admit fault. Being forward before the messages of God. Mocking the truth. Deeming to 'know it all'. Considering material goods higher than moral virtue. 12. Ghill = Harboring malice in the heart. Failing to forgive people. Looking forward to take revenge. Plotting to hurt physically, financially or emotionally. Being hateful. Opposition for the sake of opposition. Incriminating others for personal grudge. 13. Ghadhab = Anger. Letting loose virulent emotions. Succumbing to desires. Yelling at others. Intimidating the weak. Losing self-control. Impulsive attitude. 15. Bhukhl = Stinginess. Hoarding. Withholding own wealth and person from serving humanity. Apathy toward the needy. Being greedy. 16. Laghw = Wasting precious time. Idle talk. Meaningless assemblies. Conspiring. Senseless play and pastime. 17. Sadd = Barring oneself or others from the path of God. Putting forward human thoughts above the Divine revelation. Hindering immigration from the domain of evil. Antagonizing the Word of God. Presenting falsehood as truth. Misleading people with conjecture. Hindering the way to the Divinely ordained System of Life. 18. Jadal = Disputation = Argument for the sake of argument. Opposing Divine messages. Confusing human thought. Confounding the truth with rhetoric. 19. Kufr = Stubborn denial of the truth. Ingratitude. Concealing the truth. Choosing to live in the darkness of ignorance. Knowerly oppose the truth. Uncritical adherence to ancestral views. Trying to be with the majority without discernment

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 7 (74:31)

2:26

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 8 (74:38)

52:21

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 9 (74:39)

Those who have succeeded for their righteousness. Yameen = A metaphor for righteousness and success. They have actualized their own 'self' by doing good to others

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 10 (74:42)

A fire that lets not live and lets not die. Fire of Regret 74:28

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 11 (74:43)

Who are Musalleen? 70:22-35. The Musalleen (from Salaat - are not the so called ritualistic praying ones, but) Those who always follow the Divine System. Those in whose wealth and possessions is a known right. For him who asks for help, and for him who is deprived. Those who have conviction in the Day of Judgment. Those who are fearful of their Lord's requital. (They know that) none can feel secure against their Lord's requital. (Still Musalleen are also) Those men and women who maintain their chastity. They have intimate relations only with their spouses - that is, those who are rightfully theirs through wedlock. For such relationship they are free of blame. But anyone who seeks beyond this, those are the transgressors. (And Musalleen are) Those who guard their trusts and duties assigned to them, and their pledges, as a shepherd guards his flock. Those who are truthful as witness and stand by their testimony. Those who consolidate and protect the Divine System. (Musalleen are the ones who collectively build Paradise on earth and inherit that in the Hereafter.) They will be the honored ones dwelling in the Gardens of bliss

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 12 (74:56)

4:88, 76:30, 81:29

Best viewed using your own brain

Tested on 1024x768 resolution with  FIREFOX 2

Kitabun Marqum v0.6.7 - Kitabun Marqum - Quran Research Platform by QuraniX Team Copyright © 2002-2011 All rights reserved.
Copyrights of all translations belong to their respective authors.

49:6 O you who believe, if a wicked person brings any news to you, you shall first investigate, lest you commit injustice towards some people, out of ignorance, then become sorry and remorseful for what you have done.

Rashad Khalifa (The Final Testament)

 Translations ▼

 Chapter/Verse ▼

 Refresh

 Search

<< Prev 75:1-40 Next >>

Edip-Layth	In the name of God, the Gracious, the Compassionate. 75:1 I swear by the day of Judgment. ¹
The Monotheist Group	In the name of God, the Almighty, the Merciful. 75:1 I do swear by the Day of Judgment.
Muhammad Asad	In the name of God, The Most Gracious, The Dispenser of Grace: 75:1 NAY! I call to witness the Day of Resurrection! ¹
Rashad Khalifa	In the name of GOD, Most Gracious, Most Merciful. 75:1 I swear by the Day of Resurrection.
Shabbir Ahmed	BISMILLAH-IR-RAHMAN-IR-RAHEEM With the Glorious Name of God, the Ultimate Source of Instant Beneficence and Eternal mercy Who encompasses the entire Universe, nourishing and taking care of all things for what they are meant to be; just as a mother's womb nourishes the embryo to completion without any returns. 75:1 Nay! I call to witness the Day of Resurrection. ¹
Transliteration	Bismi Allāhi alrraḥmāni alrraḥeemi 75:1 La oqsimu biyawmi alqiyāmati
A	بسم الله الرحمن الرحيم 75:1 لا أقسم بيوم القيمة
Edip-Layth	75:2 I swear by the person which is self-blaming.
The Monotheist Group	75:2 And I do swear by the soul which is self blaming.
Muhammad Asad	75:2 But nay! I call to witness the accusing voice of man's own conscience! ²

Rashad Khalifa	75:2 And I swear by the blaming soul.
Shabbir Ahmed	75:2 Nay, I call to witness the person who shows remorse after wrongdoing. ²
Transliteration	75:2 Walā oqsimu bi ^a lInnafsi allaww ^a mati
A	75:2 ولا أقسم بالنفس اللوامة
Edip-Layth	75:3 Does the human being think that We will not gather his bones?
The Monotheist Group	75:3 Does man think that We will not gather his bones?
Muhammad Asad	75:3 Does man think that We cannot [resurrect him and] bring his bones together again?
Rashad Khalifa	75:3 Does the human being think that we will not reconstruct his bones?
Shabbir Ahmed	75:3 Does the human being think that We will not assemble his bones? ³
Transliteration	75:3 Ayah ^s abu al-ins ^a nu allannajmaAAa AAith ^a mahu
A	75:3 ايجسب الانسن الن نجمع عظامه
Edip-Layth	75:4 Indeed, We were able to make his fingertips. ²
The Monotheist Group	75:4 Indeed, We were able to make his fingertips.
Muhammad Asad	75:4 Yea indeed, We are able to make whole his very finger-tips!
Rashad Khalifa	75:4 Yes indeed; we are able to reconstruct his finger tip.
Shabbir Ahmed	75:4 Yes certainly, We have the Power to restore his very finger tips.
Transliteration	75:4 Balā q ^a direena AAalā annusawwiya ban ^a nahu
A	75:4 بلى قدرين على ان نسوى بنانه
Edip-Layth	75:5 No, the human being desires to exceed the limits.
The Monotheist Group	75:5 No, man desires that he continue committing sins.
Muhammad Asad	75:5 None the less man chooses to deny what lies ahead of him,
Rashad Khalifa	75:5 But the human being tends to believe only what he sees in front of him.
Shabbir Ahmed	75:5 But man is after subverting his own future.
Transliteration	75:5 Bal yureedu al-ins ^a nu liyafjura am ^a mahu
A	75:5 بل يريد الانسن ليفجر امامه
Edip-Layth	75:6 He asks: "When is the day of resurrection?"
The Monotheist Group	75:6 He asks: "When is the Day of Resurrection?"
Muhammad Asad	75:6 asking [derisively], "When is that Resurrection Day to be?"
Rashad Khalifa	75:6 He doubts the Day of Resurrection!
Shabbir Ahmed	75:6 (Yet) he asks, "When will this Day of Resurrection be?"
Transliteration	75:6 Yas-alu ayy ^a na yawmu alqiy ^a mati

A	75:6 يسئل ايان يوم القيمة
Edip-Layth	75:7 So, when the sight is dazzled.
The Monotheist Group	75:7 So, when the sight is dazzled.
Muhammad Asad	75:7 But [on that Day,] when the eyesight is by fear confounded,
Rashad Khalifa	75:7 Once the vision is sharpened.
Shabbir Ahmed	75:7 But when the sight is dazzled.
Transliteration	75:7 Fa-itha bariqa albasaru
A	75:7 فاذا برق البصر
Edip-Layth	75:8 The moon is eclipsed.
The Monotheist Group	75:8 And the moon is eclipsed.
Muhammad Asad	75:8 and the moon is darkened,
Rashad Khalifa	75:8 And the moon is eclipsed.
Shabbir Ahmed	75:8 And the moon is darkened. 4
Transliteration	75:8 Wakhasafa alqamaru
A	75:8 وخسف القمر
Edip-Layth	75:9 The sun and moon are joined together.
The Monotheist Group	75:9 And the sun and moon are joined together.
Muhammad Asad	75:9 and the sun and the moon are brought together 3
Rashad Khalifa	75:9 And the sun and the moon crash into one another.
Shabbir Ahmed	75:9 And the sun and the moon are brought together. 5
Transliteration	75:9 WajumiAAa alshshamsu waalqamaru
A	75:9 وجمع الشمس والقمر
Edip-Layth	75:10 Man will say on that day: "Where can I escape!"
The Monotheist Group	75:10 Man will say on that Day: "Where can I escape!"
Muhammad Asad	75:10 on that Day will man exclaim "Whither to flee?"
Rashad Khalifa	75:10 The human being will say on that day, "Where is the escape?"
Shabbir Ahmed	75:10 On that Day man will wonder, "Where to flee!" 6
Transliteration	75:10 Yaqoolu al-insanu yawma-ithinayna almafarru
A	75:10 يقول الانسن يومئذ اين المفر
Edip-Layth	75:11 No. There is no refuge.

The Monotheist Group	75:11 No. There is no refuge.
Muhammad Asad	75:11 But nay: no refuge [for thee, O man]!
Rashad Khalifa	75:11 Absolutely, there is no escape.
Shabbir Ahmed	75:11 But, nay! No height to mount above the turmoil!
Transliteration	75:11 Kalla lā wazara
A	75:11 كلا لا وزر
Edip-Layth	75:12 To your Lord on that day is the abode.
The Monotheist Group	75:12 To your Lord on that Day is the abode.
Muhammad Asad	75:12 With thy Sustainer, on that Day, the journey's end will be!
Rashad Khalifa	75:12 To your Lord, on that day, is the final destiny.
Shabbir Ahmed	75:12 Unto your Lord that Day is the resting place.
Transliteration	75:12 Ilā rabbika yawma-ithinalmustaqarru
A	75:12 الى ربك يومئذ المستقر
Edip-Layth	75:13 Man will be told on that day what he has put forward, and what he has done.
The Monotheist Group	75:13 Man will be told on that Day what he has put forward, and what he has done.
Muhammad Asad	75:13 Man will be apprised, on that Day, of what he has done and what he has left undone: ⁴
Rashad Khalifa	75:13 The human being will be informed, on that day, of everything he did to advance himself, and everything he did to regress himself.
Shabbir Ahmed	75:13 On the Day when man is apprised of all his acts of commission and omission. ⁷
Transliteration	75:13 Yunabbao al-insanu yawma-ithinbima qaddama waakhkhara
A	75:13 ينبوا الانسن يومئذ بما قدم وَاخر
Edip-Layth	75:14 Indeed, the human being will testify against himself.
The Monotheist Group	75:14 Indeed, man will testify against himself.
Muhammad Asad	75:14 nay, but man shall against himself be an eye-witness,
Rashad Khalifa	75:14 The human being will be his own judge.
Shabbir Ahmed	75:14 Oh, but man is a telling witness against himself.
Transliteration	75:14 Bali al-insanu AAalā nafsihibaseeratun
A	75:14 بل الانسن على نفسه بصيرة
Edip-Layth	75:15 Even though he puts forth his excuses.
The Monotheist Group	75:15 Even though he puts forth his excuses.

Muhammad Asad	75:15 even though he may veil himself in excuses. ⁵
Rashad Khalifa	75:15 No excuses will be accepted.
Shabbir Ahmed	75:15 Even though he were to put forward all his excuses.
Transliteration	75:15 Walaw alq a maAA a theer ah u
A	75:15 ولو القى معاذيره
Edip-Layth	God is the One Who Explains the Quran 75:16 Do not move your tongue with it to make haste. ³
The Monotheist Group	75:16 Do not move your tongue with it to make haste.
Muhammad Asad	75:16 MOVE NOT thy tongue in haste, [repeating the words of the revelation:] ⁶
Rashad Khalifa	Muhammad Forbidden From Explaining the Quran 75:16 Do not move your tongue to hasten it.
Shabbir Ahmed	75:16 (Whenever you recite the Qur'an) do not recite in haste stirring your tongue. ⁸
Transliteration	75:16 La tu h arrik bihi lisa n akalitaAA a jala bihi
A	75:16 لا تحرك به لسانك لتعجل به
Edip-Layth	75:17 It is for Us to collect it and relate it.
The Monotheist Group	75:17 It is for Us to gather it into a compilation.
Muhammad Asad	75:17 for, behold, it is for Us to gather it [in thy heart,] and to cause it to be read [as it ought to be read]. ⁷
Rashad Khalifa	75:17 It is we who will collect it into Quran.
Shabbir Ahmed	75:17 It is up to Us to gather it and the reading of it. ⁹
Transliteration	75:17 Inna AAalay n a jamAA a hu waqur- a n ah u
A	75:17 ان علينا جمعه وقرءانه
Edip-Layth	75:18 So when We relate it, you shall follow its revelation.
The Monotheist Group	75:18 So when We compile it, you shall follow its compilation.
Muhammad Asad	75:18 Thus, when We recite it, follow thou its wording [with all thy mind]: ⁸
Rashad Khalifa	75:18 Once we recite it, you shall follow such a Quran.
Shabbir Ahmed	75:18 Thus, when We read it, follow the reading. ¹⁰
Transliteration	75:18 Fa-i th a qara/ n ah u faittabiAA a qur- a n ah u
A	75:18 فاذا قرانه فاتبع قرءانه
Edip-Layth	75:19 Then it is for Us to clarify it.
The Monotheist Group	75:19 Then it is for Us to explain it.

Muhammad Asad	75:19 and then, behold, it will be for Us to make its meaning clear. ⁹
Rashad Khalifa	75:19 Then it is we who will explain it.
Shabbir Ahmed	75:19 Then, it is for Us to explain it. ¹¹
Transliteration	75:19 Thumma inna AAalayn a bay a nah u
A	75:19 ثم ان علينا بيانه
Edip-Layth	75:20 Alas, you all like this world.
The Monotheist Group	75:20 Alas, you all like this world.
Muhammad Asad	75:20 NAY, but [most of] you love this fleeting life,
Rashad Khalifa	75:20 Indeed, you love this fleeting life.
Shabbir Ahmed	75:20 Nay, but you love instant results.
Transliteration	75:20 Kall a bal tu h ibboona alAA a jilata
A	75:20 كلا بل تحبون العاجلة
Edip-Layth	75:21 Neglecting the Hereafter.
The Monotheist Group	75:21 And neglect the Hereafter.
Muhammad Asad	75:21 and give no thought to the life to come [and to Judgment Day]!
Rashad Khalifa	75:21 While disregarding the Hereafter.
Shabbir Ahmed	75:21 And give little thought to the long term. ¹²
Transliteration	75:21 Wata t haroona al- a khirata
A	75:21 وتذرون الءاخرة
Edip-Layth	75:22 Faces on that day will be shining.
The Monotheist Group	75:22 Faces on that Day will be shining.
Muhammad Asad	75:22 Some faces will on that Day be bright with happiness,
Rashad Khalifa	75:22 Some faces, on that day, will be happy.
Shabbir Ahmed	75:22 Some faces that Day will beam with happiness.
Transliteration	75:22 Wujoohun yawma- i thin na d iratun
A	75:22 وجوه يومئذ ناضرة
Edip-Layth	75:23 Looking at their Lord.
The Monotheist Group	75:23 Looking at their Lord.
Muhammad Asad	75:23 looking up to their Sustainer;
Rashad Khalifa	75:23 Looking at their Lord.
Shabbir Ahmed	75:23 Looking up to their Lord.

Transliteration	75:23 Ila rabbi ha na thi ratun
A	75:23 الى ربها نظرة
Edip-Layth	75:24 Faces on that day will be gloomy.
The Monotheist Group	75:24 And faces on that Day will be gloomy.
Muhammad Asad	75:24 and some faces will on that Day be overcast with despair,
Rashad Khalifa	75:24 Other faces will be, on that day, miserable.
Shabbir Ahmed	75:24 And some faces on that Day will be despondent.
Transliteration	75:24 Wawujoohun yawma-i thi n ba si ratun
A	75:24 ووجوه يومئذ بأسرة
Edip-Layth	75:25 Thinking that a punishment is coming to them.
The Monotheist Group	75:25 Thinking that a punishment is coming to them.
Muhammad Asad	75:25 knowing that a crushing calamity is about to befall them.
Rashad Khalifa	75:25 Expecting the worst.
Shabbir Ahmed	75:25 Expecting a back breaking calamity.
Transliteration	75:25 Ta th unnu an yufAAala bi ha f a qiratun
A	75:25 تظن ان يفعل بها فاقرة
Edip-Layth	75:26 Alas, when it reaches the throat.
The Monotheist Group	75:26 Alas, when it reaches the throat.
Muhammad Asad	75:26 NAY, but when [the last breath] comes up to the throat [of a dying man],
Rashad Khalifa	75:26 Indeed, when (the soul) reaches the throat.
Shabbir Ahmed	75:26 Nay, when the last breaths come up to the throat.
Transliteration	75:26 Kalla i th a balaghati al tt ar a qiya
A	75:26 كلا اذا بلغت التراقي
Edip-Layth	75:27 It will be said, "Who can save him?"
The Monotheist Group	75:27 And it will be said: "Who can save him?"
Muhammad Asad	75:27 and people ask, "Is there any wizard [that could save him]?" 10
Rashad Khalifa	75:27 And it is ordered: "Let go!"
Shabbir Ahmed	75:27 And those around cry, "Is there any charmer?"
Transliteration	75:27 Waqeela man r a qin
A	75:27 وقيل من راق
Edip-Layth	75:28 He assumes it is the time of passing.

The Monotheist Group	75:28 And he assumes it is the time of passing.
Muhammad Asad	75:28 the while he [himself] knows that this is the parting,
Rashad Khalifa	75:28 He knows it is the end.
Shabbir Ahmed	75:28 But he knows that this is the parting.
Transliteration	75:28 Wa th anna annahu alfir a qu
A	75:28 وظن انه الفراق
Edip-Layth	75:29 The leg is buckled around the other leg.
The Monotheist Group	75:29 And the leg is buckled around the other leg.
Muhammad Asad	75:29 and is enwrapped in the pangs of death ¹¹
Rashad Khalifa	75:29 Each leg will lay motionless next to the other leg.
Shabbir Ahmed	75:29 And it is pang upon pang.
Transliteration	75:29 Wailtaffati alssa q u bialssa q i
A	75:29 والتفت الساق بالساق
Edip-Layth	75:30 To your Lord on that day he will be driven.
The Monotheist Group	75:30 To your Lord on that Day he will be driven.
Muhammad Asad	75:30 at that time towards thy Sustainer does he feel impelled to turn! ¹²
Rashad Khalifa	75:30 To your Lord, on that day, is the summoning.
Shabbir Ahmed	75:30 That day the drive is to your Lord.
Transliteration	75:30 I l a rabbika yawma-i th in almasa q u
A	75:30 الى ربك يومئذ المساق
Edip-Layth	75:31 For he did not acknowledge nor support. ⁴
The Monotheist Group	75:31 For he did not believe nor commune.
Muhammad Asad	75:31 [Useless, though, will be his repentance: ¹³ for [as long as he was alive] he did not accept the truth, nor did he pray [for enlightenment],
Rashad Khalifa	75:31 For he observed neither the charity, nor the contact prayers (Salat).
Shabbir Ahmed	75:31 For he neither stood by the truth, nor did he follow it. ¹³
Transliteration	75:31 Fala s addaqa wala s alla
A	75:31 فلا صدق ولا صلى
Edip-Layth	75:32 But he denied and turned away.
The Monotheist Group	75:32 But he denied and turned away.
Muhammad Asad	75:32 but, on the contrary, he gave the lie to the truth and turned away [from it],

Rashad Khalifa	75:32 But he disbelieved and turned away.
Shabbir Ahmed	75:32 Rather, he used to deny and turn away.
Transliteration	75:32 Wal a kin kath th aba watawall a
A	75:32 ولكن كذب وتولى
Edip-Layth	75:33 Then he went to his family admiring himself.
The Monotheist Group	75:33 Then he went to his family admiring himself.
Muhammad Asad	75:33 and then went arrogantly back to what he had come from. ¹⁴
Rashad Khalifa	75:33 With his family, he acted arrogantly.
Shabbir Ahmed	75:33 And then used to go to his family gleefully.
Transliteration	75:33 Thumma th ahaba il a ahlihiyatamatt a
A	75:33 ثم ذهب الى اهله يتمطى
Edip-Layth	75:34 Woe to you and woe to you.
The Monotheist Group	75:34 Woe to you and woe to you.
Muhammad Asad	75:34 [And yet, O man, thine end comes hourly] nearer unto thee, and nearer
Rashad Khalifa	75:34 You have deserved this.
Shabbir Ahmed	75:34 This is the most befitting for you - now this is the most befitting.
Transliteration	75:34 Awl a laka faawl a
A	75:34 اولى لك فاولى
Edip-Layth	75:35 Then woe to you and woe to you.
The Monotheist Group	75:35 Then woe to you and woe to you.
Muhammad Asad	75:35 and ever nearer unto thee, and nearer!
Rashad Khalifa	75:35 Indeed, you have deserved this.
Shabbir Ahmed	75:35 Again! This is the most befitting for you - now this is the most befitting. ¹⁴
Transliteration	75:35 Thumma awl a laka faawl a
A	75:35 ثم اولى لك فاولى
Edip-Layth	75:36 Did the human being think that he will be left neglected?
The Monotheist Group	75:36 Did man think that he will be left neglected?
Muhammad Asad	75:36 DOES MAN, then, think that he is to be left to himself to go about at will? ¹⁵
Rashad Khalifa	75:36 Does the human being think that he will go to nothing?
Shabbir Ahmed	75:36 Does man think He will be left alone like a broken musical string?
Transliteration	75:36 Aya h sabu al-ins a nu an yutrakasud a n

A	75:36 ايجسب الانسن ان يترك سدى
Edip-Layth	75:37 Was he not a seed from sperm put forth?
The Monotheist Group	75:37 Was he not a seed from sperm put forth?
Muhammad Asad	75:37 Was he not once a [mere] drop of sperm that had been spilt,
Rashad Khalifa	75:37 Was he not a drop of ejected semen?
Shabbir Ahmed	75:37 Was he not gametes that moved to join?
Transliteration	75:37 Alam yaku nuṭfatan min manayyin yumna
A	75:37 الم يك نطفة من منى يمنى
Edip-Layth	75:38 Then he was an embryo, so he was created and developed.
The Monotheist Group	75:38 Then he was an embryo, so he was created and developed.
Muhammad Asad	75:38 and thereafter became a germ-cell - whereupon He created and formed [it] in accordance with what [it] was meant to be, ¹⁶
Rashad Khalifa	75:38 Then He created an embryo out of it!
Shabbir Ahmed	75:38 Then he became a zygote. And He shaped and fashioned him in due proportion.
Transliteration	75:38 Thumma kana AAalaqatan fakhalaqafasawwa
A	75:38 ثم كان علقة فخلق فسوى
Edip-Layth	75:39 Then He made the two pairs, male and female.
The Monotheist Group	75:39 Then He made the two pairs, male and female.
Muhammad Asad	75:39 and fashioned out of it the two sexes, the male and the female?
Rashad Khalifa	75:39 He made it into male or female!
Shabbir Ahmed	75:39 And He has made of humans pairs, male and female.
Transliteration	75:39 FajaAAala minhu alzzawjayni alththakarawaal-ontha
A	75:39 فجعل منه الزوجين الذكر والانثى
Edip-Layth	75:40 Is One as such then not able to resurrect the dead?
The Monotheist Group	75:40 Is One as such then not able to resurrect the dead?
Muhammad Asad	75:40 Is not He, then; able to bring the dead back to life?
Rashad Khalifa	75:40 Is He then unable to revive the dead?
Shabbir Ahmed	75:40 Is He not, then, Able to bring the dead to life?
Transliteration	75:40 Alaysa thalika biqadirin AAalaan yuhyiya almawta
A	75:40 اليس ذلك بقدر على ان يحي الموتى

End Notes

Edip-Layth - Quran: A Reformist Translation

Edip-Layth - End Note 1 (75:1)

For the meaning and function of the Quranic oaths, see 89:5.

Edip-Layth - End Note 2 (75:4)

Is this verse also implying that our fingerprints, with their unique designs, are like our identity cards?

Edip-Layth - End Note 3 (75:16)

See 20:114

Edip-Layth - End Note 4 (75:31)

See 74:43.

Muhammad Asad - The Message Of Quran

Muhammad Asad - End Note 1 (75:1)

By "calling it to witness", i.e., by speaking of the Day of Resurrection as if it had already occurred, the above phrase is meant to convey the certainty its coming.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 2 (75:2)

Lit., "the [self-]reproaching soul": i.e., man's subconscious awareness of his own shortcomings and failings.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 3 (75:9)

I.e., in their loss of light, or in the moon's colliding with the sun.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 4 (75:13)

Lit., "what he has sent ahead and left behind", i.e., whatever good and bad deeds he committed or omitted (Zamakhshari).

Muhammad Asad - End Note 5 (75:15)

Cf. 24:24, 36:65 or 41:20-22.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 6 (75:16)

Lit., "Move not thy tongue therewith so that thou might hasten if" - the pronoun undoubtedly referring to the contents of revelation. In order to understand this parenthetical passage (verses 16-19) more fully, one should read it side by side with the related passage in 20:114, together with the corresponding note 101. Both these passages are in the first instance addressed to the Prophet, who is said to have been afraid that he might forget some of the revealed words unless he repeated them at the very moment of revelation; but both have also a wider import inasmuch as they apply to every believer who reads, listens to or studies the Qur'an. In 20:114 we are told not to draw hasty - and therefore potentially erroneous - conclusions from isolated verses or statements of the Qur'an, since only the study of the whole of its message can give us a correct insight. The present passage, on the other hand, lays stress on the need to imbibe the divine writ slowly, patiently, to give full thought to the meaning of every word and phrase, and to avoid the kind of haste which is indistinguishable from mechanical glibness, and which, moreover, induces the person who reads, recites or listens to it to remain satisfied with the mere beautiful sound of the Qur'anic language without understanding - or even paying adequate attention to - its message.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 7 (75:17)

I.e., "it is for Us to make thee remember it and to cause it to be read with mind and heart". As pointed out in the preceding note, the Qur'an can be understood only if it is read thoughtfully, as one integral whole, and not as a mere collection of moral maxims, stories or disjointed laws.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 8 (75:18)

Lit., "follow thou its recitation", i.e., its message as expressed in words. Since it is God who reveals the Qur'an and bestows upon man the ability to understand it, He attributes its "recitation" to Himself.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 9 (75:19)

I.e., if the Qur'an is read "as it ought to be read" (see note 7 above), it becomes - as stressed by Muhammad Abduh - "its own best commentary".

Muhammad Asad - End Note 10 (75:27)

Lit., "Who is a wizard [or "a charmer"]?" A similar construction is found in 28:71 and 72.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 11 (75:29)

Lit., "when shank is wrapped around shank" - an idiomatic phrase denoting "the affliction of the present state of existence. . . combined with that of the final state" (Lane IV, 1471. quoting both the Qamus and the Taj al-'Arus). As pointed out by Zamakhshari, the noun saq (lit., "shank") is often used metaphorically in the sense of "difficulty", "hardship" or "vehemence" (shiddah); hence the well-known phrase, qamat al-harb ala saq, "the war broke out with vehemence" (Taj al-'Arus).

Muhammad Asad - End Note 12 (75:30)

Lit., "towards thy Sustainer will be the driving", i.e., with belated repentance (see next three verses). The phrase rendered above as "at the time" reads, literally, "on that day"; but the term yawm is often used idiomatically in the sense of "time" regardless of its duration.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 13 (75:31)

This interpolation, necessary for a full understanding of the sequence, is based on 4:17-18, which has a definite bearing on the above passage.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 14 (75:33)

Lit., "to his people": i.e., to the arrogant belief, rooted in the materialism of his social environment, that man is "self-sufficient" and, therefore, not in need of any divine guidance (cf. 96:6).

Muhammad Asad - End Note 15 (75:36)

I.e., without being held morally responsible for his doings.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 16 (75:38)

For this rendering of sawwa, see note 1 on 87:2 and note 5 on 91:7. The stress on God's creating man after he had been a germ-cell is a metonym for His endowing the (originally) lowly organism with what is described as a "soul".

Shabbir Ahmed -

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 1 (75:1)

We can see this in our daily lives in the Law of Cause and Effect, "As you sow so shall you reap", the Law of Recompense. What goes around comes around. And, in how the dead earth comes to new life with rains. Also in our sleep-wake cycle where our consciousness is withdrawn during sleep and restored as we wake up. 6:60

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 2 (75:2)

Notice the law taking the first step instantly. 12:53

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 3 (75:3)

36:78, 37:16. Life goes on with its essence, the 'self', surviving disintegration

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 4 (75:8)

The banner of the Age of Ignorance bearing the moon logo goes down

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 5 (75:9)

Persia and Arabia come under one Rule. Sun being the logo on the Persian banner

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 6 (75:10)

In this life and in the life to come. verses 7-10 could easily allude to the merging of the super power of the times, Persia with the newly enlightened Arabia in 642 CE, 10 years after the exalted prophet's death

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 7 (75:13)

All he has done and left undone. All deeds that advanced him and kept him behind

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 8 (75:16)

20:114

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 9 (75:17)

He will bless whatever effort we put into its learning

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 10 (75:18)

Although these verses are addressed to the exalted prophet, every believer can sense as if the Qur'an is talking to him/her

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 11 (75:19)

The Qur'an is its own best commentary. It explains itself

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 12 (75:21)

Aakhirah = Hereafter = Life to come = Future = Long term = What follows = Subsequent = Enduring. Tomorrow is today's Aakhirah

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 13 (75:31)

Sall = To follow, like the runners-up horse closely follows the winner, Saabiq = To closely follow the commands of God

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 14 (75:35)

The impending requital befits the behavior

Best viewed using your own brain

Tested on 1024x768 resolution with  FIREFOX 2

Kitabun Marqum v0.6.7 - Kitabun Marqum - Quran Research Platform by QuraniX Team Copyright © 2002-2011 All rights reserved.
Copyrights of all translations belong to their respective authors.

49:6 O you who believe, if a wicked person brings any news to you, you shall first investigate, lest you commit injustice towards some people, out of ignorance, then become sorry and remorseful for what you have done.

Rashad Khalifa (The Final Testament)

 Translations ▼

 Chapter/Verse ▼

 Refresh

 Search

<< Prev 76:1-31 Next >>

Edip-Layth	In the name of God, the Gracious, the Compassionate. 76:1 Was there not a time in the past when the human being was nothing to even be mentioned?
The Monotheist Group	In the name of God, the Almighty, the Merciful. 76:1 Was there not a time in the past when the human being was nothing to even be mentioned?
Muhammad Asad	In the name of God, The Most Gracious, The Dispenser of Grace: 76:1 HAS THERE [not] been an endless span of time ¹ before man [appeared - a time] when he was not yet a thing to be thought of ?²
Rashad Khalifa	In the name of GOD, Most Gracious, Most Merciful. 76:1 Is it not a fact that there was a time when the human being was nothing to be mentioned?
Shabbir Ahmed	BISMILLAH-IR-RAHMAN-IR-RAHEEM With the Glorious Name of God, the Ultimate Source of Instant Beneficence and Eternal mercy Who encompasses the entire Universe, nourishing and taking care of all things for what they are meant to be; just as a mother's womb nourishes the embryo to completion without any returns. 76:1 Has there not passed over man an era when he was not even worth mentioning?
Transliteration	Bismi Allāhi alRrahmāni alRrahēemi 76:1 Hal at a AAal a al-ins ani heenunmina a Iddahri lam yakun shay-an mathkooran
A	بسم الله الرحمن الرحيم 76:1 هل اتي على الانسن حين من الدهر لم يكن شيئا مذكورا

Edip-Layth	76:2 We have created the human from a seed that is composite, We test him, so We made him hear and see.
The Monotheist Group	76:2 We have created the human being from a mixed seed; We test him, so We made him hear and see.
Muhammad Asad	76:2 Verily, it is We who have created man out of a drop of sperm intermingled, ³ so that We might try him [in his later life]: and therefore We made him a being endowed with hearing and sight.
Rashad Khalifa	76:2 We created the human from a liquid mixture, from two parents, in order to test him. Thus, we made him a hearer and a seer.
Shabbir Ahmed	76:2 We are the One Who have created the human being from marked out cells, male and female gametes, that joined. Then We passed him through subtle changes. And then We made him a being endowed with hearing and sight.
Transliteration	76:2 Inna khalaqn a al-ins anamin nu tfatin amsh ajin nabtaleehi fajaAAalnghusameeAAan baseeran
A	76:2 انا خلقنا الانسن من نطفة امشاج نبتليه فجعلنه سميعا بصيرا
Edip-Layth	76:3 We have guided him to the path, either to be thankful or to reject.
The Monotheist Group	76:3 We have guided him to the path, either to be thankful or to reject.
Muhammad Asad	76:3 Verily, We have shown him the way: ⁴ [and it rests with him to prove himself] either grateful or ungrateful.
Rashad Khalifa	76:3 We showed him the two paths, then he is either appreciative, or unappreciative.
Shabbir Ahmed	76:3 Surely, We have shown him the way, whether he be grateful or ungrateful.
Transliteration	76:3 Inna hadaynahu alssabeelaimma shakiran wa-imma kafooran
A	76:3 انا هدينه السبيل اما شاكرا واما كفورا
Edip-Layth	76:4 We have prepared for the ingrates chains and collars and a blazing fire.
The Monotheist Group	76:4 We have prepared for the rejecters chains and collars and a blazing Fire.
Muhammad Asad	76:4 [Now,] behold, for those who deny the truth ⁵ We have readied chains and shackles, and a blazing flame ⁶
Rashad Khalifa	76:4 We prepared for the disbelievers chains, shackles, and a blazing Hell.
Shabbir Ahmed	76:4 For those who oppose the truth We have readied chains and shackles and a blazing flame. ¹
Transliteration	76:4 Inna aAatadna lilkafireenasalasila waaghlalan wasaAAeeran
A	76:4 انا اعتدنا للكفرين سلسلا واغلا وسعيرا
Edip-Layth	76:5 As for the pious, they will drink from a cup which has the scent of musk.
The Monotheist Group	76:5 As for the pious, they will drink from a cup which has the scent of musk.
Muhammad Asad	76:5 [whereas,] behold, the truly virtuous shall drink from a cup flavoured with the calyx of sweet-smelling flowers: ⁷

Rashad Khalifa	76:5 As for the virtuous, they will drink from cups spiced with nectar.
Shabbir Ahmed	76:5 The truly virtuous will drink from a cup sweetened with nectar of flowers. ²
Transliteration	76:5 Inna al-abrara yashraboona min ka/sinkana mizajuha kafooran
A	76:5 ان الابرار يشربون من كلس كان مزاجها كافورا
Edip-Layth	76:6 A spring from which the servants of God drink, it gushes forth abundantly.
The Monotheist Group	76:6 A spring from which the servants of God drink, it gushes forth abundantly.
Muhammad Asad	76:6 a source [of bliss] whereof God's servants shall drink, seeing it flow in a flow abundant. ⁸
Rashad Khalifa	76:6 A spring that is reserved for GOD's servants; it will gush out as they will.
Shabbir Ahmed	76:6 A spring whereof the servants of God drink - it is those who make it flow in abundance. ³
Transliteration	76:6 AAaynan yashrabu biha AAibaduAllahi yufajjiroonaha tafjeeran
A	76:6 عينا يشرب بها عباد الله يفجرونها تفجيرا
Edip-Layth	76:7 They fulfill their vows, and they fear a day whose consequences are widespread.
The Monotheist Group	76:7 They fulfill their vows, and they fear a Day whose consequences are widespread.
Muhammad Asad	76:7 [The truly virtuous are] they [who] fulfil their vows, ⁹ and stand in awe of a Day the woe of which is bound to spread far and wide,
Rashad Khalifa	76:7 They fulfill their pledges, and reverence a day that is extremely difficult.
Shabbir Ahmed	76:7 They fulfill their vows and pledges and fear (and therefore, guard against) the times when chaos and corruption might sweep the society.
Transliteration	76:7 Yoofoona biannathri wayakhafoonayawman kana sharruhu mustateeran
A	76:7 يوفون بالنذر ويخافون يوما كان شره مستطيرا
Edip-Layth	76:8 They give food out of love to the poor and the orphan and the captive.
The Monotheist Group	76:8 And they give food out of love to the poor and the orphan and the captive.
Muhammad Asad	76:8 and who give food - however great be their own want of it ¹¹ - unto the needy, and the orphan, and the captive,
Rashad Khalifa	76:8 They donate their favorite food to the poor, the orphan, and the captive.
Shabbir Ahmed	76:8 And they feed, for the love of nobility, the indigent, the orphan and the captive. ⁴
Transliteration	76:8 WayuAAaimona a ltaAAamaAAala hubbihi miskeenana wayateeman waaseeran
A	76:8 ويطعمون الطعام على حبه مسكينا ويتيما واسيرا
	76:9 "We only feed you for the sake of God; we do not desire from you any

Edip-Layth	reward or thanks."
The Monotheist Group	76:9 "We only feed you for the sake of God; we do not desire from you any reward or thanks."
Muhammad Asad	76:9 [saying, in their hearts,] "We feed you for the sake of God alone: we desire no recompense from you, nor thanks:
Rashad Khalifa	76:9 "We feed you for the sake of GOD; we expect no reward from you, nor thanks.
Shabbir Ahmed	76:9 (They do all this selflessly) saying, "We provide for you for the sake of God alone. We want no return from you, not even a word of thanks.
Transliteration	76:9 Innama nu tAAimukum liwajhi All ahila nureedu minkum jaz aan wal a shukooran
A	76:9 انما نطعمكم لوجه الله لا نريد منكم جزاء ولا شكورا
Edip-Layth	76:10 "We fear from our Lord a day, which will be horrible and difficult."
The Monotheist Group	76:10 "We fear from our Lord a Day, which will be horrible and difficult."
Muhammad Asad	76:10 behold, we stand in awe of our Sustainer's judgment 12 on a distressful, fateful Day!"
Rashad Khalifa	76:10 "We fear from our Lord a day that is full of misery and trouble."
Shabbir Ahmed	76:10 We stand in awe of our Lord to ward off the times when the society might become a picture of frown and distress."
Transliteration	76:10 Inna nakhafu min rabbina yawman AAaboosan qam tareeran
A	76:10 انا نخاف من ربنا يوما عبوسا قمطريرا
Edip-Layth	76:11 So God shielded them from the evil of that day, and He cast towards them a look and a smile.
The Monotheist Group	76:11 So God shielded them from the evil of that Day, and He cast towards them a look and a smile.
Muhammad Asad	76:11 And so, God will preserve them from the woes of that Day, and will bestow on them brightness and joy,
Rashad Khalifa	76:11 Consequently, GOD protects them from the evils of that day, and rewards them with joy and contentment.
Shabbir Ahmed	76:11 So, God wards off from them the chaos of those times, and showers on them inner splendor and delight. 5
Transliteration	76:11 Fawaqahumu All ahu sharra thalikaalyawmi walaqq ahum na dratan wasurooran
A	76:11 فوقفهم الله شر ذلك اليوم ولقهم نضرة وسرورا
Edip-Layth	76:12 He rewarded them for their patience with paradise and silk.
The Monotheist Group	76:12 And He rewarded them for their patience with paradise and silk.
Muhammad Asad	76:12 and will reward them for all their patience in adversity with a garden [of bliss] and with [garments of] silk. 13

Rashad Khalifa	76:12 He rewards them for their steadfastness with Paradise, and silk.
Shabbir Ahmed	76:12 And for their steadfastness He rewards them with a Garden of bliss and garments of silk (granting honor).
Transliteration	76:12 Wajaz a hum bima s abaroojannatan wa h areera n
A	76:12 وجزيهم بما صبروا جنة وحريراً
Edip-Layth	76:13 They are reclining in it on raised couches, they do not have in it excessive sun nor bitter cold.
The Monotheist Group	76:13 They are reclining in it on raised couches, they do not have in it excessive sun nor bitter cold.
Muhammad Asad	76:13 In that [garden] they will on couches recline, and will know therein neither [burning] sun nor cold severe,
Rashad Khalifa	76:13 They relax therein on luxurious furnishings. They suffer neither the heat of the sun, nor any cold.
Shabbir Ahmed	76:13 Relaxing therein on beautiful furnishings, they neither find a hot sun nor chill.
Transliteration	76:13 Muttaki-eena feeh a AAal a al-ar a -ikila yarawna feeh a shamsan wal a zamhareera n
A	76:13 متكين فيها على الارائك لا يرون فيها شمسا ولا زمهيرا
Edip-Layth	76:14 The shade is close upon them, and the fruit is hanging low within reach.
The Monotheist Group	76:14 And the shade is close upon them, and the fruit is hanging low within reach.
Muhammad Asad	76:14 since its [blissful] shades will come down low over them, ¹⁴ and low will hang down its clusters of fruit, most easy to reach. ¹⁵
Rashad Khalifa	76:14 The shade covers them therein, and the fruits are brought within reach.
Shabbir Ahmed	76:14 Pleasant shades close upon them and clusters of fruits reach them low.
Transliteration	76:14 Wad a niyatan AAalayhim th ilaluh a wath u llilat qu to ofuha tath le ela n
A	76:14 ودانية عليهم ظللها وذللت قطوفها تذليلاً
Edip-Layth	76:15 They are served upon with bowls of silver and glasses of crystal.
The Monotheist Group	76:15 And they are served upon with bowls of silver and glasses of crystal.
Muhammad Asad	76:15 And they will be waited upon with vessels of silver and goblets that will [seem to] be crystal
Rashad Khalifa	76:15 They are served drinks in silver containers and cups that are translucent.
Shabbir Ahmed	76:15 And they are served with goblets of silver and cups of crystal.
Transliteration	76:15 Wayu t afu AAalayhim bi- a niyatinmin fid d atin waakw a bin kanat qaw a reera
A	76:15 ويطاف عليهم بانية من فضة واكواب كانت قواريرا
Edip-Layth	76:16 Crystal laced with silver, measured accordingly. ¹

The Monotheist Group	76:16 Crystal laced with silver, measured accordingly.
Muhammad Asad	76:16 crystal-like, [but] of silver - the measure whereof they alone will determine. ¹⁶
Rashad Khalifa	76:16 Translucent cups, though made of silver; they rightly deserved all this.
Shabbir Ahmed	76:16 Silver trays shining as crystal - all this design they have determined (with their good deeds).
Transliteration	76:16 Qawāreera min fiddatingqaddarooha taqdeeran
A	76:16 قواريرا من فضة قدروها تقديرا
Edip-Layth	76:17 They are given to drink in it from a cup which has the scent of ginger.
The Monotheist Group	76:17 And they are given to drink in it from a cup which has the scent of ginger.
Muhammad Asad	76:17 And in that [paradise] they will be given to drink of a cup flavoured with ginger,
Rashad Khalifa	76:17 They enjoy drinks of delicious flavors.
Shabbir Ahmed	76:17 And delicious invigorating drinks they shall be given. (43:71, 76:5, 83:27. Camphor: an allegory for cool relaxation, and ginger: warmth and action)
Transliteration	76:17 Wayusqawna feeḥa ka/san kanamizajuha zanjabeelan
A	76:17 ويسقون فيها كاسا كان مزاجها زنجبيلا
Edip-Layth	76:18 A spring therein which is called 'Salsabeel'.
The Monotheist Group	76:18 A spring therein which is called 'Salsabeel'.
Muhammad Asad	76:18 [derived from] a source [to be found] therein, whose name is "Seek Thy Way". ¹⁷
Rashad Khalifa	76:18 From a spring therein known as "Salsabeel."
Shabbir Ahmed	76:18 From therein a spring named Salsabeel. The water thereof seeks its own way to them. ⁶
Transliteration	76:18 AAaynan feeḥa tusammaṣalsabeelan
A	76:18 عينا فيها تسمى سلسبيلا
Edip-Layth	76:19 They are encircled with eternal children. If you see them you will think they are pearls which have been scattered about.
The Monotheist Group	76:19 And they are encircled with eternal children. If you see them you will think they are pearls which have been scattered about.
Muhammad Asad	76:19 And immortal youths will wait upon them: ¹⁸ when thou seest them, thou wouldst deem them to be scattered pearls;
Rashad Khalifa	76:19 Serving them will be immortal servants. When you see them, they will look like scattered pearls.
Shabbir Ahmed	76:19 And their children, immortal, playing around, lovely as pearls when you see them.

Transliteration	76:19 Waya i oofu AAalayhim wild a nunmukhalladoona i tha raaytahum h asibtahum lu/lu-anmanthoor a n
A	76:19 ويطوف عليهم ولدن مخلدون اذا رايتهم حسبتهم لولوا منتورا
Edip-Layth	76:20 If you look, then you will see a blessing and a great dominion.
The Monotheist Group	76:20 And if you look, then you will see a blessing and a great dominion.
Muhammad Asad	76:20 and when thou seest [anything that is] there thou wilt see [only] bliss and a realm transcendent
Rashad Khalifa	76:20 Wherever you look, you will see bliss, and a wonderful dominion.
Shabbir Ahmed	76:20 And whenever you look around there you see bliss and a Magnificent Kingdom.
Transliteration	76:20 Wa-i tha raayta thamma raaytanaAAeeman wamulkan kabeer a n
A	76:20 واذا رايت ثم رايت نعيما وملكا كبيرا
Edip-Layth	76:21 They will have garments of fine green silk, necklaces and bracelets from silver, and their Lord will give them a cleansing drink.
The Monotheist Group	76:21 They will have garments of fine green silk, and necklaces and bracelets from silver, and their Lord will give them a cleansing drink.
Muhammad Asad	76:21 Upon those [blest] will be garments of green silk and brocade; and they will be adorned with bracelets of silver. ¹⁹ And their Sustainer will them to drink of a drink most pure. ²⁰
Rashad Khalifa	76:21 On them will be clothes of green velvet, satin, and silver ornaments. Their Lord will provide them with pure drinks.
Shabbir Ahmed	76:21 Upon them will be garments of green silk with gold embroidery, and they will be honored with bracelets of silver. And their Lord will give them pure refreshing drinks.
Transliteration	76:21 AAaliyahum thiy a bu sundusinkhu d run wa-istabraqu n wa h ullo o as a wira minfi d datin wasaq a hum rabbuhum shar a ban t ahoor a n
A	76:21 عليهم ثياب سندس خضر واستبرق وحلوا اساور من فضة وسقنهم ربهم شرابا طهورا
Edip-Layth	76:22 "This is the reward for you, and your struggle is appreciated."
The Monotheist Group	76:22 "This is the reward for you, and your struggle is appreciated."
Muhammad Asad	76:22 [And they will be told:] "Verily, all this is your reward since Your endeavour [in life] has met [God's] goodly acceptance!"
Rashad Khalifa	76:22 This is the reward that awaits you, for your efforts have been appreciated.
Shabbir Ahmed	76:22 Behold! All this is your reward since your effort has found a befitting Acceptance.
Transliteration	76:22 Inna h a th a k ana lakum jaz a anwak a na saAAayukum mashkoo r a n
A	76:22 ان هذا كان لكم جزاء وكان سعيكم مشكورا
Edip-Layth	76:23 We have sent down to you the Quran at once.

The Monotheist Group	76:23 We have sent down to you the Qur'an in stages.
Muhammad Asad	76:23 VERILY, [O believer,] it is We who have bestowed from on high this Qur'an upon thee, step by step ²¹ - truly a bestowal from on high!
Rashad Khalifa	76:23 We have revealed to you this Quran; a special revelation from us.
Shabbir Ahmed	76:23 Most certainly, We have revealed to you the Qur'an from Our Presence. ⁷
Transliteration	76:23 Inna nahnu nazzalnaAAalayka alqur-ana tanzeelan
A	76:23 انا نحن نزلنا عليك القرآن تنزيلا
Edip-Layth	76:24 So be patient for the judgment of your Lord, and do not obey from them any sinner or ingrate.
The Monotheist Group	76:24 So be patient to the judgment of your Lord, and do not obey from them any sinner or rejecter.
Muhammad Asad	76:24 Await, then, in all patience thy Sustainer's judgment, ²² and pay no heed to any of them, who is a wilful sinner or an ingrate;
Rashad Khalifa	76:24 You shall steadfastly carry out your Lord's commandments, and do not obey any sinful disbeliever among them.
Shabbir Ahmed	76:24 Therefore, hold on to your Lord's command unwaveringly. And do not heed any sinner or unbeliever. ⁸
Transliteration	76:24 Faibbir lihukmi rabbikawala tujiAA minhum athiman aw kafooran
A	76:24 فاصبر لحكم ربك ولا تطع منهم اثما او كفورا
Edip-Layth	76:25 Remember the name of your Lord morning and evening.
The Monotheist Group	76:25 And remember the name of your Lord morning and evening.
Muhammad Asad	76:25 and bear in mind thy Sustainer's name ²³ at morn and evening
Rashad Khalifa	76:25 And commemorate the name of your Lord day and night.
Shabbir Ahmed	76:25 Raise the Name of your Lord morning and evening. ⁹
Transliteration	76:25 Waothkuri isma rabbikabukratan waaseelan
A	76:25 واذكر اسم ربك بكرة واصيلا
Edip-Layth	76:26 From the night you shall prostrate to Him and praise Him throughout.
The Monotheist Group	76:26 And from the night you shall prostrate to Him and praise Him throughout.
Muhammad Asad	76:26 and during some of the night, ²⁴ and prostrate thyself before Him, and extol His limitless glory throughout the long night. ²⁵
Rashad Khalifa	76:26 During the night, fall prostrate before Him, and glorify Him many a long night.
Shabbir Ahmed	76:26 Adore Him even at night and strive to establish His glory on earth through long nights (as you do morning and evening).
Transliteration	76:26 Wamina allayli faosjud lahu wasabbi hhu laylan taweelan

A	76:26 ومن الليل فاسجد له وسبحه ليلا طويلا
Edip-Layth	76:27 These people like the current life, and they ignore a heavy day.
The Monotheist Group	76:27 These people like the current life, and they put behind them a heavy Day.
Muhammad Asad	76:27 Behold, they [who are unmindful of God] love this fleeting life, and leave behind them [all thought of] a grief-laden Day.
Rashad Khalifa	76:27 These people are preoccupied with this fleeting life, while disregarding - just ahead of them - a heavy day.
Shabbir Ahmed	76:27 But there are those who love the instant gains and neglect the remembrance of a grievous day.
Transliteration	76:27 Inna h a ola-i yu h ibboonaalAAajilata waya t haroona war a ahum yawmanthaqeel a n
A	76:27 ان هولاء يحبون العاجلة ويذرون وراءهم يوما ثقيلا
Edip-Layth	76:28 We have created them, and We have made them resolute. When we wished, We replaced their kind completely.
The Monotheist Group	76:28 We have created them, and established them, and if We wished, We could replace their kind completely.
Muhammad Asad	76:28 [They will not admit to themselves that] it We who have created them and strengthened their make ²⁶ - and [that] if it be Our will We can replace them entirely with others of their kind. ²⁷
Rashad Khalifa	76:28 We created them, and established them, and, whenever we will, we can substitute others in their place.
Shabbir Ahmed	76:28 (Who gave them the mind and body to behave the way they choose?) We created them, and strengthened their frame. But whenever We will, We can substitute others in their place. ¹⁰
Transliteration	76:28 Nahnu khalaqn a hum washadadn a asrahum wa-i t ha shi/n a baddaln a amth al ahumtabdeel a n
A	76:28 نحن خلقتهم وشددنا اسرهم واذا شئنا بدلنا امثلهم تبديلا
Edip-Layth	76:29 This is a reminder, so let whoever wills take a path to his Lord.
The Monotheist Group	76:29 This is a reminder, so let whoever wills take a path to his Lord.
Muhammad Asad	76:29 VERILY, all this is an admonition: whoever, then, so wills, may unto his Sustainer find a way.
Rashad Khalifa	76:29 This is a reminder: whoever wills shall choose the path to his Lord.
Shabbir Ahmed	76:29 This is an Advisory that whoever wills, may choose a way to his Lord.
Transliteration	76:29 Inna ha t hihi ta t hkiratun famanshaa ittakhath a il a rabbihi sabeel a n
A	76:29 ان هذه تنكرة فمن شاء اتخذ الى ربه سبيلا
Edip-Layth	76:30 You cannot will, except if God wills. God is Knowledgeable, Wise. ²
The Monotheist Group	76:30 And you cannot will, except if God wills. God is Knowledgeable, Wise.

Muhammad Asad	76:30 But you cannot will it unless God wills [to show you that way]: ²⁸ for, behold, God is indeed all-seeing, wise.
Rashad Khalifa	76:30 Whatever you will is in accordance with GOD's will. GOD is Omniscient, Wise.
Shabbir Ahmed	76:30 Yet, you cannot will it unless you align your will with the will of God. Certainly, God is Knower, Wise. ¹¹
Transliteration	76:30 Wama tash aoonā illā a anyash āa Allāhu inna Allāha k ānaAAaleeman hakeemaan
A	76:30 وما تشاءون الا ان يشاء الله ان الله كان عليما حكيما
Edip-Layth	76:31 He admits whoever/whomever He wills to His mercy. As for the wicked, He has prepared for them a painful retribution.
The Monotheist Group	76:31 He admits whom He wills to His mercy. And as for the wicked, He has prepared for them a painful retribution.
Muhammad Asad	76:31 He admits unto His grace everyone who wills [to be admitted]; ²⁹ but as for the evildoers - for them has He readied grievous suffering [in the life to come].
Rashad Khalifa	76:31 He admits whomever He wills into His mercy. As for the transgressors, He has prepared for them a painful retribution.
Shabbir Ahmed	76:31 He admits into His grace everyone who wills to be admitted. But, for those who wrong their own 'self', He has prepared an awful doom. ¹²
Transliteration	76:31 Yudkhilu man yash āo fee ra hmatihawaal th halimeena aAAadda lahum AAathabanaleemaan
A	76:31 يدخل من يشاء في رحمته والظلمين اعد لهم عذابا اليما

<< Prev 76:1-31 Next >>

Return to top

End Notes

Muhammad Asad - The Message Of Quran

Muhammad Asad - End Note 1 (76:1)

Implying, according to all the classical commentators, "there has indeed been an immensely long [or "endless"] span of time" - the interrogative particle hal having here the positive meaning of qad. However, this meaning can be brought out equally well by interpolating the word "not".

Muhammad Asad - End Note 2 (76:1)

Lit., "a thing mentioned" or "mentionable" - i.e., non-existent even as a hypothetical concept. The purport of this statement is a refutation of the blasphemous "anthropocentric" world-view, which postulates man as he exists - and not any Supreme Being - as the centre and ultimate reality of all life.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 3 (76:2)

Sc., "with the female ovum"; cf. 86:6-7.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 4 (76:3)

I.e., God has not only endowed man with "hearing and sight", i.e., with reason and the instinctive ability to discern between right and wrong, good and evil (cf. 90:10), but He also actively guides him by means of the revelation bestowed on the prophets.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 5 (76:4)

In this context, the "denial of the truth" (kufr) apparently relates to man's deliberate suppression of his inborn cognition of God's existence (cf. 7:172 and the corresponding note 139) as well as to his disregard of his own instinctive perceptions of good and evil.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 6 (76:4)

Sc., "of despair". For the metaphor of "shackles and chains" - i.e., the consequence of the sinners' blind surrender to their own passions and to false values, and the resulting enslavement of their spirit - see surah 34, note 44; also Razi's elaborate comments (quoted in note 7 on 73:12-13) on this allegory of suffering in the hereafter.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 7 (76:5)

The Lisan al-Arab gives "the calyx (kimm) of the grape before its flowering" as the primary significance of kafur; according to other lexicologists (e.g. Taj al-'Arus), it denotes "the calyx of any flower"; Jawhari applies it to the "spathe of a palm tree". Hence, this - and not "camphor" - is evidently the meaning of kafur in the above context: an allusion to the sweet, extremely delicate fragrance of the symbolic "drink" 'of divine knowledge (cf. 83:25-28 and the corresponding notes 8 and 9),

Muhammad Asad - End Note 8 (76:6)

Lit. "making [or "letting"] it flow", etc.: i.e., having it always at their disposal.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 9 (76:7)

I.e., the spiritual and social obligations arising from their faith.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 11 (76:8)

The term asir denotes anyone who is a "captive" either literally (e.g. a prisoner) or figuratively, i.e., a captive of circumstances which render him helpless; thus, the Prophet said, "Thy debtor is thy captive; be, therefore, truly kind to thy captive" (Zamakhshari, Razi, et al.). The injunction of kindness towards all who are in need of help - and therefore "captive" in one sense or another - applies to believers and non-believers alike (Tabari, Zamakhshari), and apparently also to animals dependent on man.

Muhammad Asad - End Note (76:8)

Muhammad Asad - End Note 12 (76:10)

Lit. "we fear our Sustainer".

Muhammad Asad - End Note 13 (76:12)

For this allegory, see first half of note 41 on 18:31.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 14 (76:14)

Regarding the allegorical implication of the term "shades" (zilal), see note 74 on 4:57. It is to be noted that the existence of shade presupposes, the existence of light (Jawhari), which latter is one of the characteristics implicit in the concept of "paradise".

Muhammad Asad - End Note 15 (76:14)

Lit., "in all humility".

Muhammad Asad - End Note 16 (76:16)

I.e., partaking of as much as they may desire.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 17 (76:18)

This is how Ali ibn Abi Talib - as quoted by Zamakhshari and Razi - explains the (obviously compound) word salsabilan, dividing it into its two components, sal sabilan ("ask [or "seek"] the way"): namely, "seek thy way to paradise by means of doing righteous deeds". Although Zamakhshari does not quite agree with this interpretation, it is, in my opinion, very convincing inasmuch as it contains an allusion to the highly allegorical character of the concept of "paradise" as a spiritual consequence of one's positive endeavours in this world, That its delights are not of a material nature is also evident from their varying descriptions - i.e., "a cup flavoured with ginger" in verse 17, and "flavoured with the calyx of sweet-smelling flowers" in verse 5; or "they will be waited upon with trays and goblets of gold" in 43:71, and "vessels of silver and goblets that will [seem to] be crystal - crystal-like, [but] of silver", in verses 15-16 of this surah; and so forth.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 18 (76:19)

See note 6 on 56:17-18.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 19 (76:21)

See 18:31 (where "bracelets of gold" are mentioned) and the corresponding note 41.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 20 (76:21)

Implying that God Himself will slake their spiritual thirst by purifying their inner selves "of all envy, and rancour, and malice, and all that leads to harm, and all that is base in man's nature" (Ibn Kathir, quoting Ali ibn Abi Talib), and by allowing them to "drink" of His Own Light (Razi).

Muhammad Asad - End Note 21 (76:23)

The gradualness of Qur'anic revelation is implied in the verbal form nazzalna.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 22 (76:24)

This connects with the preceding mention of the life to come, in which the righteous will meet with bliss, and the evildoers with suffering.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 23 (76:25)

I.e., His "attributes" as they manifest themselves in His creation - since the human mind can grasp only the fact of His existence and the manifestation of those "attributes", but never the "how" of His Reality (Razi).

Muhammad Asad - End Note 24 (76:26)

I.e., at all times of wakefulness.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 25 (76:26)

I.e., "whenever unhappiness oppresses thee and all seems dark around thee".

Muhammad Asad - End Note 26 (76:28)

I.e., endowed their bodies and minds with the ability to enjoy "this fleeting life".

Muhammad Asad - End Note 27 (76:28)

I.e., with other human beings who would have the same powers of body and mind, but would put them to better use.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 28 (76:30)

See note 11 on 81:28-29. The perplexity of some of the commentators at the apparent "contradiction" between those two verses - as well as between verses 29-30 of the present surah - has been caused by their elliptic formulation, which, I believe, is resolved in my rendering. In the present instance, in particular, there is a clear connection between the above two verses and verse 3 of this surah: "We have shown him the way: [and it rests with him to prove himself] either grateful or ungrateful". (Cf. also 74:56.)

Muhammad Asad - End Note 29 (76:31)

Or: "whomever He wills" - either of these two formulations being syntactically justified.

Shabbir Ahmed -

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 1 (76:4)

Chains and shackles of conjecture, blind following and superstition, and the fire of confusion and regret are the logical consequences of relegating the truth. 7:157

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 2 (76:5)

Kaafoor = Camphor = Cool temperament = Nectar from the calyx of grape as it flowers = Sweet and fragrant drink of Divine bliss

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 3 (76:6)

The true servants of God achieve His blessings of guidance and all that is good, and share them with fellow human beings

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 4 (76:8)

They help establish the System where the first ones to receive the provisions of God are the ones who are needy, who have lost their jobs, whose lives have stalled, the widows, the orphans, the ones who feel left alone in the society, the captives and those who are stranded on earth for any reason

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 5 (76:11)

Yaum = Day = Stage = Times = Era = Eventuality = The Resurrection Day

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 6 (76:18)

88:12. Salsabeel = The stream that finds its way to them

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 7 (76:23)

I tend to agree with Muhammad Asad that this verse addresses any sincere student of the Qur'an

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 8 (76:24)

Aathim = 'Sinner' from Ithm = One who depletes individual or communal energy

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 9 (76:25)

Zikr = Remembrance = Commemoration = Raise = Celebrate = Magnify = Give eminence = Taking to heart = Keeping in mind

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 10 (76:28)

Peoples that will use their human potentials better. 70:41

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 11 (76:30)

Guidance can only be achieved according to Divine laws. 4:88

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 12 (76:31)

Zulm = Wrongdoing = Being unjust to others or to one's own 'self' = Oppression = Relegation of truth = Displacing something from its rightful place = Violation of human rights = Transgression

Edip-Layth - Quran: A Reformist Translation

Edip-Layth - End Note 1 (76:16)

Translucent cups made of silver and trees growing in the middle of fire are parables. See 2:26; 17:60 (For the meaning of the word we translated as "translucent," see 27:44).

Edip-Layth - End Note 2 (76:30)

See 57:22-23.

Best viewed using your own brain

Tested on 1024x768 resolution with  FIREFOX 2

Kitabun Marqum v0.6.7 - Kitabun Marqum - Quran Research Platform by QuraniX Team Copyright © 2002-2011 All rights reserved.
Copyrights of all translations belong to their respective authors.

49:6 O you who believe, if a wicked person brings any news to you, you shall first investigate, lest you commit injustice towards some people, out of ignorance, then become sorry and remorseful for what you have done.

Rashad Khalifa (The Final Testament)

Translations

Chapter/Verse

Refresh

Search

<< Prev 77:1-50 Next >>

Edip-Layth	In the name of God, the Gracious, the Compassionate. 77:1 By those which are sent to benefit. ¹
The Monotheist Group	In the name of God, the Almighty, the Merciful. 77:1 By the winds which are sent.
Muhammad Asad	In the name of God, The Most Gracious, The Dispenser of Grace: 77:1 CONSIDER these [messages,] sent forth in waves ¹
Rashad Khalifa	In the name of GOD, Most Gracious, Most Merciful. 77:1 (Angels) dispatched in succession.
Shabbir Ahmed	BISMILLAH-IR-RAHMAN-IR-RAHEEM With the Glorious Name of God, the Ultimate Source of Instant Beneficence and Eternal mercy Who encompasses the entire Universe, nourishing and taking care of all things for what they are meant to be; just as a mother's womb nourishes the embryo to completion without any returns. 77:1 Witness are these messages sent forth one after another.
Transliteration	Bismi Allāhi alrrahmāni alrraḥeemi 77:1 Waalmursalati AAurfan
A	بسم الله الرحمن الرحيم 77:1 والمرسلت عرفا
Edip-Layth	77:2 By the blows that explode.
The Monotheist Group	77:2 Then the gusts that blow.
Muhammad Asad	77:2 and then storming on with a tempest's force!

Rashad Khalifa	77:2 To drive the wind.
Shabbir Ahmed	77:2 As they gain strength like a tempest.
Transliteration	77:2 FaalAA s ifat i AA a sfa n
A	77:2 فآل ع صفت ع صفا
Edip-Layth	77:3 By the distributors that dispense.
The Monotheist Group	77:3 And all that is scattered about.
Muhammad Asad	77:3 Consider these [messages] that spread [the truth] far and wide,
Rashad Khalifa	77:3 Stir up clouds.
Shabbir Ahmed	77:3 And spread (the truth) far and wide.
Transliteration	77:3 WaalInna n ashira t i nashra n
A	77:3 والنشرت نشرأ
Edip-Layth	77:4 By the separators that divide.
The Monotheist Group	77:4 So the separators which divide.
Muhammad Asad	77:4 thus separating [right and wrong] with all clarity, ²
Rashad Khalifa	77:4 Distribute the provisions.
Shabbir Ahmed	77:4 While distinguishing the Right from Wrong with a clear distinction.
Transliteration	77:4 Faal f ariqa t i farqa n
A	77:4 فالفرقت فرقا
Edip-Layth	77:5 By the transmitters of the message.
The Monotheist Group	77:5 Then the remembrance that is found.
Muhammad Asad	77:5 and then giving forth a reminder,
Rashad Khalifa	77:5 Deliver messages.
Shabbir Ahmed	77:5 In order to deliver the reminder.
Transliteration	77:5 Faal m ulqiyat i th ikra n
A	77:5 فالملقيت ذكرا
Edip-Layth	77:6 As an excuse or a warning.
The Monotheist Group	77:6 An excuse or a warning.
Muhammad Asad	77:6 [promising] freedom from blame or [offering] a warning! ³
Rashad Khalifa	77:6 Good news, as well as warnings.
Shabbir Ahmed	77:6 Whether one erases his faults or sees the danger signs. ¹
Transliteration	77:6 AA A uthra n aw nuthra n

A	77:6 عذرا او ننرا
Edip-Layth	77:7 What you are being promised will come to pass.
The Monotheist Group	77:7 What you are being promised will come to pass.
Muhammad Asad	77:7 BEHOLD, all that you are told to expect ⁴ will surely come to pass.
Rashad Khalifa	77:7 What is promised will come to pass.
Shabbir Ahmed	77:7 All that you are promised in this Writ will come to pass.
Transliteration	77:7 Innama tooAAadoona lawaqqiAAun
A	77:7 انما توعدون لوقع
Edip-Layth	77:8 So when the stars are dimmed.
The Monotheist Group	77:8 So when the stars are plunged.
Muhammad Asad	77:8 Thus, [it will come to pass] when the stars are effaced,
Rashad Khalifa	77:8 Thus, when the stars are put out.
Shabbir Ahmed	77:8 So when the stars lose their luster. ²
Transliteration	77:8 Fa-itha alnnujoomu tumisat
A	77:8 فاذا النجوم طمست
Edip-Layth	77:9 When the sky is opened.
The Monotheist Group	77:9 And when the sky is opened.
Muhammad Asad	77:9 and when the sky is rent asunder,
Rashad Khalifa	77:9 The sky is opened up.
Shabbir Ahmed	77:9 And when the sky is rent asunder. ³
Transliteration	77:9 Wa-itha alssamao furijat
A	77:9 واذا السماء فرجت
Edip-Layth	77:10 When the mountains are destroyed.
The Monotheist Group	77:10 And when the mountains are destroyed.
Muhammad Asad	77:10 and when the mountains are scattered like dust,
Rashad Khalifa	77:10 The mountains are blown up.
Shabbir Ahmed	77:10 And when the mountains are blown away as dust. ⁴
Transliteration	77:10 Wa-itha aljibalu nusifat
A	77:10 واذا الجبال نسفت
Edip-Layth	77:11 When the messengers are gathered.
The Monotheist Group	77:11 And when the messengers are gathered.

Muhammad Asad	77:11 and when all the apostles are called together at a time appointed. . . 5
Rashad Khalifa	77:11 The messengers are summoned.
Shabbir Ahmed	77:11 And when all messengers are summoned at the time appointed. (guidance can only be achieved according to Divine laws 4:88) 5
Transliteration	77:11 Wa-i tha alrrusulu oqqitat
A	77:11 واذا الرسل اقتت
Edip-Layth	77:12 For what day has it been delayed?
The Monotheist Group	77:12 For what day has it been delayed?
Muhammad Asad	77:12 For what day has the term [of all this] been set?
Rashad Khalifa	77:12 That is the appointed day.
Shabbir Ahmed	77:12 For what Day is the term delayed?
Transliteration	77:12 Li-ayyi yawmin ojjiilat
A	77:12 لاي يوم اجلت
Edip-Layth	77:13 For the day of Separation.
The Monotheist Group	77:13 For the Day of Separation.
Muhammad Asad	77:13 For the Day of Distinction [between the true and the false]! 6
Rashad Khalifa	77:13 The Day of Decision.
Shabbir Ahmed	77:13 For the Day of decision!
Transliteration	77:13 Liyawmi alfas li
A	77:13 ليوم الفصل
Edip-Layth	77:14 Do you know what the day of Separation is?
The Monotheist Group	77:14 And do you know what is the Day of Separation?
Muhammad Asad	77:14 And what could make thee conceive what that Day of Distinction will be?
Rashad Khalifa	77:14 What a Day of Decision!
Shabbir Ahmed	77:14 And what will enlighten you what that Day of decision is?
Transliteration	77:14 Wama a adr a ka ma a yawmu al fas li
A	77:14 وما ادرك ما يوم الفصل
Edip-Layth	77:15 Woes on that day to the deniers!
The Monotheist Group	77:15 Woe on that Day to the disbelievers!
Muhammad Asad	77:15 Woe on that Day unto those who give the lie to the truth!
Rashad Khalifa	77:15 Woe on that day to the rejectors.
Shabbir Ahmed	6

	77:15 Anguish on that Day for those who deny the truth!
Transliteration	77:15 Waylun yawma-i th in lilmukath th ibeena
A	77:15 ويل يومئذ للمكذبين
Edip-Layth	77:16 Did We not destroy the ancient people
The Monotheist Group	77:16 Did We not destroy the ancient people
Muhammad Asad	77:16 Did We not destroy [so many of] those [sinners] of olden days?
Rashad Khalifa	77:16 Did we not annihilate the earlier generations?
Shabbir Ahmed	77:16 Did We not annihilate the former generations?
Transliteration	77:16 Alam nuhliki al-awwaleena
A	77:16 الم نهلك الاولين
Edip-Layth	77:17 Then We made others succeed them?
The Monotheist Group	77:17 Then We made others succeed them?
Muhammad Asad	77:17 And We shall let them be followed by those of later times: 7
Rashad Khalifa	77:17 Then we made others follow them?
Shabbir Ahmed	77:17 Then We made them followed by later generations.
Transliteration	77:17 Thumma nutbiAAuhumu al- ^a khireena
A	77:17 ثم نتبعهم الاءاخرين
Edip-Layth	77:18 It is such that We do to the criminals.
The Monotheist Group	77:18 It is such that We do to the criminals.
Muhammad Asad	77:18 [for] thus do We deal with such as are lost in sin.
Rashad Khalifa	77:18 This is what we do to the criminals.
Shabbir Ahmed	77:18 Thus do We always deal with the guilty.
Transliteration	77:18 Kath ^h alika nafAAalu bi ^a lmujrimeena
A	77:18 كذلك نفعل بالمجرمين
Edip-Layth	77:19 Woes on that day to the deniers!
The Monotheist Group	77:19 Woe on that Day to the disbelievers!
Muhammad Asad	77:19 Woe on that Day unto those who give the lie to the truth!
Rashad Khalifa	77:19 Woe on that day to the rejectors.
Shabbir Ahmed	77:19 Anguish on that Day for those who deny the truth!
Transliteration	77:19 Waylun yawma-i th in lilmukath th ibeena
A	77:19 ويل يومئذ للمكذبين

Edip-Layth	77:20 Did We not create you from a simple water/liquid, ²
The Monotheist Group	77:20 Did We not create you from a fragile water,
Muhammad Asad	77:20 Did We not create you out of a humble fluid
Rashad Khalifa	77:20 Did we not create you from a lowly liquid?
Shabbir Ahmed	77:20 Did We not create you from a humble fluid? ⁷
Transliteration	77:20 Alam nakhluqkum min ma-in maheenin
A	77:20 الم نخلقكم من ماء مهين
Edip-Layth	77:21 Then We made it in a place of protection,
The Monotheist Group	77:21 Then We made it in a place of protection,
Muhammad Asad	77:21 which We then let remain in [the womb's] firm keeping
Rashad Khalifa	77:21 Then we placed it in a well-protected repository.
Shabbir Ahmed	77:21 Which We then kept in a safe place. ⁸
Transliteration	77:21 FajaAAalnahu fee qararinmakeenin
A	77:21 فجعلنه فى قرار مكين
Edip-Layth	77:22 Until a time that is predetermined?
The Monotheist Group	77:22 Until a time that is predetermined?
Muhammad Asad	77:22 for a term pre-ordained?
Rashad Khalifa	77:22 For a specific period.
Shabbir Ahmed	77:22 For a term appointed.
Transliteration	77:22 Ila qadarin maAAloomin
A	77:22 الى قدر معلوم
Edip-Layth	77:23 So We measured, and We are the best to measure.
The Monotheist Group	77:23 So We measured, and We are the best to measure.
Muhammad Asad	77:23 Thus have We determined [the nature of man's creation]: and excellent indeed is Our power to determine [what is to be]! ⁸
Rashad Khalifa	77:23 We measured it precisely. We are the best designers.
Shabbir Ahmed	77:23 Thus We have determined (all things). How excellent is Our determination! ⁹
Transliteration	77:23 Faqadarna faniAAama alqadiroona
A	77:23 فقدرنا فنعم القديرون
Edip-Layth	77:24 Woes on that day to the deniers.
The Monotheist Group	77:24 Woe on that Day to the disbelievers!

Muhammad Asad	77:24 Woe, on that Day unto those who give the lie to the truth!
Rashad Khalifa	77:24 Woe on that day to the rejectors.
Shabbir Ahmed	77:24 Anguish on that Day for those who deny the truth!
Transliteration	77:24 Waylun yawma-i th in lilmuka th hibeena
A	77:24 ويل يومئذ للمكذبين
Edip-Layth	77:25 Did We not make the earth an abode,
The Monotheist Group	77:25 Did We not make the Earth an abode,
Muhammad Asad	77:25 Have We not caused the earth to hold within itself
Rashad Khalifa	77:25 Did we not make the earth an abode?
Shabbir Ahmed	77:25 Have We not made the earth a vessel -
Transliteration	77:25 Alam najAAali al-ar ^{da} kifata ⁿ
A	77:25 ألم نجعل الارض كفاتا
Edip-Layth	77:26 Living and dead.
The Monotheist Group	77:26 Living and dead.
Muhammad Asad	77:26 the living and the dead? ⁹
Rashad Khalifa	77:26 For the living and the dead?
Shabbir Ahmed	77:26 Both for the living and the dead? ¹⁰
Transliteration	77:26 Ahyaan waamwata ⁿ
A	77:26 احياء واموتا
Edip-Layth	77:27 We made massive stabilizers in it, and We gave you to drink fresh water?
The Monotheist Group	77:27 And We made massive stabilizers in it, and We gave you to drink fresh water?
Muhammad Asad	77:27 and have We not set on it proud, firm mountains, and given you sweet water to drink? ¹⁰
Rashad Khalifa	77:27 We placed on it high mountains, and provided you with fresh water to drink.
Shabbir Ahmed	77:27 And placed therein firm lofty mountains (serving as water reservoirs), and given you fresh water to drink.
Transliteration	77:27 WajaAAalna feeha rawasiyasha ^m ikhata ⁿ waasqayna ^k um maan furata ⁿ
A	77:27 وجعلنا فيها روسى شمخت واسقينكم ماء فراتا
Edip-Layth	77:28 Woes on that day to the deniers!
The Monotheist Group	77:28 Woe on that Day to the disbelievers!
Muhammad Asad	77:28 Woe on that Day unto those who give the lie to the truth!

Rashad Khalifa	77:28 Woe on that day to the rejectors.
Shabbir Ahmed	77:28 But anguish is on that Day for the deniers of truth.
Transliteration	77:28 Waylun yawma-i th in lilmukath th ibeen a
A	77:28 ويل يومئذ للمكذبين
Edip-Layth	77:29 Depart unto what you have denied.
The Monotheist Group	77:29 Away with you towards what you have disbelieved.
Muhammad Asad	77:29 GO ON towards that [resurrection] which you were wont to call a lie!
Rashad Khalifa	77:29 Go to what you used to disbelieve in.
Shabbir Ahmed	77:29 (It will be said to them), "Walk to the doom you used to deny.
Transliteration	77:29 In t aliqoo il a m a kuntumbihi tukath th iboona
A	77:29 انطلقوا الى ما كنتم به تكذبون
Edip-Layth	77:30 Depart unto a shadow with three columns.
The Monotheist Group	77:30 Away with you to a shadow with three columns.
Muhammad Asad	77:30 Go on towards the threefold shadow ¹¹
Rashad Khalifa	77:30 Go to a shade of three different densities.
Shabbir Ahmed	77:30 Walk to the threefold darkness (of fear, grief and hopelessness).
Transliteration	77:30 In t aliqoo il a th illin th ee thal a thi shuAAabin
A	77:30 انطلقوا الى ظل ذى ثلاث شعب
Edip-Layth	77:31 Neither does it give shade, nor does it avail from the flames.
The Monotheist Group	77:31 Neither does it shade, nor does it avail from the flames.
Muhammad Asad	77:31 that will offer no [cooling] shade and will be of no avail against the flame
Rashad Khalifa	77:31 Yet, it provides neither coolness, nor protection from the heat.
Shabbir Ahmed	77:31 Giving neither cooling shade nor shelter from the Flame."
Transliteration	77:31 La th aleelin wal a yughnee mina allahabi
A	77:31 لا ظليل ولا يغنى من اللهب
Edip-Layth	77:32 It throws sparks as huge as logs.
The Monotheist Group	77:32 It throws sparks as huge as logs.
Muhammad Asad	77:32 which behold!- will throw up sparks like [burning] logs,
Rashad Khalifa	77:32 It throws sparks as big as mansions.
Shabbir Ahmed	77:32 It throws up sparks huge as castles.
Transliteration	77:32 Innah a tarmee bishararin ka alqas r i
A

Edip-Layth	77:33 As if they were yellow camels/ropes.
The Monotheist Group	77:33 As if they were yellow camels.
Muhammad Asad	77:33 like giant fiery ropes! ¹²
Rashad Khalifa	77:33 As yellow as the color of camels.
Shabbir Ahmed	77:33 Moving like the caravans of bright yellow camels.
Transliteration	77:33 Kaannahu jim ^{al} atun sufrun
A	77:33 كانه جمالت صفر

Edip-Layth	77:34 Woes on that day to the deniers!
The Monotheist Group	77:34 Woe on that Day to the disbelievers!
Muhammad Asad	77:34 Woe on that Day unto those who give the lie to the truth
Rashad Khalifa	77:34 Woe on that day to the rejectors.
Shabbir Ahmed	77:34 Anguish is on that Day for those who deny the truth.
Transliteration	77:34 Waylun yawma-i th in lilmukath th ibeena
A	77:34 ويل يومئذ للمكذبين

Edip-Layth	77:35 This is a day when they shall not speak.
The Monotheist Group	77:35 This is a Day when they shall not speak.
Muhammad Asad	77:35 that Day on which they will not [be able to] utter a word,
Rashad Khalifa	77:35 That is the day they do not speak.
Shabbir Ahmed	77:35 This is a Day when they are not able to speak.
Transliteration	77:35 Hatha yawmu la ^a yan ^{ti} qoona
A	77:35 هذا يوم لا ينطقون

Edip-Layth	77:36 Nor will it be permitted for them so they can make excuses.
The Monotheist Group	77:36 Nor will it be permitted for them so they can make excuses.
Muhammad Asad	77:36 nor be allowed to proffer excuses!
Rashad Khalifa	77:36 Nor are they given permission to apologize.
Shabbir Ahmed	77:36 Nor will they be allowed to make excuses.
Transliteration	77:36 Wala ^a yu/ th anu lahum fayaAAata th iroona
A	77:36 ولا يؤذن لهم فيعتذرون

Edip-Layth	77:37 Woes on that day to the deniers!
The Monotheist Group	77:37 Woe on that Day to the disbelievers!

Muhammad Asad	77:37 Woe on that Day unto those who give the lie to the truth
Rashad Khalifa	77:37 Woe on that day to the rejectors.
Shabbir Ahmed	77:37 Anguish on that Day for those who deny the truth!
Transliteration	77:37 Waylun yawma-i th in lilmuka th hibeena
A	77:37 ويل يومئذ للمكذبين
Edip-Layth	77:38 This is the day of Separation where We have gathered you with the ancient people.
The Monotheist Group	77:38 This is the Day of Separation where We have gathered you with the ancient people.
Muhammad Asad	77:38 that Day of Distinction [between the true and the false, when they will be told]: "We have brought you together with those [sinners] of olden times;
Rashad Khalifa	77:38 This is the Day of Decision. We have summoned you and the previous generations.
Shabbir Ahmed	77:38 This is the Day of decision. We have brought you and the generations of old all together.
Transliteration	77:38 Hatha yawmu alfas li jamaA an akumwaal-awwaleena
A	77:38 هذا يوم الفصل جمعنكم والاولين
Edip-Layth	77:39 So if you have a scheme, then make use of it.
The Monotheist Group	77:39 So if you have a scheme, then make use of it.
Muhammad Asad	77:39 and if you [think that you] have a subterfuge left, try to outwit Me!"
Rashad Khalifa	77:39 If you have any schemes, go ahead and scheme.
Shabbir Ahmed	77:39 If you have a scheme, go ahead and scheme.
Transliteration	77:39 Fa-in ka n a lakum kaydun fakeedoon i
A	77:39 فان كان لكم كيد فكيون
Edip-Layth	77:40 Woes on that day to the deniers!
The Monotheist Group	77:40 Woe on that Day to the disbelievers!
Muhammad Asad	77:40 Woe on that Day unto those who give the lie to the truth!
Rashad Khalifa	77:40 Woe on that day to the rejectors.
Shabbir Ahmed	77:40 Anguish on that Day for those who deny the truth.
Transliteration	77:40 Waylun yawma-i th in lilmuka th hibeena
A	77:40 ويل يومئذ للمكذبين
Edip-Layth	77:41 The righteous are among shades and springs.
The Monotheist Group	77:41 The righteous are among shades and springs.
Muhammad Asad	77:41 [AS AGAINST this,] behold, the God-conscious shall dwell amidst [cooling] shades and springs,

Rashad Khalifa	77:41 The righteous will enjoy shade and springs.
Shabbir Ahmed	77:41 The righteous are amid shades and springs.
Transliteration	77:41 Inna almuttaqeenā fee thilā linwaAAuyoonin
A	77:41 ان المتقين فى ظلل وعيون
Edip-Layth	77:42 Fruit from what they desire.
The Monotheist Group	77:42 And fruit from what they desire.
Muhammad Asad	77:42 and [partake of] whatever fruit they may desire;
Rashad Khalifa	77:42 And fruits that they desire.
Shabbir Ahmed	77:42 And fruit as they desire.
Transliteration	77:42 Wafaw a kiha mim a yashta h oonā
A	77:42 وفوكه مما يشتهون
Edip-Layth	77:43 "Eat and drink comfortably for what you used to do."
The Monotheist Group	77:43 "Eat and drink comfortably for what you used to do."
Muhammad Asad	77:43 [and they will be told:] "Eat and drink in good cheer in return for what you did [in life]!" ¹³
Rashad Khalifa	77:43 Eat and drink happily in return for your works.
Shabbir Ahmed	77:43 Enjoy, eat and drink. Welcome for what you have accomplished!
Transliteration	77:43 Kuloo waishraboo hane e -an bim a kuntum taAAamaloona
A	77:43 كلوا واشربوا هنيا بما كنتم تعملون
Edip-Layth	77:44 It is such that We reward the good doers.
The Monotheist Group	77:44 It is such that We reward the good doers.
Muhammad Asad	77:44 Thus, behold, do We reward the doers of good;
Rashad Khalifa	77:44 We thus reward the virtuous.
Shabbir Ahmed	77:44 Thus do We reward the doers of good.
Transliteration	77:44 Inna ka th alika najzee almu h sineena
A	77:44 انا كذلك نجزي المحسنين
Edip-Layth	77:45 Woes on that day to the deniers!
The Monotheist Group	77:45 Woe on that Day to the disbelievers!
Muhammad Asad	77:45 [but] woe on that Day unto those who give the lie to the truth!
Rashad Khalifa	77:45 Woe on that day to the rejectors.
Shabbir Ahmed	77:45 Anguish on that Day for those who deny the truth!
Transliteration	77:45 Waylun yawma-i th in lilmuka th hi be ena

A	77:45 ويل يومئذ للمكذبين
Edip-Layth	77:46 "Eat and enjoy for a little while, for you are criminals."
The Monotheist Group	77:46 "Eat and enjoy for a little while, for you are criminals."
Muhammad Asad	77:46 EAT [your fill] and enjoy your life for a little while, O you who are lost in sin! ¹⁴
Rashad Khalifa	77:46 Eat and enjoy temporarily; you are guilty.
Shabbir Ahmed	77:46 You guilty ones! Enjoy and take your ease for a little while.
Transliteration	77:46 Kuloo watamattaAAoo qaleelan innakummujrimoon a
A	77:46 كلوا وتمتعوا قليلا انكم مجرمون
Edip-Layth	77:47 Woes on that day to the deniers!
The Monotheist Group	77:47 Woe on that Day to the disbelievers!
Muhammad Asad	77:47 [But] woe on that Day unto those who give the lie to the truth,
Rashad Khalifa	77:47 Woe on that day to the rejectors.
Shabbir Ahmed	77:47 Anguish on that Day for those who deny the truth!
Transliteration	77:47 Waylun yawma-i th in lilmukath th ibeena
A	77:47 ويل يومئذ للمكذبين
Edip-Layth	77:48 When they are told to kneel, they do not kneel. ³
The Monotheist Group	77:48 And when they are told to kneel, they do not kneel.
Muhammad Asad	77:48 and when they are told, "Bow down [before God]", do not bow down:
Rashad Khalifa	77:48 When they are told, "Bow down," they do not bow down.
Shabbir Ahmed	77:48 And now when they are told to bow down, they do not bow down. ¹¹
Transliteration	77:48 Wa-i th a qeela lahumu irkaAAoo la ^y arkaAAoona
A	77:48 واذا قيل لهم اركعوا لا يركعون
Edip-Layth	77:49 Woes on that day to the deniers!
The Monotheist Group	77:49 Woe on that Day to the disbelievers!
Muhammad Asad	77:49 woe on that Day unto those who give the to the truth!
Rashad Khalifa	77:49 Woe on that day to the rejectors.
Shabbir Ahmed	77:49 Anguish on that Day for those who deny the truth!
Transliteration	77:49 Waylun yawma-i th in lilmukath th ibeena
A	77:49 ويل يومئذ للمكذبين
Edip-Layth	77:50 So in what hadith after it will they acknowledge?

The Monotheist Group	77:50 So in what words after it will they believe?
Muhammad Asad	77:50 In what other tiding, then, will they, after this, believe?
Rashad Khalifa	77:50 Which Hadith, other than this, do they uphold?
Shabbir Ahmed	77:50 In what Hadith, after this, will they believe?
Transliteration	77:50 Fabi-ayyi ḥadeethin baAAadahuyu/minoona
A	77:50 فباى حديث بعده يومنون

<< Prev 77:1-50 Next >>

Return to top

End Notes

Edip-Layth - Quran: A Reformist Translation

Edip-Layth - End Note 1 (77:1)

For the meaning and function of the Quranic oaths, see 89:5.

Edip-Layth - End Note 2 (77:20)

According to the findings of modern embryology, the exact pregnancy period is 266 days or 38 weeks.

Edip-Layth - End Note 3 (77:48)

For a discussion of the meaning of bowing and prostrating, see 16:49.

Muhammad Asad - The Message Of Quran

Muhammad Asad - End Note 1 (77:1)

I.e., one after another: an allusion to the gradual, step-by-step revelation of the Qur'an. By contrast, the next clause (verse 2) obviously relates to the impact of the divine writ as a whole. For my rendering of the adjectival particle wa as "Consider", see surah 74, first half of note 23.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 2 (77:4)

Lit., "with [all] separation" (farqan). Cf. 8:29 and the corresponding note 29; also note 38 on 2:53.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 3 (77:6)

I.e., showing what leads to freedom from blame - in other words, the principles of right conduct - and what is ethically reprehensible and, therefore, to be avoided.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 4 (77:7)

Lit., "that which you are promised", i.e., resurrection.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 5 (77:11)

Sc., to bear witness for or against those to whom they conveyed God's message (cf. 4:41-42, 5:109, 7:6 or 39:69).

Muhammad Asad - End Note 6 (77:13)

This is chronologically the earliest occurrence of the expression yawm al-fasl, which invariably relates to the Day of Resurrection (cf. 37:21, 44:40, 78:17, as well as verse 38 of the present surah): an allusion to the oft-repeated Qur'anic statement that on resurrection man will gain a perfect, unfailing insight into himself and the innermost motivation of his past attitudes and doings (cf. 69:1 and the corresponding note 1).

Muhammad Asad - End Note 7 (77:17)

The use of the conjunction thumma - which in this case has been rendered as "And" - implies that suffering in the hereafter is bound to befall the sinners "of later times" (al-akhirun) even if God, in His unfathomable wisdom, wills to spare them in this world.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 8 (77:23)

The process of man's coming into being (illustrated, for instance, in 23:12-14) clearly point to God's creative activity and, hence, to His existence. Consequently, lack of gratitude on man's part amounts to what the Qur'an describes as "giving the lie to the truth".

Muhammad Asad - End Note 9 (77:26)

This refers not merely to the fact that the earth is an abode for living and dead human beings and animals, but is also an allusion to the God-willed, cyclic recurrence of birth, growth, decay and death in all organic creation - and thus an evidence of the existence of the Creator who "brings forth the living out of that which is dead, and brings forth the dead out of that which is alive" (3:27, 6:95, 10:31 and 30:19).

Muhammad Asad - End Note 10 (77:27)

Parallel with the preceding, this verse refers to God's creation of inanimate matter, and thus rounds off the statement that He is the Maker of the universe in all its manifestations, both organic and inorganic.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 11 (77:30)

I.e., of death, resurrection and God's judgment, all three of which cast dark shadows, as it were, over the sinners' hearts.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 12 (77:33)

Lit., "like yellow twisted ropes", yellow being "the colour of fire" (Baghawi). The conventional rendering of jimalat (also spelt jimalat and jimalah) as "camels", adopted by many commentators and, until now, by all translators of the Qur'an, must be rejected as grossly anomalous; see in this connection note 32 on the second part of 7:40 - "they shall not enter paradise any more than a twisted rope can pass through a needle's eye". In the above verse, too, the plural noun jimalah (or jimalat) signifies "twisted ropes" or "giant ropes" - a connotation that has been forcefully stressed by Ibn Abbas, Mujahid, Sa'id ibn Jubayr and others (cf. Tabari, Baghawi, Razi, Ibn Kathir; also Bukhari, Kitab at-Tafsir). Moreover, our observation of the trajectory of shooting stars fully justifies the rendering "giant fiery ropes", Similarly, my rendering of qasr, in this context, as "[burning] logs" - instead of the conventional (and utterly meaningless) "castles", "palaces", etc. - goes back to all of the above-mentioned authorities.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 13 (77:43)

For this symbolism of the joys of paradise, see Appendix I.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 14 (77:46)

Lit" "behold, you are lost in sin (mujrimun)".

Shabbir Ahmed -

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 1 (77:6)

'Uzr = Excuse = Justification = Good news = Reasoning = Attempt to get rid of one's shortcomings.
Nuzr = Warning = Posting danger signs

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 2 (77:8)

The small groups of opponents fade away

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 3 (77:9)

Every high tyrant is decimated

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 4 (77:10)

The great ones who enslave the weak float around like flakes of wool. 20:105, 56:5

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 5 (77:11)

The unanimity of the message of all messengers will become evident (guidance can only be achieved according to Divine laws 4:88)

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 6 (77:15)

Kizb = Lie = Belie = Deny the truth in practical dealings = Deny by action. Kufr = Frank denial in word and action

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 7 (77:20)

How, then, you forget your common origin and being humble to one another?

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 8 (77:21)

23:13

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 9 (77:23)

Appointing due measure of all things

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 10 (77:26)

The cycle of life and death goes on right here. 3:27, 6:95, 10:31, 30:19

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 11 (77:48)

They do not submit to Divine Commands

Best viewed using your own brain

Tested on 1024x768 resolution with  FIREFOX 2

Kitabun Marqum v0.6.7 - Kitabun Marqum - Quran Research Platform by QuraniX Team Copyright © 2002-2011 All rights reserved.
Copyrights of all translations belong to their respective authors.

49:6 O you who believe, if a wicked person brings any news to you, you shall first investigate, lest you commit injustice towards some people, out of ignorance, then become sorry and remorseful for what you have done.

Rashad Khalifa (The Final Testament)

 Translations ▼

 Chapter/Verse ▼

 Refresh

 Search

<< Prev 78:1-40 Next >>

Edip-Layth	In the name of God, the Gracious, the Compassionate. 78:1 What are they inquiring about?
The Monotheist Group	In the name of God, the Almighty, the Merciful. 78:1 What are they inquiring about?
Muhammad Asad	In the name of God, The Most Gracious, The Dispenser of Grace: 78:1 ABOUT WHAT do they [most often] ask one another?
Rashad Khalifa	In the name of GOD, Most Gracious, Most Merciful. 78:1 What are they questioning?
Shabbir Ahmed	BISMILLAH-IR-RAHMAN-IR-RAHEEM With the Glorious Name of God, the Ultimate Source of Instant Beneficence and Eternal mercy Who encompasses the entire Universe, nourishing and taking care of all things for what they are meant to be; just as a mother's womb nourishes the embryo to completion without any returns. 78:1 What are they asking about?
Transliteration	Bismi Allāhi alRrahmāni alRrahēemi 78:1 AAamma yatasāloona
A	بسم الله الرحمن الرحيم 78:1 عم يتساءلون
Edip-Layth	78:2 About the grand news. ¹
The Monotheist Group	78:2 About the weighty news.
Muhammad Asad	78:2 About the awesome tiding [of resurrection],

Rashad Khalifa	78:2 The great event.
Shabbir Ahmed	78:2 About the Great News!
Transliteration	78:2 AAani aInnaba-i alAAa the emi
A	78:2 عن النبا العظيم
Edip-Layth	78:3 The one which they are in disagreement about.
The Monotheist Group	78:3 The one which they are in disagreement about.
Muhammad Asad	78:3 on which they [so utterly] disagree. ¹
Rashad Khalifa	78:3 That is disputed by them.
Shabbir Ahmed	78:3 On which they disagree.
Transliteration	78:3 Alla the e hum feehee mukhtalifoona
A	78:3 الذى هم فيه مختلفون
Edip-Layth	78:4 No, they will come to know.
The Monotheist Group	78:4 No, they will come to know.
Muhammad Asad	78:4 Nay, but in time they will come to understand [it]!
Rashad Khalifa	78:4 Indeed, they will find out.
Shabbir Ahmed	78:4 Nay, they will soon come to know.
Transliteration	78:4 Kalla sayaAAalamoona
A	78:4 كلا سيعلمون
Edip-Layth	78:5 No, then again, they will come to know.
The Monotheist Group	78:5 No, then again, they will come to know.
Muhammad Asad	78:5 And once again: ² Nay, but in time they will come to understand!
Rashad Khalifa	78:5 Most assuredly, they will find out.
Shabbir Ahmed	78:5 Nay, again, they will soon come to know. ¹
Transliteration	78:5 Thumma kalla sayaAAalamoona
A	78:5 ثم كلا سيعلمون
Edip-Layth	78:6 Did We not make the earth a resting ground?
The Monotheist Group	78:6 Did We not make the Earth a resting ground?
Muhammad Asad	78:6 HAVE WE NOT made the earth a resting-place [for you],
Rashad Khalifa	78:6 Did we not make the earth habitable?
Shabbir Ahmed	78:6 Did We not make the earth a cradle,
Transliteration	78:6 Alam najAAali al-arda mihadan

A
Edip-Layth	78:7 The mountains as pegs?
The Monotheist Group	78:7 And the mountains as pegs?
Muhammad Asad	78:7 and the mountains [its] pegs? ³
Rashad Khalifa	78:7 And the mountains stabilizers?
Shabbir Ahmed	78:7 And the mountains as pegs?
Transliteration	78:7 Waalji ba la awta da n
A	78:7 والجبال اوتادا
Edip-Layth	78:8 We created you in pairs?
The Monotheist Group	78:8 And We created you in pairs?
Muhammad Asad	78:8 And We have created you in pairs; ⁴
Rashad Khalifa	78:8 We created you as mates
Shabbir Ahmed	78:8 Have We not created you in pairs,
Transliteration	78:8 Wakhalaq na kum azwa ja n
A	78:8 وخلق تكم ازوجا
Edip-Layth	78:9 We made your sleep for resting?
The Monotheist Group	78:9 And We made your sleep for resting?
Muhammad Asad	78:9 and We have made your sleep [a symbol of] death ⁵
Rashad Khalifa	(for one another). 78:9 We created sleeping so you can rest.
Shabbir Ahmed	78:9 And made your sleep for rest,
Transliteration	78:9 WajaAAa lna nawma kum suba ta n
A	78:9 وجعلنا نومكم سباتا
Edip-Layth	78:10 We made the night as a covering?
The Monotheist Group	78:10 And We made the night as a covering?
Muhammad Asad	78:10 and made the night [its] cloak
Rashad Khalifa	78:10 We made the night a cover.
Shabbir Ahmed	78:10 And made the night as a cloak,
Transliteration	78:10 WajaAAa lna allayla liba sa n
A	78:10 وجعلنا اليل لباسا
Edip-Layth	78:11 We made the day to work in?

The Monotheist Group	78:11 And We made the day to work in?
Muhammad Asad	78:11 and made the day [a symbol of] life. ⁶
Rashad Khalifa	78:11 And the day to seek provisions.
Shabbir Ahmed	78:11 And made the day for seeking livelihood, ²
Transliteration	78:11 WajaAAalna alInnaharamaAAashan
A	78:11 وجعلنا النهار معاشا
Edip-Layth	78:12 We constructed above you seven mighty ones?
The Monotheist Group	78:12 And We constructed above you seven mighty ones?
Muhammad Asad	78:12 And We have built above you seven firmaments, ⁷
Rashad Khalifa	78:12 We built above you seven universes.
Shabbir Ahmed	78:12 And (have We not) built above you seven Cosmic Systems,
Transliteration	78:12 Wabanayna fawqakum sabAAan shidaan
A	78:12 وبنينا فوقكم سبعا شادا
Edip-Layth	78:13 We made a flaming light?
The Monotheist Group	78:13 And We made a flaming light?
Muhammad Asad	78:13 and have placed [therein the sun,] a lamp full of blazing splendour.
Rashad Khalifa	78:13 We created a bright lamp.
Shabbir Ahmed	78:13 And placed therein a dazzling lamp,
Transliteration	78:13 WajaAAalna sirajan wahhajan
A	78:13 وجعلنا سراجا وهاجا
Edip-Layth	78:14 We sent down abundant water from the rain clouds.
The Monotheist Group	78:14 And We sent down abundant water from the rain clouds,
Muhammad Asad	78:14 And from the wind-driven clouds We send down waters pouring in abundance,
Rashad Khalifa	78:14 We send down from the clouds pouring water.
Shabbir Ahmed	78:14 And do We not send down from the rain clouds abundant water,
Transliteration	78:14 Waanzalna mina almuAAasiratimaan thajjajan
A	78:14 وانزلنا من المعصرت ماء ثاجا
Edip-Layth	78:15 To bring out with it seeds and plants.
The Monotheist Group	78:15 To bring out with it seeds and plants,
Muhammad Asad	78:15 so that We might bring forth thereby grain, and herbs,
Rashad Khalifa	78:15 To produce with it grains and plants.

Shabbir Ahmed	78:15 Thereby to bring forth grain and plant,
Transliteration	78:15 Linukhrija bihi ḥabban wanabatan
A	78:15 لنخرج به حبا ونباتا
Edip-Layth	78:16 Gardens of thick growth?
The Monotheist Group	78:16 And gardens of thick growth?
Muhammad Asad	78:16 and gardens dense with foliage. ⁸
Rashad Khalifa	78:16 And various orchards.
Shabbir Ahmed	78:16 And gardens of dense foliage?
Transliteration	78:16 Wajannatin alfafan
A	78:16 وجنت الفافا
Edip-Layth	78:17 The day of Separation is an appointed time.
The Monotheist Group	78:17 The Day of Separation is an appointed time.
Muhammad Asad	78:17 VERILY, the Day of Distinction [between the true and the false] ⁹ has indeed its appointed time:
Rashad Khalifa	78:17 The Day of Decision is appointed.
Shabbir Ahmed	78:17 Certainly, the Day of decision is a thing appointed.
Transliteration	78:17 Inna yawma alfasli kana meeqatan
A	78:17 ان يوم الفصل كان ميقتا
Edip-Layth	78:18 The day when the horn is blown and you come in crowds.
The Monotheist Group	78:18 The Day when the horn is blown and you come in crowds.
Muhammad Asad	78:18 the Day when the trumpet [of resurrection] is sounded and you all come forward in multitudes;
Rashad Khalifa	78:18 The day the horn is blown, and you come in throngs.
Shabbir Ahmed	78:18 A Day when the Trumpet is blown and you come in throngs.
Transliteration	78:18 Yawma yunfakhu fee alssoorifata/toona afwajan
A	78:18 يوم ينفخ فى الصور فتاتون افواجا
Edip-Layth	78:19 The heaven is opened, so it becomes gates.
The Monotheist Group	78:19 And the universe is opened, so it becomes gates.
Muhammad Asad	78:19 and when the skies are opened and become [as wide-flung] gates; ¹⁰
Rashad Khalifa	78:19 The heaven will be opened like gates.
Shabbir Ahmed	78:19 When the gates of the sky are flung open. ³
Transliteration	78:19 Wafutiḥati alssamao fakanatabwaban

A	78:19 وقتحت السماء فكانت ابوبا
Edip-Layth	78:20 The mountains will be moved as if they were a mirage.
The Monotheist Group	78:20 And the mountains will be moved as if they were a mirage.
Muhammad Asad	78:20 and when the mountains are made to vanish as if they had been a mirage. ¹¹
Rashad Khalifa	78:20 The mountains will be removed, as if they were a mirage.
Shabbir Ahmed	78:20 And the 'great ones' lose power as if they were mirage. ⁴
Transliteration	78:20 Wasuyyirati aljib al u fak a natsar a ba n
A	78:20 وسيرت الجبال فكانت سرايا
Edip-Layth	78:21 For hell is in wait.
The Monotheist Group	78:21 For Hell is in wait.
Muhammad Asad	78:21 [On that Day,] verily, hell will lie in wait [for those who deny the truth]
Rashad Khalifa	78:21 Gehenna is inevitable.
Shabbir Ahmed	78:21 Hell lurks in ambush.
Transliteration	78:21 Inna jahannama ka n at mir s ada n
A	78:21 ان جهنم كانت مرصادا
Edip-Layth	78:22 For the transgressors it is a dwelling place.
The Monotheist Group	78:22 For the transgressors it is a dwelling place.
Muhammad Asad	78:22 a goal for all who are wont to transgress the bounds of what is right!
Rashad Khalifa	78:22 For the transgressors; it will be their abode.
Shabbir Ahmed	78:22 A home for the transgressors.
Transliteration	78:22 Li l ta g heena ma a ba n
A	78:22 للطغين مابا
Edip-Layth	78:23 They will abide in it for eons.
The Monotheist Group	78:23 They will abide in it for eons.
Muhammad Asad	78:23 In it shall they remain for a long time. ¹²
Rashad Khalifa	78:23 They stay in it for ages.
Shabbir Ahmed	78:23 They will abide in it for ages. ⁵
Transliteration	78:23 La b itheena fee h a a h qa ba n
A	78:23 لبثين فيها احقابا
Edip-Layth	78:24 They will not taste anything cold in it nor drink.

The Monotheist Group	78:24 They will not taste anything cold in it nor drink.
Muhammad Asad	78:24 Neither coolness shall they taste therein nor any [thirst-quenching] drink
Rashad Khalifa	78:24 They never taste in it coolness, nor a drink.
Shabbir Ahmed	78:24 Therein they taste not coolness of comfort nor drink of satisfaction.
Transliteration	78:24 La ya thoo qoona fee h a b ardan wa l a sha r a b a n
A	78:24 لا يذوقون فيها بردا ولا شرابا
Edip-Layth	78:25 Except for boiling water and filthy discharge.
The Monotheist Group	78:25 Except for boiling water and filthy discharge.
Muhammad Asad	78:25 only burning despair and ice-cold darkness: 13
Rashad Khalifa	78:25 Only an inferno, and bitter food.
Shabbir Ahmed	78:25 Only burning anguish and ice-cold darkness. 6
Transliteration	78:25 Illa h ameeman wa g hassa q a n
A	78:25 الا حميما وغساقا
Edip-Layth	78:26 An exact recompense.
The Monotheist Group	78:26 An exact recompense.
Muhammad Asad	78:26 a meet requital [for their sins]!
Rashad Khalifa	78:26 A just requital.
Shabbir Ahmed	78:26 A befitting requital.
Transliteration	78:26 Jaza a n wifa q a n
A	78:26 جزاء وفاقا
Edip-Layth	The Surprise 78:27 They did not expect a reckoning/computation. 2
The Monotheist Group	78:27 They did not expect the reckoning.
Muhammad Asad	78:27 Behold, they were not expecting to be called to account,
Rashad Khalifa	78:27 They never expected to be held accountable.
Shabbir Ahmed	78:27 They never expected to be held accountable.
Transliteration	78:27 Innahum ka n oo la ya r joona h isa b a n
A	78:27 انهم كانوا لا يرجون حسابا
Edip-Layth	78:28 They denied Our signs greatly.
The Monotheist Group	78:28 And they denied Our revelations greatly.
Muhammad Asad	78:28 having given the lie to Our messages one and all:
Rashad Khalifa	78:28 And utterly rejected our signs.

Shabbir Ahmed	78:28 And they called Our messages false with an adamant denial.
Transliteration	78:28 Wakaththaboo bi-ayatinakiththaban
A	78:28 وكذبوا بايتنا كذابا
Edip-Layth	78:29 Everything We have counted in a record.
The Monotheist Group	78:29 And everything We have counted in a record.
Muhammad Asad	78:29 but We have placed on record every single thing [of what they did].
Rashad Khalifa	78:29 We counted everything in a record.
Shabbir Ahmed	78:29 But We place on Record everything.
Transliteration	78:29 Wakulla shay-in ahsaynahu kitaban
A	78:29 وكل شيء احصينه كتبنا
Edip-Layth	78:30 So taste it, for no increase will come to you from Us except in retribution.
The Monotheist Group	78:30 So taste it, for no increase will come to you from Us except in retribution.
Muhammad Asad	78:30 [And so We shall say:] "Taste, then, [the fruit of your evil doings,] for now We shall bestow on you nothing but more and more suffering!" ¹⁴
Rashad Khalifa	78:30 Suffer the consequences; we will only increase your retribution.
Shabbir Ahmed	78:30 So, now, taste nothing but increasing punishment.
Transliteration	78:30 Fathooqoo falan nazeedakum illaAAathaban
A	78:30 فذوقوا فلن نزيدكم الا عذابا
Edip-Layth	78:31 As for the righteous, they will have success.
The Monotheist Group	78:31 As for the righteous, they will have success.
Muhammad Asad	78:31 [But,] verily for the God-conscious there is supreme fulfilment in store: ¹⁵
Rashad Khalifa	78:31 The righteous have deserved a reward.
Shabbir Ahmed	78:31 There is supreme fulfillment for those who chose to live upright.
Transliteration	78:31 Inna lilmuttaqeena mafazan
A	78:31 ان للمتقين مفازا
Edip-Layth	78:32 Gardens and vineyards.
The Monotheist Group	78:32 Gardens and vineyards.
Muhammad Asad	78:32 luxuriant gardens and vinyards,
Rashad Khalifa	78:32 Orchards and grapes.
Shabbir Ahmed	78:32 Beautiful gardens and vineyards.
Transliteration	78:32 Hada-qa waaAAnaban
A	78:32 حدائق واعنبا

Edip-Layth	78:33 Impressive peers.
The Monotheist Group	78:33 And grapes that are ripe.
Muhammad Asad	78:33 and splendid companions well matched, ¹⁶
Rashad Khalifa	78:33 Magnificent spouses.
Shabbir Ahmed	78:33 And splendid companions, well-matched. ⁷
Transliteration	78:33 WakawāAAiba atrabān
A	78:33 وكواعب اترابا
Edip-Layth	78:34 A cup that is full.
The Monotheist Group	78:34 And a cup that is full.
Muhammad Asad	78:34 and a cup [of happiness] overflowing.
Rashad Khalifa	78:34 Delicious drinks.
Shabbir Ahmed	78:34 And a cup of delight overflowing.
Transliteration	78:34 Waka/san dihaqān
A	78:34 وكاسا دهاقا
Edip-Layth	78:35 They do not hear in it any vile talk or lies.
The Monotheist Group	78:35 They do not hear in it any vile talk or lies.
Muhammad Asad	78:35 No empty talk will they hear in that [paradise], nor any lie.
Rashad Khalifa	78:35 They will never hear in it any nonsense or lies.
Shabbir Ahmed	78:35 They shall hear no senseless talk, nor falsification therein.
Transliteration	78:35 La yasmaAAoona feeḥa laghwanwala kithḥabān
A	78:35 لا يسمعون فيها لغوا ولا كذبا
Edip-Layth	78:36 A reward from your Lord, in recognition for what is done.
The Monotheist Group	78:36 A reward from your Lord, in recognition for what is done.
Muhammad Asad	78:36 [All this will be] a reward from thy Sustainer, a gift in accordance with [His Own] reckoning ¹⁷
Rashad Khalifa	78:36 A reward from your Lord; a generous recompense.
Shabbir Ahmed	78:36 reward from your Lord, a generous gift.
Transliteration	78:36 Jazaan min rabbika AAataan hisaban
A	78:36 جزاء من ربك عطاء حسابا
Edip-Layth	Not Intercession; Only Testimony to the Truth 78:37 The Lord of heavens and earth and what is between them, the Gracious. They do not possess any authority beside Him.

The Monotheist Group	78:37 The Lord of heavens and Earth and what is between them, the Almighty. They do not possess any authority beside Him.
Muhammad Asad	78:37 [a reward from] the Sustainer of the heavens and the earth and all that is between them, the Most Gracious! [And] none shall have it in their power to raise their voices unto Him
Rashad Khalifa	78:37 Lord of the heavens and the earth, and everything between them. The Most Gracious. No one can abrogate His decisions.
Shabbir Ahmed	78:37 Lord of the heavens and earth and all that is in between them, the Beneficent. None has the power to lecture Him.
Transliteration	78:37 Rabbi a Issamawati wa al-ardiwama baynahum a Irrahmani I ayamlikoona minhu khi ^{taban}
A	78:37 رب السموت والارض وما بينهما الرحمن لا يملكون منه خطابا
Edip-Layth	78:38 The day when the Spirit and the angels stand in line, none will speak unless the Gracious permits him and he speaks what is true.
The Monotheist Group	78:38 The Day when the Spirit and the angels stand in line, none will speak unless the Almighty permits him and he speaks what is true.
Muhammad Asad	78:38 on the Day when all [human] souls ¹⁸ and all the angels will stand up in ranks: none will speak but he to whom the Most Gracious will have given leave; and [everyone] will say [only] what is right. ¹⁹
Rashad Khalifa	78:38 The day will come when the Spirit and the angels will stand in a row. None will speak except those permitted by the Most Gracious, and they will utter only what is right.
Shabbir Ahmed	78:38 On the Day when the Divine Energy and the Universal forces stand forth in ranks, none will speak but he whom the Beneficent allows and says only what is right.
Transliteration	78:38 Yawma yaqoomu a Irroohu wa almala-ikatusaffan I a yatakallamoona ill a man athinalahu alrrahmanu waqala saw ^{aban}
A	78:38 يوم يقوم الروح والملائكة صفا لا يتكلمون الا من اذن له الرحمن وقال صوابا
Edip-Layth	78:39 That is the day of truth, so let whoever wills seek a way to his Lord.
The Monotheist Group	78:39 That is the Day of truth, so let whoever wills seek a way to his Lord.
Muhammad Asad	78:39 That will be the Day of Ultimate Truth: whoever wills, then, let him take the path that leads towards his Sustainer!
Rashad Khalifa	78:39 Such is the inevitable day. Whoever wills let him take refuge in his Lord.
Shabbir Ahmed	78:39 That Day will be the Moment of truth. So whoever wills, let him take the path that leads toward his Sustainer.
Transliteration	78:39 Thalika alyawmu alhaquq famanshaa ittakhatha ila rabbihi ma ^{aban}
A	78:39 ذلك اليوم الحق فمن شاء اتخذ الى ربه مابا
Edip-Layth	78:40 I have warned you of a retribution which is close, the day when man will look at what he has brought forth and the ingrate will say, "I wish I were dust!"
The Monotheist Group	78:40 I have warned you of a retribution which is close, the Day when man will look at what he has brought forth and the rejecter will say: "I wish I were dust!"

Muhammad Asad	78:40 Verily, We have warned you of suffering near at hand - [suffering] on the Day when man shall [clearly] see what his hands have sent ahead, and when he who has denied the truth shall say, "Oh, would that I were mere dust..." ²¹
Rashad Khalifa	78:40 We have sufficiently warned you about an imminent retribution. That is the day when everyone will examine what his hands have sent forth, and the disbeliever will say, "Oh, I wish I were dust."
Shabbir Ahmed	78:40 We have warned you of the suffering near at hand, the Day when humans clearly see what their hands have sent ahead. And when the denier of truth will say, "Oh, would that I were mere dust!" ⁸
Transliteration	78:40 Inna an th arnakum AAa th abanaqareeban yawma yan th uru almaro m a qaddamatyada h u wayaqoolu alka f iru ya laytanee kuntutur a ban
A	78:40 انا انذرکم عذابا قریبا یوم ینظر المرء ما قدمت یداه ویقول الکافر یلیتینی کنت تربا

<< Prev 78:1-40 Next >>

Return to top

End Notes

Edip-Layth - Quran: A Reformist Translation

Edip-Layth - End Note 1 (78:2)

The revelation of the Quran created a big controversy when it was first revealed to Muhammad. The discovery of its secret too might be considered another controversial big event. See 38:67

Edip-Layth - End Note 2 (78:27)

Maybe the word hesab has another implication besides the reckoning or computation of one's work on the Day of Judgment?

Muhammad Asad - The Message Of Quran

Muhammad Asad - End Note 1 (78:3)

The question which preoccupies man above all others - the question as to whether there is life after death - has been variously answered throughout the ages. It is, of course, impossible to describe the innumerable variations of those answers; nevertheless, a few main lines of thought are clearly discernible, and their mention may be useful for a better understanding of the Qur'anic treatment of this problem. Some people - probably a minority - seem to be convinced that bodily death amounts to total and irreversible extinction, and that, therefore, all talk about a hereafter but an outcome of wishful thinking. Others are of the opinion that after individual death the human "life-essence" returns to the supposed source of its origin - conceived as the "universal soul" - and merges with it entirely. Some believe in a successive transmigration of the individual soul, at the moment of death, into another body, human or animal, but without a continuation of individual consciousness. Others, again, think that only the soul, and not the entire human "personality", continues to live after death - that is, in a purely spiritual, disembodied form. And, lastly, some believe in an undiminished survival of the individual personality and consciousness, and regard death and resurrection as the twin stages of a positive act of re-creation of the entire human personality, in whatever form this may necessarily involve: and this is the Qur'anic view of the life to come.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 2 (78:5)

For this rendering of the particle thumma, see surah 6, note 31.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 3 (78:7)

See 16:15 - "He has placed firm mountains on earth, lest it sway with you" - and the corresponding note 11, which explains the reference to mountains as "pegs". - The whole of this passage (verses 6-16) is meant to illustrate God's almightiness and creativeness, as if to say, "Is not He who has created the universe equally able to resurrect and re-create man in whatever form He deems necessary?"

Muhammad Asad - End Note 4 (78:8)

I.e., "with the same creative power We have created the miraculous polarity of the two sexes in you and in other animated beings". The phenomenon of polarity, evident throughout the universe (see 36:36 and the corresponding note 18), is further illustrated in verses 9-11.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 5 (78:9)

Thus Zamakhshari, stressing the primary significance of subat as "cutting-off" (qat), i.e., "death"; also the famous second-century philologist Abu Ubaydah Ma'mar ibn al-Muthanna, who (as quoted by Razi) explains the above Qur'anic phrase as an "analogue (shibh) of death".

Muhammad Asad - End Note 6 (78:11)

According to Zamakhshari, the term ma'ash ("that whereby one lives") is here synonymous with "life". In the polarity of sleep (or "death") and wakefulness (or "life") we see the allusion to bodily death and subsequent resurrection already touched upon in 6:60.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 7 (78:12)

Lit., "seven firm ones", indicating the multiplicity of cosmic systems (see surah 2, note 20).

Muhammad Asad - End Note 8 (78:16)

Implying that the overwhelming evidence of purpose and plan in all observable nature points to the existence of a conscious Creator who has "not created [anything of] this without meaning and purpose" (3:191), and who - as is stressed in the sequence - will one day pronounce His judgment on every human being's willingness or unwillingness to live up to the standards of morality made clear to him through inborn instinct as well as through divine revelation.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 9 (78:17)

See note 6 on 78:11. This passage connects with verses 4-5.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 10 (78:19)

Allegorically, "its mysteries will be opened to man's understanding" - thus further amplifying the concept of "the Day of Distinction between the true and the false".

Muhammad Asad - End Note 11 (78:20)

See note 90 on 20:105-107, as well as note 63 on 14:48.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 12 (78:23)

I.e., not forever, since the term huqb or hiqbah (of which ahqab is the plural) denotes no more than "a period of time" or "a long time" (Jawhari) - according to some authorities, "eighty years", according to others, "a year" or simply "years" (Asas, Qamus, Lisan al-Arab, etc.). But however one defines this term, it is obvious that it signifies a limited period of time, and not eternity: and this is in tune with many indications in the Qur'an to the effect that the suffering described as "hell" is not eternal (see note 114 on the last paragraph of 6:128), as well as with several authentic sayings of the Prophet (e.g., the one quoted in note 10 on 40:12).

Muhammad Asad - End Note 13 (78:25)

For my rendering of hamim as "burning despair", see surah 6, note 62. The meaning of ghassaq is explained in note 47 on 38:57-58.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 14 (78:30)

Lit., "We shall not increase you in anything but suffering": i.e., until the sins committed in this world are atoned for by commensurate suffering in the hereafter - for "whoever shall come [before God] with an evil deed will be requited with no more than the like thereof; and none shall be wronged" (6:160).

Muhammad Asad - End Note 15 (78:31)

I.e., the fulfilment of all that a human being may ever desire (Razi), symbolized by the "luxuriant gardens", etc., of the sequence.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 16 (78:33)

For the above rendering of atrab, see surah 56, note 15. As regards my rendering of kawa'ib as "splendid companions", it is to be remembered that the term ka'b -from which the participle ka'ib is derived - has many meanings, and that one of these meanings is "prominence", "eminence" or "glory" (Lisan al-Arab); thus, the verb ka'ba, when applied to a person, signifies "he made [another person] prominent", "glorious" or "splendid" (ibid.) Based on this tropical meaning of both the verb ka'ba and the noun ka'b, the participle ka'ib has often been used, in popular parlance, to denote "a girl whose breasts are becoming prominent" or "are budding" hence, many commentators see in it an allusion to some sort of youthful "female companions" who would entertain the (presumably male) inmates of paradise. But quite apart from the fact that all Qur'anic allegories of the joys of paradise invariably apply to men and women alike, this interpretation of kawa'ib overlooks the purely derivative origin of the above popular usage - which is based on the tropical connotation of "prominence" inherent in the noun ka'b - and substitutes for this obvious tropism the literal meaning of something that is physically prominent: and this, in my opinion, is utterly unjustified. If we bear in mind that the Qur'anic descriptions of the blessings of paradise are always allegorical, we realize that in the above context the term kawa'ib can have no other meaning than "glorious [or "splendid"] beings", without any definition of sex; and that, in combination with the term atrab, it denotes, "splendid companions well matched" - thus alluding to the relations of the blest with one another, and stressing the absolute mutual compatibility and equal dignity of all of them. See also note 13 on 56:34.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 17 (78:36)

I.e., not merely in accordance with their good deeds but far in excess of them, in accordance with God's unlimited bounty.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 18 (78:38)

Lit., "the soul", in the singular but implying a plural. This is, according to Ibn Abbas, Qatadah and Al-Hasan (all of them quoted by Tabari), the meaning of ar-ruh in the above context.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 19 (78:38)

This includes the symbolic right of the prophets to "intercede" for the sinners on Judgment Day (see 10:3 - "There is none that could intercede with Him unless He grants leave therefor"- and the corresponding note 7, which makes it clear that such "intercession" implies God's a-priori acceptance of the sinner's repentance). In a wider sense, the statement that he whom God will allow to speak "will say [only] what is right" implies the impossibility of anyone's being untruthful on Judgment Day.

Muhammad Asad - End Note (78:39)

Muhammad Asad - End Note 21 (78:40)

Cf. 69:27.

Shabbir Ahmed -

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 1 (78:5)

Man will learn with time that the current Universe is not Eternal and that after the Apocalypse a new Cosmos will be brought into being

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 2 (78:11)

Ma'aash = Economy = Subsistence = All activities of life = The state of living

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 3 (78:19)

Mankind learn about the high space

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 4 (78:20)

20:105, 56:5, 77:10, 81:3

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 5 (78:23)

Hell is not forever. God's grace comes to rescue the dwellers of the Hellfire. 6:128, 11:107, 40:12. The abode of Paradise is Eternal

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 6 (78:25)

38:37

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 7 (78:33)

56:37

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 8 (78:40)

Best viewed using your own brain

Tested on 1024x768 resolution with  FIREFOX 2

Kitabun Marqum v0.6.7 - Kitabun Marqum - Quran Research Platform by QuraniX Team Copyright © 2002-2011 All rights reserved.
Copyrights of all translations belong to their respective authors.

49:6 O you who believe, if a wicked person brings any news to you, you shall first investigate, lest you commit injustice towards some people, out of ignorance, then become sorry and remorseful for what you have done.

Rashad Khalifa (The Final Testament)

 Translations ▼

 Chapter/Verse ▼

 Refresh

 Search

<< Prev 79:1-46 Next >>

Edip-Layth	In the name of God, the Gracious, the Compassionate. 79:1 By those that pull forcibly. ¹
The Monotheist Group	In the name of God, the Almighty, the Merciful. 79:1 By those that take the person forcibly.
Muhammad Asad	In the name of God, The Most Gracious, The Dispenser of Grace: 79:1 CONSIDER those [stars] that rise only to set, ¹
Rashad Khalifa	In the name of GOD, Most Gracious, Most Merciful. 79:1 The (angels who) snatch (the souls of the disbelievers) forcibly.
Shabbir Ahmed	BISMILLAH-IR-RAHMAN-IR-RAHEEM With the Glorious Name of God, the Ultimate Source of Instant Beneficence and Eternal mercy Who encompasses the entire Universe, nourishing and taking care of all things for what they are meant to be; just as a mother's womb nourishes the embryo to completion without any returns. 79:1 Consider those who dive to bring up. ¹
Transliteration	Bismi Allāhi alrraḥmāni alrraḥeemi 79:1 WaalnnāziAAati gharqan
A	بسم الله الرحمن الرحيم 79:1 والنزعت غرقا
Edip-Layth	79:2 Those that release vigorously.
The Monotheist Group	79:2 And those that take the person gently.
Muhammad Asad	79:2 and move [in their orbits] with steady motion, ²

Rashad Khalifa	79:2 And those who gently take (the souls of the believers) joyfully.
Shabbir Ahmed	79:2 And move steadily in jubilation, releasing (the oppressed from bondage).
Transliteration	79:2 Waalnnashit ati nasht an
A	79:2 والنشيط نشطا
Edip-Layth	79:3 Those that float along.
The Monotheist Group	79:3 And those that swim along.
Muhammad Asad	79:3 and float [through space] with floating serene,
Rashad Khalifa	79:3 And those floating everywhere.
Shabbir Ahmed	79:3 And working hard, swimming in strides.
Transliteration	79:3 Waalssabih ati sabh an
A	79:3 والسبحت سبحا
Edip-Layth	79:4 Those that press forward in a race.
The Monotheist Group	79:4 And those that press forward in a race.
Muhammad Asad	79:4 and yet overtake [one another] with swift overtaking: ³
Rashad Khalifa	79:4 Eagerly racing with one another -
Shabbir Ahmed	79:4 And then together racing to progress.
Transliteration	79:4 Faalssabiq ati sabq an
A	79:4 فالسبقت سبقا
Edip-Layth	79:5 So as to carry out a command.
The Monotheist Group	79:5 So as to carry out a command.
Muhammad Asad	79:5 and thus they fulfil the [Creator's] behest!
Rashad Khalifa	79:5 to carry out various commands.
Shabbir Ahmed	79:5 And thus taking charge of their matters.
Transliteration	79:5 Faalmudabbir ati amr an
A	79:5 فالمديرت امرا
Edip-Layth	79:6 On the day the ground shakes.
The Monotheist Group	79:6 On the Day the ground shakes.
Muhammad Asad	79:6 [HENCE, ⁴ think of] the Day when a violent convulsion will convulse [the world],
Rashad Khalifa	79:6 The day the quake quakes.
Shabbir Ahmed	79:6 The Day when the violent quake causes commotion.
Transliteration	79:6 Yawma tarjufu alrrajif atu

79:6 يوم ترجف الراجفة

A
Edip-Layth	79:7 It will be followed by the second blow.
The Monotheist Group	79:7 It will be followed by the second blow.
Muhammad Asad	79:7 to be followed by further [convulsions]!
Rashad Khalifa	79:7 Followed by the second blow.
Shabbir Ahmed	79:7 To be followed by the jolter. 2
Transliteration	79:7 TatbaAAuh a alrradifatu

79:7 تتبعها الرادفة

Edip-Layth	79:8 Hearts on that day will be terrified.
The Monotheist Group	79:8 Hearts on that Day will be terrified.
Muhammad Asad	79:8 On that Day will [men's] hearts be throbbing,
Rashad Khalifa	79:8 Certain minds will be terrified.
Shabbir Ahmed	79:8 On that Day hearts tremble.
Transliteration	79:8 Quloobun yawma-ithin wajifatu

79:8 قلوب يومئذ واجفة

Edip-Layth	79:9 Their eyes cast down.
The Monotheist Group	79:9 Their eyes cast down.
Muhammad Asad	79:9 [and] their eyes downcast. . .
Rashad Khalifa	79:9 Their eyes will be subdued.
Shabbir Ahmed	79:9 And the eyes are subdued.
Transliteration	79:9 Absaru h a khashiAAatu

79:9 ابصرها خشعة

Edip-Layth	79:10 They will say, "Shall we be returned to live our lives."
The Monotheist Group	79:10 They will say: "Shall we be returned to live our lives."
Muhammad Asad	79:10 [And yet,] some say, "What! Are we indeed to be restored to our former state
Rashad Khalifa	79:10 They will say, "We have been recreated from the grave!
Shabbir Ahmed	79:10 They say, "What! Are we to be restored to our former state,
Transliteration	79:10 Yaqooloona a-inna lamardoodoona feealhafirati

79:10 يقولون اعنا لمردودون فى الحافرة

Edip-Layth	79:11 "Even after we were crumbled bones?"
The Monotheist Group	79:11 "Even after we were crumbled bones?"

Muhammad Asad	79:11 even though we may have become [a heap of] crumbling bones?"
Rashad Khalifa	79:11 "How did this happen after we had turned into rotten bones?"
Shabbir Ahmed	79:11 Even after we have become crumbling bones?" 3
Transliteration	79:11 A-i tha kunna AAi tha mannakhirat an
A	79:11 اءذا كنا عظما نخرة
Edip-Layth	79:12 They said, "This is an impossible recurrence."
The Monotheist Group	79:12 They said: "This is an impossible recurrence."
Muhammad Asad	79:12 [And] they add, "That, then, would be a return with loss!" 5
Rashad Khalifa	79:12 They had said, "This is an impossible recurrence."
Shabbir Ahmed	79:12 And they add, "In that case, then, it would be a great loss of investment!"
Transliteration	79:12 Qa loo tilka i than karratun k hasiratu n
A	79:12 قالوا تلك اذا كرة خاسرة
Edip-Layth	79:13 But all it takes is one blow.
The Monotheist Group	79:13 But all it takes is one blow.
Muhammad Asad	79:13 [But,] then, that [Last Hour] will be [upon them of a sudden, as if it were] but a single accusing cry -
Rashad Khalifa	79:13 All it takes is one nudge.
Shabbir Ahmed	79:13 But finally, it is a single swift call.
Transliteration	79:13 Fa-innama hiya zajratun wa hida tun
A	79:13 فانما هي زجرة وحدة
Edip-Layth	79:14 Whereupon they will rise up.
The Monotheist Group	79:14 Whereupon they will rise-up.
Muhammad Asad	79:14 and then, lo, they will be fully awakened [to the truth]!
Rashad Khalifa	79:14 Whereupon they get up.
Shabbir Ahmed	79:14 And they will be fully awakened to the truth.
Transliteration	79:14 Fa-i tha hum bi al ss ahira ti
A	79:14 فاذا هم بالساهرة
Edip-Layth	The Story of Moses 79:15 Did the hadith of Moses come to you?
The Monotheist Group	79:15 Did the story of Moses come to you?
Muhammad Asad	79:15 HAS THE STORY of Moses ever come within thy ken. 6
Rashad Khalifa	79:15 Have you known about the history of Moses?

Shabbir Ahmed	79:15 Has the story of Moses reached you? ⁴
Transliteration	79:15 Hal ataka hadeethu moosa
A	79:15 هل اتك حديث موسى
Edip-Layth	79:16 His Lord called him at the holy valley of Tuwa.
The Monotheist Group	79:16 His Lord called him at the holy valley of Tuwa.
Muhammad Asad	79:16 Lo! His Sustainer called out to him in the twice-hallowed valley: ⁷
Rashad Khalifa	79:16 His Lord called him at the holy valley of Tuwaa.
Shabbir Ahmed	79:16 When his Lord called him in the Sacred Valley of revelation. ⁵
Transliteration	79:16 Ith nadahu rabbuhu bialwadialmuqaddasi tuwan
A	79:16 اذ ناديه ربه بالواد المقدس طوى
Edip-Layth	79:17 "Go to Pharaoh, for he has transgressed."
The Monotheist Group	79:17 "Go to Pharaoh, for he has transgressed."
Muhammad Asad	79:17 "Go unto Pharaoh - for, verily, he has transgressed all bounds of what is right -
Rashad Khalifa	79:17 "Go to Pharaoh; he has transgressed."
Shabbir Ahmed	79:17 "Go to Pharaoh. He has transgressed all bounds."
Transliteration	79:17 Ithhab ila firAAawna innahu tagha
A	79:17 اذهب الى فرعون انه طغى
Edip-Layth	79:18 Tell him: "Would you not be purified?"
The Monotheist Group	79:18 Tell him: "Would you not be purified?"
Muhammad Asad	79:18 and say[unto him], 'Art thou desirous of attaining to purity?
Rashad Khalifa	79:18 Tell him, "Would you not reform?"
Shabbir Ahmed	79:18 And ask him, "Are you willing to reform?" ⁶
Transliteration	79:18 Faqul hal laka ila an tazakka
A	79:18 فقل هل لك الى ان تزكى
Edip-Layth	79:19 "I will guide you to your Lord, that you may turn reverent."
The Monotheist Group	79:19 "And I will guide you to your Lord, that you may turn reverent."
Muhammad Asad	79:19 [If so,] then I shall guide thee towards [a cognition of] thy Sustainer, so that [henceforth] thou wilt stand in awe [of Him]." ⁸
Rashad Khalifa	79:19 "Let me guide you to your Lord, that you may turn reverent."
Shabbir Ahmed	79:19 Then I will guide you to your Lord so that you will have some idea of His awesome glory."

Transliteration	79:19 Waahdiyaka ila rabbika fatakhsha
A	79:19 واهديك الى ربك فتحشى
Edip-Layth	79:20 He then showed him the great sign.
The Monotheist Group	79:20 He then showed him the great miracle.
Muhammad Asad	79:20 And thereupon he [went to Pharaoh and] made him aware of the great wonder [of God's grace]. ⁹
Rashad Khalifa	79:20 He then showed him the great miracle.
Shabbir Ahmed	79:20 And then he presented to him the tremendous evidence of the truth. ⁷
Transliteration	79:20 Faarahu al-ayata alkubra
A	79:20 فاربه الءاية الكبرى
Edip-Layth	79:21 But he rejected and rebelled.
The Monotheist Group	79:21 But he disbelieved and rebelled.
Muhammad Asad	79:21 But [Pharaoh] gave him the lie and rebelliously rejected [all guidance],
Rashad Khalifa	79:21 But he disbelieved and rebelled.
Shabbir Ahmed	79:21 But he denied and haughtily rejected.
Transliteration	79:21 Fakathhaba waAasa
A	79:21 فكنب وعصى
Edip-Layth	79:22 Then he turned away in a hurry.
The Monotheist Group	79:22 Then he turned away in a hurry.
Muhammad Asad	79:22 and brusquely turned his back [on Moses];
Rashad Khalifa	79:22 Then he turned away in a hurry.
Shabbir Ahmed	79:22 Then he turned away briskly.
Transliteration	79:22 Thumma adbara yasAAa
A	79:22 ثم ادبر يسعى
Edip-Layth	79:23 So he gathered and proclaimed.
The Monotheist Group	79:23 So he gathered and proclaimed.
Muhammad Asad	79:23 and then he gathered [his great ones], and called [unto his people],
Rashad Khalifa	79:23 He summoned and proclaimed.
Shabbir Ahmed	79:23 Then gathered (his chiefs) and called (his people).
Transliteration	79:23 Fahashara fanada
A	79:23 فحشر فنادى
Edip-Layth	2

	79:24 He said, "I am your lord, the most high."
The Monotheist Group	79:24 He said: "I am your lord, the Most High."
Muhammad Asad	79:24 and said, "I am your Lord All-Highest!" ¹⁰
Rashad Khalifa	79:24 He said, "I am your Lord; most high."
Shabbir Ahmed	79:24 And proclaimed, "I am your Lord, the Highest!"
Transliteration	79:24 Faqala ana rabbukumu al-aAAla
A	79:24 فقال انا ربكم الاعلى
Edip-Layth	79:25 So God seized him with retribution in the Hereafter, as well as in the first life.
The Monotheist Group	79:25 So God seized him with retribution in the Hereafter, as well as in the first life.
Muhammad Asad	79:25 And thereupon God took him to task, [and made him] a warning example in the life to come as well as in this world. ¹¹
Rashad Khalifa	79:25 Consequently, GOD committed him to the retribution in the Hereafter, as well as in the first life.
Shabbir Ahmed	79:25 So God took him to task, and made him an example for the later generations and the ones who soon followed.
Transliteration	79:25 Faakhathahu Allahu nakalaal-akhirati waal-oola
A	79:25 فاخذه الله نكال الءاخرة والاولى
Edip-Layth	79:26 In that is a lesson for those who are aware.
The Monotheist Group	79:26 In that is a lesson for those who are aware.
Muhammad Asad	79:26 In this, behold, there is a lesson indeed for all who stand in awe [of God].
Rashad Khalifa	79:26 This is a lesson for the reverent.
Shabbir Ahmed	79:26 Certainly, herein is a lesson for him who fears (violating the law).
Transliteration	79:26 Inna fee thalika laAAibratan limanyakhsha
A	79:26 ان فى ذلك لعبرة لمن يخشى
Edip-Layth	79:27 Are you a more powerful creation than the sky which He built?
The Monotheist Group	79:27 Are you a more powerful creation than the sky which He built?
Muhammad Asad	79:27 [O MEN!] Are you more difficult to create than the heaven which He has built? ¹²
Rashad Khalifa	79:27 Are you more difficult to create than the heaven? He constructed it.
Shabbir Ahmed	79:27 What! Are you the more difficult to create or is the heaven that He built?
Transliteration	79:27 Aantum ashaddu khalqan ami aIssamaobanaha
A	79:27 ءانتم اشد خلقا ام السماء بنيتها

Edip-Layth	79:28 He raised its height, and perfected it.
The Monotheist Group	79:28 He raised its height, and perfected it.
Muhammad Asad	79:28 High has He reared its vault and formed it in accordance with what it was meant to be; ¹³
Rashad Khalifa	79:28 He raised its masses, and perfected it.
Shabbir Ahmed	79:28 He raised high its canopy, and shaped it perfect.
Transliteration	79:28 RafaAAa samkaha fasawwaha
A	79:28 رفع سمكها فسوها
Edip-Layth	79:29 He covered its night and brought out its morning.
The Monotheist Group	79:29 And He covered its night and brought out its morning.
Muhammad Asad	79:29 and He has made dark its night and brought forth its light of day.
Rashad Khalifa	79:29 He made its night dark, and brightened its morn.
Shabbir Ahmed	79:29 And He made dark its night and brings out its splendor.
Transliteration	79:29 Waagh ^t asha laylah ^a waakhraja duhaha
A	79:29 واغطش ليلها واخرج ضحتها
Edip-Layth	79:30 The land after that, He made it like an egg. ³
The Monotheist Group	79:30 And the land after that He spread out.
Muhammad Asad	79:30 And after that, the earth: wide has He spread its expanse,
Rashad Khalifa	79:30 He made the earth egg-shaped.
Shabbir Ahmed	79:30 And after that He made the earth shoot out from the Cosmic Nebula and spread it out oval (flattened at its poles). ⁸
Transliteration	79:30 Waal-arda baAAda thalikadahaha
A	79:30 والارض بعد ذلك دحبها
Edip-Layth	79:31 He brought forth from it its water and pasture.
The Monotheist Group	79:31 He brought forth from it its water and pasture.
Muhammad Asad	79:31 and has caused its waters to come out of it, and its pastures, ¹⁴
Rashad Khalifa	79:31 From it, He produced its own water and pasture.
Shabbir Ahmed	79:31 And produced from it its own water and pasture.
Transliteration	79:31 Akhraja minha maahawamarAAaha
A	79:31 اخرج منها ماءها ومرعها
Edip-Layth	79:32 The mountains He fixed firmly.
The Monotheist Group	79:32 And the mountains He fixed firmly.

Muhammad Asad	79:32 and has made the mountains firm:
Rashad Khalifa	79:32 He established the mountains.
Shabbir Ahmed	79:32 And the mountains He firmly fixed.
Transliteration	79:32 Waaljibala arsaha
A	79:32 والجبال ارسها
Edip-Layth	79:33 All this to be a provision for you and your livestock.
The Monotheist Group	79:33 All this to be a provision for you and your livestock.
Muhammad Asad	79:33 [all this] as a means of livelihood for you and your animals. 15
Rashad Khalifa	79:33 All this to provide life support for you and your animals.
Shabbir Ahmed	79:33 A means of livelihood for you and your cattle.
Transliteration	79:33 MataAAan lakum wali-anAAamikum
A	79:33 متعا لكم ولانعمكم
Edip-Layth	79:34 Then, when the great blow comes.
The Monotheist Group	79:34 Then, when the great blow comes.
Muhammad Asad	79:34 AND SO, when the great overwhelming event [of, resurrection] comes to pass
Rashad Khalifa	79:34 Then, when the great blow comes.
Shabbir Ahmed	79:34 And so, when there comes the Great Event,
Transliteration	79:34 Fa-itha jaati alttammatualkubra
A	79:34 فاذا جاءت الطامة الكبرى
Edip-Layth	79:35 The day when the human remembers all that he strove for.
The Monotheist Group	79:35 The Day when the human remembers all that he strove for.
Muhammad Asad	79:35 on that Day man will [clearly] remember all that he has ever wrought;
Rashad Khalifa	79:35 That is the day when the human will remember everything he did.
Shabbir Ahmed	79:35 On that Day man will remember all that he has ever done. 9
Transliteration	79:35 Yawma yatahakkaru al-insanu masaAAa
A	79:35 يوم يتذكر الانسن ما سعى
Edip-Layth	79:36 Hell will be apparent to all who can see.
The Monotheist Group	79:36 And Hell will be apparent to all who can see.
Muhammad Asad	79:36 and the blazing fire [of hell] will be lad open before all who [are destined to] see it. 16
Rashad Khalifa	79:36 Hell will be brought into existence.

Shabbir Ahmed	79:36 And the Insurmountable Barrier will stand before him to see. 10
Transliteration	79:36 Waburrizati aljaheemu liman yara
A	79:36 وبرزت الجحيم لمن يرى
Edip-Layth	79:37 As for the one who transgressed.
The Monotheist Group	79:37 As for the one who transgressed.
Muhammad Asad	79:37 For, unto him who shall have transgressed the bounds of what is right,
Rashad Khalifa	79:37 As for the one who transgressed.
Shabbir Ahmed	79:37 Then, the one who rebelled against the Divine laws,
Transliteration	79:37 Faamma man tagha
A	79:37 فلما من طغى
Edip-Layth	79:38 He was preoccupied with the worldly life.
The Monotheist Group	79:38 And was preoccupied with the worldly life.
Muhammad Asad	79:38 and preferred the life of this world [to the good of his soul],
Rashad Khalifa	79:38 Who was preoccupied with this life.
Shabbir Ahmed	79:38 And fell for instant gratifications, 11
Transliteration	79:38 Waathara alhayata alddunya
A	79:38 وعاءثر الحيوۃ الدنيا
Edip-Layth	79:39 Then hell will be the abode.
The Monotheist Group	79:39 Then Hell will be the abode.
Muhammad Asad	79:39 that blazing fire will truly be the goal!
Rashad Khalifa	79:39 Hell will be the abode.
Shabbir Ahmed	79:39 Then the Blazing fire will be his home.
Transliteration	79:39 Fa-inna aljaheema hiya alma/wa
A	79:39 فان الجحيم هى الماوى
Edip-Layth	79:40 As for the one who revered the majesty of his Lord, and restrained himself from desire.
The Monotheist Group	79:40 And as for the one who revered the majesty of his Lord, and restrained himself from desire.
Muhammad Asad	79:40 But unto him who shall have stood in fear of his Sustainer's Presence, and held back his inner self from base desires,
Rashad Khalifa	79:40 As for the one who revered the majesty of his Lord, and enjoined the self from sinful lusts.
Shabbir Ahmed	79:40 But the one who feared standing before his Sustainer and restrained his selfish desires,

Transliteration	79:40 Waama man khafa maqamarabbihi wanaha alnafa AAani alhawa
A	79:40 واما من خاف مقام ربه ونهى النفس عن الهوى
Edip-Layth	79:41 The Paradise will be the abode.
The Monotheist Group	79:41 The Paradise will be the abode.
Muhammad Asad	79:41 paradise will truly be the goal!
Rashad Khalifa	79:41 Paradise will be the abode.
Shabbir Ahmed	79:41 The Paradise will be his home.
Transliteration	79:41 Fa-inna aljannata hiya alma/wa
A	79:41 فان الجنة هي الماوى
Edip-Layth	79:42 They ask you about the moment: "When is its appointed time?"
The Monotheist Group	79:42 They ask you about the Hour: "When is its appointed time?"
Muhammad Asad	79:42 THEY WILL ASK thee [O Prophet] about the Last Hour: "When will it come to pass?"
Rashad Khalifa	79:42 They ask you about the Hour, and when it will take place!
Shabbir Ahmed	79:42 They ask you of the Hour, "When will it come to pass?"
Transliteration	79:42 Yas-aloonaka AAani alssaAAatiayyana mursaha
A	79:42 يسلونك عن الساعة ايان مرسلها
Edip-Layth	79:43 You have no knowledge if it.
The Monotheist Group	79:43 You have no knowledge of it.
Muhammad Asad	79:43 [But] how couldst thou tell anything about it, ¹⁷
Rashad Khalifa	79:43 It is not you (Muhammad) who is destined to announce its time.
Shabbir Ahmed	79:43 Why? What do you have to tell them about it? ¹²
Transliteration	79:43 Feema anta min thikraha
A	79:43 فيم انت من ذكرها
Edip-Layth	79:44 To your Lord is its term.
The Monotheist Group	79:44 To your Lord is its term.
Muhammad Asad	79:44 [seeing that] with thy Sustainer alone rests the beginning and the end [of all knowledge] thereof? ¹⁸
Rashad Khalifa	79:44 Your Lord decides its fate.
Shabbir Ahmed	79:44 Unto your Lord is the final end of it. ¹³
Transliteration	79:44 Ila rabbika muntaha
A	79:44 الى ربك منتهها

Edip-Layth	79:45 You are simply to warn those who fear it.
The Monotheist Group	79:45 You are simply to warn those who fear it.
Muhammad Asad	79:45 Thou art but [sent] to warn those who stand in awe of it.
Rashad Khalifa	79:45 Your mission is to warn those who expect it.
Shabbir Ahmed	79:45 You are but a warner to him who stands in awe of it.
Transliteration	79:45 Innama anta mun <th>th</th> iru manyakhshaha	th
A	79:45 انما انت منذر من يخشها
Edip-Layth	79:46 For the day they see it, it will be as if they had remained an evening or half a day.
The Monotheist Group	79:46 For the Day they see it, it will be as if they had remained an evening or half a day.
Muhammad Asad	79:46 On the Day when they behold it, [it will seem to them] as if they had tarried [in this world] no longer than one evening or [one night, ending with] its morn! ¹⁹
Rashad Khalifa	79:46 The day they see it, they will feel as if they lasted one evening or half a day.
Shabbir Ahmed	79:46 On the Day when they see it, it will be as if they had lived no longer than an evening or its morning.
Transliteration	79:46 Kaannahum yawma yarawnah a lamyalbathoo illa AAashiyyatan aw duhaha
A	79:46 كانهم يوم يرونها لم يلبثوا الا عشية او ضحها

<< Prev 79:1-46 Next >>

Return to top

End Notes

Edip-Layth - Quran: A Reformist Translation

Edip-Layth - End Note 1 (79:1)

For the meaning and function of the Quranic oaths, see 89:5.

Edip-Layth - End Note 2 (79:24)

Slave owners are called rab (lord, master) in Arabic (12:41). Pharaohs were claiming to be the lord/master of those humans whom they have subjugated. Enslaving humans and thus claiming to be their rab (lord, master) is polytheism, or associating one's ego with God as His partner See 12:39-42; 90:13; 4:25.

The Arabic word dahaha comes from root dahy, which means egg. The earth, with its physical shape and geologic layers resembles an egg. Though the roundness of the earth was known by philosophers before the revelation of the Quran, ordinary people did not find it a reasonable or common-sense fact. Therefore, almost all the commentators of the Quran tried to interpret the word so that they could save their flat earth from being curved. They reasoned that the verse must be an allegorical description, that God must have meant the nest or the place of the egg from the word egg. So, they translated this verse as follows: "and after that He spread the earth"! Abd al-Aziz bin Baz was the chief cleric of Saudi Arabia, the head of the Council of Senior Religious Scholars for three decades. He had a great impact on regressive and oppressive laws in Saudi Arabia, including the ban on women's driving. A book authored by Bin Baz was published in 1975 carried the following title: "Scientific and Narrative Evidence for that the Earth is Fixed, the Sun is Moving and it is Possible to Go to the Planets." The book was not published by any publishing house; it was published by none other than the Islamic University of Medina. In that book, Bin Baz complains about a new heresy; he is saddened to see, well more accurately, hear, people talking about the motion of the earth and he wants to put a stop to that heresy. In page 23, Bin Baz after listing some hadiths, issues a fatwa, asserting that those who believe that the earth is rotating are kafirs (disbelievers), and if they were Muslims before, they became apostates. The Saudi Sunni leader does not stop there and explains the ramification of the fatwa: any Muslim believing in the rotation of the earth loses his or her right to life and property; they should be killed! This same cleric was the head of an international conference of Sunni scholars representing 38 countries discussing the Salman Rushdi affair. Then, Saudi Arabia was competing with Iran regarding leadership in the Islamic world and this was the hot issue. The conference issued a unanimous fatwa on March 19, 1989, condemning Rushdi and Rashad Khalifa, as apostates. The Western world by then knew Rushdi, but not many westerners were familiar with the second name in the fatwa. Dr. Rashad Khalifa, the late leader of the modern reformist movement and the discoverer of the mathematical code of the Quran, in less than a year after this fatwa, would be assassinated by a terrorist group affiliated with the Saudi terrorist Osama bin Laden on January 31, 1990, in his mosque in Tucson, Arizona. Bin Baz, in his book, quoted some verses and many hadith to support his position that the earth is fixed. After his expressing his religious verdict of the death penalty for the apostates who believe in a moving earth, he included the following reasoning as his scientific evidence: "If the world was rotating as they assert, countries, mountains, trees, rivers, seas, nothing would be stable; humans would see the countries in the west in the east, the ones in the east in the west. The position of the qibla would change continuously. In sum, as you see, this claim is false in many respects. But, I do not wish to prolong my words." Towards the end of the 20th century, a "university" of a Sunni country publishes such nonsense authored by the highest-ranking religious leader of that country! Considering the Ottoman chief clerics banned the import and use of the printing machine for about 300 years, it becomes clear why the so-called Muslim countries are so lagging behind in civilization, socially, politically, and in science and technology. For a comparative discussion of this verse, see the Sample Comparisons section in the Introduction. The Bible, because of the tampering of many human hands, contains questionable information about the shape of earth: Isaiah 11:12; Matthew 4:8; Revelation 7:1. See 4:82; 68:1 and 39:5.

Muhammad Asad - The Message Of Quran

Muhammad Asad - End Note 1 (79:1)

For my rendering of the adjurative particle wa as "Consider", see first half of note 23 on 74:32. - The early commentators differ widely in their explanations of verses 1-5 of this surah. The most popular interpretation is based on the view that the descriptive participles an-nazi'at, an-nashitat, as-sabihat, as-sabiqat and al-mudabbirat refer to angels and their activities with regard to the souls of the dying: an interpretation categorically rejected by Abu Muslim al-Isfahani, who - as mentioned by Razi - points out that the angels are never referred to in the Qur'an in the female gender, as is the case in the above five participles, and that the present passage cannot be an exception. Almost equally unconvincing - because somewhat laboured - are the explanations which link those five participles to the souls of the dying, or to warriors engaged in holy war, or to war-mounts, and so forth. The clearest and simplest interpretation is that advanced by Qatadah (as quoted by Tabari and Baghawi) and Al-Hasan al-Basri (quoted by Baghawi and Razi), who maintain that what is meant in this passage are the stars - including the sun and the moon - and their movements in space: and this interpretation is fully in tune with many other passages in the Qur'an in which the harmony of those celestial bodies in their multiform orbits and graded speeds is cited as an evidence of God's planning and creativeness. In accordance with this interpretation, the participle an-nazi'at occurring in the first verse denotes the daily "ascending" or "rising" of the stars, while their subsequent "setting" is indicated by the expression gharqan, which comprises the two concepts of "drowning" (i.e., disappearing) and, tropically, of the "completeness" of this daily phenomenon (Zamakhshari).

Muhammad Asad - End Note 2 (79:2)

I.e., passing from constellation to constellation (Zamakhshari).

Muhammad Asad - End Note 3 (79:4)

This is apparently an allusion to the different speeds of the orbiting stars (Al-Hasan and Abu Ubaydah, as quoted by Razi), as well as to the extent of their orbits in relation to one another.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 4 (79:6)

I.e., upon realizing the above-mentioned evidence of God's almightiness and, therefore, of man's subjection to His ultimate judgment.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 5 (79:12)

Implying derisively (Zamakhshari) that in such a case they would be proved wrong in what they now consider a "reasonable" assumption.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 6 (79:15)

Connecting with the preceding passage, the story of Moses (which appears in much greater detail in 20:9-98) is cited here as an illustration of the fact that everyone will have to answer on Judgment Day for whatever he did in life, and that it is the main function of every prophet to make man aware of this responsibility.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 7 (79:16)

See note 9 on 20:12. - For the meaning of the particle idh at the beginning of this sentence, rendered by me as "Lo!", see surah 2, note 21.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 8 (79:19)

Implying that so long as man is not fully aware of the existence of God, he cannot really discern between what is morally right or wrong; and since God is just, He does not punish anyone who has not yet attained to such a discernment (or, as expressed in the preceding sentence, "to [moral] purity"): cf. 6:31- "thy Sustainer would never destroy a community for its wrongdoing so long as its people are still unaware [of the meaning of right and wrong]".

Muhammad Asad - End Note 9 (79:20)

Lit., "showed him the great wonder", i.e., of the guidance which God, in His measureless grace, offers even to the most recalcitrant sinner.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 10 (79:24)

Cf. 28:38 and the corresponding note 36. Pharaoh's claim to divine status is the cardinal sin whereby

"he has transgressed all bounds of what is right" (verse 17 above).

Muhammad Asad - End Note 11 (79:25)

Lit., "in the first [life]". See last sentence of 7:137 - "We utterly destroyed all that Pharaoh and his people had wrought, and all that they had built" - and the corresponding note 100.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 12 (79:27)

Lit., "or the heaven. . . ", etc. The "heaven" is here, as in many other places in the Qur'an, a metonym for "cosmic system" (cf. note 20 on 2:29). The above verse is an echo of an earlier, more explicit passage - namely, 40:56-57, which should be read together with the corresponding notes 40 and 41. Both these passages refute the "man-centred" view of the universe by pointing out man's insignificance as compared with the vastness and complexity of the whole God-created universe.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 13 (79:28)

See 87:2, which is the earliest instance, in the chronology of Qur'anic revelation, of the use of the verb sawwa in the above sense.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 14 (79:31)

The term "pasture" (mar'a) connotes here, metonymically, all herbal produce suitable for consumption by man or animal (Razi).

Muhammad Asad - End Note 15 (79:33)

Implying (as in 80:24-32) that man ought to be grateful to God, and should always be conscious of His being the Provider: hence the subsequent return of the discourse to the theme of resurrection and ultimate judgment.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 16 (79:36)

Cf. 26:91 - "will be laid open before those who had been lost in grievous error": thus reminding man that suffering in the hereafter ("hell") is the inevitable consequence of spiritual self-destruction through deliberate wrongdoing.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 17 (79:43)

Lit., "wherein [or "whereon"] art thou with regard to stating it (min dhikraha)?"

Muhammad Asad - End Note 18 (79:44)

Lit., "its utmost limit", i.e., the beginning and the end of all that can be known about it. Cf. 7:187 and the corresponding note 153.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 19 (79:46)

As in many other places in the Qur'an (e.g., in 2:259, 17:52, 18:19, 20:103-104, 23:112-113, 30:55 etc.), this is a subtle indication of the illusory, earthbound nature of man's concept of "time" - a concept which, we are told, will lose all its meaning in the context of the ultimate reality comprised in the term "hereafter" (al-akhirah).

Shabbir Ahmed -

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 1 (79:1)

Pearls from the ocean, people from repression

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 2 (79:7)

The oppressors are shaken up again and again

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 3 (79:11)

These two verses can also be understood pertaining to this life. Former state and crumbling bones: As they were before getting rich on others' labor

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 4 (79:15)

Such a Revolution occurred in his times. 20:9-98

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 5 (79:16)

18:60-64, 20:12

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 6 (79:18)

Zaku = Grow in goodness = Develop the 'self' = Get rid of evil behavior = Attain purity = Improve in conduct = Prime the 'self' for actualization

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 7 (79:20)

20:23

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 8 (79:30)

Dhahaha entails all the meanings rendered 21:30, 41:11

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 9 (79:35)

53:39, 56:63-73

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 10 (79:36)

'Jaheem' = Insurmountable Barrier. He failed to prime his own 'self' for continued progress. 29:54, 39:48, 82:16

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 11 (79:38)

Hayat-id-duniya = Life of this world = Short term = Instant gains = Disregard of the life to come

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 12 (79:43)

7:187, 33:63, 42:17

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 13 (79:44)

Best viewed using your own brain

Tested on 1024x768 resolution with  FIREFOX 2

Kitabun Marqum v0.6.7 - Kitabun Marqum - Quran Research Platform by QuraniX Team Copyright © 2002-2011 All rights reserved.
Copyrights of all translations belong to their respective authors.

49:6 O you who believe, if a wicked person brings any news to you, you shall first investigate, lest you commit injustice towards some people, out of ignorance, then become sorry and remorseful for what you have done.

Rashad Khalifa (The Final Testament)

 Translations ▼

 Chapter/Verse ▼

 Refresh

 Search

<< Prev 80:1-42 Next >>

Edip-Layth	In the name of God, the Gracious, the Compassionate. 80:1 He frowned and turned away.
The Monotheist Group	In the name of God, the Almighty, the Merciful. 80:1 He frowned and turned away.
Muhammad Asad	In the name of God, The Most Gracious, The Dispenser of Grace: 80:1 HE FROWNED and turned away
Rashad Khalifa	In the name of GOD, Most Gracious, Most Merciful. 80:1 He (Muhammad) frowned and turned away.
Shabbir Ahmed	BISMILLAH-IR-RAHMAN-IR-RAHEEM With the Glorious Name of God, the Ultimate Source of Instant Beneficence and Eternal mercy Who encompasses the entire Universe, nourishing and taking care of all things for what they are meant to be; just as a mother's womb nourishes the embryo to completion without any returns. 80:1 Would he (the caller to truth) frown and turn away,
Transliteration	Bismi Allāhi alRrahmāni alRrahēemi 80:1 AAabasa watawalla
A	بسم الله الرحمن الرحيم 80:1 عيس وتولى
Edip-Layth	80:2 When the blind one came to him.
The Monotheist Group	80:2 When the blind one came to him.
Muhammad Asad	80:2 because the blind man approached him! ¹

Rashad Khalifa	80:2 When the blind man came to him.
Shabbir Ahmed	80:2 For, the blind man approached him?
Transliteration	80:2 An jaahu al-aAAma
A	80:2 ان جاءه الاعمى
Edip-Layth	80:3 What makes you know, perhaps he is seeking to purify?
The Monotheist Group	80:3 And what makes you know, perhaps he is seeking to purify?
Muhammad Asad	80:3 Yet for all thou didst know, [O Muhammad,] he might perhaps have grown in purity,
Rashad Khalifa	80:3 How do you know? He may purify himself.
Shabbir Ahmed	80:3 How could you know that he might have grown in goodness,
Transliteration	80:3 Wama yudreeka laAAallahu yazzakka
A	80:3 وما يدريك لعله يزكى
Edip-Layth	80:4 Or to remember, so the remembrance will benefit him?
The Monotheist Group	80:4 Or to remember, so the remembrance will benefit him?
Muhammad Asad	80:4 or have been reminded [of the truth], and helped by this reminder.
Rashad Khalifa	80:4 Or he may take heed, and benefit from the message.
Shabbir Ahmed	80:4 Or that he be enlightened and the reminder might benefit him?
Transliteration	80:4 Aw ya <th>th</th> akkaru fatanfaAAahu al <th>th</th> ikra	th	th
A	80:4 او يذكر فتتفعه الذكرى
Edip-Layth	80:5 As for the one who was conceited;
The Monotheist Group	80:5 As for the one who was rich.
Muhammad Asad	80:5 Now as for him who believes himself to be self-sufficient ²
Rashad Khalifa	80:5 As for the rich man.
Shabbir Ahmed	80:5 As for him who considers himself in no need of guidance,
Transliteration	80:5 Amma mani istaghna
A	80:5 اما من استغنى
Edip-Layth	80:6 To him you attended.
The Monotheist Group	80:6 You were addressing yourself to him.
Muhammad Asad	80:6 to him didst thou give thy whole attention,
Rashad Khalifa	80:6 You gave him your attention.
Shabbir Ahmed	80:6 To him you give attention.
Transliteration	80:6 Faanta lahu ta _s adda

A
Edip-Layth	80:7 Why does it concern you that he does not want to purify?
The Monotheist Group	80:7 And why does it concern you that he does not want to purify?
Muhammad Asad	80:7 although thou art not accountable for his failure to attain to purity; ³
Rashad Khalifa	80:7 Even though you could not guarantee his salvation.
Shabbir Ahmed	80:7 Yet it is not your responsibility if he does not grow in goodness.
Transliteration	80:7 Wam a AAalayka all a yazzakk a
A	80:7 وما عليك الا يزكى
Edip-Layth	80:8 As for the one who came to you seeking.
The Monotheist Group	80:8 And as for the one who came to you seeking.
Muhammad Asad	80:8 but as for him who came unto thee full of eagerness
Rashad Khalifa	80:8 The one who came to you eagerly.
Shabbir Ahmed	80:8 But as for him who came to you in all eagerness,
Transliteration	80:8 Waamm a man j a aka yasAA a
A	80:8 واما من جاءك يسعى
Edip-Layth	80:9 While he was fearful.
The Monotheist Group	80:9 While he was fearful.
Muhammad Asad	80:9 and in awe [of God]
Rashad Khalifa	80:9 And is really reverent.
Shabbir Ahmed	80:9 And feared straying. ¹
Transliteration	80:9 Wahuwa yakhsh a
A	80:9 وهو يخشى
Edip-Layth	80:10 You were too preoccupied for him.
The Monotheist Group	80:10 You were too pre-occupied for him.
Muhammad Asad	80:10 him didst thou disregard!
Rashad Khalifa	80:10 You ignored him.
Shabbir Ahmed	80:10 You did disregard him.
Transliteration	80:10 Faanta AAanhu talahh a
A	80:10 فانت عنه تلهى
Edip-Layth	80:11 No, this is but a reminder.
The Monotheist Group	80:11 No, this is but a reminder.

Muhammad Asad	80:11 NAY, VERILY, these [messages] are but a reminder: 4
Rashad Khalifa	80:11 Indeed, this is a reminder.
Shabbir Ahmed	80:11 Nay, this is an Advisory.
Transliteration	80:11 Kalla innaha tathkiratun
A	80:11 كلا انها تذكرة
Edip-Layth	80:12 For whoever wills to remember.
The Monotheist Group	80:12 For whoever wills to remember.
Muhammad Asad	80:12 and so, whoever is willing may remember Him
Rashad Khalifa	80:12 Whoever wills shall take heed.
Shabbir Ahmed	80:12 So let him pay heed who will.
Transliteration	80:12 Faman shaa thakarahu
A	80:12 فمن شاء ذكره
Edip-Layth	80:13 In records which are honorable.
The Monotheist Group	80:13 In records which are honorable.
Muhammad Asad	80:13 in [the light of His] revelations blest with dignity,
Rashad Khalifa	80:13 In honorable scriptures.
Shabbir Ahmed	80:13 In Scrolls Dignified.
Transliteration	80:13 Fee suhufin mukarramatin
A	80:13 في صحف مكرمة
Edip-Layth	80:14 Exalted and pure.
The Monotheist Group	80:14 Raised and pure.
Muhammad Asad	80:14 lofty and pure,
Rashad Khalifa	80:14 Exalted and pure.
Shabbir Ahmed	80:14 Exalted, Purified.
Transliteration	80:14 MarfooAAatin mutahharatin
A	80:14 مرفوعة مطهرة
Edip-Layth	80:15 By the hands of scribes.
The Monotheist Group	80:15 By the hands of scribes.
Muhammad Asad	80:15 [borne] by the hands of messengers
Rashad Khalifa	80:15 (Written) by the hands of messengers.
Shabbir Ahmed	80:15 By the hands of scribes.
Transliteration	80:15 Bi-aydee safaratin

A	80:15 بایدی سفره
Edip-Layth	80:16 Honorable and righteous.
The Monotheist Group	80:16 Honorable and righteous.
Muhammad Asad	80:16 noble and most virtuous.
Rashad Khalifa	80:16 Who are honorable and righteous.
Shabbir Ahmed	80:16 Honorable and virtuous.
Transliteration	80:16 Kirāmin bararātīn
A	80:16 کرام برره
Edip-Layth	80:17 Woe to human being; how unappreciative!
The Monotheist Group	80:17 Mankind is killed for his rejection.
Muhammad Asad	80:17 [But only too often] man destroys himself: ⁵ how stubbornly does he deny the truth!
Rashad Khalifa	80:17 Woe to the human being; he is so unappreciative!
Shabbir Ahmed	80:17 Human being destroys himself by what makes him reject the truth.
Transliteration	80:17 Qutīla al-insānu mā akfarahu
A	80:17 قتل الانسن ما اکفره
Edip-Layth	80:18 From what did He create him?
The Monotheist Group	80:18 From what did He create him?
Muhammad Asad	80:18 [Does man ever consider] out of what substance [God] creates him?
Rashad Khalifa	80:18 What did He create him from?
Shabbir Ahmed	80:18 From what stuff has He created him?
Transliteration	80:18 Min ayyi shay-in khalaqahu
A	80:18 من ای شیء خلقه
Edip-Layth	80:19 From a seed He created him and designed him.
The Monotheist Group	80:19 From a seed He created him and molded him.
Muhammad Asad	80:19 Out of a drop of sperm He creates him, and thereupon determines his nature, ⁶
Rashad Khalifa	80:19 From a tiny drop, He creates him and designs him.
Shabbir Ahmed	80:19 From the male and the female gametes He created him, and then fashioned him in due proportion.
Transliteration	80:19 Min nuṭfatin khalaqahu faqaddarahu
A	80:19 من نطفه خلقه فقدره

Edip-Layth	80:20 Then the path He made easy for him.
The Monotheist Group	80:20 Then the path He made easy for him.
Muhammad Asad	80:20 and then makes it easy for him to go through life; ⁷
Rashad Khalifa	80:20 Then He points out the path for him.
Shabbir Ahmed	80:20 And then makes the way easy for him. ²
Transliteration	80:20 Thumma alssabeela yassarahu
A	80:20 ثم السبيل يسره
Edip-Layth	80:21 Then He made him die and buried him.
The Monotheist Group	80:21 Then He made him die and buried him.
Muhammad Asad	80:21 and in the end He causes him to die and brings him to the grave;
Rashad Khalifa	80:21 Then He puts him to death, and into the grave.
Shabbir Ahmed	80:21 Then causes him to die and brings him to disintegrated states. ³
Transliteration	80:21 Thumma amatahu faaqbarahu
A	80:21 ثم اماته فاقبره
Edip-Layth	80:22 Then if He wishes He resurrects him.
The Monotheist Group	80:22 Then if He wishes He resurrects him.
Muhammad Asad	80:22 and then, if it be His will, He shall raise him again to life,
Rashad Khalifa	80:22 When He wills, He resurrects him.
Shabbir Ahmed	80:22 Then, when He wills, He shall raise him to life again.
Transliteration	80:22 Thumma itha sha'a ansharahu
A	80:22 ثم اذا شاء انشره
Edip-Layth	80:23 Alas, he did not fulfill what He commanded him.
The Monotheist Group	80:23 Alas, when what has been ordained is complete.
Muhammad Asad	80:23 Nay, but [man] has never yet fulfilled what He has enjoined upon him! ⁸
Rashad Khalifa	80:23 He shall uphold His commandments.
Shabbir Ahmed	80:23 Nay, man did not fulfill what He enjoined upon him.
Transliteration	80:23 Kalla lamma yaqdi maamarahu
A	80:23 كلا لما يقض ما امره
Edip-Layth	80:24 Let the human being look to his provisions.
The Monotheist Group	80:24 Let man look to his provisions.
Muhammad Asad	80:24 Let man, then, consider [the sources of] his food:

Rashad Khalifa	80:24 Let the human consider his food!
Shabbir Ahmed	80:24 Let man consider his food. 4
Transliteration	80:24 Falyan th uri al-ins anuila taAAa mihi
A	80:24 فلينظر الانسن الى طعامه
Edip-Layth	80:25 We have poured the water abundantly.
The Monotheist Group	80:25 We have poured the water abundantly.
Muhammad Asad	80:25 [how it is] that We pour down water, pouring it down abundantly;
Rashad Khalifa	80:25 We pour the water generously.
Shabbir Ahmed	80:25 For that We pour down water in abundance.
Transliteration	80:25 Anna s abab na al ma as abb an
A	80:25 انا صببنا الماء صبا
Edip-Layth	80:26 Then We cracked the land with cracks.
The Monotheist Group	80:26 Then We breached the land with cracks.
Muhammad Asad	80:26 and then We cleave the earth [with new growth], cleaving it asunder,
Rashad Khalifa	80:26 Then we split the soil open.
Shabbir Ahmed	80:26 And then We split the earth, split and cleave.
Transliteration	80:26 Thumma shaqaq na al- ar da shaqq an
A	80:26 ثم شققنا الارض شقا
Edip-Layth	80:27 We made grow in it seeds.
The Monotheist Group	80:27 And We made grow in it seeds.
Muhammad Asad	80:27 and thereupon We cause grain to grow out of it,
Rashad Khalifa	80:27 We grow in it grains.
Shabbir Ahmed	80:27 And cause the grain to grow therein.
Transliteration	80:27 Faanbat na fee ha h abb an
A	80:27 فانبتنا فيها حبا
Edip-Layth	80:28 Grapes and pasture.
The Monotheist Group	80:28 And grapes and pasture.
Muhammad Asad	80:28 and vines and edible plants,
Rashad Khalifa	80:28 Grapes and pasture.
Shabbir Ahmed	80:28 And vineyards, and fresh vegetation.
Transliteration	80:28 WaAAinaban waqad b an
A

Edip-Layth	80:29 Olives and palm trees.
The Monotheist Group	80:29 And olives and palm trees.
Muhammad Asad	80:29 and olive trees and date-palms,
Rashad Khalifa	80:29 Olives and palms.
Shabbir Ahmed	80:29 And olive trees and palm trees.
Transliteration	80:29 Wazaytoonān wanakhlan

A 80:29 وزيتونا ونخلا

Edip-Layth	80:30 Gardens in variety.
The Monotheist Group	80:30 And gardens in variety.
Muhammad Asad	80:30 and gardens dense with foliage,
Rashad Khalifa	80:30 A variety of orchards.
Shabbir Ahmed	80:30 And dense beautiful gardens.
Transliteration	80:30 Waḥada-iqa ghulban

A 80:30 وحدائق غلبأ

Edip-Layth	80:31 Fruits and vegetables.
The Monotheist Group	80:31 And fruits and vegetables.
Muhammad Asad	80:31 and fruits and herbage,
Rashad Khalifa	80:31 Fruits and vegetables.
Shabbir Ahmed	80:31 And fruits and grasses.
Transliteration	80:31 Wafākihātān waabbān

A 80:31 وفكهة وابأ

Edip-Layth	80:32 An enjoyment for you and your livestock.
The Monotheist Group	80:32 An enjoyment for you and your livestock.
Muhammad Asad	80:32 for you and for your animals to enjoy. 9
Rashad Khalifa	80:32 To provide life support for you and your animals.
Shabbir Ahmed	80:32 Provision for you and your cattle.
Transliteration	80:32 MataAAan lakum wali-anAAamikum

A 80:32 متعا لكم ولانعمكم

Edip-Layth	80:33 So when the screaming shout comes.
The Monotheist Group	80:33 So when the screaming shout comes.

Muhammad Asad	80:33 AND SO, ¹⁰ when the piercing call [of resurrection] is heard
Rashad Khalifa	80:33 Then, when the blow comes to pass.
Shabbir Ahmed	80:33 But when comes the Call,
Transliteration	80:33 Fa-itha jaati alssakhkhatu
A	80:33 فاذا جاءت الصاخة
Edip-Layth	80:34 The day when a person will run from his brother.
The Monotheist Group	80:34 The Day when a person will run from his brother.
Muhammad Asad	80:34 on a Day when everyone will [want to] flee from his brother,
Rashad Khalifa	80:34 That is the day when one flees from his brother.
Shabbir Ahmed	80:34 On the Day when man will flee even from his brother,
Transliteration	80:34 Yawma yafirru almaro min akheeh i
A	80:34 يوم يفر المرء من اخيه
Edip-Layth	80:35 His mother and father.
The Monotheist Group	80:35 And his mother and father.
Muhammad Asad	80:35 and from his mother and father,
Rashad Khalifa	80:35 From his mother and father.
Shabbir Ahmed	80:35 And his mother and his father,
Transliteration	80:35 Waommihi waabeehi
A	80:35 وامه وابيه
Edip-Layth	80:36 His mate and children.
The Monotheist Group	80:36 And his mate and children.
Muhammad Asad	80:36 and from his spouse and his children:
Rashad Khalifa	80:36 From his spouse and children.
Shabbir Ahmed	80:36 And his wife and his children.
Transliteration	80:36 Wasahibatihi wabaneehi
A	80:36 وصحبته وبنيه
Edip-Layth	80:37 For every person on that day is a matter that concerns him.
The Monotheist Group	80:37 For every person on that Day is a matter that concerns him.
Muhammad Asad	80:37 on that Day, to every one of them will his own state be of sufficient concern.
Rashad Khalifa	80:37 Each one of them, on that day, worries about his own destiny.
Shabbir Ahmed	80:37 To everyone on that Day will be enough his own concern.

Transliteration	80:37 Likulli imri-in minhum yawma-i th insha/nun yughneehi
A	80:37 لكل امرئ منهم يومئذ شأن يغنيه
Edip-Layth	80:38 On that day are faces which are openly displayed.
The Monotheist Group	80:38 Faces on that Day which are openly displayed.
Muhammad Asad	80:38 Some faces will on that Day be bright with happiness,
Rashad Khalifa	80:38 Some faces on that day will be happy.
Shabbir Ahmed	80:38 Some faces on that Day will be bright as dawn.
Transliteration	80:38 Wujoohun yawma-i th in musfiratun
A	80:38 وجوه يومئذ مسفرة
Edip-Layth	80:39 Laughing and seeking good news.
The Monotheist Group	80:39 Laughing and seeking good news.
Muhammad Asad	80:39 laughing, rejoicing at glad tidings.
Rashad Khalifa	80:39 Laughing and joyful.
Shabbir Ahmed	80:39 Laughing, rejoicing at good news.
Transliteration	80:39 Dah ikatun mustabshiratun
A	80:39 ضاحكة مستبشرة
Edip-Layth	80:40 Faces on that day with dust on them.
The Monotheist Group	80:40 And faces on that Day with dust on them.
Muhammad Asad	80:40 And some faces will on that Day with dust be covered,
Rashad Khalifa	80:40 Other faces, on that day, will be covered with misery.
Shabbir Ahmed	80:40 And some faces on that Day will have dust upon them,
Transliteration	80:40 Wawujoohun yawma-i th in AAalayhaghbaratun
A	80:40 ووجوه يومئذ عليها غبرة
Edip-Layth	80:41 Being burdened by remorse.
The Monotheist Group	80:41 Being burdened by remorse.
Muhammad Asad	80:41 with darkness overspread:
Rashad Khalifa	80:41 Overwhelmed by remorse.
Shabbir Ahmed	80:41 With gloom overspread.
Transliteration	80:41 Tarhaquh a qataratun
A	80:41 ترهقها قفرة
Edip-Layth	80:42 Those are the ingrates, the wicked.
The Monotheist Group

	80:42 Those are the rejecters, the wicked.
Muhammad Asad	80:42 these, these will be the ones who denied the truth and were immersed in iniquity!
Rashad Khalifa	80:42 These are the wicked disbelievers.
Shabbir Ahmed	80:42 These, these will be the ones who denied the truth and divided humanity.
Transliteration	80:42 Olā-ika humu alkafaratu alfajaratu
A	80:42 أولئك هم الكفرة الفجرة

<< Prev 80:1-42 Next >>

Return to top

End Notes

Muhammad Asad - The Message Of Quran

Muhammad Asad - End Note 1 (80:2)

One day, as recorded in many well-authenticated Traditions, the Prophet was engrossed in a conversation with some of the most influential chieftains of pagan Mecca, hoping to convince them - and, through them, the Meccan community at large - of the truth of his message. At that point, he was approached by one of his followers, the blind Abd Allah ibn Shurayh - known after his grandmother's name as Ibn Umm Maktum - with the request for a repetition or elucidation of certain earlier passages of the Qur'an. Annoyed by this interruption of what he momentarily regarded as a more important endeavour, Muhammad "frowned and turned away" from the blind man - and was immediately, there and then, reproved by the revelation of the first ten verses of this surah. In later years he often greeted Ibn Umm Maktum with these words of humility: "Welcome unto him on whose account my Sustainer has rebuked me (atabani)!" Indirectly, the sharp Qur'anic rebuke (stressed, in particular, by the use of the third-person form in verses 1-2) implies, firstly, that what would have been a minor act of discourtesy on the part of an ordinary human being, assumed the aspect of a major sin, deserving a divine rebuke, when committed by a prophet; and, secondly, it illustrates the objective nature of the Qur'anic revelation: for, obviously, in conveying God's reproof of him to the world at large, the Prophet "does not speak out of his own desire" (cf. 53:3).

Muhammad Asad - End Note 2 (80:5)

I.e., who does not feel the need of divine guidance: a reference to the arrogant pagan chieftains with whom the Prophet was conversing.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 3 (80:7)

Lit., "it is not upon thee (alayka) that he does not attain to purity".

Muhammad Asad - End Note 4 (80:11)

Sc., of the existence and omnipotence of God. The Qur'an is described here, as in many other places, as "a reminder" because it is meant to bring man's instinctive - though sometimes hazy or unconscious

- realization of God's existence into the full light of consciousness. (Cf. 7:172 and the corresponding note 139.)

Muhammad Asad - End Note 5 (80:17)

For my rendering of qutila as "he destroys himself", see surah 74, note 9.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 6 (80:19)

I.e., in accordance with the organic functions which man's body and mind are to fulfil, and the natural conditions to which he will have to adapt himself. Verses 18-22, although formulated in the past tense, obviously describe a recurrent phenomenon.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 7 (80:20)

Lit., "He makes easy the way for him". This is an allusion to man's being endowed with the intellectual equipment enabling him to discern between good and evil and to make fruitful use of the opportunities offered to him by his earthly environment.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 8 (80:23)

In other words, man has failed to make adequate use of the intellectual and spiritual endowment referred to in verse 20. Whereas some commentators are of the opinion that this relates only to the type of man spoken of in verse 17 above, others maintain, with greater plausibility, that it is a reference to man in general - thus: "No human being has ever fulfilled all that was imposed on him as a [moral] duty" (Mujahid, as quoted by Tabari, with a similar statement attributed by Baghawi to Al-Hasan al-Basri); or "From the time of Adam to this time, no human being has ever been free of shortcomings" (Zamakhshari, Baghawi). This is in tune with the Qur'anic doctrine that perfection is an attribute of God alone.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 9 (80:32)

The implication is that man ought to be grateful for all this God-given bounty, but as a rule is not: and this connects with the subsequent evocation of the Day of Resurrection, already hinted at in the reference to the recurring phenomenon of life-renewal.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 10 (80:33)

I.e., as God is able to bring forth new life out of a seemingly dead earth, so is He able to resurrect the dead.

Shabbir Ahmed -

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 1 (80:9)

2:2

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 2 (80:20)

Endowed him with faculties

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 3 (80:21)

Qabr = Grave = Disintegrated state = The prolonged state of sleep between physical death and

Resurrection. 36:52

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 4 (80:24)

His own food has involved so many hands from the soil to the mouth. He must share the provision with others

Best viewed using your own brain

Tested on 1024x768 resolution with  FIREFOX 2

Kitabun Marqum v0.6.7 - Kitabun Marqum - Quran Research Platform by QuraniX Team Copyright © 2002-2011 All rights reserved.
Copyrights of all translations belong to their respective authors.

49:6 O you who believe, if a wicked person brings any news to you, you shall first investigate, lest you commit injustice towards some people, out of ignorance, then become sorry and remorseful for what you have done.

Rashad Khalifa (The Final Testament)

 Translations ▼

 Chapter/Verse ▼

 Refresh

 Search

<< Prev 81:1-29 Next >>

Edip-Layth	In the name of God, the Gracious, the Compassionate. 81:1 When the sun is rolled.
The Monotheist Group	In the name of God, the Almighty, the Merciful. 81:1 When the sun implodes.
Muhammad Asad	In the name of God, The Most Gracious, The Dispenser of Grace: 81:1 HEN THE SUN is shrouded in darkness,
Rashad Khalifa	In the name of GOD, Most Gracious, Most Merciful. 81:1 When the sun is rolled.
Shabbir Ahmed	BISMILLAH-IR-RAHMAN-IR-RAHEEM With the Glorious Name of God, the Ultimate Source of Instant Beneficence and Eternal mercy Who encompasses the entire Universe, nourishing and taking care of all things for what they are meant to be; just as a mother's womb nourishes the embryo to completion without any returns. 81:1 When the Sun is folded up. ¹
Transliteration	Bismi All a hi al r rah m ani al r rah e emi 81:1 I t ha alshshamsu kuwwirat
A	بسم الله الرحمن الرحيم 81:1 اذا الشمس كورت
Edip-Layth	81:2 When the stars fade away.
The Monotheist Group	81:2 And when the stars cannot be seen.
Muhammad Asad	81:2 and when the stars lose their light,

Rashad Khalifa	81:2 The stars are crashed into each other.
Shabbir Ahmed	81:2 And when the stars lose their glow. ²
Transliteration	81:2 Wa-i tha alInnujoomu inkadarat
A	81:2 واذا النجوم انكدرت
Edip-Layth	81:3 When the mountains are moved.
The Monotheist Group	81:3 And when the mountains are made to move.
Muhammad Asad	81:3 and when the mountains are made to vanish, ¹
Rashad Khalifa	81:3 The mountains are wiped out.
Shabbir Ahmed	81:3 When the mountains are moved. ³
Transliteration	81:3 Wa-i tha aljib alu suyyirat
A	81:3 واذا الجبال سيرت
Edip-Layth	81:4 When the reproduction is ended.
The Monotheist Group	81:4 And when the reproduction is ended.
Muhammad Asad	81:4 and when she-camels big with young, about to give birth, are left untended,
Rashad Khalifa	81:4 The reproduction is halted.
Shabbir Ahmed	81:4 When the she-camels, ten months with the young, are abandoned. ⁴
Transliteration	81:4 Wa-i tha alAAish aru AAu tt ilat
A	81:4 واذا العشار عطلت
Edip-Layth	81:5 When the beasts are gathered.
The Monotheist Group	81:5 And when the beasts are gathered.
Muhammad Asad	81:5 and when all beasts are gathered together, ²
Rashad Khalifa	81:5 The beasts are summoned.
Shabbir Ahmed	81:5 When the wild beasts are herded together. ⁵
Transliteration	81:5 Wa-i tha alwu hu ooshu h ushirat
A	81:5 واذا الوحوش حشرت
Edip-Layth	81:6 When the seas are made to boil.
The Monotheist Group	81:6 And when the seas are made to boil.
Muhammad Asad	81:6 and when the seas boil over,
Rashad Khalifa	81:6 The oceans are set aflame.
Shabbir Ahmed	81:6 When the seas bustle with ships.
Transliteration	81:6 Wa-i tha albi ha ru sujji r at

81:6 واذا البحار سجرت

A
Edip-Layth	81:7 When the persons are paired. ¹
The Monotheist Group	81:7 And when the souls are paired.
Muhammad Asad	81:7 and when all human beings are coupled [with their deeds], ³
Rashad Khalifa	81:7 The souls are restored to their bodies.
Shabbir Ahmed	81:7 When the people intermingle. ⁶
Transliteration	81:7 Wa-i tha alnnufoosu zuwwijat

81:7 واذا النفوس زوجت

Edip-Layth	81:8 When the girl killed in infancy is asked,
The Monotheist Group	81:8 And when the girl killed in infancy is asked,
Muhammad Asad	81:8 and when the girl-child that was buried alive is made to ask
Rashad Khalifa	81:8 The girl who was buried alive is asked:
Shabbir Ahmed	81:8 When the little girl that was buried alive is made to ask -
Transliteration	81:8 Wa-i tha almawoodatu su-ilat

81:8 واذا الموءدة سئلت

Edip-Layth	81:9 "For what crime was she killed?"
The Monotheist Group	81:9 "For what crime was she killed?"
Muhammad Asad	81:9 for what crime she had been slain, ⁴
Rashad Khalifa	81:9 For what crime was she killed?
Shabbir Ahmed	81:9 For what crime she was slain. ⁷
Transliteration	81:9 Bi-ayyi than bin qutilat

81:9 باى ذنب قتلت

Edip-Layth	81:10 When the records are displayed.
The Monotheist Group	81:10 And when the records are displayed.
Muhammad Asad	81:10 and when the scrolls [of men's deeds] are unfolded,
Rashad Khalifa	81:10 The records are made known.
Shabbir Ahmed	81:10 And when the papers are published widely.
Transliteration	81:10 Wa-i tha al ssuh ufunushirat

81:10 واذا الصحف نشرت

Edip-Layth	81:11 When the sky is removed.
The Monotheist Group

	81:11 And when the sky is removed.
Muhammad Asad	81:11 and when heaven is laid bare,
Rashad Khalifa	81:11 The heaven is removed.
Shabbir Ahmed	81:11 When the sky is unveiled. 8
Transliteration	81:11 Wa-i th a alssamao kushiṭat
A	81:11 واذا السماء كُشِطَتْ
Edip-Layth	81:12 When hell is ignited.
The Monotheist Group	81:12 And when Hell is ignited.
Muhammad Asad	81:12 and when the blazing fire [of hell] is kindled bright,
Rashad Khalifa	81:12 Hell is ignited.
Shabbir Ahmed	81:12 When the Blazing fire is increased in ferocity. 9
Transliteration	81:12 Wa-i th a aljaḥeemu suAAAAirat
A	81:12 واذا الجحيم سعرت
Edip-Layth	81:13 When Paradise is made near.
The Monotheist Group	81:13 And when Paradise is made near.
Muhammad Asad	81:13 and when paradise is brought into view:
Rashad Khalifa	81:13 Paradise is presented.
Shabbir Ahmed	81:13 When the Paradise is brought near. 10
Transliteration	81:13 Wa-i th a aljannatu ozlifat
A	81:13 واذا الجنة ازلفت
Edip-Layth	81:14 Every person will know what it had done!
The Monotheist Group	81:14 Every soul will know what it had done!
Muhammad Asad	81:14 [on that Day] every human being will come to know what he has prepared [for himself].
Rashad Khalifa	81:14 Every soul will know everything it brought.
Shabbir Ahmed	81:14 (Then) every 'self' will see what it has prepared.
Transliteration	81:14 AAalimat nafsun m a aḥḍarat
A	81:14 علمت نفس ما احضرت
Edip-Layth	81:15 So, I swear by the collapsing/elusive stars. 3
The Monotheist Group	81:15 So I do swear by the planets that move away.
Muhammad Asad	81:15 BUT NAY! I call to witness the revolving stars,
	God's Messenger of the Covenant

Rashad Khalifa	81:15 I solemnly swear by the galaxies.
Shabbir Ahmed	81:15 Oh, but I call to witness the revolving planets.
Transliteration	81:15 Fal a oqsimu bi al khunnasi
A	81:15 فلا أقسم بالخنس
Edip-Layth	81:16 That run and hide.
The Monotheist Group	81:16 Running in their orbits.
Muhammad Asad	81:16 the planets that run their course and set,
Rashad Khalifa	81:16 Precisely running in their orbits.
Shabbir Ahmed	81:16 The stars which rise and set in their orbits.
Transliteration	81:16 Aljaw a ri alkunnasi
A	81:16 الجوار الكنس
Edip-Layth	81:17 The night when it passes.
The Monotheist Group	81:17 And the night when it passes.
Muhammad Asad	81:17 and the night as it darkly falls,
Rashad Khalifa	81:17 By the night as it falls.
Shabbir Ahmed	81:17 And the Night as it slowly closes upon.
Transliteration	81:17 Wa al layli i th a AAasAAasa
A	81:17 والليل اذا عسعس
Edip-Layth	81:18 The morning when it breathes.
The Monotheist Group	81:18 And the morning when it breathes.
Muhammad Asad	81:18 and the morn as it softly breathes:
Rashad Khalifa	81:18 And the morn as it breathes.
Shabbir Ahmed	81:18 And the fresh breath of the morning.
Transliteration	81:18 Wa al ssubhi i th atanaffasa
A	81:18 والصبح اذا تنفس
Edip-Layth	81:19 It is the saying of an honorable messenger.
The Monotheist Group	81:19 It is the saying of an honorable messenger.
Muhammad Asad	81:19 behold, this [divine writ] is indeed the [inspired] word of a noble apostle, ⁵
Rashad Khalifa	81:19 This is the utterance of an honorable messenger.
Shabbir Ahmed	81:19 This is the revealed Word in the dialect of a noble messenger. ¹¹
Transliteration	81:19 Innahu laqawlu rasoolin kareem in

A	81:19 انه لقول رسول كريم
Edip-Layth	81:20 With power and influence from the One of the throne.
The Monotheist Group	81:20 With power and influence from the One of the throne.
Muhammad Asad	81:20 with strength endowed, secure with Him who in almightiness is enthroned ⁶
Rashad Khalifa	81:20 Authorized by the Possessor of the Throne, fully supported.
Shabbir Ahmed	81:20 Strengthened by Him Who is enthroned in His Almightyness of Supreme Control.
Transliteration	81:20 Thee quwwatin AAinda thee alAAarshi makeen in
A	81:20 ذى قوة عند ذى العرش مكين
Edip-Layth	81:21 Obeyed, and trustworthy.
The Monotheist Group	81:21 Obeyed, and trustworthy.
Muhammad Asad	81:21 [the word] of one to be heeded, and worthy of trust!
Rashad Khalifa	81:21 He shall be obeyed and trusted.
Shabbir Ahmed	81:21 (The messenger is) to be obeyed and trusted.
Transliteration	81:21 Mu ta AAin thamma ameen in
A	81:21 مطاع ثم امين
Edip-Layth	81:22 Your friend is not crazy.
The Monotheist Group	81:22 And your friend is not crazy.
Muhammad Asad	81:22 For, this fellow-man of yours is not a madman: ⁷
Rashad Khalifa	81:22 Your friend (Rashad) is not crazy.
Shabbir Ahmed	81:22 This fellow-man of yours is not a madman.
Transliteration	81:22 Wama sah ibukum bimajnoon in
A	81:22 وما صاحبكم بمجنون
Edip-Layth	81:23 He saw him by the clear horizon. ⁴
The Monotheist Group	81:23 And he saw him by the clear horizon.
Muhammad Asad	81:23 he truly beheld [the angel - beheld] him on the clear horizon; ⁸
Rashad Khalifa	81:23 He saw him at the high horizon.
Shabbir Ahmed	81:23 He has found wisdom at the highest horizon. ¹²
Transliteration	81:23 Walaqad ra ghu bialofuqialmubeeni
A	81:23 ولقد رءاه بالافق المبين
Edip-Layth	81:24 He has no knowledge of the future.

The Monotheist Group	81:24 And he has no knowledge of the future.
Muhammad Asad	81:24 and he is not one to begrudge others the knowledge [of whatever has been revealed to him] out of that which is beyond the reach of human Perception. ⁹
Rashad Khalifa	81:24 He is not holding back any news.
Shabbir Ahmed	81:24 And he withholds not in secret the least bit of the revelation.
Transliteration	81:24 Wama huwa AAala alghaybi bidaneenin
A	81:24 وما هو على الغيب بضنين
Edip-Layth	81:25 It is not the saying of an outcast devil.
The Monotheist Group	81:25 And it is not the saying of an outcast devil.
Muhammad Asad	81:25 Nor is this [message] the word of any satanic force accursed. ¹⁰
Rashad Khalifa	81:25 It is not the talk of a rejected devil.
Shabbir Ahmed	81:25 Nor is it the utterance of a rejected satanic force. ¹³
Transliteration	81:25 Wama huwa biqawli shaytaninrajeemin
A	81:25 وما هو بقول شيطان رجيم
Edip-Layth	81:26 So where will you go?
The Monotheist Group	81:26 So where will you go?
Muhammad Asad	81:26 Whither, then, will you go?
Rashad Khalifa	81:26 Now then, where will you go?
Shabbir Ahmed	81:26 Which way, then, are you going?
Transliteration	81:26 Faayna tathaboona
A	81:26 فإين تذهبون
Edip-Layth	81:27 It is but a reminder for the worlds.
The Monotheist Group	81:27 It is but a reminder for the worlds.
Muhammad Asad	81:27 This [message] is no less than a reminder to all mankind
Rashad Khalifa	81:27 This is a message for all the people.
Shabbir Ahmed	81:27 This message is no less than a reminder and giver of eminence to all mankind.
Transliteration	81:27 In huwa illa thikrun liAAalameena
A	81:27 ان هو الا ذكر للعلمين
Edip-Layth	81:28 For whomever of you wishes to be straight.
The Monotheist Group	81:28 For whomever of you wishes to be straight.
Muhammad Asad	81:28 to everyone of you who wills to walk a straight way.

Rashad Khalifa	81:28 For those who wish to go straight.
Shabbir Ahmed	81:28 Unto everyone of you who wills to live upright. 14
Transliteration	81:28 Liman shāa minkum an yastaqeeṁ a
A	81:28 لمن شاء منكم ان يستقيم
Edip-Layth	81:29 You cannot will anything except if God also wills, the Lord of the worlds. 5
The Monotheist Group	81:29 And you cannot will anything except if God also wills, the Lord of the worlds.
Muhammad Asad	81:29 But you cannot will it unless God, the Sustainer of all the worlds, wills [to show you that way]. 11
Rashad Khalifa	81:29 Whatever you will is in accordance with the will of GOD, Lord of the universe.
Shabbir Ahmed	81:29 But you cannot will it unless you abide by the laws of the Lord of the worlds. 15
Transliteration	81:29 Wama tashaʿoona illa anyashaa Allahu rabbu alAAalameena
A	81:29 وما تشاءون الا ان يشاء الله رب العلمين

< < Prev 81:1-29 Next > >

Return to top

End Notes

Shabbir Ahmed -

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 1 (81:1)

Monarchies come to an end

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 2 (81:2)

Tribal dictatorships fall

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 3 (81:3)

The 'great ones' lose their stronghold on the masses. 20:105, 56:5, 78:20

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 4 (81:4)

A she-camel about to deliver the young has been a precious commodity, but the camel will lose much importance, and means of transportation will change

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 5 (81:5)

The nomads and even the cannibals civilize and lead an organized collective life

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 6 (81:7)

The world becomes small

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 7 (81:9)

Women's rights will be restored

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 8 (81:11)

The space sciences advance

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 9 (81:12)

The guilty are swiftly apprehended

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 10 (81:13)

A glimpse of it shows in the earthly life

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 11 (81:19)

44:58, 69:40

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 12 (81:23)

53:1-7

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 13 (81:25)

Such as selfish desires

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 14 (81:28)

1:5

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 15 (81:29)

4:88

Muhammad Asad - The Message Of Quran

Muhammad Asad - End Note 1 (81:3)

See 20:105-107 and the corresponding note 90; also note 63 on 14:48.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 2 (81:5)

I.e., when they crowd together in terror of the manifestation of the Last Hour, or as Mu'tazili commentators maintain - in order to be indemnified by God for man's cruelty to them (Razi). It is also said that the animals which were loved by human beings will live in the hereafter together with those who loved them (Zamakhshari). This interpretation is evidently based on 6:38 - "there is no beast that walks on earth and no bird that flies on its two wings which is not [God's] creature like yourselves" - followed almost immediately by the words, "Unto their Sustainer shall they [all] be gathered."

Muhammad Asad - End Note 3 (81:7)

I.e., when none will be able to divest himself of responsibility for his past deeds.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 4 (81:9)

The barbaric custom of burying female infants alive seems to have been fairly widespread in pre-Islamic Arabia, although perhaps not to the extent as has been commonly assumed. The motives were twofold: the fear that an increase of female offspring would result in economic burdens, as well as fear of the humiliation frequently caused by girls being captured by a hostile tribe and subsequently preferring their captors to their parents and brothers. Before Islam, one of the foremost opponents of this custom was Zayd ibn Amr ibn Nufayl, a cousin of Umar ibn al-Khattab and spiritually a precursor of Muhammad (cf. Bukhari, Fada'il Ashab an-Nabi on the authority of Abd Allah ibn Umar); he died shortly before Muhammad's call to prophethood (Fath al-Bari VII, 112). Another man, Sa'sa'ah ibn Najiyah at-Tamimi - grandfather of the poet Farazdaq - achieved equal fame as a saviour of infants thus condemned to death; he later embraced Islam. Ibn Khallikan (II, 197) mentions that Sa'sa'ah saved about thirty girls by paying ransom to their parents.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 5 (81:19)

By "calling to witness" certain natural phenomena which are familiar to man because of their permanent recurrence, attention is drawn to the fact that what we call "laws of nature" are but the observable elements of God's plan of creation - a plan in which His revelations (referred to in this and the subsequent verses) play a decisive role: and so, by implication, the divine writ granted to Muhammad is as intrinsically "natural" as any other phenomenon, concrete or abstract, in the realm of God's creation.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 6 (81:20)

Lit., "with Him of the throne of almightiness". It is to be noted that the Qur'anic term 'arsh - of which the above is the earliest occurrence in the order of revelation - invariably signifies God's absolute sovereignty and almightiness (cf. note 43 on 7:54).

Muhammad Asad - End Note 7 (81:22)

See surah 68, note 3. The characterization of Muhammad as "this fellow-man of yours" is meant to stress his absolute humanness, and thus to counteract any possibility on the part of his followers to deify him. (See also note 150 on 7:184.)

Muhammad Asad - End Note 8 (81:23)

This is evidently a reference to the Prophet's vision of the Angel Gabriel which ended the break in revelation (fatrat al-wahy) mentioned in the introductory note to surah 74. See also 53:5 ff. and the corresponding notes.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 9 (81:24)

Sc., "and so he conveys this revelation to you".

Muhammad Asad - End Note 10 (81:25)

For my occasional rendering of shaytan as "satanic force", see first half of note 16 on 15:17.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 11 (81:29)

I.e., "you can will it only because God has willed to show you the right way by means of the positive instincts which He has implanted in you, as well as through the revelations which He has bestowed on His prophets": implying that the choice of the right way is open to everyone who is willing to avail himself of God's universal guidance. (Cf. a similar passage in 76:29-30.)

Edip-Layth - Quran: A Reformist Translation

Edip-Layth - End Note 1 (81:7)

See 15:29 and 17:85.

Edip-Layth - End Note 3 (81:15)

For the meaning and function of the Quranic oaths, see 89:5.

Edip-Layth - End Note 4 (81:23)

See 53:1-18

Edip-Layth - End Note 5 (81:29)

See 57:22-23.

Best viewed using your own brain

Tested on 1024x768 resolution with  FIREFOX 2

Kitabun Marqum v0.6.7 - Kitabun Marqum - Quran Research Platform by QuraniX Team Copyright © 2002-2011 All rights reserved.
Copyrights of all translations belong to their respective authors.

49:6 O you who believe, if a wicked person brings any news to you, you shall first investigate, lest you commit injustice towards some people, out of ignorance, then become sorry and remorseful for what you have done.

Rashad Khalifa (The Final Testament)

 Translations ▼

 Chapter/Verse ▼

 Refresh

 Search

<< Prev 82:1-19 Next >>

Edip-Layth	In the name of God, the Gracious, the Compassionate. 82:1 When the sky is cracked.
The Monotheist Group	In the name of God, the Almighty, the Merciful. 82:1 When the sky is cracked.
Muhammad Asad	In the name of God, The Most Gracious, The Dispenser of Grace: 82:1 WHEN THE SKY is cleft asunder, ¹
Rashad Khalifa	In the name of GOD, Most Gracious, Most Merciful. 82:1 When the heaven is shattered.
Shabbir Ahmed	BISMILLAH-IR-RAHMAN-IR-RAHEEM With the Glorious Name of God, the Ultimate Source of Instant Beneficence and Eternal mercy Who encompasses the entire Universe, nourishing and taking care of all things for what they are meant to be; just as a mother's womb nourishes the embryo to completion without any returns. 82:1 When the high atmosphere is shattered. ¹
Transliteration	Bismi Allāhi alrrahmāni alrraḥeemi 82:1 Iṭḥa alssamao infatarat
A	بسم الله الرحمن الرحيم 82:1 اذا السماء انفطرت
Edip-Layth	82:2 When the planets are scattered.
The Monotheist Group	82:2 And when the planets are scattered.
Muhammad Asad	82:2 and when the stars are scattered,

Rashad Khalifa	82:2 The planets are scattered.
Shabbir Ahmed	82:2 When the planets are dispersed. ²
Transliteration	82:2 Wa-i tha alkawa k ibu intatharat
A	82:2 واذا الكواكب انتشرت
Edip-Layth	82:3 When the seas burst.
The Monotheist Group	82:3 And when the seas burst.
Muhammad Asad	82:3 and when the seas burst beyond their bounds,
Rashad Khalifa	82:3 The oceans are exploded.
Shabbir Ahmed	82:3 When the oceans overflow with traffic.
Transliteration	82:3 Wa-i tha albi h aru fujjirat
A	82:3 واذا البحار فجرت
Edip-Layth	82:4 When the graves are laid open.
The Monotheist Group	82:4 And when the graves are laid open.
Muhammad Asad	82:4 and when the graves are overturned
Rashad Khalifa	82:4 The graves are opened.
Shabbir Ahmed	82:4 And when the hidden things on earth are overturned. ³
Transliteration	82:4 Wa-i tha alqubo o ru buAAathirat
A	82:4 واذا القبور بعثرت
Edip-Layth	82:5 Then the person will know what it has brought forth and what it has left behind.
The Monotheist Group	82:5 Then the soul will know what it has brought forth and what it has left behind.
Muhammad Asad	82:5 every human being will [at last] comprehend, what he has sent ahead and what he has held back [in this world]. ²
Rashad Khalifa	82:5 Every soul will find out what caused it to advance, and what caused it to regress.
Shabbir Ahmed	82:5 Every Nafs ('self') will know what it has done and what it has left undone. ⁴
Transliteration	82:5 AAalimat nafsun m a qaddamatwaakhkharat
A	82:5 علمت نفس ما قدمت واخرت
Edip-Layth	82:6 O mankind, what has turned you arrogant against your Lord, the Most Generous?
The Monotheist Group	82:6 O man, what has turned you arrogant against your Lord, the Generous?
Muhammad Asad	82:6 O MAN! What is it that lures thee away from thy bountiful Sustainer, ³

Rashad Khalifa	Reflect on God's Creations 82:6 O you human being, what diverted you from your Lord Most Honorable?
Shabbir Ahmed	82:6 O Man! What has lured you away from your Sustainer, the Bountiful?
Transliteration	82:6 Ya ayyuha al-insanu magharraka birabbika alkareem i
A	82:6 يايها الانسن ما غرك بربك الكريم
Edip-Layth	82:7 The One who created you, then designed you, then proportioned you? ¹
The Monotheist Group	82:7 The One who created you, then evolved you, then made you upright?
Muhammad Asad	82:7 who has created thee, and formed thee in accordance with what thou art meant' to be, ⁴ and shaped thy nature in just proportions, ⁵
Rashad Khalifa	82:7 The One who created you, designed you, and perfected you.
Shabbir Ahmed	82:7 Who created you, then fashioned you, then proportioned you? ⁵
Transliteration	82:7 Allathee khalaqaka fasawwakafaAAadalaka
A	82:7 الذى خلقك فسوك فعدلك
Edip-Layth	82:8 In any which form He chose, He constructed you.
The Monotheist Group	82:8 In any which picture He chooses, He places you.
Muhammad Asad	82:8 having put thee together in whatever form He willed [thee to have]?
Rashad Khalifa	82:8 In whatever design He chose, He constructed it.
Shabbir Ahmed	82:8 Having shaped you and put you together well in accordance with His laws. (59:24)
Transliteration	82:8 Fee ayyi sooratin ma shaarakkabaka
A	82:8 فى اى صورة ما شاء ركبك
Edip-Layth	82:9 No, you are but deniers of the system.
The Monotheist Group	82:9 No, you are but deniers of the system.
Muhammad Asad	82:9 Nay, [O men,] but you [are lured away from God whenever you are tempted to] give the lie to [God's] Judgment! ⁶
Rashad Khalifa	82:9 Indeed, you disbelieve in the religion.
Shabbir Ahmed	82:9 Nay, but you deny the Judgment and the Divine System of life. ⁶
Transliteration	82:9 Kalla bal tukaththiboona bialIddeeni
A	82:9 كلا بل تكذبون بالدين
Edip-Layth	82:10 Over you are those who watch.
The Monotheist Group	82:10 And over you are those who watch.
Muhammad Asad	82:10 And yet, verily, there are ever-watchful forces over you,
Rashad Khalifa	82:10 Oblivious to the fact that there are

Shabbir Ahmed	82:10 There are above you guardians ever vigilant.
Transliteration	82:10 Wa-inna AAalaykum la h af i theena
A	82:10 وان عليكم لحفظين
Edip-Layth	82:11 Honorable scribes.
The Monotheist Group	82:11 Honorable scribes.
Muhammad Asad	82:11 noble, recording,
Rashad Khalifa	(invisible) keepers around you. 82:11 They are honest recorders.
Shabbir Ahmed	82:11 Noble, recording.
Transliteration	82:11 Kir a man ka t ibee n a
A	82:11 كراما كتبين
Edip-Layth	82:12 They know what you do.
The Monotheist Group	82:12 They know what you do.
Muhammad Asad	82:12 aware of whatever you do! ⁷
Rashad Khalifa	82:12 They record everything you do.
Shabbir Ahmed	82:12 They know whatever you do. ⁷
Transliteration	82:12 YaAAalamoona m a tafAAaloona
A	82:12 يعلمون ما تفعلون
Edip-Layth	82:13 The pious are in Paradise.
The Monotheist Group	82:13 The pious are in Paradise.
Muhammad Asad	82:13 Behold, [in the life to come] the truly virtuous: will indeed be in bliss,
Rashad Khalifa	82:13 Surely, the pious have deserved bliss.
Shabbir Ahmed	82:13 The virtuous who create room for others in the society, will be in bliss.
Transliteration	82:13 Inna al-abr a ra lafee naAAeemi n
A	82:13 ان الابرار لفي نعيم
Edip-Layth	82:14 The wicked are in hell.
The Monotheist Group	82:14 And the wicked are in Hell.
Muhammad Asad	82:14 whereas, behold, the wicked will indeed be in a blazing fire
Rashad Khalifa	82:14 While the wicked have deserved Hell.
Shabbir Ahmed	82:14 Those who split humanity will be in Fire. ⁸
Transliteration	82:14 Wa-inna alfu j ja lafee ja h eemi n
A

Edip-Layth	82:15 They will enter it on the day of Deen.
The Monotheist Group	82:15 They will enter it on the Day of recompense.
Muhammad Asad	82:15 [a fire] which they shall enter on Judgment Day,
Rashad Khalifa	82:15 Will incur it on the Day of Judgment.
Shabbir Ahmed	82:15 They will be visibly exposed to it on the Day of Judgment.
Transliteration	82:15 Yaṣlawnaḥa yawma alddeeni

A 82:15 يصلونها يوم الدين

Edip-Layth	82:16 They will not be absent from it.
The Monotheist Group	82:16 And they will not be absent from it.
Muhammad Asad	82:16 and which they shall not [be able to] evade.
Rashad Khalifa	82:16 They never leave it.
Shabbir Ahmed	82:16 And will not be absent from there. ⁹
Transliteration	82:16 Wama hum AAanha bigha-ibeenā

A 82:16 وما هم عنها بغائبين

Edip-Layth	82:17 Do you know what the day of Deen is?
The Monotheist Group	82:17 And do you know what is the Day of recompense?
Muhammad Asad	82:17 And what could make thee conceive what that Judgment Day will be?
Rashad Khalifa	82:17 Awesome is the Day of Judgment.
Shabbir Ahmed	82:17 And what will enlighten you about the Day of Judgment?
Transliteration	82:17 Wama adraka ma yawmu alddeeni

A 82:17 وما ادرك ما يوم الدين

Edip-Layth	82:18 Then again, do you know what the day of Deen is?
The Monotheist Group	82:18 Then again, do you know what is the Day of recompense?
Muhammad Asad	82:18 And once again: What could make thee conceive what that Judgment Day will be? ⁸
Rashad Khalifa	82:18 What a day; the Day of Judgment!
Shabbir Ahmed	82:18 Again, what will enlighten you about the Day of Judgment?
Transliteration	82:18 Thumma ma adraka mayawmu alddeeni

A 82:18 ثم ما ادرك ما يوم الدين

Edip-Layth	82:19 The day when no person possesses anything for any other person, and the decision on that day is to God. ²
------------	--

The Monotheist Group	82:19 The Day when no soul possesses anything for any other soul, and the decision on that Day is to God.
Muhammad Asad	82:19 [It will be] a Day when no human being shall be of the least avail to another human being: for on that Day [it will become manifest that] all sovereignty is God's alone.
Rashad Khalifa	82:19 That is the day when no soul can help another soul, and all decisions, on that day, will belong to GOD.
Shabbir Ahmed	82:19 That is the Day when no one will have the power to help another. On that Day (it will become obvious) that all command belongs to God alone.
Transliteration	82:19 Yawma l a tamliku nafsun linafsinshay-an wa al-amru yawma-ith i n lill a hi
A	82:19 يوم لا تملك نفس لنفس شيئا والامر يومئذ لله

<< Prev 82:1-19 Next >>

Return to top

End Notes

Muhammad Asad - The Message Of Quran

Muhammad Asad - End Note 1 (82:1)

An allusion to the Last Hour, when the world as known to man will come to an end and the ultimate reality of the hereafter will begin.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 2 (82:5)

I.e., what he has done and what he has omitted to do. An alternative rendering would be "what he has placed forward and what he has placed behind", i.e., what he prized more and what less in his erstwhile, subjective valuation. Thus, at the moment of resurrection man will suddenly understand the true motivations and moral implications of whatever he did - or consciously refrained from doing - during his life in this world: and this applies to all the good deeds he did and the sins he refrained from, as well as to all the sins he committed and the good deeds he failed to do.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 3 (82:6)

A rhetorical question implying that no human being is ever entirely immune against "that temptation to evil (fitnah) which does not befall only those among you who are bent on denying the truth" (see 8:25 and the corresponding note 25). The answer is given in verse 9 below.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 4 (82:7)

I.e., "endowed thee with all the qualities and abilities relevant to the exigencies of thy individual life and thy environment".

Muhammad Asad - End Note 5 (82:7)

Lit., "made thee proportionate", i.e., a being subject to physical needs and emotional urges, and at the same time endowed with intellectual and spiritual perceptions: in other words, a being in whom there is no inherent conflict between the demands of "the spirit and the flesh", since both these aspects of the human condition are - as stressed in the next verse - God-willed and, therefore, morally justified.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 6 (82:9)

In view of the fact that the whole of this passage is addressed to "man" or "men" in general, and not merely to deniers of the truth, I believe that the expression "you give the lie" does not, in this context, necessarily imply a conscious denial of God's ultimate judgment but rather, a tendency inherent in most human beings to close one's mind - occasionally or permanently, as the case may be - to the prospect of having to answer before God for one's doings: hence my rendering, "you are tempted to give the lie".

Muhammad Asad - End Note 7 (82:12)

The classical commentators are of the opinion that we have here a reference to the guardian angels who record, allegorically, all of men's deeds. However, another explanation has been suggested by me in my rendering of 50:16-23 and elaborated in the corresponding notes 11-16. In consonance with that interpretation, the "watchful force" (hafiz) set over every human being is his own conscience, which "records" all his motives and actions in his subconscious mind. Since it is the most precious element in man's psyche, it is described in verse 11 as "noble".

Muhammad Asad - End Note 8 (82:18)

For my rendering of thumma at the beginning of this verse as "And once again", see surah 6, note 31. The repetition of this rhetorical question is meant to indicate that man's intellect and imagination cannot possibly answer it, since what is described as the Day of Judgment will usher in a reality which as yet is wholly outside our human experience and, therefore, cannot be grasped conceptually: hence, only allegory - and our own emotional response to it - can give us an inkling of what that reality might be.

Shabbir Ahmed -

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 1 (82:1)

The conquest of Space will begin

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 2 (82:2)

Some of them are counted and named

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 3 (82:4)

The earth will be excavated for Archaeology. 100:9

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 4 (82:5)

Psychology will make strides

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 5 (82:7)

95:4

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 6 (82:9)

Deen = Divine System = Final Judgment = The Prescribed way of Life = Any religion

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 7 (82:12)

verses 10, 11, 12, refer to the Divine Law of Requitat

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 8 (82:14)

Faajir = One who creates schism = One who breaks unity

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 9 (82:16)

79:36

Edip-Layth - Quran: A Reformist Translation

Edip-Layth - End Note 1 (82:7)

See 4:119.

Edip-Layth - End Note 2 (82:19)

This is the only chapter that ends with the word Allah (God) and it occurs in the 19th verse as the 19th occurrence from the end of the Quran. For the context of the 19th occurrence of the word Allah from the beginning of the Quran see 2:55. For the Day of Judgment, see 1:4 and 74:46.

Best viewed using your own brain

Tested on 1024x768 resolution with  FIREFOX 2

Kitabun Marqum v0.6.7 - Kitabun Marqum - Quran Research Platform by QuraniX Team Copyright © 2002-2011 All rights reserved.
Copyrights of all translations belong to their respective authors.

49:6 O you who believe, if a wicked person brings any news to you, you shall first investigate, lest you commit injustice towards some people, out of ignorance, then become sorry and remorseful for what you have done.

Rashad Khalifa (The Final Testament)

 Translations ▼

 Chapter/Verse ▼

 Refresh

 Search

<< Prev 83:1-36 Next >>

Edip-Layth	In the name of God, the Gracious, the Compassionate. 83:1 Woe to those who cheat. ¹
The Monotheist Group	In the name of God, the Almighty, the Merciful. 83:1 Woe to those who cheat.
Muhammad Asad	In the name of God, The Most Gracious, The Dispenser of Grace: 83:1 WOE UNTO THOSE who give short measure:
Rashad Khalifa	In the name of GOD, Most Gracious, Most Merciful. 83:1 Woe to the cheaters.
Shabbir Ahmed	BISMILLAH-IR-RAHMAN-IR-RAHEEM With the Glorious Name of God, the Ultimate Source of Instant Beneficence and Eternal mercy Who encompasses the entire Universe, nourishing and taking care of all things for what they are meant to be; just as a mother's womb nourishes the embryo to completion without any returns. 83:1 Woe to the dealers in fraud!
Transliteration	Bismi Allāhi alrraḥmāni alrraḥeemi 83:1 Waylun lilmutaffifeena
A	بسم الله الرحمن الرحيم 83:1 ويل للمطففين
Edip-Layth	83:2 Those who when they are receiving any measure from the people, they take it in full.
The Monotheist Group	83:2 Those who when they are receiving any measure from the people, they take it in full.

Muhammad Asad	83:2 those who, when they are to receive their due from [other] people, demand that it be given in full
Rashad Khalifa	83:2 Who demand full measure when receiving from the people.
Shabbir Ahmed	83:2 Those who demand full measure when receiving from people.
Transliteration	83:2 Alla th eena i th a iktalooAAala alnnasi yastawfoona
A	83:2 الذين اذا اکتالوا على الناس يستوفون
Edip-Layth	83:3 When they are the ones giving measure or weight, they give less than due.
The Monotheist Group	83:3 And when they are the ones giving measure or weight, they give less than due.
Muhammad Asad	83:3 but when they have to measure or weigh whatever they owe to others, give less than what is due!
Rashad Khalifa	83:3 But when giving them the measures or weights, they cheat.
Shabbir Ahmed	83:3 But give less than due when giving them by measure or weight. (Or diminish the recompense of the laborer)
Transliteration	83:3 Wa-i th a kaloo h um aw wazanoohumyukhsiroona
A	83:3 واذا کالوهم او وزنوهم يخسرون
Edip-Layth	83:4 Do these not assume that they will be resurrected?
The Monotheist Group	83:4 Do these not assume that they will be resurrected
Muhammad Asad	83:4 Do they not know that they are bound to be raised from the dead
Rashad Khalifa	83:4 Do they not know that they will be resurrected?
Shabbir Ahmed	83:4 Do they not realize that they are bound to be raised again?
Transliteration	83:4 Ala ya th unnu ola-ikaannahum mabAAoothoona
A	83:4 الا یظن اولئک انهم مبعوثون
Edip-Layth	83:5 To a great day?
The Monotheist Group	83:5 To a great Day?
Muhammad Asad	83:5 [and called to account] on an awesome Day
Rashad Khalifa	83:5 On a tremendous day?
Shabbir Ahmed	83:5 Unto an Awesome Day.
Transliteration	83:5 Liyawmin AAa th eemin
A	83:5 لیوم عظیم
Edip-Layth	83:6 The day people will stand before the Lord of the worlds.
The Monotheist Group	83:6 The Day the people will stand before the Lord of the worlds.
Muhammad Asad	83:6 the Day when all men shall stand before the Sustainer of all the worlds?
Rashad Khalifa

	83:6 That is the day when all people will stand before the Lord of the universe.
Shabbir Ahmed	83:6 The Day when all mankind will stand before the Lord of the worlds. ¹
Transliteration	83:6 Yawma yaqoomu alInnaasu lirabbialAAalameena
A	83:6 يوم يقوم الناس لرب العلمين
Edip-Layth	Functions of the Numerically Coded Book 83:7 No, the record of the wicked is in Sijjeen.
The Monotheist Group	83:7 No, the record of the wicked is in Sijjeen.
Muhammad Asad	83:7 NAY, VERILY, the record of the wicked is indeed [set down] in a mode inescapable! ²
Rashad Khalifa	83:7 Indeed, the book of the wicked is in Sijjeen.
Shabbir Ahmed	83:7 Nay, the record of the dividers of humanity is in Sijjeen.
Transliteration	83:7 Kalla inna kitaba alfujjarilafee sijjeenin
A	83:7 كلا ان كتب الفجار لفي سجين
Edip-Layth	83:8 Do you know what Sijjeen is?
The Monotheist Group	83:8 And do you know what is Sijjeen?
Muhammad Asad	83:8 And what could make thee conceive what that that mode inescapable will be?
Rashad Khalifa	Numerically Structured Books 83:8 Do you know what Sijjeen is?
Shabbir Ahmed	83:8 Ah! What will convey to you what Sijjeen is!
Transliteration	83:8 Wama adraka ma sijjeenun
A	83:8 وما ادرك ما سجين
Edip-Layth	83:9 A numbered record. ²
The Monotheist Group	83:9 A numbered record.
Muhammad Asad	83:9 A record [indelibly] inscribed!
Rashad Khalifa	83:9 A numerically structured book.
Shabbir Ahmed	83:9 A record indelibly inscribed. ²
Transliteration	83:9 Kitabun marqoomun
A	83:9 كتب مرقوم
Edip-Layth	83:10 Woes on that day to the deniers.
The Monotheist Group	83:10 Woe on that Day to the deniers.
Muhammad Asad	83:10 Woe on that Day unto those who give the lie to the truth
Rashad Khalifa	83:10 Woe on that day to the rejectors.

Shabbir Ahmed	83:10 Anguish on that Day for those who deny the truth!
Transliteration	83:10 Waylun yawma-i th in lilmukath th ibeena
A	83:10 ويل يومئذ للمكذبين
Edip-Layth	83:11 Those who denied the day of recompense. ³
The Monotheist Group	83:11 Those who denied the Day of recompense.
Muhammad Asad	83:11 those who give the lie to the [coming of] Judgment Day:
Rashad Khalifa	83:11 They do not believe in the Day of Judgment.
Shabbir Ahmed	83:11 Those who deny the Day of Judgment.
Transliteration	83:11 Allath ^h eena yukath th iboonabiyawmi alIddeeni
A	83:11 الذين يكذبون بيوم الدين
Edip-Layth	83:12 None will deny it except every transgressor who knows no bounds.
The Monotheist Group	83:12 And none will deny it except every transgressor who knows no bounds.
Muhammad Asad	83:12 for, none gives the lie to it but such as are wont to transgress against all that is [and are] immersed in sin: ³
Rashad Khalifa	83:12 None disbelieves therein except the transgressor, the sinful.
Shabbir Ahmed	83:12 And none denies it but he who drags down his own progress by crossing the bounds of reason. (The Law of Cause and Effect easily appeals to reason)
Transliteration	83:12 Wama yukath th ibu bihi illakullu muAAatadin atheemin
A	83:12 وما يكذب به الا كل معتد اثيم
Edip-Layth	83:13 When Our signs are recited to him, he says: "Tales of the ancients!"
The Monotheist Group	83:13 When Our verses are recited to him, he says: "Tales of the ancients!"
Muhammad Asad	83:13 [and so,] whenever Our messages are conveyed to them, they but say, "Fables of ancient times!"
Rashad Khalifa	83:13 When our revelations are recited to him, he says, "Tales from the past!"
Shabbir Ahmed	83:13 When Our messages are conveyed to him, he says, "These are stories of the by-gones."
Transliteration	83:13 Itha tutla AAalayhi ayatunaqala asateeru al-awwaleena
A	83:13 اذا تتلى عليه آياتنا قال اسطير الاولين
Edip-Layth	83:14 No, a covering has been placed on their hearts for what they have earned.
The Monotheist Group	83:14 No, a covering has been placed on their hearts for what they have earned.
Muhammad Asad	83:14 Nay, but their hearts are corroded by all [the evil] that they were wont to do! ⁴
Rashad Khalifa	83:14 Indeed, their hearts have become shielded by their sins.
Shabbir Ahmed	83:14 Nay, but their hearts get corroded by what they have earned. (2:7)

Transliteration	83:14 Kalla bal rana AAalaquloobihim ma kanoo yaksiboona
A	83:14 كلا بل ران على قلوبهم ما كانوا يكسبون
Edip-Layth	83:15 No, they will be blocked from their Lord on that day.
The Monotheist Group	83:15 No, they will be blocked from their Lord on that Day.
Muhammad Asad	83:15 Nay, verily, from [the grace of] their Sustainer shall they on that Day be debarred;
Rashad Khalifa	83:15 Indeed, they will be isolated, on that day, from their Lord.
Shabbir Ahmed	83:15 Nay, certainly, on that Day they will be veiled from (the light of) their Lord.
Transliteration	83:15 Kalla innahum AAan rabbihi yawma-i thinlama hjooboona
A	83:15 كلا انهم عن ربهم يومئذ لمحجوبون
Edip-Layth	83:16 Then they will be entered into the hell.
The Monotheist Group	83:16 Then they will be entered into the Hell.
Muhammad Asad	83:16 and then, behold, they shall enter the blazing fire
Rashad Khalifa	83:16 Then they will be thrown into Hell.
Shabbir Ahmed	83:16 Then, they will enter the Blazing fire. 3
Transliteration	83:16 Thumma innahum lasaloo aljaheemi
A	83:16 ثم انهم لصالوا الجحيم
Edip-Layth	83:17 Then it will be said, "This is what you used to deny!"
The Monotheist Group	83:17 Then it will be said: "This is what you used to deny!"
Muhammad Asad	83:17 and be told: "This is the [very thing] to which you were wont to give the lie!"
Rashad Khalifa	83:17 They will be told, "This is what you used to deny."
Shabbir Ahmed	83:17 And it will be said, "This is what you used to deny."
Transliteration	83:17 Thumma yuqalu hatha allatheekuntum bihi tukaththiboona
A	83:17 ثم يقال هذا الذى كنتم به تكدبون
Edip-Layth	83:18 No, the record of the pious is in Elliyeen.
The Monotheist Group	83:18 No, the record of the pious is in Elliyeen.
Muhammad Asad	83:18 NAY, VERILY - the record of the truly virtuous is [set down] in a mode most lofty! 5
Rashad Khalifa	83:18 Indeed, the book of the righteous will be in `Elleyyeen.
Shabbir Ahmed	83:18 Nay, the record of those who made room for others in the community is in 'Illiyyeen. 4
Transliteration	83:18 Kalla inna kitaba al-abrarilafee AAilliyyeena

A	83:18 كلا ان كتب الابرار لفي عليين
Edip-Layth	83:19 Do you know what Elliyeen is?
The Monotheist Group	83:19 And do you know what is Elliyeen?
Muhammad Asad	83:19 And what could make thee conceive what that mode most lofty will be?
Rashad Khalifa	83:19 Do you know what `Elleyyeen is?
Shabbir Ahmed	83:19 Ah! What will convey to you what 'Illyyeen is!
Transliteration	83:19 Wama a adra k a maAAailliyyoona
A	83:19 وما ادرك ما عليون
Edip-Layth	83:20 A numbered record.
The Monotheist Group	83:20 A numbered record.
Muhammad Asad	83:20 A record [indelibly] inscribed,
Rashad Khalifa	83:20 A numerically structured book.
Shabbir Ahmed	83:20 A record indelibly inscribed. 5
Transliteration	83:20 Kit a bun marqoom u n
A	83:20 كتب مرقوم
Edip-Layth	83:21 To be witnessed by those brought near.
The Monotheist Group	83:21 To be witnessed by those brought near.
Muhammad Asad	83:21 witnessed~ by all who have [ever] been drawn close unto God. 6
Rashad Khalifa	83:21 To be witnessed by those close to Me.
Shabbir Ahmed	83:21 These near ones (to God) find it open before them.
Transliteration	83:21 Yashhaduhu almuqarraboona
A	83:21 يشهده المقربون
Edip-Layth	83:22 The pious are in Paradise.
The Monotheist Group	83:22 The pious are in Paradise.
Muhammad Asad	83:22 Behold, [in the life to come] the truly virtuous will indeed be in bliss:
Rashad Khalifa	83:22 The righteous have deserved bliss.
Shabbir Ahmed	83:22 Those who made room in the society for others, certainly, they are in blissful delight.
Transliteration	83:22 Inna al-abra r a lafee naAAaeemi n
A	83:22 ان الابرار لفي نعيم
Edip-Layth	83:23 Upon luxurious furnishings, observing.

The Monotheist Group	83:23 Upon luxurious furnishings, observing.
Muhammad Asad	83:23 [resting on couches, they will look up [to God]: ⁷
Rashad Khalifa	83:23 On luxurious furnishings they watch.
Shabbir Ahmed	83:23 On beautiful thrones, they will look up (to the Magnificent Kingdom. 76:20).
Transliteration	83:23 AAala al-ara-iki yan <th>u</th> roona	u
A	83:23 على الارائك ينظرون
Edip-Layth	83:24 You know in their faces the look of Paradise.
The Monotheist Group	83:24 You know in their faces the look of Paradise.
Muhammad Asad	83:24 upon their faces thou wilt see the brightness of bliss.
Rashad Khalifa	83:24 You recognize in their faces the joy of bliss.
Shabbir Ahmed	83:24 You will see their faces glitter with Delight.
Transliteration	83:24 TaAArifu fee wujoohihim na ^r ata alInnaAAeemi
A	83:24 تعرف في وجوههم نظرة النعيم
Edip-Layth	83:25 They are given drink from a pure sealed vial.
The Monotheist Group	83:25 They are given drink from a pure sealed vial.
Muhammad Asad	83:25 They will be given a drink of pure wine whereon the seal [of God] will have been set,
Rashad Khalifa	83:25 Their drinks will be spiced with nectar.
Shabbir Ahmed	83:25 They will be given a refreshing drink of pure nectar, sealed.
Transliteration	83:25 Yusqawna min ra ^h eeqin makhtoomin
A	83:25 يسقون من رحيق مختوم
Edip-Layth	83:26 Its seal will be of musk, so in that let those who are in competition compete.
The Monotheist Group	83:26 Its seal will be of musk, so in that let those who are in competition compete.
Muhammad Asad	83:26 pouring forth with a fragrance of musk. ⁸ To that [wine of paradise], then, let all such aspire as [are willing to] aspire to things of high account:
Rashad Khalifa	83:26 Its spice is like musk. This is what the competitors should compete for.
Shabbir Ahmed	83:26 The seal of it is musk. For all this, then, let every aspirant aspire.
Transliteration	83:26 Khita ^m uhu miskun wafee th alikafalyatana ^f asi almutana ^f isoona
A	83:26 ختمه مسك وفي ذلك فليتتافس المتنافسون
Edip-Layth	83:27 Its taste will be special.
The Monotheist Group	83:27 And its taste will be special.

Muhammad Asad	83:27 for it is composed of all that is most exalting ⁹
Rashad Khalifa	83:27 Mixed into it will be special flavors.
Shabbir Ahmed	83:27 For, it consists of nobility. ⁶
Transliteration	83:27 Wamiz a juhu min tasneemin
A	83:27 ومزاجه من تسنيم
Edip-Layth	83:28 A spring from which those who are brought near will drink.
The Monotheist Group	83:28 A spring from which those who are brought near will drink.
Muhammad Asad	83:28 a source [of bliss] whereof those who are drawn close unto God shall drink. ¹⁰
Rashad Khalifa	83:28 From a spring that is reserved for those close to Me.
Shabbir Ahmed	83:28 A Spring from which the nearest (to God) drink. ⁷
Transliteration	83:28 AAaynan yashrabu bi h a almuqarraboona
A	83:28 عينا يشرب بها المقربون
Edip-Layth	83:29 Those who were criminals used to laugh at those who had acknowledged.
The Monotheist Group	83:29 Those who were criminals used to laugh at those who had believed.
Muhammad Asad	83:29 BEHOLD, those who have abandoned themselves to sin are wont to laugh at such as have attained to faith ¹¹
Rashad Khalifa	83:29 The wicked used to laugh at those who believed.
Shabbir Ahmed	83:29 Those who thrived on others' toil used to laugh at those who had attained belief.
Transliteration	83:29 Inna alla t heena ajramoo ka n oomina alla t heena a m anoo ya d hakoona
A	83:29 ان الذين اجرموا كانوا من الذين ءامنوا يضحكون
Edip-Layth	83:30 When they passed by them they used to wink to each other.
The Monotheist Group	83:30 And when they passed by them they used to wink to each other.
Muhammad Asad	83:30 and whenever they pass by them, they wink at one another [derisively];
Rashad Khalifa	83:30 When they passed by them, they used to poke fun.
Shabbir Ahmed	83:30 And whenever they passed by the believers they winked at each other in sarcasm. (Look, these people 'waste' their wealth and person on strangers)
Transliteration	83:30 Wa-i t ha marroo bihim yatag h amazoona
A	83:30 واذا مروا بهم يتغامزون
Edip-Layth	83:31 When they returned to their people, they would return jesting.
The Monotheist Group	83:31 And when they returned to their people, they would return jesting.

Muhammad Asad	83:31 and whenever they return to people of their own kind, they return full of jests;
Rashad Khalifa	83:31 When they got together with their people, they used to joke.
Shabbir Ahmed	83:31 And when they returned to their own people, they used to tell jokes about them.
Transliteration	83:31 Wa-i tha inqalaboo il a ahlihimuinqalaboo fakiheen a
A	83:31 واذا انقلبوا الى اهلهم انقلبوا فكهين
Edip-Layth	83:32 If they see them they say, "These are indeed misguided!"
The Monotheist Group	83:32 And if they see them they say: "These are indeed misguided!"
Muhammad Asad	83:32 and whenever they see those [who believe,] they say, "Behold, these [people] have indeed gone astray!"
Rashad Khalifa	83:32 Whenever they saw them, they said, "These people are far astray!
Shabbir Ahmed	83:32 And whenever they saw the believers they said, "These people have gone astray (wandering in unmarked valleys of life)."
Transliteration	83:32 Wa-i tha raawhum q aloo inna h ola -ilad al loona
A	83:32 واذا راوهم قالوا ان هولاء لضالون
Edip-Layth	83:33 But they were not sent over them as caretakers.
The Monotheist Group	83:33 But they were not sent over them as caretakers.
Muhammad Asad	83:33 And, withal, they have no call to watch over [the beliefs of] others. . . 13
Rashad Khalifa	83:33 "They have no such thing as (invisible) guards."
Shabbir Ahmed	83:33 Yet, they have not been sent as watchers over them.
Transliteration	83:33 Wam a orsiloo AAalayhim h afith een a
A	83:33 وما ارسلوا عليهم حفظين
Edip-Layth	83:34 Today, those who had acknowledged are laughing at the ingrates!
The Monotheist Group	83:34 And today, those who had believed are laughing at the rejecters!
Muhammad Asad	83:34 But on the Day [of Judgment], they who had attained to faith will [be able to] laugh at the [erstwhile] deniers of the truth: 14
Rashad Khalifa	83:34 Today, those who believed are laughing at the disbelievers.
Shabbir Ahmed	83:34 That Day those who have chosen to be graced with belief will be in a position to laugh at the deniers (but they would not. 7:43, 15:47)
Transliteration	83:34 Faalyawma all a th een a a manoomina alkuff ari ya dh akoona
A	83:34 فاليوم الذين ءامنوا من الكفار يضحكون
Edip-Layth	83:35 Upon the luxurious furnishings they are observing.
The Monotheist Group	83:35 Upon the luxurious furnishings they are observing.

Muhammad Asad	83:35 [for, resting in paradise] on couches, they will look on [and say to themselves]:
Rashad Khalifa	83:35 On luxurious furnishings they watch.
Shabbir Ahmed	83:35 On beautiful thrones, they will look up (to the Magnificent Kingdom 76:20)
Transliteration	83:35 AAala al-ara-iki yan th uroona
A	83:35 على الارائك ينظرون
Edip-Layth	83:36 Have the ingrates not been reprimanded for what they used to do?
The Monotheist Group	83:36 Have the rejecters not been reprimanded for what they used to do?
Muhammad Asad	83:36 "Are these deniers of the truth being [thus] requited for [aught but] what they were wont to do?"
Rashad Khalifa	83:36 Most assuredly, the disbelievers are requited for what they did.
Shabbir Ahmed	83:36 Are these deniers of the truth being returned anything but their own doings? 8
Transliteration	83:36 Hal thuwwiba alkuffaru ma kanooyafAAaloona
A	83:36 هل ثوب الكفار ما كانوا يفعلون

< < Prev 83:1-36 Next > >

Return to top

End Notes

Edip-Layth - Quran: A Reformist Translation

Edip-Layth - End Note 1 (83:1)

For similar ethical reminders see the Old Testament, Deuteronomy 25:13-16.

Edip-Layth - End Note 2 (83:9)

The book that confounds the wicked like a prison (siggin), and serves the do-gooders as an elevator (illiyin), is described as kitabun marqum, that is, numbered book or numerical book. The wicked rejects it, while the good people witness its marvels.

Edip-Layth - End Note 3 (83:11)

The yawm ul-din is described as the day of Judgment. Those who believe that they will be saved by their idol's intercession are in denial of that day. See 74:46-48 and 1:4

Muhammad Asad - The Message Of Quran

Muhammad Asad - End Note (83:3)

Muhammad Asad - End Note 2 (83:7)

According to some of the greatest philologists (e.g., Abu Ubaydah, as quoted in the Lisan al-Arab), the term sijjin is derived from - or even synonymous with - the noun sijn, which signifies "a prison". Proceeding from this derivation, some authorities attribute to sijjin the tropical meaning of da'im, i.e., "continuing" or "lasting" (ibid.). Thus, in its metaphorical application to a sinner's "record", it is evidently meant to stress the latter's inescapable quality, as if its contents were lastingly "imprisoned", i.e., set down indelibly, with no possibility of escaping from what they imply: hence my rendering of the phrase fi sijjin as "[set down] in a mode inescapable". This interpretation is, to my mind, fully confirmed by verse 9 below.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 3 (83:12)

Implying that a denial of ultimate responsibility before God - and, hence, of His judgment - is invariably conducive to sinning and to transgression against all moral imperatives. (Although this and the next verse are formulated in the singular, I am rendering them in the plural inasmuch as this plurality is idiomatically indicated by the word kull before the descriptive participles mu'tad and athim, as well as by the use of a straight plural in verses 14 ff.)

Muhammad Asad - End Note 4 (83:14)

Lit., "that which they were earning has covered their hearts with rust": implying that their; persistence in wrongdoing has gradually deprived them of all consciousness of moral responsibility and, hence, of the ability to visualize the fact of God's ultimate judgment.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 5 (83:18)

I.e., in contrast to the record of the wicked (see verse 7 above). As regards the term 'illiyyun, it is said to be the plural of 'illi or 'illiyyah ("loftiness") or, alternatively, a plural which has no singular (Qamus, Taj al-'Arus); in either case it is derived from the verb 'ala, which signifies "[something] was [or "became"] high" or "lofty" or - tropically - "exalted": thus in the well-known idiomatic phrase, huwa min 'illiyyat qawmihi, "he is among the [most] exalted of his people". In view of this derivation, the plural 'illiyyun has evidently the intensive connotation of "loftiness upon loftiness" (Taj al-'Arus) or "a mode most lofty".

Muhammad Asad - End Note 6 (83:21)

I.e., by the prophets and saints of all times as well as by the angels.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 7 (83:23)

Cf. 7:23. As elsewhere in the Qur'an, the "couches" of the virtuous in paradise symbolize complete restfulness and inner fulfilment.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 8 (83:26)

Lit., "the end whereof (khitamuhu) will be musk". My rendering of the above phrase reflects the interpretation given to it by several authorities of the second generation of Islam, and by Abu Ubaydah ibn al-Muthanna (all of them quoted by Razi). The "pure wine" (rahiq) of the hereafter - which, contrary to the wine of this world, will carry "the seal" (i.e., the sanction) of God because "no headiness will be in it, and they will not get drunk thereon" (37:47) - is another symbol of paradise, alluding, by means of comparisons with sensations that can be experienced by man, to the otherworldly sensations of joy which, in a form intensified beyond all human imagination, are in store for the righteous. Some of the great Muslim mystics (e.g., Jalal ad-Din Rumi) see in that "pure wine" an allusion to a spiritual vision of God: an interpretation which, I believe, is fully justified by the sequence.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 9 (83:27)

Whereas most of the classical commentators regard the infinitive noun tasnim as the proper name of one of the allegorical "fountains of paradise", or, alternatively, refrain from any definition of it, it seems to me that the derivation of tasnim from the verb sannama - "he raised [something]" or "made [it] lofty" - points, rather, to the effect which the "wine" of divine knowledge will have on those who "drink" of it in paradise. Hence, the tabi'i 'Ikrimah (as quoted by Razi) equates tasnim with tashrif, "that which is ennobling" or "exalting".

Muhammad Asad - End Note 10 (83:28)

Cf. 76:5-6 and the corresponding notes.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 11 (83:29)

In the original, verses 29-33 are in the past tense, as if viewed from the time-level of Judgment Day. However, since the preceding and the following passages (i.e., verses 18-28 and 34-36) are formulated in the future tense, verses 29-33 (which relate to life in this world) maybe adequately rendered in the present tense.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 12 (83:31)

Lit., "to their [own] people",

Muhammad Asad - End Note 13 (83:33)

Lit., "they have not been sent as watchers over them" - implying that none who is devoid of faith has the right to criticize the faith of any of his fellow-men.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 14 (83:34)

Speaking of the righteous, the Qur'an repeatedly stresses that on the Day of Judgment God "shall have removed whatever unworthy thoughts or feelings (ghill) may have been [lingering] in their bosoms" (7:43 and 15:47). Since an expression of vengeful joy on the part of the blest at the calamity which in the hereafter will befall the erstwhile sinners would certainly fall within the category of "unworthy feelings", their "laughing" can only have a metaphorical meaning, denoting no more than a realization of their own good fortune.

Shabbir Ahmed -

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 1 (83:6)

And before that, the humanity will stand up at its feet in this world rallying around the Divine System. 39:79, 45:36-37, 84:6-8, 89:16-22

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 2 (83:9)

Sijjeen = Indelible, guarded record

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 3 (83:16)

Jaheem = Insurmountable barrier = Bar to progress = Obstruction that halts = Halting of evolution = Mere survival = Hellfire = Flames of anguish = Fire of regret

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 4 (83:18)

Birr = Virtue = Make expanse = Make room for others in the society = Help people to adjust and make progress in a new environment = Exponential growth

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 5 (83:20)

'Illyyeen = Loftiness upon loftiness

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 6 (83:27)

Tasneem = Tashreef = Nobility = Raising in rank and honor = Hosting with respect = Exalting

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 7 (83:28)

Nearest to God are those who have adopted His 'Sibghah' = Hue or Color, 2:138. That means adopting God's attributes in the limited human capacity. Some examples of these attributes are: Kindness - creativity - forgiveness - turning to people in love and affection - (attaining) wisdom - knowledge (learning) - compassion - clemency - peacefulness - remaining aware - sense of duty - determination - justice - protection of others - generosity - self-control - leniency - approachability - appreciation - strength - patience - giving light - guiding - independence - truthfulness - maintenance of people and things - keeping pledges - resolve - benefiting - beautiful designing - providing - listening - observing - being worthy of trust - nobility of character - giving. Interestingly, this is a spectrum by which we all can make a self-assessment as to where we stand on the ascending ladder to 'TAZKIAH' = Self-actualization or personal development

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 8 (83:36)

Thawaab = Return on an investment

Best viewed using your own brain

Tested on 1024x768 resolution with  FIREFOX 2

Kitabun Marqum v0.6.7 - Kitabun Marqum - Quran Research Platform by QuraniX Team Copyright © 2002-2011 All rights reserved.
Copyrights of all translations belong to their respective authors.

49:6 O you who believe, if a wicked person brings any news to you, you shall first investigate, lest you commit injustice towards some people, out of ignorance, then become sorry and remorseful for what you have done.

Rashad Khalifa (The Final Testament)

 Translations ▼

 Chapter/Verse ▼

 Refresh

 Search

<< Prev 84:1-25 Next >>

Edip-Layth	In the name of God, the Gracious, the Compassionate. 84:1 When the sky is ruptured.
The Monotheist Group	In the name of God, the Almighty, the Merciful. 84:1 When the sky is torn.
Muhammad Asad	In the name of God, The Most Gracious, The Dispenser of Grace: 84:1 WHEN THE SKY is split asunder, ¹
Rashad Khalifa	In the name of GOD, Most Gracious, Most Merciful. 84:1 The time will come when the sky is ruptured.
Shabbir Ahmed	BISMILLAH-IR-RAHMAN-IR-RAHEEM With the Glorious Name of God, the Ultimate Source of Instant Beneficence and Eternal mercy Who encompasses the entire Universe, nourishing and taking care of all things for what they are meant to be; just as a mother's womb nourishes the embryo to completion without any returns. 84:1 When the sky is rent asunder. ¹
Transliteration	Bismi Allāhi alrrahmāni alrraḥeemi 84:1 Ithā alssamāo inshaqqat
A	بسم الله الرحمن الرحيم 84:1 اذا السماء انشقت
Edip-Layth	84:2 Attends to its Lord, and is ready.
The Monotheist Group	84:2 And it permits its Lord, and is ready.
Muhammad Asad	84:2 obeying its Sustainer, as in truth it must;

Rashad Khalifa	84:2 It will submit to its Lord and expire.
Shabbir Ahmed	84:2 Attentive to its Lord as commanded.
Transliteration	84:2 Waathinat lirabbiha wahuqqat
A	84:2 واذنت لربها وحقت
Edip-Layth	84:3 When the earth is stretched.
The Monotheist Group	84:3 And when the earth is stretched.
Muhammad Asad	84:3 and when the earth is leveled, ²
Rashad Khalifa	84:3 The earth will be leveled.
Shabbir Ahmed	84:3 And when the earth is spread out. ²
Transliteration	84:3 Wa-i th a al-ar ^{du} muddat
A	84:3 واذا الارض مدت
Edip-Layth	84:4 It spits out what is in it and becomes empty.
The Monotheist Group	84:4 And it spits out what is in it and becomes empty.
Muhammad Asad	84:4 and casts forth whatever is in it, and becomes utterly void, ³
Rashad Khalifa	84:4 It will eject its contents, as it erupts.
Shabbir Ahmed	84:4 And casts out whatever is in it and becomes void. ³
Transliteration	84:4 Waalqat m ^a fee ^h a watakhallat
A	84:4 والقت ما فيها وتخلت
Edip-Layth	84:5 It attends to its Lord, and is ready.
The Monotheist Group	84:5 And it permits its Lord, and is ready.
Muhammad Asad	84:5 obeying its Sustainer, as in truth it must - :
Rashad Khalifa	84:5 It will submit to its Lord and expire.
Shabbir Ahmed	84:5 Attentive to its Lord as commanded.
Transliteration	84:5 Waathinat lirabbiha wahuqqat
A	84:5 واذنت لربها وحقت
Edip-Layth	84:6 O mankind, you will be returning to your Lord with your actions and meeting Him.
The Monotheist Group	84:6 O man, you will be returning to your Lord with your actions and meeting Him.
Muhammad Asad	84:6 [then,] O man - thou [that] hast, verily, been toiling towards thy Sustainer in painful toil ⁴ - then shalt thou meet Him!
Rashad Khalifa	84:6 O humans, you are irreversibly heading for a meeting with your Lord.

Shabbir Ahmed	84:6 O You human being! You have been toiling on towards your Lord - painfully toiling - then you shall meet Him. ⁴
Transliteration	84:6 Ya ayyuḥa al-insānuinnaḥa kaḍiḥun ilā rabbika kaḍ ḥanfamuḷaqeehi
A	84:6 يايها الانسن انك كادح الى ربك كدحا فملقيه
Edip-Layth	84:7 So whoever is given his record in his right.
The Monotheist Group	84:7 So whoever is given his record in his right.
Muhammad Asad	84:7 And as for him whose record shall be placed in his right hand, ⁷
Rashad Khalifa	84:7 As for the one who receives his record in his right hand,
Shabbir Ahmed	84:7 Then whoever is given his book in his right hand,
Transliteration	84:7 Faamā man ootiya kitābahubiyameenihi
A	84:7 فلما من اوتى كتبه بيمينه
Edip-Layth	84:8 He will then receive an easy reckoning.
The Monotheist Group	84:8 He will then receive an easy reckoning.
Muhammad Asad	84:8 he will in time be called to account with an easy accounting,
Rashad Khalifa	84:8 His reckoning will be easy.
Shabbir Ahmed	84:8 His account will be made easy. ⁵
Transliteration	84:8 Fasawfa yuḥasabu ḥisābanyaseerān
A	84:8 فسوف يحاسب حسابا يسيرا
Edip-Layth	84:9 He will return to his family in joy!
The Monotheist Group	84:9 And he will return to his family in joy!
Muhammad Asad	84:9 and will [be able to] turn joyfully to those of his own kind. ⁶
Rashad Khalifa	84:9 He will return to his people joyfully.
Shabbir Ahmed	84:9 And he returns rejoicing to his people (family, and ideologically synchronous minds).
Transliteration	84:9 Wayanqalibu ilā ahlihi masroorān
A	84:9 وينقلب الى اهله مسرورا
Edip-Layth	84:10 As for he who is given his record behind his back.
The Monotheist Group	84:10 And as for he who is given his record behind his back.
Muhammad Asad	84:10 But as for him whose record shall be given to him behind his back;
Rashad Khalifa	84:10 As for the one who receives his record behind his back,
Shabbir Ahmed	84:10 But as for him who is given his Book behind his back (he who has turned his back to the Book, looking back to the ancestral traditions),

Transliteration	84:10 Waamma a man ootiya kit a bahu wara a th a hrihi
A	84:10 واما من اوتى كتبه وراء ظهره
Edip-Layth	84:11 He will invoke his destruction.
The Monotheist Group	84:11 He will invoke his destruction.
Muhammad Asad	84:11 he will in time pray for utter destruction:
Rashad Khalifa	84:11 He will be ridden with remorse.
Shabbir Ahmed	84:11 He will be inviting upon himself, chaos!
Transliteration	84:11 Fasawfa yadAAoo thuboor a n
A	84:11 فسوف يدعوا ثبورا
Edip-Layth	84:12 He will enter a blazing fire.
The Monotheist Group	84:12 And he will enter a blazing Fire.
Muhammad Asad	84:12 but he will enter the blazing flame.
Rashad Khalifa	84:12 And will burn in Hell.
Shabbir Ahmed	84:12 And He will enter a Blazing Flame.
Transliteration	84:12 Waya s la saAAeer a n
A	84:12 ويصلى سعيرا
Edip-Layth	84:13 He used to be joyful amongst his people!
The Monotheist Group	84:13 He used to be joyful amongst his people!
Muhammad Asad	84:13 Behold, [in his earthly life] he lived joyfully among people of his own kind 8
Rashad Khalifa	84:13 He used to act arrogantly among his people.
Shabbir Ahmed	84:13 He used to enjoy the company of his own kind.
Transliteration	84:13 Innahu ka n a fee ahlihi masroor a n
A	84:13 انه كان فى اهله مسرورا
Edip-Layth	84:14 He thought he would not be returned.
The Monotheist Group	84:14 He thought he would not be returned.
Muhammad Asad	84:14 for, behold, he never thought that he would have to return [to God].
Rashad Khalifa	84:14 He thought that he will never be called to account.
Shabbir Ahmed	84:14 He deemed that he would never return (to God).
Transliteration	84:14 Innahu t hanna an lan ya h oor a
A	84:14 انه ظن ان لن يحور
Edip-Layth	84:15 No, He is ever seeing of him.

The Monotheist Group	84:15 No, He is ever seeing of him.
Muhammad Asad	84:15 Yea indeed! His Sustainer did see all that was in him!
Rashad Khalifa	84:15 Yes indeed, his Lord was Seer of him.
Shabbir Ahmed	84:15 Nay, his Lord sees all his mettle. ⁶
Transliteration	84:15 Balā inna rabbahu ka n a bihi ba s eer a n
A	84:15 بلى ان ربه كان به بصيرا
Edip-Layth	84:16 So, I swear by the redness of dusk.
The Monotheist Group	84:16 So I do swear by the redness of dusk.
Muhammad Asad	84:16 BUT NAY! I call to witness the sunset's [fleeting] afterglow,
Rashad Khalifa	84:16 I solemnly swear by the rosy dusk.
Shabbir Ahmed	84:16 Oh, I call to witness the rosy afterglow of sunset.
Transliteration	84:16 Falā oqsimu bi a lshshafa q i
A	84:16 فلا اقسم بالشفق
Edip-Layth	84:17 The night and what it is driven on.
The Monotheist Group	84:17 And the night and what it is driven on.
Muhammad Asad	84:17 and the night, and what it [step by step] unfolds,
Rashad Khalifa	84:17 And the night as it spreads.
Shabbir Ahmed	84:17 And the night and all that it enshrouds.
Transliteration	84:17 Wa a llayli wa m a a wasa q a
A	84:17 والليل وما وسق
Edip-Layth	84:18 The moon when it is full.
The Monotheist Group	84:18 And the moon when it is full.
Muhammad Asad	84:18 and the moon, as it grows to its fullness: ⁹
Rashad Khalifa	84:18 And the moon and its phases.
Shabbir Ahmed	84:18 And the moon as it steadily grows to her fullness.
Transliteration	84:18 Wa a lqamari i t ha ittasa q a
A	84:18 والقمر اذا اتسق
Edip-Layth	84:19 You will ride a stage/layer upon a stage/layer.
The Monotheist Group	84:19 You will ride a vessel upon a vessel.
Muhammad Asad	84:19 [even thus, O men,] are you bound to move; onward from stage to stage. ¹⁰
Rashad Khalifa	84:19 You will move from stage to stage.

Shabbir Ahmed	84:19 That you will traverse higher and higher from one plane to another. ⁷
Transliteration	84:19 Latarkabunna t abaqan AAan t abaq i n
A	84:19 لتركبن طبقا عن طبق
Edip-Layth	84:20 So what is the matter with them that they do not acknowledge?
The Monotheist Group	84:20 So what is the matter with them that they do not believe?
Muhammad Asad	84:20 What, then, is amiss with them that they will not believe [in a life to come]? ¹¹
Rashad Khalifa	84:20 Why do they not believe?
Shabbir Ahmed	84:20 What, then, is the matter with them that they believe not (in a higher form of life?)
Transliteration	84:20 Fam a lahum la yu/minoona
A	84:20 فما لهم لا يؤمنون
Edip-Layth	84:21 When the Quran is being related to them, they do not prostrate.
The Monotheist Group	84:21 And when the Qur'an is being related to them, they do not yield.
Muhammad Asad	84:21 and [that], when the Qur'an is read unto them, they do not fall down in prostration? ¹²
Rashad Khalifa	84:21 And when the Quran is recited to them, they do not fall prostrate.
Shabbir Ahmed	84:21 And when the Qur'an is recited to them, they do not humble themselves. ⁸
Transliteration	84:21 Wa-i th a quri-a AAalayhimu alqur- a nula yasjudoona
A	84:21 واذا قرئ عليهم القرآن لا يسجدون
Edip-Layth	84:22 No, those who have rejected are in denial.
The Monotheist Group	84:22 No, those who have rejected are in denial.
Muhammad Asad	84:22 Nay, but they who are bent on denying the truth give the lie [to this divine writ]!
Rashad Khalifa	84:22 This is because those who disbelieved are rejecting (the Quran).
Shabbir Ahmed	84:22 On the contrary, the unbelievers (with preconceived denial) reject it.
Transliteration	84:22 Bali alla t heena kafaroo yukath th iboona
A	84:22 بل الذين كفروا يكتفون
Edip-Layth	84:23 God is more aware of what they gather.
The Monotheist Group	84:23 And God is more aware of what they gather.
Muhammad Asad	84:23 Yet God has full knowledge of what they conceal [in their hearts]. ¹³
Rashad Khalifa	84:23 GOD is fully aware of their innermost thoughts.
Shabbir Ahmed	9

	84:23 And God is best Knower of what they hide.
Transliteration	84:23 WaAllahu aAAlamu bimayooAAoona
A	84:23 والله اعلم بما يعون
Edip-Layth	84:24 So inform them of a painful retribution.
The Monotheist Group	84:24 So inform them of a painful retribution.
Muhammad Asad	84:24 Hence, give them the tiding of grievous suffering [in the life to come]
Rashad Khalifa	84:24 Promise them painful retribution.
Shabbir Ahmed	84:24 So give them the tiding of an awful doom.
Transliteration	84:24 Fabashshirhum biAAathabin aleem in
A	84:24 فبشرهم بعذاب اليم
Edip-Layth	84:25 Except for those who acknowledge and do good works, they will have a reward that will not end.
The Monotheist Group	84:25 Except for those who believe and do good works, they will have a reward that will not end.
Muhammad Asad	84:25 unless it be such [of them] as [repent, and] attain to faith, and do good works: for theirs shall be a reward unending!.
Rashad Khalifa	84:25 As for those who believed and led a righteous life, they receive a recompense that is well-deserved.
Shabbir Ahmed	84:25 Except to those who choose to be graced with belief and do acts that help people - for them is a reward unending.
Transliteration	84:25 Illa alla theena amanoowaAAamiloo a Issalihati lahum ajrun ghayrumamnoonin
A	84:25 الا الذين ءامنوا وعملوا الصلحت لهم اجر غير ممنون

<< Prev 84:1-25 Next >>

Return to top

End Notes

Muhammad Asad - The Message Of Quran

Muhammad Asad - End Note 1 (84:1)

I.e., at the coming of the Last Hour and the beginning of a new reality, both in fact and in man's perception.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 2 (84:3)

See 20:105-107.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 3 (84:4)

I.e., loses all its reality.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 4 (84:6)

An allusion to the fact that in man's earthly life - irrespective of whether one is consciously aware of it or not - sorrow, pain, drudgery and worry by far outweigh the rare moments of true happiness and satisfaction. Thus, the human condition is described as "painful toiling towards the Sustainer" - i.e., towards the moment when one meets Him on resurrection.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 7 (84:7)

At first glance, this seems to contrast with 69:25, where it is stated that the record of the unrighteous "shall be placed in his left hand". In reality, however; the present formulation alludes to the sinner's horror at his record, and his wish that he had never been shown it (69:25-26): in other words, his not wanting to see it is symbolized by its appearance "behind his back".

Muhammad Asad - End Note 6 (84:9)

Lit., "his people" - i.e., those who, like him, were righteous in life.

Muhammad Asad - End Note (84:10)

Muhammad Asad - End Note 8 (84:13)

Lit., "his people" - i.e., people of the same sinful inclinations. (Cf. note 14 on 75:33.)

Muhammad Asad - End Note 9 (84:18)

Thus God "calls to witness" the fact that nothing in His creation is ever at a standstill, since everything moves unceasingly from one state of being into another, at every moment changing its aspect and its condition: a phenomenon aptly described by the Greek philosopher Heraclitus by the phrase panta rhei ("everything is in flux").

Muhammad Asad - End Note 10 (84:19)

Or: "from one state to another state" (Zamakhshari): i.e., in an unceasing progression - conception, birth, growth, decline, death and, finally, resurrection.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 11 (84:20)

Since the inexorable movement of all that exists from stage to stage or from one condition into another corresponds to a fundamental law evident in all creation, it is unreasonable to assume that man alone should be an exception, and that his onward movement should cease at the moment of his bodily death, not to be followed by a change-over into another state of being.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 12 (84:21)

I.e., seeing how consistently it stresses the divine law of unceasing change and progression in all that exists.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 13 (84:23)

Namely, their unwillingness to admit their responsibility to a Supreme Being.

Shabbir Ahmed -

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 1 (84:1)

Space will be explored and Astronomy will bring amazing knowledge of the Cosmos

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 2 (84:3)

It is widely populated

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 3 (84:4)

The earth will bring forth its fossils and minerals through Archaeology, drilling and mining

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 4 (84:6)

Wittingly or unwittingly, mankind is working their way toward the Divine System. Trial and Error can make them advance only to an imperfect and fragile system of life. But Divine revelation economizes human effort, saves them centuries of pursuit in toil, and ensures for them a perfect, enduring System of Life

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 5 (84:8)

17:71

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 6 (84:15)

Bihi = In him = With him = His true worth = His mettle

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 7 (84:19)

Civilizations will keep advancing in sciences, and individuals will always have a chance to grow in goodness. Furthermore, evolution of the 'self' will carry on in the life to come

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 8 (84:21)

Callousness, inattention and arrogance make them insensitive to the eloquence, wisdom and majesty of the Divine revelation

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 9 (84:23)

Their idols, peer pressure, traditions, malice, schemes, selfish interests

Best viewed using your own brain

Tested on 1024x768 resolution with  FIREFOX 2

Kitabun Marqum v0.6.7 - Kitabun Marqum - Quran Research Platform by QuraniX Team Copyright © 2002-2011 All rights reserved.
Copyrights of all translations belong to their respective authors.

2:2 This is the book in which there is no doubt, a guide for the conscientious.
 Edip-Layth (Quran: A Reformist Translation)

 Translations ▼

 Chapter/Verse ▼

 Refresh

 Search

<< Prev 85:1-22 Next >>

Edip-Layth	In the name of God, the Gracious, the Compassionate. 85:1 By the universe laden with galaxies. ¹
The Monotheist Group	In the name of God, the Almighty, the Merciful. 85:1 By the universe laden with towers.
Muhammad Asad	In the name of God, The Most Gracious, The Dispenser of Grace: 85:1 CONSIDER the sky full of great constellations,
Rashad Khalifa	In the name of GOD, Most Gracious, Most Merciful. 85:1 The sky and its galaxies.
Shabbir Ahmed	BISMILLAH-IR-RAHMAN-IR-RAHEEM With the Glorious Name of God, the Ultimate Source of Instant Beneficence and Eternal mercy Who encompasses the entire Universe, nourishing and taking care of all things for what they are meant to be; just as a mother's womb nourishes the embryo to completion without any returns. 85:1 The sky full of constellations stands witness.
Transliteration	Bismi Allāhi alrrahmāni alrraḥeemi 85:1 Waalssama-i thātialburooji
A	بسم الله الرحمن الرحيم 85:1 والسماء ذات البروج
Edip-Layth	85:2 The appointed day.
The Monotheist Group	85:2 And the appointed Day.
Muhammad Asad	85:2 and [then bethink thyself of] the promised Day, ¹
Rashad Khalifa	85:2 The promised day.

Shabbir Ahmed	85:2 And the promised Day (of Resurrection).
Transliteration	85:2 Waalyawmi almawAAoodi
A	85:2 واليوم الموعود
Edip-Layth	85:3 A witness and a witnessed.
The Monotheist Group	85:3 And a witness and a witnessed.
Muhammad Asad	85:3 and [of] Him who witnesses [all], and [of] that unto which witness is borne [by Him]! ²
Rashad Khalifa	85:3 The witness and the witnessed.
Shabbir Ahmed	85:3 He Who watches and those who are being watched (will see that),
Transliteration	85:3 Washahidin wamashhoodin
A	85:3 وشاهد ومشهود
Edip-Layth	85:4 Woes to people of the canyon.
The Monotheist Group	85:4 Dead are the people of the canyon.
Muhammad Asad	85:4 THEY DESTROY [but] themselves, ³ they who would ready a pit
Rashad Khalifa	85:4 Woe to the people of the canyon.
Shabbir Ahmed	85:4 Those who dig ditches for others, destroy themselves.
Transliteration	85:4 Qutila as-habu alukhdoodi
A	85:4 قتل اصحب الاخدود
Edip-Layth	85:5 The fire supplied with fuel.
The Monotheist Group	85:5 The Fire supplied with fuel.
Muhammad Asad	85:5 of fire fiercely burning [for all who have attained to faith]! ⁴
Rashad Khalifa	85:5 They ignited a blazing fire.
Shabbir Ahmed	85:5 Igniting the fire of rage.
Transliteration	85:5 Alnnari thati alwaqoodi
A	85:5 النار ذات الوقود
Edip-Layth	85:6 Then they sat around it.
The Monotheist Group	85:6 They will be placed in it.
Muhammad Asad	85:6 Lo! [With glee do] they contemplate that [fire],
Rashad Khalifa	85:6 Then sat around it.
Shabbir Ahmed	85:6 They contemplate and wait in anticipation.
Transliteration	85:6 Ith hum AAalayha quAAoodun
A	85:6 اذ هم عليها قعود

Edip-Layth	85:7 They were witness to what they did to those who acknowledge.
The Monotheist Group	85:7 And they were witness to what they did to the believers.
Muhammad Asad	85:7 fully conscious of what they are doing to the believers, ⁵
Rashad Khalifa	85:7 To watch the burning of the believers.
Shabbir Ahmed	85:7 And they are well aware of what they are doing to the believers.
Transliteration	85:7 Wahum AAalā ma yafAAaloona bi almu/mineenashuhoodun
A	85:7 وهم على ما يفعلون بالمومنين شهود
Edip-Layth	85:8 They hated them because they acknowledged God, the Noble, the Praiseworthy!
The Monotheist Group	85:8 And all they had asked them was to believe in God, the Noble, the Praiseworthy!
Muhammad Asad	85:8 whom they hate for no other reason than that they believe in God, the Almighty, the One to whom all praise is due,
Rashad Khalifa	85:8 They hated them for no other reason than believing in GOD, the Almighty, the Praiseworthy.
Shabbir Ahmed	85:8 Whom they hate for no other reason than that they believe in God, the Almighty, the Owner of praise.(5:59, 22:40)
Transliteration	85:8 Wama naqamoo minhum illa anyu/minoo bi Allāhi alAAazeezi alhameedi
A	85:8 وما نقموا منهم الا ان يؤمنوا بالله العزيز الحميد
Edip-Layth	85:9 The One to whom belongs the kingship of heavens and earth, and God is witness over everything.
The Monotheist Group	85:9 The One to whom belongs kingship of heavens and Earth, and God is witness over everything.
Muhammad Asad	85:9 [and] to whom the dominion of the heavens and the earth belongs. But God is witness unto everything!
Rashad Khalifa	85:9 To Him belongs the kingship of the heavens and the earth. And GOD witnesses all things.
Shabbir Ahmed	85:9 And to Whom belongs the Kingdom of the heavens and earth. But God is Watcher over all things.
Transliteration	85:9 Alla ^{thee} lahu mulku a Issamawatiwaal-ardi wa Allāhu AAal ā kullishay-in shaheedun
A	85:9 الذى له ملك السموت والارض والله على كل شىء شهيد
Edip-Layth	85:10 Those who have put the acknowledging men and women under ordeal, and then did not repent, they will have the retribution of hell, and they will have the retribution of burning.
The Monotheist Group	85:10 Those who have put the believing men and women under ordeal, and then did not repent, they will have the retribution of Hell, and they will have the retribution of burning.

Muhammad Asad	85:10 Verily, as for those who persecute believing men and believing women, and thereafter do not repent, hell's suffering awaits them: yea, suffering through fire awaits them! ⁶
Rashad Khalifa	85:10 Surely, those who persecute the believing men and women, then fail to repent, have incurred the retribution of Gehenna; they have incurred the retribution of burning.
Shabbir Ahmed	85:10 Those who persecute the believing men and the believing women, and then repent not, theirs, certainly, is the doom of Hell - yes, theirs is the doom of burning.
Transliteration	85:10 Inna alla the ena fatanoo almu/mineenawa almu/min a ti thumma lam yatooboo falahum AAa th abujahannama walahum AAa th abu al h areeqi
A	85:10 ان الذين فتنوا المومنين والمومنات ثم لم يتوبوا فلهم عذاب جهنم ولهم عذاب الحريق
Edip-Layth	85:11 Those who acknowledge and do good works, they will have gardens with rivers flowing beneath. Such is the great reward.
The Monotheist Group	85:11 Those who believe and do good works, they will have estates with rivers flowing beneath. Such is the great reward.
Muhammad Asad	85:11 [But,] verily, they who attain to faith and do righteous deeds shall [in the life to come] have gardens through which running waters flow - that triumph most great! ⁷
Rashad Khalifa	85:11 Surely, those who believed and led a righteous life, have deserved gardens with flowing streams. This is the greatest triumph.
Shabbir Ahmed	85:11 Those who choose to be graced with belief and do actions that help people, theirs are the Gardens underneath which rivers flow. That is the great eminence.
Transliteration	85:11 Inna alla the ena a manoowaAAaamiloo a l ssalihu ti lahum jann a tuntajree min ta h ti h a al-an h aru th alikaalfawzu alkabeeru
A	85:11 ان الذين ءامنوا وعملوا الصالحات لهم جنت تجري من تحتها الانهر ذلك الفوز الكبير
Edip-Layth	85:12 The punishment of your Lord is severe.
The Monotheist Group	85:12 The punishment of your Lord is severe.
Muhammad Asad	85:12 VERILY, thy Sustainer's grip is exceedingly strong!
Rashad Khalifa	85:12 Indeed, your Lord's blow is severe.
Shabbir Ahmed	85:12 Yet, strong is the grip of your Lord!
Transliteration	85:12 Inna ba t sha rabbika lashadeed un
A	85:12 ان بطش ربك لشديد
Edip-Layth	85:13 It is He who initiates and then returns.
The Monotheist Group	85:13 It is He who initiates and then returns.
Muhammad Asad	85:13 Behold, it is He who creates [man] in the first instance, and He [it is who] will bring him forth anew.
Rashad Khalifa	85:13 He is the One who initiates and repeats.
Shabbir Ahmed	85:13 He is the One Who originates (life) and He can restore.

Transliteration	85:13 Innahu huwa yubdi-o wayuAAeed u
A	85:13 انه هو يبدئ ويعيد
Edip-Layth	85:14 He is the Forgiver, the Most Kind.
The Monotheist Group	85:14 And He is the Forgiver, the Most Kind.
Muhammad Asad	85:14 And He alone is truly-forgiving, all-embracing in His love,
Rashad Khalifa	85:14 And He is the Forgiving, Most Kind.
Shabbir Ahmed	85:14 And He is the Forgiving, the Loving.
Transliteration	85:14 Wahuwa alghafooru alwadood u
A	85:14 وهو الغفور الودود
Edip-Layth	85:15 Possessor of the throne, the Glorious.
The Monotheist Group	85:15 Possessor of the throne, the Glorious.
Muhammad Asad	85:15 in sublime almightiness enthroned, ⁸
Rashad Khalifa	85:15 Possessor of the glorious throne.
Shabbir Ahmed	85:15 Lord of the Supreme Throne.
Transliteration	85:15 Thoo alAAarshi almajeedi
A	85:15 ذو العرش المجيد
Edip-Layth	85:16 Doer of what He wills.
The Monotheist Group	85:16 Doer of what He wills.
Muhammad Asad	85:16 a sovereign doer of whatever He wills.
Rashad Khalifa	85:16 Doer of whatever He wills.
Shabbir Ahmed	85:16 Carrying out His Plan according to His laws. ¹
Transliteration	85:16 FaAAAAalun lima yureedu
A	85:16 فعال لما يريد
Edip-Layth	85:17 Has news come to you of the soldiers?
The Monotheist Group	85:17 Has news come to you of the soldiers?
Muhammad Asad	85:17 HAS IT ever come within thy ken, the story of the [sinful] hosts
Rashad Khalifa	85:17 Did you note the history of the troops?
Shabbir Ahmed	85:17 Has the story reached you of the great troops?
Transliteration	85:17 Hal ataka hadeethu aljunoodi
A	85:17 هل اتك حديث الجنود
Edip-Layth	85:18 Pharaoh and Thamud?

The Monotheist Group	85:18 Pharaoh and Thamud?
Muhammad Asad	85:18 of Pharaoh, and of [the tribe of] Thamud? ⁹
Rashad Khalifa	85:18 Pharaoh and Thamoud?
Shabbir Ahmed	85:18 Of Pharaoh and Thamud.
Transliteration	85:18 Bali alla ^{the} eena kafaroo fee tak ^{the} eebin
A	85:18 فرعون وثمود
Edip-Layth	85:19 No, those who rejected are in denial.
The Monotheist Group	85:19 No, those who rejected are in denial.
Muhammad Asad	85:19 And yet, they who are bent on denying the truth persist in giving it the lie:
Rashad Khalifa	85:19 Those who disbelieve are plagued with denial.
Shabbir Ahmed	85:19 And yet the rejecters knowingly live in denial.
Transliteration	85:19 WaAllahu min wara ^a -ihimmu ^{heet} un
A	85:19 بل الذين كفروا في تكذيب
Edip-Layth	85:20 God, after them, is Encompassing.
The Monotheist Group	85:20 And God after them is encompassing.
Muhammad Asad	85:20 but all the while God encompasses them [with His knowledge and might] without their being aware of it. ¹⁰
Rashad Khalifa	85:20 GOD is fully aware of them.
Shabbir Ahmed	85:20 But God surrounds them without them conceiving it. ²
Transliteration	85:20 Bal huwa qur- ^a nun majeed ^{un}
A	85:20 والله من ورائهم محيط
Edip-Layth	85:21 No, it is a glorious Quran.
The Monotheist Group	85:21 No, it is a glorious Qur'an.
Muhammad Asad	85:21 Nay, but this [divine writ which they reject] is a discourse sublime,
Rashad Khalifa	85:21 Indeed, it is a glorious Quran.
Shabbir Ahmed	85:21 Nay, but this is Sublime Qur'an.
Transliteration	85:21 Fee law ^h in mah ^{foot} h ⁱⁿ
A	85:21 بل هو قرآن مجيد
Edip-Layth	85:22 In a tablet, preserved. ²
The Monotheist Group	85:22 In a tablet, preserved.
Muhammad Asad	85:22 upon an imperishable tablet [inscribed]. ¹¹

Rashad Khalifa	85:22 In a preserved master tablet.
Shabbir Ahmed	85:22 (Inscribed) upon Tablet Imperishable. 3
Transliteration
A	85:22 فى لوح محفوظ

<< Prev 85:1-22 Next >>

Return to top

End Notes

Edip-Layth - Quran: A Reformist Translation

Edip-Layth - End Note 1 (85:1)

The word buruj means constellations or galaxies. Millions of gullible people still believe in the superstition that Zodiac constellations or one's birthday has a great impact on the character and destiny of a person. For the function of oaths in the Quran, see 89:5.

Edip-Layth - End Note 2 (85:22)

The mathematical system shows that every element of it is protected by God. The word lawh here and the word lawaha in 74:29 share the same root. See 74:30.

Muhammad Asad - The Message Of Quran

Muhammad Asad - End Note 1 (85:2)

I.e., the Day of Resurrection.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 2 (85:3)

By creating the universe, God "bears witness", as it were, to His Own almightiness and uniqueness: cf. 3:18 - "God [Himself] bears witness that there is no deity save Him"- and the corresponding note 11.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 3 (85:4)

For an explanation of this rendering of qutila, see note 9 on 74:19-20.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 4 (85:5)

Lit., "those responsible (ashab) for the pit of fire abounding in fuel". In order to explain this parabolic passage, the commentators interpret it - quite unnecessarily - in the past tense, and advance the most contradictory legends meant to "identify" those evildoers in historical terms. The result is a medley of stories ranging from Abraham's experiences with his idolatrous contemporaries (cf. 21:68-70) to the Biblical legend of Nebuchadnezzar's attempt to burn three pious Israelites in a fiery furnace (The Book of Daniel iii, 19 ff.), or the persecution, in the sixth century, of the Christians of Najran by the King of Yemen, Dhu Nawas (who was a Jew by religion), or the entirely apocryphal story of a Zoroastrian king who burnt to death those of his subjects who refused to accept his dictum that a marriage of brother and sister was "permitted by God"; and so forth. None of these legends needs, of course, to be seriously considered in this context. As a matter of fact, the very anonymity of the evildoers referred to in the above Qur'anic passage shows that we have here a parable and not an allusion to "historical" or even legendary events. The persecutors are people who, having no faith whatsoever, hate to see faith in others (see verse 8 below); the "pit of fire" is a metaphor for the persecution of the latter by the former: a phenomenon not restricted to any particular time or to a particular people but recurring in many forms and in varying degrees of intensity throughout recorded history.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 5 (85:7)

Lit., "as they sit over it, the while they witness all that they are doing...", etc.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 6 (85:10)

Lit., "through burning"

Muhammad Asad - End Note 7 (85:11)

This is almost certainly the earliest Qur'anic reference to "gardens through which running waters flow" as an allegory of the bliss which awaits the righteous in the hereafter.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 8 (85:15)

Lit., "He of the sublime throne of almightiness (al-'arsh al-majid)". For my rendering of al-'arsh as "the throne of almightiness", see 7:54 and the corresponding note 43.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 9 (85:18)

Sc., "both of which were destroyed because of their sins". The story of Pharaoh and his forces, and their destruction by drowning, is referred to many times in the Qur'an; for the story of the Thamud see, in particular, 7:73 ff. and the corresponding notes 56-62.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 10 (85:20)

Lit., "from behind them", an idiomatic phrase denoting a happening imperceptible to those whom it closely concerns.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 11 (85:22)

Lit., "upon a well-guarded tablet (lawh mahfuz?)" - a description of the Qur'an to be found only in this one instance. Although some commentators take it in its literal sense and understand by it an actual "heavenly tablet" upon which the Qur'an is inscribed since all eternity, to many others the phrase has always had a metaphorical meaning: namely, an allusion to the imperishable quality of this divine writ. This interpretation is pointedly mentioned as justified by, e.g., Tabari, Baghawi, Razi or Ibn Kathir, all of whom agree that the phrase "upon a well-guarded tablet" relates to God's promise that the Qur'an would never be corrupted, and would remain free of all arbitrary additions, diminutions and textual changes. See in this connection also 15:9 and the corresponding note 10.

Shabbir Ahmed -

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 1 (85:16)

In the World of command He makes laws as He wills. Then He implements these laws in the World of Creation - the Universe (7:54) And then He neither changes them, nor makes any exceptions. (17:77, 33:38, 33:62, 35:43, 40:85, 48:23) His Rule is the Rule of law and not of haphazard tantrums

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 2 (85:20)

Minwwaraihim = From behind them = Without them conceiving it

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 3 (85:22)

God Himself guards it against corruption. It is preserved in minds and hearts in addition to parchment and paper, and its laws are indelibly inscribed in the Book of nature 15:9, 56:78. Interestingly, 85:22 is unique in using Lauh-im-Mahfooz, the Imperishable Tablet, for the Qur'an. Elsewhere it relates to the Divine Database about the Universe

Best viewed using your own brain

Tested on 1024x768 resolution with  FIREFOX 2

Kitabun Marqum v0.6.7 - Kitabun Marqum - Quran Research Platform by QuraniX Team Copyright © 2002-2012 All rights reserved.
Copyrights of all translations belong to their respective authors.

49:6 O you who believe, if a wicked person brings any news to you, you shall first investigate, lest you commit injustice towards some people, out of ignorance, then become sorry and remorseful for what you have done.

Rashad Khalifa (The Final Testament)

 Translations ▼

 Chapter/Verse ▼

 Refresh

 Search

<< Prev 86:1-17 Next >>

Edip-Layth	In the name of God, the Gracious, the Compassionate. 86:1 The sky and the herald. ¹
The Monotheist Group	In the name of God, the Almighty, the Merciful. 86:1 By the sky and the herald.
Muhammad Asad	In the name of God, The Most Gracious, The Dispenser of Grace: 86:1 CONSIDER the heavens and that which comes in the night! ¹
Rashad Khalifa	In the name of GOD, Most Gracious, Most Merciful. 86:1 By the sky and Al-Taareq.
Shabbir Ahmed	BISMILLAH-IR-RAHMAN-IR-RAHEEM With the Glorious Name of God, the Ultimate Source of Instant Beneficence and Eternal mercy Who encompasses the entire Universe, nourishing and taking care of all things for what they are meant to be; just as a mother's womb nourishes the embryo to completion without any returns. 86:1 The sky and the brightest star are witness to what is being said.
Transliteration	Bismi Allāhi alrrahmāni alrraḥeemi 86:1 Waalssama-i waalttariqi
A	بسم الله الرحمن الرحيم 86:1 والسماء والطارق
Edip-Layth	86:2 Do you know what the herald is?
The Monotheist Group	86:2 And do you know what the herald is?
Muhammad Asad	86:2 And what could make thee conceive what it is that comes in the night?

Rashad Khalifa	86:2 Do you know what Al-Taareq is?
Shabbir Ahmed	86:2 And what will enlighten you as to what the Tariq is!
Transliteration	86:2 Wama adraka ma alTariqu
A	86:2 وما ادرك ما الطارق
Edip-Layth	86:3 The piercing star.
The Monotheist Group	86:3 The piercing star.
Muhammad Asad	86:3 It is the star that pierces through [life's] darkness:
Rashad Khalifa	86:3 The bright star.
Shabbir Ahmed	86:3 The Brightest Star! The noble night-visitant with the Radiant Lamp of the Qur'an in his hand knocking at the doors of minds and hearts, giving light.
Transliteration	86:3 AlInnajmu alThhaqibu
A	86:3 النجم الثاقب
Edip-Layth	86:4 Every person has a recorder over it.
The Monotheist Group	86:4 Every soul has a recorder over it.
Muhammad Asad	86:4 [for] no human being has ever been left unguarded. ²
Rashad Khalifa	86:4 Absolutely, everyone is well guarded.
Shabbir Ahmed	86:4 There is no person without a watch being kept over him. ¹
Transliteration	86:4 In kullu nafsin lamma AAalayha hafithun
A	86:4 ان كل نفس لما عليها حافظ
Edip-Layth	86:5 So let the human being see from what he was created. ²
The Monotheist Group	86:5 So let man see from what he was created.
Muhammad Asad	86:5 LET MAN, then, observe out of what he has been created:
Rashad Khalifa	86:5 Let the human reflect on his creation.
Shabbir Ahmed	86:5 Let the human being, then, consider out of what he has been created. ²
Transliteration	86:5 Falyan thuri al-insanumimma khuliqa
A	86:5 فلينظر الانسان مم خلق
Edip-Layth	86:6 He was created from water that spurts forth.
The Monotheist Group	86:6 He was created from water that spurts forth.
Muhammad Asad	86:6 he has been created out of a seminal fluid
Rashad Khalifa	86:6 He was created from ejected liquid.
Shabbir Ahmed	86:6 He has been created from turbulent water. ³
Transliteration	— —

	86:6 Khuliqa min ma-in dafiqin
A	86:6 خلق من ماء دافق
Edip-Layth	86:7 It comes out from between the spine and the testicles.
The Monotheist Group	86:7 It comes out from between the spine and the testicles.
Muhammad Asad	86:7 issuing from between the loins [of man] and the pelvic arch [of woman]. ³
Rashad Khalifa	86:7 From between the spine and the viscera.
Shabbir Ahmed	86:7 That issued from between tough rocks and mingled dust. ⁴
Transliteration	86:7 Yakhruju min bayni al l ssulbi waal t tara ḡ -ibi
A	86:7 يخرج من بين الصلب والترائب
Edip-Layth	86:8 For He is able to bring him back.
The Monotheist Group	86:8 For He is able to bring him back.
Muhammad Asad	86:8 Now, verily, He [who thus creates man in the first instance] is well able to bring him back [to life]
Rashad Khalifa	86:8 He is certainly able to resurrect him.
Shabbir Ahmed	86:8 Certainly, He (Who has thus created man), is well Able to bring him back.
Transliteration	86:8 Innahu AAa l a rajAAi h i laq a dirun
A	86:8 انه على رجه لقادر
Edip-Layth	86:9 The day when all is revealed.
The Monotheist Group	86:9 The Day when all is revealed.
Muhammad Asad	86:9 on the Day when all I secrets will be laid bare,
Rashad Khalifa	86:9 The day all secrets become known.
Shabbir Ahmed	86:9 On the Day when all secrets will be disclosed.
Transliteration	86:9 Yawma tub l a al l ssara ḡ -iru
A	86:9 يوم تبلى السرائر
Edip-Layth	86:10 Then he will not have any power or victor.
The Monotheist Group	86:10 Then he will not have any power or victor.
Muhammad Asad	86:10 and [man] will have neither strength nor helper!
Rashad Khalifa	86:10 He will have no power, nor a helper.
Shabbir Ahmed	86:10 Then He will have no power, nor a helper.
Transliteration	86:10 Fam a lahu min quwwatin wala n asirin
A	86:10 فما له من قوة ولا ناصر
Edip-Layth	86:11 The sky which gives rain.

The Monotheist Group	86:11 And the sky which gives rain.
Muhammad Asad	86:11 Consider ⁴ the heavens, ever-revolving,
Rashad Khalifa	86:11 By the sky that returns
Shabbir Ahmed	86:11 Witness is the high atmosphere that keeps returning (its water, gases and other composition.)
Transliteration	86:11 Waalssama-i th ati alrrajAAi
A	86:11 والسماء ذات الرج
Edip-Layth	86:12 The land with small cracks.
The Monotheist Group	86:12 And the land with small cracks.
Muhammad Asad	86:12 and the earth, bursting forth with plants!
Rashad Khalifa	86:12 By the earth that cracks (the water).
Shabbir Ahmed	86:12 And witness is the earth which cracks open for springs and plants.
Transliteration	86:12 Waal-ardi th ati alssadAAi
A	86:12 والارض ذات الصدع
Edip-Layth	86:13 This is the word that separates matters.
The Monotheist Group	86:13 This is the word that separates matters.
Muhammad Asad	86:13 BEHOLD, this [divine writ] is indeed a word that between truth and falsehood, ⁵
Rashad Khalifa	86:13 This is a serious narration. (to grow plants).
Shabbir Ahmed	86:13 This (Qur'an) is a Conclusive Word. (That can give you a new life. 40:29).
Transliteration	86:13 Innahu laqawlun fa s lun
A	86:13 انه لقول فصل
Edip-Layth	86:14 It is not a thing for amusement.
The Monotheist Group	86:14 And it is not a thing for amusement.
Muhammad Asad	86:14 and is no idle tale.
Rashad Khalifa	86:14 Not to be taken lightly.
Shabbir Ahmed	86:14 It is not an amusing idle talk.
Transliteration	86:14 Wam a huwa bi alhazli
A	86:14 وما هو بالهزل
Edip-Layth	86:15 They are plotting a scheme.
The Monotheist Group	86:15 They are scheming their schemes.

Muhammad Asad	86:15 Behold, they [who refuse to accept it] devise many a false argument ⁶ [to disprove its truth];
Rashad Khalifa	86:15 They plot and scheme.
Shabbir Ahmed	86:15 Yet, they plot and scheme (to refute the truth 34:33).
Transliteration	86:15 Innahum yakeedoona kayd a n
A	86:15 انهم يكيون كيدا
Edip-Layth	86:16 And I plot a scheme.
The Monotheist Group	86:16 And I scheme a scheme.
Muhammad Asad	86:16 but I shall bring all their scheming to nought. ⁷
Rashad Khalifa	86:16 But so do I.
Shabbir Ahmed	86:16 But I work My Own design.
Transliteration	86:16 Waakeedu kayd a n
A	86:16 واكيد كيدا
Edip-Layth	86:17 So respite the ingrates, respite them for a while.
The Monotheist Group	86:17 So respite the rejecters, respite them for a while.
Muhammad Asad	86:17 Let, then, the deniers of the truth have their will: let them have their will for a little while.
Rashad Khalifa	86:17 Just respite the disbelievers a short respite.
Shabbir Ahmed	86:17 Therefore give the rejecters some time. Leave them alone for a while.
Transliteration	86:17 Famahhili alk a fireena amhilhum ruwayd a n
A	86:17 فمهل الكفرين امهلهم رويدا

<< Prev 86:1-17 Next >>

Return to top

End Notes

Edip-Layth - Quran: A Reformist Translation

Edip-Layth - End Note 1 (86:1)

For the function of oaths in the Quran, see 89:5.

Edip-Layth - End Note 2 (86:5)

Those who are not familiar with the function of oaths question the wisdom of God "swearing" to convince His audience. The Quran uses oaths to pull our attention to a particular object, concept or relationship. We could translate all oaths by starting with "I pull your attention to:." When we utter an oath we make God our witness. This testimony could work for us or against us depending on how accurate our position is. Thus, our use of God's name in our oaths has no bearing in proving our assertion or negation. We refer to oaths to persuade our audience by using our apparent relationship with God as consideration for contracts. If we are lying, our oath only increases the magnitude of our lie and thus increases our responsibility. The Quranic oaths, however, are not used to convince us; but to make us think. When God uses His creatures in His oaths, He pulls our attention to the signs in nature and scripture to encourage us and invite us to be rational, consistent, and logical. The Quran reminds us consistently that the God who authored the ayat (signs) of the book is the same God who created the ayat (signs) of the physical universe; both are products of the same God and share the same characteristics. Besides this important reminder, the objects, events and concepts used in oaths prepare our mind for the upcoming issues or theses; they provide aesthetic and semantic mental pictures and reference points. For instance, do the above oaths pull our attention to the ten-based and digital number systems? Is there a relationship between the fourth verse and 74:33? See 56:75; 69:38; 70:40; 75:1,2; 77:1-7; 79:1-5; 81:15-19; 84:16; 85:1-3; 86:1,11-13; 90:1; 91:1-8; 92:1-4; 93:1-3; 95:1-4; 100:1-6; 103:2.

Muhammad Asad - The Message Of Quran

Muhammad Asad - End Note 1 (86:1)

Some commentators assume that what is described here as at-tariq ("that which comes in the night") is the morning-star, because it appears towards the end of the night; others - like Zamakhshari or Raghīb - understand by it "the star" in its generic sense. Now if we analyze the origin of this noun, we find that it is derived from the verb taraqa, which primarily means "he beat [something]" or "knocked [at something]"; hence, taraqa 'l-bab, "he knocked at the door". Tropically, the noun signifies "anything [or "anyone"] that comes in the night", because a person who comes to a house by night is expected to knock at the door (Taj al-'Arus). In the Qur'anic mode of expression, at-tariq is evidently a metaphor for the heavenly solace which sometimes comes to a human being lost in the deepest darkness of affliction and distress; or for the sudden, intuitive enlightenment which disperses the darkness of uncertainty; or, finally, for divine revelation, which knocks, as it were, at the doors of man's heart.. and thus fulfils the functions of both solace and enlightenment. (For my rendering of the adjectival wa as "Consider", see surah 74, first half of note 23.)

Muhammad Asad - End Note 2 (86:4)

Lit., "there is no human being without a guardian [or "without a watch being kept] over it". See in this connection note 7 on 82:10-12.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 3 (86:7)

The plural noun tara'ib, rendered by me as "pelvic arch", has also the meaning of "ribs" or "arch of bones"; according to most of the authorities who have specialized in the etymology of rare Quranic expressions this term relates specifically to female anatomy (Taj al-'Arus).

Muhammad Asad - End Note 4 (86:11)

Sc., "And, finally, in order to grasp more fully God's power of creation and re-creation, consider. . .", etc.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 5 (86:13)

Lit., "a decisive word", or "word of distinction", i.e., between the true and the false - in this case, belief in a continuation of life after "death", on the one hand, and a denial of its possibility, on the other. (Cf.

37:21, 44:40, and 38, and 78:17, where Resurrection Day is spoken of as "the Day of Distinction"; see also note 6 on .)

Muhammad Asad - End Note 6 (86:15)

Lit., "devise [many] an artful scheme (kayd)"; see note 41 on 34:33, where "the almost synonymous term makr is used in the same sense.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 7 (86:16)

Lit., "I shall devise a [yet more subtle] scheme", sc., "to bring theirs to nought". The paraphrase adopted by me gives, according to all the authorities, the meaning of the above sentence.

Shabbir Ahmed -

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 1 (86:4)

The Law of Requitil is ever-vigilant

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 2 (86:5)

And realize the common origin of all mankind. Has there not passed over man an era when he was not even worth mentioning? 76:1

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 3 (86:6)

21:30, 24:25

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 4 (86:7)

Sulb = Hard = Tough = Strong, Rocky, as given in Taajil 'Uroos and Muheet. Turaab = Dust, with Turaab as its plural in Taajil Urus. Mountains, rocky as pegs, along with the glacier systems and snow tops and sources of rivers, have been described as water reservoirs in many verses: 13:3, 15:19, 31:10, 39:5, 77:27, 79:28-30, 88:20. For the origin of life on the planet and creation of the human being, including the beginning of life through water, dust, hydrated inorganic matter etc, herein are given some important references for the research minded reader: 4:1, 6:2, 6:38, 6:99, 7:11, 11:6, 11:61, 15:26, 21:30, 23:12-14, 24:45, 25:54, 30:20, 31:28, 32:7-9, 35:11, 36:77, 39:6, 40:64-67, 51:49, 53:45, 55:14, 71:14, 76:2-3, 86:5-7, 96:1-2. My rendition of three terms used in 86:6-7 respectfully differs from other translations. We know that disregarding the principle of Tasreef-il-Ayaat often hampers the Sublime Word. Now, here are those three terms along with their erroneous translations: -'Ma-in-Dafiq': A drop emitted, seminal fluid or gushing fluid. -'Sulb': Man's ribs, man's loins. - 'Turaib': Pelvic arch of woman, back-bone and the ribs of man, spine and the viscera of man and/or woman, sacrum of man or woman. But keeping in view the lexicon and the Tasreef given above, my humble rendition of these verses is probably more sound and reflects the original Magnificence to an extent

Best viewed using your own brain

Tested on 1024x768 resolution with  FIREFOX 2

Kitabun Marqum v0.6.7 - Kitabun Marqum - Quran Research Platform by QuraniX Team Copyright © 2002-2011 All rights reserved.
Copyrights of all translations belong to their respective authors.

49:6 O you who believe, if a wicked person brings any news to you, you shall first investigate, lest you commit injustice towards some people, out of ignorance, then become sorry and remorseful for what you have done.

Rashad Khalifa (The Final Testament)

 Translations ▼

 Chapter/Verse ▼

 Refresh

 Search

<< Prev 87:1-19 Next >>

Edip-Layth	In the name of God, the Gracious, the Compassionate. 87:1 Glorify the name of your Lord, the Most High.
The Monotheist Group	In the name of God, the Almighty, the Merciful. 87:1 Glorify the name of your Lord, the Most High.
Muhammad Asad	In the name of God, The Most Gracious, The Dispenser of Grace: 87:1 EXTOL the limitless glory of thy Sustainer's name:[the glory of] the Al-Highest,
Rashad Khalifa	In the name of GOD, Most Gracious, Most Merciful. 87:1 Glorify the name of your Lord, the Most High.
Shabbir Ahmed	BISMILLAH-IR-RAHMAN-IR-RAHEEM With the Glorious Name of God, the Ultimate Source of Instant Beneficence and Eternal mercy Who encompasses the entire Universe, nourishing and taking care of all things for what they are meant to be; just as a mother's womb nourishes the embryo to completion without any returns. 87:1 Strive to raise the Name of your Lord, the Most High. ¹
Transliteration	Bismi All a hi alrra h mani alrra h eemi 87:1 Sabb i hi isma rabbika al-aAA a
A	بِسْمِ اللَّهِ الرَّحْمَنِ الرَّحِيمِ 87:1 سَبِّحْ اسْمَ رَبِّكَ الْأَعْلَى
Edip-Layth	87:2 The One who created and designed.
The Monotheist Group	87:2 The One who created and developed.
	87:2 who creates [every thing], and thereupon forms it in accordance with what it

Muhammad Asad	is meant to be,
Rashad Khalifa	87:2 He creates and shapes.
Shabbir Ahmed	87:2 Who creates and proportions. ²
Transliteration	87:2 Alla thee khalaqa fasawwa
A	87:2 الذى خلق فسوى
Edip-Layth	87:3 The One who measured and then guided.
The Monotheist Group	87:3 And the One who measured and then guided.
Muhammad Asad	87:3 and who determines the nature [of all that exists], ² and thereupon guides it [towards its fulfilment],
Rashad Khalifa	87:3 He designs and guides.
Shabbir Ahmed	87:3 The One Who appoints due measure and then shows the way (to all things as to their functions.)
Transliteration	87:3 Wa alla thee qaddara fahada
A	87:3 والذى قدر فهدى
Edip-Layth	87:4 The One who brought out the pasture.
The Monotheist Group	87:4 And the One who brought out the pasture.
Muhammad Asad	87:4 and who brings forth herbage,
Rashad Khalifa	87:4 He produces the pasture.
Shabbir Ahmed	87:4 The One Who brings forth the lush pasture.
Transliteration	87:4 Wa alla thee akhraja almarAAa
A	87:4 والذى اخرج المرعى
Edip-Layth	87:5 So He made it dry up into hay.
The Monotheist Group	87:5 So He made it dry-up into hay.
Muhammad Asad	87:5 and thereupon causes it to decay into rust-brown stubble! ³
Rashad Khalifa	87:5 Then turns it into light hay.
Shabbir Ahmed	87:5 And then turns it into rust-brown residue. ³
Transliteration	87:5 FajaAAahu ghuthaan ah wa
A	87:5 فجعله غثاء احوى
Edip-Layth	87:6 We will make you study, so do not forget.
The Monotheist Group	87:6 We will convey to you, so do not forget.
Muhammad Asad	87:6 WE SHALL teach thee, and thou wilt not forget [aught of what thou art taught],

Rashad Khalifa	87:6 We will recite to you; do not forget.
Shabbir Ahmed	87:6 (O Messenger!) We shall teach you by degrees that you will never forget. ⁴
Transliteration	87:6 Sanuqri-oka fala tansa
A	87:6 سنقرئك فلا تنسى
Edip-Layth	87:7 Except for what God wills, He knows what is declared and what is hidden.
The Monotheist Group	87:7 Except for what God wills, He knows what is declared and what is hidden.
Muhammad Asad	87:7 save what God may will [thee to forget] ⁴ - for, verily, He [alone] knows all that is open to [man's] perception as well as all that is hidden [from it] ⁵
Rashad Khalifa	87:7 Everything is in accordance with GOD's will; He knows what is declared, and what is hidden.
Shabbir Ahmed	87:7 And God wills that you should never forget. Certainly, He knows all that is open to human perception as well as all that is hidden. ⁵
Transliteration	87:7 Illa ma shaq Allahuinnahu yaAAalamu aljahra wama yakhfa
A	87:7 الا ما شاء الله انه يعلم الجهر وما يخفى
Edip-Layth	87:8 We will make easy for you the way.
The Monotheist Group	87:8 And We will make easy for you the way.
Muhammad Asad	87:8 and [thus] shall We make easy for thee the path towards [ultimate] ease. ⁶
Rashad Khalifa	87:8 We will direct you to the easiest path.
Shabbir Ahmed	87:8 And thus We shall ease your way to the ultimate ease (that you will establish the Divine Order in the society).
Transliteration	87:8 Wanuyassiruka lilyusra
A	87:8 ونيسرك لليسرى
Edip-Layth	87:9 So remind, perhaps the reminder will help.
The Monotheist Group	87:9 So remind, perhaps the reminder will help.
Muhammad Asad	87:9 REMIND, THEN, [others of the truth, regardless of] whether this reminding [would seem to] be of use [or not]: ⁷
Rashad Khalifa	87:9 Therefore, you shall remind; perhaps the reminder will benefit.
Shabbir Ahmed	87:9 Therefore, keep reminding. For, beneficial is the reminder.
Transliteration	87:9 Fathakkir in nafaAAati alththikra
A	87:9 فذكر ان نفعت الذكرى
Edip-Layth	87:10 He who is reverent will remember.
The Monotheist Group	87:10 He who is reverent will remember.
Muhammad Asad	87:10 in mind will keep it he who stands in awe [of God],

Rashad Khalifa	87:10 The reverent will take heed.
Shabbir Ahmed	87:10 He will heed who fears (the consequences of his misdeeds).
Transliteration	87:10 Sayat h thakkaru man yakhshā
A	87:10 سينكر من يخشى
Edip-Layth	87:11 He who is wicked will avoid it.
The Monotheist Group	87:11 And he who is wicked will avoid it.
Muhammad Asad	87:11 but aloof from it will remain that most hapless wretch
Rashad Khalifa	87:11 The wicked will avoid it.
Shabbir Ahmed	87:11 And only the most unfortunate will avoid it.
Transliteration	87:11 Wayatajannabuhā al-ashqā
A	87:11 ويتجنبها الاشقى
Edip-Layth	87:12 He will enter the great fire.
The Monotheist Group	87:12 He will enter the great Fire.
Muhammad Asad	87:12 he who [in the life to come] shall have to endure the great fire
Rashad Khalifa	87:12 Consequently, he will suffer the great Hellfire.
Shabbir Ahmed	87:12 He who will be cast into the great fire.
Transliteration	87:12 Allat h ee yasla alnnaalkubra
A	87:12 الذى يصلى النار الكبرى
Edip-Layth	87:13 Then he will neither die in it nor live. ¹
The Monotheist Group	87:13 Then he will neither die in it nor live.
Muhammad Asad	87:13 wherein he will neither die nor remain alive. ⁸
Rashad Khalifa	87:13 Wherein he never dies, nor stays alive.
Shabbir Ahmed	87:13 Wherein he neither dies nor lives. ⁶
Transliteration	87:13 Thumma la yamootu fee h a walayahya
A	87:13 ثم لا يموت فيها ولا يحيى
Edip-Layth	87:14 Whosoever develops will succeed.
The Monotheist Group	87:14 Whosoever develops will succeed.
Muhammad Asad	87:14 To happiness [in the life to come] will indeed attain he who attains to purity [in this world],
Rashad Khalifa	87:14 Successful indeed is the one who redeems his soul.
Shabbir Ahmed	87:14 Successful is he who primes his own 'self' for development (by living a life upright, helping others).

Transliteration	87:14 Qad aflaha man tazakka
A	87:14 قد افلح من تركى
Edip-Layth	87:15 Remembers the name of his Lord, and reaches out.
The Monotheist Group	87:15 And remembers the name of his Lord, and communes.
Muhammad Asad	87:15 and remembers his Sustainer's name, and prays [unto Him].
Rashad Khalifa	87:15 By remembering the name of his Lord and observing the contact prayers (Salat).
Shabbir Ahmed	87:15 And keeps foremost in mind the Name and the Attributes of his Lord and then follows through. 7
Transliteration	87:15 Wa th akara isma rabbihi fa ^s alla
A	87:15 وذكر اسم ربه صلى
Edip-Layth	87:16 No, you desire the worldly life.
The Monotheist Group	87:16 No, you desire the worldly life.
Muhammad Asad	87:16 But nay, [O men,] you prefer the life of this world,
Rashad Khalifa	87:16 Indeed, you are preoccupied with this first life.
Shabbir Ahmed	87:16 But nay, you prefer the life of this world (given to instant gains instead of benefiting others that ensures success in both lives). 8
Transliteration	87:16 Bal tu/thiroona al ^h ayata alddunya
A	87:16 بل توثرون الحياة الدنيا
Edip-Layth	87:17 But the Hereafter is better and more lasting.
The Monotheist Group	87:17 But the Hereafter is better and more lasting.
Muhammad Asad	87:17 although the life to come is better and more enduring.
Rashad Khalifa	87:17 Even though the Hereafter is far better and everlasting.
Shabbir Ahmed	87:17 Although the Hereafter is better and more enduring.
Transliteration	87:17 Waal- ^a akhiratu khayrun waabqa
A	87:17 والـآخرة خير وابقى
Edip-Layth	87:18 This has been revealed in the previous scripts.
The Monotheist Group	87:18 This has been revealed in the previous scripts.
Muhammad Asad	87:18 Verily, [all] this has indeed been [said] in the earlier revelations
Rashad Khalifa	87:18 This is recorded in the earlier teachings.
Shabbir Ahmed	87:18 This has been said in the former revelations as well. 9
Transliteration	87:18 Inna ha th a lafee al ^{issu} hufial-oola
A

Edip-Layth	87:19 The scripts of Abraham and Moses.
The Monotheist Group	87:19 The scripts of Abraham and Moses.
Muhammad Asad	87:19 the revelations of Abraham and Moses. 9
Rashad Khalifa	87:19 The teachings of Abraham and Moses.
Shabbir Ahmed	87:19 The revelations of Abraham and Moses.
Transliteration	87:19 S uhufi i braheema wamoosa
A	87:19 صحف ابراهيم وموسى

<< Prev 87:1-19 Next >>

Return to top

End Notes

Shabbir Ahmed -

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 1 (87:1)

Establish His glory on earth. 56:96

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 2 (87:2)

So that all things might become what they are meant to be

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 3 (87:5)

18:45

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 4 (87:6)

Mankind need guidance like all things in the Universe do

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 5 (87:7)

17:86. He is Aware of man's manifest actions and his hidden potentials which can best be developed under Divine guidance. Therefore, the prophet never will forget what God teaches him. 73:2. Illa = Except = Save = But. It means 'Never' when applied to Divine will. So Illa here, as in many other verses, represents 'never', and not 'except'. 11:107-108, 39:68, 55:33, 87:6-7. Tafseer Al-Manar Vol 1 pg 414

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 6 (87:13)

Without Permanent Values people live an unlived life. And in both lives their own 'self' fail to make progress. The Qur'an terms as 'Hell' a life that is stagnant, and as 'Paradise' a life that is ever progressive. That is 'Immortality' as distinct from 'Survival' 14:17, 20:74, 74:28-29

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 7 (87:15)

'Ism' = Name = Attributes. 'Salu' = Follow closely. In the context here: trying to adopt the 'Hue' of God - absorb Divine attributes in one's personality, of course, in the limited human capacity 2:138, 83:28

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 8 (87:16)

2:201, 3:147, 4:134, 7:156, 10:64, 17:72, 28:77, 42:22

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 9 (87:18)

Suhuf = Scrolls = Revelations

Muhammad Asad - The Message Of Quran

Muhammad Asad - End Note (87:2)

Muhammad Asad - End Note 2 (87:3)

Cf. the last sentence of 25:2 and the corresponding note 3; also 20:50 and note 31.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 3 (87:5)

I.e., metonymically, "who brings forth life and deals death"

Muhammad Asad - End Note 4 (87:7)

The classical commentators assume that the above words are addressed specifically to the Prophet, and that, therefore, they relate to his being taught the Qur'an and being promised that he would not forget anything thereof, "save what God may will [thee to forget]". This last clause has ever since given much trouble to the commentators, inasmuch as it is not very plausible that He who has revealed the Qur'an to the Prophet should cause him to forget anything of it. Hence, many unconvincing explanations have been advanced from very early times down to our own days, the least convincing being that last refuge of every perplexed Qur'an-commentator, the "doctrine of abrogation" (refuted in my note 87 on 2:106). However, the supposed difficulty of interpretation disappears as soon as we allow ourselves to realize that the above passage, though ostensibly addressed to the Prophet, is directed at man in general, and that it is closely related to an earlier Qur'anic revelation - namely, the first five verses of surah 96 ("The Germ-Cell") and, in particular, verses 3-5, which speak of God's having "taught man what he did not know". In note 3 on those verses I have expressed the opinion that they allude to mankind's cumulative acquisition of empirical and rational knowledge, handed down from generation to generation and from one civilization to another: and it is to this very phenomenon that the present passage, too, refers. We are told here that God, who has formed man in accordance with what he is meant to be and has promised to guide him, will enable him to acquire (and thus, as it were, "impart" to him) elements of knowledge which mankind will accumulate, record and collectively "remember" - except what God may cause man to "forget" (in another word, to abandon) as having become redundant by virtue of his new experiences and his acquisition of wider, more differentiated elements of knowledge, empirical as well as deductive or speculative, including more advanced, empirically acquired skills. However, the very next sentence makes it clear that all knowledge arrived at through our observation of the external world and through speculation, though necessary and most valuable, is definitely limited in scope and does not, therefore, in itself suffice to give us an insight into ultimate truths.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 5 (87:7)

I.e., all that is intrinsically beyond the reach of human perception (al-ghayb): the implication being that, since human knowledge must forever remain imperfect, man cannot really find his way through life without the aid of divine revelation.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 6 (87:8)

I.e., towards an ease of the mind and peace of the spirit.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 7 (87:9)

Thus Baghawi, as well as Razi in one of his alternative interpretations of this phrase.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 8 (87:13)

I.e., in consequence of having remained aloof from the divine reminder. (Cf. 74:28-29.)

Muhammad Asad - End Note 9 (87:19)

These two names are given here only as examples of earlier prophetic revelations, thus stressing, once again, the twofold fact of continuity in mankind's religious experiences and of the identity of the basic truths preached by all the prophets. (cf. also 53:36 ff.) The noun suhuf (sing. saḥifah), which literally denotes "leaves [of a book]" or "scrolls", is synonymous with kitab in all the senses of this term (Jawhari): hence, in the above context, "revelations".

Edip-Layth - Quran: A Reformist Translation

Edip-Layth - End Note 1 (87:13)

Unlike Paradise, Hell itself is not eternal, while the people of hell will end up there for eternity. (See, the Appendix titled Eternal Hell and Merciful God?, which is also available at www.19.org or www.islamicreform.org).

Best viewed using your own brain

Tested on 1024x768 resolution with  FIREFOX 2

Kitabun Marqum v0.6.7 - Kitabun Marqum - Quran Research Platform by QuraniX Team Copyright © 2002-2011 All rights reserved.
Copyrights of all translations belong to their respective authors.

49:6 O you who believe, if a wicked person brings any news to you, you shall first investigate, lest you commit injustice towards some people, out of ignorance, then become sorry and remorseful for what you have done.

Rashad Khalifa (The Final Testament)

 Translations ▼

 Chapter/Verse ▼

 Refresh

 Search

<< Prev 88:1-26 Next >>

Edip-Layth	In the name of God, the Gracious, the Compassionate. 88:1 Has the news come to you of the Overwhelming?
The Monotheist Group	In the name of God, the Almighty, the Merciful. 88:1 Has the news come to you of that which will overwhelm?
Muhammad Asad	In the name of God, The Most Gracious, The Dispenser of Grace: 88:1 HAS THERE COME unto thee the tiding of the Overshadowing Event?' ¹
Rashad Khalifa	In the name of GOD, Most Gracious, Most Merciful. 88:1 Are you aware of the Overwhelming?
Shabbir Ahmed	BISMILLAH-IR-RAHMAN-IR-RAHEEM With the Glorious Name of God, the Ultimate Source of Instant Beneficence and Eternal mercy Who encompasses the entire Universe, nourishing and taking care of all things for what they are meant to be; just as a mother's womb nourishes the embryo to completion without any returns. 88:1 Has the news of the Dominating Event reached you?
Transliteration	Bismi Allāhi alrraḥmāni alrraḥeemi 88:1 Hal ataka ḥadeethu alghaṣhiyati
A	بِسْمِ اللَّهِ الرَّحْمَنِ الرَّحِيمِ 88:1 هل انتك حديث الغشية
Edip-Layth	88:2 Faces on that day will be desolate.
The Monotheist Group	88:2 Faces on that Day which will be shamed.
Muhammad Asad	88:2 Some faces will on that Day be downcast,

Rashad Khalifa	88:2 Faces on that day will be shamed.
Shabbir Ahmed	88:2 Some faces on that Day will be downcast.
Transliteration	88:2 Wujoo <hun< h=""> yawma-i^hin khashiAAatun</hun<>
A	88:2 وجوه يومئذ خشعة
Edip-Layth	88:3 Laboring and weary.
The Monotheist Group	88:3 Laboring and weary.
Muhammad Asad	88:3 toiling [under burdens of sin], worn out [by fear],
Rashad Khalifa	88:3 Laboring and exhausted.
Shabbir Ahmed	88:3 Laboring, exhausted. ¹
Transliteration	88:3 AAaamilatun nasibatun
A	88:3 عاملة ناصبة
Edip-Layth	88:4 They will enter a blazing fire.
The Monotheist Group	88:4 They will enter a blazing Fire.
Muhammad Asad	88:4 about to enter a glowing fire,
Rashad Khalifa	88:4 Suffering in a blazing Hellfire.
Shabbir Ahmed	88:4 As they enter a sizzling fire.
Transliteration	88:4 Tasla naran hamiyatan
A	88:4 تصلى نارا حامية
Edip-Layth	88:5 Be given to drink from a boiling spring.
The Monotheist Group	88:5 And be given to drink from a boiling spring.
Muhammad Asad	88:5 given to drink from a boiling spring.
Rashad Khalifa	88:5 Drinking from a flaming spring.
Shabbir Ahmed	88:5 Given to drink from a spring of burning anguish.
Transliteration	88:5 Tusqa min AAaynin aniyatin
A	88:5 تسقى من عين اائية
Edip-Layth	88:6 They will have no food except from a thorny plant.
The Monotheist Group	88:6 They will have no food except from a thorny plant.
Muhammad Asad	88:6 No food for them save the bitterness of dry thorns,
Rashad Khalifa	88:6 They will have no food except the useless variety.
Shabbir Ahmed	88:6 No food for them but the bitter thorny plant. ²
Transliteration	88:6 Laysa lahum taAAamun illamin dareeAAain

A	88:6 ليس لهم طعام الا من ضريع
Edip-Layth	88:7 It does not nourish nor avail against hunger.
The Monotheist Group	88:7 It does not nourish nor avail against hunger.
Muhammad Asad	88:7 which gives no strength and neither stills hunger. ²
Rashad Khalifa	88:7 It never nourishes, nor satisfies hunger.
Shabbir Ahmed	88:7 Which nourishes not, nor relieves hunger.
Transliteration	88:7 La yusminu wala yughnee minjooAAin
A	88:7 لا يسمن ولا يغنى من جوع
Edip-Layth	88:8 Faces on that day are joyful.
The Monotheist Group	88:8 And faces on that Day which are soft.
Muhammad Asad	88:8 [And] some faces will on that Day shine with bliss,
Rashad Khalifa	88:8 Other faces on that day will be full of joy.
Shabbir Ahmed	88:8 On that Day some faces will shine with bliss.
Transliteration	88:8 Wujoo hun yawma-ithin naAAimatun
A	88:8 وجوه يومئذ ناعمة
Edip-Layth	88:9 For their pursuit they are content.
The Monotheist Group	88:9 For their pursuit they are content.
Muhammad Asad	88:9 well-pleased with [the fruit of] their striving,
Rashad Khalifa	88:9 Satisfied with their work.
Shabbir Ahmed	88:9 Happy with the fruit of their effort.
Transliteration	88:9 LisaAAyiha radiyatun
A	88:9 لسعيها راضية
Edip-Layth	88:10 In a high paradise.
The Monotheist Group	88:10 In a high paradise.
Muhammad Asad	88:10 in a garden sublime,
Rashad Khalifa	88:10 In an exalted Paradise.
Shabbir Ahmed	88:10 In a Garden exalted in honor.
Transliteration	88:10 Fee jannatin AAaliyatun
A	88:10 فى جنة عالية
Edip-Layth	88:11 You will not hear in it any nonsense.
The Monotheist Group	88:11 You will not hear in it any nonsense.

Muhammad Asad	88:11 wherein thou wilt hear no empty talk.
Rashad Khalifa	88:11 In it, no nonsense is heard.
Shabbir Ahmed	88:11 Wherein you hear not senseless speech.
Transliteration	88:11 La tasmaAAu feeha laghiyatun
A	88:11 لا تسمع فيها لغية
Edip-Layth	88:12 In it is a running spring.
The Monotheist Group	88:12 In it is a running spring.
Muhammad Asad	88:12 Countless springs ³ will flow therein,
Rashad Khalifa	88:12 In it, a spring flows.
Shabbir Ahmed	88:12 Therein is an ever-flowing Spring (of grace 76:16-17).
Transliteration	88:12 Feeha AAaynun jariyatun
A	88:12 فيها عين جارية
Edip-Layth	88:13 In it are raised beds.
The Monotheist Group	88:13 In it are raised beds.
Muhammad Asad	88:13 [and] there will be thrones [of happiness] raised high, ⁴
Rashad Khalifa	88:13 In it, there are luxurious furnishings.
Shabbir Ahmed	88:13 Therein are thrones of honor.
Transliteration	88:13 Feeha sururun marfooAAatun
A	88:13 فيها سرر مرفوعة
Edip-Layth	88:14 Cups that are set.
The Monotheist Group	88:14 And cups that are set.
Muhammad Asad	88:14 and goblets placed ready,
Rashad Khalifa	88:14 And drinks made available.
Shabbir Ahmed	88:14 And shiny glasses set at hand.
Transliteration	88:14 Waakwabun mawdooAAatun
A	88:14 واكواب موضوعة
Edip-Layth	88:15 Cushions arranged in rows.
The Monotheist Group	88:15 And cushions arranged in rows.
Muhammad Asad	88:15 and cushions ranged,
Rashad Khalifa	88:15 And pitchers in rows.
Shabbir Ahmed	88:15 And cushions set in rows.
Transliteration	88:15 Wanamariqu masfoofatun

A	88:15 ونمارق مصفوفة
Edip-Layth	88:16 Rich carpets spread out.
The Monotheist Group	88:16 And rich carpets spread out.
Muhammad Asad	88:16 and carpets spread out
Rashad Khalifa	88:16 And carpets throughout.
Shabbir Ahmed	88:16 And silken carpets spread out.
Transliteration	88:16 Wazarabiyyu mabthoothatun
A	88:16 وزرابى ماثوثة
Edip-Layth	88:17 Will they not look at the camels/clouds, how are they created?
The Monotheist Group	88:17 Will they not look at the camels, how were they created?
Muhammad Asad	88:17 DO, THEN, they [who deny resurrection] never gaze at the clouds pregnant with water, [and observe] how they are created? 5
Rashad Khalifa	88:17 Why do they not reflect on the camels and how they are created?
Shabbir Ahmed	88:17 Will they not, then, reflect on: - the water-laden clouds, how they are made? 3
Transliteration	88:17 Afala yan <th>u</th> roona ilaal-ibili kayfa khuliqat	u
A	88:17 افلا ينظرون الى الابل كيف خلقت
Edip-Layth	88:18 To the sky, how is it raised?
The Monotheist Group	88:18 And to the sky, how was it raised?
Muhammad Asad	88:18 And at the sky, how it is raised aloft?
Rashad Khalifa	88:18 And the sky and how it is raised.
Shabbir Ahmed	88:18 - And at the sky, how it is raised high? 4
Transliteration	88:18 Wa-ilā alssamā-i kayfarufiAAat
A	88:18 والى السماء كيف رفعت
Edip-Layth	88:19 To the mountains, how was it set?
The Monotheist Group	88:19 And to the mountains, how were they set?
Muhammad Asad	88:19 And at the mountains, how firmly they are reared?
Rashad Khalifa	88:19 And the mountains and how they are constructed.
Shabbir Ahmed	88:19 - And at the mountains, how they are entrenched?
Transliteration	88:19 Wa-ilā aljibālī kayfa nuṣibat
A	88:19 والى الجبال كيف نصبت

Edip-Layth	88:20 To the land, how was it flattened?
The Monotheist Group	88:20 And to the land, how was it flattened?
Muhammad Asad	88:20 And at the earth, how it is spread out?
Rashad Khalifa	88:20 And the earth and how it is built.
Shabbir Ahmed	88:20 - And at the earth, how it is spread out? ⁵
Transliteration	88:20 Wa-ilā al-arḍi kayfa suṭihat
A	88:20 والى الارض كيف سطحت
Edip-Layth	88:21 So remind, for you are but a reminder.
The Monotheist Group	88:21 So remind, for you are but a reminder.
Muhammad Asad	88:21 And so, [O Prophet,] exhort them; thy task is only to exhort:
Rashad Khalifa	88:21 You shall remind, for your mission is to deliver this reminder.
Shabbir Ahmed	88:21 * Remind them, for, you are one to remind.
Transliteration	88:21 Faṭḥakkir innama anta muṭḥakkirun
A	88:21 فذكر انما انت مذكر
Edip-Layth	88:22 You have no power over them.
The Monotheist Group	88:22 You have no power over them.
Muhammad Asad	88:22 thou canst not compel them [to believe]. ⁶
Rashad Khalifa	88:22 You have no power over them.
Shabbir Ahmed	88:22 You are not a task master over them.
Transliteration	88:22 Lasta AAalayhim bimusaṭṭirin
A	88:22 لست عليهم بمسيطر
Edip-Layth	88:23 Except for he who turns away and rejects.
The Monotheist Group	88:23 Except for he who turns away and rejects.
Muhammad Asad	88:23 However, as for him who turns away, being bent on denying the truth,
Rashad Khalifa	88:23 As for those who turn away and disbelieve.
Shabbir Ahmed	88:23 But whoever turns away and denies the truth,
Transliteration	88:23 Illā man tawallā wakafara
A	88:23 الا من تولى وكفر
Edip-Layth	88:24 Then God will punish him with the great retribution.
The Monotheist Group	88:24 Then God will punish him with the great retribution.
Muhammad Asad	88:24 him will God cause to suffer the greatest suffering [in the life to come]:
Rashad Khalifa	88:24 GOD will commit them to the great retribution.

Shabbir Ahmed	88:24 God will requite him with a great requital.
Transliteration	88:24 FayuAAaththibuhu Allahu alAAathabaal-akbara
A	88:24 فيعذبه الله العذاب الاكبر
Edip-Layth	88:25 Indeed, to Us is their return.
The Monotheist Group	88:25 Indeed, to Us is their return.
Muhammad Asad	88:25 for behold, unto Us will be their return,
Rashad Khalifa	88:25 To us is their ultimate destiny.
Shabbir Ahmed	88:25 Indeed, to Us is their return.
Transliteration	88:25 Inna ilayna iyabahum
A	88:25 ان الينا اياهم
Edip-Layth	88:26 Then to Us is their judgment.
The Monotheist Group	88:26 Then to Us is their judgment.
Muhammad Asad	88:26 and verily, It is for Us to call them to account.
Rashad Khalifa	88:26 Then we will call them to account.
Shabbir Ahmed	88:26 Then it is for Us to call them to account.
Transliteration	88:26 Thumma inna AAalayn a hisabahum
A	88:26 ثم ان علينا حسابهم

<< Prev 88:1-26 Next >>

Return to top

End Notes

Muhammad Asad - The Message Of Quran

Muhammad Asad - End Note 1 (88:1)

I.e., the Day of Resurrection.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 2 (88:7)

According to Al-Qiffal (as quoted by Razi), this kind of hellish drink and food is a metonym for utter hopelessness and abasement. As regards the noun dari' - which is said to be a bitter, thorny plant in its dried state (Jawhari) - it is to be borne in mind that it is derived from the verb dara'a or dari'a, which signifies "he [or "it"] became abject" or "abased" (ibid.): hence my rendering of this (obviously metaphorical) expression as "the bitterness of dry thorns". A similarly metaphorical meaning attaches to the expression "a boiling spring" in verse 5, which recalls the term hamim so often mentioned in the Qur'an (see note 62 on the last sentence of 6:70).

Muhammad Asad - End Note 3 (88:12)

Lit., "a spring" - but, as Zamakhshari and Ibn Kathir point out, the singular form has here a generic import, implying "a multitude of springs". This metaphor of the life-giving element is analogous to that of the "running waters" (anhar) frequently mentioned in Qur'anic descriptions of paradise.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 4 (88:13)

See note 34 on 15:47.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 5 (88:17)

Implying that a denial of resurrection and life in the hereafter renders the concept of a conscious Creator utterly meaningless; hence my interpretation of the words "who deny resurrection" in the first part of this verse. - As regards the noun ibil, it denotes, as a rule, "camels": a generic plural which has no singular form. But one must remember that it also signifies "clouds bearing rain-water" (Lisan al-'Arab, Qamus, Taj al-'Arus) - a meaning which is preferable in the present context. If the term were used in the sense of "camels", the reference to it in the above verse would have been primarily - if not exclusively - addressed to the Arabian contemporaries of the Prophet, to whom the camel was always an object of admiration on account of its outstanding endurance, the many uses to which it could be put (riding, load-bearing, and as a source of milk, flesh and fine wool) and its indispensability to people living amid deserts. But precisely because a reference to "camels" would restrict its significance to people of a particular environment and a particular time (without even the benefit of a historical allusion to past events), it must be ruled out here, for the Qur'anic appeals to observe the wonders of the God-created universe are invariably directed at people of all times and all environments. Hence, there is every reason to assume that the term ibil relates here not to camels but to "clouds pregnant with water": the more so as such an allusion to the miraculous, cyclic process of the evaporation of water, the skyward ascension of vapour, its condensation and, finally, its precipitation over the earth is definitely more in tune with the subsequent mention (in verses 18-20) of sky, mountains and earth, than would be a reference to "camels", however admirable and noteworthy these animals may be.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 6 (88:22)

Lit., "thou hast no power over them".

Shabbir Ahmed -

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 1 (88:3)

They were in motion without action and toiled without direction

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 2 (88:6)

They hurt others in the worldly life

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 3 (88:17)

15:22

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 4 (88:18)

Without visible pillars. 13:2

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 5 (88:20)

That you do not even feel the curvature, nor feel its speedy rotations 31:10, 39:5, 79:28-30

Best viewed using your own brain

Tested on 1024x768 resolution with  FIREFOX 2

Kitabun Marqum v0.6.7 - Kitabun Marqum - Quran Research Platform by QuraniX Team Copyright © 2002-2011 All rights reserved.
Copyrights of all translations belong to their respective authors.

49:6 O you who believe, if a wicked person brings any news to you, you shall first investigate, lest you commit injustice towards some people, out of ignorance, then become sorry and remorseful for what you have done.

Rashad Khalifa (The Final Testament)

 Translations ▼

 Chapter/Verse ▼

 Refresh

 Search

<< Prev 89:1-30 Next >>

Edip-Layth	In the name of God, the Gracious, the Compassionate. 89:1 By the dawn.
The Monotheist Group	In the name of God, the Almighty, the Merciful. 89:1 By the dawn.
Muhammad Asad	In the name of God, The Most Gracious, The Dispenser of Grace: 89:1 CONSIDER the daybreak
Rashad Khalifa	In the name of GOD, Most Gracious, Most Merciful. 89:1 By the dawn.
Shabbir Ahmed	BISMILLAH-IR-RAHMAN-IR-RAHEEM With the Glorious Name of God, the Ultimate Source of Instant Beneficence and Eternal mercy Who encompasses the entire Universe, nourishing and taking care of all things for what they are meant to be; just as a mother's womb nourishes the embryo to completion without any returns. 89:1 Witness is the Daybreak. ¹
Transliteration	Bismi All a hi al r rah m ani al r rah e emi 89:1 Waalfajri
A	بسم الله الرحمن الرحيم 89:1 والفجر
Edip-Layth	89:2 The ten nights.
The Monotheist Group	89:2 And the ten nights.
Muhammad Asad	89:2 and the ten nights! ¹

Rashad Khalifa	89:2 And the ten nights. ¹
Shabbir Ahmed	89:2 And ten Nights. ²
Transliteration	89:2 Walay a lin AAashri n
A	89:2 وليال عشر
Edip-Layth	89:3 The even and the odd.
The Monotheist Group	89:3 And the even and the odd.
Muhammad Asad	89:3 Consider the multiple and the One! ²
Rashad Khalifa	89:3 By the even and the odd. ²
Shabbir Ahmed	89:3 And the Even and the Odd. ³
Transliteration	89:3 Wa a lshshafAAi wa a lwatri
A	89:3 والشفع والوتر
Edip-Layth	89:4 The night when it passes.
The Monotheist Group	89:4 And the night when it passes.
Muhammad Asad	89:4 Consider the night as it runs its course! ³
Rashad Khalifa	89:4 By the night as it passes.
Shabbir Ahmed	89:4 And Witness to the truth is the departing of the Night of Ignorance.
Transliteration	89:4 Wa a llayli i th a yasri
A	89:4 واليل اذا يسر
Edip-Layth	89:5 In this is an oath for the one with intelligence.
The Monotheist Group	89:5 In this is an oath for the one with intelligence.
Muhammad Asad	89:5 Considering all this - could there be, to anyone endowed with reason, a [more] solemn evidence of the truth? ⁴
Rashad Khalifa	89:5 A profound oath, for one who possesses intelligence.
Shabbir Ahmed	89:5 Is not all this a solemn evidence for every thinking person?
Transliteration	89:5 Hal fee th alika qasamun li th ee hi j ri n
A	89:5 هل فى ذلك قسم لذى حجر
Edip-Layth	89:6 Did you not see what your Lord did to Aad?
The Monotheist Group	89:6 Did you not see what your Lord did to 'Aad?
Muhammad Asad	89:6 ART THOU NOT aware of how thy Sustainer has dealt with [the tribe of] 'Ad, ⁵
Rashad Khalifa	89:6 Have you noted what your Lord did to `Aad?

Shabbir Ahmed	89:6 Have you noted how your Lord dealt with 'Aad? ⁴
Transliteration	89:6 Alam tara kayfa faAAala rabbuka biAAa d in
A	89:6 ألم تر كيف فعل ربك بعاد
Edip-Layth	89:7 Iram, with the great columns? ²
The Monotheist Group	89:7 Irum, with the great columns?
Muhammad Asad	89:7 [the people of] Iram the many-pillared,
Rashad Khalifa	89:7 Erum; the town with tall buildings.
Shabbir Ahmed	89:7 Those whose capital was Iram, the city of towers and lofty mansions. ⁵
Transliteration	89:7 Irama th ati alAAaim a di
A	89:7 ارم ذات العماد
Edip-Layth	89:8 The one which was like no other in the land?
The Monotheist Group	89:8 The one which was like no other in the land?
Muhammad Asad	89:8 the like of whom has never been reared in all the land?
Rashad Khalifa	89:8 There was nothing like it anywhere.
Shabbir Ahmed	89:8 The like of which (the towers and castles) were never built in other cities. ⁶
Transliteration	89:8 Allatee lam yukhlaq mithlu h a fee albil a di
A	89:8 التى لم يخلق مثلها فى البلد
Edip-Layth	89:9 Thamud who carved the rocks in the valley?
The Monotheist Group	89:9 And Thamud who carved the rocks in the valley?
Muhammad Asad	89:9 and with [the tribe of] Thamud, ⁶ who hollowed out rocks in the valley?
Rashad Khalifa	89:9 Also Thamoud, who carved the rocks in their valley.
Shabbir Ahmed	89:9 And with Thamud, who carved out rocks for dwellings in the valley. ⁷
Transliteration	89:9 Wathamooda alla th eena j aboo al ss akhrabialw a di
A	89:9 وثمود الذين جابوا الصخر بالواد
Edip-Layth	89:10 And Pharaoh with the pyramids?
The Monotheist Group	89:10 And Pharaoh with the planks?
Muhammad Asad	89:10 and with Pharaoh of the [many] tent-poles? ⁷
Rashad Khalifa	89:10 And Pharaoh who possessed might.
Shabbir Ahmed	89:10 And with the powerful Pharaoh of the great Pyramids. ⁸
Transliteration	89:10 WafirAAawna th ee al-awt a di

A
Edip-Layth	89:11 They all transgressed in the land.
The Monotheist Group	89:11 They all transgressed in the land.
Muhammad Asad	89:11 [It was they] who transgressed all bounds of equity all over their lands,
Rashad Khalifa	89:11 They all transgressed in the land.
Shabbir Ahmed	89:11 They all played God in the land, towns and cities. 9
Transliteration	89:11 Allat h eena taghaw fee albil a di

Edip-Layth	89:12 Made much corruption therein.
The Monotheist Group	89:12 And made much corruption therein.
Muhammad Asad	89:12 and brought about great corruption therein:
Rashad Khalifa	89:12 They spread evil throughout.
Shabbir Ahmed	89:12 And increased corruption and crime therein.
Transliteration	89:12 Faaktharoo fee h a alfas a da

Edip-Layth	89:13 So your Lord poured upon them a measure of retribution. 3
The Monotheist Group	89:13 So your Lord poured upon them a measure of retribution.
Muhammad Asad	89:13 and therefore thy Sustainer let loose upon them a scourge of suffering:
Rashad Khalifa	89:13 Consequently, your Lord poured upon them a whipping retribution.
Shabbir Ahmed	89:13 And so, your Lord chastised them with a whipping punishment.
Transliteration	89:13 Fa s abba AAalayhim rabbuka saw t aAAa th abin

Edip-Layth	89:14 Your Lord is ever watchful.
The Monotheist Group	89:14 Your Lord is ever watchful.
Muhammad Asad	89:14 for, verily, thy Sustainer is ever on the watch!
Rashad Khalifa	89:14 Your Lord is ever watchful.
Shabbir Ahmed	89:14 Indeed, your Lord is ever on the watch!
Transliteration	89:14 Inna rabbaka labi a lmir s adi

Edip-Layth	89:15 As for man, if his Lord tests him and grants him much, then he says: "My Lord has blessed me!"
	89:15 As for man, if his Lord tests him and grants him much, then he says: "My

The Monotheist Group	Lord has blessed me!"
Muhammad Asad	89:15 BUT AS FOR man, ⁸ whenever his Sustainer tries him by His generosity and by letting him enjoy a life of ease, he says, "My Sustainer has been [justly] generous towards me"; ⁹
Rashad Khalifa	89:15 When the human being is tested by his Lord, through blessings and joy, he says, "My Lord is generous towards me."
Shabbir Ahmed	89:15 But as for man, whenever his Lord lets his life take a turn by giving him honor and bliss, he says, "My Lord has honored me." ¹⁰
Transliteration	89:15 Faamma al-insanu itha maibtalahu rabbuhu faakramahu wanaAAAAamahu fayaqoolu rabbeeakramani
A	89:15 فاما الانسن اذا ما ابتله ربه فاكرمه ونعمه فيقول ربى اكرمن
Edip-Layth	89:16 If his Lord tests him and gives him little wealth, then he says: "My Lord has humiliated me!"
The Monotheist Group	89:16 And if his Lord tests him and gives him little wealth, then he says: "My Lord has humiliated me!"
Muhammad Asad	89:16 whereas, whenever He tries him by straitening his means of livelihood, he says, "My Sustainer has disgraced me!" ¹⁰
Rashad Khalifa	89:16 But if He tests him through reduction in provisions, he says, "My Lord is humiliating me!"
Shabbir Ahmed	89:16 But when He lets his life take a turn by restricting his provision, he says, "My Lord has disgraced me."
Transliteration	89:16 Waamma i tha m a ibtal ahufaqadara AAalayhi rizqahu fayaqoolu rabbee ahnanani
A	89:16 واما اذا ما ابتله فقدر عليه رزقه فيقول ربى اهنن
Edip-Layth	89:17 No, you are not generous to the orphan.
The Monotheist Group	89:17 No, you are not generous to the orphan.
Muhammad Asad	89:17 But nay, nay, [O men, consider all that you do and fail to do:] you are not generous towards the orphan,
Rashad Khalifa	89:17 Wrong! It is you who brought it on yourselves by not regarding the orphan.
Shabbir Ahmed	89:17 Nay, nay, you do not honor the orphan. ¹¹
Transliteration	89:17 Kalla bal la tukrimoonaalyateema
A	89:17 كلا بل لا تكرمون اليتيم
Edip-Layth	89:18 You do not look to feeding the poor.
The Monotheist Group	89:18 And you do not look to feeding the poor.
Muhammad Asad	89:18 and you do not urge one another to feed the needy, ¹¹
Rashad Khalifa	89:18 And not advocating charity towards the poor.

Shabbir Ahmed	89:18 And you fail to encourage one another to feed the needy (and establish a benevolent society). ¹²
Transliteration	89:18 Wala ta haddoona AAala taAAa mialmiskeen i
A	89:18 ولا تحضون على طعام المسكين
Edip-Layth	89:19 You consume others inheritance, all with greed.
The Monotheist Group	89:19 And you consume others inheritance, all with greed.
Muhammad Asad	89:19 and you devour the inheritance [of others] with devouring greed,
Rashad Khalifa	89:19 And consuming the inheritance of helpless orphans.
Shabbir Ahmed	89:19 And you devour the inheritances with greed.
Transliteration	89:19 Wata/ kuloona al ttur a tha ak lan la mma n
A	89:19 وتاكلون التراث اكلا لما
Edip-Layth	89:20 You love money, a love that is excessive.
The Monotheist Group	89:20 And you love money, a love that is excessive.
Muhammad Asad	89:20 and you love wealth with boundless love!
Rashad Khalifa	89:20 And loving the money too much.
Shabbir Ahmed	89:20 And you love wealth with boundless love.
Transliteration	89:20 Watu hibboona al ma la hub ba n ja mma n
A	89:20 وتحبون المال حبا جما
Edip-Layth	89:21 No, when the earth is pounded into rubble.
The Monotheist Group	89:21 Alas, when the Earth is pounded into rubble.
Muhammad Asad	89:21 Nay, but [how will you fare on Judgment Day,] when the earth is crushed with crushing upon crushing,
Rashad Khalifa	89:21 Indeed, when the earth is crushed, utterly crushed.
Shabbir Ahmed	89:21 Nay, when the earth is pounded into rubble.
Transliteration	89:21 Kalla i th a duk ka ti al- ar du da kk a n
A	89:21 كلا اذا دكت الارض دكا دكا
Edip-Layth	89:22 Your Lord comes with the angels row after row.
The Monotheist Group	89:22 And your Lord comes with the angels row after row.
Muhammad Asad	89:22 and [the majesty of] thy Sustainer stands revealed, ¹² as well as [the true nature of] the angels; rank upon rank?
Rashad Khalifa	89:22 And your Lord comes, together with the angels in row after row.
Shabbir Ahmed	89:22 And your Lord comes, and His angels, rank upon rank. ¹³
Transliteration	89:22 Waj a a rab b u ka waal ma la ku sa ff a n sa ff a n

A	89:22 وجاء ربك والملك صفا صفا
Edip-Layth	89:23 Hell on that day is brought. On that day the human being will remember, but how will the remembrance now help him?
The Monotheist Group	89:23 And Hell on that Day is brought. On that Day man will remember, but how will the remembrance now help him?
Muhammad Asad	89:23 And on that Day hell will be brought [within sight]; on that Day man will remember [all that he did and failed to do]: but what will that remembrance avail him?
Rashad Khalifa	89:23 On that day, Gehenna will be brought forth. On that day, the human being will remember - but what a remembrance - it will be too late.
Shabbir Ahmed	89:23 And Hell is brought close that Day. On that Day man will heed the Advisory, but of what avail will then be the remembrance?
Transliteration	89:23 Wajee-a yawma-i thin bijahannamayawma-i thin yata thakkaru al-ins anu waann al ahu al th thikra
A	89:23 وجاء يومئذ بجهنم يومئذ يتذكر الانسن واني له الذكرى
Edip-Layth	89:24 He says: "I wish I had worked towards my life!"
The Monotheist Group	89:24 He says: "I wish I had worked towards my life!"
Muhammad Asad	89:24 He will say, "Oh, would that I had. provided beforehand for my life [to come]!"
Rashad Khalifa	89:24 He will say, "Oh, I wish I prepared for my (eternal) life."
Shabbir Ahmed	89:24 He will say, "Ah, I wish I had sent forth some good for my life!"
Transliteration	89:24 Yaqoolu ya laytane qaddamtu li hay atee
A	89:24 يقول يليتني قدمت لحياتي
Edip-Layth	89:25 On that day, no other will bear his punishment.
The Monotheist Group	89:25 On that Day, no other will bear his punishment.
Muhammad Asad	89:25 For, none can make suffer as He will make suffer [the sinners] on that Day,
Rashad Khalifa	89:25 On that day, no retribution could be worse than His retribution.
Shabbir Ahmed	89:25 None chastises as He will chastise on that Day.
Transliteration	89:25 Fayawma-i thin la yuAAa th thibuAAa th abahu a h adun
A	89:25 فيومئذ لا يعذب عذابه احد
Edip-Layth	89:26 Nor will anyone be able to free his bonds.
The Monotheist Group	89:26 Nor will anyone be able to free his bonds.
Muhammad Asad	89:26 and none can bind with bonds like His. 13
Rashad Khalifa	89:26 And no confinement is as effective as His confinement.

Shabbir Ahmed	89:26 And none binds as He binds. 14
Transliteration	89:26 Walā yoothiqu wathāqahu aḥadun
A	89:26 ولا يوثق وثاقه احد
Edip-Layth	89:27 "As for you, O the content person."
The Monotheist Group	89:27 "O you soul which is peaceful."
Muhammad Asad	89:27 [But unto the righteous God will say,] "O thou human being that hast attained to inner peace!
Rashad Khalifa	89:27 As for you, O content soul.
Shabbir Ahmed	89:27 But Oh! You human beings that have attained inner peace! 15
Transliteration	89:27 Ya ayyatuhā alInnafsualmuṭma-innatu
A	89:27 يابيتها النفس المطمئنة
Edip-Layth	89:28 "Return to your Lord pleasing and pleased."
The Monotheist Group	89:28 "Return to your Lord happy and content."
Muhammad Asad	89:28 Return thou unto thy Sustainer, well-pleased [and] pleasing [Him]:
Rashad Khalifa	89:28 Return to your Lord, pleased and pleasing.
Shabbir Ahmed	89:28 Return to your Lord, pleased and approved.
Transliteration	89:28 IrjiAAee ilā rabbiki raḍiyyatanmarḍiyyatan
A	89:28 ارجعى الى ربك راضية مرضية
Edip-Layth	89:29 "Enter in amongst My servants."
The Monotheist Group	89:29 "And enter in amongst My servants."
Muhammad Asad	89:29 enter, then, together with My [other true] servants
Rashad Khalifa	89:29 Welcome into My servants.
Shabbir Ahmed	89:29 Enter, then, together with My servants.
Transliteration	89:29 Faodkhulee fee AAibadee
A	89:29 فادخلى فى عبدى
Edip-Layth	89:30 "Enter My Paradise."
The Monotheist Group	89:30 "And enter My Paradise."
Muhammad Asad	89:30 yea, enter thou My paradise!"
Rashad Khalifa	89:30 Welcome into My Paradise.
Shabbir Ahmed	89:30 Yes, enter My Paradise! 16
Transliteration	89:30 Waodkhulee jannatee
A	89:30 وادخلى جنتى

Return to top

End Notes

Shabbir Ahmed -

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 1 (89:1)

As it shines through the deep darkness of the night. So does the Qur'an bring light through the Darkness of Ignorance

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 2 (89:2)

You have noticed the benevolent transformation your Pilgrimage has undergone. From the first to the tenth of the month of Zilhijjah, you used to indulge in all kind of obscenity. Had you not departed from the way of Abraham, with your Hajj consisting of whistling, clapping, circumambulating the Ka'bah in complete nudity? The sublime purpose of the Pilgrimage had been reduced to senseless rituals and abominations 2:125-127, 2:197

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 3 (89:3)

Recall your gambling in those ten nights with the even and odd numbers of arrows and the related numeric superstitions in the society

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 4 (89:6)

They had refused to acknowledge the truth and violated human rights. 7:65-72

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 5 (89:7)

Iram were the generation of Iram son of Sam son of Noah. The capital of the tribe of 'Aad bears the same name, Iram, and now lies buried in Al-Ahqaf, the Sand-dunes of Southern Arabia. 46:21

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 6 (89:8)

26:128-134

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 7 (89:9)

Wadi-al-Qura. 7:74, 15:82

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 8 (89:10)

20:43, 38:12, 43:78-79. Zil-awtad = Lord of stakes = A mighty emperor = Owner of many tents with pegs well-dug into the ground = Owner of the Pyramids. God's law is also the law of nature and the rise and fall of nations is fully subject to it

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 9 (89:11)

Tagha = Crossing limits = Transgressing law = Trespassing = Being rebellious = Ignoring Permanent Values = Behaving arrogantly = Being Taaghoot or false god = Playing God 2:256, 4:60, 4:76, 16:36

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 10 (89:15)

Honor or disgrace are subject to Divine laws

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 11 (89:17)

You forget to realize your acts of commission and omission. Yateem = Orphan = Widow = Left alone in the society = Helpless. A benevolent society makes room for the 'Yateem'

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 12 (89:18)

The term used for 'feeding' is highly inclusive. Here it indicates failing to establish the ideal society that takes care of all individuals. Miskeen = Poor = Needy = Whose life is stranded for any reason = Whose business has stalled = Who has lost his job = Whose life has been hampered by circumstances. Ta'aam = Feeding = Food = Provision = Basic needs of life. A benevolent society takes care of the basic needs of life. None would sleep hungry therein

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 13 (89:22)

A great Revolution will come and the Divine System will be established. The Universal forces will line up to that end

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 14 (89:26)

The logical result of disregarding the Creator's guidance is getting bound by shackles of mental slavery. 7:157

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 15 (89:27)

By living a life upright 13:28, 91:9

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 16 (89:30)

9:119

Muhammad Asad - The Message Of Quran

Muhammad Asad - End Note 1 (89:2)

The "daybreak" (fajr) apparently symbolizes man's spiritual awakening; hence, the "ten nights" is an allusion to the last third of the month of Ramadan, in the year 13 before the hijrah, during which Muhammad received his first revelation (see introductory note to surah 96) and was thus enabled to contribute to mankind's spiritual awakening.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 2 (89:3)

Lit., "the even and the odd" or "the one": i.e., the multiplicity of creation as contrasted with the oneness and uniqueness of the Creator (Baghawī, on the authority of Sa'id ibn al-Khudri, as well as Tabari in one of his alternative interpretations of the above phrase). The concept of the "even number" implies the existence of more than one of the same kind: in other words, it signifies every thing that has a counterpart or counterparts and, hence, a definite relationship with other things (cf. the term azwaj in 36:36, referring to the polarity evident in all creation), As against this, the term al-watr - or, in the more common (Najdi) spelling, al-witr - primarily denotes "that which is single" or "one" and is, hence, one of the designations given to God - since "there is nothing that could be compared with Him" (112:4) and "nothing like unto Him" (42:11).

Muhammad Asad - End Note 3 (89:4)

An allusion to the night of spiritual darkness which is bound to "run its course" - i.e., to disappear - as soon as man becomes truly conscious of God.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 4 (89:5)

Lit., "a [more] solemn affirmation" (qasam): i.e., a convincing evidence of the existence and oneness of God.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 5 (89:6)

See 7:65-72, and particularly the second half of note 48 on 7:65. Iram, mentioned in the next verse, seems to have been the name of their legendary capital, now covered by the sands of the desert of Al-Ahqaf.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 6 (89:9)

See surah 7, notes 56 and 59. The "valley" referred to in the sequence is the Wadi 'l-Qura, situated north of Medina on the ancient caravan route from South Arabia to Syria.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 7 (89:10)

For an explanation of this epithet, see surah 38, note 17.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 8 (89:15)

The above phrase, introduced by the particle fa-amma ("But as for. . ."), obviously connects with the reference to the "solemn evidence of the truth" in verse 5 - implying that man does not, as a rule, bethink himself of the hereafter, being concerned only with this world and what promises to be of immediate advantage to him (Zamakhshari, Razi, Baydawi).

Muhammad Asad - End Note 9 (89:15)

I.e., he regards God's bounty as something due to him (Razi).

Muhammad Asad - End Note 10 (89:16)

I.e., he regards the absence or loss of affluence not as a trial, but as an evidence of divine "injustice" - which, in its turn, may lead to a denial of God's existence.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 11 (89:18)

I.e., "you feel no urge to feed the needy" (cf. 107:3).

Muhammad Asad - End Note 12 (89:22)

Lit., "[when] thy Sustainer comes", which almost all of the classical commentators understand as the revelation (in the abstract sense of this word) of God's transcendental majesty and the manifestation of His judgment.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 13 (89:26)

See note 7 on 73:12-13.

Rashad Khalifa - The Final Testament

Rashad Khalifa - End Note 1 (89:2)

The last ten nights of Ramadan, wherein many believers retreat to the masjids (2:187).

Rashad Khalifa - End Note 2 (89:3)

See Appendix 1 for the role of the even numbers and the odd numbers.

Edip-Layth - Quran: A Reformist Translation

Edip-Layth - End Note 2 (89:7)

The rock towers of Iram was discovered 4800 years after the destruction and disappearance of the city of Iram in Ummann. The Challenger spaceship equipped with SIR-B radars that could see under the sand made this discovery possible in 1992.

Edip-Layth - End Note 3 (89:13)

Individual or societal violations of God's law governing nature cause many disasters. For instance, wasting energy and reckless consumerism contribute to air, water and ground pollution; social and political aggression such as dictatorship and racism contribute to civil wars, poverty and famine; accepting no boundaries in sexual conduct contribute to epidemics in sexually transmitted diseases, abandoned children, and increase in crime; disregard for the physical laws, for instance gravity, causes increase in loss of lives during earthquakes; use of alcoholic beverages, heroin, and other drugs cause many problems and disasters for both the individual and society; nonproductive industries such as gambling, fraud, and usury cause social and economic problems; not recognizing freedom of expression to individuals and groups may cause and invite many problems as well. 090:001-4 For the function of oaths in the Quran, see 89:5. 090:013 Appreciative people, monotheists, cannot have slaves. To be a slave owner is equivalent to claiming to be a "lord" and thus tantamount to polytheism. See 4:3,25,92; 2:286; 3:79; 5:89; 8:67; 24:32-33; 58:3-4; 90:13; 2:286; 12:39-42; 79:24.

Best viewed using your own brain

Tested on 1024x768 resolution with  FIREFOX 2

Kitabun Marqum v0.6.7 - Kitabun Marqum - Quran Research Platform by QuraniX Team Copyright © 2002-2011 All rights reserved.
Copyrights of all translations belong to their respective authors.

49:6 O you who believe, if a wicked person brings any news to you, you shall first investigate, lest you commit injustice towards some people, out of ignorance, then become sorry and remorseful for what you have done.

Rashad Khalifa (The Final Testament)

 Translations ▼

 Chapter/Verse ▼

 Refresh

 Search

<< Prev 90:1-20 Next >>

Edip-Layth	In the name of God, the Gracious, the Compassionate. 90:1 I swear by this land.
The Monotheist Group	In the name of God, the Almighty, the Merciful. 90:1 I do swear by this town.
Muhammad Asad	In the name of God, The Most Gracious, The Dispenser of Grace: 90:1 NAY! I call to witness this land
Rashad Khalifa	In the name of GOD, Most Gracious, Most Merciful. 90:1 I solemnly swear by this town.
Shabbir Ahmed	BISMILLAH-IR-RAHMAN-IR-RAHEEM With the Glorious Name of God, the Ultimate Source of Instant Beneficence and Eternal mercy Who encompasses the entire Universe, nourishing and taking care of all things for what they are meant to be; just as a mother's womb nourishes the embryo to completion without any returns. 90:1 Nay, I present this very Town as witness.
Transliteration	Bismi All a hi al r rah m ani al r ra h ee m i 90:1 La oqsimu biha t ha albaladi
A	بسم الله الرحمن الرحيم 90:1 لا اقسم بهذا البلد
Edip-Layth	90:2 While you are a legal resident at this land.
The Monotheist Group	90:2 And you remain committed to this town.
Muhammad Asad	90:2 this land in which thou art free to dwell - 1

Rashad Khalifa	90:2 The town where you live.
Shabbir Ahmed	90:2 The Town where (O Prophet!) you have lived.
Transliteration	90:2 Waanta hillun biha tha albaladi
A	90:2 وانت حل بهذا البلد
Edip-Layth	90:3 A father and what he begets.
The Monotheist Group	90:3 And a father and what he begets.
Muhammad Asad	90:3 and [I call to witness] parent and offspring: ²
Rashad Khalifa	90:3 The begetting and the begotten.
Shabbir Ahmed	90:3 And where your ancestors have multiplied. ¹
Transliteration	90:3 Wawa l idin wama l walada
A	90:3 ووالد وما ولد
Edip-Layth	90:4 We have created the human being to struggle.
The Monotheist Group	90:4 We have created man to struggle.
Muhammad Asad	90:4 Verily, We have created man into [a life of] pain, toil and trial. ³
Rashad Khalifa	90:4 We created the human being to work hard
Shabbir Ahmed	90:4 Surely, We have created the human being for struggle and toil. ²
Transliteration	90:4 Laqad khalaqna al-insa n a feekabad i n
A	90:4 لقد خلقنا الانسن فى كبد
Edip-Layth	90:5 Does he think that no one is able to best him?
The Monotheist Group	90:5 Does he think that no one is able to best him?
Muhammad Asad	90:5 Does he, then, think that no one has power over him?
Rashad Khalifa	(to redeem himself). 90:5 Does he think that no one will ever call him to account?
Shabbir Ahmed	90:5 Does he think that none has Power over him?
Transliteration	90:5 Aya h sabu an lan yaqdira AAalayhi a h adun
A	90:5 ايحسب ان لن يقدر عليه احد
Edip-Layth	90:6 He says: "I spent so much money!"
The Monotheist Group	90:6 He says: "I spent so much money!"
Muhammad Asad	90:6 He boasts, "I have spent wealth abundant!" ⁴
Rashad Khalifa	90:6 He boasts, "I spent so much money!"
Shabbir Ahmed	90:6 He keeps boasting, "I have wasted so much wealth!"
Transliteration

	90:6 Yaqoolu ahlaktu malan lubadan
A	90:6 يقول اهلكتم ملا لبادا
Edip-Layth	90:7 Does he think that no one saw him?
The Monotheist Group	90:7 Does he think that no one saw him?
Muhammad Asad	90:7 Does he, then, think that no one sees him? 5
Rashad Khalifa	90:7 Does he think that no one sees him?
Shabbir Ahmed	90:7 What! Does he think that no one sees him? 3
Transliteration	90:7 Ayah s abu an lam yarahu a h adun
A	90:7 اychsb ان لم يره احد
Edip-Layth	90:8 Did We not make for him two eyes?
The Monotheist Group	90:8 Did We not make for him two eyes?
Muhammad Asad	90:8 Have We not given him two eyes,
Rashad Khalifa	90:8 Did we not give him two eyes?
Shabbir Ahmed	90:8 Did We not give him two eyes? 4
Transliteration	90:8 Alam najAAal lahu AAaynayn i
A	90:8 الم نجعل له عينين
Edip-Layth	90:9 A tongue and two lips?
The Monotheist Group	90:9 And a tongue and two lips?
Muhammad Asad	90:9 and a tongue, and a pair of lips, 6
Rashad Khalifa	90:9 A tongue and two lips?
Shabbir Ahmed	90:9 And a tongue and a pair of lips? 5
Transliteration	90:9 Walis a nan washafatayni
A	90:9 ولسانا وشفنتين
Edip-Layth	90:10 We guided him to both paths?
The Monotheist Group	90:10 And We guided him to both paths?
Muhammad Asad	90:10 and shown him the two highways [of good and evil]?
Rashad Khalifa	90:10 Did we not show him the two paths?
Shabbir Ahmed	90:10 And shown him the two highways? 6
Transliteration	90:10 Wahadayn a hu alInnajdayni
A	90:10 وهدينه النجدين

Edip-Layth	90:11 He should choose the better path.
The Monotheist Group	90:11 He should choose the better path.
Muhammad Asad	90:11 But he would not try to ascend the steep uphill road...
Rashad Khalifa	90:11 He should choose the difficult path.
Shabbir Ahmed	90:11 But he hardly tries the uphill road, the Ascent.
Transliteration	90:11 Falā iqtahama alAAaqabata
A	90:11 فلا اقتحم العقبة
Edip-Layth	90:12 Do you know which the better path is?
The Monotheist Group	90:12 Do you know which is the better path?
Muhammad Asad	90:12 And what could make thee conceive what it is, that steep uphill road?
Rashad Khalifa	90:12 Which one is the difficult path?
Shabbir Ahmed	90:12 Ah, what will convey to you what that Ascent is!
Transliteration	90:12 Wama adraka maalAAaqabatu
A	90:12 وما أدرك ما العقبة
Edip-Layth	90:13 The freeing of slaves.
The Monotheist Group	90:13 The freeing of slaves.
Muhammad Asad	90:13 [It is] the freeing of one's neck [from the burden of sin], ⁷
Rashad Khalifa	90:13 The freeing of slaves.
Shabbir Ahmed	90:13 Freeing others from bondage, physical or mental, and from any social, economic or political oppression. ⁷
Transliteration	90:13 Fakku raqabatīn
A	90:13 فك رقبة
Edip-Layth	90:14 Or the feeding on a day of great hardship.
The Monotheist Group	90:14 Or the feeding on a day of great hardship.
Muhammad Asad	90:14 or the feeding, upon a day of [one's own] hunger,
Rashad Khalifa	90:14 Feeding, during the time of hardship.
Shabbir Ahmed	90:14 Feeding in times of hunger, famine, wars and natural disasters.
Transliteration	90:14 Aw iAAamun fee yawmin theemasghabatīn
A	90:14 او اطعم فى يوم ذى مسغبة
Edip-Layth	90:15 An orphan of relation.
The Monotheist Group	90:15 An orphan of relation.
Muhammad Asad	90:15 of an orphan near of kin,

Rashad Khalifa	90:15 Orphans who are related.
Shabbir Ahmed	90:15 Taking special care of those who, despite being a part of the community, feel left out. ⁸
Transliteration	90:15 Yateeman tha maqrabat in
A	90:15 يتيما ذا مقربة
Edip-Layth	90:16 Or a poor person in need.
The Monotheist Group	90:16 Or a poor person in need.
Muhammad Asad	90:16 or of a needy [stranger] lying in the dust
Rashad Khalifa	90:16 Or the poor who is in need.
Shabbir Ahmed	90:16 Helping him who remains needy though he toils in the dust.
Transliteration	90:16 Aw miskeen an tha matraba tin
A	90:16 او مسكينا ذا متربة
Edip-Layth	90:17 Then he has become one of those who have acknowledged, and exhort one another to patience, and exhort one another to kindness.
The Monotheist Group	90:17 Then he has become one of those who have believed, and exhort one another to patience, and exhort one another to kindness.
Muhammad Asad	90:17 and being, withal, of those who have attained to faith, and who enjoin upon one another patience in adversity, and enjoin upon one another compassion.
Rashad Khalifa	90:17 And being one of those who believe, and exhorting one another to be steadfast, and exhorting one another to be kind.
Shabbir Ahmed	90:17 Being of those who have chosen to be graced with belief, and become living reminders of perseverance and living reminders of compassion.
Transliteration	90:17 Thumma ka na mina alla the ena a manoowatawa asaw bi a l ss abri wataw a saw bi almar ha mati
A	90:17 ثم كان من الذين ءامنوا وتواصوا بالصبر وتواصوا بالمرحمة
Edip-Layth	90:18 Those are the people of happiness.
The Monotheist Group	90:18 Those are the people of happiness.
Muhammad Asad	90:18 Such are they that have attained to righteousness; ⁸
Rashad Khalifa	90:18 These have deserved happiness.
Shabbir Ahmed	90:18 Such are the companions of the right hand (immersed in bliss).
Transliteration	90:18 Ola-ika a s - ha bualmaymanati
A	90:18 اولئك اصحاب اليمين
Edip-Layth	90:19 As for those who rejected Our signs, they are the people of misery.
The Monotheist Group	90:19 As for those who rejected Our revelations, they are the people of misery.

Muhammad Asad	90:19 whereas those who are bent on denying the truth of Our messages they are such as have lost themselves in evil,
Rashad Khalifa	90:19 As for those who disbelieved in our revelations, they have incurred misery.
Shabbir Ahmed	90:19 And those who deny Our messages, such are the companions of the left hand (immersed in despondence). ⁹
Transliteration	90:19 Waalla ^l theena kafaroo bi- ay at i na h um as- h abu almash-amati
A	90:19 والذين كفروا بايتنا هم اصحب المشمة
Edip-Layth	90:20 Upon them is a fire closed over.
The Monotheist Group	90:20 Upon them is a Fire closed over.
Muhammad Asad	90:20 [with] fire closing in upon them. ⁹
Rashad Khalifa	90:20 They will be confined in the Hellfire.
Shabbir Ahmed	90:20 With fire all around them. ¹⁰
Transliteration	90:20 AAalayhim n arun mu/ s adat u n
A	90:20 عليهم نار موصدة

<< Prev 90:1-20 Next >>

Return to top

End Notes

Edip-Layth - Quran: A Reformist Translation

Edip-Layth - End Note (90:1)

Edip-Layth - End Note (90:13)

Muhammad Asad - The Message Of Quran

Muhammad Asad - End Note 1 (90:2)

Lit., "while thou art dwelling in this land". The classical commentators give to the term balad the connotation of "city", and maintain that the phrase hadha 'l-balad ("this city") signifies Mecca, and that the pronoun "thou" in the second verse refers to Muhammad. Although this interpretation is plausible in view of the fact that the sacredness of Mecca is repeatedly stressed in the Qur'an, the sequence - as well as the tenor of the whole surah - seems to warrant a wider, more general interpretation. In my opinion, the words hadha 'l-balad denote "this land of man", i.e., the earth (which latter term is, according to all philologists, one of the primary meanings of balad). Consequently, the "thou" in verse 2 relates to man in general, and that which is metaphorically "called to witness" is his earthly environment.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 2 (90:3)

Lit., "the begetter and that which he has begotten". According to Tabari's convincing explanation, this phrase signifies "every parent and all their offspring" - i.e., the human race from its beginning to its end. (The masculine form al-walid denotes, of course, both male and female parents.)

Muhammad Asad - End Note 3 (90:4)

The term kabad, comprising the concepts of "pain", "distress", "hardship", "toil", "trial", etc., can be rendered only by a compound expression like the one above.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 4 (90:6)

Implying that his resources - and, therefore, his possibilities - are inexhaustible. We must remember that the term "man" is used here in the sense of "human race": hence, the above boast is a metonym for the widespread belief - characteristic of all periods of religious decadence - that there are no limits to the power to which man may aspire, and that, therefore, his worldly "interests" are the only criteria of right and wrong.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 5 (90:7)

I.e., "Does he think that he is responsible to none but himself?"

Muhammad Asad - End Note 6 (90:9)

I.e., to recognize and to voice the truth of God's existence or, at least to ask for guidance.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 7 (90:13)

Thus Ikrimah, as quoted by Baghawi; also Razi. Alternatively, the phrase fakk raqabah may be rendered as "the freeing of a human being from bondage" (cf. note 146 on 2:190), with the latter term covering all those forms of subjugation and exploitation - social, economic or political - which can be rightly described as "slavery".

Muhammad Asad - End Note 8 (90:18)

Lit., "people (ashab) of the right side": see note 25 on 74:39.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 9 (90:20)

I.e., the fires of despair in the life to come "rising over the [sinners'] hearts" and "closing in upon them": cf. 104:6-8 and the corresponding note 5. The phrase rendered by me as "such as have lost themselves in evil" reads, literally, "people of 'the left side (al-mash'amah)".

Shabbir Ahmed -

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 1 (90:3)

A Sanctuary of Peace for everyone

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 2 (90:4)

This is the Town where Abraham and Ishmael labored, and where you began your toil to raise the Name of your Lord. 2:125-127

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 3 (90:7)

How much and where he spends it

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 4 (90:8)

'Ainain = Two physical eyes = The sense of sight and vision of the heart = Sight and insight

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 5 (90:9)

The ability to speak and converse meaningfully

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 6 (90:10)

Of virtue and vice

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 7 (90:13)

Freeing the neck includes all the above meanings and establishing the System wherein the only Master is God

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 8 (90:15)

Za maqrabah = Near one = Relative = Part of the community

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 9 (90:19)

Right Hand and Left Hand indicate the tropical significance of Mayimanah = Those on the side of righteousness. Mash'amah = Those on the side of evil

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 10 (90:20)

The Hellfire is such that its flames originate in the hearts and engulf the hearts. The fire of regret, anguish and despair. 104:6-8

Best viewed using your own brain

Tested on 1024x768 resolution with  FIREFOX 2

Kitabun Marqum v0.6.7 - Kitabun Marqum - Quran Research Platform by QuraniX Team Copyright © 2002-2011 All rights reserved.
Copyrights of all translations belong to their respective authors.

49:6 O you who believe, if a wicked person brings any news to you, you shall first investigate, lest you commit injustice towards some people, out of ignorance, then become sorry and remorseful for what you have done.

Rashad Khalifa (The Final Testament)

 Translations ▼

 Chapter/Verse ▼

 Refresh

 Search

<< Prev 91:1-15 Next >>

Edip-Layth	In the name of God, the Gracious, the Compassionate. 91:1 By the Sun and its brightness. ¹
The Monotheist Group	In the name of God, the Almighty, the Merciful. 91:1 By the Sun and its brightness.
Muhammad Asad	In the name of God, The Most Gracious, The Dispenser of Grace: 91:1 CONSIDER the sun and its radiant brightness,
Rashad Khalifa	In the name of GOD, Most Gracious, Most Merciful. 91:1 By the sun and its brightness.
Shabbir Ahmed	BISMILLAH-IR-RAHMAN-IR-RAHEEM With the Glorious Name of God, the Ultimate Source of Instant Beneficence and Eternal mercy Who encompasses the entire Universe, nourishing and taking care of all things for what they are meant to be; just as a mother's womb nourishes the embryo to completion without any returns. 91:1 Witness is the Sun and its radiant splendor.
Transliteration	Bismi All a hi al r rah m ani al r rah e emi 91:1 Waalshshamsi wadu h aha
A	بِسْمِ اللَّهِ الرَّحْمَنِ الرَّحِيمِ 91:1 وَالشَّمْسِ وَضُحَاهَا
Edip-Layth	91:2 The Moon that comes after it.
The Monotheist Group	91:2 And the Moon that comes after it.
Muhammad Asad	91:2 and the moon as it reflects the sun! ¹

Rashad Khalifa	91:2 The moon that follows it.
Shabbir Ahmed	91:2 And the Moon that borrows its light.
Transliteration	91:2 Waalqamari i tha tal aha
A	91:2 والقمر اذا تلبها
Edip-Layth	91:3 The day which reveals.
The Monotheist Group	91:3 And the day which reveals.
Muhammad Asad	91:3 Consider the day as it reveals the world, ²
Rashad Khalifa	91:3 The day that reveals.
Shabbir Ahmed	91:3 Witness is the day as it brightens the world.
Transliteration	91:3 Waalnnah ari i tha jall aha
A	91:3 والنهار اذا جلبها
Edip-Layth	91:4 The night which covers.
The Monotheist Group	91:4 And the night which covers.
Muhammad Asad	91:4 and the night as it veils it darkly!
Rashad Khalifa	91:4 The night that covers.
Shabbir Ahmed	91:4 And the night that cloaks it.
Transliteration	91:4 Waallayli i tha yaghsh aha
A	91:4 والليل اذا يغشها
Edip-Layth	91:5 The sky and what He built.
The Monotheist Group	91:5 And the sky and what He built.
Muhammad Asad	91:5 Consider the sky and its wondrous make, ³
Rashad Khalifa	91:5 The sky and Him who built it.
Shabbir Ahmed	91:5 And the sky and its wondrous design.
Transliteration	91:5 Waalssama-i wama ban aha
A	91:5 والسماء وما بنها
Edip-Layth	91:6 The earth and what He sustains.
The Monotheist Group	91:6 And the Earth and what He sustains.
Muhammad Asad	91:6 and the earth and all its expanse!
Rashad Khalifa	91:6 The earth and Him who sustains it.
Shabbir Ahmed	91:6 And the earth and its vast expanse.
Transliteration	91:6 Waal-ardi wama ta haha

A
Edip-Layth	91:7 A person and what He made.
The Monotheist Group	91:7 And a soul and what He made.
Muhammad Asad	91:7 Consider the human self, ⁴ and how it is formed in accordance with what it is meant to be, ⁵
Rashad Khalifa	91:7 The soul and Him who created it.
Shabbir Ahmed	91:7 Consider the human 'self' and Him Who endowed it with the capacity to balance itself.
Transliteration	91:7 Wana ⁴ fsin wama ⁵ sawwaha
A	91:7 ونفس وما سويها
Edip-Layth	91:8 So He gave it its evil and good.
The Monotheist Group	91:8 So He gave it its evil and good.
Muhammad Asad	91:8 and how it is imbued with moral failings as well as with consciousness of God! ⁶
Rashad Khalifa	91:8 Then showed it what is evil and what is good.
Shabbir Ahmed	91:8 And how it is inspired with the capacity to disintegrate or become protected against detriment.
Transliteration	91:8 Faalhamaha ⁶ fujooraha ⁶ wataqwaha ⁶
A	91:8 فالهمها فجورها وتقورها
Edip-Layth	91:9 Successful is the one who betters it.
The Monotheist Group	91:9 Successful is the one who betters it.
Muhammad Asad	91:9 To a happy state shall indeed attain he who causes this [self] to grow in purity,
Rashad Khalifa	91:9 Successful is one who redeems it.
Shabbir Ahmed	91:9 Successful is he who grows the 'self'.
Transliteration	91:9 Qad aflaha ⁹ man zakkaha ⁹
A	91:9 قد افلح من زكها
Edip-Layth	91:10 Failing is the one who hides it.
The Monotheist Group	91:10 And failing is the one who hides it.
Muhammad Asad	91:10 and truly lost is he who buries it [in darkness].
Rashad Khalifa	91:10 Failing is one who neglects it.
Shabbir Ahmed	91:10 And failure is he who keeps it buried (under ignorance and superstition).
Transliteration	91:10 Waqad khaba ¹⁰ man dassaha ¹⁰
A

Edip-Layth	91:11 Thamud denied their transgression.
The Monotheist Group	91:11 Thamud denied their transgression.
Muhammad Asad	91:11 TO [THIS] TRUTH gave the lie, in their overweening arrogance, [the tribe of] Thamud, ⁷
Rashad Khalifa	91:11 Thamoud's disbelief caused them to transgress.
Shabbir Ahmed	91:11 *
Transliteration	91:11 Kath ^h thabat thamoodu bi ^t aghwah ^a
A	91:11 كذبت ثمود بطغوبها
Edip-Layth	91:12 They followed the worst amongst them.
The Monotheist Group	91:12 They followed the worst amongst them.
Muhammad Asad	91:12 when that most hapless wretch from among them rushed forward [to commit his evil deed],
Rashad Khalifa	91:12 They followed the worst among them.
Shabbir Ahmed	91:12 Indeed, the most forward among them was picked up for defiance.
Transliteration	91:12 I ^{thi} inbaAAatha ashqah ^a
A	91:12 اذ انبعث اشقيها
Edip-Layth	91:13 God's messenger said to them: "This is God's camel, let her drink."
The Monotheist Group	91:13 God's messenger said to them: "This is God's camel, let her drink."
Muhammad Asad	91:13 although God's apostle had told them, "It is a she-camel belonging to God, so let her drink [and do her no harm]!" ⁸
Rashad Khalifa	91:13 GOD's messenger said to them, "This is GOD's camel; let her drink."
Shabbir Ahmed	91:13 Although God's messenger had told them, "It is a she-camel belonging to God, so let her drink!" ²
Transliteration	91:13 Faqa ^{la} lahum rasoolu All ^a hi naqataAll ^a hi wasuqya ^{ha}
A	91:13 فقال لهم رسول الله ناقة الله وسقياها
Edip-Layth	91:14 They rejected him, and they killed her. So their Lord repaid them for their sin and leveled it. ²
The Monotheist Group	91:14 They disbelieved him, and they killed her. So their Lord repaid them for their sin and leveled it.
Muhammad Asad	91:14 But they gave him the lie, and cruelly slaughtered her ⁹ - whereupon their Sustainer visited them with utter destruction for this their sin, destroying them all alike:
Rashad Khalifa	91:14 They disbelieved him and slaughtered her. Their Lord then requited them for their sin and annihilated them.

Shabbir Ahmed	91:14 But they denied him and they killed her. So, their Lord destroyed them all alike for their lagging behind in humanity.
Transliteration	91:14 Fakaththaboohu faAAaqarooth a fadamdama AAalayhim rabbuhum bithanbihim fasawwaha
A	91:14 فَكَذَّبُوهُ فَعَقَرُوهَا فَدَمْدَمَ عَلَيْهِم رَبُّهُمْ بِذُنُوبِهِمْ فَسَوَّاهَا
Edip-Layth	91:15 Yet, those who came after remain heedless.
The Monotheist Group	91:15 Yet, those who came after remain heedless.
Muhammad Asad	91:15 for none [of them] had any fear of what might befall them. ¹⁰
Rashad Khalifa	91:15 Yet, those who came after them remain heedless.
Shabbir Ahmed	91:15 None of them had any fear of what might befall them.
Transliteration	91:15 Wala yakhafu AAuqbaha
A	91:15 وَلَا يَخَافُ عُقْبَاهَا

<< Prev 91:1-15 Next >>

Return to top

End Notes

Edip-Layth - Quran: A Reformist Translation

Edip-Layth - End Note 1 (91:1)

For the function of oaths in the Quran, see 89:5.

Edip-Layth - End Note 2 (91:14)

See 26:155; 54:27-29.

Muhammad Asad - The Message Of Quran

Muhammad Asad - End Note 1 (91:2)

Lit., "as it follows it (talaha)", i.e., the sun. According to the great philologist Al-Farra, who lived in the second century after the hijrah, "the meaning is that the moon derives its light from the sun" (quoted by Razi). This is also Raghīb's interpretation of the above phrase.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 2 (91:3)

Lit., "it" - a pronoun apparently indicating "the world" or "the earth" (Zamakhshari). It is to be noted that verses 1-10 stress the polarity - both physical and spiritual - inherent in all creation and contrasting with the oneness and uniqueness of the Creator.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 3 (91:5)

Lit., "and that which has built it" - i.e., the wondrous qualities which are responsible for the harmony and coherence of the visible cosmos (which is evidently the meaning of the term sama' in this context). Similarly, the subsequent reference to the earth, which reads literally, "that which has spread it out", is apparently an allusion to the qualities responsible for the beauty and variety of its expanse.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 4 (91:7)

As in so many other instances, the term nafs, which has a very wide range of meanings (see first sentence of note 1 on 4:1), denotes here the human self or personality as a whole: that is, a being composed of a physical body and that inexplicable life-essence loosely described as "soul".

Muhammad Asad - End Note 5 (91:7)

Lit., "and that which has made [or "formed"] it (sawwaha) in accordance with. . .", etc. For this particular connotation of the verb sawwa, see note 1 on 87:2, which represents the oldest Qur'anic instance of its use in the above sense. The reference to man and that which constitutes the "human personality", as well as the implied allusion to the extremely complex phenomenon of a life-entity in which bodily needs and urges, emotions and intellectual activities are so closely intertwined as to be indissoluble, follows organically upon a call to consider the inexplicable grandeur of the universe - so far as it is perceptible and comprehensible to man - as a compelling evidence of God's creative power.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 6 (91:8)

Lit., "and [consider] that which has inspired it with its immoral doings (fujuraha) and its God-consciousness (taqwaha)" - i.e., the fact that man is equally liable to rise to great spiritual heights as to fall into utter immorality is an essential characteristic of human nature as such. In its deepest sense, man's ability to act wrongly is a concomitant to his ability to act rightly: in other words, it is this inherent polarity of tendencies which gives to every "right" choice a value and, thus, endows man with moral free will (cf. in this connection note 16 on 7:24-25).

Muhammad Asad - End Note 7 (91:11)

For the story of the tribe of Thamud, given here as an illustration of man's potential wickedness, see 7:73-79 and the corresponding notes.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 8 (91:13)

Regarding this "she-camel belonging to God", see surah 7, note 57. For the particular reference to the injunction, "Let her drink", see 26:155 and the corresponding note 67. The formulation of this passage shows that the legend of the she-camel was well known in pre-Islamic Arabia.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 9 (91:14)

For this rendering of aqaruha, see note 61 on 7:91.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 10 (91:15)

Implying that their total lack of compassion for God's creatures showed that they did not fear His retribution and, hence, did not really believe in Him.

Shabbir Ahmed -

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 2 (91:13)

The land belongs to God, and this she-camel represents the weak among you. 7:73, 26:155

Best viewed using your own brain

Tested on 1024x768 resolution with  FIREFOX 2

Kitabun Marqum v0.6.7 - Kitabun Marqum - Quran Research Platform by QuraniX Team Copyright © 2002-2011 All rights reserved.
Copyrights of all translations belong to their respective authors.

49:6 O you who believe, if a wicked person brings any news to you, you shall first investigate, lest you commit injustice towards some people, out of ignorance, then become sorry and remorseful for what you have done.

Rashad Khalifa (The Final Testament)

 Translations ▼

 Chapter/Verse ▼

 Refresh

 Search

<< Prev 92:1-21 Next >>

Edip-Layth	In the name of God, the Gracious, the Compassionate. 92:1 By the night when it covers. ¹
The Monotheist Group	In the name of God, the Almighty, the Merciful. 92:1 By the night when it covers.
Muhammad Asad	In the name of God, The Most Gracious, The Dispenser of Grace: 92:1 CONSIDER the night as it veils [the earth] in darkness,
Rashad Khalifa	In the name of GOD, Most Gracious, Most Merciful. 92:1 By the night as it covers.
Shabbir Ahmed	BISMILLAH-IR-RAHMAN-IR-RAHEEM With the Glorious Name of God, the Ultimate Source of Instant Beneficence and Eternal mercy Who encompasses the entire Universe, nourishing and taking care of all things for what they are meant to be; just as a mother's womb nourishes the embryo to completion without any returns. 92:1 Witness is the Night as it cloaks in darkness.
Transliteration	Bismi All a hi al r rah m ani al r rah e emi 92:1 Wa a llayli i t ha yag h sha
A	بسم الله الرحمن الرحيم 92:1 والليل اذا يغشى
Edip-Layth	92:2 The day when it appears.
The Monotheist Group	92:2 And the day when it appears.
Muhammad Asad	92:2 and the day as it rises bright!

Rashad Khalifa	92:2 The day as it reveals.
Shabbir Ahmed	92:2 And the Day as it shines in splendor.
Transliteration	92:2 WaalInnahari itha tajalla
A	92:2 والنهار اذا تجلى
Edip-Layth	92:3 He created the male and female.
The Monotheist Group	92:3 And He created the male and female.
Muhammad Asad	92:3 Consider the creation of the male and the female! ¹
Rashad Khalifa	92:3 And Him who created the male and the female.
Shabbir Ahmed	92:3 Witness is creation of the male and the female.
Transliteration	92:3 Wama khalaqa alththakarawaal-ontha
A	92:3 وما خلق الذكر والانثى
Edip-Layth	92:4 Your works are various.
The Monotheist Group	92:4 Your works are various.
Muhammad Asad	92:4 Verily, [O men,] you aim at most divergent ends! ²
Rashad Khalifa	92:4 Your works are of various kinds.
Shabbir Ahmed	92:4 Indeed, your efforts are diverse. ¹
Transliteration	92:4 Inna saAAayakum lashatta
A	92:4 ان سعيكم لشتى
Edip-Layth	92:5 As for he who gives and is righteous.
The Monotheist Group	92:5 As for he who gives and is righteous.
Muhammad Asad	92:5 Thus, as for him who gives [to others] and is conscious of God,
Rashad Khalifa	92:5 As for him who gives to charity and maintains righteousness.
Shabbir Ahmed	92:5 And so, he who gives and remains watchful against wrong. ²
Transliteration	92:5 Faamma man aAAata waittaqa
A	92:5 فاما من اعطى واتقى
Edip-Layth	92:6 Trusts in goodness.
The Monotheist Group	92:6 And trusts in goodness.
Muhammad Asad	92:6 and believes in the truth of the ultimate good ³
Rashad Khalifa	92:6 And upholds the scripture.
Shabbir Ahmed	92:6 And makes his life an example of benevolence,
Transliteration	92:6 Wasaddaqa bialhusna

A
Edip-Layth	92:7 We will make the easy path for him.
The Monotheist Group	92:7 We will make the easy path for him.
Muhammad Asad	92:7 for him shall We make easy the path towards [ultimate] ease. ⁴
Rashad Khalifa	92:7 We will direct him towards happiness.
Shabbir Ahmed	92:7 We will ease his way to the ultimate ease.
Transliteration	92:7 Fasanuyassiruhu lilyus r a

A
Edip-Layth	92:8 As for he who is stingy and holds back.
The Monotheist Group	92:8 And as for he who is stingy and holds back.
Muhammad Asad	92:8 But as for him who is niggardly, and thinks that he is self-sufficient, ⁵
Rashad Khalifa	92:8 But he who is stingy, though he is rich.
Shabbir Ahmed	92:8 But he who withholds and considers himself self-sufficient,
Transliteration	92:8 Waamm a man bakhila wa istagh n a

A
Edip-Layth	92:9 Denies goodness.
The Monotheist Group	92:9 And denies goodness.
Muhammad Asad	92:9 and calls the ultimate good a lie
Rashad Khalifa	92:9 And disbelieves in the scripture.
Shabbir Ahmed	92:9 And denies all that is good.
Transliteration	92:9 Wakath th aba bi al h us n a

A
Edip-Layth	92:10 We will make the difficult path for him.
The Monotheist Group	92:10 We will make the difficult path for him.
Muhammad Asad	92:10 for him shall We make easy the path towards hardship:
Rashad Khalifa	92:10 We will direct him towards misery.
Shabbir Ahmed	92:10 We will ease his way to hardship.
Transliteration	92:10 Fasanuyassiruhu lilAAus r a

A
Edip-Layth	92:11 His wealth will not avail him when he demises.
The Monotheist Group	92:11 And his wealth will not avail him when he demises.

Muhammad Asad	92:11 and what will his wealth avail him when he goes down [to his grave]? ⁶
Rashad Khalifa	92:11 His money cannot help him when he falls.
Shabbir Ahmed	92:11 And what could his wealth avail when he himself falls! ³
Transliteration	92:11 Wama yughnee AAanhu maluhu ithataradda
A	92:11 وما يغنى عنه ماله اذا تردى
Edip-Layth	92:12 It is upon Us to guide.
The Monotheist Group	92:12 It is upon Us to guide.
Muhammad Asad	92:12 BEHOLD, it is indeed for Us to grace [you] with guidance;
Rashad Khalifa	92:12 We provide the guidance.
Shabbir Ahmed	92:12 Certainly, it is for Us to show you the way (through this revelation).
Transliteration	92:12 Inna AAalayna lalhuda
A	92:12 ان علينا للهدى
Edip-Layth	92:13 To Us is the end and the beginning.
The Monotheist Group	92:13 And to Us is the end and the beginning.
Muhammad Asad	92:13 and, behold, Ours is [the dominion over] the life to come as well as [over] this earlier part [of your life]: ⁷
Rashad Khalifa	92:13 We control the Hereafter, as well as this life.
Shabbir Ahmed	92:13 To Us belongs the End and the Beginning. ⁴
Transliteration	92:13 Wa-inna lan a lal-akhirata waal-oola
A	92:13 وان لنا للآخرة والاولى
Edip-Layth	92:14 I have warned you of a fire that blazes.
The Monotheist Group	92:14 I have warned you of a Fire that blazes.
Muhammad Asad	92:14 and so I warn you of the raging fire -
Rashad Khalifa	92:14 I have warned you about the blazing Hellfire.
Shabbir Ahmed	92:14 And so I warn you of a raging fire.
Transliteration	92:14 Faanthartukum naran talaththa
A	92:14 فانذرتكم نارا تلظى
Edip-Layth	92:15 None shall have it but the wicked.
The Monotheist Group	92:15 None shall have it but the wicked.
Muhammad Asad	92:15 [the fire] which none shall have to endure but that most hapless wretch
Rashad Khalifa	92:15 None burns therein except the wicked.
Shabbir Ahmed	92:15 That only the most wicked must endure.

Transliteration	92:15 La ya s la h a illa a l-ash q a
A	92:15 لا يصلها الا الاشقى
Edip-Layth	92:16 The one who denies and turns away.
The Monotheist Group	92:16 The one who denies and turns away.
Muhammad Asad	92:16 who gives the lie to the truth and turns away [from it].
Rashad Khalifa	92:16 Who disbelieves and turns away.
Shabbir Ahmed	92:16 He who denies and turns away.
Transliteration	92:16 Alla t hee ka th tha b a watawa ll a
A	92:16 الذى كذب وتولى
Edip-Layth	92:17 As for the righteous, he will be spared it.
The Monotheist Group	92:17 As for the righteous, he will be spared it.
Muhammad Asad	92:17 For, distant from it shall remain he who is truly conscious of God:
Rashad Khalifa	92:17 Avoiding it will be the righteous.
Shabbir Ahmed	92:17 But far removed from it is he who guards against error.
Transliteration	92:17 Wasayu j annabu h a al-at q a
A	92:17 وسيجنبها الاتقى
Edip-Layth	92:18 The one who gives his money to develop with.
The Monotheist Group	92:18 The one who gives his money to develop with.
Muhammad Asad	92:18 he that spends his possessions [on others] so that he might grow in purity
Rashad Khalifa	92:18 Who gives from his money to charity.
Shabbir Ahmed	92:18 Who gives his wealth that he may grow in goodness. ⁵
Transliteration	92:18 Alla t hee yu/tee ma l ahuyataza k ka
A	92:18 الذى يوتى ماله يتزكى
Edip-Layth	92:19 Seeking nothing in return.
The Monotheist Group	92:19 Seeking nothing in return.
Muhammad Asad	92:19 not as payment for favours received, ⁸
Rashad Khalifa	92:19 Seeking nothing in return.
Shabbir Ahmed	92:19 Not that he is returning any favors. ⁶
Transliteration	92:19 Wa m a li-a h adin AAindah u minniAAa m atin tuj z a
A	92:19 وما لاحد عنده من نعمة تجزى
Edip-Layth	92:20 Except the face of His Lord, the Most High.

The Monotheist Group	92:20 Except the face of His Lord, the Most High.
Muhammad Asad	92:20 but only out of a longing for the countenance of his Sustainer, the All-Highest:
Rashad Khalifa	92:20 Seeking only his Lord, the Most High.
Shabbir Ahmed	92:20 But only to seek the Approval of his Lord, the Most High.
Transliteration	92:20 Illā ibtighāa wajhi rabbiḥial-aʿAlā
A	92:20 الا ابتغاء وجه ربه الاعلى
Edip-Layth	92:21 He will be satisfied.
The Monotheist Group	92:21 And he will be satisfied.
Muhammad Asad	92:21 and such, indeed, shall in time be well-pleased.
Rashad Khalifa	92:21 He will certainly attain salvation.
Shabbir Ahmed	92:21 And soon he will be pleased.
Transliteration	92:21 Walasawfa yarḍa
A	92:21 ولسوف يرضى

<< Prev 92:1-21 Next >>

Return to top

End Notes

Edip-Layth - Quran: A Reformist Translation

Edip-Layth - End Note 1 (92:1)

See 89:5.

Muhammad Asad - The Message Of Quran

Muhammad Asad - End Note 1 (92:3)

Lit., "Consider that which has created [or "creates"] the male and the female", i.e., the elements which are responsible for the differentiation between male and female. This, together with the symbolism of night and day, darkness and light, is an allusion - similar to the first ten verses of the preceding surah - to the polarity evident in all nature and, hence, to the dichotomy (spoken of in the next verse) which characterizes man's aims and motives.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 2 (92:4)

I.e., at good and bad ends (cf. note 6 on 91:8) - sc., "and so the consequences of your doings are, of necessity, divergent".

Muhammad Asad - End Note 3 (92:6)

I.e., in moral values independent of time and social circumstance and, hence, in the absolute validity of what may be described as "the moral imperative".

Muhammad Asad - End Note 4 (92:7)

See note 6 on 87:8.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 5 (92:8)

Cf. 96:6-7.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 6 (92:11)

Or (as a statement): "of no avail will be to him his wealth when he. . .", etc.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 7 (92:13)

This statement is meant to stress the fact that man's life in this world and in the hereafter are but two stages of one continuous entity.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 8 (92:19)

Lit., "no one having with him any favour to be repaid". In its widest sense, projected towards the future, the phrase implies also the expectation of a reward.

Shabbir Ahmed -

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 1 (92:4)

Your occupations and earnings are different. Let not this be a cause of division among you

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 2 (92:5)

92:1819

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 3 (92:11)

69:28, 111:2

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 4 (92:13)

93:4

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 5 (92:18)

9:111

Best viewed using your own brain

Tested on 1024x768 resolution with  FIREFOX 2

Kitabun Marqum v0.6.7 - Kitabun Marqum - Quran Research Platform by QuraniX Team Copyright © 2002-2011 All rights reserved.
Copyrights of all translations belong to their respective authors.

2:2 This is the book in which there is no doubt, a guide for the conscientious.
 Edip-Layth (Quran: A Reformist Translation)

 Translations ▼

 Chapter/Verse ▼

 Refresh

 Search

<< Prev 93:1-11 Next >>

Edip-Layth	In the name of God, the Gracious, the Compassionate. 93:1 By the late morning.
The Monotheist Group	In the name of God, the Almighty, the Merciful. 93:1 By the late morning.
Muhammad Asad	In the name of God, The Most Gracious, The Dispenser of Grace: 93:1 CONSIDER the bright morning hours,
Rashad Khalifa	In the name of GOD, Most Gracious, Most Merciful. 93:1 By the forenoon.
Shabbir Ahmed	BISMILLAH-IR-RAHMAN-IR-RAHEEM With the Glorious Name of God, the Ultimate Source of Instant Beneficence and Eternal mercy Who encompasses the entire Universe, nourishing and taking care of all things for what they are meant to be; just as a mother's womb nourishes the embryo to completion without any returns. 93:1 * Consider the Daylight.
Transliteration	Bismi Allāhi alrrahmāni alrraḥeemi 93:1 Waaldduha
A	بِسْمِ اللَّهِ الرَّحْمَنِ الرَّحِيمِ 93:1 وَالضُّحَى
Edip-Layth	93:2 The night when it falls.
The Monotheist Group	93:2 And the night when it falls.
Muhammad Asad	93:2 and the night when it grows still and dark. 1
Rashad Khalifa	93:2 By the night as it falls.

Shabbir Ahmed	93:2 And the night when it is still. ²
Transliteration	93:2 Waallayli i th a sa j a
A	93:2 واليل اذا سجي
Edip-Layth	93:3 Your Lord has not left you, nor did He forget.
The Monotheist Group	93:3 Your Lord has not left you, nor did He forget.
Muhammad Asad	93:3 Thy Sustainer has not forsaken thee, nor does He scorn thee: ²
Rashad Khalifa	93:3 Your Lord never abandoned you, nor did He forget.
Shabbir Ahmed	93:3 Your Lord has never forsaken you, nor did He ever forget you. ³
Transliteration	93:3 Ma waddaAAaka rabbuka wa m a qal a
A	93:3 ما ودعك ربك وما قلى
Edip-Layth	93:4 The Hereafter is better for you than the first.
The Monotheist Group	93:4 And the Hereafter is better for you than the first.
Muhammad Asad	93:4 for, indeed, the life to come will be better for thee than this earlier part [of thy life]!
Rashad Khalifa	93:4 The Hereafter is far better for you than this first (life).
Shabbir Ahmed	93:4 And certainly, the life to come is better for you than this one. ⁴
Transliteration	93:4 Walal- a khiratu khayrun laka mina al -ool a
A	93:4 وللاءخرة خير لك من الاولى
Edip-Layth	93:5 Your Lord will give you and you will be pleased.
The Monotheist Group	93:5 And your Lord will give you and you will be pleased.
Muhammad Asad	93:5 And, indeed, in time will thy Sustainer grant thee [what thy heart desires], and thou shalt be well-pleased.
Rashad Khalifa	93:5 And your Lord will give you enough; you will be pleased.
Shabbir Ahmed	93:5 And certainly, soon will your Lord grant you (the success) so that you will be well-pleased.
Transliteration	93:5 Walasawfa yuAA i ee k a rabbuka fatar d a
A	93:5 ولسوف يعطيك ربك فترضى
Edip-Layth	93:6 Did he not find you an orphan and He sheltered you?
The Monotheist Group	93:6 Did he not find you an orphan and He sheltered you?
Muhammad Asad	93:6 Has He not found thee an orphan, and given thee shelter? ³
Rashad Khalifa	93:6 Did He not find you orphaned and He gave you a home?
Shabbir Ahmed	93:6 Did He not find you an orphan and gave you shelter? ⁵

Transliteration	93:6 Alam yajidka yateeman fa a wa
A	93:6 ألم يجدك يتيما فاولى
Edip-Layth	93:7 He found you lost, and He guided you? ¹
The Monotheist Group	93:7 And He found you lost, and He guided you?
Muhammad Asad	93:7 And found thee lost on thy way, and guided thee?
Rashad Khalifa	93:7 He found you astray, and guided you.
Shabbir Ahmed	93:7 Did He not find you looking for guidance, and showed you the way. ⁶
Transliteration	93:7 Wawajadaka d allan fahada
A	93:7 ووجدك ضالا فهدى
Edip-Layth	93:8 He found you in need, so He gave you riches?
The Monotheist Group	93:8 And He found you in need, so He gave you riches?
Muhammad Asad	93:8 And found thee in want, and given thee sufficiency?
Rashad Khalifa	93:8 He found you poor, and made you rich.
Shabbir Ahmed	93:8 Did He not find you dependent, and made you independent. ⁷
Transliteration	93:8 Wawajadaka AA a -ilan faaghna
A	93:8 ووجدك عائلا فاغنى
Edip-Layth	93:9 As for the orphan, you shall not make him sad.
The Monotheist Group	93:9 As for the orphan, you shall not make him sad.
Muhammad Asad	93:9 Therefore, the orphan shalt thou never wrong,
Rashad Khalifa	93:9 Therefore, you shall not forsake the orphan.
Shabbir Ahmed	93:9 So, you too shall not treat harshly any orphan, widow, the helpless and he who feels left alone in the society.
Transliteration	93:9 Faamma alyateema fa l a taqhar
A	93:9 فاما اليتيم فلا تقهر
Edip-Layth	93:10 As for the beggar, you shall not reprimand.
The Monotheist Group	93:10 And as for the beggar, you shall not reprimand.
Muhammad Asad	93:10 and him that seeks [thy] help shalt thou never chide, ⁴
Rashad Khalifa	93:10 Nor shall you reprimand the beggar.
Shabbir Ahmed	93:10 And never shall you repulse him who seeks help.
Transliteration	93:10 Waamma a lssa-ila falatanhar
A	93:10 واما السائل فلا تنهر

Edip-Layth	93:11 You shall proclaim the blessings from your Lord.
The Monotheist Group	93:11 And you shall proclaim the blessings from your Lord.
Muhammad Asad	93:11 and of thy Sustainer's blessings shalt thou [ever] speak. 5
Rashad Khalifa	93:11 You shall proclaim the blessing your Lord has bestowed upon you.
Shabbir Ahmed	93:11 But the blessings of your Lord you shall speak of by sharing. 8
Transliteration	93:11 Waammā biniAAmati rabbika faḥaddith
A	93:11 واما بنعمة ربك فحدث

<< Prev 93:1-11 Next >>

Return to top

End Notes

Muhammad Asad - The Message Of Quran

Muhammad Asad - End Note 1 (93:2)

The expression "bright morning hours" apparently symbolizes the few and widely-spaced periods of happiness in human life, as contrasted with the much greater length of "the night when it grows still and dark", i.e., the extended periods of sorrow or suffering that, as a rule, overshadow man's existence in this world (cf. 90:4). The further implication is that, as sure as morning follows night, God's mercy is bound to lighten every suffering, either in this world or in the life to come - for God has "willed upon Himself the law of grace and mercy" (6:12 and 54).

Muhammad Asad - End Note 2 (93:3)

Sc., "as the thoughtless might conclude in view of the suffering that He has willed thee to bear".

Muhammad Asad - End Note 3 (93:6)

Possibly an allusion to the fact that Muhammad was born a few months after his father's death, and that his mother died when he was only six years old. Apart from this, however, every human being is an "orphan" in one sense or another, inasmuch as everyone is "created in a lonely state" (cf. 6:94), and "will appear before Him on Resurrection Day in a lonely state" (19:95).

Muhammad Asad - End Note 4 (93:10)

The term sa'il denotes" literally, "one who asks", which signifies not only a "beggar" but anyone who asks for help in a difficult situation, whether physical or moral, or even for enlightenment.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 5 (93:11)

Sc., "rather than of thy suffering".

Shabbir Ahmed -

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 2 (93:2)

There is light at the end of the tunnel and with hardship is ease, like there is Daybreak after the Night
89:1, 92:1-2, 94:5-6

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 3 (93:3)

Qalaa = Forget things unattended in a cooking pan. God has always provided mankind with what their minds and bodies need, and ensures that they do not trail behind in the process of Evolution

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 4 (93:4)

Aakhirah = Hereafter = Life to come = Long term = Tomorrow = The time and state to follow = Future = Outcome. 'Ula' = First = Close = Instant = Now = Immediate gains = Life of this world = Near

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 5 (93:6)

Yateem = Orphan = Lonely state. 6:95, 19:95

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 6 (93:7)

Dhall = Wandering = Looking for guidance = Lost = Drifting from the road

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 7 (93:8)

Dependence of infancy to early youth

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 8 (93:11)

Haddith = Convey and share what you have learned and gained

Edip-Layth - Quran: A Reformist Translation

Edip-Layth - End Note 1 (93:7)

See 42:52; 47:19; 48:2.

Best viewed using your own brain

Tested on 1024x768 resolution with  FIREFOX 2

Kitabun Marqum v0.6.7 - Kitabun Marqum - Quran Research Platform by QuraniX Team Copyright © 2002-2012 All rights reserved.
Copyrights of all translations belong to their respective authors.

2:2 This is the book in which there is no doubt, a guide for the conscientious.
 Edip-Layth (Quran: A Reformist Translation)

 Translations ▼

 Chapter/Verse ▼

 Refresh

 Search

<< Prev 94:1-8 Next >>

Edip-Layth	In the name of God, the Gracious, the Compassionate. 94:1 Did We not relieve your chest, ¹
The Monotheist Group	In the name of God, the Almighty, the Merciful. 94:1 Did We not relieve your chest,
Muhammad Asad	In the name of God, The Most Gracious, The Dispenser of Grace: 94:1 HAVE WE NOT opened up thy heart, ¹
Rashad Khalifa	In the name of GOD, Most Gracious, Most Merciful. 94:1 Did we not cool your temper?
Shabbir Ahmed	BISMILLAH-IR-RAHMAN-IR-RAHEEM With the Glorious Name of God, the Ultimate Source of Instant Beneficence and Eternal mercy Who encompasses the entire Universe, nourishing and taking care of all things for what they are meant to be; just as a mother's womb nourishes the embryo to completion without any returns. 94:1 Did We not expand your chest? ¹
Transliteration	Bismi Allāhi alrrahmāni alrraḥeemi 94:1 Alam nashrah laka ṣadraka
A	بِسْمِ اللَّهِ الرَّحْمَنِ الرَّحِيمِ 94:1 الم نشرح لك صدرك
Edip-Layth	94:2 Take from you your load,
The Monotheist Group	94:2 And take from you your load,
Muhammad Asad	94:2 and lifted from thee the burden
Rashad Khalifa	94:2 And we unloaded your load

Shabbir Ahmed	94:2 And eased you of the burden, ²
Transliteration	94:2 Wawa ḍa AA ṇa AAanka wizraka
A	94:2 ووضعنا عنك وزرك
Edip-Layth	94:3 Which had put strain on your back?
The Monotheist Group	94:3 Which had put strain on your back?
Muhammad Asad	94:3 that had weighed so heavily on thy back? ²
Rashad Khalifa	94:3 One that burdened your back. (of sins).
Shabbir Ahmed	94:3 That weighed down your back.
Transliteration	94:3 Allat hee anqada th ahraka
A	94:3 الذى انقض ظهرك
Edip-Layth	94:4 We have raised your remembrance,
The Monotheist Group	94:4 And We have raised your remembrance,
Muhammad Asad	94:4 And [have We not] raised thee high in dignity? ³
Rashad Khalifa	94:4 We exalted you to an honorable position.
Shabbir Ahmed	94:4 And We exalted your renown (O Prophet!) ³
Transliteration	94:4 WarafaAA ṇa laka th ikraka
A	94:4 ورفعنا لك ذكرك
Edip-Layth	94:5 So with hardship comes ease.
The Monotheist Group	94:5 So with hardship comes ease.
Muhammad Asad	94:5 And, behold, with every hardship comes ease:
Rashad Khalifa	94:5 With pain there is gain.
Shabbir Ahmed	94:5 With hardship comes ease.
Transliteration	94:5 Fa-inna maAAa alAAusri yusr an
A	94:5 فان مع العسر يسرا
Edip-Layth	94:6 With hardship comes ease.
The Monotheist Group	94:6 With hardship comes ease.
Muhammad Asad	94:6 verily, with every hardship comes ease!
Rashad Khalifa	94:6 Indeed, with pain there is gain.
Shabbir Ahmed	94:6 Indeed, with hardship comes ease.
Transliteration	94:6 Inna maAAa alAAusri yusr an

A	94:6 ان مع العسر يسرا
Edip-Layth	94:7 So when you are done, then stand.
The Monotheist Group	94:7 So when you are done, then stand.
Muhammad Asad	94:7 Hence, when thou art freed [from distress], remain steadfast,
Rashad Khalifa	94:7 Whenever possible you shall strive.
Shabbir Ahmed	94:7 So, whenever you are free from the immediate task, embark upon the next strife.
Transliteration	94:7 Fa-itha faraghta fainṣab
A	94:7 فاذا فرغت فانصب
Edip-Layth	94:8 To your Lord you shall seek.
The Monotheist Group	94:8 And to your Lord you shall seek.
Muhammad Asad	94:8 and unto thy Sustainer turn with love.
Rashad Khalifa	94:8 Seeking only your Lord.
Shabbir Ahmed	94:8 And turn all your attention to your Lord. 4
Transliteration	94:8 Wa-ilā rabbika fairghab
A	94:8 والى ربك فارغب

<< Prev 94:1-8 Next >>

Return to top

End Notes

Edip-Layth - Quran: A Reformist Translation

Edip-Layth - End Note 1 (94:1)

The verse that mentions relieving the chest has been distorted by fabricated hadith, which report a literal surgery on Muhammad's chest by Gabriel. The audience of this verse is not Muhammad alone, but all monotheists. See 6:125; 20:25; 39:22.

Muhammad Asad - The Message Of Quran

Muhammad Asad - End Note 1 (94:1)

Lit., "thy breast" or "bosom".

Muhammad Asad - End Note 2 (94:3)

I.e., "the burden of thy past sins, which are now forgiven" (Tabari, on the authority of Mujahid, Qatadah, Ad-Dahhak and Ibn Zayd). In the case of Muhammad, this relates apparently to mistakes committed before his call to prophethood (ibid.), and is obviously an echo of 93:7 - 'Has He not found thee lost on thy way, and guided thee?"

Muhammad Asad - End Note 3 (94:4)

Or: "raised high thy renown". The primary meaning of the term dhikr is "reminder" or "remembrance"; and, secondarily, "that by which something [or "someone"] is remembered", i.e., with praise: hence, it signifies "fame" or "renown", and, tropically - as in the present context- "eminence" or "dignity".

Shabbir Ahmed -

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 1 (94:1)

Endowed you with magnanimity, resilience, and courage to accomplish the Mission. 20:25

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 2 (94:2)

Made the journey through life easy by bestowing the perceptual and intellectual faculties. 80:20

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 3 (94:4)

And through the revelation to him, gave eminence to mankind! 21:10

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 4 (94:8)

Remain focused on the Mission entrusted upon you

Best viewed using your own brain

Tested on 1024x768 resolution with  FIREFOX 2

Kitabun Marqum v0.6.7 - Kitabun Marqum - Quran Research Platform by QuraniX Team Copyright © 2002-2012 All rights reserved.
Copyrights of all translations belong to their respective authors.

2:2 This is the book in which there is no doubt, a guide for the conscientious.
 Edip-Layth (Quran: A Reformist Translation)

 Translations ▼

 Chapter/Verse ▼

 Refresh

 Search

<< Prev 95:1-8 Next >>

Edip-Layth	In the name of God, the Gracious, the Compassionate. 95:1 By the fig and the olive. ¹
The Monotheist Group	In the name of God, the Almighty, the Merciful. 95:1 By the fig and the olive.
Muhammad Asad	In the name of God, The Most Gracious, The Dispenser of Grace: 95:1 CONSIDER the fig and the olive,
Rashad Khalifa	In the name of GOD, Most Gracious, Most Merciful. 95:1 By the fig and the olive.
Shabbir Ahmed	BISMILLAH-IR-RAHMAN-IR-RAHEEM With the Glorious Name of God, the Ultimate Source of Instant Beneficence and Eternal mercy Who encompasses the entire Universe, nourishing and taking care of all things for what they are meant to be; just as a mother's womb nourishes the embryo to completion without any returns. 95:1 Witnesses are the Fig and the Olive. ¹
Transliteration	Bismi Allāhi alRrahmāni alRrahēemi 95:1 Waaltteeni waalzaytoonī
A	بسم الله الرحمن الرحيم 95:1 والتين والزيتون
Edip-Layth	95:2 The mount of ages.
The Monotheist Group	95:2 And the mount of ages.
Muhammad Asad	95:2 and Mount Sinai,
Rashad Khalifa	95:2 Mount Sinai.

Shabbir Ahmed	95:2 And Mount Sinai. ²
Transliteration	95:2 Waṭoori seeneena
A	95:2 وطور سينين
Edip-Layth	95:3 This secure land.
The Monotheist Group	95:3 And this town of peace.
Muhammad Asad	95:3 and this land secure! ¹
Rashad Khalifa	95:3 And this honored town
Shabbir Ahmed	95:3 And now, (O Messenger!) this land of security and peace. ³
Transliteration	95:3 Wah a ṭha albaladi al-ameeni
A	95:3 وهذا البلد الامين
Edip-Layth	95:4 We have created people in the best form.
The Monotheist Group	95:4 We have created mankind in the best form.
Muhammad Asad	95:4 Verily, We create man in the best conformation; ²
Rashad Khalifa	(Mecca). 95:4 We created man in the best design.
Shabbir Ahmed	95:4 Indeed, We have created the human being in the best design (and with the potential to grow the 'self'.)
Transliteration	95:4 Laqad khalaqna al-insana fee aḥsanitaqweemin
A	95:4 لقد خلقنا الانسن فى احسن تقويم
Edip-Layth	95:5 Then We returned him to the lowest of the low.
The Monotheist Group	95:5 Then We returned him to the lowest of the low.
Muhammad Asad	95:5 and thereafter We reduce him to the lowest of low ³
Rashad Khalifa	95:5 Then turned him into the lowliest of the lowly.
Shabbir Ahmed	95:5 Then We turn him to the lowest of low. ⁴
Transliteration	95:5 Thumma radadnahu asfala safileena
A	95:5 ثم رددنه اسفل سفلين
Edip-Layth	95:6 Except those who have acknowledged and carry out reforms; they will have a reward of thanks.
The Monotheist Group	95:6 Except those who have believed and done good work, they will have a reward of thanks.
Muhammad Asad	95:6 excepting only such as attain to faith and do good works: and theirs shall be a reward unending!
Rashad Khalifa	95:6 Except those who believe and lead a righteous life; they receive a reward that is well deserved.

Shabbir Ahmed	95:6 Except those who choose to be graced with belief, and work to increase the human potential - theirs is a reward unending.
Transliteration	95:6 Illa alla theena amanoowaAAamiloo a Issalihati falahum ajrun ghayrumamnoonin
A	95:6 الا الذين ءامنوا وعملوا الصلحت فلهم اجر غير ممنون
Edip-Layth	95:7 So what would make you deny the system after that?
The Monotheist Group	95:7 So what would make you deny the system after that?
Muhammad Asad	95:7 What, then, [O man,] could henceforth cause thee to give the lie to this moral law? ⁴
Rashad Khalifa	95:7 Why do you still reject the faith?
Shabbir Ahmed	95:7 What, then, can make you deny the Divine System and the Final Judgment?
Transliteration	95:7 Fam a yukaththibuka baAAadu bialddeeni
A	95:7 فما يكذبك بعد بالدين
Edip-Layth	95:8 Is God not the wisest of the wise?
The Monotheist Group	95:8 Is God not the wisest of the wise?
Muhammad Asad	95:8 Is not God the most just of judges?
Rashad Khalifa	95:8 Is GOD not the Most Wise, of all the wise ones?
Shabbir Ahmed	95:8 Is not God the Sovereign of the sovereigns, the Wisest of the wise, the Best of all judges? ⁵
Transliteration	95:8 Alaysa Allahu bi-ahkami alhakimeena
A	95:8 اليس الله باحكم الحكمين

<< Prev 95:1-8 Next >>

Return to top

End Notes

Edip-Layth - Quran: A Reformist Translation

Edip-Layth - End Note 1 (95:1)

If the words Sina and "this secure land" are symbols referring to Moses and Muhammad, then could the fig and olive represent the location of other messengers? See 89:5.

Shabbir Ahmed -

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 1 (95:1)

The call of God's messengers, the history, the places and the reaction of their people

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 2 (95:2)

p19:52, 20:9-36, 52:1. Exodus 3:1-18 and 4:117

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 3 (95:3)

Makkah where the Final revelation has begun. 2:126

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 4 (95:5)

Whoever rejects Permanent Values, reduces himself to a subhuman existence. 91:7-10

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 5 (95:8)

Hukm carries all three meanings

Muhammad Asad - The Message Of Quran

Muhammad Asad - End Note 1 (95:3)

The "fig" and the "olive" symbolize, in this context, the lands in which these trees predominate: i.e., the countries bordering on the eastern part of the Mediterranean, especially Palestine and Syria. As it was in these lands that most of the Abrahamic prophets mentioned in the Qur'an lived and preached, these two species of tree may be taken as metonyms for the religious teachings voiced by the long line of those God-inspired men, culminating in the person of the last Judaic prophet, Jesus. "Mount Sinai", on the other hand, stresses specifically the apostleship of Moses, inasmuch as the religious law valid before, and up to, the advent of Muhammad - and in its essentials binding on Jesus as well - was revealed to Moses on a mountain of the Sinai Desert. Finally, "this land secure" signifies undoubtedly (as is evident from 2:126) Mecca, where Muhammad, the Last Prophet, was born and received his divine call. Thus, verses 1-3 draw our attention to the fundamental ethical unity underlying the teachings - the genuine teachings - of all the three historic phases of monotheistic religion, metonymically personified by Moses, Jesus and Muhammad. The specific truth to be considered here is referred to in the next three verses.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 2 (95:4)

I.e., endowed with all the positive qualities, physical as well as mental, corresponding to the functions which this particular creature is meant to perform. The concept of "the best conformation" is related to the Qur'anic statement that everything which God creates, including the human being or self (nafs), is "formed in accordance with what it is meant to be" (see 91:7 and the corresponding note 5, as well as in a more general sense - 87:2 and note 1). This statement does not in any way imply that all human beings have the same "best conformation" in respect of their bodily or mental endowments: it implies simply that irrespective of his natural advantages or disadvantages, each human being is endowed with the ability to make the, for him, best possible use of his inborn qualities and of the environment to which he is exposed. (See in this connection 30:30 and the corresponding notes, especially 27 and 28.)

Muhammad Asad - End Note 3 (95:5)

This "reduction to the lowest of low" is a consequence of man's betrayal - in another word, corruption - of his original, positive disposition: that is to say, a consequence of man's own doings and omissions. Regarding the attribution, by God, of this "reduction" to His Own doing, see note 7 on 2:7.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 4 (95:7)

I.e., to the validity of the moral law - which, to my mind, is the meaning of the term din in this context - outlined in the preceding three verses. (For this specific significance of the concept of din, see note 3 on 109:6.) The above rhetorical question has this implication: Since the moral law referred to here has been stressed in the teachings of all monotheistic religions (cf. verses 1-3 and note 1 above), its truth ought to be self-evident to any unprejudiced person; its negation, moreover, amounts to a negation of all freedom of moral choice on man's part and, hence, of justice on the part of God, who, as the next verse points out, is - by definition - "the most just of judges".

Best viewed using your own brain

Tested on 1024x768 resolution with  FIREFOX 2

Kitabun Marqum v0.6.7 - Kitabun Marqum - Quran Research Platform by QuraniX Team Copyright © 2002-2012 All rights reserved.
Copyrights of all translations belong to their respective authors.

2:2 This is the book in which there is no doubt, a guide for the conscientious.
 Edip-Layth (Quran: A Reformist Translation)

Translations ▼

Chapter/Verse ▼

Refresh

Search

<< Prev 96:1-19 Next >>

Edip-Layth	In the name of God, the Gracious, the Compassionate. 96:1 Read in the name of your Lord who has created. ¹
The Monotheist Group	In the name of God, the Almighty, the Merciful. 96:1 Read in the name of your Lord who has created.
Muhammad Asad	In the name of God, The Most Gracious, The Dispenser of Grace: 96:1 READ¹ in the name of thy Sustainer, who has-
Rashad Khalifa	In the name of GOD, Most Gracious, Most Merciful. 96:1 Read, in the name of your Lord, who created. ¹
Shabbir Ahmed	BISMILLAH-IR-RAHMAN-IR-RAHEEM With the Glorious Name of God, the Ultimate Source of Instant Beneficence and Eternal mercy Who encompasses the entire Universe, nourishing and taking care of all things for what they are meant to be; just as a mother's womb nourishes the embryo to completion without any returns. 96:1 Read! With the Name of your Lord Who created.
Transliteration	Bismi Allāhi alrraḥmāni alrraḥeemi 96:1 Iqra/ bi-ismi rabbika alla ṭḥee khalaqa
A	بِسْمِ اللَّهِ الرَّحْمَنِ الرَّحِيمِ 96:1 اقرا باسم ربك الذى خلق
Edip-Layth	96:2 He created the human being from an embryo. ²
The Monotheist Group	96:2 He created man from an embryo.
Muhammad Asad	96:2 created man out of a germ-cell ²
Rashad Khalifa	96:2 He created man from an embryo.

Shabbir Ahmed	96:2 Created man from a zygote. ¹
Transliteration	96:2 Khalaqa al-ins ana min AAalaq in
A	96:2 خلق الانسن من علق
Edip-Layth	96:3 Read, and your Lord is the Generous One.
The Monotheist Group	96:3 Read, and your Lord is the Generous One.
Muhammad Asad	96:3 Read - for thy Sustainer is the Most Bountiful One
Rashad Khalifa	96:3 Read, and your Lord, Most Exalted.
Shabbir Ahmed	96:3 Read! For, your Lord is Most Generous. ²
Transliteration	96:3 Iqra/ warabbuka al-akram u
A	96:3 اقرا وربك الاكرم
Edip-Layth	96:4 The One who taught by the pen.
The Monotheist Group	96:4 The One who taught by the pen.
Muhammad Asad	96:4 who has taught [man] the use of the pen
Rashad Khalifa	96:4 Teaches by means of the pen.
Shabbir Ahmed	96:4 Who has taught the use of the pen.
Transliteration	96:4 Alla thee AAallama bialqalami
A	96:4 الذى علم بالقلم
Edip-Layth	96:5 He taught the human being what he did not know.
The Monotheist Group	96:5 He taught man what he did not know.
Muhammad Asad	96:5 taught man what he did not know! ³
Rashad Khalifa	96:5 He teaches man what he never knew.
Shabbir Ahmed	96:5 Taught man what he knew not. ³
Transliteration	96:5 AAallama al-ins ana m a lamyAAalam
A	96:5 علم الانسن ما لم يعلم
Edip-Layth	96:6 Alas, the human being is bound to transgress.
The Monotheist Group	96:6 Alas, man is bound to transgress.
Muhammad Asad	96:6 Nay, verily, man becomes grossly overweening
Rashad Khalifa	96:6 Indeed, the human transgresses.
Shabbir Ahmed	96:6 Nay, certainly, man tries to play God! ⁴
Transliteration	96:6 Kalla a inna al-ins ana laya tigha

A
Edip-Layth	96:7 When he achieves, he no longer has need!
The Monotheist Group	96:7 When he achieves, he no longer has need!
Muhammad Asad	96:7 whenever he believes himself to be self-sufficient:
Rashad Khalifa	96:7 When he becomes rich.
Shabbir Ahmed	96:7 (And) in that he considers himself self-sufficient (forgetting how indebted he is to the Creator and the society for all his mental and physical resources.)
Transliteration	96:7 An raahu istaghna
A	96:7 ان رءاه استغنى
Edip-Layth	96:8 To your Lord is the return.
The Monotheist Group	96:8 To your Lord is the return.
Muhammad Asad	96:8 for, behold, unto thy Sustainer all must return. ⁴
Rashad Khalifa	96:8 To your Lord is the ultimate destiny.
Shabbir Ahmed	96:8 Indeed, to your Lord is the return. ⁵
Transliteration	96:8 Inna ila rabbika alrrujAAa
A	96:8 ان الى ربك الرجعى
Edip-Layth	96:9 Have you seen the one who deters,
The Monotheist Group	96:9 Have you seen the one who deters,
Muhammad Asad	96:9 HAST THOU ever considered him who tries to prevent
Rashad Khalifa	96:9 Have you seen the one who enjoins.
Shabbir Ahmed	96:9 Have you seen the kind of man who forbids
Transliteration	96:9 Araayta alla ^{thee} yanha
A	96:9 ارءيت الذى ينهى
Edip-Layth	96:10 A servant from being supportive?
The Monotheist Group	96:10 A servant from communing?
Muhammad Asad	96:10 a servant [of God] from praying? ⁵
Rashad Khalifa	96:10 Others from praying?
Shabbir Ahmed	96:10 A servant when he follows the Divine Commands?
Transliteration	96:10 AAabdan itha sala
A	96:10 عبدا اذا صلى
Edip-Layth	96:11 Have you seen if he was being guided,

The Monotheist Group	96:11 Have you seen if he was being guided,
Muhammad Asad	96:11 Hast thou considered whether he is on the right way,
Rashad Khalifa	96:11 Is it not better for him to follow the guidance?
Shabbir Ahmed	96:11 Have you considered if such a person is on the road of guidance?
Transliteration	96:11 Araayta in k ana AA ala al huda
A	96:11 ارعيت ان كان على الهدى
Edip-Layth	96:12 Or he ordered righteousness?
The Monotheist Group	96:12 Or he ordered righteousness?
Muhammad Asad	96:12 or is concerned with God-consciousness? ⁶
Rashad Khalifa	96:12 Or advocate righteousness?
Shabbir Ahmed	96:12 Or his affairs are leading him to security?
Transliteration	96:12 Aw amara bi al ttaqwa
A	96:12 او امر بالتقوى
Edip-Layth	96:13 Have you seen if he lied and turned away?
The Monotheist Group	96:13 Have you seen if he lied and turned away?
Muhammad Asad	96:13 Hast thou considered whether he may [not] be giving the lie to the truth and turning his back [upon it]? ⁷
Rashad Khalifa	96:13 If he disbelieves and turns away.
Shabbir Ahmed	96:13 Do you see him denying the truth and turning away from all that is good?
Transliteration	96:13 Araayta in ka th haba wata walla
A	96:13 ارعيت ان كذب وتولى
Edip-Layth	96:14 Did he not know that God can see?
The Monotheist Group	96:14 Did he not know that God can see?
Muhammad Asad	96:14 Does he, then, not know that God sees [all]?
Rashad Khalifa	96:14 Does he not realize that GOD sees?
Shabbir Ahmed	96:14 Does he not know that God sees everything?
Transliteration	96:14 Alam yaAAalam bi-anna All aha ya a
A	96:14 الم يعلم بان الله يرى
Edip-Layth	96:15 Alas, if he does not cease, we will strike the frontal lobe.
The Monotheist Group	96:15 Alas, if he does not cease, We will strike the frontal lobe.
Muhammad Asad	96:15 Nay, if he desist not, We shall most surely drag him down upon his forehead ⁸

Rashad Khalifa	96:15 Indeed, unless he refrains, we will take him by the forelock.
Shabbir Ahmed	96:15 Let him beware! If he does not desist, We will seize him by the forelock (to a state of humiliation). ⁶
Transliteration	96:15 Kalla la-in lam yantahi lanasfaAAanbi a lInn a siyati
A	96:15 كلا لن لم ينته لنسفا بالناصية
Edip-Layth	96:16 A frontal lobe which lies and errs.
The Monotheist Group	96:16 A frontal lobe which lies and errs.
Muhammad Asad	96:16 the lying, rebellious forehead!
Rashad Khalifa	96:16 A forelock that is disbelieving and sinful.
Shabbir Ahmed	96:16 A forelock that is given to denial and committing fault upon fault.
Transliteration	96:16 Nas i yatin ka th ibatin kha ti -atin
A	96:16 ناصية كذبة خاطئة
Edip-Layth	96:17 So let him call on his supporter.
The Monotheist Group	96:17 So let him call on his supporter.
Muhammad Asad	96:17 and then let him summon [to his aid] the counsels of his own [spurious] wisdom, ⁹
Rashad Khalifa	96:17 Let him then call on his helpers.
Shabbir Ahmed	96:17 Let him, then, call upon his advisory council.
Transliteration	96:17 FalyadAAu na d iyahu
A	96:17 فليدع نادية
Edip-Layth	96:18 We will call on the guardians.
The Monotheist Group	96:18 We will call on the guardians.
Muhammad Asad	96:18 [the while] We shall summon the forces of heavenly chastisement!
Rashad Khalifa	96:18 We will call the guardians of Hell.
Shabbir Ahmed	96:18 We shall summon the apprehending forces.
Transliteration	96:18 SanadAAu alzzaba n iyata
A	96:18 سندع الزبانية
Edip-Layth	96:19 So do not obey him, prostrate and come near.
The Monotheist Group	96:19 So do not obey him, prostrate and come near.
Muhammad Asad	96:19 Nay, pay thou no heed to him, but prostrate thyself [before God] and draw close [unto Him]!
Rashad Khalifa	96:19 You shall not obey him; you shall fall prostrate and draw nearer.
	96:19 Nay, never be intimidated by a man like this! But humble yourself in

Shabbir Ahmed	adoration to Divine Commands, and let every step of yours bring you closer (to your Lord).
Transliteration	96:19 Kalla la tuṭiAAhu waosjudwaiqtarib
A	96:19 كَلَّا لَا تَطْعَهُ وَاسْجُدْ وَاقْتَرِبْ

<< Prev 96:1-19 Next >>

Return to top

End Notes

Edip-Layth - Quran: A Reformist Translation

Edip-Layth - End Note 1 (96:1)

This chapter is traditionally known to be the first revelation of the Quran, chronologically. Those who know Arabic will notice the different spellings of two homophone words, which we transliterate as bismi (in the name). A reflection on these two differently spelled homophones, together with the first word, is another proof that Muhammad was a literate man. See 2:78; 7:157-158. This chapter is the 19th chapter from the end of the Quran and has 19 verses.

Edip-Layth - End Note 2 (96:2)

The Arabic word alaq is a multiple- meaning word: (1) blood clot; (2) hanging thing; (3) leech. Medieval commentators preferred the first meaning because of its organic nature. However, Maurice Bucaille, a French medical doctor who converted to islam while serving as a medical doctor for the Saudi royal family, had a problem with this traditional rendering. As someone who had deep knowledge in human embryology (see 3:7), he became the first person who noticed the problem with the traditional understanding and he rightly reminded us of the right meaning of the word, which perfectly describes the embryo, the hanging fertilized cells on the wall of the uterus, like a leech. It is true that in the stages of creation of humans, starting from semen, fertilization of the egg until birth, there is no "clot" stage. The Quran locates alaq (hanging thing) as the stage after the semen (22:5; 23:14). In his landmark book, The Bible, the Quran, and Science, Dr. Bucaille discusses the scientific accuracy of the Quran and compares it with the Bible and archeological and scientific evidences. Though his book is celebrated by Sunni and Shiite mushriks, many are disappointed by his criticism against hadith; he argued that the hadith fail the tests of science. This brave voice, however irritated the illusions of the followers of hadith and sunna. Thus, some publishing houses in the so-called Muslim countries, published book after expunging the section containing his criticism of hadith.

Muhammad Asad - The Message Of Quran

Muhammad Asad - End Note 1 (96:1)

Sc., "this divine writ". The imperative iqra' may be rendered as "read" or "recite". The former rendering is, to my mind, by far the preferable in this context inasmuch as the concept of "reciting" implies no more than the oral delivery - with or without understanding - of something already laid down in writing or committed to memory, whereas "reading" primarily signifies a conscious taking-in, with or without an audible utterance but with a view to understanding them, of words and ideas received from an outside source: in this case, the message of the Qur'an.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 2 (96:2)

The past tense in which the verb khalafa appears in these two verses is meant to indicate that the act of divine creation (khalq) has been and is being continuously repeated. It is also noteworthy that this very first Qur'anic revelation alludes to man's embryonic evolution out of a "germ-cell." - i.e., out of a fertilized female ovum - thus contrasting the primitiveness and simplicity of his biological origins with his intellectual and spiritual potential: a contrast which clearly points to the existence of a conscious design and a purpose underlying the creation of life.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 3 (96:5)

"The pen" is used here as a symbol for the art of writing or, more specifically, for all knowledge recorded by means of writing: and this explains the symbolic summons "Read!" at the beginning of verses 1 and 3. Man's unique ability to transmit, by means of written records, his thoughts, experiences and insights from individual to individual, from generation to generation, and from one cultural environment to another endows all human knowledge with a cumulative character; and since, thanks to this God-given ability, every human being partakes, in one way or another, in mankind's continuous accumulation of knowledge, man is spoken of as being "taught by God" things which the single individual does not - and, indeed, cannot - know by himself. (This double stress on man's utter dependence on God, who creates him as a biological entity and implants in him the will and the ability to acquire knowledge, receives its final accent, as it were, in the next three verses.) Furthermore, God's "teaching" man signifies also the act of His revealing, through the prophets, spiritual truths and moral standards which cannot be unequivocally established through human experience and reasoning alone: and, thus, it circumscribes the phenomenon of divine revelation as such.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 4 (96:8)

Lit., "is the return (ar-ruj'a)". This noun has here a twofold implication: "everyone will inescapably be brought before God for judgment", as well as "everything that exists goes back to God as its source". In ultimate analysis, the statement expressed in verses 6-8 rejects as absurd the arrogant idea that man could ever be self-sufficient and, hence, "master of his own fate"; furthermore, it implies that all moral concepts - that is, all discrimination between good and evil, or right and wrong - are indissolubly linked with the concept of man's responsibility to a Supreme Power: in other words, without such a feeling of responsibility - whether conscious or subconscious - the concept of "morality" as such loses all its meaning.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 5 (96:10)

Lit., "who forbids a servant [of God] when he prays", implying an attempt at preventing. Since this seems to refer to praying in public, most of the classical commentators see in this passage (which was revealed at least a year later than the first five verses) an allusion to Abu Jahl, the Prophet's bitterest opponent in Mecca, who persistently tried to prevent Muhammad and his followers from praying before the Kabah. However, there is no doubt that the purport of the above passage goes far beyond any historical incident or situation inasmuch as it applies to all attempts, at all times, to deny to religion (symbolized in the term "praying") its legitimate function in the shaping of social life - attempts made either in the conviction that religion is every individual's "private affair" and, therefore, must not be allowed to "intrude" into the realm of social considerations, or, alternatively, in the pursuit of the illusion that man is above any need of metaphysical guidance.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 6 (96:12)

Lit., "or enjoins God-consciousness (taqwa)" - i.e., whether his aim is to deepen his fellow-men's God-consciousness by insisting that religion is a purely personal matter: the obvious implication being that this is not his aim, and that he is not on the right way in thinking and acting as he does. - Throughout this work, the term taqwa - of which the present is the earliest instance in the chronology of Qur'anic revelation - has been rendered as "God-consciousness", with the same meaning attaching to the verbal forms from which this noun is derived. (See also surah 2, note 2.)

Muhammad Asad - End Note 7 (96:13)

Sc., "because in his arrogance he cannot face it".

Muhammad Asad - End Note 8 (96:15)

Or: "by his forelock" - an ancient Arabian expression denoting a person's utter subjection and humiliation (see 11:56 and the corresponding note 80). However, as Razi points out, the term "forelock" (nasiyah) is here used metonymically for the place on which the forelock grows, i.e., the forehead (cf. also Taj al-'Arus).

Muhammad Asad - End Note 9 (96:17)

Lit., "'his council". According to the commentators who tend to interpret verses such as this in purely historical terms, this may be a reference to the traditional council of elders (dar an- nadwah) in pagan Mecca; but more probably, I think, it is an allusion to the arrogance which so often deludes man into regarding himself as "self-sufficient" (verses 6-7 above).

Rashad Khalifa - The Final Testament

Rashad Khalifa - End Note 1 (96:1)

From 96 to 114 is 19 suras. The first revelation (96:1-5) is 19 Arabic words, 76 letters (19x4). The sura consists of 19 verses and 304 Arabic letters (Appendices 1 & 23).

Shabbir Ahmed -

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 1 (96:2)

And passed him through the embryonic stages 23:13-14. Endowed him with perceptual and conceptual faculties 32:7-9. Gave him the free will 76:2-3, 90:8-10. Distinguished him from the rest of the Animal Kingdom 47:12. For a comprehensive overview of man's creation from the very beginning, water and the inorganic matter, and onward please see 22:5

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 2 (96:3)

He has blessed humans with the capacity to learn and teach

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 3 (96:5)

The Pen symbolizes the transmission and exchange of knowledge through written records, unique to man. Since this is a Divine gift to mankind, "It is He Who taught."

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 4 (96:6)

Tagha = Trying to be supreme = Being a false god = Grossly overweening = Arrogance beyond limits = Creating rebellion = Trespassing Permanent Values. Taaghoot = A false god = Tyrant = Humans claiming Divine powers = Priesthood

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 5 (96:8)

Everything that exists goes back to the Creator as its Source and is bound by His law. All people will be returned to Him for Judgment. Mankind will eventually return to the Divinely Ordained System of Life

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 6 (96:15)

Forelock indicates cognitive abilities. 11:56

Best viewed using your own brain

Tested on 1024x768 resolution with  FIREFOX 2

Kitabun Marqum v0.6.7 - Kitabun Marqum - Quran Research Platform by QuraniX Team Copyright © 2002-2012 All rights reserved.
Copyrights of all translations belong to their respective authors.

2:2 This is the book in which there is no doubt, a guide for the conscientious.
 Edip-Layth (Quran: A Reformist Translation)

 Translations ▼

 Chapter/Verse ▼

 Refresh

 Search

<< Prev 97:1-5 Next >>

Edip-Layth	In the name of God, the Gracious, the Compassionate. 97:1 We have sent it down in the Night of Decree. ¹
The Monotheist Group	In the name of God, the Almighty, the Merciful. 97:1 We have sent it down in the Night of Decree.
Muhammad Asad	In the name of God, The Most Gracious, The Dispenser of Grace: 97:1 BEHOLD, from on high have We bestowed this [divine writ] on Night of Destiny. ¹
Rashad Khalifa	In the name of GOD, Most Gracious, Most Merciful. 97:1 We revealed it in the Night of Destiny. ¹
Shabbir Ahmed	BISMILLAH-IR-RAHMAN-IR-RAHEEM With the Glorious Name of God, the Ultimate Source of Instant Beneficence and Eternal mercy Who encompasses the entire Universe, nourishing and taking care of all things for what they are meant to be; just as a mother's womb nourishes the embryo to completion without any returns. 97:1 Indeed, We have revealed it in the Night of Majesty.
Transliteration	Bismi Allāhi alrraḥmāni alrraḥeemi 97:1 Innā anzalnāhu fee laylatialqadri
A	بسم الله الرحمن الرحيم 97:1 انا انزلنه فى ليلة القدر
Edip-Layth	97:2 Do you know what the Night of Decree is?
The Monotheist Group	97:2 And do you know what is the Night of Decree?
Muhammad Asad	97:2 And what could make thee conceive what it is, that Night of Destiny?

Rashad Khalifa	97:2 How awesome is the Night of Destiny!
Shabbir Ahmed	97:2 Ah, what will enlighten you what it is, the Night of Majesty!
Transliteration	97:2 Wama adraka ma laylatualqadri
A	97:2 وما ادرك ما ليلة القدر
Edip-Layth	97:3 The Night of Decree is better than one thousand months.
The Monotheist Group	97:3 The Night of Decree is better than one thousand months.
Muhammad Asad	97:3 The Night of Destiny is better than a thousand months: ²
Rashad Khalifa	97:3 The Night of Destiny is better than a thousand months.
Shabbir Ahmed	97:3 The Night of Majesty is better than a thousand months. ¹
Transliteration	97:3 Laylatu alqadri khayrun min alfi shahr in
A	97:3 ليلة القدر خير من ألف شهر
Edip-Layth	97:4 The angels and the Spirit come down in it by their Lord's leave to carry out every matter.
The Monotheist Group	97:4 The angels and the Spirit come down in it by their Lord's leave to carry out every matter.
Muhammad Asad	97:4 in hosts descend in it the angels, ³ bearing divine inspiration ⁴ by their Sustainer's leave; from all [evil] that may happen
Rashad Khalifa	97:4 The angels and the Spirit descend therein, by their Lord's leave, to carry out every command.
Shabbir Ahmed	97:4 The Universal forces and the Divine revelation have descended therein, by their Lord's Leave and shall work in concert with every decree to carry out His plan.
Transliteration	97:4 Tanazzalu almal a -ikatu waalrroo h ufeeh a bi-i th ni rabbi h im min kulli amr in
A	97:4 تنزل الملكة والروح فيها بأذن ربهم من كل امر
Edip-Layth	97:5 It is peaceful until the coming of dawn.
The Monotheist Group	97:5 It is peaceful until the coming of dawn.
Muhammad Asad	97:5 does it make secure, ⁵ until the rise of dawn.
Rashad Khalifa	97:5 Peaceful it is until the advent of the dawn.
Shabbir Ahmed	97:5 Peace! It is a message of Peace and Security, and inevitably, a new Morning of Enlightenment shall dawn. ²
Transliteration	97:5 Sal a mun hiya hatta ma tl aa l fajri
A	97:5 سلم هي حتى مطلع الفجر

End Notes

Edip-Layth - Quran: A Reformist Translation

Edip-Layth - End Note 1 (97:1)

For every appreciative person there is a night of qadr (determination; power) night, in which they decide to dedicate themselves to God alone by fully using their intellectual faculties.

Muhammad Asad - The Message Of Quran

Muhammad Asad - End Note 1 (97:1)

Or: "of Almightiness" or "of Majesty" - thus describing the night on which the Prophet received his first revelation (see introductory note to the preceding surah). On the basis of several Traditions it may be assumed that it was one of the last ten nights - probably the twenty-seventh - of the month of Ramadan, thirteen years before the Prophet's emigration to Medina.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 2 (97:3)

Sc., "in which there was no similar night" (Razi).

Muhammad Asad - End Note 3 (97:4)

The grammatical form tanazzalu implies repetition, frequency or multitude; hence - as suggested by Ibn Kathir - "descending in hosts".

Muhammad Asad - End Note 4 (97:4)

Lit., "and [divine] inspiration". For this rendering of ruh, see first sentence of 16:2 and the corresponding note 2. The present instance is undoubtedly the earliest example of the Qur'anic use of this term in the sense of "divine inspiration".

Muhammad Asad - End Note 5 (97:5)

Lit., "it is salvation (salam, see surah 5, note 29) - i.e., it makes the believer secure from all spiritual evil: thus Mujahid (as quoted by Ibn Kathir), evidently implying that a conscious realization of the sanctity of this night acts as a shield against unworthy thoughts and inclinations.

Rashad Khalifa - The Final Testament

Rashad Khalifa - End Note 1 (97:1)

The Quran was placed into Muhammad's soul on the 27th night of Ramadan, 13 B.H. (Before Hijrah). See also 17:1, 44:3, 53:1-18, and Appendix 28.

Shabbir Ahmed -

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 1 (97:3)

A day of enlightenment is better than a life-time of ignorance

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 2 (97:5)

39:69

Best viewed using your own brain

Tested on 1024x768 resolution with  FIREFOX 2

Kitabun Marqum v0.6.7 - Kitabun Marqum - Quran Research Platform by QuraniX Team Copyright © 2002-2012 All rights reserved.
Copyrights of all translations belong to their respective authors.

2:2 This is the book in which there is no doubt, a guide for the conscientious.
 Edip-Layth (Quran: A Reformist Translation)

 Translations ▼

 Chapter/Verse ▼

 Refresh

 Search

<< Prev 98:1-8 Next >>

Edip-Layth	In the name of God, the Gracious, the Compassionate. 98:1 Those who rejected amongst the people of the book and those who set up partners would not leave until proof came to them.
The Monotheist Group	In the name of God, the Almighty, the Merciful. 98:1 Those who rejected amongst the people of the Scripture and those who set up partners would not leave until proof came to them.
Muhammad Asad	In the name of God, The Most Gracious, The Dispenser of Grace: 98:1 IT IS NOT [conceivable] that such as are bent on denying the truth - [be they] from among the followers of earlier revelation or from among those who ascribe divinity to aught beside God ¹ should ever be abandoned [by Him] ere there comes unto them the [full] evidence of the truth:
Rashad Khalifa	In the name of GOD, Most Gracious, Most Merciful. 98:1 Those who disbelieved among the people of the scripture, as well as the idol worshipers, insist on their ways, despite the proof given to them.¹
Shabbir Ahmed	BISMILLAH-IR-RAHMAN-IR-RAHEEM With the Glorious Name of God, the Ultimate Source of Instant Beneficence and Eternal mercy Who encompasses the entire Universe, nourishing and taking care of all things for what they are meant to be; just as a mother's womb nourishes the embryo to completion without any returns. 98:1 It is inconceivable that those who are denying the truth, whether they are among the People of the scripture or the idolaters, could depart from their ways until the clear evidence reaches them. ¹
Transliteration	Bismi Allāhi alrrahmāni alrraḥeemi 98:1 Lam yakuni alla theena kafaroo min ahlialkit abi wa almushrikeena munfakkeena hattata/tiyahumu albayyinatu
A	بسم الله الرحمن الرحيم

98:1 لم يكن الذين كفروا من اهل الكتب والمشركون منفكين حتى تأتيهم البينة

Edip-Layth	98:2 A messenger from God reciting purified scripts.
The Monotheist Group	98:2 A messenger from God reciting purified scripts.
Muhammad Asad	98:2 an apostle from God, conveying [unto them] revelations blest with purity,
Rashad Khalifa	98:2 A messenger from GOD is reciting to them sacred instructions.
Shabbir Ahmed	98:2 A messenger from God is reciting to them purified Scrolls. ²
Transliteration	98:2 Rasoolun mina Allāhi yatloo ṣuḥufanmuṭahharatan
A	98:2 رسول من الله يتلوا صحفا مطهرة
Edip-Layth	98:3 In them are valuable books.
The Monotheist Group	98:3 In them are valuable books.
Muhammad Asad	98:3 wherein there are ordinances of ever-true soundness and clarity. ²
Rashad Khalifa	98:3 In them there are valuable teachings.
Shabbir Ahmed	98:3 Wherein are Authoritative scriptures.
Transliteration	98:3 Feeha kutubun qayyimatu
A	98:3 فيها كتب قيمة
Edip-Layth	98:4 Those who had previously received the book did not divide except after the proof came to them.
The Monotheist Group	98:4 And those who had previously received the Scripture did not divide except after the proof came to them.
Muhammad Asad	98:4 Now those who have been vouchsafed revelation aforetime ³ did break up their unity [of faith] after such an evidence of the truth had come to them. ⁴
Rashad Khalifa	98:4 In fact, those who received the scripture did not dispute until the proof was given to them.
Shabbir Ahmed	98:4 The People of the scripture had divided themselves even when the evidence of truth had already come to them.
Transliteration	98:4 Wama tafarraqa alla theena ootooalkit aba ill a min baAAadi m a j aat-humualbayyinat
A	98:4 وما تفرق الذين اوتوا الكتب الا من بعد ما جاءتهم البينة
Edip-Layth	98:5 They were not commanded except to serve God and be loyal to His system, monotheism, and hold the contact prayer and contribute towards betterment. Such is the valuable system. ¹
The Monotheist Group	98:5 And they were not commanded except to serve God and be loyal to His system, monotheists, and uphold the communion and contribute towards betterment. Such is the valuable system.
	98:5 And withal, they were not enjoined aught but that they should worship God, sincere in their faith in Him alone, turning away from all that is false; ⁵ and that

Muhammad Asad	they should be constant in prayer; and that they should spend in charity: ⁶ for this is a moral law endowed with ever-true soundness and clarity. ⁷
Rashad Khalifa	98:5 All that was asked of them was to worship GOD, devoting the religion absolutely to Him alone, observe the contact prayers (Salat), and give the obligatory charity (Zakat). Such is the perfect religion.
Shabbir Ahmed	98:5 And they were commanded no more than to serve God being sincere in Religion for Him, turning away from all that is false, establishing the Divine System and setting up the Economic Order of Zakaat. That is the Perfect System of Life. ³
Transliteration	98:5 Wama omiroo ill a liyaAAbudooAll aha mukhli seena lahu a Iddeena hunafaawayuqeemoo alssalata wayu/too alzzakatawathalika deenu alqayyimati
A	98:5 وما امرؤ الا ليعبدوا الله مخلصين له الدين حنفاء ويقيموا الصلوة ويؤتوا الزكاة وذلك دين القيمة
Edip-Layth	98:6 Those who rejected from the people of the book and those who set up partners are in the fires of hell abiding therein, those are the worst of creation.
The Monotheist Group	98:6 Those who rejected from the people of the Scripture and those who set up partners are in the fires of Hell abiding therein, those are the worst of creation.
Muhammad Asad	98:6 Verily, those who [despite all evidence] are bent on denying the truth ⁸ - [be they] from among the followers of earlier revelation or from among those who ascribe divinity to aught beside God - will find themselves in the fire of hell, therein to abide: they are the worst of all creatures.
Rashad Khalifa	98:6 Those who disbelieved among the people of the scripture, and the idol worshipers, have incurred the fire of Gehenna forever. They are the worst creatures.
Shabbir Ahmed	98:6 Surely, those who oppose the truth, be they among the People of the scripture or the idol worshipers under any guise, will abide in Hell. Those who receive the truth and then oppose it are the worst of all created beings.
Transliteration	98:6 Inna alla theena kafaroo min ahli alkit abiwaalmushrikeena fee n ari jahannama khallideenafeeha ola-ika hum sharru albariyyati
A	98:6 ان الذين كفروا من اهل الكتب والمشركون فى نار جهنم خالدين فيها اولئك هم شر البرية
Edip-Layth	98:7 As for those who acknowledge and do good works, they are the best of creation.
The Monotheist Group	98:7 As for those who believe and do good works, they are the best of creation.
Muhammad Asad	98:7 [And,] verily, those who have attained to faith, and do righteous deeds - it is they, they who are the best of all creatures.
Rashad Khalifa	98:7 Those who believed and led a righteous life are the best creatures.
Shabbir Ahmed	98:7 And those who have chosen to be graced with belief, and help others, they are the best of all created beings.
Transliteration	98:7 Inna alla theena amanoowaAAamiloo a lssalihati ol a-ika humkhayru albariyyati
A	98:7 ان الذين ءامنوا وعملوا الصالحات اولئك هم خير البرية

Edip-Layth	98:8 Their reward with their Lord is the gardens of Eden with rivers flowing beneath them; they abide eternally therein. God is satisfied with them, and they are satisfied with Him. That is for whoever feared His Lord.
The Monotheist Group	98:8 Their reward with their Lord is the gardens of Eden with rivers flowing beneath them, they abide eternally therein. God is satisfied with them, and they are satisfied with Him. That is for whoever feared His Lord.
Muhammad Asad	98:8 Their reward [awaits them] with God: gardens of perpetual bliss, through which running waters flow, therein to abide beyond the count of time; well-pleased is God with them, and well-pleased are they with Him: all this awaits him who of his Sustainer stands in awe!.
Rashad Khalifa	98:8 Their reward at their Lord is the gardens of Eden with flowing streams, wherein they abide forever. GOD is pleased with them, and they are pleased with Him. Such is the reward for those who reverence their Lord.
Shabbir Ahmed	98:8 Their reward is with their Lord, Gardens of Eden (of perpetual bliss) to abide therein forever; underneath which rivers flow. Well pleased is God with them and well-pleased are they with Him. All this awaits him who fears (violating the commands of) his Lord.
Transliteration	98:8 Jazaohum AAinda rabbihim jann atuAAadnin tajree min ta htiha al-anh aru khālideenafeeha abadan ra diya Allahu AAanhum wara dooAAanhu thalika liman khashiya rabbahu
A	98:8 جزاؤهم عند ربهم جنت عدن تجري من تحتها الأنهر خلدین فیها ابدًا رضى الله عنهم ورضوا عنه ذلك لمن خشی ربه

<< Prev 98:1-8 Next >>

Return to top

End Notes

Muhammad Asad - The Message Of Quran

Muhammad Asad - End Note 1 (98:1)

I.e., idol-worshippers or animists (in the anthropological sense of this word) who have never had any revealed scripture to fall back upon.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 2 (98:3)

This aggregate connotation is inherent in the adjective qayyimah as used here (Razi). - The above passage has caused some difficulties to the classical commentators on account of the participle munfakkin occurring in the first verse. It is generally assumed that this participle, in combination with the phrase lam yakun at the beginning of the verse, denotes "they did not [or "could not"] give up" or "separate themselves from" - i.e., supposedly, from their erroneous beliefs - "until there came to them the evidence of the truth" in the person of the Prophet Muhammad and in the revelation of the Qur'an: implying that after the evidence came, they did give up those false beliefs. This assumption is, however, deficient on two counts: firstly, it is well-known that not all of the erring ones from among the ahl al-kitab and the mushrikin accepted the message of the Qur'an when it was conveyed to them; and, secondly, the ahl al-kitab are spoken of in verse 4 as having "broken their unity [of faith]" - i.e., offended against the fundamental principles of that faith - after "the evidence of the truth" had come to them. This apparent contradiction has been convincingly resolved by no less an authority than Ibn Taymiyyah (see Tafsir Sitt Suwar, pp. 391 ff.); and it is his interpretation that I have followed in my rendering of the above three verses. According to Ibn Taymiyyah, the pivotal phrase lam yakun munfakkin does not denote "they did not give up" or "separate themselves from", but, rather, "they are not abandoned" - i.e., condemned by God - unless and until they have been shown the right way by a God-sent prophet, and thereupon have consciously refused to follow it: and this is in accord with repeated statements in the Qur'an to the effect that God does not take anyone to task for wrong beliefs and wrong actions unless the true meaning of right and wrong has previously been made clear to him (cf. 6:131-132 and the second paragraph of 17:15, as well as the corresponding notes). Hence, the above reference to "the evidence of the truth" does not relate only to the Qur'an and the Prophet Muhammad but to all the earlier prophets and revelations as well (cf. 42:13 and the corresponding notes 12-14) - just as the "ordinances of ever-true soundness and clarity" (spelled out in verse 5 below) are common to all God-inspired messages, of which the Qur'an is the final, most perfect expression.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 3 (98:4)

This definition is general, comprising the followers of all religious teachings revealed before the advent of the Prophet Muhammad (Ibn Kathir), and not - as some commentators assume- only the Jews and the Christians. (See also notes 12 and 13 on 3:19.)

Muhammad Asad - End Note 4 (98:4)

I.e., most of them strayed from the teachings of the prophets sent to them, all of whom had preached the same fundamental truths (see next verse and note 6 below).

Muhammad Asad - End Note 5 (98:5)

For this rendering of hunafa' (sing. hanif), see surah 2, note 110.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 6 (98:5)

Since the term zakah has here obviously a wider meaning than the obligatory tax incumbent on Muslims (which, as its name indicates, is meant to purify their income and their possessions from the taint of selfishness), I am rendering the above phrase in the more general sense of "spending in [i.e., practicing] charity".

Muhammad Asad - End Note 7 (98:5)

As regards the connotation of "moral law" in the term din, see note 3 on 109:6; the qualifying noun al-qayyimah (in the genitive case) has here the same meaning as the adjective qayyimah at the end of verse 3. The above definition of moral law outlines, in a condensed form, all the basic demands of true religion: a cognition of God's oneness and uniqueness and, implicitly, of man's responsibility to Him; a turning-away from all false concepts, values and dubious beliefs, all over-estimation of oneself, and all superstition; and, finally, kindness and charity towards all of God's creatures.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 8 (98:6)

Namely, the self-evident principles formulated in the preceding verse as the beginning and the end of all moral law.

Rashad Khalifa - End Note 1 (98:1)

The proof is the Quran's mathematical code (Appendix 1) and the messenger is Rashad Khalifa. The number of the sura (98), plus the verse number (2), plus the numerical value of ``Rashad Khalifa" (1230) add up to 1330 (19x70), the same total as in 81:19 (Appendix 2).

Rashad Khalifa - End Note (98:2)

Shabbir Ahmed -

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 1 (98:1)

The Qur'an liberates them from the shackles of their manmade dogmas and brings them from darkness to light. 7:157

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 2 (98:2)

That are well-scored and well-written on parchment by honored scribes. 52:2-3, 80:13-16

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 3 (98:5)

Deen = Divinely Prescribed Way of Life. Religion does not convey the exact meaning

Edip-Layth - Quran: A Reformist Translation

Edip-Layth - End Note 1 (98:5)

See 39:11.

Best viewed using your own brain

Tested on 1024x768 resolution with  FIREFOX 2

Kitabun Marqum v0.6.7 - Kitabun Marqum - Quran Research Platform by QuraniX Team Copyright © 2002-2012 All rights reserved.
Copyrights of all translations belong to their respective authors.

2:2 This is the book in which there is no doubt, a guide for the conscientious.
 Edip-Layth (Quran: A Reformist Translation)

Translations ▼

Chapter/Verse ▼

Refresh

Search

Search

<< Prev 99:1-8 Next >>

Edip-Layth	In the name of God, the Gracious, the Compassionate. 99:1 When the earth rumbles and shakes.
The Monotheist Group	In the name of God, the Almighty, the Merciful. 99:1 When the Earth rumbles and shakes.
Muhammad Asad	In the name of God, The Most Gracious, The Dispenser of Grace: 99:1 WHEN THE EARTH quakes with her [last] mighty quaking,
Rashad Khalifa	In the name of GOD, Most Gracious, Most Merciful. 99:1 When the earth is severely quaked.
Shabbir Ahmed	BISMILLAH-IR-RAHMAN-IR-RAHEEM With the Glorious Name of God, the Ultimate Source of Instant Beneficence and Eternal mercy Who encompasses the entire Universe, nourishing and taking care of all things for what they are meant to be; just as a mother's womb nourishes the embryo to completion without any returns. 99:1 When the earth is shaken with her mighty quaking. 1
Transliteration	Bismi Allāhi alrrahmāni alrraḥeemi 99:1 lṭha zulzilati al-arḍu zilzālaha
A	بِسْمِ اللَّهِ الرَّحْمَنِ الرَّحِيمِ 99:1 اذا زلزلت الارض زلزالها
Edip-Layth	99:2 The earth brings out its mass.
The Monotheist Group	99:2 And the Earth brings out its mass.
Muhammad Asad	99:2 and [when] the earth yields up her burdens, 1
Rashad Khalifa	99:2 And the earth ejects its loads.

Shabbir Ahmed	99:2 And the earth yields up her burdens. ²
Transliteration	99:2 Waakhrajati al-ardu athqalaha
A	99:2 واخرجت الارض اثقالها
Edip-Layth	99:3 The human being will say, "What is wrong with her?"
The Monotheist Group	99:3 And man will say: "What is wrong with her?"
Muhammad Asad	99:3 and man cries out, "What has happened to her?" -
Rashad Khalifa	99:3 The human will wonder: "What is happening?"
Shabbir Ahmed	99:3 And mankind cries out, "What has happened to her?" ³
Transliteration	99:3 Waqala al-insanu ma laha
A	99:3 وقال الانسن ما لها
Edip-Layth	99:4 On that day it will inform its news.
The Monotheist Group	99:4 On that Day it will inform its news.
Muhammad Asad	99:4 on that Day will she recount all her tidings,
Rashad Khalifa	99:4 On that day, it will tell its news.
Shabbir Ahmed	99:4 At that time she will relate her stories. ⁴
Transliteration	99:4 Yawma-ithin tuhaddithu akhbaraha
A	99:4 يومئذ تحدث اخبارها
Edip-Layth	99:5 That your Lord had inspired her to do so.
The Monotheist Group	99:5 That your Lord had inspired her to do so.
Muhammad Asad	99:5 as thy Sustainer will have inspired her to do! ²
Rashad Khalifa	99:5 That your Lord has commanded it.
Shabbir Ahmed	99:5 Your Lord will have sent His command to her. ⁵
Transliteration	99:5 Bi-anna rabbaka awaha laha
A	99:5 بان ربك اوحى لها
Edip-Layth	99:6 On that day, the people will be brought out in throngs to be shown their works.
The Monotheist Group	99:6 On that Day, the people will be brought out in throngs to be shown their works.
Muhammad Asad	99:6 On that Day will all men come forward, cut off from one another, ³ to be shown their [past] deeds.
Rashad Khalifa	99:6 On that day, the people will issue from every direction, to be shown their works.
	99:6 On that Day will all people come forth as separate entities, to be shown

Shabbir Ahmed	their deeds. ⁶
Transliteration	99:6 Yawma-i th in ya ^s duru a ^l nn ^a suasht ^a tan liyuraw aAAa ^m alahum
A	99:6 يومئذ يصدر الناس اشتاتا ليروا اعمالهم
Edip-Layth	99:7 So whoever does an atom's weight of good will see it.
The Monotheist Group	99:7 So whoever does an atoms weight of good will see it.
Muhammad Asad	99:7 And so, he who shall have done an atom's weight of good, shall behold it;
Rashad Khalifa	99:7 Whoever does an atom's weight of good will see it.
Shabbir Ahmed	99:7 Then whoever has done an atom's weight of good, will see it.
Transliteration	99:7 Faman yaAAa ^m al mithq ^a la th arratinkhayran yarah u
A	99:7 فمن يعمل مثقال ذرة خيرا يره
Edip-Layth	99:8 Whoever does an atom's weight of evil will see it.
The Monotheist Group	99:8 And whoever does an atoms weight of evil will see it.
Muhammad Asad	99:8 and he who shall have done an atom's weight of evil, shall behold it.
Rashad Khalifa	99:8 And whoever does an atom's weight of evil will see it.
Shabbir Ahmed	99:8 And whoever has done an atom's weight of evil, will see it. ⁷
Transliteration	99:8 Waman yaAAa ^m al mithq ^a la th arratinsharran yarah u
A	99:8 ومن يعمل مثقال ذرة شرا يره

<< Prev 99:1-8 Next >>

Return to top

End Notes

Shabbir Ahmed -

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 1 (99:1)

A mighty Revolution will overtake the world

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 2 (99:2)

Archaeology and mining will make long strides. Tyrants will be thrown out of power

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 3 (99:3)

People will be stunned at the speed of unfolding events

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 4 (99:4)

The history of revolutions will repeat itself on a massive scale

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 5 (99:5)

Progressive unfolding of the Divine decree

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 6 (99:6)

The guilty will stand apart from the innocent. 36:59

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 7 (99:8)

The Justice system will improve on earth. And, finally, the Day of Judgment will deliver Divine Justice

Muhammad Asad - The Message Of Quran

Muhammad Asad - End Note 1 (99:2)

I.e., all that was hitherto hidden in it, including the bodies- or the remnants - of the dead.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 2 (99:5)

I.e., on the Day of Judgment the earth will bear witness, as it were, to all that has ever been done by man: an explanation given by the Prophet, according to a Tradition on the authority of Abu Hurayrah (quoted by Ibn Hanbal and Tirmidhi).

Muhammad Asad - End Note 3 (99:6)

Lit., "as separate entities" (ashtatan). Cf. 6:94 - "And now, indeed, you have come unto Us in a lonely state, even as We created you in the first instance": thus stressing the individual, untransferable responsibility of every human being.

Best viewed using your own brain

Tested on 1024x768 resolution with  FIREFOX 2

Kitabun Marqum v0.6.7 - Kitabun Marqum - Quran Research Platform by QuraniX Team Copyright © 2002-2012 All rights reserved.
Copyrights of all translations belong to their respective authors.

2:2 This is the book in which there is no doubt, a guide for the conscientious.
 Edip-Layth (Quran: A Reformist Translation)

 Translations ▼

 Chapter/Verse ▼

 Refresh

 Search

<< Prev 100:1-11 Next >>

Edip-Layth	In the name of God, the Gracious, the Compassionate. 100:1 By the fast gallopers. ¹
The Monotheist Group	In the name of God, the Almighty, the Merciful. 100:1 By the fast gallopers.
Muhammad Asad	In the name of God, The Most Gracious, The Dispenser of Grace: 100:1 Oh, ¹ the chargers that run panting,
Rashad Khalifa	In the name of GOD, Most Gracious, Most Merciful. 100:1 By the fast gallopers.
Shabbir Ahmed	BISMILLAH-IR-RAHMAN-IR-RAHEEM With the Glorious Name of God, the Ultimate Source of Instant Beneficence and Eternal mercy Who encompasses the entire Universe, nourishing and taking care of all things for what they are meant to be; just as a mother's womb nourishes the embryo to completion without any returns. 100:1 Oh, the panting galloping horses of the raiders.
Transliteration	Bismi Allāhi alRrahmāni alRrahēemi 100:1 WaalAAadiyati dabhān
A	بسم الله الرحمن الرحيم 100:1 والعديت ضبحا
Edip-Layth	100:2 Striking sparks.
The Monotheist Group	100:2 Striking sparks.
Muhammad Asad	100:2 sparks of fire striking,
Rashad Khalifa	100:2 Igniting sparks.

Shabbir Ahmed	100:2 Sparks of fire striking (with their gallops).
Transliteration	100:2 Faalmooriyati qad han
A	100:2 فالموريت قدحا
Edip-Layth	100:3 Charging in the morning.
The Monotheist Group	100:3 Charging in the morning.
Muhammad Asad	100:3 rushing to assault at morn,
Rashad Khalifa	100:3 Invading (the enemy) by morning.
Shabbir Ahmed	100:3 Charging, ambushing at dawn.
Transliteration	100:3 Faalmugheerati sub han
A	100:3 فالمغيرت صباحا
Edip-Layth	100:4 Forming clouds of dust.
The Monotheist Group	100:4 Forming clouds of dust.
Muhammad Asad	100:4 thereby raising clouds of dust,
Rashad Khalifa	100:4 Striking terror therein.
Shabbir Ahmed	100:4 Therewith raising clouds of dust.
Transliteration	100:4 Faatharna bihi naqAA an
A	100:4 فاثرن به نقعا
Edip-Layth	100:5 Penetrating into the midst together.
The Monotheist Group	100:5 Penetrating to the midst together.
Muhammad Asad	100:5 thereby storming [blindly] into any host! ²
Rashad Khalifa	100:5 Penetrating to the heart of their territory.
Shabbir Ahmed	100:5 Storming into any community.
Transliteration	100:5 Fawasaṭna bihi jamAA an
A	100:5 فوسطن به جمعا
Edip-Layth	100:6 Surely, the human being is ungrateful to his Lord.
The Monotheist Group	100:6 Surely, the human being is ungrateful to his Lord.
Muhammad Asad	100:6 VERILY, towards his Sustainer man is most ungrateful ³
Rashad Khalifa	100:6 The human being is unappreciative of his Lord.
Shabbir Ahmed	100:6 Certainly, man is ungrateful to his Lord.
Transliteration	100:6 Inna al-ins an a lirabbihi lakanood un
A	100:6 ان الانسن لربه لکنود

Edip-Layth	100:7 He will indeed bear witness to this.
The Monotheist Group	100:7 He will indeed bear witness to this.
Muhammad Asad	100:7 and to this, behold, he [himself] bears witness indeed:
Rashad Khalifa	100:7 He bears witness to this fact.
Shabbir Ahmed	100:7 He himself is a witness to that.
Transliteration	100:7 Wa-innahu AAala tha likalashaheedun
A	100:7 وانه على ذلك لشهيد
Edip-Layth	100:8 He loves wealth tenaciously.
The Monotheist Group	100:8 He loves wealth tenaciously.
Muhammad Asad	100:8 for, verily, to the love of wealth is he most ardently devoted.
Rashad Khalifa	100:8 He loves material things excessively.
Shabbir Ahmed	100:8 And, in the love of wealth, he is zealous. ¹
Transliteration	100:8 Wa-innahu li h ubbi alkhayri lashadeedun
A	100:8 وانه لحب الخير لشديد
Edip-Layth	100:9 Does he not realize that when what is in the graves are scattered.
The Monotheist Group	100:9 Does he not realize that when what is in the graves are scattered.
Muhammad Asad	100:9 But does he not know that [on the Last Day,] when all that is in the graves is raised and brought out,
Rashad Khalifa	100:9 Does he not realize that the day will come when the graves are opened?
Shabbir Ahmed	100:9 Does he not know that all hidden things will be dug out? ²
Transliteration	100:9 Afala yaAAalamu i tha buAAathira ma fee alquboori
A	100:9 افلا يعلم اذا بعثر ما فى القبور
Edip-Layth	100:10 What is in the chests is gathered.
The Monotheist Group	100:10 And what is in the chests is gathered.
Muhammad Asad	100:10 and all that is [hidden] in men's hearts is bared
Rashad Khalifa	100:10 And all secrets are brought out.
Shabbir Ahmed	100:10 The secrets of the hearts will be laid bare? ³
Transliteration	100:10 Wa hu ssila ma fee al ssu doori
A	100:10 وحصل ما فى الصدور
Edip-Layth	100:11 That their Lord has been fully cognizant of them?
The Monotheist Group	100:11 That their Lord has been fully cognizant of them?
Muhammad Asad	100:11 that on that Day their Sustainer [will show that He] has always been fully aware of them?

Rashad Khalifa	100:11 They will find out, on that day, that their Lord has been fully Cognizant of them.
Shabbir Ahmed	100:11 (They will find out) on that Day that their Lord is Well-acquainted with them.
Transliteration	100:11 Inna rabbahum bihim yawma-i th inlakhabeerun
A	100:11 ان ربهم بهم يومئذ لخبير

<< Prev 100:1-11 Next >>

Return to top

End Notes

Edip-Layth - Quran: A Reformist Translation

Edip-Layth - End Note 1 (100:1)

Past generations saw horses in these verses. We can understand it as the description of jet airplanes which intake oxygen on one end and spew fire on the other end. We are not required to understand every verse in the same way the previous generations did. For the function of oaths, see 89:5.

Muhammad Asad - The Message Of Quran

Muhammad Asad - End Note 1 (100:1)

Since the subsequent clauses refer to a parabolic, imaginary situation, the adjurative particle wa is more suitably rendered here as "Oh", instead of the rendering "Consider" usually adopted by me, or the adjuration "By" appearing in most other translations.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 2 (100:5)

I.e., blinded by clouds of dust and not knowing whether their assault aims at friend or foe. The metaphoric image developed in the above five verses is closely connected with the sequence, although this connection has never been brought out by the classical commentators. The term al-adiyat undoubtedly denotes the war-horses, or chargers, employed by the Arabs from time immemorial down to the Middle Ages (the feminine gender of this term being due to the fact that, as a rule, they preferred mares to stallions). But whereas the conventional explanation is based on the assumption that "the chargers" symbolize here the believers' fight in God's cause (jihad) and, therefore, represent something highly commendable, it takes no account whatever of the discrepancy between so positive an imagery and the condemnation expressed in verses 6 ff., not to speak of the fact that such a conventional interpretation does not provide any logical link between the two parts of the surah. But since such a link must exist, and since verses 6-11 are undoubtedly condemnatory, we must conclude that the first five verses, too, have the same - or at least, a similar - character. This character becomes at once obvious if we dissociate ourselves from the preconceived notion that the imagery of "the chargers" is used here in a laudatory sense. In fact, the opposite is the case. Beyond any doubt, "the chargers" symbolize the erring human soul or self - a soul devoid of all spiritual direction, obsessed and ridden by all manner of wrong, selfish desires, madly, unseeingly rushing onwards, unchecked by conscience or reason, blinded by the dust-clouds of confused and confusing appetites, storming into insoluble situations and, thus, into its own spiritual destruction.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 3 (100:6)

I.e., whenever he surrenders to his appetites, symbolized by the madly storming chargers, he forgets God and his own responsibility to Him.

Shabbir Ahmed -

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 1 (100:8)

102:1-2

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 2 (100:9)

Intentions, secret actions and material things that were robbed, and the disintegrated forms will be resurrected

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 3 (100:10)

Sadr = Chest = Breast = Heart

2:2 This is the book in which there is no doubt, a guide for the conscientious.
 Edip-Layth (Quran: A Reformist Translation)

 Translations ▼

 Chapter/Verse ▼

 Refresh

 Search

<< Prev 101:1-11 Next >>

Edip-Layth	In the name of God, the Gracious, the Compassionate. 101:1 The Shocker.
The Monotheist Group	In the name of God, the Almighty, the Merciful. 101:1 The Shocker.
Muhammad Asad	In the name of God, The Most Gracious, The Dispenser of Grace: 101:1 OH, the sudden calamity! ¹
Rashad Khalifa	In the name of GOD, Most Gracious, Most Merciful. 101:1 The Shocker.
Shabbir Ahmed	BISMILLAH-IR-RAHMAN-IR-RAHEEM With the Glorious Name of God, the Ultimate Source of Instant Beneficence and Eternal mercy Who encompasses the entire Universe, nourishing and taking care of all things for what they are meant to be; just as a mother's womb nourishes the embryo to completion without any returns. 101:1 The Catastrophe!
Transliteration	Bismi All a hi al r rah m ani al r ra h eemi 101:1 Alq a riAA a tu
A	بسم الله الرحمن الرحيم 101:1 القارعة
Edip-Layth	101:2 What is the Shocker?
The Monotheist Group	101:2 What is the Shocker?
Muhammad Asad	101:2 How awesome the sudden calamity!
Rashad Khalifa	101:2 What a shocker!

Shabbir Ahmed	101:2 What is the Catastrophe?
Transliteration	101:2 Ma alqariAAatu
A	101:2 ما القارعة
Edip-Layth	101:3 How would you know what the Shocker is?
The Monotheist Group	101:3 And how would you know what the Shocker is?
Muhammad Asad	101:3 And what could make thee conceive what that sudden calamity will be?
Rashad Khalifa	101:3 Do you have any idea what the Shocker is?
Shabbir Ahmed	101:3 Ah, What will convey to you what it is, the Catastrophe!
Transliteration	101:3 Wama adraka ma alqariAAatu
A	101:3 وما ادرك ما القارعة
Edip-Layth	101:4 The day when people come out like swarms of butterflies.
The Monotheist Group	101:4 The Day when people come out like swarms of butterflies.
Muhammad Asad	101:4 [It will occur] on the Day when men will be like moths swarming in confusion,
Rashad Khalifa	101:4 That is the day when the people come out like swarms of butterflies.
Shabbir Ahmed	101:4 The Day when people will be like moths scattered in confusion.
Transliteration	101:4 Yawma yagoonu alInnaasu kaalfarashialmabthoothi
A	101:4 يوم يكون الناس كالفراش المبتوث
Edip-Layth	101:5 The mountains will be like fluffed up wool.
The Monotheist Group	101:5 And the mountains will be like fluffed up wool.
Muhammad Asad	101:5 and the mountains will be like fluffy tufts of wool. . . .
Rashad Khalifa	101:5 The mountains will be like fluffy wool.
Shabbir Ahmed	101:5 And the mountains will be like flakes of wool.
Transliteration	101:5 Watacoonu aljibalu kaalAAihniAlmanfooshi
A	101:5 وتكون الجبال كالعهن المنفوش
Edip-Layth	101:6 As for him whose weights are heavy.
The Monotheist Group	101:6 As for him whose weights are heavy.
Muhammad Asad	101:6 And then, he whose weight [of good deeds] is heavy in the balance
Rashad Khalifa	101:6 As for him whose weights are heavy.
Shabbir Ahmed	101:6 And then, he whose scales are heavy (with good deeds),
Transliteration	101:6 Faamma man thaqulat mawazeenuhu
A	101:6 فاما من ثقلت موازينه

Edip-Layth	101:7 He will be in a happy life.
The Monotheist Group	101:7 He will be in a happy life.
Muhammad Asad	101:7 shall find himself in a happy' state of life;
Rashad Khalifa	101:7 He will lead a happy
Shabbir Ahmed	101:7 Will live in happiness and contentment.
Transliteration	101:7 Fahuwa fee AAeeshatin r a diyatin
A	101:7 فهو في عيشة راضية
Edip-Layth	101:8 As for him whose weights are light.
The Monotheist Group	101:8 As for him whose weights are light.
Muhammad Asad	101:8 whereas he whose weight is light in the balance
Rashad Khalifa	101:8 As for him whose weights are light. (eternal) life.
Shabbir Ahmed	101:8 As for him whose scales are light,
Transliteration	101:8 Waamm a man khaffat maw a zeenuhu
A	101:8 واما من خفت موزينه
Edip-Layth	101:9 His destiny is the lowest.
The Monotheist Group	101:9 His destiny is the lowest.
Muhammad Asad	101:9 shall be engulfed by an abyss. ²
Rashad Khalifa	101:9 His destiny is lowly.
Shabbir Ahmed	101:9 He will be embraced by an Abyss.
Transliteration	101:9 Faommuhu h a wiyatun
A	101:9 فامه هالوية
Edip-Layth	101:10 How would you know what it is?
The Monotheist Group	101:10 And how would you know what it is?
Muhammad Asad	101:10 And what could make thee conceive what that [abyss] will be?
Rashad Khalifa	101:10 Do you know what it is?
Shabbir Ahmed	101:10 Ah, what will convey to you what that is!
Transliteration	101:10 Wam a adr a ka m a hiyah
A	101:10 وما ادرك ما هيه
Edip-Layth	101:11 A blazing fire.
The Monotheist Group	101:11 A blazing Fire.
Muhammad Asad	101:11 A fire hotly burning! ³

Rashad Khalifa	101:11 The blazing Hellfire.
Shabbir Ahmed	101:11 Raging fire!
Transliteration	101:11 Narun h amiyatun
A	101:11 نار حامية

<< Prev 101:1-11 Next >>

Return to top

End Notes

Muhammad Asad - The Message Of Quran

Muhammad Asad - End Note 1 (101:1)

I.e., the coming of the Last Hour, which will involve a terrifying transformation of the world (see note 63 on 14:48 and note 90 on 20:105-107).

Muhammad Asad - End Note 2 (101:9)

Lit., "his mother [i.e., goal] will be an abyss", sc., of suffering and despair. The term "mother" (umm) is used idiomatically to denote something that embraces or enfolds.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 3 (101:11)

Lit., "hot fire", the adjective meant to stress the essential quality of fire. It should be borne in mind that all Qur'anic descriptions of the sinner's suffering in the hereafter are metaphors or allegories relating to situations and conditions which can be understood only by means of comparisons with physical phenomena lying within the range of human experience (see Appendix I).

Best viewed using your own brain

Tested on 1024x768 resolution with  FIREFOX 2

Kitabun Marqum v0.6.7 - Kitabun Marqum - Quran Research Platform by QuraniX Team Copyright © 2002-2012 All rights reserved.
Copyrights of all translations belong to their respective authors.

2:2 This is the book in which there is no doubt, a guide for the conscientious.
Edip-Layth (Quran: A Reformist Translation)

 Translations ▼

 Chapter/Verse ▼

 Refresh

 Search

<< Prev 102:1-8 Next >>

Edip-Layth	In the name of God, the Gracious, the Compassionate. 102:1 Hoarding has distracted you.
The Monotheist Group	In the name of God, the Almighty, the Merciful. 102:1 Hoarding has distracted you.
Muhammad Asad	In the name of God, The Most Gracious, The Dispenser of Grace: 102:1 YOU ARE OBSESSED by greed for more and more
Rashad Khalifa	In the name of GOD, Most Gracious, Most Merciful. 102:1 You remain preoccupied with hoarding.
Shabbir Ahmed	BISMILLAH-IR-RAHMAN-IR-RAHEEM With the Glorious Name of God, the Ultimate Source of Instant Beneficence and Eternal mercy Who encompasses the entire Universe, nourishing and taking care of all things for what they are meant to be; just as a mother's womb nourishes the embryo to completion without any returns. 102:1 The relentless greed of material gains distracts you (from the real purpose of life). ¹
Transliteration	Bismi Allāhi alRrahmāni alRrahēemi 102:1 Alhākumu alttakāthuru
A	بسم الله الرحمن الرحيم 102:1 الهكُم التكاثر
Edip-Layth	102:2 Until you visit the graves.
The Monotheist Group	102:2 Until you visit the graves.
Muhammad Asad	102:2 until you go down to your graves. ¹

Rashad Khalifa	102:2 Until you go to the graves.
Shabbir Ahmed	102:2 Until you go down to your graves.
Transliteration	102:2 Hatta zurtumu almaqabira
A	102:2 حتى زرتم المقابر
Edip-Layth	102:3 No, you will find out.
The Monotheist Group	102:3 No, you will find out.
Muhammad Asad	102:3 Nay, in time you will come to understand!
Rashad Khalifa	102:3 Indeed, you will find out.
Shabbir Ahmed	102:3 Nay! But you will come to know!
Transliteration	102:3 Kalla sawfa taAAlamoon a
A	102:3 كلا سوف تعلمون
Edip-Layth	102:4 Then again, you will find out.
The Monotheist Group	102:4 Then again, you will find out.
Muhammad Asad	102:4 And once again: ² Nay, in time you will come to understand!
Rashad Khalifa	102:4 Most assuredly, you will find out.
Shabbir Ahmed	102:4 Again, Nay! You will come to know.
Transliteration	102:4 Thumma kalla sawfa taAAlamoon a
A	102:4 ثم كلا سوف تعلمون
Edip-Layth	102:5 No, if only you knew with certainty.
The Monotheist Group	102:5 No, if only you had the knowledge of certainty.
Muhammad Asad	102:5 Nay, if you could but understand [it] with an understanding [born] of certainty,
Rashad Khalifa	102:5 If only you could find out for certain.
Shabbir Ahmed	102:5 Nay, only if you could have certain knowledge.
Transliteration	102:5 Kalla law taAAlamoona AAilma alyaqeen i
A	102:5 كلا لو تعلمون علم اليقين
Edip-Layth	102:6 You would then see the hell.
The Monotheist Group	102:6 You would then see Hell.
Muhammad Asad	102:6 you would indeed, most surely, behold the blazing fire [of hell]! ³
Rashad Khalifa	102:6 You would envision Hell.
Shabbir Ahmed	102:6 You would see it now, the Insurmountable Barrier (in the way of your personal development). ²

Transliteration	102:6 Latarawunna aljaheema
A	102:6 لترون الجيم
Edip-Layth	102:7 Then you would see it with the eye of certainty.
The Monotheist Group	102:7 Then you will see it with the eye of certainty.
Muhammad Asad	102:7 In the end you will indeed, most surely, behold it with the eye of certainty: ⁴
Rashad Khalifa	102:7 Then you would see it with the eye of certainty.
Shabbir Ahmed	102:7 Finally, you will see it with sure vision.
Transliteration	102:7 Thumma latarawunnahā AAayna alyaqeeni
A	102:7 ثم لترونها عين اليقين
Edip-Layth	102:8 Then you will be questioned, on that day, about the blessings.
The Monotheist Group	102:8 Then you will be questioned, on that Day, about the blessings.
Muhammad Asad	102:8 and on that Day you will most surely be called to account for [what you did with] the boon of life!
Rashad Khalifa	102:8 Then you will be questioned, on that day, about the blessings you had enjoyed.
Shabbir Ahmed	102:8 Then, on that Day you will be questioned what you did with the boon of life. ³
Transliteration	102:8 Thumma latus-alunna yawma-i th in AAaniaInnaAAeemi
A	102:8 ثم لتسلن يومئذ عن النعيم

<< Prev 102:1-8 Next >>

Return to top

End Notes

Edip-Layth - Quran: A Reformist Translation

Edip-Layth - End Note (102:1)

Shabbir Ahmed -

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 1 (102:1)

57:20, 83:26

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 2 (102:6)

29:54, 79:36, 82:16

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 3 (102:8)

21:13

Muhammad Asad - The Message Of Quran

Muhammad Asad - End Note 1 (102:2)

The term takathur bears the connotation of "greedily striving for an increase", i.e., in benefits, be they tangible or intangible, real or illusory. In the above context it denotes man's obsessive striving for more and more comforts, more material goods, greater power over his fellow-men or over nature, and unceasing technological progress. A passionate pursuit of such endeavours, to the exclusion of everything else, bars man from all spiritual insight and, hence, from the acceptance of any restrictions and inhibitions based on purely moral values - with the result that not only individuals but whole societies gradually lose all inner stability and, thus, all chance of happiness.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 2 (102:4)

See surah 6, note 31.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 3 (102:6)

Sc., "in which you find yourselves now" - i.e., the "hell on earth" brought about by a fundamentally wrong mode of life: an allusion to the gradual destruction of man's natural environment, as well as to the frustration, unhappiness and confusion which an overriding, unrestrained pursuit of "economic growth" is bound to bring - and has, indeed, brought in our time - upon a mankind that is about to lose the remnants of all spiritual religious orientation.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 4 (102:7)

I.e., in the hereafter, through a direct, unequivocal insight into the real nature of one's past doings, and into the inescapability of the suffering which man brings upon himself by a wrong, wasteful use of the boon of life (an-na'im).

Best viewed using your own brain

Tested on 1024x768 resolution with  FIREFOX 2

Kitabun Marqum v0.6.7 - Kitabun Marqum - Quran Research Platform by QuraniX Team Copyright © 2002-2012 All rights reserved.
Copyrights of all translations belong to their respective authors.

2:2 This is the book in which there is no doubt, a guide for the conscientious.
 Edip-Layth (Quran: A Reformist Translation)

 Translations ▼

 Chapter/Verse ▼

 Refresh

 Search

<< Prev 103:1-3 Next >>

Edip-Layth	In the name of God, the Gracious, the Compassionate. 103:1 By time,
The Monotheist Group	In the name of God, the Almighty, the Merciful. 103:1 By time.
Muhammad Asad	In the name of God, The Most Gracious, The Dispenser of Grace: 103:1 CONSIDER the flight of time! ¹
Rashad Khalifa	In the name of GOD, Most Gracious, Most Merciful. 103:1 By the afternoon.
Shabbir Ahmed	BISMILLAH-IR-RAHMAN-IR-RAHEEM With the Glorious Name of God, the Ultimate Source of Instant Beneficence and Eternal mercy Who encompasses the entire Universe, nourishing and taking care of all things for what they are meant to be; just as a mother's womb nourishes the embryo to completion without any returns. 103:1 Time that flies and has flown, bears witness.
Transliteration	Bismi Allāhi alrahḡmāni alrahḡeemi 103:1 WaalAAaṣri
A	بسم الله الرحمن الرحيم 103:1 والعصر
Edip-Layth	103:2 The human is indeed in loss.
The Monotheist Group	103:2 The human is indeed in loss.
Muhammad Asad	103:2 Verily, man is bound to lose himself
Rashad Khalifa	103:2 The human being is utterly lost.

Shabbir Ahmed	103:2 That man is, and has been, in a state of loss.
Transliteration	103:2 Inna al-insāna lafee khusrin
A	103:2 ان الانسان لفي خسر
Edip-Layth	103:3 Except those who acknowledge, carry out the reforms, exhort one another with the truth and exhort one another with perseverance.
The Monotheist Group	103:3 Except those who believe, and do good works, and support one another with the truth, and support one another with perseverance.
Muhammad Asad	103:3 unless he be of those ² who attain to faith, and do good works, and enjoin upon one another the keeping to truth, and enjoin upon one another patience in adversity.
Rashad Khalifa	103:3 Except those who believe and lead a righteous life, and exhort one another to uphold the truth, and exhort one another to be steadfast.
Shabbir Ahmed	103:3 Except those who have chosen to be graced with belief, do works that help others and exemplify truth and exemplify perseverance. ¹
Transliteration	103:3 Illa alla theena amanooAAamiloo a lssalihati wataw asaw bialhaqqiwatawasaw bialssabri
A	103:3 الا الذين ءامنوا وعملوا الصلحت وتواصوا بالحق وتواصوا بالصبر

<< Prev 103:1-3 Next >>

Return to top

End Notes

Muhammad Asad - The Message Of Quran

Muhammad Asad - End Note 1 (103:1)

The term "asr denotes "time" that is measurable, consisting of a succession of periods (in distinction from dahr, which signifies "unlimited time", without beginning or end: i.e., "time absolute"). Hence, asr bears the connotation of the passing or the flight of time - time which can never be recaptured.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 2 (103:3)

Lit., "man is indeed in [a state of] loss, except those. . .", etc

Shabbir Ahmed -

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 1 (103:3)

Individuals and nations that are exception to the Rule of mankind being in a state of loss, have four qualities. a. They believe in the Divine laws operative in nature, and not that things happen around them haphazardly. In other words they are pragmatic people. b. They do works of collective good, helping those who lag behind, and improving the individual and collective potentials of humanity. c. They uphold Al-Haqq (the truth) instead of hearsay and conjecture. They refrain from violating Haqq (human rights) which is always the first casualty of an order based upon falsehood. d. They know that the benefit of the individual and the benefit of the society are strongly interwoven. Therefore, they are patient in times of ease and prosperity by not falling for rivalry in material possessions. And they are steadfast in times of adversity, natural disasters and armed confrontation

Best viewed using your own brain

Tested on 1024x768 resolution with  FIREFOX 2

Kitabun Marqum v0.6.7 - Kitabun Marqum - Quran Research Platform by QuraniX Team Copyright © 2002-2012 All rights reserved.
Copyrights of all translations belong to their respective authors.

2:2 This is the book in which there is no doubt, a guide for the conscientious.
 Edip-Layth (Quran: A Reformist Translation)

 Translations ▼

 Chapter/Verse ▼

 Refresh

 Search

<< Prev 104:1-9 Next >>

Edip-Layth	In the name of God, the Gracious, the Compassionate. 104:1 Woe unto every backbiter, slanderer. ¹
The Monotheist Group	In the name of God, the Almighty, the Merciful. 104:1 Woe to every backbiter, slanderer.
Muhammad Asad	In the name of God, The Most Gracious, The Dispenser of Grace: 104:1 WOE unto every slanderer, fault-finder! ¹
Rashad Khalifa	In the name of GOD, Most Gracious, Most Merciful. 104:1 Woe to every backbiter, slanderer.
Shabbir Ahmed	BISMILLAH-IR-RAHMAN-IR-RAHEEM With the Glorious Name of God, the Ultimate Source of Instant Beneficence and Eternal mercy Who encompasses the entire Universe, nourishing and taking care of all things for what they are meant to be; just as a mother's womb nourishes the embryo to completion without any returns. 104:1 Woe to every slanderer, fault-finder! ¹
Transliteration	Bismi Allāhi alrrahmāni alrraḥeemi 104:1 Waylun likulli humazatin lumaza tin
A	بِسْمِ اللَّهِ الرَّحْمَنِ الرَّحِيمِ 104:1 وَيْلٌ لِّكُلِّ هُمَزَةٍ لُّمَزَةٍ
Edip-Layth	104:2 Who gathered his wealth and counted it.
The Monotheist Group	104:2 Who gathered his wealth and counted it.
Muhammad Asad	104:2 [Woe unto him ² who amasses wealth and counts it a safeguard,
Rashad Khalifa	104:2 He hoards money and counts it.

Shabbir Ahmed	104:2 Whose efforts revolve around gathering material possessions and counting them. ²
Transliteration	104:2 Alla t hee jamaAAa m a lanwaAAaddadah u
A	104:2 الذى جمع مالا وعدده
Edip-Layth	104:3 He thinks that his wealth will make him immortal.
The Monotheist Group	104:3 He thinks that his wealth will make him immortal.
Muhammad Asad	104:3 thinking that his wealth will make him live forever! ³
Rashad Khalifa	104:3 As if his money will make him immortal.
Shabbir Ahmed	104:3 He thinks that his wealth will make him immortal.
Transliteration	104:3 Ya h sabu anna m a lahu akhladah u
A	104:3 يحسب ان ماله اخذه
Edip-Layth	104:4 Never! He will be thrown into the Hutama.
The Monotheist Group	104:4 Never! He will be thrown into the Destroyer.
Muhammad Asad	104:4 Nay, but [in the life to come such as] he shall indeed be abandoned to crushing torment! ⁴
Rashad Khalifa	104:4 Never; he will be thrown into the Devastator.
Shabbir Ahmed	104:4 Nay, He will be flung into the Shredder. ³
Transliteration	104:4 Kalla layunbat h anna fee al h u t amati
A	104:4 كلا لينبذن فى الحطمة
Edip-Layth	104:5 Do you know what the Hutama is?
The Monotheist Group	104:5 And do you know what is the Destroyer?
Muhammad Asad	104:5 And what could make thee conceive what that crushing torment will be?
Rashad Khalifa	104:5 Do you know what the Devastator is?
Shabbir Ahmed	104:5 Ah, what will convey to you what the Shredder is?
Transliteration	104:5 Wama a adr a ka m a al h u t amatu
A	104:5 وما ادرك ما الحطمة
Edip-Layth	104:6 God's kindled fire.
The Monotheist Group	104:6 God's kindled Fire.
Muhammad Asad	104:6 A fire kindled by God,
Rashad Khalifa	104:6 GOD's blazing Hellfire.
Shabbir Ahmed	104:6 A fire kindled by God. ⁴
Transliteration	104:6 Na r u All a hi almooqadatu

A	104:6 نار الله الموقدة
Edip-Layth	104:7 Which reaches the inside of the hearts.
The Monotheist Group	104:7 Which reaches the inside of the hearts.
Muhammad Asad	104:7 which will rise over the [guilty] hearts: ⁵
Rashad Khalifa	104:7 It burns them inside out.
Shabbir Ahmed	104:7 That originates in, and engulfs, the hearts.
Transliteration	104:7 Allatee tattaliAAu AAalaaal-af-idati
A	104:7 التي تطلع على الافدة
Edip-Layth	104:8 It will confine them therein.
The Monotheist Group	104:8 It will confine them therein.
Muhammad Asad	104:8 verily, it will close in upon them
Rashad Khalifa	104:8 They will be confined therein.
Shabbir Ahmed	104:8 Surely, it closes upon them (as they had kept their possessions closed up in vaults).
Transliteration	104:8 Innaha AAalayhim mu/sadatun
A	104:8 انها عليهم موصدة
Edip-Layth	104:9 In extended columns.
The Monotheist Group	104:9 In extended columns.
Muhammad Asad	104:9 in endless columns! ⁶
Rashad Khalifa	104:9 In extended columns.
Shabbir Ahmed	104:9 In extended columns.
Transliteration	104:9 Fee AAamadin mumaddadatin
A	104:9 فى عمد ممددة

<< Prev 104:1-9 Next >>

Return to top

End Notes

Edip-Layth - End Note 1 (104:1)

For the function of oaths, see 89:5.

Muhammad Asad - The Message Of Quran

Muhammad Asad - End Note 1 (104:1)

I.e., everyone who maliciously tries to uncover real or imaginary faults in others.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 2 (104:2)

This repetitive interpolation is necessary because the blameworthy attitude spoken of in verses 2-3 obviously belongs to a category entirely different from the two mentioned in verse 1.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 3 (104:3)

This is a metonym for the tendency to attribute an almost "religious" value to the acquisition and possession of material goods and facilities - a tendency which precludes man from giving any real importance to spiritual considerations (cf. note 1 on 102:1). My rendering of 'addadahu in the preceding verse as "[he] counts it a safeguard" is based on Jawhari's explanation of this term.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 4 (104:4)

Al-hutamah - one of several metaphors for the otherworldly suffering comprised within the concept of "hell" (see note 33 on 15:43-44).

Muhammad Asad - End Note 5 (104:7)

I.e., originating in their hearts - thus clearly alluding to the spiritual nature of the "fire" in the sinners' belated realization of their guilt.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 6 (104:9)

Lit., "in extended columns", i.e., overwhelming with despair.

Shabbir Ahmed -

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 1 (104:1)

He himself does little but spends a lot of energy detracting the doers

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 2 (104:2)

Lacking a higher goal, he opposes any semblance of reform 70:18

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 3 (104:4)

9:35

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 4 (104:6)

The law: "As you sow, so shall you reap." 53:39

Best viewed using your own brain

Tested on 1024x768 resolution with  FIREFOX 2

Kitabun Marqum v0.6.7 - Kitabun Marqum - Quran Research Platform by QuraniX Team Copyright © 2002-2012 All rights reserved.
Copyrights of all translations belong to their respective authors.

 Translations ▼

 Chapter/Verse ▼

 Refresh

Search

<< Prev 105:1-5 Next >>

Edip-Layth	In the name of God, the Gracious, the Compassionate. 105:1 Have you not noticed what your Lord did to the people of the elephant?
The Monotheist Group	In the name of God, the Almighty, the Merciful. 105:1 Have you not seen what your Lord did to the people of the elephant?
Muhammad Asad	In the name of God, The Most Gracious, The Dispenser of Grace: 105:1 ART THOU NOT aware of how thy Sustainer dealt with the Army of the Elephant? ¹
Rashad Khalifa	In the name of GOD, Most Gracious, Most Merciful. 105:1 Have you noted what your Lord did to the people of the elephant?
Shabbir Ahmed	BISMILLAH-IR-RAHMAN-IR-RAHEEM With the Glorious Name of God, the Ultimate Source of Instant Beneficence and Eternal mercy Who encompasses the entire Universe, nourishing and taking care of all things for what they are meant to be; just as a mother's womb nourishes the embryo to completion without any returns. 105:1 Are you not aware of how your Lord dealt with the Army of the Elephant?
Transliteration	Bismi Allāhi alRrahmāni alRrahēemi 105:1 Alam tara kayfa faAAala rabbuka bi-a s-habialfeeli
A	بسم الله الرحمن الرحيم 105:1 ألم تر كيف فعل ربك بأصحاب الفيل
Edip-Layth	105:2 Did He not cause their schemes to go astray?
The Monotheist Group	105:2 Did He not cause their schemes to go astray?
Muhammad Asad	105:2 Did He not utterly confound their artful planning?
Rashad Khalifa	105:2 Did He not cause their schemes to backfire?

Shabbir Ahmed	105:2 Did He not bring their strategy to utter failure?
Transliteration	105:2 Alam yajAAal kaydahum fee ta d leelin
A	105:2 الم يجعل كيدهم فى تضليل
Edip-Layth	105:3 He sent upon them swarms of flying creatures.
The Monotheist Group	105:3 And He sent upon them formations of birds in flight.
Muhammad Asad	105:3 Thus, He let loose upon them great swarms of flying creatures
Rashad Khalifa	105:3 He sent upon them swarms of birds.
Shabbir Ahmed	105:3 And sent upon them swarms of flying creatures.
Transliteration	105:3 Waarsala AAalayhim t ayran ab a beela
A	105:3 وارسل عليهم طيرا ابابيل
Edip-Layth	105:4 Striking them with fiery projectiles.
The Monotheist Group	105:4 Striking them with fiery projectiles.
Muhammad Asad	105:4 which smote them with stone-hard blows of chastisement pre-ordained, ²
Rashad Khalifa	105:4 That showered them with hard stones.
Shabbir Ahmed	105:4 Then you showered them with hard stones earmarked with requital. ¹
Transliteration	105:4 Tarmeehim bi h ij a ratin minsijjeelin
A	105:4 ترميهم بحجارة من سجيل
Edip-Layth	105:5 Until He turned them like devoured hay.
The Monotheist Group	105:5 Until He turned them like devoured hay.
Muhammad Asad	105:5 and caused them to become like a field of grain that has been eaten down to stubble ³
Rashad Khalifa	105:5 He made them like chewed up hay.
Shabbir Ahmed	105:5 And made them like a field of grain eaten down to stubble. ²
Transliteration	105:5 FajaAAalahum kaAAa s fin ma/koolin
A	105:5 فجعلهم كعصف ماكول

<< Prev 105:1-5 Next >>

Return to top

Muhammad Asad - The Message Of Quran

Muhammad Asad - End Note 1 (105:1)

Lit., "the companions (ashab) of the elephant" - see introductory note.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 2 (105:4)

Lit., "with stones of sijjil". As explained in note 114 on 11:82, this latter term is synonymous with sijill, which signifies "a writing" and, tropically, "something that has been decreed by God]": hence, the phrase hijarah min sijjil is a metaphor for "stone-hard blows of chastisement pre-ordained", i.e., in God's decree (Zamakhshari and Razi, with analogous comments on the same expression in 11:82). As already mentioned in the introductory note, the particular chastisement to which the above verse alludes seems to have been a sudden epidemic of extreme virulence: according to Waqidi and Muhammad ibn Ishaq - the latter as quoted by Ibn Hisham and Ibn Kathir - "this was the first time that spotted fever (hasbah) and smallpox (judari) appeared in the land of the Arabs". It is interesting to note that the word hasbah - which, according to some authorities, signifies also typhus - primarily means "pelting [or smiting]" with stones" (Qamus). - As regards the noun ta'ir (of which tayr is the plural), we ought to remember that it denotes any "flying creature", whether bird or insect (Taj al-'Arus). Neither the Qur'an nor any authentic Tradition offers us any evidence as to the nature of the "flying creatures" mentioned in the above verse; and since, on the other hand, all the "descriptions" indulged in by the commentators are purely imaginary, they need not be seriously considered. If the hypothesis of an epidemic is correct, the "flying creatures" - whether birds or insects - may well have been the carriers of the infection. One thing, however, is clear: whatever the nature of the doom that overtook the invading force, it was certainly miraculous in the true sense of this word - namely, in the sudden, totally unexpected rescue which it brought to the distressed people of Mecca.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 3 (105:5)

This passage is evidently continued in the next surah, which, according to some authorities, is part of the present one (see introductory note to surah 106).

Shabbir Ahmed -

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 1 (105:4)

Sijjeel = Inscribed = Marked out

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 2 (105:5)

An interesting footnote here might be appropriate. Three Arabs had guided Abrahah on his way to Makkah through the desert. The pre-Islamic Makkans humiliated the traitors and made out three statues of them in today's plains of Mina outside Makkah. Then they used to stone those statues every year at the time of Pilgrimage. This ritual was 'Islamized' by Muslim historians naming them as three places where the 'Satan' tried to prompt prophet Abraham to defy God's command to 'sacrifice' his son. And so, to this day during Pilgrimage, Muslims stone the three pillars calling them the Great, the Medium, and the Small Satan!

Best viewed using your own brain

Tested on 1024x768 resolution with  FIREFOX 2

Kitabun Marqum v0.6.7 - Kitabun Marqum - Quran Research Platform by QuraniX Team Copyright © 2002-2012 All rights reserved.
Copyrights of all translations belong to their respective authors.

2:2 This is the book in which there is no doubt, a guide for the conscientious.
Edip-Layth (Quran: A Reformist Translation)

 Translations ▼

 Chapter/Verse ▼

 Refresh

Search

<< Prev 106:1-4 Next >>

Edip-Layth	In the name of God, the Gracious, the Compassionate. 106:1 For the unity and security of Quraysh.
The Monotheist Group	In the name of God, the Almighty, the Merciful. 106:1 This should be cherished by Quraysh.
Muhammad Asad	In the name of God, The Most Gracious, The Dispenser of Grace: 106:1 SO THAT the Quraysh might remain secure, ¹
Rashad Khalifa	In the name of GOD, Most Gracious, Most Merciful. 106:1 This should be cherished by Quraish.
Shabbir Ahmed	BISMILLAH-IR-RAHMAN-IR-RAHEEM With the Glorious Name of God, the Ultimate Source of Instant Beneficence and Eternal mercy Who encompasses the entire Universe, nourishing and taking care of all things for what they are meant to be; just as a mother's womb nourishes the embryo to completion without any returns. 106:1 For the privilege (of security) cherished by Quraish.
Transliteration	Bismi Allāhi alrahḥmāni alrahḥeemi 106:1 Li-eelāfi qurayshin
A	بِسْمِ اللَّهِ الرَّحْمَنِ الرَّحِيمِ 106:1 لا يلف قريش
Edip-Layth	106:2 Their unity and security during their journey of the winter and summer.
The Monotheist Group	106:2 The way they cherish the journey of the winter and summer.
Muhammad Asad	106:2 secure in their winter and summer journeys, ²
Rashad Khalifa	106:2 The way they cherish the caravans of the winter and the summer.

Shabbir Ahmed	106:2 Enjoying their winter and summer caravans. ¹
Transliteration	106:2 Eela ^{af} him ri ^h lata alshshita-iwaal ^{ss} ayfi
A	106:2 الفهم رحلة الشتاء والصيف
Edip-Layth	106:3 So let them serve the Lord of this sanctuary.
The Monotheist Group	106:3 So let them serve the Lord of this Dwelling.
Muhammad Asad	106:3 Let them, therefore, worship the Sustainer of this Temple; ³
Rashad Khalifa	106:3 They shall worship the Lord of this shrine.
Shabbir Ahmed	106:3 It infers, then, that they ought to serve the Lord of this House alone. ²
Transliteration	106:3 FalyaAAbudoo rabba ha th a albayti
A	106:3 فليعبدوا رب هذا البيت
Edip-Layth	106:4 The One who fed them from hunger, and protected them from fear.
The Monotheist Group	106:4 The One who fed them from hunger, and protected them from fear.
Muhammad Asad	106:4 who has given them food against hunger, and made them safe from danger. ⁴
Rashad Khalifa	106:4 For He is the One who fed them after hunger, and provided them with security after fear.
Shabbir Ahmed	106:4 Who has given them freedom from want, and has made them secure against fear. ³
Transliteration	106:4 Alla th ee atAAamahum min jooAAinwa ^a manahum min khaw ^f in
A	106:4 الذى اطعمهم من جوع وءامنهم من خوف

<< Prev 106:1-4 Next >>

Return to top

End Notes

Muhammad Asad - The Message Of Quran

Muhammad Asad - End Note 1 (106:1)

Lit., "for the safeguarding of the Quraysh", i.e., as the custodians of the Kabah and the tribe in the midst of which the Last Prophet, Muhammad, was to appear. Thus, the "security of the Quraysh" is a metonym for the security of the Kabah, the focal point of the Faith based on the concept of God's oneness, for the sake of which the army of Abrahah was destroyed (see introductory note as well as preceding surah).

Muhammad Asad - End Note 2 (106:2)

I.e., the two annual trade caravans - to the Yemen in winter and to Syria in summer - on which the prosperity of Mecca depended.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 3 (106:3)

I.e., the Kabah (see note 102 on 2:125).

Muhammad Asad - End Note 4 (106:4)

Cf. Abraham's prayer, "O my Sustainer! Make this a land secure, and grant its people fruitful sustenance" (2:126).

Shabbir Ahmed -

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 1 (106:2)

To Yemen and Syria respectively, that makes them affluent

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 2 (106:3)

2:125-126

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 3 (106:4)

Ta'm = Feeding = Taking care = Fulfilling needs = Granting freedom from want

Best viewed using your own brain

Tested on 1024x768 resolution with  FIREFOX 2

Kitabun Marqum v0.6.7 - Kitabun Marqum - Quran Research Platform by QuraniX Team Copyright © 2002-2012 All rights reserved.
Copyrights of all translations belong to their respective authors.

2:2 This is the book in which there is no doubt, a guide for the conscientious.
 Edip-Layth (Quran: A Reformist Translation)

 Translations ▼

 Chapter/Verse ▼

 Refresh

 Search

<< Prev 107:1-7 Next >>

Edip-Layth	In the name of God, the Gracious, the Compassionate. 107:1 Do you notice who rejects the system?
The Monotheist Group	In the name of God, the Almighty, the Merciful. 107:1 Have you seen him who is denying the system?
Muhammad Asad	In the name of God, The Most Gracious, The Dispenser of Grace: 107:1 HAST THOU ever considered [the kind of man] who gives the lie to all moral law?¹
Rashad Khalifa	In the name of GOD, Most Gracious, Most Merciful. 107:1 Do you know who really rejects the faith?
Shabbir Ahmed	BISMILLAH-IR-RAHMAN-IR-RAHEEM With the Glorious Name of God, the Ultimate Source of Instant Beneficence and Eternal mercy Who encompasses the entire Universe, nourishing and taking care of all things for what they are meant to be; just as a mother's womb nourishes the embryo to completion without any returns. 107:1 Have you seen him who proclaims allegiance to the Divine System, but denies it in action? ¹
Transliteration	Bismi Allāhi alrraḥmāni alrraḥeemi 107:1 Araayta allaṭṭheeyukathṭhibu bialddeeni
A	بسم الله الرحمن الرحيم 107:1 ارعيت الذى يكذب بالدين
Edip-Layth	107:2 It is the one who mistreats the orphan.
The Monotheist Group	107:2 It is the one who mistreats the orphan,
Muhammad Asad	107:2 Behold, it is this [kind of man] that thrusts the orphan away,

Rashad Khalifa	107:2 That is the one who mistreats the orphans.
Shabbir Ahmed	107:2 Indeed, he is the one who repels the orphan, the widow, the helpless, the one in a lonely state. ²
Transliteration	107:2 Fath al ika alla thee yaduAAAAualyateem a
A	107:2 فذلك الذى يدع اليتيم
Edip-Layth	107:3 Does not encourage the feeding of the poor.
The Monotheist Group	107:3 And does not encourage the feeding of the poor.
Muhammad Asad	107:3 and feels no urge ² to feed the needy.
Rashad Khalifa	107:3 And does not advocate the feeding of the poor.
Shabbir Ahmed	107:3 And urges not the feeding of the needy. And participates not in helping those who have lost their jobs, whose businesses have stalled, and whose hard earned income is insufficient to meet their basic needs.
Transliteration	107:3 Wala ya h uddu AAa l ataAAa mi almiskeeni
A	107:3 ولا يحض على طعام المسكين
Edip-Layth	107:4 So woe to those who offer support (or observe contact-prayer). ¹
The Monotheist Group	107:4 So woe to those who commune,
Muhammad Asad	107:4 Woe, then, unto those praying ones
Rashad Khalifa	107:4 And woe to those who observe the contact prayers (Salat) -
Shabbir Ahmed	107:4 Ah, woe to the praying ones!
Transliteration	107:4 Fawaylun lilmu s alleena
A	107:4 فويل للمصلين
Edip-Layth	107:5 Who are totally heedless of their support (or of observing their contact-prayer).
The Monotheist Group	107:5 But to their communion they are absent minded.
Muhammad Asad	107:5 whose hearts from their prayer are remote ³
Rashad Khalifa	107:5 who are totally heedless of their prayers.
Shabbir Ahmed	107:5 Those who know not what their prayer is meant to be.
Transliteration	107:5 Alla the ena hum AAan s ala t ihims a hoona
A	107:5 الذين هم عن صلاتهم ساهون
Edip-Layth	107:6 They only want to be seen,
The Monotheist Group	107:6 They only want to be seen,
Muhammad Asad	107:6 those who want only to be seen and praised,
Rashad Khalifa	107:6 They only show off.

Shabbir Ahmed	107:6 They only want to be seen and praised. ³
Transliteration	107:6 Allat h eena hum yura a oona
A	107:6 الذين هم يراءون
Edip-Layth	107:7 They refuse aid.
The Monotheist Group	107:7 And they withhold from far-reaching deeds.
Muhammad Asad	107:7 and, withal, deny all assistance [to their fellow-men]! ⁴
Rashad Khalifa	107:7 And they forbid charity.
Shabbir Ahmed	107:7 And, with all this, they hinder the flow of sustenance (by hoarding). ⁴
Transliteration	107:7 WayamnaAAoona alma a AAoona
A	107:7 ويمنعون الماعون

<< Prev 107:1-7 Next >>

Return to top

End Notes

Muhammad Asad - The Message Of Quran

Muhammad Asad - End Note 1 (107:1)

I.e., who denies that there is any objective validity in religion as such and, thus, in the concept of moral law (which is one of the primary connotations of the term din - cf. note 3 on 109:6). Some commentators are of the opinion that in the above context din signifies "judgment", i.e., the Day of Judgment, and interpret this phrase as meaning "who calls the Day of Judgment a lie".

Muhammad Asad - End Note 2 (107:3)

Lit., "does not urge", i.e., himself.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 3 (107:5)

Lit., "who are [knowingly] unmindful of their prayers".

Muhammad Asad - End Note 4 (107:7)

The term al-ma'un comprises the many small items needed for one's daily use, as well as the occasional acts of kindness consisting in helping out one's fellow-men with such items. In its wider sense, it denotes "aid" or "assistance" in any difficulty.

Shabbir Ahmed -

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 1 (107:1)

53:33, 75:32-33, 95:7. Takzeeb = To give lie = Deny in practice = Reject in daily life

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 2 (107:2)

89:10, 69:34

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 3 (107:6)

9:54. They go through the motions of prayer and keep announcing it

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 4 (107:7)

Ma'n = Running water. Mu'eein = Source of sustenance with plenty of fresh water springs. 23:50

Edip-Layth - Quran: A Reformist Translation

Edip-Layth - End Note 1 (107:4)

Sala prayers and other rituals were being practiced since Abraham and were a common knowledge among Meccan polytheists. See 21:73

Tested on 1024x768 resolution with

Kitabun Marqum v0.6.7 - Kitabun Marqum - Quran Research Platform by QuraniX Team Copyright © 2002-2012 All rights reserved.

Copyrights of all translations belong to their respective authors.

2:2 This is the book in which there is no doubt, a guide for the conscientious.
 Edip-Layth (Quran: A Reformist Translation)

 Translations ▼

 Chapter/Verse ▼

 Refresh

Search

<< Prev 108:1-3 Next >>

Edip-Layth	In the name of God, the Gracious, the Compassionate. 108:1 We have given you plenty.
The Monotheist Group	In the name of God, the Almighty, the Merciful. 108:1 We have given you plenty.
Muhammad Asad	In the name of God, The Most Gracious, The Dispenser of Grace: 108:1 BEHOLD, We have bestowed upon thee good in abundance: ¹
Rashad Khalifa	In the name of GOD, Most Gracious, Most Merciful. 108:1 We have blessed you with many a bounty.
Shabbir Ahmed	BISMILLAH-IR-RAHMAN-IR-RAHEEM With the Glorious Name of God, the Ultimate Source of Instant Beneficence and Eternal mercy Who encompasses the entire Universe, nourishing and taking care of all things for what they are meant to be; just as a mother's womb nourishes the embryo to completion without any returns. 108:1 Indeed, We have bestowed upon you Abundant Good. ¹
Transliteration	Bismi Allāhi alRrahmāni alRrahēemi 108:1 Inna aAAāyina kaalkawthara
A	بسم الله الرحمن الرحيم 108:1 انا اعطيتك الكوثر
Edip-Layth	108:2 Therefore, you shall reach out to your Lord, and devote yourself.
The Monotheist Group	108:2 Therefore, you shall commune to your Lord and slaughter.
Muhammad Asad	108:2 hence, pray unto thy Sustainer [alone], and sacrifice [unto Him alone].
Rashad Khalifa	108:2 Therefore, you shall pray to your Lord (Salat), and give to charity.

Shabbir Ahmed	108:2 Therefore, follow the commands of your Lord and convey them to others so that they might follow as well. And sacrifice your comfort for the welfare of the community. ²
Transliteration	108:2 Faṣalli lirabbika wainḥar
A	108:2 فصل لربك وانحر
Edip-Layth	108:3 Indeed your rival will be the loser.
The Monotheist Group	108:3 Indeed your rival will be the loser.
Muhammad Asad	108:3 Verily, he that hates thee has indeed been cut off [from all that is good]! ²
Rashad Khalifa	108:3 Your opponent will be the loser.
Shabbir Ahmed	108:3 Surely, it is your opponent that will be cutting himself off from the Abundant Good.
Transliteration	108:3 Inna shāni-aka huwa al-abtaru
A	108:3 ان شانئك هو الابتر

<< Prev 108:1-3 Next >>

Return to top

End Notes

Muhammad Asad - The Message Of Quran

Muhammad Asad - End Note 1 (108:1)

The term kawthar is an intensive form of the noun kathrah (Zamakhshari), which, in its turn, denotes "copiousness", "multitude" or "abundance"; it also occurs as an adjective with the same connotation (Qamus, Lisan al-Arab, etc.). In the above context, which is the sole instance of its use in the Qur'an, al-kawthar obviously relates to the abundant bestowal on the Prophet of all that is good in an abstract, spiritual sense, like revelation, knowledge, wisdom, the doing of good works, and dignity in this world and in the hereafter (Razi); with reference to the believers in general, it evidently signifies the ability to acquire knowledge, to do good works, to be kind towards all living beings, and thus to attain to inner peace and dignity.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 2 (108:3)

Lit., "it is he that is cut off (abtar)". The addition, between brackets, of the phrase "from all that is good" is based on an explanation forthcoming from the Qamus.

Shabbir Ahmed -

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 1 (108:1)

The ever flowing stream of wisdom and knowledge in this Qur'an. 13:35, 14:2425

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 2 (108:2)

Sall = Follow closely. Nahr = Sacrifice = Sacrificing a camel = Sacrificing one's own comfort and resources for a noble cause

Best viewed using your own brain

Tested on 1024x768 resolution with  FIREFOX 2

Kitabun Marqum v0.6.7 - Kitabun Marqum - Quran Research Platform by QuraniX Team Copyright © 2002-2012 All rights reserved.
Copyrights of all translations belong to their respective authors.

2:2 This is the book in which there is no doubt, a guide for the conscientious.
 Edip-Layth (Quran: A Reformist Translation)

 Translations ▼

 Chapter/Verse ▼

 Refresh

 Search

<< Prev 109:1-6 Next >>

Edip-Layth	In the name of God, the Gracious, the Compassionate. 109:1 Say, "O ingrates,"
The Monotheist Group	In the name of God, the Almighty, the Merciful. 109:1 Say: "O rejecters,"
Muhammad Asad	In the name of God, The Most Gracious, The Dispenser of Grace: 109:1 SAY: "O you who deny the truth!
Rashad Khalifa	In the name of GOD, Most Gracious, Most Merciful. 109:1 Say, "O you disbelievers.
Shabbir Ahmed	BISMILLAH-IR-RAHMAN-IR-RAHEEM With the Glorious Name of God, the Ultimate Source of Instant Beneficence and Eternal mercy Who encompasses the entire Universe, nourishing and taking care of all things for what they are meant to be; just as a mother's womb nourishes the embryo to completion without any returns. 109:1 Say, "O You who deny the truth, and, thus, by remaining ungrateful to the Creator's Ultimate guidance, choose to live in darkness!
Transliteration	Bismi Allāhi alrraḥmāni alrraḥeemi 109:1 Qul ya ayyuha alkaḥiroona
A	بسم الله الرحمن الرحيم 109:1 قل يا ايها الكفرون
Edip-Layth	109:2 "I do not serve what you serve,"
The Monotheist Group	109:2 "I do not serve what you serve,"
Muhammad Asad	109:2 "I do not worship that which you worship,
Rashad Khalifa	109:2 "I do not worship what you worship.

Shabbir Ahmed	109:2 I do not worship what you worship. ¹
Transliteration	109:2 La aAAbudu ma taAAbudoona
A	109:2 لا اعبد ما تعبدون
Edip-Layth	109:3 "Nor do you serve what I serve,"
The Monotheist Group	109:3 "Nor do you serve what I serve,"
Muhammad Asad	109:3 and neither do you worship that which I worship! ¹
Rashad Khalifa	109:3 "Nor do you worship what I worship.
Shabbir Ahmed	109:3 Nor do you worship what I worship. ²
Transliteration	109:3 Wala antum AAabidoona maAAbudu
A	109:3 ولا انتم عبدون ما اعبد
Edip-Layth	109:4 "Nor will I serve what you serve,"
The Monotheist Group	109:4 "Nor will I serve what you serve,"
Muhammad Asad	109:4 "And I will not worship ~hat which you have [ever] worshipped,
Rashad Khalifa	109:4 "Nor will I ever worship what you worship.
Shabbir Ahmed	109:4 And I will never worship what you have ever worshiped.
Transliteration	109:4 Wala ana AAabidun maAAabadtum
A	109:4 ولا انا عابد ما عبدتم
Edip-Layth	109:5 "Nor will you serve what I serve,"
The Monotheist Group	109:5 "Nor will you serve what I serve,"
Muhammad Asad	109:5 and neither will you [ever] worship that which I worship. ²
Rashad Khalifa	109:5 "Nor will you ever worship what I worship.
Shabbir Ahmed	109:5 Nor (unless you acknowledge the truth) will you worship what I worship. ³
Transliteration	109:5 Wala antum AAabidoona maAAbudu
A	109:5 ولا انتم عبدون ما اعبد
Edip-Layth	109:6 "To you is your system, and to me is mine."
The Monotheist Group	109:6 "To you is your system, and to me is mine."
Muhammad Asad	109:6 Unto you, your moral law, and unto me, mine !" ³
Rashad Khalifa	109:6 "To you is your religion, and to me is my religion."
Shabbir Ahmed	109:6 For you your way, and to me my way." ⁴
Transliteration	109:6 Lakum deenukum waliya deen i

Return to top

End Notes

Shabbir Ahmed -

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 1 (109:2)

Neither your idols, nor your tenets, nor your moral values, way of life, nor your holy men or leaders

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 2 (109:3)

You do not subscribe to my Divinely revealed Ideology and System of Life

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 3 (109:5)

Our ways are apart and there is no room for compromise. falsehood remains falsehood even though it may compromise, but the truth cannot remain the truth when mixed up with falsehood. 'A half-truth is a whole-lie.'

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 4 (109:6)

Results will tell who was on the right track. 6:136, 10:41, 15:85, 42:15, 60:4, 73:10

Muhammad Asad - The Message Of Quran

Muhammad Asad - End Note 1 (109:3)

In the above rendering, the particle ma ("that which") alludes, on the one hand, to all positive concepts and ethical values - e.g., belief in God and the believer's self-surrender to Him - and, on the other, to false objects of worship and false values, such as man's belief in his own supposed "self-sufficiency" (cf. 96:6-7), or his overriding, almost compulsive "greed for more and more" (surah 102).

Muhammad Asad - End Note 2 (109:5)

Sc., "so long as you are unwilling to abandon the false values which cause you to deny the truth ".

Muhammad Asad - End Note 3 (109:6)

Lit., "unto me, my moral law". The primary significance of din is "obedience"; in particular, obedience to a law or to what is conceived as a system of established - and therefore binding - usages, i.e., something endowed with moral authority: hence "religion", "faith." or "religious law" in the widest sense of these terms (cf. first half of note 249 on 2:256); or simply "moral law", as in the above instance as well as in 42:21, 95:7, 98:5 or 107:1.

Best viewed using your own brain

Tested on 1024x768 resolution with  FIREFOX 2

Kitabun Marqum v0.6.7 - Kitabun Marqum - Quran Research Platform by QuraniX Team Copyright © 2002-2012 All rights reserved.
Copyrights of all translations belong to their respective authors.

2:2 This is the book in which there is no doubt, a guide for the conscientious.
 Edip-Layth (Quran: A Reformist Translation)

Translations ▼

Chapter/Verse ▼

Refresh

Search

Search

<< Prev 110:1-3 Next >>

Edip-Layth	In the name of God, the Gracious, the Compassionate. 110:1 When God's victory and conquest comes. ¹
The Monotheist Group	In the name of God, the Almighty, the Merciful. 110:1 When God's victory and conquest comes.
Muhammad Asad	In the name of God, The Most Gracious, The Dispenser of Grace: 110:1 WHEN GOD'S SUCCOUR comes, and victory,
Rashad Khalifa	In the name of GOD, Most Gracious, Most Merciful. 110:1 When triumph comes from GOD, and victory. ¹
Shabbir Ahmed	BISMILLAH-IR-RAHMAN-IR-RAHEEM With the Glorious Name of God, the Ultimate Source of Instant Beneficence and Eternal mercy Who encompasses the entire Universe, nourishing and taking care of all things for what they are meant to be; just as a mother's womb nourishes the embryo to completion without any returns. 110:1 When God's help and the Victory comes.
Transliteration	Bismi Allāhi alRrahmāni alRrahēemi 110:1 Itha jāa nasru Allāhiwaalfathu
A	بسم الله الرحمن الرحيم 110:1 اذا جاء نصر الله والفتح
Edip-Layth	110:2 You will see people entering into God's system in groups.
The Monotheist Group	110:2 And you see the people entering into God's system in flocks.
Muhammad Asad	110:2 and thou seest people enter God's religion ¹ in hosts,
Rashad Khalifa	110:2 You will see the people embracing GOD's religion in throngs.

Shabbir Ahmed	110:2 And you see the people enter God's Religion in throngs. ¹
Transliteration	110:2 Waraayta aInnaṣa yadkhuloonafee deeni Allāhi afwajan
A	110:2 ورأيت الناس يدخلون في دين الله أفواجا
Edip-Layth	110:3 You shall glorify your Lord's grace, and seek His forgiveness. He is the Redeemer.
The Monotheist Group	110:3 You shall glorify your Lord's grace, and seek His forgiveness. He is the Redeemer.
Muhammad Asad	110:3 extol thy Sustainer's limitless glory, and praise Him, and seek His forgiveness: for, behold, He is ever an acceptor of repentance. ²
Rashad Khalifa	110:3 You shall glorify and praise your Lord, and implore Him for forgiveness. He is the Redeemer.
Shabbir Ahmed	110:3 (Think not that your job is done.) Then strive hard to make the Divine System a living witness to the glory and praise of your Lord. And you shall remain vigilant to guard the System as a helmet guards the head. Indeed, He is ever Responsive to your efforts. ²
Transliteration	110:3 Fasabbiḥ biḥamdi rabbika waistaghfirhuinnahu kana tawwaban
A	110:3 فسبح بحمد ربك واستغفره انه كان توابا

<< Prev 110:1-3 Next >>

Return to top

End Notes

Edip-Layth - Quran: A Reformist Translation

Edip-Layth - End Note 1 (110:1)

This chapter consists of 19 words, and its first verse has 19 letters. See 48:28.

Rashad Khalifa - The Final Testament

Rashad Khalifa - End Note 1 (110:1)

This last sura, chronologically, consists of 19 Arabic words(see 96:1),and the first verse consists of 19 letters. This indicates that this generationof believers shall attain the promised victory. Submission (true Islam) willprevail throughout the world(48:28).

Muhammad Asad - The Message Of Quran

Muhammad Asad - End Note 1 (110:2)

I.e., the religion of self-surrender to God: cf. 3:19 - "the only [true] religion in the sight of God is [man's] self-surrender unto Him".

Muhammad Asad - End Note 2 (110:3)

Implying that even if people should embrace the true religion in great numbers, a believer ought not to grow self-complacent but should, rather, become more humble and more conscious of his own failings. Moreover, the Prophet is reported to have said, "Behold, people have entered God's religion in hosts - and in time they will leave it in hosts" (Ibn Hanbal, on the authority of Jabir ibn Abd Allah; a similar Tradition, on the authority of Abu Hurayrah, is found in the Mustadrak).

Shabbir Ahmed -

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 1 (110:2)

19:96

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 2 (110:3)

94:7-8

Best viewed using your own brain

Tested on 1024x768 resolution with  FIREFOX 2

Kitabun Marqum v0.6.7 - Kitabun Marqum - Quran Research Platform by QuraniX Team Copyright © 2002-2012 All rights reserved.
Copyrights of all translations belong to their respective authors.

2:2 This is the book in which there is no doubt, a guide for the conscientious.
 Edip-Layth (Quran: A Reformist Translation)

 Translations ▼

 Chapter/Verse ▼

 Refresh

 Search

<< Prev 111:1-5 Next >>

Edip-Layth	In the name of God, the Gracious, the Compassionate. 111:1 Condemned is the power of the flaming provocateur; condemned indeed. ¹
The Monotheist Group	In the name of God, the Almighty, the Merciful. 111:1 Condemned are the hands of the father of flame; condemned indeed.
Muhammad Asad	In the name of God, The Most Gracious, The Dispenser of Grace: 111:1 DOOMED are the hands of him of the glowing countenance: ¹ and doomed is he!
Rashad Khalifa	In the name of GOD, Most Gracious, Most Merciful. 111:1 Condemned are the works of Abee Lahab, and he is condemned. ¹
Shabbir Ahmed	BISMILLAH-IR-RAHMAN-IR-RAHEEM With the Glorious Name of God, the Ultimate Source of Instant Beneficence and Eternal mercy Who encompasses the entire Universe, nourishing and taking care of all things for what they are meant to be; just as a mother's womb nourishes the embryo to completion without any returns. 111:1 Perished is the power of Abi Lahab, and perished is he!
Transliteration	Bismi Allahi alrrahmani alrraheemi 111:1 Tabbat yad a abee lahabin watabba
A	بسم الله الرحمن الرحيم 111:1 تبت يدا ابي لهب وتب
Edip-Layth	111:2 His money will not avail him, nor what he has earned.
The Monotheist Group	111:2 His money will not avail him, nor what he has earned.
Muhammad Asad	111:2 What will his wealth avail him, and all that he has gained?

Rashad Khalifa	111:2 His money and whatever he has accomplished will never help him.
Shabbir Ahmed	111:2 His wealth and gains will avail him not! ¹
Transliteration	111:2 Ma aghna AAanhu maluhuwama kasaba
A	111:2 ما اغنى عنه ماله وما كسب
Edip-Layth	111:3 To a flaming fire he will be cast.
The Monotheist Group	111:3 He will be sent to a flaming fire.
Muhammad Asad	111:3 [In the life to come] he shall have to endure a fire fiercely glowing; ²
Rashad Khalifa	111:3 He has incurred the blazing Hell.
Shabbir Ahmed	111:3 He shall have to endure a fire blazing, glowing.
Transliteration	111:3 Sayasla naran thatalahabin
A	111:3 سيصلى نارا ذات لهب
Edip-Layth	111:4 His wife carrying the logs.
The Monotheist Group	111:4 And his wife who carries the logs.
Muhammad Asad	111:4 together with his wife, that carrier of evil tales, ³
Rashad Khalifa	111:4 Also his wife, who led the persecution.
Shabbir Ahmed	111:4 And his wife, that carrier of slanderous tales, the firewood hauler.
Transliteration	111:4 Waimraatuhu hammalata alhatabi
A	111:4 وامراته حمالة الحطب
Edip-Layth	111:5 With a twisted rope on her neck.
The Monotheist Group	111:5 On her neck will be a rope of thorns.
Muhammad Asad	111:5 [who bears] around her neck a rope of twisted strands! ⁴
Rashad Khalifa	111:5 She will be (resurrected) with a rope of thorns around her neck.
Shabbir Ahmed	111:5 Will have her neck ornamented with a rope of palm-fiber. ²
Transliteration	111:5 Fee jeediha hablun min masadin
A	111:5 فى جيدها حبل من مسد

<< Prev 111:1-5 Next >>

Return to top

Edip-Layth - Quran: A Reformist Translation

Edip-Layth - End Note 1 (111:1)

The expression Abu Lahab means the "father of flame" or provocateur. Traditional commentaries tie this description to Muhammad's uncle Abd al-Uzza bin Ab al-Muttalib. Even if the first person who was implied by this verse were Muhammad's uncle, the chapter by using a metaphor rather than a proper name, refers to all despots and their allies who oppress people because of their ideas and convictions. In this chapter, the wife has two different roles: either she is supplying more fuel for her husband in support of his bigoted campaign against muslims, or she is supplying fuel for her husband who is burning himself with flames of hatred. Some of the followers of the hadith and sunna, who consider the name to be only a proper name, present this chapter as evidence for the divinity of the Quran, by arguing that Abu Lahab could have falsified the Quran simply by professing Islam after hearing these verses about him. This assertion is the product of poor thinking. If the Quran was the product of Muhammad, Muhammad would never accept his conversion to Islam, and would continue condemning him with additional accusations, such as, him being a lying hypocrite. And Muhammad would be right (not necessarily in his claim of the origin of the Quran) regarding Abu Lahab, since he could never honestly acknowledge the truthfulness of a book condemning him to be a misguided loser; his conversion would create a contradiction. In other words, such a claim cannot be falsified, and thus cannot be used as an example of prophecies.

Muhammad Asad - The Message Of Quran

Muhammad Asad - End Note 1 (111:1)

The real name of this uncle of the Prophet was Abd al-Uzza. He was popularly nicknamed Abu Lahab (lit., "He of the Flame") on account of his beauty, which was most notably expressed in his glowing countenance (Baghawi, on the authority of Muqatil; Zamakhshari and Razi passim in their comments on the above verse; Fath al-Bari VIII, 599). Since this nickname, or kunyah appears to have been applied to him even before the advent of Islam, there is no reason to suppose that it had a pejorative significance. - The expression "hands" in the above clause is, in accordance with classical Arabic usage, a metonym for "power", alluding to the great influence which Abu Lahab wielded.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 2 (111:3)

The expression nar dhat lahab is a subtle play upon the meaning of the nickname Abu Lahab.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 3 (111:4)

Lit., "carrier of firewood", a well-known idiomatic expression denoting one who surreptitiously carries evil tales and slander from one person to another "so as to kindle the flames of hatred between them" (Zamakhshari ; see also Ikrimah, Mujahid and Qatadah, as quoted by Tabari). The woman's name was Arwa umm Jamil bint Harb ibn Umayyah; she was a sister of Abu Sufyan and, hence, a paternal aunt of Mu'awiyah, the founder of the Umayyad dynasty. Her hatred of Muhammad and his followers was so intense that she would often, under the cover of darkness, scatter thorns before the Prophet's house with a view to causing him hurt; and she employed her great eloquence in persistently slandering him and his message,

Muhammad Asad - End Note 4 (111:5)

The term masad signifies anything that consists of twisted strands, irrespective of the material (Qamus, Mughni, Lisan al-Arab). In the abstract sense in which it is evidently used here, the above phrase seems to have a double connotation: it alludes to the woman's twisted, warped nature, as well as to the spiritual truth that "every human being's destiny is tied to his neck" (see 17:13 and, in particular, the corresponding note 17) - which, together with verse 2, reveals the general, timeless purport of this surah.

Rashad Khalifa - The Final Testament

Rashad Khalifa - End Note 1 (111:1)

Abee Lahab was Muhammad's uncle and the leader of the opposition. His wife carried out a campaign of persecution against Muhammad and the believers. Like all descriptions of Heaven and Hell, the rope of thorns is an allegory.

Shabbir Ahmed -

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 1 (111:2)

69:27-28, 92:11, 96:7

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 2 (111:5)

17:13. Jeed = A neck decorated with an ornament. Here, we have a lesson that color, nationality, tribe, family, wealth, status etc have no bearing in the Divine System. The most honored in the sight of God is he who is best in conduct. 49:13

Best viewed using your own brain

Tested on 1024x768 resolution with  FIREFOX 2

Kitabun Marqum v0.6.7 - Kitabun Marqum - Quran Research Platform by QuraniX Team Copyright © 2002-2012 All rights reserved.

Copyrights of all translations belong to their respective authors.

2:2 This is the book in which there is no doubt, a guide for the conscientious.
 Edip-Layth (Quran: A Reformist Translation)

 Translations ▼

 Chapter/Verse ▼

 Refresh

 Search

<< Prev 112:1-4 Next >>

Edip-Layth	In the name of God, the Gracious, the Compassionate. 112:1 Say, "He is God, the One," ¹
The Monotheist Group	In the name of God, the Almighty, the Merciful. 112:1 Say: "He is God, the One,"
Muhammad Asad	In the name of God, The Most Gracious, The Dispenser of Grace: 112:1 SAY: "He is the One God:
Rashad Khalifa	In the name of GOD, Most Gracious, Most Merciful. 112:1 Proclaim, "He is the One and only GOD.
Shabbir Ahmed	BISMILLAH-IR-RAHMAN-IR-RAHEEM With the Glorious Name of God, the Ultimate Source of Instant Beneficence and Eternal mercy Who encompasses the entire Universe, nourishing and taking care of all things for what they are meant to be; just as a mother's womb nourishes the embryo to completion without any returns. 112:1 Say, "He is God, the One! ¹
Transliteration	Bismi Allāhi alRrahmāni alRrahēemi 112:1 Qul huwa Allāhu aḥadun
A	بسم الله الرحمن الرحيم 112:1 قل هو الله احد
Edip-Layth	112:2 "God, the Absolute/First-cause,"
The Monotheist Group	112:2 "God, the Absolute,"
Muhammad Asad	112:2 "God the Eternal, the Uncaused Cause of All Being. ¹
Rashad Khalifa	112:2 "The Absolute GOD.

Shabbir Ahmed	112:2 God is Absolutely Independent. 2
Transliteration	112:2 Allahu alssamadu
A	112:2 الله الصمد
Edip-Layth	112:3 "Never did He beget, nor was He begotten,"
The Monotheist Group	112:3 "He does not beget, nor was He begotten,"
Muhammad Asad	112:3 "He begets not, and neither is He begotten;
Rashad Khalifa	112:3 "Never did He beget. Nor was He begotten.
Shabbir Ahmed	112:3 He begets not, nor is He begotten.
Transliteration	112:3 Lam yalid walam yoolad u
A	112:3 لم يلد ولم يولد
Edip-Layth	112:4 "None is equal to Him."
The Monotheist Group	112:4 "And there is none who are His equal."
Muhammad Asad	112:4 "and there is nothing that could be compared with Him.
Rashad Khalifa	112:4 "None equals Him."
Shabbir Ahmed	112:4 And there is absolutely none like Him."
Transliteration	112:4 Walam yakun lahu kufuwan a hadun
A	112:4 ولم يكن له كفوا احد

<< Prev 112:1-4 Next >>

Return to top

End Notes

Edip-Layth - Quran: A Reformist Translation

Edip-Layth - End Note 1 (112:1)

This chapter is called ikhlas (devotion), since all its verses are dedicated to God. In contradiction to many Biblical verses, such as John 14:28, polytheistic Christians wish to equate Jesus to God through the Trinity, a fiction written by the Nicene Conference in 325 AC. Their fictional character erratically oscillates between humanity and divinity, between 1/3 of godhead and the entire godhead. Nothing can be compared to God and nothing can be symbolically represented in proportion to God. From absurd premises, one can never get a sound conclusion. That is why, like other polytheists, Trinitarian Christians hate reason, and why they promote wishful thinking under the glorified word "faith." See 2:59; 3:18,45,51,55; 4:11,171,157; 5:72-79; 7:162; 17:36; 19:36.

Shabbir Ahmed -

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 1 (112:1)

He is Unique in His Essence and Attributes and He alone is the Sovereign Law-Giver in the Universe

Shabbir Ahmed - End Note 2 (112:2)

Samad = Absolute, Eternal, Unique, Self-sufficient Sustainer, Absolutely Independent, Perfect, the Uncaused Cause of all that exists

Muhammad Asad - The Message Of Quran

Muhammad Asad - End Note 1 (112:2)

This rendering gives no more than an approximate meaning of the term as-samad, which occurs in the Qur'an only once, and is applied to God alone. It comprises the concepts of Primary Cause and eternal, independent Being, combined with the idea that everything existing or conceivable goes back to Him as its source and is therefore, dependent on Him for its beginning as well as for its continued existence.

Muhammad Asad - End Note (112:4)

Best viewed using your own brain

Tested on 1024x768 resolution with  FIREFOX 2

Kitabun Marqum v0.6.7 - Kitabun Marqum - Quran Research Platform by QuraniX Team Copyright © 2002-2012 All rights reserved.
Copyrights of all translations belong to their respective authors.

2:2 This is the book in which there is no doubt, a guide for the conscientious.
 Edip-Layth (Quran: A Reformist Translation)

 Translations ▼

 Chapter/Verse ▼

 Refresh

 Search

<< Prev 113:1-5 Next >>

Edip-Layth	In the name of God, the Gracious, the Compassionate. 113:1 Say, "I seek refuge in the Lord of the dawn,"
The Monotheist Group	In the name of God, the Almighty, the Merciful. 113:1 Say: "I seek refuge with the Lord of the dawn,"
Muhammad Asad	In the name of God, The Most Gracious, The Dispenser of Grace: 113:1 SAY: "I seek refuge with the Sustainer of the rising dawn, ¹
Rashad Khalifa	In the name of GOD, Most Gracious, Most Merciful. 113:1 Say, "I seek refuge in the Lord of daybreak.
Shabbir Ahmed	BISMILLAH-IR-RAHMAN-IR-RAHEEM With the Glorious Name of God, the Ultimate Source of Instant Beneficence and Eternal mercy Who encompasses the entire Universe, nourishing and taking care of all things for what they are meant to be; just as a mother's womb nourishes the embryo to completion without any returns. 113:1 Say, "I seek refuge with the Lord of the Rising Dawn.
Transliteration	Bismi Allāhi alrah̄māni alrah̄eemi 113:1 Qul aAAooṭḥu birabbi alfalaqi
A	بسم الله الرحمن الرحيم 113:1 قل اعوذ برب الفلق
Edip-Layth	113:2 "From the evil of what He has created,"
The Monotheist Group	113:2 "From the evils among His creation,"
Muhammad Asad	113:2 "from the evil of aught that He has created,
Rashad Khalifa	113:2 "From the evils among His creations.

Shabbir Ahmed	113:2 From the evil aspects of created things.
Transliteration	113:2 Min sharri m a khalaq a
A	113:2 من شر ما خلق
Edip-Layth	113:3 "From the evil of darkness as it falls,"
The Monotheist Group	113:3 "And from the evil of darkness as it falls,"
Muhammad Asad	113:3 "and from the evil of the black darkness whenever it descends, ²
Rashad Khalifa	113:3 "From the evils of darkness as it falls.
Shabbir Ahmed	113:3 And from the evils of the darkness of Ignorance whenever and wherever it is encountered.
Transliteration	113:3 Wamin sharri gh asi qin i th awaqaba
A	113:3 ومن شر غاسق اذا وقب
Edip-Layth	113:4 "From the evil of those who whisper into the contracts and affairs,"
The Monotheist Group	113:4 "And from the evil of those who practice sorcery,"
Muhammad Asad	113:4 "and from the evil of all human beings bent on occult endeavours, ³
Rashad Khalifa	113:4 "From the evils of the troublemakers.
Shabbir Ahmed	113:4 And from the covert activities of people who try to put knots and complicate the simple.
Transliteration	113:4 Wamin sharri a ln affa th atifee alAAuqadi
A	113:4 ومن شر النفث في العقد
Edip-Layth	113:5 "From the evil of the envious when they envy."
The Monotheist Group	113:5 "And from the evil of the envious when they envy."
Muhammad Asad	113:5 "and from the evil of the envious when he envies." ⁴
Rashad Khalifa	113:5 "From the evils of the envious when they envy."
Shabbir Ahmed	113:5 And from the evil of the envious when he envies (and tries to harm)."
Transliteration	113:5 Wamin sharri h asidin i th a h asada
A	113:5 ومن شر حاسد اذا حسد

<< Prev 113:1-5 Next >>

Return to top

Muhammad Asad - The Message Of Quran

Muhammad Asad - End Note 1 (113:1)

The term al-falaq ("the light of dawn" or "the rising dawn") is often used tropically to describe "the emergence of the truth after [a period of] uncertainty" (Taj al-'Arus): hence, the appellation "Sustainer of the rising dawn" implies that God is the source of all cognition of truth, and that one's "seeking refuge" with Him is synonymous with striving after truth.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 2 (113:3)

I.e., the darkness of despair, or of approaching death. In all these four verses (2-5), the term "evil" (sharr) has not only an objective but also a subjective connotation - namely, fear of evil.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 3 (113:4)

Lit., "of those that blow (an-naффathat) upon knots": an idiomatic phrase current in pre-Islamic Arabia and, hence, employed in classical Arabic to designate all supposedly occult endeavours; it was probably derived from the practice of "witches" and "sorcerers" who used to tie a string into a number of knots while blowing upon them and murmuring magic incantations. The feminine gender of naffathat does not, as Zamakhshari and Razi point out, necessarily indicate "women", but may well relate to "human beings" (anfus, sing. nafs, a noun that is grammatically feminine). In his explanation of the above verse, Zamakhshari categorically rejects all belief in the reality and effectiveness of such practices, as well as of the concept of "magic" as such. Similar views have been expressed - albeit in a much more elaborate manner, on the basis of established psychological findings - by Muhammad Abduh and Rashid Rida (see Manar I, 398 ff.). The reason why the believer is enjoined to "seek refuge with God" from such practices despite their palpable irrationality is - according to Zamakhshari- to be found in the inherent sinfulness of such endeavours (see surah 2, note 84), and in the mental danger in which they may involve their author.

Muhammad Asad - End Note 4 (113:5)

I.e., from the effects - moral and social- which another person's envy may have on one's life, as well as from succumbing oneself to the evil of envy. In this connection, Zamakhshari quotes a saying of the Caliph Umar ibn Abd al-Aziz (called "the Second Umar" on account of his piety and integrity): "I cannot think of any wrongdoer (zalim) who is more likely to be the wronged one (mazlum) than he who envies another."

Best viewed using your own brain

Tested on 1024x768 resolution with  FIREFOX 2

Kitabun Marqum v0.6.7 - Kitabun Marqum - Quran Research Platform by QuraniX Team Copyright © 2002-2012 All rights reserved.
Copyrights of all translations belong to their respective authors.

2:2 This is the book in which there is no doubt, a guide for the conscientious.
 Edip-Layth (Quran: A Reformist Translation)

 Translations ▼

 Chapter/Verse ▼

 Refresh

 Search

<< Prev 114:1-6 Next >>

Edip-Layth	In the name of God, the Gracious, the Compassionate. 114:1 Say, "I seek refuge in the Lord of the people,"
The Monotheist Group	In the name of God, the Almighty, the Merciful. 114:1 Say: "I seek refuge with the Lord of the people,"
Muhammad Asad	In the name of God, The Most Gracious, The Dispenser of Grace: 114:1 SAY: "I seek refuge with the Sustainer of men,
Rashad Khalifa	In the name of GOD, Most Gracious, Most Merciful. 114:1 Say, "I seek refuge in the Lord of the people.
Shabbir Ahmed	BISMILLAH-IR-RAHMAN-IR-RAHEEM With the Glorious Name of God, the Ultimate Source of Instant Beneficence and Eternal mercy Who encompasses the entire Universe, nourishing and taking care of all things for what they are meant to be; just as a mother's womb nourishes the embryo to completion without any returns. 114:1 Say, "I seek refuge with the Lord of Mankind.
Transliteration	Bismi Allāhi alrrahmāni alrraḥeemi 114:1 Qul aAAoothu birabbi alnnasi
A	بِسْمِ اللَّهِ الرَّحْمَنِ الرَّحِيمِ 114:1 قُلْ اَعُوْذُ بِرَبِّ النَّاسِ
Edip-Layth	114:2 "The King of the people,"
The Monotheist Group	114:2 "The King of the people,"
Muhammad Asad	114:2 "the Sovereign of men,
Rashad Khalifa	114:2 "The King of the people.

Shabbir Ahmed	114:2 The King of mankind.
Transliteration	114:2 Maliki alInnasi
A	114:2 ملك الناس
Edip-Layth	114:3 "The god of people,"
The Monotheist Group	114:3 "The god of the people,"
Muhammad Asad	114:3 "the God of men,
Rashad Khalifa	114:3 "The god of the people.
Shabbir Ahmed	114:3 The God of mankind.
Transliteration	114:3 Ilahi alInnasi
A	114:3 اله الناس
Edip-Layth	114:4 "From the evil of the sneaky whisperer," ¹
The Monotheist Group	114:4 "From the evil of the sneaking whisperer,"
Muhammad Asad	114:4 "from the evil of the whispering, elusive tempter
Rashad Khalifa	114:4 "From the evils of sneaky whisperers.
Shabbir Ahmed	114:4 From the evil of the whispering desires that leaves in utter dejection.
Transliteration	114:4 Min sharri alwaswasi alkhannasi
A	114:4 من شر الوسواس الخناس
Edip-Layth	114:5 "Who whispers into the chests of the people,"
The Monotheist Group	114:5 "Who whispers into the chests of the people."
Muhammad Asad	114:5 "who whispers in the hearts of men" ¹
Rashad Khalifa	114:5 "Who whisper into the chests of the people.
Shabbir Ahmed	114:5 That whispers in the hearts of people.
Transliteration	114:5 Allathee yuwaswisu fee sudoori alInnasi
A	114:5 الذى يوسوس فى صدور الناس
Edip-Layth	114:6 "From among the Jinn and people."
The Monotheist Group	114:6 "From the Jinn and the people."
Muhammad Asad	114:6 "from all [temptation to evil by] invisible forces as well as men," ²
Rashad Khalifa	114:6 "Be they of the jinns, or the people."
Shabbir Ahmed	114:6 (And) from the hidden psyche that rationalizes the evil, as well as the temptations that come from people."
Transliteration	114:6 Mina aljinnati waalInnasi
A	114:6 من الجنة والناس

Return to top

End Notes

Edip-Layth - Quran: A Reformist Translation

Edip-Layth - End Note 1 (114:4)

See 7:116-117

Muhammad Asad - The Message Of Quran

Muhammad Asad - End Note 1 (114:5)

I.e., "Satan" in the widest meaning of this designation, as pointed out by Razi (quoted in surah 14, note 31).

Muhammad Asad - End Note 2 (114:6)

The above is perhaps the oldest Qur'anic mention of the term and concept of al-jinnah (synonymous with al-jinn), which has been tentatively explained in Appendix III. In the above context, the term probably denotes the intangible, mysterious forces of nature to which man's psyche is exposed, and which sometimes make it difficult for us to discern between right and wrong, However, in the light of this last verse of the last surah of the Qur'an it is also possible to conclude that the "invisible forces" from which we are told to seek refuge with God are the temptations to evil emanating from the blindness of our own hearts, from our gross appetites, and from the erroneous notions and false values that may have been handed down to us by our predecessors.

Best viewed using your own brain

Tested on 1024x768 resolution with  FIREFOX 2

Kitabun Marqum v0.6.7 - Kitabun Marqum - Quran Research Platform by QuraniX Team Copyright © 2002-2012 All rights reserved.
Copyrights of all translations belong to their respective authors.

